Removal of disqualification or disability on conviction

36. A conviction or finding of guilt of a child or young person shall be disregarded for the purposes of any Act under which any disqualification or disability is imposed upon convicted persons.

Restrictions on punishment of children and young persons

37.—(1) A child shall not be sentenced or ordered to be imprisoned for any offence or be committed to prison in default of payment of a fine or costs.

(2) A young person shall not be ordered to be imprisoned for any offence, or be committed to prison in default of a fine, damages or costs, unless the court certifies that he is of so unruly a character that he cannot be detained in a place of detention or a juvenile rehabilitation centre.

[3/2011 wef 20/07/2011]

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, no child or young person shall be sentenced by any court other than the High Court to corporal punishment.

Punishment of certain grave crimes

38.—(1) Where a child or young person is convicted of murder, or of culpable homicide not amounting to murder, or of attempted murder, or of voluntarily causing grievous hurt, and the court is of opinion that none of the other methods by which the case may legally be dealt with is suitable, the court may sentence the offender to be detained for such period as may be specified in the sentence.

(2) Where a sentence has been passed under subsection (1), the child or young person shall, during that period, notwithstanding anything in the other provisions of this Act, be liable to be detained in such place and on such conditions as the Minister may direct.

(3) A person detained in pursuance of the directions of the Minister under this section shall, while so detained, be deemed to be in legal custody.

(4) Any person so detained may, at any time, be released by the Minister on licence.

(5) A licence referred to in subsection (4) may be in such form and contain such conditions as the Minister may direct and may at any time be revoked or varied by the Minister.

(6) Where a licence has been revoked, the person to whom the licence relates shall return to such place as the Minister may direct, and if he fails to do so he may be apprehended without warrant and taken to that place.

Power to order parent or guardian to pay fine, etc., instead of child or young person

39.—(1) Where a child or young person is charged before a Youth Court with any offence for the commission of which a fine may be imposed and damages or costs or both may be awarded, and the Court is of the opinion that the case would be best met by the imposition of all or any of those penalties whether with or without any other punishment, the Court may, in such case, and shall, if the offender is a child, order that the fine imposed and damages or costs awarded be paid by the parent or guardian of the child or young person, unless the Court is satisfied that the parent or guardian cannot be found or that he has not conducted to the commission of the offence by neglecting to exercise due care of the child or young person.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(2) Where a child or young person is charged with any offence, a Youth Court may order his parent or guardian to give security for his good behaviour.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(3) Where a Youth Court thinks that a charge against a child or young person is proved, the Court may make an order on the parent or guardian under this section for the payment of damages or costs or requiring him to give security for the good behaviour of the child or young person, without proceeding to record a finding of guilt against the child or young person.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(4) An order under this section may be made against a parent or guardian who, having been required to attend, has failed to do so, but, subject to subsection (1), no such order shall be made without giving the parent or guardian an opportunity to be heard.

(5) Any sum imposed and ordered to be paid by the parent or guardian under this section, or on forfeiture of any such security, may be recovered from him in the manner provided by the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68) in like manner as if the order had been made on the conviction of the parent or guardian of the offence with which the child or young person was charged.

Power of other courts to remit juvenile offenders to Youth Court

40.—(1) Any court by or before which a child or young person is found guilty of an offence may, if it thinks fit, remit the case to a Youth Court.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(2) Where any such case is so remitted, the offender shall be brought before a Youth Court accordingly, and the Youth Court may deal with him in any way in which it might have dealt with him if he had been tried and found guilty by the Youth Court.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(3) No appeal shall lie against an order of remission made under subsection (1) but nothing in this subsection shall affect any right of appeal against the verdict or finding on which such an order is founded.

(4) A person aggrieved by the order of the Youth Court to which the case is remitted may appeal therefrom to the High Court as if he has been tried by, and had pleaded guilty before, the Youth Court.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(5) A court by which an order remitting a case to a Youth Court is made under this section —

- (a) may give such directions as appear to be necessary with respect to the custody of the offender or for his release on bail until he can be brought before a Youth Court; and
- (b) shall cause to be transmitted to the Youth Court to which the case has been remitted a certificate setting out the nature of the offence and stating that the case has been remitted for the purpose of being dealt with under this section.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

Words “conviction” and “sentence” not to be used

41.—(1) The words “conviction” and “sentence” shall cease to be used in relation to children and young persons dealt with by a Youth Court.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(2) Any reference in any written law to a person convicted, a conviction or a sentence shall, in the case of a child or young person, be construed as including a reference to a person found guilty of an offence, a finding of guilt or an order made upon such a finding, as the case may be.

