Relief for inability to exercise right under scheduled contract

5A.—(1) This section applies to a case where —

(a) the scheduled contract in question comes within a description of contracts prescribed as contracts to which this section applies;

(b) a party to the contract (also called in this Division A) is or will be unable to exercise a right in the contract (called in this Division the subject right), being a right that is to be exercised on or after the date of commencement of section 5 of the COVID-19 (Temporary Measures) (Amendment) Act 2020;

[Act 29 of 2020 w.e.f 20/06/2020]
Additional relief for inability to perform construction contract or supply contract

6.—(1) This section applies to a case mentioned in section 5 where the scheduled contract is a construction contract or supply contract and (to avoid doubt) does not limit the operation of that section.

(2) Despite anything in a performance bond or equivalent given pursuant to the construction contract or supply contract, B may not make a call on the performance bond or equivalent in relation to the subject inability at any time earlier than 7 days before —

(a) the date of expiry of the performance bond or equivalent as stated in the performance bond or equivalent; or

(b) where the term of the performance bond or equivalent is extended whether under subsection (3) or otherwise, the date of expiry of the performance bond or equivalent following such extension.

(3) Despite anything in a performance bond or equivalent given pursuant to the construction contract or supply contract, where —

(a) A makes an application to the issuer of the performance bond or equivalent not less than 7 days before the date of expiry of the performance bond or equivalent, to extend the term of the performance bond or equivalent; and

(b) A serves a notice of the application on B at the same time, then the term of the performance bond or equivalent is extended to a date that is 7 days after the end of the prescribed period, or such other date as may be agreed between A, B and the issuer, and that date or other date (as the case may be) is treated as the date of expiry of the performance bond or equivalent.

(4) Subsection (2) does not apply —

(a) after A has withdrawn A’s notification for relief; or

(b) on an application under section 9(2), after the assessor makes a determination that the case in question is not one to which section 5 applies, and A may not thereafter make an application to the issuer of the performance bond or equivalent for an extension of its term under subsection (3).

(5) Despite anything in the contract, for the purposes of calculating the liquidated damages payable under the contract or assessing other damages in respect of the subject inability, where the subject inability occurs on or after 1 February 2020 but before the expiry of the prescribed period, any period for which the subject inability subsists and falling within that period is to be disregarded in determining the period of delay in performance by A.

(6) Despite anything in the contract, where the subject inability is the inability to supply goods or services in accordance with the terms of the contract and such inability occurs on or after 1 February 2020 but before the expiry of the prescribed period, the fact that the inability to perform the obligation in the contract was to a material extent caused by a COVID-19 event is a defence to a claim for a breach of contract in respect of the subject inability.

(7) To avoid doubt, subsection (6) does not affect —

(a) any right or obligation under the contract that accrues or arises at any time before or after the period mentioned in subsection (6); or

(b) any judgment, arbitral award, adjudication determination under the Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment Act, compromise or settlement given or made before the service of the notification for relief.

Additional relief for inability to perform event contract or tourism-related contract

7.—(1) This section applies to a case mentioned in section 5 where the scheduled contract is an event contract or a tourism-related contract and (to avoid doubt) does not limit the operation of that section.

(2) Despite any law or anything in the contract, another party to the contract may not, after being served with the notification for relief in accordance with section 9(1), at any time (whether during or after the prescribed period) forfeit any deposit (or part of any deposit) taken under the contract on the basis of the subject inability, unless the notification for relief is withdrawn or an assessor has made a determination that the forfeiture of the deposit or any part of the deposit is just and equitable in the circumstances of the case.

(3) Despite any law or anything in the contract, if the other party to the contract has already forfeited any deposit (or part of any deposit) taken under the contract on the basis of the subject inability, including at any time between 1 February 2020 and the date of commencement of this Part, the other party must on receipt of the notification for relief served in accordance with section 9(1), as soon as practicable restore the deposit or part of the deposit as if it had not been forfeited.

(4) Despite any law or anything in the contract, the fact that the subject inability was to a material extent caused by a COVID-19 event is a defence to a claim for the payment of a cancellation fee under the contract in respect of the subject inability.

