(2) Every fugitive mentioned in subsection (1) is liable under that subsection whether the offence to which the request for the surrender of the fugitive relates is alleged to have been committed, or was committed, before, on or after 1 August 1968 or before, on or after the date —

(a) in the case of a foreign State — when this Part commenced to apply in relation to that State; and

(b) in the case of a declared Commonwealth territory —

(i) when that territory became a declared Commonwealth territory; or

(ii) if the territory was a declared Commonwealth country under section 19(1) as in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 7 of the Extradition (Amendment) Act 2022 — when that country became a declared Commonwealth country.

[Act 17 of 2022 wef 01/07/2022]

Restrictions on surrender of persons to foreign States

8.—(1) Subject to section 41(2) and any limitation, condition, exception or qualification mentioned in section 4(2), a person is not liable to be surrendered to a foreign State if the offence to which the request for his or her surrender relates —

(a) is an offence of a political character; or

(b) is, by reason of the circumstances in which it is alleged to have been committed or was committed, an offence of a political character.

(2) A person is not liable to be surrendered to a foreign State unless provision is made —

(a) by a law of that State; or

(b) by an extradition treaty in force between Singapore and that State,

by virtue of which the person will not, unless he or she has been returned, or has had an opportunity of returning, to Singapore —

(c) be detained or tried in that foreign State for any offence that is alleged to have been committed, or was committed, before his or her surrender other than —

(i) the offence to which the request for his or her surrender relates; or

(ii) any other offence of which he or she could be convicted upon proof of the facts on which that request was based; or

(d) be detained in that foreign State for the purpose of his or her being surrendered to another country for trial or punishment for any offence that is alleged to have been committed, or was committed, before his or her surrender to that foreign State other than an offence of which he or she could be convicted upon proof of the facts on which the request for his or her surrender was based.

(3) A person who —

(a) is held in custody, or has been released on bail, in Singapore in respect of an offence that is alleged to have been committed in Singapore; or

(b) is undergoing a sentence for a conviction in Singapore, is not liable to be surrendered to a foreign State until he or she has been discharged from custody, or the bonds upon which he or she was released on bail have been discharged (as the case may be), whether as a result of his or her acquittal, on the expiry of his or her sentence, or otherwise.

(4) A person is not liable to be surrendered to a foreign State in respect of an offence if he or she —

(a) has been acquitted or pardoned by a competent tribunal or authority in any state or territory; or

(b) has undergone the punishment provided by the law of, or of a part of, any state or territory,

in respect of that offence or of another offence constituted by the same act or omission as that offence.

(5) A person is not liable to be surrendered to a foreign State in respect of an offence if he or she has been convicted of that offence in the foreign State in his or her absence, unless —

- (a) the person had deliberately absented himself or herself from his or her trial in the foreign State; or
- (b) the person would, if surrendered, be entitled to a retrial in his or her presence, during which he or she would have —
 - (i) the right to defend himself or herself, whether in person or through legal counsel; and
 - (ii) the right to examine witnesses and to call and examine witnesses in his or her defence.

(7) A person is not liable to be surrendered to a foreign State if the request for his or her surrender relates to an act or omission that, if it had occurred in Singapore, would have constituted an offence under the military law applicable in Singapore but not also under the ordinary criminal law of Singapore.

(8) Where a request for a surrender is made by a foreign State in relation to the enforcement of a sentence of imprisonment or other deprivation of liberty on a person who is a convicted fugitive, the Minister, at the point in time of deciding whether to give a notice under section 11 or to cancel an issued warrant under section 12(4), may determine that the person is not to be surrendered to the foreign State, if the remaining period of imprisonment or other deprivation of liberty, as the case may be —

- (a) is shorter than the period specified as being a minimal period in the provisions of any existing extradition treaty between Singapore and the foreign State; or

- (b) is less than 6 months, if no period mentioned in paragraph (a) is specified.

[Act 17 of 2022 wef 01/07/2022]

Restrictions on surrender of persons to declared Commonwealth territories

9.—(1) Subject to sections 28(1) and 41(2) and any limitation, condition, exception or qualification mentioned in section 6(2), a person is not liable to be surrendered to a declared Commonwealth territory if the offence to which the request for his or her surrender relates —

- (b) is, by reason of the circumstances in which it is alleged to have been committed or was committed, an offence of a political character.

(2) A person is not liable to be surrendered to a declared Commonwealth territory unless —

- (a) provision is made by the law of, or of a part of, that territory; or
- (b) that territory has entered into an agreement with, or given an undertaking to, Singapore,

by virtue of which the person will not, unless he or she has been returned, or has had an opportunity of returning, to Singapore —

- (c) be detained or tried in that declared Commonwealth territory for any offence that is alleged to have been committed, or was committed, before his or her surrender other than —
 - (i) the offence to which the request for his or her surrender relates;
 - (ii) any other offence with a less severe punishment of which he or she could be convicted upon proof of the facts on which that request was based; or

