[13th May 2002]

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title and commencement

1. This Act may be cited as the Government Procurement Act and shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint.*

Interpretation

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires —

“Agreement on Government Procurement” means the Agreement by that name done at Marrakesh on 15th April 1994 and amended by the Protocol;

[Act 2 of 2014 wef 06/04/2014]

“award”, in relation to a contract or tender, means to accept an offer made;

“challenge proceeding” means any proceeding under Part III;

*This Act came into operation on 13th May 2002 (S 214/2002).

“Commissioner” means the Commissioner appointed under section 8(2) and includes an acting Commissioner appointed under section 8(9);

“contracting authority” means a ministry or department of the Government, an organ of State or a statutory board declared, by order made under section 4(1), as a contracting authority for the purposes of this Act;

“Deputy Commissioner” means a Deputy Commissioner appointed under section 8(2);

“document” includes an electronic record;

“legal officer” has the same meaning as in the Government Proceedings Act (Cap. 121);

“procurement” means procurement of goods or service or a combination of goods and service by any contractual means, such as purchase or lease, rental or hire purchase, with or without an option to buy the goods or service or combination of goods and service;

“procurement subject to the Act” means a procurement declared, by order made under section 4(2), to be a procurement subject to the Act;

“Protocol” means the Protocol Amending the Agreement on Government Procurement done at Geneva on 30th March 2012;

[Act 2 of 2014 wef 06/04/2014]

“qualification of suppliers” means a process undertaken by a contracting authority to shortlist suppliers for a particular procurement, a particular type of procurement or procurement in general;

“relevant Protocol State” means a country or territory declared, by order made under section 3, as a relevant Protocol State for the purposes of this Act;

[Act 2 of 2014 wef 06/04/2014]

“relevant Protocol supplier”, in relation to a procurement subject to the Act, means —

- (a) a supplier who is a national of Singapore or of a relevant Protocol State that is specified in an order made under section 4(2) as one to which that procurement relates;
- (b) a supplier which is a company or an association or a body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, which is formed under the laws of Singapore or such relevant Protocol State and has its principal place of business in Singapore or such relevant Protocol State; or
- (c) a supplier, or supplier within a class of suppliers, specified under that order as a relevant Protocol supplier or class of relevant Protocol suppliers in relation to that procurement;

[Act 2 of 2014 wef 06/04/2014]

“relevant State” means a country or territory declared, by order made under section 3, as a relevant State for the purposes of this Act;

“relevant supplier”, in relation to a procurement subject to the Act, means —

- (a) a supplier who is a national of Singapore or of a relevant State that is specified in an order made under section 4(2) as one to which that procurement relates;
- (b) a supplier which is a company or an association or a body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, which is formed under the laws of Singapore or such relevant State and has its principal place of business in Singapore or such relevant State; or
- (c) a supplier, or supplier within a class of suppliers, specified under that order as a relevant supplier or class of relevant suppliers in relation to that procurement;

[28/2004 wef 01/09/2004]

“supplier” means a person who sought, or who seeks, or who would have wished, to be the person to whom a contract of procurement, being a procurement subject to the Act, is awarded;

“Tribunal” means the Government Procurement Adjudication Tribunal established under section 8.

Relevant State or relevant Protocol State

3. The Minister may, from time to time, by order published in the Gazette, declare any country or territory as a relevant State or relevant Protocol State for the purposes of this Act.

[Act 2 of 2014 wef 06/04/2014]

Application

4.—(1) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare any ministry or department of the Government, organ of State or statutory board as a contracting authority for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare a procurement to be subject to the Act.

(3) An order made under subsection (2) may identify the procurement by one or more of the following:

- (a) the means by which the procurement is undertaken;
- (b) the contracting authority undertaking the procurement;
- (c) the goods or service, or combination of goods and service, to be procured;
- (d) the value of the procurement.

(4) An order made under subsection (2) may specify —

- (a) the method by which the procurement is to be valued;
- (b) the circumstances under which the procurement is not a procurement subject to the Act;
- (c) the grounds on which the contracting authority may exclude a procurement, or an act or measure to be taken in relation to a procurement, from the application of all or any of the regulations made under section 6; and

(d) the effect of an exclusion referred to in paragraph (c).

