[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

- (b) unless the company has, by passing a resolution to that effect or by some other act, manifested its intention that the debentures shall be cancelled, the company shall have and shall be deemed always to have had power to reissue the debentures, either by reissuing the same debentures or by issuing other debentures in their place but the reissue of a debenture or the issue of one debenture in place of another under this subsection, whether the reissue or issue was made before or after that date, shall not be regarded as the issue of a new debenture for the purpose of any provision limiting the amount or number of debentures that may be issued by the company.

(2) After the reissue the person entitled to the debentures shall have and shall be deemed always to have had the same priorities as if the debentures had never been redeemed.

(3) Where a company has either before or after 29th December 1967 deposited any of its debentures to secure advances on current account or otherwise, the debentures shall not be deemed to have been redeemed by reason only of the account of the company having ceased to be in debit while the debentures remain so deposited.

Power of Court in relation to certain irredeemable debentures

100.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in any debenture or trust deed, the security for any debentures which are irredeemable or redeemable only on the happening of a contingency shall, if the Court so orders, be enforceable, immediately or at such other time as the Court directs if on the application of the trustee for the holders of the debentures or

(where there is no trustee) on the application of the holder of any of the debentures the Court is satisfied that —

- (a) at the time of the issue of the debentures the assets of the corporation which constituted or were intended to constitute the security therefor were sufficient or likely to become sufficient to discharge the principal debt and any interest thereon;
- (b) the security, if realised under the circumstances existing at the time of the application, would be likely to bring not more than 60% of the principal sum of moneys outstanding (regard being had to all prior charges and charges ranking pari passu if any); and
- (c) the assets covered by the security, on a fair valuation on the basis of a going concern after allowing a reasonable amount for depreciation are worth less than the principal sum and the borrowing corporation is not making sufficient profit to pay the interest due on the principal sum or (where no definite rate of interest is payable) interest thereon at such rate as the Court considers would be a fair rate to expect from a similar investment.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not affect any power to vary rights or accept any compromise or arrangement created by the terms of the debentures or the relevant trust deed or under a compromise or arrangement between the borrowing corporation and creditors.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not apply in relation to any debenture that is offered to the public for subscription or purchase.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) —

- (a) if at any time all the issued shares in a company or all the issued shares therein of a particular class are fully paid up and rank equally for all purposes, none of those shares need thereafter have a distinguishing number so long as each of those shares remains fully paid up and ranks equally for all purposes with all shares of the same class for the time being issued and fully paid up; or

- (b) if all the issued shares in a company are evidenced by certificates in accordance with section 123 and each certificate is distinguished by an appropriate number and that number is recorded in the register of members, none of those shares need have a distinguishing number.

- (a) in the case of a public company that is listed, not more than 4 months before the date of the meeting; or
- (b) in the case of any other company, not more than 6 months before the date of the meeting.

(2) Subject to subsections (12) to (15), the financial statements referred to in subsection (1) shall comply with the requirements of the Accounting Standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the company.

(3) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, specify such other period in substitution of the period referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b).

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Registrar may extend the periods of 18 months and 15 months referred to in that subsection and with respect to any year extend the period referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b), notwithstanding that the period is so extended beyond the calendar year —

- (a) upon an application by the company, if the Registrar thinks there are special reasons to do so; or
- (b) in respect of any prescribed class of companies.

(5) Subject to subsections (12) to (15), the directors of a company that is a parent company at the end of its financial year need not comply with subsection (1) but must cause to be made out and laid before the company at its annual general meeting —

- (a) consolidated financial statements dealing with the financial position and performance of group for the period beginning from the date the preceding financial statements were made up to (or, in the case of first financial statements, since the incorporation of the company) and ending on a date —
- (i) in a case where the parent company is a public company that is listed, not more than 4 months before the date of the meeting; or
 - (ii) in any other case, not more than 6 months before the date of the meeting; and
- (b) a balance-sheet dealing with the state of affairs of the parent company at the end of its financial year, each of which complies with the requirements of the Accounting Standards and gives a true and fair view of the matters referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), as the case may be, so far as it concerns members of the parent company.

(6) Subsections (3) and (4) shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to the periods referred to in subsection (5)(a)(i) and (ii) as they apply to the periods referred to in subsection (1)(a) and (b).

(7) The directors shall (before the financial statements referred to in subsection (1) and the balance-sheet referred to in subsection (5)(b) are made out) take reasonable steps —

- (a) to ascertain what action has been taken in relation to the writing off of bad debts and the making of provisions for doubtful debts and to cause all known bad debts to be written off and adequate provision to be made for doubtful debts;
- (b) to ascertain whether any current assets (other than current assets to which paragraph (a) applies) are unlikely to realise in the ordinary course of business their value as shown in the accounting records of the company and, if so, to cause —

- (i) those assets to be written down to an amount which they might be expected so to realise; or
 - (ii) adequate provision to be made for the difference between the amount of the value as so shown and the amount that they might be expected so to realise; and
 - (c) to ascertain whether any non-current asset is shown in the books of the company at an amount which, having regard to its value to the company as a going concern, exceeds the amount which would be recoverable over its useful life or on its disposal and (unless adequate provision for writing down that asset is made) to cause to be included in the financial statements such information and explanations as will prevent the financial statements from being misleading by reason of the overstatement of the amount of that asset.
- (8) The financial statements shall be duly audited before they are laid before the company at its annual general meeting as required by this section, and the auditor's report required by section 207 shall be attached to or endorsed upon those financial statements.

 - (b) cause to be attached to those financial statements the auditor's report that is furnished to the directors under section 207(1A).
- (10) In subsections (8) and (9), “financial statements”, in relation to a company, means —

(12) The financial statements or consolidated financial statements of a company need not comply with any requirement of the Accounting Standards for the purposes of subsection (1) or (5), if the company has obtained the approval of the Registrar to such non-compliance.

(13) Where financial statements or consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with any requirement of the Accounting Standards for the purposes of subsection (1) or (5), would not give a true and fair view of any matter required by this section to be dealt with in the financial statements or consolidated financial statements, the financial statements or consolidated financial statements need not comply with that requirement to the extent that this is necessary for them to give a true and fair view of the matter.

(14) In the event of any non-compliance with a requirement of the Accounting Standards referred to in subsection (13), there shall be included in the financial statements or consolidated financial statements, as the case may be —

- (a) a statement by the auditor of the company that he agrees that such non-compliance is necessary for the financial statements or consolidated financial statements, as the case may be, to give a true and fair view of the matter concerned;

- (b) particulars of the departure, the reason therefor and its effect, if any; and
- (c) such further information and explanations as will give a true and fair view of that matter.

(15) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, in respect of companies of a specified class or description, substitute other accounting standards for the Accounting Standards, and the provisions of this section and sections 207 and 209A shall apply accordingly in respect of such companies.

(16) The financial statements laid before a company at its general meeting (including any consolidated financial statements annexed to the balance-sheet of a parent company) shall be accompanied, before the auditor reports on the financial statements under this Part, by a statement signed on behalf of the directors by 2 directors of the company containing the information set out in the Twelfth Schedule.

(17) Any document (other than any financial statements or a balance-sheet prepared in accordance with this Act) or advertisement published, issued or circulated by or on behalf of a company (other than a banking corporation) shall not contain any direct or indirect representation that the company has any reserve unless the representation is accompanied —

- (a) if the reserve is invested outside the business of the company — by a statement showing the manner in which and the security upon which it is invested; or
- (b) if the reserve is being used in the business of the company — by a statement to the effect that the reserve is being so used.

(18) The provisions of this Act relating to the form and content of the statement of directors and the annual financial statements shall apply to a banking corporation with such modifications and exceptions as are determined either generally or in any particular case by the Monetary Authority of Singapore established under section 3 of the Monetary Authority of Singapore Act (Cap. 186).

Super priority for rescue financing

211E.—(1) Where a company has made an application under section 210(1) or 211B(1), the Court may, on an application by the company under this subsection, make one or more of the following orders:

- (a) an order that if the company is wound up, the debt arising from any rescue financing obtained, or to be obtained, by the company is to be treated as if it were part of the costs and expenses of the winding up mentioned in section 328(1)(a);
- (b) an order that if the company is wound up, the debt arising from any rescue financing obtained, or to be obtained, by the company is to have priority over all the preferential debts specified in section 328(1)(a) to (g) and all other unsecured debts, if the company would not have been able to obtain the rescue financing from any person unless the debt arising from the rescue financing is given the priority mentioned in this paragraph;

- (c) an order that the debt arising from any rescue financing to be obtained by the company is to be secured by —
- (i) a security interest on property of the company that is not otherwise subject to any security interest; or
 - (ii) a subordinate security interest on property of the company that is subject to an existing security interest, if the company would not have been able to obtain the rescue financing from any person unless the debt arising from the rescue financing is secured in the manner mentioned in this paragraph;

- (d) an order that the debt arising from any rescue financing to be obtained by the company is to be secured by a security interest, on property of the company that is subject to an existing security interest, of the same priority as or a higher priority than that existing security interest, if —
- (i) the company would not have been able to obtain the rescue financing from any person unless the debt arising from the rescue financing is secured in the manner mentioned in this paragraph; and
 - (ii) there is adequate protection for the interests of the holder of that existing security interest.

(2) A company that makes an application under subsection (1) must, unless the Court orders otherwise, send a notice of the application to each creditor of the company.

(3) Where a company that has 2 or more super priority debts is wound up, the super priority debts —

- (a) rank equally in priority between themselves; and
- (b) are to be paid in full or, if the company has insufficient property to meet them, are to abate in equal proportions between themselves.

(4) Where a company that has 2 or more super priority debts is wound up, the super priority debts constitute one class of debts and, despite section 328 —

- (a) the super priority debts are to be paid in priority to all the preferential debts specified in section 328(1)(a) to (g) and all other unsecured debts; and
- (b) if the property of the company available for the payment of the super priority debts is insufficient to meet the super priority debts, the super priority debts —
 - (i) have priority over the claims of the holders of any debentures of the company secured by a floating charge (which, as created, was a floating charge); and
 - (ii) are to be paid out of any property comprised in or subject to that floating charge.

(5) The reversal or modification on appeal of an order under subsection (1)(c) or (d) does not affect the validity of any debt so incurred, or any security interest that was granted pursuant to the order, or the priority of that security interest, if the rescue financing (from which arose the debt intended to be secured by that security interest) was provided in good faith, whether or not with knowledge of the appeal, unless the order was stayed pending the appeal before the rescue financing was provided.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (1)(d)(ii), there is adequate protection for the interests of the holder of an existing security interest on the property of a company, if —

- (b) the Court orders the company to provide to the holder additional or replacement security of a value sufficient to compensate the holder for any decrease in the value of the holder's existing security interest that may result from the making of the order under subsection (1)(d); or

(c) the Court grants any relief (other than compensation) that will result in the realisation by the holder of the indubitable equivalent of the holder's existing security interest.

(7) Section 329 does not affect any priority conferred, any security interest or relief granted, or any payment made, pursuant to and in accordance with an order made by the Court under subsection (1).

(8) The company must, within 14 days after the date of an order under subsection (1), lodge a copy of the order with the Registrar.

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

Filing, inspection and adjudication of proofs of debt

211F.—(1) Where the Court orders under section 210(1) a meeting of the creditors, or a class of creditors, of a company to be summoned, the company must state in every notice mentioned in section 211(1) summoning the meeting (called in this section the notice summoning the meeting) —

(a) the manner in which a creditor is to file a proof of debt with the company; and

(b) the period within which the proof is to be filed.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), if a creditor does not file the creditor's proof of debt in the manner and within the period stated in the notice summoning the meeting, the creditor is not allowed to vote (whether in person or by proxy) at the meeting.

