PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Intoxicating Substances Act.

Interpretation

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires —
  - “approved centre” means any place or premises declared by the Minister to be an approved centre under section 18;
  - “article liable to seizure” means anything by means of or in respect of which an offence under this Act has been committed or which contains evidence of an offence under this Act;
  - “Director” means the Director of the Central Narcotics Bureau appointed under section 3 (1) of the Misuse of Drugs Act (Cap. 185) and includes the Deputy Director of the Bureau;
  - “Director of Prisons” means the Director of Prisons appointed under section 20 of the Prisons Act (Cap. 247);
  - “Health Sciences Authority” means the Health Sciences Authority established under the Health Sciences Authority Act 2001 (Act 4 of 2001);
  - “inmate” means a person who is detained in an approved centre;
  - “intoxicating substance” means any substance having the property of releasing toxic vapours or fumes which contain any chemical compound specified in the Schedule and which when inhaled induces or causes a state of intoxication;
  - “officer of the Bureau” means the Director or any officer of the Central Narcotics Bureau;
  - “police officer” has the same meaning as in the Police Force Act (Cap. 235) and, in relation to a person who is subject to military law under the Singapore Armed Forces Act (Cap. 295), includes a military policeman as defined in section 2 of that Act;

“prison officer” has the same meaning as in the Prisons Act (Cap. 247);

“Review Committee”, in relation to any approved centre, means the Review Committee appointed for the approved centre under section 20;

“special police officer” means a member of the Special Constabulary constituted under Part VIII of the Police Force Act (Cap. 235);

“supervision order” means an order in writing by the Director made under section 16;

“supervision period” means the period for which a person is placed under supervision pursuant to a supervision order made under section 16;

“supply”, with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions, includes having possession for the purpose of supply.

[8/2000; 4/2001]

PART II

OFFENCES RELATING TO INTOXICATING SUBSTANCES

Offence of misuse of intoxicating substances

3.—(1) No person shall, for the purpose of inducing or causing in himself a state of intoxication, use or inhale any intoxicating substance.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

Offence of supply of intoxicating substances

4.—(1) No person shall sell or supply or offer to sell or supply an intoxicating substance to any person if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the intoxicating substance is, or its fumes are, likely to be used or inhaled in contravention of section 3 (1) by the person to whom the substance is sold or supplied or by another person.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

General powers to call for information as to intoxicating substances

5.—(1) The Director may require any person who, in the course of conducting a business, sells or supplies or offers to sell or supply any intoxicating substance to produce such documents, to answer such questions and to furnish such information as he may consider necessary for the effective exercise of his powers and performance of his duties under this Act.

(2) Any such requisition shall be made in writing served on the person to whom it is addressed, and any such service shall be good service if the requisition —

- (a) is left with that person, or is left with any adult at the usual or last known place of residence or business of that person; or
- (b) is served on that person by post at his usual or last known place of residence or business.

(3) Every person required to produce any document, answer any question or furnish any information shall produce the document, answer the question or furnish the information within such time as may be stated in the requisition.

(4) Any person required to produce any document, answer any question or furnish any information under this section who —

- (a) fails without lawful excuse to comply with any requisition under this section;
- (b) produces any document which is false in any material particular, or has not been given or made by the person by whom it purports to have been given or made, or has been in any way altered or tampered with; or
- (c) makes any declaration, statement or representation which is false in a material particular,

shall be guilty of an offence.

PART III

EVIDENCE AND ENFORCEMENT

Protection of informers

6.—(1) Except as provided in subsection (3) —

- (a) no information for an offence under this Act shall be admitted in evidence in any civil or criminal proceedings; and
- (b) no witness in any civil or criminal proceedings shall be obliged —
  - (i) to disclose the name and address of any informer who has given information with respect to an offence under this Act; or
  - (ii) to answer any question if the answer thereto would lead, or would tend to lead, to the discovery of the name or address of the informer.