(5) An order made under subsection (2) —

(a) shall specify that the procurement is a procurement subject to the Act in relation to all or any of the following:

- (i) all relevant States or a specified relevant State;
- (ii) all relevant Protocol States or a specified relevant Protocol State; and

[Act 2 of 2014 wef 06/04/2014]

(b) may specify any supplier or class of suppliers as —

- (i) a relevant supplier or class of relevant suppliers in relation to that procurement for the purposes of paragraph (c) of the definition of “relevant supplier” in section 2; or
- (ii) a relevant Protocol supplier or class of relevant Protocol suppliers in relation to that procurement for the purposes of paragraph (c) of the definition of “relevant Protocol supplier” in section 2.

[Act 2 of 2014 wef 06/04/2014]

Certification by Minister

5.—(1) The Minister may issue a certificate certifying that a particular procurement is not a procurement subject to the Act by virtue of section 4(4)(b).

(2) The Minister may issue a certificate certifying that a ground referred to in section 4(4)(c) exists in relation to a particular procurement or an act or measure in relation to a particular procurement.

(3) A certificate issued under subsection (1) or (2) shall be conclusive evidence of the matters so certified.

PART II

REGULATIONS GOVERNING PROCUREMENT

Power to make regulations

6.—(1) The Minister may, for the purposes of implementing the Agreement on Government Procurement and other international obligations of Singapore relating to procurements by the Government and public authorities, make regulations to govern procurements subject to the Act.

[28/2004 wef 01/09/2004]

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may prescribe —

- (a) the technical specifications for a procurement;
- (b) the procedure for qualification of suppliers for a procurement;
- (c) the procedure for the award of a procurement contract and the procedure following such award;
- (d) the provision of any information pertaining to a procurement; and
- (e) different provisions for different procurements.

[28/2004 wef 01/09/2004]

Duty of contracting authority

7.—(1) Subject to an order made under section 4(2), a contracting authority shall, in undertaking a procurement subject to the Act, comply with the regulations made under section 6.

(2) The duty of a contracting authority referred to in subsection (1) is a duty owed to —

- (a) relevant suppliers or relevant Protocol suppliers in relation to that procurement; and

[Act 2 of 2014 wef 06/04/2014]

[28/2004 wef 01/09/2004]

- (b) such other supplier or class of suppliers as the Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare.

(3) A breach of a duty referred to in subsection (1) shall not be the subject of any proceedings in any court but may be the subject of a challenge brought before the Tribunal by a supplier to whom the duty is owed and who has suffered, or reasonably risks suffering, loss or damage as a result of the breach.

PART III

CHALLENGE PROCEEDINGS

Government Procurement Adjudication Tribunal

8.—(1) For the purposes of hearing and determining challenges referred to in section 7(3), there shall be established a Tribunal to be called the Government Procurement Adjudication Tribunal consisting of the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner.

(2) The Minister shall appoint a Commissioner and such number of Deputy Commissioners as he thinks fit.

(3) The Commissioner and Deputy Commissioners shall be appointed for a period of 2 years and shall be eligible for reappointment.

(4) No person shall be appointed or shall continue to hold office as Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner if he —

(a) is mentally disordered and incapable of managing himself or his affairs;

[21/2008 wef 01/03/2010]

(b) is an undischarged bankrupt or has made any arrangement or composition with his creditors; or

(c) is convicted of an offence involving dishonesty, fraud or moral turpitude or has not received a free pardon.

(5) The Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner may at any time resign from his office by giving notice in writing to the Minister.

(6) The Commissioner and Deputy Commissioners shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code (Cap. 224), and shall enjoy the same judicial immunity as is enjoyed by a Judge of the Supreme Court.

(7) The Commissioner and Deputy Commissioners shall be paid such remuneration and allowances as the Minister may from time to time determine.

