Directions

25B.—(1) Despite anything in this Act, where the Controller is satisfied that any person is committing or has committed a prescribed infringement, the Controller may, in addition to or in lieu of the imposition of a financial penalty, give such directions to the person as the Controller thinks appropriate to bring the prescribed infringement to an end and, where necessary, require that person to take such action as is specified in the direction to remedy, mitigate or eliminate any effects of such prescribed infringement and to prevent the recurrence of such prescribed infringement.

[24/2012]

(2) Any person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with any direction given under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding

$10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[24/2012]

Proceedings for prescribed infringements

25C.—(1) The Controller may inquire into and determine whether any person has committed a prescribed infringement in accordance with this Act.

[24/2012]

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Controller has the following powers:

- (a) to summon and examine witnesses;
- (b) to administer oaths or affirmations;
- (c) to compel the production of documents and articles.

[24/2012]

(3) All proceedings before the Controller under this section must be held in private.

[24/2012]

(4) In any proceedings before the Controller under this section —

- (a) the Controller is not bound to act in a formal manner or in accordance with the Evidence Act 1893 but may inform himself or herself on any matter in such manner as he or she thinks just;
- (b) any question of fact to be decided by the Controller must be decided on the balance of probabilities; and
- (c) no party may be represented by an advocate or solicitor or a paid agent.

[24/2012]

(5) If any person who has been duly summoned by the Controller to attend at any proceedings under this section makes default in so doing, the Controller may make the Controller's determination in the absence of that person even though the interest of that person may be prejudicially affected by the Controller's determination.

[24/2012]

(6) Where the Controller has made a determination that any person has committed a prescribed infringement, the Controller may in the Controller's determination —

- (a) state (if any) the amount of financial penalty, not exceeding the maximum financial penalty prescribed for the prescribed infringement, that is payable by the person and the date by which the financial penalty must be paid; and
- (b) include such directions to the person under section 25B as the Controller thinks appropriate.

[24/2012]

(7) The Controller may, on the application of any person mentioned in subsection (6) who is aggrieved by a determination or direction of the Controller, vary or set aside the determination or direction or make any other determination or direction as the Controller thinks just.

[24/2012]

(8) Any person mentioned in subsection (6) who is aggrieved by a determination or direction of the Controller, or any variation thereof, may appeal to the Appeal Board, whose decision is final.

[24/2012]

Recovery of financial penalties

25D.—(1) Any person who has been determined to have committed a prescribed infringement and fails to pay the financial penalty imposed by the Controller by the date specified under section 25C(6)(a) is liable to pay to the Controller interest on the amount unpaid at the same rate as for a judgment debt.

[24/2012]

(2) Any financial penalty payable in respect of a prescribed infringement and any interest thereon is recoverable by the Controller, or any person duly authorised by the Controller to act on the Controller's behalf, as a debt due to the Government.

[24/2012]

(3) The Controller may, in any case in which the Controller thinks fit, waive, remit or refund in whole or in part any financial penalty imposed or any interest due thereon.

[24/2012]

(4) In any proceedings for the recovery of any financial penalty or interest due thereon which any person is liable to pay, a certificate purporting to be under the hand of the Controller certifying the amount of the financial penalty or interest due thereon that is payable by the person is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the certificate.

[24/2012]

Prescribed infringements by bodies corporate, etc.

25E.—(1) Where a prescribed infringement committed by a body corporate is proved —

(a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer of the body corporate; or

(b) to be attributable to any neglect on the officer's part,

the officer as well as the body corporate shall be treated as having committed the prescribed infringement and dealt with accordingly.

[24/2012]

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were a director of the body corporate.

[24/2012]

(3) Where a prescribed infringement committed by a partnership is proved —

(a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of a partner; or

(b) to be attributable to any neglect on the partner's part,

the partner as well as the partnership shall be treated as having committed the prescribed infringement and dealt with accordingly.

[24/2012]

(4) Where a prescribed infringement committed by an unincorporated association (other than a partnership) is proved —

- (a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer of the unincorporated association or a member of its governing body; or
- (b) to be attributable to any neglect on the part of such officer or member, the officer or member as well as the unincorporated association shall be treated as having committed the prescribed infringement and dealt with accordingly.