(2) If any book, document or paper which is in evidence or liable to inspection in any civil or criminal proceedings contain any entry in which any informer is named or described or which may lead to his discovery, the court shall cause those entries to be concealed from view or to be obliterated so far as may be necessary to protect the informer from discovery.

(3) If —

- (a) in any proceedings before a court for an offence under this Act, the court, after full inquiry into the case, is satisfied that an informer wilfully made a material statement which he knew or believed to be false or did not believe to be true; or
- (b) in any other proceedings, the court is of the opinion that justice cannot be fully done between the parties thereto without the disclosure of the name of an informer, the court may permit inquiry and require full disclosure concerning the informer.

Powers of arrest

7.—(1) Any officer of the Bureau, police officer or special police officer may arrest without warrant any person who has committed or whom the officer reasonably suspects to have committed an offence under this Act.

(2) Any person arrested under subsection (1) shall, together with any article liable to seizure, be taken to the Central Narcotics Bureau or a police station and may be searched.

(3) No woman shall be searched under this Part except by another woman and with strict regard to decency.

(4) An officer making an arrest under this section may seize and detain any article liable to seizure.

Powers of search and seizure

8.—(1) Any officer of the Bureau, police officer or special police officer may at any time —

- (a) without a warrant enter and search any place or premises in which he reasonably suspects that there is to be found any article liable to seizure;
- (b) search any person found in that place or premises; and
- (c) seize and detain any article liable to seizure found in that place or premises.

(2) For the purpose of exercising his power under this section, an officer may, with such assistance as he considers necessary, break open any door, window, lock, fastener, floor, wall, ceiling, compartment, box, container or any other thing.

Obstruction of search

9. Any person who —

- (a) obstructs any officer of the Bureau, police officer or special police officer in the exercise of any power under this Act; or
- (b) fails to comply with any lawful requirement of any officer of the Bureau, police officer or special police officer in the execution of his duty under this Act, shall be guilty of an offence.

Forfeiture

10.—(1) Where anything is seized under this Act, the officer who carried out the seizure shall immediately give notice in writing of the seizure to the owner of that thing, if known, either by delivering the notice personally to him or by post at his place of residence, if known.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) shall not be required to be given where the seizure is made in the presence of the offender or the owner or his agent.

(3) An order for the forfeiture of any article liable to seizure shall be made if it is proved to the satisfaction of a court that an offence under this Act has been committed and that such article was the subject-matter of or was used in the commission of the offence notwithstanding that no person may have been convicted of that offence.

(4) If there is no prosecution with regard to any article seized under this Act, that article shall be deemed to be forfeited at the expiration of one month from the date of seizure thereof unless a claim thereto has been made before that date in such manner as may be prescribed.

Disposal of things forfeited

11. All things which are forfeited to the Government under this Act shall be disposed of in such manner as the Minister thinks fit.

Powers of investigation of officers of Bureau

12. In any case relating to the commission of an offence under this Act, an officer of the Bureau shall have all the powers of a police officer under the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68) in relation to an investigation into a seizable offence.

Blood tests

13.—(1) Any officer of the Bureau, police officer, special police officer, or the officer-in-charge of an approved centre may require any person who has used or inhaled, or is reasonably suspected to have used or inhaled, any intoxicating substance for the purpose of inducing or causing a state of intoxication to provide to a registered medical practitioner a specimen of his blood for a laboratory test.

(2) A person shall not be required to provide a specimen of his blood for a laboratory test under subsection (1) if the registered medical practitioner in immediate charge of his case objects to the provision of such specimen on the ground that it would be prejudicial to the proper care or treatment of that person.

(3) A person who without reasonable excuse fails to provide a specimen of his blood for a laboratory test in pursuance of a requirement imposed under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months.

