(14) Nothing in this section applies to any information lodged or deemed to be lodged with the Registrar before the date of commencement of section 2 of the Statutes (Miscellaneous Amendments) (No. 2) Act 2014 or prevents such information from being disclosed or from being made available for public inspection or access.

(15) Nothing in this section prevents the residential address that is lodged with the Registrar under this Act, or is transmitted to the Registrar by the Commissioner of National Registration under section 8A of the National Registration Act from —

- (a) the name of a proposed limited partnership; or
- (b) the name to which a limited partnership proposes to change its name.

(2) The Registrar may approve an application made under subsection (1) only if the Registrar is satisfied that —

- (a) the application is made in good faith; and
- (b) the name to be reserved is one in respect of which a limited partnership may be registered having regard to section 17A(1), (2) and (3).

(3) The Registrar must refuse to approve an application to reserve a name under subsection (1) as the name of a proposed limited partnership if the Registrar is satisfied that —

- (a) the name is for a limited partnership that is likely to be used for an unlawful purpose or for purposes prejudicial to public peace, welfare or good order in Singapore; or
- (b) it would be contrary to the national security or interest for the limited partnership to be registered.

Restrictions on registration of limited partnership names

17A.—(1) Except with the consent of the Minister or as provided in subsection (3), the Registrar must refuse to register a limited partnership under this Act under a name, or to approve a change of name of a limited partnership under section 17B to a name, which, in the opinion of the Registrar —

- (a) is undesirable;
- (b) is identical to the name of any other limited partnership, a limited liability partnership or a corporation, or to a registered business name;
- (c) is identical to a name that is reserved under section 17, section 16 of the Business Names Registration Act 2014, section 19(4) of the Limited Liability Partnerships Act (Cap. 163A) or section 27(12B) or 378(15) of the Companies Act (Cap. 50); or
- (d) is a name of a kind that the Minister has directed the Registrar, by notification in the Gazette, not to accept for registration.

(2) In addition to subsection (1), the Registrar must on or after the date of commencement of section 11 of the Statutes (Miscellaneous Amendments) (No. 2) Act 2014, except with the consent of the Minister, refuse to register a limited partnership under a name, or allow a limited partnership to change its name to a name, if —

- (a) it is identical to the name of a limited partnership that was cancelled or dissolved —

- (i) unless, in a case where the registration of the limited partnership was cancelled under section 14(1) or 19(4), a period of at least one year has passed after the date of cancellation; or
  - (ii) unless, in a case where notice was lodged with the Registrar that the limited partnership was dissolved under section 19(2), a period of at least one year has passed after the date of dissolution;
- (b) it is identical to the business name of a person whose registration and registration of that business name has been cancelled under the Business Names Registration Act 2014 or has ceased under section 22 of that Act, unless a period of at least one year has passed after the date of cancellation or cessation;
- (c) it is identical to the name of a company that was dissolved —
  - (i) unless, in a case where the company was dissolved following its winding up under Part X of the Companies Act, a period of at least 2 years has passed after the date of dissolution; or
  - (ii) unless, in a case where the company was dissolved following its name being struck off the register kept under the Companies Act under section 344 or 344A of that Act, a period of at least 6 years has passed after the date of dissolution;
- (d) it is identical to the name of a foreign company notice of the dissolution of which has been given to the Registrar of Companies under section 377(2) of the Companies Act, unless a period of at least 2 years has passed after the date of dissolution; or

(e) it is identical to the name of a limited liability partnership that was dissolved —

(i) unless, in a case where the limited liability partnership was dissolved following its winding up under section 30 of, and the Fifth Schedule to, the Limited Liability Partnerships Act (Cap. 163A), a period of at least 2 years has passed after the date of dissolution; or

(ii) unless, in a case where the limited liability partnership was dissolved following its name being struck off the register under section 38 of the Limited Liability Partnerships Act, a period of at least 6 years has passed after the date of dissolution.

(3) Despite subsection (1), the Registrar may, on or after the date of commencement of section 11 of the Statutes (Miscellaneous Amendments) (No. 2) Act 2014, register a limited partnership under —

(a) a name that is identical to the name of a foreign company registered under Division 2 of Part XI of the Companies Act —

(i) in respect of which notice was lodged under section 377(1) of the Companies Act that the foreign company has ceased to have a place of business in Singapore or ceased to carry on business in Singapore, if a period of at least 3 months has passed after the date of cessation; and

(ii) the name of which was struck off the register kept under the Companies Act under section 377(8), (9) or (10) of that Act, if a period of at least 6 years has passed after the date the name was so struck off; or

(b) a name that is identical to the name of a limited partnership in respect of which notice was lodged under section 19(1) that the limited partnership has ceased to carry on business, if a period of at least one year has passed after the date of cessation.

(4) Despite this section and section 17B, where the Registrar is satisfied that a limited partnership's name —

(a) is one that is not permitted to be registered under subsection (1)(a), (b) or (d);

(b) is one that is not permitted to be registered under subsection (2) until the expiry of the relevant period referred to in that subsection;

(c) is one that is permitted to be registered under subsection (3) only after the expiry of the relevant period referred to in that subsection;

(d) so nearly resembles the name of any other limited partnership, any limited liability partnership or corporation or any registered business name, as to be likely to be mistaken for it; or

(e) is one the use of which has been restrained by an injunction granted under the Trade Marks Act (Cap. 332), the Registrar may direct any general partner of the limited partnership to change the limited partnership's name, and that person must comply with the direction within 6 weeks after the date of the direction or such longer period as the Registrar may allow in any case.

(5) The Registrar's power under subsection (4) to direct any general partner of a limited partnership to change its name applies regardless of —

- (a) whether the limited partnership's name was registered through inadvertence or otherwise; or
- (b) when the limited partnership was registered in respect of the name.

(6) Any person may apply, in writing, to the Registrar to give a direction to any general partner of a limited partnership, on a ground referred to in subsection (4), to change the limited partnership's name.

(7) The Registrar is not to consider any application under subsection (6) to give a direction to a person on the ground referred to in subsection (4)(d) unless the Registrar receives the application within 12 months after the date the limited partnership was registered in respect of the name, or the date the change of the limited partnership's name was approved under section 17B.

(8) The Registrar may cancel the registration of a limited partnership if a general partner of the limited partnership fails to comply with a direction given under subsection (4).

(9) A person aggrieved by —

- (a) a direction of the Registrar under subsection (4);
or
- (b) the Registrar's refusal to give a direction to a person under subsection (4) following an application under subsection (6), may, within 30 days after being informed of the Registrar's direction or refusal, as the case may be, appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

(10) To avoid doubt, where the Registrar makes a direction under subsection (4) or the Minister makes a decision on an appeal under subsection (9), the Registrar or the Minister, as the case may be, must accept as correct any decision of the High Court to grant an injunction referred to in subsection (4)(e).

(11) In this section, “registered business name” has the same meaning as in section 2(1) of the Business Names Registration Act 2014.

Change of limited partnership name

17B.—(1) An application by a limited partnership to change the name under which it was registered is to be lodged with the Registrar.

(2) The requirements referred to in subsection (1) are that the partner or local manager referred to in

(a) stating the grounds on which the Registrar proposes to disclose and make available for public inspection the individual's residential address; and

(13) Where —

- (a) the Registrar discloses and makes available for public inspection the particulars of a partner's or local manager's residential address under subsection (8); or