(3) The Court may, on an application made by the company or a creditor, make an order extending the period stated in the notice summoning the meeting within which a proof of debt is to be filed.

(4) Upon the making of an order under subsection (3), the company must as soon as practicable send a notice of the order to each creditor meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement.

(5) Every proof of debt filed under this section is to be adjudicated by the person who is appointed by the Court to serve as the chairman of the meeting summoned pursuant to the order made under section 210(1) (called in this section the chairman).

(6) A creditor who has filed a proof of debt under this section is entitled to inspect the whole or any part of a proof of debt filed by any other creditor, except a part of the other creditor's proof that contains information that is subject to any obligation as to secrecy, or to any other restriction upon the disclosure of information, imposed by any written law, rule of law, contract or rule of professional conduct, or by any person or authority under any written law.

(7) The chairman must inform each creditor who has filed a proof of debt, within such time and manner as may be prescribed, of the results of the adjudication of the proofs of debt filed by all creditors.

(8) A creditor (A) who has filed a proof of debt may object to one or more of the following:

(b) the admission by the chairman of the whole or any part of a proof of debt filed by another creditor;

- (c) a request by another creditor to inspect the whole or any part of A's proof of debt.

(9) Any dispute between the chairman and the company, between the chairman and one or more creditors in relation to the rejection of a proof of debt, or between 2 or more creditors in relation to the inspection or admission of a proof of debt, may be adjudicated by an independent assessor appointed —

- (a) by the agreement of all parties to the dispute; or
- (b) if there is no such agreement, by the Court on the application of —
 - (i) any party to the dispute; or
 - (ii) the company (whether or not a party to the dispute).

(10) Where a creditor, the company or the chairman disagrees with any decision of an independent assessor on an adjudication under subsection (9) in relation to the inspection, admission or rejection of a proof of debt, the creditor, company or chairman (as the case may be) may file a notice of disagreement regarding that decision for consideration by the Court when the Court hears an application for the Court's approval under section 210(4) of the compromise or arrangement in question.

(11) When exercising its discretion under section 210(4), the Court must take into account any notice of disagreement filed under subsection (10).

(12) The Minister may make regulations under section 411 to provide for the procedure relating to the inspection and adjudication of proofs of debt filed by creditors under this section.

(13) Without restricting the generality of subsection (12), the regulations mentioned in that subsection may provide for the following matters:

- (2) When making an order under subsection (1), the Court may —
 - (a) make the order subject to such terms as the Court thinks fit;
 - (b) direct that the further meeting be summoned or held in such manner as the Court thinks fit; and

- (ii) the quantum of any creditor's debt that is to be admitted for the purposes of voting at the further meeting;
- (iii) the weight to be attached to the vote of any creditor at the further meeting.

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

Power of Court to cram down

211H.—(1) This section applies where —

- (a) a compromise or an arrangement between a company and its creditors or any class of those creditors has been voted on at a relevant meeting;
- (b) the creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement are placed in 2 or more classes of creditors for the purposes of voting on the compromise or arrangement at the relevant meeting;
- (c) the conditions in section 210(3AB)(a) and (b) (insofar as they are applicable) are satisfied at the relevant meeting in respect of at least one class of creditors; and
- (d) either or both of the conditions in section 210(3AB)(a) and (b) (insofar as they are applicable) are not satisfied at the relevant meeting in respect of at least one class of creditors (each called in this section a dissenting class).

(2) Despite section 210(3AA) and (3AB)(a) and (b), the Court may, subject to this section and on the application of the company, or a creditor of the company who has obtained the leave of the Court to make an application under this subsection, approve the compromise or arrangement, and order that the compromise or arrangement be binding on the company and all classes of creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement.

(3) The Court may not make an order under subsection (2) unless —

- (a) a majority in number of the creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement, and who were present and voting either in person or by proxy at the relevant meeting, have agreed to the compromise or arrangement;

- (b) the majority in number of creditors mentioned in paragraph (a) represents three-fourths in value of the creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement, and who were present and voting either in person or by proxy at the relevant meeting; and
- (c) the Court is satisfied that the compromise or arrangement does not discriminate unfairly between 2 or more classes of creditors, and is fair and equitable to each dissenting class.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(c), a compromise or an arrangement is not fair and equitable to a dissenting class unless —

- (a) no creditor in the dissenting class receives, under the terms of the compromise or arrangement, an amount that is lower than what the creditor is estimated by the Court to receive in the most likely scenario if the compromise or arrangement does not become binding on the company and all classes of creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement; and
- (b) either of the following applies:
 - (i) where the creditors in the dissenting class are secured creditors, the terms of the compromise or arrangement must —
 - (A) provide for each creditor in the dissenting class to receive deferred cash payments totalling the amount of the creditor's claim that is secured by the security held by the creditor, and preserve that security and the extent of that claim (whether or not the property subject to that security is to be retained by the company or transferred to another entity under the terms of the compromise or arrangement);
 - (B) provide that where the security held by any creditor in the dissenting class to secure the creditor's claim is to be realised by the company free of encumbrances, the creditor has a charge over the proceeds of the realisation to satisfy the creditor's claim that is secured by that security; or

- (C) provide that each creditor in the dissenting class is entitled to realise the indubitable equivalent of the security held by the creditor in order to satisfy the creditor's claim that is secured by that security;
- (ii) where the creditors in the dissenting class are unsecured creditors, the terms of the compromise or arrangement —
 - (A) must provide for each creditor in that class to receive property of a value equal to the amount of the creditor's claim; or
 - (B) must not provide for any creditor with a claim that is subordinate to the claim of a creditor in the dissenting class, or any member, to receive or retain any property on account of the subordinate claim or the member's interest.

(5) The Court may appoint any person of suitable knowledge, qualification or experience to assist the Court in estimating the amount that a creditor is expected to receive in the most likely scenario if the compromise or arrangement does not become binding on the company and all classes of creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement.

(6) In this section, "relevant meeting" means —

- (a) in a case where the compromise or arrangement in question is subject to a re-vote under section 211G(1), the meeting held for that purpose; or

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

211I.—(1) Despite section 210 but subject to this section, where a compromise or an arrangement is proposed between a company and its creditors or any class of those creditors, the Court may, on an application made by the company, make an order approving the compromise or arrangement, even though no meeting of the creditors or class of creditors has been ordered under section 210(1) or held.

(2) Subject to subsection (12), if the compromise or arrangement is approved by order of the Court under subsection (1), the compromise or arrangement is binding on the company and the creditors or class of creditors meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement.

(3) The Court must not approve a compromise or an arrangement under subsection (1) unless —

- (a) the company has provided each creditor meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement with a statement that complies with subsection (8) and contains the following information:
 - (i) information concerning the company's property, assets, business activities, financial condition and prospects;
 - (ii) information on the manner in which the terms of the compromise or arrangement will, if it takes effect, affect the rights of the creditor;
 - (iii) such other information as is necessary to enable the creditor to make an informed decision whether to agree to the compromise or arrangement;
- (b) the company has published a notice of the application under subsection (1) in the Gazette and in at least one English local daily newspaper, and has sent a copy of the notice published in the Gazette to the Registrar;
- (c) the company has sent a notice and a copy of the application under subsection (1) to each creditor meant to be bound by the compromise or arrangement; and

(d) the Court is satisfied that had a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors been summoned, the conditions in section 210(3AB)(a) and (b) (insofar as they relate to the creditors or class of creditors) would have been satisfied.

(4) Despite subsection (3)(c), the company may, if directed by the Court, give notice of the application under subsection (1) to the creditors or class of creditors in such manner as the Court may direct.

(5) Where the company is a banking corporation or licensed insurer, the Monetary Authority of Singapore established under the Monetary Authority of Singapore Act (Cap. 186) has the same powers and rights as a creditor of the company under this Act, including the right to appear and be heard before a Court in any proceedings under this section.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Court may grant its approval of a compromise or an arrangement subject to such alterations or conditions as the Court thinks just.

(7) The Court must not approve any compromise or arrangement which has been proposed for the purposes of or in connection with any scheme mentioned in section 212(1), under which the whole or any part of the undertaking or the property of a banking corporation incorporated in Singapore or licensed insurer incorporated in Singapore is to be transferred, unless the Minister charged with the responsibility for banking or insurance matters, as the case may be, has consented to the compromise or arrangement or has certified that his consent is not required.

(8) The statement mentioned in subsection (3)(a) must —

(a) explain the effect of the compromise or arrangement and, in particular, state —

- (i) any material interests of the directors of the company (whether as directors or as members, creditors or holders of units of shares of the company or otherwise); and
- (ii) the effect that the compromise or arrangement has on those interests, insofar as that effect is different from the effect that the compromise or arrangement has on the like interests of other persons; and

- (b) where the compromise or arrangement affects the rights of debenture holders, contain the like explanation with respect to the trustees for the debenture holders as, under paragraph (a), the statement is required to give with respect to the directors of the company.

(9) Each director, and each trustee for debenture holders, must give notice to the company of such matters relating to the director or trustee as may be necessary for the purposes of subsection (8) within 7 days after the director or trustee receives a request in writing from the company for information as to such matters.

(10) Any director of a company or trustee for debenture holders who contravenes subsection (9) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.

(11) A person, being a director of a company or a trustee for debenture holders, is not guilty of an offence under subsection (10), if the person shows that the person's contravention of subsection (9) was due to the refusal of another director of the company or trustee for debenture holders to supply to the person the particulars of the person's material interests affected by the compromise or arrangement.

(12) Unless the Court orders otherwise, an order made under subsection (1) —

- (a) has no effect until a copy of the order is lodged with the Registrar; and
- (b) takes effect starting on the date of the lodgment.

(13) Where the terms of any compromise or arrangement approved under this section provides for any money or other consideration to be held by or on behalf of any party to the compromise or arrangement in trust for any person, the person holding the money or other consideration may after the expiration of 2 years, and must before the expiration of 10 years, starting on the date on which the money or other consideration was received by the person, transfer the money or other consideration to the Official Receiver.

(14) The Official Receiver must —

- (b) sell or dispose of any other consideration received under subsection (13) in such manner as the Official Receiver thinks fit, and deal with the proceeds of the sale or disposal as if those proceeds were moneys paid to the Official Receiver under section 322.

215.—(1) Where a scheme or contract involving the transfer of all of the shares or all of the shares in any particular class in a company (referred to in this section as the transferor company) to a person (referred to in this section as the transferee) has, within 4 months after the making of the offer in that behalf by the transferee, been approved as to the shares or as to each class of shares whose transfer is involved by the holders of not less than 90% of the total number of those shares (excluding treasury shares) or of the shares of that class (other than shares already held at the date of the offer by the transferee, and excluding any shares in the transferor company held as treasury shares), the transferee may at any time within 2 months, after the offer has been so approved, give notice in the prescribed manner to any dissenting shareholder that it desires to acquire his shares; and when such a notice is given the transferee shall, unless on an application made by the dissenting shareholder within one month from the date on which the notice was given or within 14 days of a statement being supplied to a dissenting shareholder pursuant to subsection (2) (whichever is the later) the Court thinks fit to order otherwise, be entitled and bound to acquire those shares on the terms which, under the scheme or contract the shares of the approving shareholders are to be transferred to the transferee or if the offer contained 2 or more alternative sets of terms upon the terms which were specified in the offer as being applicable to dissenting shareholders.