(8) The Minister may at any time revoke the appointment of a Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner who —

- (a) ceases to be eligible to hold that appointment in accordance with subsection (4);
- (b) has become permanently incapable of discharging the functions of a Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner, as the case may be; or
- (c) has misconducted himself in such a manner as to render him unfit to continue holding the appointment.

(9) When the Commissioner is or is expected to be absent from duty, the Commissioner or, if the Commissioner is absent, the Minister may appoint a Deputy Commissioner to be acting Commissioner during the absence of the Commissioner.

Registrar and officers of Tribunal

9.—(1) The Minister shall appoint a Registrar of the Tribunal and such other officers of the Tribunal as the Minister considers necessary.

(2) The duties of the Registrar and other officers of the Tribunal shall, subject to this Act and any regulations made thereunder, be as the Minister directs.

(3) The Registrar and other officers of the Tribunal shall be deemed to be public servants for the purposes of the Penal Code (Cap. 224).

Constitution of Tribunal

10.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), a challenge proceeding shall be heard and disposed of by the Tribunal consisting of the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner designated by the Commissioner.

(2) The Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner shall not hear or dispose of any challenge proceeding if he is, directly or indirectly, interested in the procurement in relation to which the proceeding is brought.

(3) Where the Commissioner has commenced the hearing of a challenge proceeding and is unable through death, illness or other cause to complete the hearing or to dispose of the proceeding —

- (a) the acting Commissioner appointed under section 8(9); or
- (b) if the acting Commissioner is, directly or indirectly, interested in the procurement in relation to which the proceeding is brought, a Deputy Commissioner designated by the acting Commissioner, shall complete the hearing and dispose of the proceeding.

(4) Subject to subsection (2), where a Deputy Commissioner who has commenced the hearing of a challenge proceeding is unable through death, illness or other cause to complete the hearing or to dispose of the proceeding, the Commissioner may designate another Deputy Commissioner to complete the hearing and dispose of the proceeding, or may himself complete the hearing and dispose of the proceeding.

Parties may be represented at challenge proceedings

11.—(1) The applicant and the contracting authority concerned may be represented by an advocate and solicitor at the hearing of any challenge proceeding.

(2) Where the contracting authority concerned is a ministry or department of the Government or is an organ of State, a legal officer may appear as advocate on behalf of the contracting authority and may make and do all appearances, acts and applications in respect of the proceeding on behalf of the contracting authority.

Initiation of challenge

12.—(1) A supplier who wishes to bring a challenge before the Tribunal (referred to in this Act as the applicant) shall, within 15 days from the date the facts constituting the basis of the challenge first took place —

- (a) lodge with the Registrar a notice of challenge (referred to in this Act as the Notice of Challenge);
- (b) pay the Registrar such fee as may be prescribed for bringing a challenge before the Tribunal; and
- (c) serve a copy of the Notice of Challenge on the contracting authority undertaking or who has undertaken the procurement which is the subject of the challenge.

(2) The Notice of Challenge shall be in such form and shall contain such information, and be accompanied by such documents, as may be prescribed.

Deposit

13.—(1) The applicant shall, at the time of lodgment of the Notice of Challenge with the Registrar of the Tribunal, deposit in cash or in such other form as the Registrar in a particular case may allow, such sum as may be prescribed (referred to in this Act as the deposit).

(2) The challenge shall be deemed to have been withdrawn if the applicant fails to comply with subsection (1).

(3) The deposit shall be used by the Registrar to pay any costs awarded by the Tribunal to the contracting authority concerned under section 21 in relation to the challenge.

(4) Where the deposit is insufficient to cover the costs referred to in subsection (3), the contracting authority concerned may recover the balance of the costs in the manner referred to in section 21.

(5) The Registrar shall, after the challenge has been disposed of by the Tribunal and if he is satisfied that there is no outstanding claims for costs by the contracting authority concerned against the applicant, release the deposit or the balance of the deposit, as the case may be, to the applicant.

Fixing of hearing of challenge

14. On receipt of a Notice of Challenge, the fee referred to in section 12(1)(b) and the deposit, the Registrar shall —

- (a) forward a copy of the Notice to the contracting authority concerned;
- (b) fix a time and place for the hearing of the challenge; and
- (c) give 14 days' notice of the hearing to the applicant and the contracting authority concerned.