[Act 29 of 2020 wef 20/06/2020]

(4A) Subsection (4) does not apply if —

(a) the notification for relief is withdrawn; or

(b) on an application under section 9(2), an assessor makes a determination that the case in question is not one to which section 5 applies, or that the payment of the cancellation fee or any part of it is just and equitable in the circumstances of the case.

[Act 29 of 2020 wef 20/06/2020]

(5) To avoid doubt, subsections (3) and (4) do not affect any judgment, arbitral award, compromise or settlement given or made before the service of the notification for relief.

Relief from late payment interest or other charge

7A.—(1) This section applies to a case mentioned in section 5 where —

(a) the scheduled contract is within a description of contracts prescribed as contracts to which this section applies; and
(b) the subject inability is the inability to pay any money at the time it becomes due and payable, being a time within the prescribed period.

(2) Where the contract requires $A$ to pay $B$ any interest or other charge (however described) for the subject inability, then, despite anything in the contract, $A$ is only liable under the contract to pay $B$ interest or other charge not exceeding the prescribed rate or amount in respect of the subject inability.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), different rates or amounts may be prescribed for different circumstances, and a zero rate or amount may be prescribed.

(4) Subsection (2) does not apply if —

(a) the notification for relief is withdrawn; or

(b) an assessor makes a determination that the case in question is not one to which section 5 applies.

(5) Despite any law or anything in the contract, $B$ may not, after being served with the notification for relief in accordance with section 9(1), terminate the contract on the basis of the subject inability until after the earliest of the following:

(a) the expiry of the prescribed period;

(b) the withdrawal by $A$ of $A$’s notification for relief;

(c) on an application under section 9(2), the assessor makes a determination that the case in question is not one to which section 5 applies.

(6) This section does not apply to any obligation to make payment under a statutory repayment schedule under Division 5 of Part 2A.

[Act 29 of 2020 wef 31/07/2020]

Holding over after termination or expiry of lease or licence of non-residential immovable property

7B.—(1) This section applies to a case mentioned in section 5 where —

(a) the scheduled contract is a lease or licence of non-residential immovable property; and
(b) the subject inability is the inability to vacate the property after the termination or expiry of the lease or licence and before the end of the prescribed period.

(2) Despite any law or anything in the contract, if—

(a) the subject inability is caused by a COVID-19 event; and

(b) such conditions as may be prescribed are also satisfied, then the lessee or licensee is not liable to pay the lessor or licensor any sums that the lessee or licensee is otherwise liable to pay under the law or contract for the inability, in excess of such amount as may be prescribed.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to such sums payable under any law or contract, or to such circumstances, as may be prescribed by regulations made under section 19.

(4) Subsection (2) does not apply if—

(a) the notification for relief is withdrawn; or

(b) an assessor makes a determination that the case in question is not one to which section 5 applies.

(5) To avoid doubt, subsection (2) does not—

(a) limit the operation of section 5;

(b) affect any other rights and liabilities of the parties to the lease or licence; or

(c) affect any compromise or settlement made before the service of the notification for relief.

[Act 29 of 2020 wef 31/07/2020]

[Act 29 of 2020 wef 20/06/2020]

(3) The enforcement of any security in breach of section 5(2) is void except as against a bona fide purchaser for value without notice of the notification for relief.

(4) The following actions are void:

   (a) the appointment of a receiver or manager over any property or undertaking of a person made in breach of section 5(2);

   (aa) the forfeiture of any consideration in breach of section 5A(2);

   [Act 29 of 2020 wef 20/06/2020]

Application for determination as to tenant’s entitlement to rental relief or additional rental relief

19M.—(1) This section applies when the owner of a prescribed property receives a notice of cash grant pertaining to a tenant that is purportedly a PTO of that property (called in this Division the subject tenant).

(2) Any landlord (including the owner) of the property in the PTO chain (called in this Division the applicant landlord) may, within the prescribed time, apply in the prescribed form and manner to the Registrar to appoint a rental relief assessor to make a determination —

(a) whether the subject tenant satisfies the prescribed criteria for a PTO;

(b) whether the subject tenant (being a PTO) satisfies the prescribed additional criteria for the additional rental relief; or

(c) whether the applicant landlord satisfies the prescribed criteria for a reduction of the additional rental relief.