[15/84; 8/2003; 21/2005]

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(1A) Where alternative terms were offered to the shareholders, a dissenting shareholder is entitled to elect not later than the end of one month after the date on which the notice is given under subsection (1), or 14 days after a statement is supplied under subsection (2), whichever is the later, which of those terms the dissenting shareholder prefers.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(1B) In offering alternative terms to the shareholders, the transferee shall state which of those terms is to apply to the acquisition of the shares of a dissenting shareholder where the dissenting shareholder fails to make the election within the time allowed under subsection (1A).

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(1C) In determining whether the scheme or contract has been approved by the holders of the requisite number of shares, or shares of any particular class, under subsection (1), the following shares shall be disregarded:

- (a) shares that are issued after the date of the offer; and
- (b) relevant treasury shares that cease to be held as treasury shares after the date of the offer.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(1D) In subsection (1C)(b), “relevant treasury shares” means —

- (a) shares that are held by the transferor company as treasury shares on the date of the offer; or
- (b) shares that become shares held by the transferor company as treasury shares after the date of the offer but before a date specified in or determined in accordance with the terms of the offer.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(2) Where a transferee has given notice to any dissenting shareholder that it desires to acquire his shares, the dissenting shareholder shall be entitled to require the transferor company by a demand in writing served on the transferor company, within one month from the date on which the notice was given, to supply him with a statement in writing of the names and addresses of all other dissenting shareholders as shown in the register of members, and the transferee shall not be entitled or bound to acquire the shares of the dissenting shareholders until 14 days after the posting of the statement of such names and addresses to the dissenting shareholder.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(3) Where, in pursuance of any such scheme or contract, shares in a transferor company are transferred to a transferee or its nominee and those shares together with any other shares in the transferor company held by the transferee at the date of the transfer comprise or include 90% of the total number of the shares in the transferor company or of any class of those shares, then —

- (a) the transferee shall within one month from the date of the transfer (unless on a previous transfer in pursuance of the scheme or contract it has already complied with this requirement) give notice of that fact in the prescribed manner to the holders of the remaining shares or of the remaining shares of that class who have not assented to the scheme or contract; and
- (b) any such holder may within 3 months from the giving of the notice to him require the transferee to acquire the shares in question, and where a shareholder gives notice under paragraph (b) with respect to any shares, the transferee shall be entitled and bound to acquire those shares on the terms on which under the scheme or contract the shares of the approving shareholders were transferred to it, or on such other terms as are agreed or as the Court on the application of either the transferee or the shareholder thinks fit to order.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(3A) In subsection (3), for the purpose of calculating whether 90% of the total number of shares are held by the transferee, shares held by the transferor company as treasury shares are to be treated as having been acquired by the transferee.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(4) Where a notice has been given by the transferee under subsection (1) and the Court has not, on an application made by the dissenting shareholder, ordered to the contrary, the transferee shall, after the expiration of one month after the date on which the notice has been given or, after 14 days after a statement has been supplied to a dissenting shareholder pursuant to subsection (2) or if an application to the Court by the dissenting shareholder is then pending, after that application has been disposed of, transmit a copy of the notice to the transferor company together with an instrument of transfer executed, on behalf of the shareholder by any person appointed by the transferee, and on its own behalf by the transferee, and pay, allot or transfer to the transferor company the amount or other consideration representing the price payable by the transferee for the shares which by virtue of this section the transferee is entitled to acquire, and the transferor company shall thereupon register the transferee as the holder of those shares.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(5) Any sums received by the transferor company under this section shall be paid into a separate bank account, and any such sums and any other consideration so received shall be held by the transferor company in trust for the several persons entitled to the shares in respect of which they were respectively received.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(6) Where any money or other consideration is held in trust by a company for any person under this section, the company holding the money or other consideration may, after the expiration of 2 years and shall before the expiration of 10 years from the date on which the money or other consideration was received by the person, transfer the money or other consideration to the Official Receiver.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 01/07/2015]

(7) The Official Receiver shall —

- (a) deal with any moneys received under subsection (6) as if the moneys were paid to him under section 322; and

- (b) sell or dispose of any other consideration received under subsection (6) in such manner as he thinks fit and shall deal with the proceeds of such sale or disposal as if it were moneys paid to him under section 322.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 01/07/2015]

(8) In this section, a dissenting shareholder includes a shareholder who has not assented to the scheme or contract and any shareholder who has failed or refused to transfer his shares to the transferee in accordance with the scheme or contract.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 01/07/2015]

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

- (b) “shareholders” includes holders of units of shares but does not include a person who holds units of shares only beneficially;
- (c) “register of members” includes any records kept by or with respect to the transferor company of the names and addresses of holders of units of shares.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(8B) Nothing in the definition of “shares” in subsection (8A) shall be read as requiring any securities to be treated —

- (a) as shares of the same class as those into which they are convertible or for which the holder is entitled to subscribe; or
- (b) as shares of the same class as other securities by reason only that the shares into which they are convertible or for which the holder is entitled to subscribe are of the same class.

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(9) For the purposes of this section, shares held or acquired —

- (a) by a nominee on behalf of the transferee; or

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

- (b) by a related corporation of the transferee or by a nominee of that related corporation,

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

shall be treated as held or acquired by the transferee.

[8/2003]

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(10) The reference in subsection (1) to shares already held by the transferee includes a reference to shares which the transferee has contracted to acquire but that shall not be construed as including shares which are the subject of a contract binding the holder thereof to accept the offer when it is made, being a contract entered into by the holder for no consideration and under seal or for no consideration other than a promise by the transferee to make the offer.

[8/2003]

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(11) Where, during the period within which an offer for the transfer of shares to the transferee can be approved, the transferee acquires or contracts to acquire any of the shares whose transfer is involved but otherwise than by virtue of the approval of the offer, then, if —

- (a) the consideration for which the shares are acquired or contracted to be acquired (referred to in this subsection as the acquisition consideration) does not at that time exceed the consideration specified in the terms of the offer; or
- (b) those terms are subsequently revised so that when the revision is announced the acquisition consideration, at the time referred to in paragraph (a), no longer exceeds the consideration specified in those terms, the transferee shall be treated for the purposes of this section as having acquired or contracted to acquire those shares by virtue of the approval of the offer.

215AA.—(1) In the case of a scheme involving an offer to acquire all of the shares in a company, or all of the shares in any particular class in a company, by 2 or more persons jointly (referred to in this section as the joint transferees), section 215 shall be read subject to this section.

(2) The conditions for the exercise of the rights conferred by section 215(1) are satisfied —

- (a) in the case of acquisitions of shares by virtue of acceptances of the offer, by the joint transferees acquiring or unconditionally contracting to acquire the necessary shares jointly; or

(3) The conditions for the exercise of the rights conferred by section 215(3) are satisfied —

Effect of impossibility, etc., of communicating or accepting offer made under scheme or contract

215AB.—(1) Where there are holders of shares in a company to whom an offer to acquire shares in the company is not communicated, that does not prevent the offer from being an offer made under a scheme or contract for the purposes of section 215 if —

- (a) those shareholders have no address in Singapore registered with the company;
- (b) the offer was not communicated to those shareholders —
 - (i) in order not to contravene the law of a country or territory outside Singapore; or
 - (ii) because communication to those shareholders would in the circumstances be unduly onerous; and
- (c) either —
 - (i) the offer is published in the Gazette; or
 - (ii) the offer can be inspected, or a copy of it obtained, at a place in Singapore or on a website, and a notice is published in the Gazette specifying the address of that place or website.

(2) Where an offer is made to acquire shares in a company and there are persons for whom, by reason of the law of a country or territory outside Singapore, it is impossible to accept the offer, or more difficult to do so, that does not prevent the offer from being made under a scheme or contract for the purposes of section 215.

(3) It is not to be inferred —

- (a) that an offer which is not communicated to every holder of shares in the company cannot be an offer made under a scheme or contract for the purposes of section 215 unless the requirements of subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c) are met; or
- (b) that an offer which is impossible, or more difficult, for certain persons to accept cannot be an offer made under a scheme or contract for those purposes unless the reason for the impossibility or difficulty is the reason mentioned in subsection (2).

227.—(1) If any receiver or manager of the property of a company who has made default in making or lodging any return, account or other document or in giving any notice required by law fails to make good the default within 14 days after the service on him by any member or creditor of the company or trustee for debenture holders of a notice requiring him to do so, the Court may, on an application made for the purpose by the person who has given the notice, make an order directing him to make good the default within such time as is specified in the order.

(2) If it appears that any receiver or manager of the property of a company has misapplied or retained or become liable or accountable for any money or property of the company or been guilty of any misfeasance or breach of trust or duty in relation to the company, the Court may on the application of any creditor or contributory or of the liquidator examine into the conduct of such receiver or manager and compel him to repay or restore the money or property or any part thereof with interest at such rate as the Court thinks just or to contribute such sum to the assets of the company by way of compensation in respect of the misapplication, retainer, misfeasance or breach of trust or duty as the Court thinks just.

(3) This section shall have effect notwithstanding that the offence is one for which the offender is criminally liable.

PART VIIIA

JUDICIAL MANAGEMENT

Interpretation of this Part

227AA. In this Part —

“chattels leasing agreement” means an agreement for the bailment of goods that are capable of subsisting for more than 3 months;

“company” means any corporation liable to be wound up under this Act;

“hire-purchase agreement” has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Hire-Purchase Act (Cap. 125);

“property”, in relation to a company, includes money, goods, things in action and every description of property, whether real or personal, and whether in Singapore or elsewhere, and also obligations and every description of interest whether present or future or vested or contingent arising out of, or incidental to, property;

“retention of title agreement” means an agreement for the sale of goods to a company, being an agreement —

(a) that does not constitute a charge on the goods; but

(b) under which, if the seller is not paid and the company is wound up, the seller will have priority over all other creditors of the company as respects the goods or any property representing the goods.

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

Application to Court for a company to be placed under judicial management and for appointment of a judicial manager

227A. Where a company or where a creditor or creditors of the company consider that —

- (a) the company is or will be unable to pay its debts; and
- (b) there is a reasonable probability of rehabilitating the company or of preserving all or part of its business as a going concern or that otherwise the interests of creditors would be better served than by resorting to a winding up, an application may be made to the Court under section 227B for an order that the company should be placed under the judicial management of a judicial manager.

Power of Court to make a judicial management order and appoint a judicial manager

227B.—(1) Where a company or its directors (pursuant to a resolution of its members or the board of directors) or a creditor or creditors (including any contingent or prospective creditor or creditors or all or any of those parties, together or separately), pursuant to section 227A, makes an application (referred to in this section as an application for a judicial management order) for an order that the company should be placed under the judicial management of a judicial manager, the Court may make a judicial management order in relation to the company if, and only if, —

- (a) it is satisfied that the company is or is likely to become unable to pay its debts; and

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

- (b) it considers that the making of the order would be likely to achieve one or more of the following purposes, namely:
 - (i) the survival of the company, or the whole or part of its undertaking as a going concern;
 - (ii) the approval under section 210 or 211I of a compromise or arrangement between the company and any such persons as are mentioned in that section;

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

(iii) a more advantageous realisation of the company's assets would be effected than on a winding up.