Procedure in Youth Court

42.—(1) Where a child or young person is brought before a Youth Court for any offence, it shall be the duty of the Court as soon as possible to explain to him in simple language suitable to his age and understanding the substance of the alleged offence.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(2) After explaining the substance of the alleged offence, the Youth Court shall ask the child or young person whether he admits the facts constituting the offence.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(3) If the child or young person does not admit the facts constituting the offence, the Youth Court shall then hear the evidence of the witnesses in support thereof.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(4) At the close of the evidence in chief of each witness, the witness may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the child or young person.

(5) The Youth Court shall, except in any case where the child or young person is legally represented, allow his parents or guardian or, in their absence, any relative or other responsible person to assist him in conducting his defence.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(6) If in any case where the child or young person is not legally represented or assisted in his defence as provided for in subsection (5), the child or young person, instead of asking questions by way of cross-examination, makes assertions, the Youth Court shall then put to the witness such questions as it thinks necessary on behalf of the child or young person and may, for this purpose, question the child or young person in order to bring out or clear up any point arising out of those questions.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(7) If it appears to the Youth Court that a prima facie case is made out, the Court shall explain to the child or young person the substance of the evidence against him and, in particular, any points therein which specially tell against him or require explanation and the child or young person shall be allowed to give evidence upon oath or affirmation or to make a statement if he so desires and the evidence of any witness for the defence shall be heard.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(8) If the child or young person admits the offence or the Youth Court is satisfied that it is proved, he and his parent or guardian, if present, shall then be asked if they desire to say anything in extenuation or mitigation of the penalty or otherwise.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(9) Before deciding how to deal with him, the Youth Court may obtain such information as to his family background, general conduct, home surroundings, school record, medical history and state of development, as may enable it to deal with the case in the best interests of the child or young person, and may put to him any question arising out of such information.

[20/2001]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(10) The information referred to in subsection (9) may include any written report of a probation officer, an approved welfare officer, a registered medical practitioner or any other person whom the Youth Court thinks fit to provide a report on the child, and may be received and considered by the Court without being read aloud.

[20/2001]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(11) For the purpose of subsection (9), the Youth Court may —

- (a) require either or both the child or young person and the parent or guardian thereof to furnish such information or render such assistance to the Youth Court as the Court thinks necessary;

- (b) require either or both the child or young person and the parent or guardian thereof to undergo such medical, psychological or other assessment as the Youth Court thinks necessary; and
- (c) from time to time release the child or young person on bail or remand him in a place of detention in order to facilitate the carrying out of any requirement of the Youth Court under paragraph (a) or (b).

[20/2001]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(12) The costs of and incidental to any assessment under subsection (11)(b) shall be borne by the parent or guardian of the child or young person, unless the Youth Court directs otherwise.

[20/2001]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(13) Where the Youth Court has received and considered a written report of a probation officer, an approved welfare officer, a registered medical practitioner or any other person whom the Court thinks fit to provide a report on the child or young person —

- (a) the child or young person shall be told the substance of any part of the report bearing on his character or conduct which the Court considers to be material to the manner in which he should be dealt with;
- (b) the parent or guardian, if present, shall be told the substance of any part of the report which the Court considers to be material to the manner in which the child or young person should be dealt with and which has reference to his character or conduct, or the character, conduct, home surroundings, or health of the child or young person; and
- (c) if the child or young person or his parent or guardian having been told the substance of any part of any such report desires to produce evidence with reference thereto, the Court, if it thinks the evidence material, shall adjourn the proceedings for the production of further evidence and shall, if necessary, require the attendance at the adjourned hearing of the person who made the report.

[20/2001]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(14) If in any case the Youth Court considers it necessary in the interests of the child or young person, the Court may require the parent or guardian of the child or young person, as the case may be, to withdraw from the Court.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

Presumption as to age

43.—(1) Where, in a charge for an offence triable under this Act, it is alleged that the person by whom the offence was committed was below or had attained any specified age, and he appears to the court to have been at the date of the commission of the alleged offence below or to have attained the specified age, as the case may be, he shall for the purposes of this Act be presumed at that date to have been below or to have attained that age, as the case may be, and any order made therein shall not be invalidated by any subsequent proof that the age has been incorrectly stated.

(2) Where the court or a police officer dealing with any person by whom an offence is alleged to have been committed is in doubt as to the exact age of that person, the certificate of a registered medical practitioner who has assessed that person, stating to the effect that, in his opinion, that person has or has not attained a specified age, may be given in evidence.
