Licensing of persons to carry on establishments for massage

4.—(1) No person shall carry on an establishment for massage without a licence from the Licensing Officer authorising him to do so.

(2) An application for a licence shall be made in writing to the Licensing Officer.

(3) On receipt of an application for a licence, the Licensing Officer may require the applicant to furnish him with such additional information as he may require.

(4) After the receipt of an application for a licence and of any additional information that he may require, the Licensing Officer may issue a licence to the applicant to carry on an establishment for massage of the description and in the name and at the address specified in the application and may attach such conditions thereto as he may consider necessary for securing the due notification to him of any change in the name or private address of the licensee or in the treatment afforded or the nature of the business carried on at the establishment and generally for securing the proper conduct of the establishment.

(5) A licence shall not be renewable as of right and an application to renew a licence shall be treated as an application for a licence.

Restriction

5. No licence shall be issued —
- (a) to any person under the age of 21 years;
 - (b) to any person who is in the opinion of the Licensing Officer unsuitable to hold a licence;
 - (c) in respect of premises which are in the opinion of the Licensing Officer unsuitable for the purpose of an establishment for massage or in which the accommodation or provision for massage or special treatment is not reasonably adequate or suitable;
 - (d) in respect of any establishment for massage in which any curative massage or other curative treatment is or may be administered by any person who does not possess such technical qualification as may be necessary; or
 - (e) in respect of any establishment for massage which is being or is likely to be carried on in contravention of this Act or any rules made thereunder.

Security

6.—(1) The Licensing Officer may, before issuing a licence, require the applicant to give security, either in the form of a cash deposit or by entering into a bond, that the provisions of this Act and of the conditions of the licence shall be duly observed.

(2) Where an applicant is required to enter into a bond, the Licensing Officer may require not more than 2 sureties to enter into the bond with the applicant.

(3) Any sum deposited or bond entered into under this section shall be liable to forfeiture in whole or in part at the discretion of the Licensing Officer on revocation of the licence.

(4) Any person aggrieved by a forfeiture under this section may require the Licensing Officer to furnish to him within 7 days the reason for the forfeiture.

(5) Any person aggrieved by a forfeiture under this section may within 14 days of the furnishing to him of the reason for the forfeiture appeal by petition in writing to the Minister whose decision shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court.

Refusal and revocation of licence

7.—(1) The Licensing Officer may refuse any application for a licence and may revoke the licence of any person but the Licensing Officer shall within 7 days of the refusal or revocation inform the applicant for the licence or the licensee, as the case may be, in writing, of the refusal or revocation and the grounds for the refusal or revocation and stating that the applicant may appeal to the Minister.

(2) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Licensing Officer under this section may within 14 days of the notification of the grounds of the decision appeal by petition in writing to the Minister whose decision shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court.

(3) Where a licence has been revoked and either the licensee has not appealed or he has appealed and his appeal has been dismissed, the licensee shall at the request of the Licensing Officer deliver the licence to the Licensing Officer. If the licensee fails to deliver the licence to the Licensing Officer, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

Power to enter and inspect premises

8. The Licensing Officer or any officer duly authorised by him in writing in that behalf may enter and inspect any premises which are used or which the officer has reasonable cause to believe are to be used for the purposes of an establishment for massage and examine all books or other documents found in the premises and remove them for further examination.