(4) Any officer of the Bureau, police officer or special police officer, or the officer-in-charge of an approved centre shall, on requiring any person under this section to provide a specimen of blood for a laboratory test, warn him that failure to provide a specimen of blood may make him liable to a fine or imprisonment, and, if such officer fails to do so, the court before which the person is charged with an offence under subsection (3) may dismiss the charge.

(5) For the purposes of any proceedings for an offence under section 3, a certificate purporting to be signed by a registered medical practitioner that he took a specimen of blood from a person with his consent shall be evidence of the matters so certified and of the qualifications of the registered medical practitioner.

(6) The certificate referred to in subsection (5) shall not be accepted as evidence for the prosecution unless a copy thereof had been served on the accused not less than 7 days before the hearing.

(7) For the purposes of this section, the consent of a person who has attained the age of 16 years to providing a specimen of blood in pursuance of a requirement imposed under subsection (1) shall be effective as it would be if he were of full age.

(8) Where the person referred to in subsection (7) has, by virtue of that subsection, given an effective consent, it shall not be necessary to obtain any consent from his parent or guardian in respect of him providing the specimen of blood.

Presumption of misuse of intoxicating substance

14. A person shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to have used or inhaled any intoxicating substance for the purpose of inducing or causing in himself a state of intoxication if the specimen of blood provided by him under section 13 is certified by an analyst employed by the Health Sciences Authority to contain an amount of any chemical compound specified in the first column of the Schedule in excess of the amount specified in the second column thereof in relation to that chemical compound.

Analyst's certificate

15.—(1) A certificate purporting to be signed by an analyst employed by the Health Sciences Authority and purporting to relate to any chemical compound specified in the Schedule shall be admitted in evidence, in any proceedings for an offence under this Act, on its production by the prosecution without proof of signature and, until the contrary is proved, that certificate shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein.

(2) The certificate under subsection (1) shall not be accepted as evidence for the prosecution unless a copy thereof had been served on the accused not less than 7 days before the hearing.

[4/2001]

PART IV

TREATMENT AND REHABILITATION

Supervision

16.—(1) If as a result of a blood test under section 13, it appears to the Director that the person who supplied the specimen of blood for the blood test has used or inhaled any intoxicating substance in contravention of section 3 and that it is necessary for that person to be subject to supervision, the Director may make a supervision order requiring that person to be subject to the supervision of an officer of the Bureau or a person appointed by the Director for that purpose for a supervision period not exceeding 12 months.

(2) The Director may make a supervision order requiring a person who has been discharged from an approved centre under section 21 to be subject to the supervision of an officer of the Bureau or a person appointed by the Director for that purpose for a supervision period not exceeding 12 months.

(3) A supervision order made under subsection (1) or (2) may require the person subject to the supervision order to comply during the whole or any part of the supervision period with such requirements as to residence and any other requirements as the Director, having regard to the circumstances of the case, considers necessary for securing the good conduct of such person.

(4) Any person who wilfully fails to comply with any requirement in the supervision order referred to in subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

Treatment and rehabilitation

17.—(1) If at any time during or after the supervision period a person who is or has been subject to a supervision order is arrested under section 7 on the ground that the person is reasonably suspected to have committed an offence under section 3, the Director may, having regard to the result of a medical examination or observation or a blood test under section 13 and, where applicable, a report of the supervising officer in relation to the person concerned, if it appears to the Director that it is necessary for that person to undergo treatment and rehabilitation at an approved centre, by order in writing direct the person to be admitted to an approved centre and detained there for a period not exceeding 6 months.

(2) An approved centre may admit any person —

- (a) who uses or inhales any intoxicating substance for the purpose of inducing or causing a state of intoxication; or
- (b) under the age of 21 years who uses or inhales any intoxicating substance for the purpose of inducing or causing a state of intoxication on the application made by either parent of such person or by his guardian or by any person for the time being having the custody or control of such person, for voluntary treatment and rehabilitation on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) Every person who is admitted to an approved centre under subsection (2) shall not be detained therein for a period exceeding 6 months.