[13/87; 42/2005]

(2) Any judicial management order made under subsection (1) shall direct that during the period in which the order is in force the affairs, business and property of the company shall be managed by a judicial manager appointed for the purpose by the Court; and such an order shall specify the purpose or purposes for whose achievement the order is made.

[13/87]

(3)(a) In any application for a judicial management order under subsection (1), the applicant shall nominate a person who is a public accountant, who is not the auditor of the company, to act as a judicial manager.

- (b) The Court may reject the nomination of the applicant and appoint another person in his stead.
- (c) Where a nomination is made by the company, a majority in number and value of the creditors (including contingent or prospective creditors) may be heard in opposition to the nomination and the Court may, if satisfied as to the value of the creditors' claims and as to the grounds of opposition, invite the creditors to nominate a person in his stead and, if it sees fit, adopt their nomination.
- (d) Nothing in this subsection shall prevent the Minister from himself nominating a person to act as a judicial manager if he considers that the public interest so requires and in such a case the Minister may be heard in support of his nomination and for this purpose may be represented.
- (e) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), where a person is appointed by the Court or nominated by the Minister to act as a judicial manager that person need not be a public accountant.

(4) When an application for a judicial management order is made to the Court, notice of the application —

- (a) shall be published in the Gazette and in an English local daily newspaper and a copy thereof sent to the Registrar; and

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

- (b) shall be given —

- (i) to the company, in a case where a creditor is the applicant; and

- (ii) to any person who has appointed or is or may be entitled to appoint a receiver and manager of the whole (or substantially the whole) of a company's property under the terms of any debentures of a company secured by a floating charge or by a floating charge and one or more fixed charges. In the case of any such floating charge created by an instrument before 15th May 1987, it shall be deemed to contain a power to appoint a receiver and manager in the event that an application under this section is made for the appointment of a judicial manager with the result that the holder of that floating charge shall, in accordance with this paragraph, be given notice of the application.

[13/87; 42/2005]

(5) Subject to subsection (10), the Court must dismiss an application for a judicial management order if —

- (a) the making of the order is opposed by a person who has appointed, will appoint or is entitled to appoint, a receiver and manager mentioned in subsection (4); and

- (b) the Court is satisfied that the prejudice that would be caused to the person mentioned in paragraph (a) if the order is made is disproportionately greater than the prejudice that would be caused to unsecured creditors of the company if the application is dismissed.

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

(6) On hearing the application for a judicial management order, the Court may dismiss the application or adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally or make an interim order or any other order that it thinks fit.

[42/2005]

(7) A judicial management order shall not be made in relation to a company —

- (a) after the company has gone into liquidation;
- (b) where the company is a bank licensed under the Banking Act (Cap. 19) or is a finance company licensed under the Finance Companies Act (Cap. 108);
- (c) where the company is an insurance company licensed under the Insurance Act (Cap. 142); or

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

[13/87]

[Act 11 of 2013 wef 18/04/2013]

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

- (d) where the company belongs to such class of companies as the Minister may by order in the Gazette prescribe.

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

(8) A judicial management order shall, unless it is otherwise discharged, remain in force for a period of 180 days from the date of the making of the order but the Court may, on application of a judicial manager, increase this period subject to such terms as the Court may impose.

[13/87]

(9) The costs and expenses of any unsuccessful application for a judicial management order made under this section shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, be borne by the applicant and, if the Court considers that the application is frivolous or vexatious, it may make such orders, as it thinks just and equitable, to redress any injustice that may have resulted.

[42/2005]

- (10) Nothing in this section shall preclude a Court —
- (a) from making a judicial management order and appointing a judicial manager if it considers the public interest so requires; or
 - (b) from appointing, after the making of an application for a judicial management order and on the application of the person applying for the judicial management order, an interim judicial manager, pending the making of a judicial management order, and such interim judicial manager may, if the Court sees fit, be the person nominated in the application for a judicial management order. The interim judicial manager so appointed may exercise such functions, powers and duties as the Court may specify in the order.

[13/87; 42/2005]

(11) [Deleted by Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

(12) The definition in section 254(2) of “inability to pay debts” shall apply for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of Division 2 of Part X.

[13/87]

- (c) no other proceedings and no execution or other legal process shall be commenced or continued and no distress may be levied against the company or its property except

(2) Where any receiver and manager has vacated office under subsection (1)(a) — shall be charged on and, subject to subsection (4), paid out of any property which was in his custody or under his control at the time in priority to any security held by the person by or on whose behalf he was appointed.

[13/87]

(3) Neither a receiver nor a receiver and manager of a company who vacates office under subsection (1)(a) shall be required on or after so vacating office to take steps to comply with any duty imposed on him by section 226.

[13/87]

(4) During the period for which a judicial management order is in force —

- (a) no order may be made, and no resolution may be passed, for the winding up of the company;
- (b) no receiver or manager may be appointed over any property or undertaking of the company;
- (c) no other proceedings may be commenced or continued against the company, except with the consent of the judicial manager, or with the leave of the Court and subject to such terms as the Court imposes;

- (e) no step may be taken to enforce any security over any property of the company, or to repossess any goods under any chattels leasing agreement, hire-purchase agreement, or retention of title agreement, except with the consent of the judicial manager, or with the leave of the Court and subject to such terms as the Court imposes; and
- (f) despite sections 18 and 18A of the Conveyancing and Law of Property Act (Cap. 61), no right of re-entry or forfeiture under any lease in respect of any premises occupied by the company may be enforced, except with the consent of the judicial manager, or with the leave of the Court and subject to such terms as the Court imposes.

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

(5) Subsection (4) does not affect the exercise of any legal right under any arrangement (including a set-off arrangement or a netting arrangement) that may be prescribed by regulations made under section 411.

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

(6) In this section —

“netting arrangement” means an arrangement under which 2 or more claims or obligations can be converted into a net claim or obligation, and includes a close-out netting arrangement (under which actual or theoretical debts are calculated during the course of a contract for the purpose of enabling them to be set-off against each other or to be converted into a net debt);

“set-off arrangement” means an arrangement under which 2 or more debts, claims or obligations can be set off against each other.

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

Notification of judicial management order

227E.—(1) Every invoice, order for goods or business letter which, at a time when a judicial management order is in force in relation to a company, is issued by or on behalf of the company or the judicial manager, being a document on or in which the company's name appears, shall contain a statement that the affairs, business and property of the company are being managed by the judicial manager.

[13/87]

(2) If default is made in complying with this section, the company, the judicial manager and any officer of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits the default shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 and also to a default penalty.

[13/87]

Vacancy in appointment of judicial manager

227F. If a vacancy occurs by death, resignation or otherwise in the office of a judicial manager of a company, the Court may, on the application of the company or any creditor or creditors of the company or the Minister, by order, fill the vacancy.

[13/87]

General powers and duties of judicial manager

227G.—(1) On the making of a judicial management order, the judicial manager shall take into his custody or under his control all the property to which the company is or appears to be entitled.

[13/87]

(2) During the period for which a judicial management order is in force, all powers conferred and duties imposed on the directors by this Act or by the constitution of the company shall be exercised and performed by the judicial manager and not by the directors; but nothing in this subsection shall require the judicial manager to call any meetings of the company.

[13/87]

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(3) The judicial manager of a company —

(a) shall do all such things as may be necessary for the management of the affairs, business and property of the company; and

(b) shall do all such other things as the Court may by order sanction.

[13/87]

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3)(a), the powers conferred by that subsection shall include the powers specified in the Eleventh Schedule.

[13/87]

(5) The judicial manager may apply to the Court for directions in relation to any particular matter arising in connection with the carrying out of his functions.

[13/87]

(6) Nothing in this section shall be taken as authorising the judicial manager of a company to make any payment towards discharging any debt to which the company was subject on the making of the judicial management order unless —

(a) the making of the payment is sanctioned by the Court or the payment is made in pursuance of a compromise or arrangement so sanctioned; or

(b) the payment is made towards discharging sums secured by a security or payable under a hire-purchase agreement, chattels leasing agreement or retention of title agreement to which section 227H(2), (5) and (6) applies.

[13/87]

(7) The judicial manager of a company may, if he thinks fit, at any time summon a meeting of the company's creditors; and the judicial manager shall summon such a meeting if he is directed to do so by the Court.

[13/87]

(8) Any alteration in the company's constitution made by virtue of an order under subsection (3)(b) is of the same effect as if duly made by resolution of the company, and the provisions of this Act apply to the constitution as so altered accordingly.

[13/87]

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(9) An office copy of an order under subsection (3)(b) sanctioning the alteration of the company's constitution shall, within 14 days from the making of the order, be delivered by the judicial manager to the Registrar.

[13/87]

[Act 36 of 2014 wef 03/01/2016]

(10) A person dealing with the judicial manager of a company in good faith and for value shall not be concerned to inquire whether the judicial manager is acting within his powers.

[13/87]

Power to deal with charged property, etc.

227H.—(1) The judicial manager of a company may dispose of or otherwise exercise his powers in relation to any property of the company which is subject to a security to which this subsection applies as if the property were not subject to the security.

[13/87]

(2) Where, on application by the judicial manager of a company, the Court is satisfied that the disposal (with or without other assets) —

(a) of any property of the company subject to a security to which this subsection applies; or

(b) of any goods under a hire-purchase agreement, chattels leasing agreement or retention of title agreement, would be likely to promote one or more of the purposes specified in the judicial management order, the Court may by order authorise the judicial manager to dispose of the property as if it were not subject to the security or to dispose of the goods as if all rights of the owner under the hire-purchase agreement, chattels leasing agreement or retention of title agreement were vested in the company.

(3) Subsection (1) applies to any security which, as created, was a floating charge and subsection (2) applies to any other security.

[13/87]

(4) Where any property is disposed of under subsection (1), the holder of the security shall have the same priority in respect of any property of the company directly or indirectly representing the property disposed of as he would have had in respect of the property subject to the security.

[13/87]

(5) It shall be a condition of an order made under subsection (2) that the net proceeds of the disposal shall be applied towards discharging the sums secured by the security or payable under the hire-purchase agreement, chattels leasing agreement or retention of title agreement and where the net proceeds of the disposal are less than the sums secured by the security or payable under any of those agreements, the holder of the security or the owner of the goods, as the case may be, may prove on a winding up for any balance due to him.

[13/87]

(6) Where a condition imposed in pursuance of subsection (5) relates to 2 or more securities, that condition shall require the net proceeds of the disposal to be applied towards discharging the sums secured by those securities in the order of their priorities.

[13/87]

(7)(a) A copy of an order made under subsection (2) shall, within 14 days after the making of the order, be sent by the judicial manager to the Registrar.

(b) Seven days' notice of an application by the judicial manager to the Court to dispose of property subject to a security under subsection (2) shall be given to the holder of the security or to the owner of the goods which are subject to any of the agreements mentioned in that subsection and the holder or the owner, as the case may be, may oppose the disposal of the property.

[13/87; 12/2002]

(8) If the judicial manager, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with subsection (7), he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 and also to a default penalty.

[13/87]

(9) [Deleted by Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

(10) Nothing in this section shall be regarded as prejudicing an application to the Court under section 227R.