(3) A copy of the application under subsection (2) must be served within the prescribed time on all the landlords (including the owner) and tenants of the property in the PTO chain and such other person as may be prescribed.

(4) If the Registrar is satisfied that the application is made and served in accordance with subsections (2) and (3), the Registrar must appoint a rental relief assessor to determine the application and must serve a notice of the appointment on the applicant landlord and the persons mentioned in subsection (3).

[Act 29 of 2020 wef 31/07/2020]

Assessor’s determination

19N.—(1) On the application of the applicant landlord under section 19M for an assessor’s determination, the rental relief assessor must make a determination whether —

(a) in the case mentioned in section 19M(2)(a) — the subject tenant satisfies the prescribed criteria for a PTO;

(b) in the case mentioned in section 19M(2)(b) — the subject tenant (being a PTO) satisfies the prescribed additional criteria for the additional rental relief; or
(c) in the case mentioned in section 19M(2)(c) — the applicant landlord satisfies the prescribed criteria for a reduction of the additional rental relief.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1)(a), a notice by an officer of the Authority that a tenant is or is not a PTO is prima facie evidence of that fact.

(3) The assessor’s determination is binding on all the landlords (including the owner) and tenants of the property in the PTO chain and all parties claiming under or through them, and such other person as may be prescribed.

(4) There is no appeal from an assessor’s determination.

(5) Sections 14, 15 and 15A apply to proceedings before a rental relief assessor under this section as if a reference to an assessor in those sections is a reference to a rental relief assessor.

(6) Sections 16 and 17 apply to the Registrar or a rental relief assessor when carrying out his or her functions and duties under this Part as they apply to the Registrar of assessors or an assessor mentioned in Part 2 when carrying out his or her functions and duties under Part 2.

(7) The Registrar must notify the Authority of any application made under section 19M and the outcome of that application, within such time and in such manner as may be agreed between the Registrar and the Authority.

[Act 29 of 2020 wef 31/07/2020]

Reversal or reduction of additional rental relief

19O.—(1) If a rental relief assessor determines under section 19N(1)(a) that the subject tenant does not satisfy the prescribed criteria for a PTO, then —

(a) every tenant of the property in the PTO chain is liable to the tenant’s landlord for the amounts waived under sections 19H(1) and 19J(1) for the tenant with effect from the respective dates such amounts would have been due under, and to the extent provided by, the lease agreement between the tenant and the tenant’s landlord as if those provisions did not apply; and

(b) any amount received by the tenant from the tenant’s landlord under section 19H(2)(d) or 19J(2)(d) is recoverable from the tenant as a debt due to the tenant’s landlord.

(2) If a rental relief assessor determines under section 19N(1)(b) that the subject tenant does not satisfy the prescribed additional criteria for the additional rental relief, then —

(a) every tenant is liable to the tenant’s landlord for the amount waived for the tenant under section 19J(1) with effect from the date such amount would have been due under, and to the extent provided by, the lease agreement between the tenant and the tenant’s landlord as if that provision did not apply; and

(b) any amount received by the tenant from the tenant’s landlord under section 19J(2)(d) is recoverable from the tenant as a debt due to the tenant’s landlord.

(3) If a rental relief assessor determines under section 19N(1)(c) that the applicant landlord satisfies the prescribed criteria for a reduction of the additional rental relief, then the prescribed amount mentioned in section 19J(1)(a) that applies to the applicant landlord is reduced by a prescribed proportion, and subsections (1)(b) and (2) of section 19J are to apply accordingly.