(4) Any statement made by a person admitted to an approved centre under subsection (2) for the purpose of undergoing treatment and rehabilitation shall not be admissible in evidence against him in respect of any subsequent prosecution for an offence under this Act.

(5) If the Review Committee of an approved centre is of the opinion that an inmate of that centre whose period of detention therein is about to expire requires further treatment or rehabilitation or both, the Committee may by order in writing direct that the inmate be detained in the centre for a further period or periods not exceeding 3 months at any one time.

(6) No person in respect of whom an order has been made under subsection (1) shall be detained in an approved centre or centres for a period of more than 12 months after his admission to any approved centre pursuant to such order.

(7) In this section, “supervising officer” means an officer of the Bureau or a person appointed by the Director under section 16 who is charged with the responsibility for the supervision of the person brought before the Director under subsection (1).

Approved centres

18. The Minister may from time to time, by notification in the Gazette, declare any place or premises to be an approved centre for the purpose of the treatment and rehabilitation of persons who use or inhale intoxicating substances for the purpose of inducing or causing a state of intoxication and may at any time in like manner revoke or amend any such notification.

Administration of approved centres

19.—(1) Subject to the directions of the Minister, the general charge and administration of —

- (a) approved centres, except those designated under paragraph (b), shall be under the Director of Prisons; and
- (b) such approved centres as the Minister may designate shall be under such person as the Minister may appoint.

[20/98]

(2) The Director of Prisons or the person appointed under subsection (1) (b), as the case may be, may appoint a person to be the officer-in-charge of an approved centre and such person shall be responsible for the supervision and administration of that approved centre.

[20/98]

(3) Subject to such modifications as may be made by the Director of Prisons, the standing orders issued under the Prisons Act (Cap. 247) shall apply to an approved centre under the charge of the Director of Prisons as they apply to a prison.

[20/98]

(4) The person appointed under subsection (1) (b) may in writing issue orders, to be called standing orders, for the approved centres designated under his charge.

[18A
[20/98]

Review Committees for approved centres

20.—(1) The Minister shall appoint for any approved centre or centres a Review Committee which shall have such functions as are conferred upon it by this Act.

(2) Every Review Committee shall consist of a Chairman, who shall be a person registered under the Medical Registration Act (Cap. 174), and 5 other members.

(3) The Chairman and members of a Review Committee shall be appointed by the Minister for a term not exceeding 3 years, but may —

- (a) from time to time be reappointed;
- (b) at any time be removed from office by the Minister; or
- (c) at any time resign from their office in writing addressed to the Minister.

(4) Three members of the Review Committee shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Committee.

(5) The Chairman shall preside at every meeting of the Review Committee at which he is present and in his absence the members present shall elect one of their number to preside at the meeting.

(6) Every question before the Review Committee shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting thereon, and in the event of an equality of votes the Chairman or the member presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his original vote.

(7) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Review Committee may determine its own procedure.

(8) Any order of the Review Committee may be signed by the Chairman or a member of the Committee.

Review, discharge and transfer of inmates

21.—(1) The Review Committee of an approved centre shall keep the case of every inmate under review and shall, as often as practicable, consider whether he should be discharged.

(2) Notwithstanding any order made under section 17, the Director or the Review Committee of an approved centre may at any time by order in writing —

- (a) discharge any inmate; or
- (b) transfer any inmate from one approved centre to another approved centre.

(3) The officer-in-charge of an approved centre may enter into an arrangement with the officer-in-charge of another approved centre for the transfer of any inmate to that other approved centre and may, subject to any direction given by the Director or the Review Committee, carry out any transfer in accordance with that arrangement, except that the whole period of detention for which the inmate was admitted to such approved centre shall not be increased by the transfer.

(4) On proof to his satisfaction that the presence at any place of an inmate is required in the interests of justice, or for the purpose of any inquiry, or in the public interest or in the interest of the inmate, the officer-in-charge of the relevant approved centre may order that the inmate be taken to that place.