[13/87]

Super priority for rescue financing

227HA.—(1) At any time when a judicial management order is in force, the Court may, on an application by the judicial manager, make one or more of the following orders:

- (a) an order that if the company is wound up, the debt arising from any rescue financing obtained, or to be obtained, by the company is to be treated as if it were part of the costs and expenses of the winding up mentioned in section 328(1)(a);
- (b) an order that if the company is wound up, the debt arising from any rescue financing obtained, or to be obtained, by the company is to have priority over all the preferential debts specified in section 328(1)(a) to (g) and all other unsecured debts, if the company would not have been able to obtain the rescue financing from any person unless the debt arising from the rescue financing is given the priority mentioned in this paragraph;
- (c) an order that the debt arising from any rescue financing to be obtained by the company is to be secured by —
 - (i) a security interest on property of the company that is not otherwise subject to any security interest; or
 - (ii) a subordinate security interest on property of the company that is subject to an existing security interest,

if the company would not have been able to obtain the rescue financing from any person unless the debt arising from the rescue financing is secured in the manner mentioned in this paragraph;

- (d) an order that the debt arising from any rescue financing to be obtained by the company is to be secured by a security interest, on property of the company that is subject to an existing security interest, of the same priority as or a higher priority than that existing security interest, if —

- (i) the company would not have been able to obtain the rescue financing from any person unless the debt arising from the rescue financing is secured in the manner mentioned in this paragraph; and
- (ii) there is adequate protection for the interests of the holder of that existing security interest.

(2) A judicial manager that makes an application under subsection (1) must send a notice of the application to each creditor of the company.

(3) Any creditor of the company may oppose an application under subsection (1).

(4) Where a company that has 2 or more super priority debts is wound up, the super priority debts —

- (a) rank equally in priority between themselves; and
- (b) are to be paid in full or, if the company has insufficient property to meet them, are to abate in equal proportions between themselves.

(5) Where a company that has 2 or more super priority debts is wound up, the super priority debts constitute one class of debts and, despite section 328 —

- (a) the super priority debts are to be paid in priority to all the preferential debts specified in section 328(1)(a) to (g) and all other unsecured debts; and
- (b) if the property of the company available for the payment of the super priority debts is insufficient to meet the super priority debts, the super priority debts —
 - (i) have priority over the claims of the holders of any debentures of the company secured by a floating charge (which, as created, was a floating charge); and

- (ii) are to be paid out of any property comprised in or subject to that floating charge.

(6) The reversal or modification on appeal of an order under subsection (1)(c) or (d) does not affect the validity of any debt so incurred, or any security interest that was granted pursuant to the order, or the priority of that security interest, if the rescue financing (from which arose the debt intended to be secured by that security interest) was provided in good faith, whether or not with knowledge of the appeal, unless the order was stayed pending the appeal before the rescue financing was provided.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (1)(d)(ii), there is adequate protection for the interests of the holder of an existing security interest on the property of a company, if —

- (a) the Court orders the company to make one or more cash payments to the holder, the total amount of which is sufficient to compensate the holder for any decrease in the value of the holder's existing security interest that may result from the making of the order under subsection (1)(d);
- (b) the Court orders the company to provide to the holder additional or replacement security of a value sufficient to compensate the holder for any decrease in the value of the holder's existing security interest that may result from the making of the order under subsection (1)(d); or
- (c) the Court grants any relief (other than compensation) that will result in the realisation by the holder of the indubitable equivalent of the holder's existing security interest.

(8) Section 329 does not affect any priority conferred, any security interest or relief granted, or any payment made, pursuant to and in accordance with an order made by the Court under subsection (1).

(9) The judicial manager must, within 14 days after the date of an order under subsection (1), lodge a copy of the order with the Registrar.

(10) In this section —

“rescue financing” means any financing that satisfies one or more of the following conditions:

- (a) the financing is necessary for the survival of a company that obtains the financing, or of the whole or any part of the undertaking of that company, as a going concern;
- (b) the financing is necessary for the Court’s approval under section 210(4) or 211I(6) of a compromise or an arrangement mentioned in section 210(1) or 211I(1) (as the case may be) involving a company that obtains the financing;
- (c) the financing is necessary to achieve a more advantageous realisation of the assets of a company that obtains the financing, than on a winding up of that company;

“security interest” means any mortgage, charge, pledge, lien or other type of security interest recognised by law;

“super priority debt” means a debt, arising from any rescue financing obtained or to be obtained by a company, that is to have priority, pursuant to an order under subsection (1)(b), over all the preferential debts specified in section 328(1)(a) to (g) and all other unsecured debts, if the company is wound up.

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

Agency and liability for contracts

227I.—(1) The judicial manager of a company —

- (a) shall be deemed to be the agent of the company;
- (b) shall be personally liable on any contract, including any contract of employment, entered into or adopted by him in the carrying out of his functions (except in so far as the contract or a notice under subsection (2) otherwise provides); and

- (c) shall be entitled to be indemnified in respect of that liability, and to have his remuneration and expenses defrayed, out of the property of the company which is in his custody or under his control in priority to all other debts except those subject to a security to which section 227H(2) applies.

[13/87]

(2) Where a contract entered into by the company is adopted by the judicial manager, he may, by notice given to the other party, disclaim any personal liability under that contract.

[13/87]

(3) For the purposes of this section, the judicial manager is not to be taken to have adopted a contract entered into by the company by reason of anything done or omitted to be done within 28 days after the making of the judicial management order.

[13/87]

(4) Nothing in this section shall —

- (a) limit the right of a judicial manager to seek an indemnity from any other person in respect of contracts entered into by him that are approved by the Court; or
- (b) make the judicial manager personally liable for payment of rent under leases held by the company at the time of his appointment.

[13/87]

Vacation of office and release

227J.—(1) The judicial manager of a company may at any time be removed from office by order of the Court and may, with leave of the Court and subject to such conditions as the Court may impose, resign his office by giving notice of his resignation to the Court.

[13/87]

(2) The judicial manager of a company shall vacate office if —

- (a) being a public accountant at the time of his appointment, he ceases to be a public accountant; or
- (b) the judicial management order is discharged.

[13/87; 5/2004]

(3) Where at any time a person ceases to be a judicial manager of a company whether by virtue of this section or by reason of his death —

(a) any sums payable in respect of any debts or liabilities incurred while he was a judicial manager under contracts entered into by him in the carrying out of his functions; and

(b) any remuneration and expenses properly incurred by him, shall be charged on and paid out of the property of the company in his custody or under his control in priority to all other debts, except those subject to a security to which section 227H(2) applies.

[13/87]

(4) Where a person ceases to be a judicial manager of a company, he shall, from such time as the Court may determine, be released from any liability in respect of any act or omission by him in the management of the company or otherwise in relation to his conduct as a judicial manager but nothing in this section shall relieve him of any of the liabilities referred to in section 227Q(4).

[13/87]

Information to be given by and to judicial manager

227K.—(1) Where a judicial management order has been made, the judicial manager shall —

(a) immediately send to the Registrar a copy of the order;

(b) immediately send to the company and publish a notice of the order in the Gazette and in an English local daily newspaper; and

[Act 15 of 2017 wef 23/05/2017]

(c) within 28 days after the making of the order, unless the Court otherwise directs, send such a notice to all creditors of the company (so far as he is aware of the addresses), and the Registrar shall enter the copy of the order in his records of the company.

(2) A statement as to the affairs of the company shall be made out and submitted to the judicial manager in accordance with section 227L within 21 days after receipt by the company of the [13/87]

(3) If a person, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with this section he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 and also to a default penalty.

[13/87]

227L.—(1) The company's statement of affairs required by section 227K to be submitted to the judicial manager shall show as at the date of the judicial management order —

[13/87]

(3) The persons referred to in subsection (2) are —

235. Where an inspector thinks it necessary for the purposes of the investigation of the affairs of a company to investigate the affairs of a corporation which is or has at any relevant time been a corporation deemed to be related by virtue of section 6 to the company, he may, with the consent in writing of the Minister, investigate the affairs of that corporation.

Procedure and powers of inspector

236.—(1) If an inspector appointed to investigate the affairs of a company thinks it necessary for the purposes of the investigation to investigate also the affairs of any other corporation which is or has at any relevant time been deemed to be or to have been related to that company by virtue of section 6, he shall have power to do so, and he shall report on the affairs of the other corporation so far as he thinks the results of the investigation thereof are relevant to the investigation of the affairs of the company.

(2) Every officer and agent of a corporation the affairs of which are being investigated under this Part shall, if required by an inspector appointed under this Part, produce to the inspector all books and documents in his custody or power and shall give to the inspector all assistance in connection with the investigation which he is reasonably able to give.

(3) An inspector may, by notice in the prescribed form, require any officer or agent of any corporation whose affairs are being investigated pursuant to this Part to appear for examination on oath or affirmation (which he is hereby authorised to administer) in relation to its business; and the notice may require the production of all books and documents in the custody or under the control of that officer or agent.

(4) An inspector who, pursuant to this section, requires the production of all books and documents in the custody or power or under the control of an officer or agent of any corporation whose affairs are being investigated under or pursuant to this Part —

[13/87]

(5) If any officer or agent of any corporation, the affairs of which are being investigated pursuant to this Part, fails to comply with the requirements of any notice issued under subsection (3) or fails or refuses to answer any question which is put to him by an inspector with respect to the affairs of the corporation or that officer or agent is a director or past director to whom subsection (4A) applies, if he fails to comply with a requirement of an inspector under that subsection, the inspector may certify the failure or refusal under his hand to the Court, which may thereupon inquire into the case and, after hearing any witnesses against or on behalf of the alleged offender and any statement offered in defence, punish the offender in like manner as if he had been guilty of contempt of the Court.

[13/87]

(6) No person, who is or has formerly been an officer or agent of a corporation the affairs of which are being investigated under this Part, shall be entitled to refuse to answer any question which is relevant or material to the investigation on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him but if he claims that the answer to any question, might incriminate him and but for this subsection he would have been entitled to refuse to answer the question, the answer to the question shall not be used in any subsequent criminal proceedings except in the case of a charge against him for making a false statement in answer to that question.

(7) Subject to subsection (6), any person shall be entitled to refuse to answer a question on the ground that the answer might tend to incriminate him.

(8) An inspector may cause notes of any examination under this Part to be recorded and reduced to writing and to be read to or by and signed by the person examined and any such signed notes may except in the case of any answer which that person would not have been required to give but for subsection (6) thereafter be used in evidence in any legal proceedings against that person.

237.—(1) The expenses of and incidental to an investigation by an inspector appointed pursuant to sections 232 and 243 (including the costs of any proceedings brought by the Minister in the name of the company), shall be paid by the company investigated or if the Minister so directs by the applicants or in part by the company and in part by the applicants.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) —

- (a) if the company fails to pay the whole or any part of the sum which it is so liable to pay, the applicants shall make good the deficiency up to the amount by which the security given by them under this Part exceeds the amount, if any, which they have under subsection (1) been directed by the Minister to pay; and

243.—(1) Where it appears to the Minister that there is good reason to do so, he may appoint one or more inspectors to investigate and report on the membership of any corporation, whether or not it is a declared company, and otherwise with respect to the corporation for the purpose of determining the true persons who are or have been financially interested in the success or failure, real or apparent, of the corporation or able to control or materially to influence the policy of the corporation.

(2) The appointment of an inspector under this section may define the scope of his investigation, whether as respects the matters or the period to which it is to extend or otherwise, and in particular may limit the investigation to matters connected with particular shares or debentures.

