An Act to incorporate the Singapore Red Cross Society.

[6th April 1973]

1. This Act may be cited as the Singapore Red Cross Society (Incorporation) Act. Short title.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires — Interpretation.

“Association” means the voluntary association known as the Singapore Red Cross Society immediately before 6th April 1973;

“Society” means the Singapore Red Cross Society incorporated under this Act.

Incorporation of Society.

3.—(1) The voluntary association known as the Singapore Red Cross Society immediately before 6th April 1973 is hereby constituted as a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and shall be known as the Singapore Red Cross Society.

(2) The Society may sue and be sued in its corporate name and do such acts or things incidental or appertaining to a body corporate.

(3) The Society shall consist of all persons who immediately before 6th April 1973 were members of the Association and all such persons as may thereafter become members of the Society pursuant to the rules for the time being in force of the Society.

Geneva Conventions.

4. The Society is hereby recognised by the Government as a voluntary aid society auxiliary to the public authorities exercising their obligations by virtue of the Geneva Conventions for the amelioration of the condition of the wounded and sick in armed forces in the field, for the amelioration of the condition of wounded, sick and shipwrecked members of the armed forces at sea, relative to the treatment of prisoners of war, and to the protection of civilian persons in time of war.

Objects of Society.
16/78.

5. The objects of the Society shall be —

- (a) the provision of assistance in relief operations in times of disaster and in auxiliary health and welfare services to the sick, the handicapped, the aged and the poor, without any distinction on grounds of race, nationality, religion or political opinions; and
- (b) the furnishing of voluntary aid to the sick and wounded in time of war and to non-belligerents, prisoners of war and civilian sufferers from the effects of war.

Patron of Society.
16/78.

6. The President shall be the patron of the Society.

Council.
16/78.

7.—(1) The affairs of the Society shall be administered by a Council to be constituted in accordance with any rules made under section 9.

(2) The Chairman of the Council shall be appointed by the President for a term of 3 years, and shall be eligible for reappointment. 16/78.

8.—(1) The President may at any time revoke the appointment of the Chairman if he considers it desirable in the interests of the Society to revoke the appointment. Revocation and resignation of appointment. 16/78.

(2) The Chairman may by writing addressed to the President resign such appointment.

(3) If the Chairman dies or has his appointment revoked or otherwise vacates his office before the expiry of the term for which he has been appointed, another person may be appointed by the President for the unexpired period of the term of office of the Chairman in whose place the other person is appointed.

9.—(1) The Council may —

- (a) appoint committees and allocate duties to and regulate the exercise of executive power by those committees and members of the Council;
- (b) appoint such officers and employees as it thinks fit and regulate the conduct and dismissal of those officers and employees;
- (c) recruit and train other persons to carry out such functions as may be necessary to achieve the objects of the Society, and assign those functions to such persons;
- (d) organise classes, lectures, courses and symposia on subjects falling within the objects of the Society;
- (e) disseminate information about the Society by selling or distributing books, pamphlets and papers; and
- (f) generally do all such other acts as may be necessary to achieve the objects of the Society.

Powers of Council. 16/78.

(2) The Council may, with the approval of the Director of Medical Services, make rules for or in respect of all or any of the following matters:

- (a) the proceedings of the Society and the Council, and the management of the affairs of the Society;
- (b) the different classes of members of the Society and the terms of admission of those members;

- (c) the appointment, election and removal of an executive committee and other officers;
- (d) the appointment and election of sub-committees and other bodies for special purposes and the delegation to them and the executive committee of any of the functions and powers of the Council;
- (e) the mode of holding meetings of the executive committee and the sub-committees, and other bodies, referred to in paragraph (d), and the right of voting at those meetings;
- (f) the keeping of the accounts of the Society and the audit of the accounts at least once a year;
- (g) the convening of the annual general meeting of the Society for the purposes of receiving a report and statement of accounts for the preceding year, electing those members of the Council who are to be elected pursuant to the rules, and deciding upon any proposal or matter, and transacting any other business which shall be duly submitted to the meeting.

Use of the "Red Cross".

10.—(1) No person other than the Society and any person so authorised by the Minister shall use —

- (a) the heraldic emblem of the red cross on a white ground formed by reversing the Federal Colours of Switzerland; or
- (b) the words "Red Cross" or "Geneva Cross".

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

Transfer of property,
liabilities,
etc.

11. Upon the commencement of this Act —

- (a) all the assets and movable and immovable property of every description and all the powers, rights and privileges in connection therewith or appertaining thereto which immediately before 6th April 1973 were vested in the Association shall forthwith vest in the Society without further assurance;

- (b) all liabilities and obligations of the Association which may have existed immediately prior to 6th April 1973 shall be transferred to and vest in the Society; and
- (c) every person in the service of the Association shall be deemed to be transferred to the service of the Society subject to any provision that may subsequently be made by the Council.

12. The income and property of the Society from wherever derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Society as set out in this Act and no part thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to the members of the Society:

Application
and property.

Provided that nothing in this section shall preclude the payment in good faith of remuneration to any officer or employee of the Society or to any member of the Society in return for services rendered to the Society.