Power of Magistrate to inquire into complaints of misconduct or breach of duty

22.—(1) Where a complaint is made on oath to a Magistrate that any person is improperly detained in an approved centre by reason of any misconduct or breach of duty on the part of any officer in the discharge of his functions pursuant to this Act, the Magistrate may —

- (a) inquire into the complaint himself; or
- (b) direct a police officer to make an inquiry for the purpose of ascertaining the truth or falsehood of the complaint and report to the Magistrate the result of the inquiry.

(2) Every inquiry under subsection (1) shall be conducted in private, except that the procedure for conducting any inquiry shall be such as the Magistrate considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(3) A Magistrate or a police officer conducting any inquiry under subsection (1) shall have all the powers conferred on him by the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68) in relation to the attendance and examination of witnesses, the taking of evidence and the production of documents.

(4) If, after considering the result of any such inquiry, the Magistrate is satisfied that any person who is detained in an approved centre ought not to be so detained, the Magistrate may make an order for the discharge of that person from the approved centre and that person shall be discharged accordingly.

(5) Any order or decision of the Magistrate made under this section shall be final.

(6) No evidence taken for the purpose of any such inquiry shall be admissible in any civil or criminal proceedings, except where the person who gave such evidence is charged with giving or fabricating false evidence.

Inmates deemed to be in legal custody

23.—(1) Every inmate shall be deemed to be in the legal custody of the approved centre in which he is for the time being detained.

(2) An inmate shall be deemed to be in legal custody —

- (a) while he is confined in, or is being taken to or from, an approved centre;
- (b) while he is for any other reason outside an approved centre in the custody or under the control of the officer-in-charge of the approved centre; or
- (c) while he is being taken to any place to which he is required or authorised by or under this Act to be taken, or is kept in custody in pursuance of any such requirement or authorisation.

Use of weapons

24.—(1) Subject to this section, a prison officer may use any weapon against —

- (a) any inmate of any approved centre escaping or attempting to escape;
- (b) any person who does any act or attempts to do any act to facilitate the escape of an inmate of any approved centre; or
- (c) any person engaged in any attempt to damage or force or break open —
  - (i) the outside door or gate or enclosure wall of any approved centre or any other part of an approved centre; or
  - (ii) any part of any vehicle in which an inmate is conveyed.

[8/2000]

(2) A prison officer may use any weapon against —

- (a) any inmate of any approved centre engaged in any combined outbreak; and
- (b) any person engaged in any attempt to damage or force or break open —
  - (i) the outside door or gate or enclosure wall of any approved centre or any other part of an approved centre; or
  - (ii) any part of any vehicle in which an inmate is conveyed,

and may continue to use the weapon so long as the combined outbreak or attempt is actually being prosecuted.

[8/2000]

(3) Every prison officer may use weapons against an inmate of any approved centre using violence against any prison officer or other person, if the prison officer has reasonable ground to believe that the prison officer or other person is in danger of life or limb, or that other grievous hurt is likely to be caused to either of them.

[8/2000]

(4) A prison officer shall not resort to the use of any weapon under subsection (1) unless the officer has reasonable ground to believe that he cannot otherwise prevent the escape of any inmate.

[8/2000]

(5) Before using any firearm against an inmate or other person referred to in subsection (1), the prison officer shall give a warning to the inmate or that other person, as the case may be, that he is about to fire on him.

[8/2000]

(6) No prison officer shall, in the presence of his superior officer, use any firearm against an inmate or other person in the circumstances described in subsection (1) or (2) except under the orders of his superior officer.

[8/2000]

(7) The use of weapons under this section shall be, as far as possible, to disable and not to kill.

[8/2000]

(8) Every police officer who is for the time being serving in the capacity of an escort, or of a guard in or around any approved centre, for the purpose of ensuring the safe custody of any inmate, shall be deemed to have all the powers and privileges granted to a prison officer under this section.