(3) Where an application for an investigation under this section with respect to particular shares or debentures of a corporation is made to the Minister by members of the corporation, and the number of applicants or the amount of the shares held by them is not less than that required for an application for the appointment of an inspector under section 232, the Minister shall appoint an inspector to conduct the investigation unless he is satisfied that the application is vexatious, and the inspector's appointment shall not exclude from the scope of his investigation any matter which the application seeks to have included therein, except in so far as the Minister is satisfied that it is unreasonable for that matter to be investigated.

they apply in relation to officers and agents of the corporation or of the other corporation, as the case may be; and

- (b) the Minister shall not be bound to furnish the corporation or any other person with a copy of any report by an inspector appointed under this section or with a complete copy thereof if he is of opinion that there is good reason for not divulging the contents of the report or of parts thereof, but may, if he thinks fit, cause to be kept by the Registrar a copy of the report or, as the case may be, the parts of the report, as respects which he is not of that opinion.

Power to require information as to persons interested in shares or debentures

244.—(1) Where it appears to the Minister that there is good reason to investigate the ownership of any shares in or debentures of a corporation and that it is unnecessary to appoint an inspector for the purpose, he may require any person whom he has reasonable cause to believe to have or to be able to obtain any information as to the present and past interests in those shares or debentures and the names and addresses of the persons interested and of any persons who act or have acted on their behalf in relation to the shares or debentures to give such information to the Minister.

[62/70]

(5) The Minister may by notification in the Gazette delegate his powers under this section either generally or in any particular case to a committee of a securities exchange that has been approved by him under any written law relating to the securities industry or to any body, panel or committee that has been established to advise him on matters connected with the securities industry.

Power to impose restrictions on shares or debentures

- (a) that any transfer of those shares or any exercise of the right to acquire or dispose of those shares or in the case of unissued shares any transfer of the right to be issued therewith and any issue thereof, shall be void;

(3) Where any shares are for the time being subject to any restrictions referred to in subsection (1), any person who —

Unlimited liability of directors

(2) In the winding up of a limited company any director, whether past or present, whose liability is unlimited shall in addition to his liability, if any, to contribute as an ordinary member be liable to make a further contribution as if he were, at the commencement of the winding up, a member of an unlimited company.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where it appears to the Court that it will not be necessary to make calls on or adjust the rights of contributories, the Court may dispense with the settlement of a list of contributories.

(3) In settling the list of contributories, the Court shall distinguish between persons who are contributories in their own right and persons who are contributories as being representatives of or liable for the debts of others.

(4) The list of contributories, when settled, shall be prima facie evidence of the liabilities of the persons named therein as contributories.

Payment of debts due by contributory, to company, and extent to which set-off allowed

- (a) in the case of an unlimited company, allow to the contributory by way of set-off any money due to him or to the estate which he represents from the company on any independent dealing or contract but not any money due to him as a member of the company in respect of any dividend or profit; and
- (b) in the case of a limited company, make to any director whose liability is unlimited or to his estate the like allowance, and, in making a call, may take into consideration the probability that some of the contributories may partly or wholly fail to pay the call.

Payment into bank of moneys due to company

(3) The Court may order any contributory, purchaser or other person from whom money is due to the company to pay the amount due into some bank, named in such order, to the account of the liquidator instead of to the liquidator, and any such order may be enforced in the same manner as if it had directed payment to the liquidator.

(4) All moneys and securities paid or delivered into any bank pursuant to this Division shall be subject in all respects to orders of the Court.

Order on contributory conclusive evidence

(3) The debts in each class, specified in subsection (1), shall rank in the order therein specified but as between debts of the same class shall rank equally between themselves, and shall be paid in full, unless the property of the company is insufficient to meet them, in which case they shall abate in equal proportions between themselves.

(4) Where any payment has been made to any employee of the company on account of wages, salary or vacation leave out of money advanced by a person for that purpose, the person by whom the money was advanced shall, in a winding up, have a right of priority in respect of the money so advanced and paid, up to the amount by which the sum in respect of which the employee would have been entitled to priority in the winding up has been diminished by reason of the payment, and shall have the same right of priority in respect of that amount as the employee would have had if the payment had not been made.

(5) So far as the assets of the company available for payment of general creditors are insufficient to meet any preferential debts specified in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c), (e) and (f) and any amount payable in priority by virtue of subsection (4), those debts shall have priority over the claims of the holders of debentures under any floating charge created by the company (which charge, as created, was a floating charge), and shall be paid accordingly out of any property comprised in or subject to that charge.

(6) Where the company is under a contract of insurance (entered into before the commencement of the winding up) insured against liability to third parties, then if any such liability is incurred by the company (either before or after the commencement of the winding up) and an amount in respect of that liability is or has been received by the company or the liquidator from the insurer the amount shall, after deducting any expenses of or incidental to getting in such amount, be paid by the liquidator to the third party in respect of whom the liability was incurred to the extent necessary to discharge that liability or any part of that liability remaining undischarged in priority to all payments in respect of the debts referred to in subsection (1).

(7) If the liability of the insurer to the company is less than the liability of the company to the third party, nothing in subsection (6) shall limit the rights of the third party in respect of the balance.

view to giving those creditors an advantage over others in consideration of the risks run by them in so doing.

Subdivision (3) — Effect on other transactions

Undue preference

329.—(1) Subject to this Act and such modifications as may be prescribed, any transfer, mortgage, delivery of goods, payment, execution or other act relating to property made or done by or against a company which, had it been made or done by or against an individual, would in his bankruptcy be void or voidable under section 98, 99 or 103 of the Bankruptcy Act (Cap. 20) (read with sections 100, 101 and 102 thereof) shall in the event of the company being wound up be void or voidable in like manner.

[15/95]

(a) in the case of a winding up by the Court —

(i) the date of the making of the winding up application;
or

(ii) where before the making of the winding up application a resolution has been passed by the company for voluntary winding up, the date upon which the resolution to wind up the company voluntarily is passed,

Effect of floating charge

330. A floating charge on the undertaking or property of the company created within 6 months of the commencement of the winding up shall, unless it is proved that the company immediately after the creation of the charge was solvent, be invalid except to the amount of any cash paid to the company at the time of or subsequently to the creation of and in consideration for the charge together with interest on that amount at the rate of 5% per annum.

Liquidator's right to recover in respect of certain sales to or by company

331.—(1) Where any property, business or undertaking has been acquired by a company for a cash consideration within a period of 2 years before the commencement of the winding up of the company —

- (a) from a person who was at the time of the acquisition a director of the company; or
- (b) from a company of which, at the time of the acquisition, a person was a director who was also a director of the first-mentioned company, the liquidator may recover from the person or company from which the property, business or undertaking was acquired any amount by which the cash consideration for the acquisition exceeded the value of the property, business or undertaking at the time of its acquisition.

(2) Where any property, business or undertaking has been sold by a company for a cash consideration within a period of 2 years before the commencement of the winding up of the company —

- (a) to a person who was at the time of the sale a director of the company; or
- (b) to a company of which at the time of the sale a person was a director who was also a director of the company first-mentioned in this subsection, the liquidator may recover from the person or company to which the property, business or undertaking was sold any amount by which the value of the property, business or undertaking at the time of the sale exceeded the cash consideration.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the value of the property, business or undertaking includes the value of any goodwill or profits which might have been made from the business or undertaking or similar considerations.

(4) In this section “cash consideration”, in relation to an acquisition or sale by a company, means consideration for such acquisition or sale payable otherwise than by the issue of shares in the company.

Disclaimer of onerous property

332.—(1) Where any part of the property of a company consists of —

- (a) any estate or interest in land which is burdened with onerous covenants;
- (b) shares in corporations;
- (c) unprofitable contracts; or
- (d) any other property that is unsaleable, or not readily saleable, by reason of its binding the possessor thereof to the performance of any onerous act, or to the payment of any sum of money, the liquidator of the company, notwithstanding that he has endeavoured to sell or has taken possession of the property or exercised any act of ownership in relation thereto, may, with the leave of the Court or the committee of inspection and, subject to this section, by writing signed by him, at any time within 12 months after the commencement of the winding up or such extended period as is allowed by the Court, disclaim the property; but where any such property has not come to the knowledge of the liquidator within one month after the commencement of the winding up, the power of disclaiming may be exercised at any time within 12 months after he has become aware thereof or such extended period as is allowed by the Court.

(2) The disclaimer shall operate to determine, as from the date of disclaimer, the rights, interest and liabilities of the company and the property of the company in or in respect of the property disclaimed, but shall not, except so far as is necessary for the purpose of releasing the company and the property of the company from liability, affect the rights or liabilities of any other person.

(3) The Court or the committee before or on granting leave to disclaim may require such notices to be given to persons interested, and impose such terms as a condition of granting leave, and make such other order in the matter as the Court or committee thinks just.

(4) The liquidator shall not be entitled to disclaim if an application in writing has been made to him by any person interested in the property requiring him to decide whether he will or will not disclaim, and the liquidator has not, within a period of 28 days after the receipt of the application or such further period as is allowed by the Court or the committee, given notice to the applicant that he intends to apply to the Court or the committee for leave to disclaim, and, in the case of a contract, if the liquidator after such an application in writing does not within that period or further period disclaim the contract the liquidator shall be deemed to have adopted it.

(5) The Court may, on the application of a person who is, as against the liquidator, entitled to the benefit or subject to the burden of a contract made with the company, make an order rescinding the contract on such terms as to payment by or to either party of damages for the non-performance of the contract, or otherwise as the Court thinks just, and any damages payable under the order to that person may be proved by him as a debt in the winding up.

(6) The Court may, on the application of a person who either claims any interest in any disclaimed property or is under any liability not discharged by this Act in respect of any disclaimed property and on hearing such persons as it thinks fit, make an order for the vesting of the property in or the delivery of the property to any person entitled thereto, or to whom it seems just that the property should be delivered by way of compensation for such liability as aforesaid, or a trustee for him, and on such terms as the Court thinks just, and on any such vesting order being made and a copy thereof and an office copy thereof being lodged with the Registrar and the Official Receiver, respectively, and if the order relates to land with the appropriate authority concerned with the recording or registration of dealings in that land, as the case requires, the property comprised therein shall vest accordingly in the person therein named in that behalf without any further conveyance, transfer or assignment.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (6), where the property disclaimed is of a leasehold nature, the Court shall not make a vesting order in favour of any person claiming under the company, whether as under-lessee or as mortgagee, except upon the terms of making that person —

- (a) subject to the same liabilities and obligations as those to which the company was subject under the lease in respect of the property at the commencement of the winding up; or
- (b) if the Court thinks fit, subject only to the same liabilities and obligations as if the lease had been assigned to that person at that date, and in either event, if the case so requires, as if the lease had comprised only the property comprised in the vesting order, and any under-lessee or mortgagee declining to accept a vesting order upon such terms shall be excluded from all interest in and security upon the property, and, if there is no person claiming under the company who is willing to accept an order upon such terms, the Court may vest the estate and interest of the company in the property in any person liable personally or in a representative character and either alone or jointly with the company to perform the lessee's covenants in the lease, freed and discharged from all estates, incumbrances and interests created therein by the company.

(8) Any person injured by the operation of a disclaimer under this section shall be deemed to be a creditor of the company to the amount of the injury, and may accordingly prove the amount as a debt in the winding up.

(9) The Minister may direct that the whole or any part of any costs and expenses properly incurred by the liquidator in proceedings brought under this section shall be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.

(2) The Official Receiver may execute or sign any relevant instrument or document adding a memorandum stating that he has done so in pursuance of this section, and such execution or signature shall have the same force, validity and effect as if the company if existing had duly executed such instrument or document.

