 - (i) unless, in a case where the company was dissolved following its winding up under Part X of the Companies Act, a period of at least 2 years has passed after the date of dissolution; or the Registrar may direct the person to change the person's registered business name, and the person must comply with the direction within 6 weeks after the date of the direction or such longer period as the Registrar may allow in any case.

(5) The Registrar's power under subsection (4) to direct a person to change the person's registered business name applies regardless of —

(4) If the Registrar grants the application under subsection (3), the registration of the person and the person's business name is to be treated as if it had not been cancelled or had not ceased, as the case may be.

(5) Subsection (4) does not prevent the person from being prosecuted and punished for an offence under section 35(1)(a).

Rectification by High Court

25.—(1) Where it appears to the High Court, as a result of evidence adduced before it by an applicant, that any particular recorded in the register is erroneous or defective, the High Court may, by order, direct the Registrar to rectify the register on such terms and conditions as seem to the High Court just and expedient.

(2) The Registrar must upon receipt of the High Court's order under subsection (1) rectify the register accordingly.

(3) An order of the High Court made under subsection (1) may require that a fresh document, showing the rectification, is to be filed by the applicant with the Registrar together with a copy of the order of the High Court, and a copy of the application for that order.

Rectification by Registrar on application

(3) In rectifying the register under subsection (2), the Registrar must not expunge any document from the register.

(4) The decision made by the Registrar on whether to rectify the register under subsection (2) is final.

Rectification or updating on Registrar's initiative

(3) The person notified under subsection (2) may deliver to the Registrar, not later than the date specified under subsection (2)(b), a written objection to the proposed rectification or updating of the register.

(4) The Registrar must not rectify or update the register if the Registrar receives a written objection under subsection (3) to the proposed rectification or updating by the date specified under subsection (2)(b), unless the Registrar is satisfied that the objection is frivolous or vexatious or has been withdrawn.

(5) The Registrar may rectify or update the register if the Registrar does not receive a written objection under subsection (3) by the date specified under subsection (2)(b).

(6) The Registrar may include such notation as the Registrar thinks fit in the register for the purposes of providing information relating to any error or defect in any particulars or document in the register, and may remove such notation if the Registrar is satisfied that it no longer serves any useful purpose.

(7) Despite anything in this section, the Registrar may, if the Registrar is satisfied that there is any error or defect in any particulars or document in the register, by notice in writing, request that the registered person to whom the particulars or document relates, or the registered person's authorised representative, take such steps within such time as the Registrar may specify to ensure that the error or defect is rectified.

Request for copy of notice of registration, etc.

using the electronic transaction system established under Part VIA of the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority Act (Cap. 2A).

(2) If the Registrar is satisfied that a transaction should be treated as having been carried out at some earlier date and time than the date and time which is reflected in the electronic transaction system, the Registrar may cause the electronic transaction system and the register to reflect such earlier date and time.

(3) The Registrar must keep a record whenever the electronic transaction system or the register is altered under subsection (2).

(4) In this section, “transaction”, in relation to the Registrar, means —

(5) Subsection (1) applies from the time at which the Registrar accepts an application to maintain an alternate address referred to in subsection (3)(a).

(6) An individual who maintains an alternate address under subsection (2) must ensure that the individual can be located at that address.

(7) An individual who fails to comply with subsection (6) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

(8) Despite subsection (1), the Registrar may disclose and make available for public inspection the particulars of an individual's residential address despite the maintenance of an alternate address under subsection (2) if —

(9) Before proceeding under subsection (8), the Registrar must give notice to the relevant individual —

- (a) stating the grounds on which the Registrar proposes to disclose and make available for public inspection the individual's residential address; and
- (b) specifying a period within which representations may be made before that is done.

(10) The Registrar is to consider the representations received within the specified period.

(11) Where the Registrar discloses and makes available for public inspection the particulars of an individual's residential address, the Registrar must give notice of that fact to the individual.

(12) A notice to an individual under subsection (9) or (11) is to be sent to the individual at his or her residential address unless it appears to the Registrar that service at that address may be ineffective to bring it to the individual's notice, in which case it may be sent to any other last known address of that individual.

(13) Where —

- (a) the Registrar discloses and makes available for public inspection the particulars of an individual's residential address under subsection (8); or
- (b) a Registrar appointed under another ACRA administered Act discloses and makes available for public inspection under that Act the particulars of an individual's residential address under a provision of that Act equivalent to subsection (8), that individual is not, for a period of 3 years after the date on which the residential address is disclosed and made available for public inspection, allowed to maintain an alternate address under subsection (2).

(14) Nothing in this section applies to any information transferred to the register from any previous register or prevents such information from being disclosed or from being made available for public inspection or access.

(15) Nothing in this section prevents the residential address that is lodged with the Registrar under this Act, or is transmitted to the Registrar by the Commissioner of National Registration under section 8A of the National Registration Act from —

- (a) being used by the Registrar for the purposes of any communication with the individual;
- (b) being disclosed for the purposes of issuing any summons or other legal process against the individual for the purposes of this Act or any other written law;

- (c) being disclosed in compliance with the requirement of any court or the provisions of any written law;
- (d) being disclosed for the purpose of assisting any public officer or officer of any statutory body in the investigation or prosecution of any offence under any written law; or

(16) Any individual aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar under subsection (8) may, within 30 days after the date of receiving the notice under subsection (11), appeal to the High Court which may confirm the decision or give such directions in the matter as seem proper or otherwise determine the matter.

(17) For the purposes of this section —

- (a) “ACRA administered Act” means the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority Act (Cap. 2A) and any of the written laws specified in the Second Schedule to that Act;
- (b) “previous register” means the register kept under the Business Registration Act (Cap. 32) repealed by this Act; and

(c) fails to lodge any notice required under section 19(1) or 20(1) or (3).

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), the defaulter may not enforce by action or other legal proceeding (whether in the business name or otherwise) any right under or arising out of any contract in relation to the business carried on by the defaulter under the business name if the contract was made or entered into by or on behalf of the defaulter at a time when —

(a) the defaulter was not registered as carrying on business under the business name;

(b) the defaulter's registration under the business name had been cancelled or had ceased, and has not been restored under section 24; or

(c) the defaulter was, in respect of the defaulter's registration under the business name, in breach of section 19(1) or 20(1) or (3).

(3) A defaulter under subsection (2)(b) is not prevented from enforcing any right referred to in subsection (2) if the defaulter's registration under the business name is restored under section 24.

(4) The defaulter may apply to the court for relief against the disability imposed by this section.

(5) The court, on being satisfied —

(a) that the default was accidental or due to inadvertence or some other sufficient reason; or

(b) that on other grounds it is just and equitable to grant relief, may grant such relief either generally, or as respects any particular contract, on such conditions (if any) as the court may impose.

(6) This section does not prejudice the rights of any other party as against the defaulter in respect of a contract mentioned in subsection (2).

(7) If any action or proceedings is commenced by any party against the defaulter to enforce the rights of the party in respect of a contract referred to in subsection (2), this section does not prevent the defaulter from enforcing in that action or proceedings, by way of counter-claim, set-off or otherwise, such rights as the defaulter may have against that party in respect of that contract.

(8) In this section, “court” means any court before which proceedings to enforce a contract referred to in subsection (2) are commenced or before which an issue relating to subsection (2) arises.