Division 5 — Statutory repayment schedule

Statutory repayment schedule

(2) A statutory repayment schedule is a schedule for the repayment of the outstanding rent and interest or other charge mentioned in subsection (1) that satisfies all of the following conditions:

(a) the outstanding rent is for any period during the period starting on 1 February 2020 and ending on the last date of the section 3 prescribed period only;

(b) subject to paragraph (c), if any interest or other charge (however described) is payable on the outstanding rent under the lease agreement (called in this section the contractual interest rate), then —

(i) where the contractual interest rate does not exceed the prescribed interest rate (or amount) — the interest or other charge on the outstanding rent is computed at the contractual interest rate or at such lower interest rate (or amount) as the PTO and the PTO’s landlord may agree upon; or

(ii) where the contractual interest rate exceeds the prescribed interest rate (or amount) — the interest or other charge on the outstanding rent is computed at the prescribed interest rate (or amount) or at such lower interest rate (or amount) as the PTO and the PTO’s landlord may agree upon;

(4) Upon service of the written notice on the PTO’s landlord, the statutory repayment schedule forms part of the lease agreement, and prevails over any term of the lease agreement to the extent of any inconsistency between them.

(5) In this section, “outstanding rent” means the aggregate of rent payable under the lease agreement for the period starting on 1 February 2020 and ending on the last date of the section 3 prescribed period that is outstanding (after the amount of rent waived under Divisions 2 and 3 and any payment made by the PTO), up to a prescribed amount.

(b) the following become immediately payable:

(i) the amount of rent that remains outstanding under the statutory repayment schedule (called in this section the outstanding rental arrears) on the date of the occurrence of the event;
(ii) all interest and other charges that would have accrued on the outstanding rental arrears under the lease agreement as of the date of the occurrence of the event had the schedule not formed part of the lease agreement, less any interest paid on those arrears pursuant to the schedule; and

(c) the PTO’s landlord is entitled to exercise any of the landlord’s rights under the lease agreement for non-payment of rent and the interest and other charges mentioned in paragraph (b)(ii).

(2) The following are the events mentioned in subsection (1):

(a) subsection (2)(b) or (c) applies; and

(b) at the time of the termination or repudiation of the lease agreement, 2 or more repayment instalments remain outstanding under the statutory repayment schedule.

(4) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

(2) This Division prevails over any term of the lease agreement to the extent of any inconsistency between them.

[Act 29 of 2020 wef 31/07/2020]

Restriction on draw down of security deposit

19S.—(1) This section restricts the entitlement of the PTO’s landlord to draw down the security deposit —

(a) to discharge any outstanding rent or other moneys (including any interest or other charge (however described) on such rent or other moneys) payable for any period during the specified period; or

(b) for any other default during the specified period.

(2) During the period starting on the appointed date and ending on the last date of the section 3 prescribed period, the landlord’s entitlement to draw down the security deposit for any purpose mentioned in subsection (1) is limited to the amount of the security deposit less an amount representing one month of rent.

(3) In this section and section 19T, a reference to rent is a reference to the amount of rent or other moneys that is used to determine the amount of the security deposit.

(2) Where the landlord makes a drawdown mentioned in subsection (1) during the period starting on 1 February 2020 and ending on the date immediately before the appointed date, the PTO must —

(a) in the case where the landlord draws down the security deposit fully — replenish the security deposit by an amount representing one month of rent; or

(b) in the case where the landlord draws down the security deposit partially and the balance of the security deposit is less than one month rent — replenish the security deposit so that the balance of the security deposit amounts to one month of rent.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), where the PTO gives a notice to the landlord under section 19P (on a statutory repayment schedule), the PTO’s obligation under the lease agreement to replenish the security deposit (after the landlord’s drawdown of the security deposit for any purpose mentioned in section 19S(1)) does not have effect until the earlier of the following:

(a) the expiry of the prescribed period mentioned in section 19P(2)(d)(i); and

(b) the cessation of the statutory repayment schedule under section 19Q.

(4) To avoid doubt, subsection (3) does not impose any obligation on the PTO to replenish the security deposit if the lease agreement is not in force when —

(3) A tenant who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

(4) It is not a defence to a charge under subsection (1) for a tenant’s failure to provide any prescribed information or document sought by the tenant’s landlord under subsection (1), that the tenant is under a duty of secrecy (other than a statutory duty of secrecy) in respect of the information or the contents of that document.

(5) A tenant who in good faith complies with the notice mentioned in subsection (1) is treated as not being in breach of that duty of secrecy despite any law or the terms of any contract.