[24/2012]

(5) For the purposes of this section, where a prescribed infringement has been committed by a body corporate, an unincorporated association (other than a partnership) or a partnership, it is presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the prescribed infringement is attributable to the neglect of an officer or a member of the body corporate or unincorporated association or a partner of the partnership (as the case may be) who —

- (a) is primarily responsible for the act or omission which constitutes the prescribed infringement; and
- (b) has failed to exercise reasonable supervision or oversight as such officer, member or partner.

[24/2012]

(6) In this section —

“officer” —

- (a) in relation to a body corporate, means any director, partner, member of the committee of management, chief executive, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate and includes any person purporting to act in any such capacity; or
- (b) in relation to an unincorporated association (other than a partnership), means the president, the secretary, or any member of the committee of the unincorporated association, or any person holding a position analogous to that of president, secretary or member of a committee and includes any person purporting to act in any such capacity;

“partner” includes a person purporting to act as a partner.

[24/2012]

(7) The Minister may make regulations to provide for the application of any provision of this section, with such modifications as the Minister considers appropriate, to any body corporate or unincorporated association formed or recognised under the law of a territory outside Singapore.

[24/2012]

Abetment of prescribed infringements

25F.—(1) Where any person abets a prescribed infringement, the Controller may impose on the person a financial penalty of an amount, not exceeding the maximum financial penalty prescribed for the prescribed infringement, as the Controller may determine.

[24/2012]

(2) For the purposes of this section —

- (a) a person abets a prescribed infringement if the person abets either the commission of the prescribed infringement, or the commission of an act which would be a prescribed infringement, if committed by a person capable by law of committing a prescribed infringement with the same intention or knowledge as that of the abettor; and
- (b) a person abets the doing of a thing if the person —
 - (i) instigates any person to do that thing;
 - (ii) engages with one or more other persons in any conspiracy for the doing of that thing, if an act or omission takes place pursuant to that conspiracy, and in order for the doing of that thing; or
 - (iii) intentionally aids, by any act or omission, the doing of that thing.

[24/2012]

Appeals to Appeal Board

25G.—(1) An appeal to the Appeal Board under section 25C(8) must be lodged within 14 days after the receipt of the determination or direction of the Controller by the person aggrieved by the determination or direction, as the case may be.

[24/2012]

(2) Any person who has lodged an appeal to the Appeal Board under section 25C(8) must provide any information as may be required by the Appeal Board, in the manner and within the period as the Appeal Board may specify.

[24/2012]

(3) An appeal under section 25C(8) does not suspend the effect of the determination or direction to which the appeal relates unless the appeal is against the imposition, or the amount, of a financial penalty.

[24/2012]

(4) The Appeal Board must determine an appeal under section 25C(8) as soon as reasonably practicable, having regard to the nature and complexity of the appeal.

[24/2012]

(5) The Appeal Board must notify the person making an appeal under section 25C(8) of its decision in respect of the person's appeal and the reasons for its decision.

[24/2012]

(6) Without limiting subsection (5), the Appeal Board may —

(a) confirm, vary or reverse the determination or direction of the Controller appealed against; or

(b) direct the Controller to reconsider the determination or direction appealed against.

[24/2012]

Composition and procedure of Appeal Board

25H.—(1) For the purposes of section 25G, the Minister may establish an Appeal Board which must consist of at least 3 persons, one of whom must be appointed by the Minister to be the chairperson of the Appeal Board.

[24/2012]

(2) The chairperson of the Appeal Board must be a person qualified to be a Supreme Court Judge.

[24/2012; 40/2019]

(3) The Minister may, in establishing the Appeal Board, determine —

(b) such matters as the Minister considers incidental or expedient for the proper and efficient conduct of any appeal by the Appeal Board.

[24/2012]

(4) The remuneration and allowances (if any) of a member of the Appeal Board are to be determined by the Minister.

[24/2012]

(5) The Appeal Board may determine the procedure to be adopted by it in considering an appeal under section 25C(8), and must be independent in the performance of its functions.