Outstanding assets of defunct company to vest in Official Receiver

346.—(1) Where, after a company has been dissolved, there remains any outstanding property, movable or immovable, including things in action and whether in or outside Singapore which was vested in the company or to which it was entitled, or over which it had a disposing power at the time it was so dissolved, but which was not got in, realised upon or otherwise disposed of or dealt with by the company or its liquidator, such property except called and uncalled capital, shall, for the purposes of the following sections of this Subdivision and notwithstanding any written law or rule of law to the contrary, by the operation of this section, be and become vested in the Official Receiver for all the estate and interest therein legal or equitable of the company or its liquidator at the date the company was dissolved, together with all claims, rights and remedies which the company or its liquidator then had in respect thereof.

Liability of Official Receiver and Government as to property vested in Official Receiver

348. Property vested in the Official Receiver by operation of this Subdivision or by operation of any corresponding previous written law shall be liable and subject to all charges, claims and liabilities imposed thereon or affecting such property by reason of any statutory provision as to rates, taxes, charges or any other matter or thing to which such property would have been liable or subject had such property continued in the possession, ownership or occupation of the company; but there shall not be imposed on the Official Receiver or the Government any duty, obligation or liability whatsoever to do or suffer any act or thing required by any such statutory provision to be done or suffered by the owner or occupier other than the satisfaction or payment of any such charges, claims or liabilities out of the assets of the company so far as they are in the opinion of the Official Receiver properly available for and applicable to such payment.

355. This Part applies to a foreign corporate entity which intends to be registered as a company limited by shares under this Act.

Interpretation of this Part

356. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires —

“date of registration”, in relation to a foreign corporate entity that has applied to be registered as a company limited by shares under this Part, means the date of registration of the foreign corporate entity specified in the notice of transfer of registration;

“foreign corporate entity” means a body corporate that is incorporated outside Singapore;

“notice of transfer of registration” means the notice of transfer of registration issued under section 359(3);

“place of incorporation” means, in the case of a foreign corporate entity that had transferred its domicile after its incorporation, the jurisdiction where the foreign corporate entity is domiciled at the time it applies for registration;

“registration”, in relation to a foreign corporate entity that has applied to be registered as a company limited by shares under this Part, means registration by the Registrar under section 359(1), and “register” and “registered” are to be construed accordingly.

Names of companies to be registered under this Part 357.—(1) A foreign corporate entity which intends to be registered as a company limited by shares under this Act must apply to reserve the name of the intended company.

(2) Section 27 applies to and in respect of an application under subsection (1) as if it were an application to reserve the name of an intended company under that section.

(3) A foreign corporate entity must not be registered under section 359(1) unless the name which it is proposed to be registered has been reserved under section 27, as applied by subsection (2).

Application for registration

358.—(1) A foreign corporate entity may apply to the Registrar to be registered as a company limited by shares under this Act.

(2) An application under subsection (1) —

(a) must be made in such form and manner, and contain such particulars, as may be prescribed;

(b) must be accompanied by —

(i) a certified copy of the charter, statute, constitution or memorandum or articles or other instrument constituting or defining its constitution (if any), in its place of incorporation;

(ii) the constitution by which the foreign corporate entity proposes to be registered;

(iii) such other documents as may be prescribed; and

(iv) the prescribed fee.

(3) The Registrar may require an applicant to furnish to the Registrar such further information or documents as the Registrar may require.

Registration

359.—(1) Subject to section 360, upon compliance by the foreign corporate entity with section 358, the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, register the foreign corporate entity as a company limited by shares by registering its constitution.

(2) The registration of the foreign corporate entity is subject to such conditions that the Registrar may impose.

(3) Upon registration of the foreign corporate entity, the Registrar must issue a notice of transfer of registration in the prescribed form stating that the company is, on and from the date specified in the notice —

(a) registered by way of transfer of registration under this Act;

(b) a company limited by shares; and

(c) where applicable, a private company.

(4) A certificate of confirmation of registration must be issued by the Registrar upon the application of the company.

(5) A notice of transfer of registration issued under subsection (3), and a certificate of confirmation of registration issued under subsection (4), is each conclusive evidence —

(a) that the foreign corporate entity is registered under this section; and

(b) of the date of the company's registration.

(6) A foreign corporate entity registered under this section must, within 60 days after the issue of the notice of transfer of registration under subsection (3), or such further period as may be extended under subsection (7), submit to the Registrar a document evidencing that the foreign corporate entity has been de-registered in its place of incorporation.

(7) The Registrar may, on the application of the foreign corporate entity registered under this section, extend the 60-day period mentioned in subsection (6) subject to such conditions as the Registrar considers fit.

(8) The Registrar may, at any time in the Registrar's discretion, waive or modify any condition imposed by the Registrar under subsection (2).

(9) Any person aggrieved by —

(a) the refusal of the Registrar to register a foreign corporate entity under subsection (1);

(b) any condition of registration imposed by the Registrar under subsection (2); or

(c) the modification of any condition by the Registrar under subsection (8), may within 30 days after the date of the refusal to register, or the imposition or modification of the condition, as the case may be, appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

When registration must be refused

360.—(1) The Registrar must refuse to register a foreign corporate entity if he is not satisfied that the minimum requirements prescribed for registration have been met and that all other requirements for registration have been complied with.

(2) The Registrar must refuse to register a foreign corporate entity if he is satisfied that —

- (a) the intended company is likely to be used for an unlawful purpose or for purposes prejudicial to public peace, welfare or good order in Singapore; or
- (b) it would be contrary to national security or interest for the intended company to be registered.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar under subsection (1) or (2) may, within 30 days after the date of the decision, appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

Effect of registration

361.—(1) Starting on the date of registration specified in the notice of transfer of registration —

- (a) the foreign corporate entity is deemed to be a company as defined in section 4(1) and all provisions of this Act pertaining to companies apply with such adaptations, exceptions and modifications as may be specified in regulations; and
- (b) if the foreign corporate entity was registered as a foreign company under Division 2 of Part XI immediately before that date, ceases to be so registered under Division 2 of that Part.

(2) To avoid doubt, the registration of a foreign corporate entity does not —

- (a) create a new legal entity;
- (b) prejudice or affect the identity of the body corporate constituted by the foreign corporate entity or its continuity as a body corporate;

- (c) affect the property, or the rights or obligations, of the foreign corporate entity; or
- (d) render defective any legal proceedings by or against the foreign corporate entity, and any legal proceedings that could have been continued or commenced by or against the foreign corporate entity before its registration may be continued or commenced by or against the company after the registration.

Revocation of registration

362.—(1) The Registrar may by order revoke the registration of a company if the company fails to comply with section 359(6).

- (2) The Registrar must, before making an order of revocation —
 - (a) give the company notice in writing of the Registrar's intention to revoke the registration;
 - (b) specify in the notice a period of at least 30 days within which the company may make written representations to the Registrar; and
 - (c) consider the company's written representations (if any) that are received by the Registrar within the time specified in the notice.

(3) At the expiration of the time mentioned in the notice mentioned in subsection (2), the Registrar may, unless cause to the contrary is previously shown, order that the registration of the company be revoked.

- (4) The Registrar must —
 - (a) cause a notice of the order of revocation to be published in the Gazette; and
 - (b) serve a copy of the notice of the order of revocation on the company which registration is revoked.

(5) Upon publication of the notice of the order of revocation in the Gazette, the order of revocation takes effect and the company ceases to be a company as defined in section 4(1) and the provisions of this Act cease to apply to the company.

(6) An order of revocation under subsection (3) is final.

(7) Despite the order of revocation in respect of a company under subsection (3), the liability, if any, of every officer and member of the company continues.

(8) Nothing in this section prejudices —

- (a) the enforcement by any person of any right or claim against the company; or
- (b) the enforcement by the company of any right or claim against any person.

Duty of company to register pre-existing charges

363.—(1) If, before the registration of a foreign corporate entity, there are any charges, whether created by the foreign corporate entity or otherwise, which would have been required to be registered under Division 8 of Part IV if the foreign corporate entity had been incorporated as a company under this Act, there must be lodged with the Registrar in the prescribed manner for registration, within 30 days after the date of registration of the company, a statement containing the prescribed particulars of the charge.

(2) Documents and particulars required to be lodged for registration under subsection (1) may be lodged by the company concerned or by any person interested in the documents.

(3) Where registration under subsection (1) is effected by some person other than the company concerned, that person is entitled to recover from the company the amount of any fees properly paid by him for the registration.

(4) If default is made in complying with subsection (1), the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall each be guilty of an offence and shall each be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 and also to a default penalty.

(5) To avoid doubt, a failure to comply with subsection (1) does not affect the continuity of status, operation or effect of any security, right, priority or obligation of the charge.

(6) The Court, on being satisfied —

(a) that the omission to register a charge requiring registration under subsection (1), or that the omission or mis-statement of any particular with respect to such charge, was accidental or due to inadvertence or to some other sufficient cause or is not of a nature to prejudice the position of creditors or shareholders; or

(b) that on other grounds it is just and equitable to grant relief, may on the application of the company or any person interested and on such terms and conditions as seem to the Court just and expedient (including a term or condition that the rectification is to be without prejudice to any liability already incurred by the company or any of its officers in respect of the default) order that the time for registration be extended or that the omission or mis-statement be rectified.

(7) In respect of any charge that is required to be lodged under subsection (1), sections 134, 135, 136 and 138 apply as if the charge were a charge to which Division 8 of Part IV applied.

Duties of company with respect to issue of certificates

364.—(1) Within 60 days after the date of registration of the company, the company must complete and have ready for delivery appropriate certificates in respect of all persons registered as holders of existing shares or debentures, as the case may be, as at the date of registration.

(2) Upon the delivery of the certificates to the holders of existing shares or debentures under subsection (1), all prior certificates in respect of such shares or debentures cease to be operative and cease to have any validity for the purposes of this Act.

(3) Any share warrant, stating that the bearer of the warrant is entitled to the shares specified in the warrant and enabling the shares to be transferred by delivery of the warrant, that had been issued by the foreign corporate entity before the date of registration of the company is void.

(4) If any company on which a notice has been served requiring the company to make good any default in complying with this section fails to make good the default within 10 days after the service of the notice, the Court may, on the application of the person entitled to have the certificates or the debentures delivered to him, make an order directing the company and any officer of the company to make good the default within such time as is specified in the order, and the order may provide that all costs of and incidental to the application are to be borne by the company or by any officer of the company in default in such proportions as the Court thinks fit.

Regulations

364A. The Minister may make regulations under section 411 in respect of applications for registration, and registration of a foreign corporate entity, under this Part, including —

- (a) prescribing the minimum and other requirements that a foreign corporate entity must meet before it may be registered under section 359(1);

Alternate address

370A.—(1) Despite sections 12 and 12A, the Registrar must not disclose or make available for public inspection the particulars of a director's or an authorised representative's residential address that is lodged with the Registrar under this Part or transmitted to the Registrar by the Commissioner of National Registration under section 8A of the National Registration Act (Cap. 201) if the requirements of subsection (2) are satisfied.

(2) The requirements referred to in subsection (1) are that the director or authorised representative referred to in that subsection maintains with the Registrar an alternate address that complies with the following conditions:

- (a) it is an address at which the director or authorised representative can be located;
- (b) it is not a post office box number;
- (c) it is not the residential address of the director or authorised representative; and
- (d) it is located in the same jurisdiction as the director's or authorised representative's residential address.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) —

- (a) an individual who wishes to maintain an alternate address must lodge an application with the Registrar;
- (b) an individual may not maintain more than one alternate address at any one time;
- (c) an individual who wishes to cease to maintain an alternate address must lodge a notice of withdrawal with the Registrar; and
- (d) an individual who wishes to change his alternate address must lodge a notice of change with the Registrar.