[22A

Employment of auxiliary police officers as escorts and guards

25.—(1) For the purpose of assisting him in the discharge of his duties under this Act, the Director of Prisons may employ such numbers of auxiliary police officers as he considers fit as escorts or guards to ensure the safe custody of the inmates who are under his custody while the inmates are transported to, or from, any approved centre and while the inmates are at any place outside an approved centre.

[8/2000]

(2) An inmate who is delivered into the custody of an auxiliary police officer under this section shall be deemed to be in legal custody within the meaning of section 23.

[8/2000]

(3) Every auxiliary police officer who is employed as an escort or a guard under subsection (1) shall, in the course of carrying out his duties as an escort or a guard, have the same powers as a prison officer under section 24.

[8/2000]

(4) Every auxiliary police officer employed under subsection (1) shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Penal Code (Cap. 224).

[8/2000]

(5) For the purpose of this section, “auxiliary police officer” means a member of the Auxiliary Police Force established under section 12 of the Commercial and Industrial Security Corporation Act (Cap. 47) or a member of an auxiliary police force established under any other written law.

[22B
/8/2000]

Escape from legal custody of approved centre

26.—(1) Any inmate who —

- (a) while undergoing treatment and rehabilitation in an approved centre escapes from the legal custody thereof;
- (b) while he is outside an approved centre escapes from the legal custody or control of an officer-in-charge of an approved centre; or
- (c) while he is otherwise in the legal custody of any other person escapes from the legal custody thereof, shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who —

- (a) knowingly assists, directly or indirectly, any inmate of an approved centre to escape therefrom;
- (b) induces any such inmate so to escape; or
- (c) knowing that any inmate has escaped from an approved centre, harbours or conceals, or assists in harbouring or concealing that inmate or causes or induces him not to return to such approved centre, shall be guilty of an offence.

COMMITTEE OF INQUIRY

Committee of inquiry

27.—(1) Where it is expedient that the Minister, or such other person as the Minister may appoint to exercise the powers conferred upon the Minister by sections 28, 35 and 37, should be informed on any matter connected with the discipline, administration or functions of any approved centre or affecting any inmate, the Minister or the person appointed by the Minister may convene a committee of inquiry.

[8/2000]

(2) A committee of inquiry shall inquire into and report on the facts relating to any matter referred to it and, if directed by the Minister to do so, express its opinion on any question arising out of any such matter.

[8/2000]

(3) In this section and in sections 28, 35 and 37, “Minister” includes the person appointed by the Minister under subsection (1) to act on his behalf for the purposes of this section and sections 28, 35 and 37.

[23A

[8/2000]

Composition of committee of inquiry

28.—(1) A committee of inquiry shall consist of one or more persons who shall be appointed by the Minister.

[8/2000]

(2) Where a committee of inquiry consists of more than one person, the Minister shall appoint one of the members to be the chairman.

[8/2000]

(3) Where a committee of inquiry consists of one member only, he shall be vested with the powers of a chairman.

[8/2000]

(4) Every member of a committee of inquiry appointed under this section shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Penal Code (Cap. 224).

[23B

[8/2000]

Powers of committee of inquiry

29. A committee of inquiry may —

- (a) summon any person to give evidence on oath or on affirmation or to produce any document or material necessary for the purpose of the inquiry; and
- (b) visit any place in order to inquire into any matter which may arise in the course of the inquiry.

[23C

[8/2000]

Disobedience to summons

30.—(1) A person who is summoned to give evidence before a committee of inquiry shall not, without lawful excuse, fail to appear in obedience to the summons.

[8/2000]

(2) A person who is required by a committee of inquiry to produce any document or material for the purpose of the inquiry shall not, without lawful excuse, fail to produce the document or material.