- (iii) any other extradition offence in respect of which the Minister consents to the person being so detained or tried, as the case may be; or
 - (d) be detained in that declared Commonwealth territory for the purpose of his or her being surrendered to another state or territory for trial or punishment for any offence that is alleged to have been committed, or was committed, before his or her surrender to that declared Commonwealth territory other than —
 - (i) any other offence with a less severe punishment of which he or she could be convicted upon proof of the facts on which that request was based; or
 - (ii) any other offence in respect of which the Minister could issue a warrant under this Part for the person's surrender to that other state or territory and in respect of which the Minister consents to the person being so detained.
- (3) A person who —
- (a) is held in custody, or has been released on bail, in Singapore in respect of an offence that is alleged to have been committed in Singapore; or
 - (b) is undergoing a sentence for a conviction in Singapore,
- is not liable to be surrendered to a declared Commonwealth territory until he or she has been discharged from custody, or the bonds upon which he or she was released on bail have been discharged (as the case may be), whether as a result of his or her acquittal, on the expiry of his or her sentence, or otherwise.
- (4) A person is not liable to be surrendered to a declared Commonwealth territory in respect of an offence if he or she —
- (a) has been acquitted or pardoned by a competent tribunal or authority in any state or territory; or
 - (b) has undergone the punishment provided by the law of, or of a part of, any state or territory,

in respect of that offence or of another offence constituted by the same act or omission as that offence.

(5) A person is not liable to be surrendered to a declared Commonwealth territory if the request for his or her surrender relates to an act or omission that, if it had occurred in Singapore, would have constituted an offence under the military law applicable in Singapore but not also under the ordinary criminal law of Singapore.

Restriction on power of Minister to authorise apprehension, or order surrender, of fugitive

10.—(1) The Minister must not give a notice under section 11(1), or issue a warrant under section 19(2) or (8), in respect of a fugitive from a foreign State or declared Commonwealth territory, if the Minister has substantial grounds for believing that —

- (a) the request for the surrender of the fugitive, although purporting to have been made in respect of an offence for which, but for this section, he or she would be liable to be surrendered to that State or territory, was made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing him or her on account of his or her race, religion, sex, ethnic origin, nationality or political opinions; or
 - (b) if the fugitive is surrendered to that State or territory, he or she may be prejudiced at his or her trial, or punished, detained or restricted in his or her personal liberty, by reason of his or her race, religion, sex, ethnic origin, nationality or political opinions.
- (2) If the Minister is satisfied that, by reason of —
- (a) the trivial nature of the offence that a fugitive is alleged to have committed or has committed;
 - (b) the accusation against a fugitive not having been made in good faith or in the interests of justice;
 - (c) the passage of time since the offence is alleged to have been committed or was committed; or

(d) any other sufficient cause, and having regard to the circumstances under which the offence is alleged to have been committed or was committed, it would be unjust, oppressive or too severe a punishment to surrender the fugitive, or to surrender him or her before the expiry of a particular period, the Minister must not give a notice under section 11(1) or issue a warrant under section 19(2) or (8) in respect of the fugitive, as the case may be.

[Act 17 of 2022 wef 01/07/2022]

Notice by Minister

11.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), where a request for the surrender of a fugitive who is, or is suspected of being, in or on his or her way to Singapore is made to the Minister by a foreign State or declared Commonwealth territory, the Minister may, in his or her discretion —

(a) if a warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive has not been issued under section 12, by written notice —

(i) in accordance with Form 1 in the Second Schedule;
and

(ii) directed to a Magistrate, inform the Magistrate that the request has been made and authorise him or her to issue a warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive; or

(b) if a warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive has been issued under section 12 and a person has been apprehended under the warrant, by written notice —

(i) in accordance with Form 2 in the Second Schedule;
and

(ii) directed to a Magistrate before whom the person may be brought,

inform the Magistrate that the request has been made.

(2) If the Minister is of the opinion that the fugitive is not liable to be surrendered to the foreign State or declared Commonwealth territory, the Minister must not give a notice under subsection (1) in respect of the fugitive.

[Act 17 of 2022 wef 01/07/2022]

Issue of warrants by Magistrate

12.—(1) Where —

(a) a Magistrate —

- (i) is authorised by the Minister by a notice under section 11(1)(a) to issue a warrant for the apprehension of a fugitive; or
- (ii) has received an application made as prescribed for the issue of a warrant for the apprehension of a fugitive who is, or is suspected of being, in or on his or her way to Singapore; and

(b) there is produced to the Magistrate such evidence as would, in his or her opinion, according to the law in force in Singapore, justify —

- (i) the apprehension of the fugitive by an authorised officer without the issue of a warrant; or
- (ii) the issue of a warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive,

if the act or omission constituting the extradition offence had taken place in, or within the jurisdiction of Singapore, the Magistrate is to issue a warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive in accordance with Form 3 or 4 (as the case may be) in the Second Schedule.

(2) Where a Magistrate issues a warrant under this section without having been authorised by the Minister by a notice under section 11(1)(a) to issue the warrant, the Magistrate is to forthwith send to the Minister a report stating that the Magistrate has issued the warrant and the evidence produced to the Magistrate on the application for the warrant.

(3) It is sufficient compliance with subsection (2) in relation to any evidence consisting of testimony given on oath, or declared or affirmed to be true, by a person if —

- (a) where the testimony was given in writing — the Magistrate sends to the Minister a copy of that writing certified by the Magistrate to be a true copy; or
- (b) where the testimony was given orally —
 - (i) if the testimony has been reduced to writing, the Magistrate sends to the Minister that writing certified by the Magistrate to be a true record of the testimony; or
 - (ii) if the testimony has not been reduced to writing, the Magistrate sends to the Minister the notes made by the Magistrate in respect of the testimony and certified by the Magistrate to be a true summary of the testimony.

(4) Where the Minister —

- (a) receives a report of the issue of a warrant and the evidence as provided by subsections (2) and (3); or
- (b) otherwise becomes aware of the issue of a warrant,