(4) An application to maintain an alternate address, the lodgment of a notice of withdrawal and notice of change are subject to the payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

(6) A director or an authorised representative who maintains an alternate address under subsection (2) must ensure that he can be located at his alternate address.

(7) A director or an authorised representative who fails to comply with subsection (6) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

(8) Despite subsection (1), the Registrar may disclose and make available for public inspection the particulars of a director's or an authorised representative's residential address despite the maintenance of an alternate address under subsection (2) if —

- (a) communications sent by the Registrar under this Act, or by any officer of the Authority under any ACRA administered Act, to the director or authorised representative at his alternate address and requiring a response within a specified period remain unanswered; or

(9) Before proceeding under subsection (8), the Registrar must give notice to the director or authorised representative affected, and to every foreign company of which the Registrar has been notified under this Act that the individual is a director or an authorised representative, as the case may be —

(11) Where the Registrar discloses and makes available for public inspection the particulars of a director's or an authorised representative's residential address, the Registrar must give notice of that fact to the director or authorised representative affected, and to every foreign company of which the Registrar has been notified under this Act that the individual is a director or an authorised representative, as the case may be.

(12) A notice to a director or an authorised representative under subsection (11) is to be sent to him at his residential address unless it appears to the Registrar that service at that address may be ineffective to bring it to his notice, in which case it may be sent to any other last known address of the director or authorised representative.

(13) Where —

- (a) the Registrar discloses and makes available for public inspection the particulars of a director's or an authorised representative's residential address under subsection (8); or
- (b) a Registrar appointed under any other ACRA administered Act discloses and makes available for public inspection under that Act the particulars of a director's or an authorised representative's residential address under a provision of that Act equivalent to subsection (8), the director or authorised representative is not, for a period of 3 years after the date on which the residential address is disclosed and made available for public inspection, allowed to maintain an alternate address under subsection (2).

(14) Nothing in this section applies to any information lodged or deemed to be lodged with the Registrar before the date of commencement of this section or prevents such information from being disclosed or from being made available for public inspection or access.

(15) Nothing in this section prevents the residential address of an individual that is lodged with the Registrar under this Act, or is transmitted to the Registrar by the Commissioner of National Registration under section 8A of the National Registration Act from —

- (a) being used by the Registrar for the purposes of any communication with the individual;
- (b) being disclosed for the purposes of issuing any summons or other legal process against the individual for the purposes of this Act or any other written law;

(16) Any director or authorised representative aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar under subsection (8) may, within 30 days after the date of receiving the notice under subsection (11), appeal to the High Court which may confirm the decision or give such directions in the matter as seem proper or otherwise determine the matter.

(17) For the purposes of this section —

- (a) “ACRA administered Act” means the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority Act (Cap. 2A) and any of the written laws specified in the Second Schedule to that Act; and
- (b) a director or an authorised representative can be located at an address if he may be physically found at the address after reasonable attempts have been made to find him at that address.

373.—(1) Subject to this section, a foreign company shall lodge with the Registrar, within the time specified in subsection (3), financial statements made up to the end of its last financial year together with a declaration in the prescribed form verifying that the copies are true copies of the documents so required and, in the case where the financial statements are audited, a statement of the name of the auditor.

(2) In this section, “financial statements” means —

- (a) in the case where the foreign company is required by the law for the time being in force in the place of the company’s incorporation or formation to prepare financial statements in accordance with any applicable accounting standards which are similar to the Accounting Standards or which are acceptable to the Registrar, those financial statements; and
- (b) in any other case, financial statements in such form and containing such particulars as the directors of the company would have been required to prepare or obtain if the foreign company were a public company incorporated under this Act.

(3) The financial statements referred to in subsection (1) shall be lodged —

- (a) where the foreign company is required by the law of its place of incorporation or formation to table financial statements referred to in subsection (2)(a) at an annual general meeting, within 60 days after the date on which its annual general meeting is held; or
- (b) in any other case, within such period as the directors of the foreign company would have been required to lodge its financial statements if the company were a public company incorporated under this Act which does not keep a branch register outside Singapore.

(4) The Registrar may, if he is of the opinion that the financial statements referred to in subsection (2)(a) do not sufficiently disclose the foreign company's financial position, require the company —

- (a) to lodge financial statements within such period, in such form and containing such particulars; and
- (b) to annex thereto such documents, as the Registrar may by notice in writing to the company require.

(5) Subsection (4) does not authorise the Registrar to require —

- (a) financial statements to contain any particulars; or
- (b) the company to annex, attach or to send any documents, that would not be required to be furnished if the company were a public company incorporated under this Act.

(6) The foreign company shall comply with the requirements set out in the notice under subsection (4).

(7) In addition to the financial statements required to be lodged with the Registrar under subsections (1), (3) and (4), a foreign company shall lodge with the Registrar within the time specified in subsection (3) —

(8) For the purpose of subsection (7), the foreign company shall be entitled to make such apportionments of expenses incurred in connection with operations or administration affecting both Singapore and elsewhere and to add such notes and explanations as in its opinion are necessary or desirable in order to give a true and fair view of the profit or loss of its operations in Singapore.

(12) The Registrar may, upon the written application of a foreign company, waive the requirement of a foreign company to lodge the documents referred to in subsection (7)(a), (b) and (c) if the Registrar is satisfied that —

- (a) it is impractical for the foreign company to comply having regard to the nature of the foreign company's operations in Singapore;
- (b) it would be of no real value having regard to the amount involved;
- (c) it would involve expense unduly out of proportion to its value; or

(d) it would be misleading or harmful to the business of the foreign company, or to any company which is deemed by virtue of section 6 to be related to the foreign company.

(13) The Registrar may, upon the written application of a foreign company, by order relieve the foreign company from either or both of the following:

- (a) any requirement relating to audit or the form and content of the documents referred to in subsection (2)(b);
- (b) any requirement relating to audit or the form and content of the documents referred to in subsection (7).

(14) The Registrar may make the order referred to in subsection (13) unconditionally or subject to the condition that the foreign company comply with such other requirements relating to audit or the form and content of the documents as the Registrar may determine.

(15) The Registrar shall not make an order under subsection (13) unless he is of the opinion that compliance with the requirements of this section would render the documents misleading or inappropriate to the circumstances of the foreign company or would impose unreasonable burdens on the company.

(16) The Registrar may make an order under subsection (13) which may be limited to a specific period and may from time to time revoke or suspend the operation of any such order.

(17) Without prejudice to subsections (12), (13) and (14), the Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, in respect of foreign companies of a specified class or description —

[13/87]

(6) The Court shall not make an order under this section unless it is satisfied —

- (a) in the case of an order referred to in subsection (4)(a) —
 - (i) that the act, matter or thing, or the proceeding, referred to in that paragraph is essentially of a procedural nature;

TENTH SCHEDULE — *continuedArticle 11. Application by a foreign representative to commence a proceeding under Singapore insolvency law

Nevertheless, the claims of foreign creditors other than those concerning tax and social security obligations are not to be given a lower priority than that of general unsecured claims solely because the holder of such a claim is a foreign creditor.

3. When notification of a right to file a claim is to be given to foreign creditors, the notification must —

Article 16. Presumptions concerning recognition

1. If the decision or certificate mentioned in Article 15(2) indicates that the proceeding in respect of which an application for recognition is made is a foreign proceeding within the meaning of Article 2(h) and that the person or body making that application is a foreign representative within the meaning of Article 2(i), the Court is entitled to so presume.

2. The Court is entitled to presume that documents submitted in support of the application for recognition are authentic, whether or not they have been legalised.

3. In the absence of proof to the contrary, the debtor's registered office is presumed to be the debtor's centre of main interests.

Article 17. Decision to recognise a foreign proceeding

1. Subject to Article 6, a proceeding must be recognised if —

- (a) it is a foreign proceeding within the meaning of Article 2(h);
- (b) the person or body applying for recognition is a foreign representative within the meaning of Article 2(i);
- (c) the application meets the requirements of Article 15(2) and (3); and
- (d) the application has been submitted to the Court mentioned in Article 4.

2. The foreign proceeding must be recognised —

- (a) as a foreign main proceeding if it is taking place in the State where the debtor has its centre of main interests; or
- (b) as a foreign non-main proceeding, if the debtor has an establishment within the meaning of Article 2(d) in the foreign State.

3. An application for recognition of a foreign proceeding must be decided upon at the earliest possible time.

4. The provisions of Articles 15 to 16, this Article and Article 18 do not prevent modification or termination of recognition if it is shown that the grounds for granting it were fully or partially lacking or have fully or partially ceased to exist; and in such a case, the Court may, on the application of the foreign representative or a person affected by the recognition, or of its own motion, modify or terminate recognition, either altogether or for a limited time, on such terms and conditions as the Court thinks fit.

TENTH SCHEDULE — *continuedArticle 18. Subsequent information

From the time of filing the application for recognition of the foreign proceeding, the foreign representative must inform the Court promptly of —

Article 19. Relief that may be granted upon application for recognition of a foreign proceeding

1. From the time of filing an application for recognition until the application is decided upon, the Court may, at the request of the foreign representative, where relief is urgently needed to protect the property of the debtor or the interests of the creditors, grant relief of a provisional nature, including —

- (a) staying execution against the debtor's property;
- (b) entrusting the administration or realisation of all or part of the debtor's property located in Singapore to the foreign representative or another person designated by the Court, in order to protect and preserve the value of property that, by its nature or because of other circumstances, is perishable, susceptible to devaluation or otherwise in jeopardy; and
- (c) any relief mentioned in Article 21(1)(c), (d) or (g).

2. Unless extended under Article 21(1)(f), the relief granted under this Article terminates when the application for recognition is decided upon.

3. The Court may refuse to grant relief under this Article if such relief would interfere with the administration of a foreign main proceeding.

Article 20. Effects of recognition of a foreign main proceeding

1. Upon recognition of a foreign proceeding that is a foreign main proceeding, subject to paragraph 2 of this Article —

- (a) commencement or continuation of individual actions or individual proceedings concerning the debtor's property, rights, obligations or liabilities is stayed;
- (b) execution against the debtor's property is stayed; and
- (c) the right to transfer, encumber or otherwise dispose of any property of the debtor is suspended.

2. The stay and suspension mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article are —

- (a) the same in scope and effect as if the debtor had been made the subject of a winding up order under this Act; and
- (b) subject to the same powers of the Court and the same prohibitions, limitations, exceptions and conditions as would apply under the law of Singapore in such a case, and the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Article are to be interpreted accordingly.

3. Without prejudice to paragraph 2 of this Article, the stay and suspension mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article do not affect any right —

- (a) to take any steps to enforce security over the debtor's property;
- (b) to take any steps to repossess goods in the debtor's possession under a hire-purchase agreement (as defined in section 227AA of this Act);
- (c) exercisable under or by virtue of or in connection with any written law mentioned in Article 1(3)(a) to (i); or
- (d) of a creditor to set off its claim against a claim of the debtor, being a right which would have been exercisable if the debtor had been made the subject of a winding up order under this Act.

4. Paragraph 1(a) of this Article does not affect the right to —

- (a) commence individual actions or proceedings to the extent necessary to preserve a claim against the debtor; or
- (b) commence or continue any criminal proceedings or any action or proceedings by a person or body having regulatory, supervisory or investigative functions of a public nature, being an action or proceedings brought in the exercise of those functions.