[8/2000]

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[23D

[8/2000]

Refusal to give evidence

31.—(1) A person who appears before a committee of inquiry shall not, without lawful excuse, refuse to be sworn or to make an affirmation, or to produce any document or material, or to answer any question, which he is lawfully required to produce or answer.

[8/2000]

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[23E

[8/2000]

[23F

[8/2000]

Evidence and procedure

33. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, a committee of inquiry shall not be bound by the rules of evidence and may act in such manner as the committee of inquiry thinks most expedient.

[23G

[8/2000]

Admissibility of evidence

34. No statement made in the course of any inquiry and no report of a committee of inquiry shall be admissible as evidence in proceedings other than proceedings, whether criminal or disciplinary, for an offence of giving or fabricating false evidence under any written law.

[23H
[8/2000]

Proceedings not open to public

35.—(1) A committee of inquiry shall not sit in public.

(2) No person shall be allowed to attend the proceedings of a committee of inquiry, or address the committee of inquiry, except with the permission of the chairman or if the Minister so directs.

[8/2000]

Persons who may be affected by findings

36.—(1) Where it appears to a committee of inquiry that any witness or person involved in the supervision or administration of an approved centre may be adversely affected by its findings, the committee shall notify him and give him an opportunity to be present at the proceedings of the committee of inquiry or at such part thereof as the chairman may specify.

[8/2000]

(2) The person notified under subsection (1) shall be allowed to give evidence and examine any witness.

[8/2000]

(2) The evidence of each witness before a committee of inquiry shall be read over to him and shall be signed by him.

[8/2000]

(3) A record of the proceedings of a committee of inquiry shall be signed by the chairman and the members of the committee, if any, and forwarded to the Minister.

[8/2000]

(4) The record of proceedings of a committee of inquiry or any part thereof or any information relating thereto shall be kept confidential and shall not be released to any person, other than a member of the committee, without the written permission of the Minister.

[23K

Offence to influence or attempt to influence committee of inquiry

38. Every person who, otherwise than in the course of duty, directly or indirectly by himself or by any other person in any manner whatsoever influences or attempts to influence any decision of a committee of inquiry or any member of a committee of inquiry shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[8/2000]

PART VI GENERAL

General penalty

39. Any person who is guilty of an offence under this Act for which no penalty is expressly provided shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[24

Indemnity

40.—(1) The Government shall not be liable to make good any damage caused to any goods or property as a result of an entry, search or detention under the provisions of this Act unless the damage is caused by the wilful neglect or default of an officer employed by the Government.

(2) In the event of any dispute as to the amount of any damage so caused, the amount shall be summarily ascertained and determined by a District Court or a Magistrate's Court.

Protection of persons acting under authority of Act

41. Any person who does any act in pursuance or intended pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act shall not be subject to any civil or criminal liability in respect thereof, whether on the ground of want of jurisdiction, mistake of law or fact, or any other ground, unless he has acted in bad faith or without reasonable care.

Offences by body corporate

42. Where any offence under this Act committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or any person purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against accordingly.

Regulations

43.—(1) The Minister may make regulations for any purpose for which regulations may be made under this Act and for prescribing anything which may be prescribed under this Act and generally for the purpose of carrying this Act into effect.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Minister may make regulations with respect to any of the following matters:

- (a) providing for the treatment and rehabilitation of persons who use or inhale intoxicating substances for the purpose of inducing or causing in themselves a state of intoxication;
- (b) providing for the supervision and aftercare of persons who have undergone treatment and rehabilitation at any approved centre or who have been convicted of an offence under section 3;
- (c) providing for the management, maintenance and inspection of approved centres;
- (d) prescribing the functions and procedure of Review Committees;
- (e) providing for the control, discipline and occupation of inmates, including the imposition of corporal punishment;
- (f) prescribing the appointment and duties of officers of approved centres; and

- (g) prescribing the punishment by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or both to be imposed on conviction for a breach of any regulations.