Preliminary hearing

15.—(1) The Tribunal may at any time, on its own motion or upon the application of the contracting authority concerned, hear and determine, as a preliminary issue and with a view to a possible final disposal of the challenge, the validity of the challenge.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Tribunal shall declare a challenge invalid if —

- (a) the procurement which is the subject of the challenge is not a procurement subject to the Act;
- (aa) the regulation made under section 6 which the contracting authority concerned is alleged to have breached is inapplicable to the procurement which is the subject of the challenge;
[28/2004 wef 01/09/2004]
- (b) the regulation made under section 6 which the contracting authority concerned is alleged to have breached is inapplicable, by virtue of an order made under section 4, to the procurement or the act or measure in relation to a procurement, which is the subject of the challenge;
- (c) the procurement which is the subject of the challenge is a procurement which has been initiated before the commencement of this Act within the meaning of section 26;
- (d) the applicant is not a supplier entitled to bring a challenge under section 7(3);
- (e) the applicant did not lodge or serve the Notice of Challenge within the time prescribed by section 12(1), unless the Tribunal is satisfied that there has been no unreasonable delay on the part of the applicant; or

(f) the Notice of Challenge does not comply with section 12(2).

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(e), the Tribunal shall take into account the date the applicant became aware, or ought reasonably to have become aware, of the facts constituting the basis of the challenge, and may, in granting any permission to the applicant to proceed with the challenge, impose such conditions as it considers just on the applicant.

(4) If the applicant fails to comply with any of the conditions imposed by the Tribunal under subsection (3), the Tribunal may declare the challenge invalid.

Suspension order

16.—(1) The applicant may, at any time after he has —

- (a) lodged the Notice of Challenge with the Registrar;
- (b) paid the fee referred to in section 12(1)(b) and the deposit to the Registrar; and
- (c) served the Notice of Challenge on the relevant contracting authority, apply to the Tribunal for an order to suspend, pending the disposal of the challenge —

- (i) the procedure leading to the award of the contract for the procurement which is the subject of the challenge; or
- (ii) the implementation of any decision made while undertaking the procedure referred to in sub-paragraph (i).

(2) The Tribunal may, in its discretion, make the order either unconditionally or upon such terms and conditions as the Tribunal thinks just.

(3) The Tribunal shall not make an order under this section if —

- (a) such suspension is against the public interest; or
- (b) the contract referred to in subsection (1)(i) has already been awarded at the date of hearing of the application for the order.

(4) If the Tribunal refuses to make an order under this section, the Tribunal shall give the reasons for its refusal in writing.

(5) Where an order under this section has been made, the contracting authority concerned may, at any time before the determination on the challenge referred to in section 18 is made, apply to the Tribunal for the order to be varied or rescinded.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Tribunal may, in its discretion, vary or rescind the order either unconditionally or upon such conditions as it thinks just.

(7) The Tribunal shall rescind the order if the continuance of such suspension is against the public interest.

(8) The Minister may issue a certificate that such suspension, or the continuance of such suspension, in a particular case is against the public interest, and such a certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the matters so certified.

Onus of proof, etc.

17.—(1) The onus of proving the breach of duty which is the subject of the challenge shall be on the applicant.

(2) Except with the consent of the Tribunal and in accordance with such conditions as the Tribunal may determine, the applicant may not, at the hearing of the challenge, rely on any breach of duty other than that identified in the Notice of Challenge.

Determination on challenge

18.—(1) The Tribunal shall issue its determination on a challenge within 45 days from the date of lodgment of the Notice of Challenge by the applicant unless there are exceptional circumstances justifying an extension of time.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply if the challenge has been disposed of under section 15.

(3) If the Tribunal makes a determination in favour of the applicant, the Tribunal may do one or more of the following:

- (a) order any decision or action taken by the contracting authority concerned in relation to the procurement which is the subject of the challenge to be set aside;
 - (b) order the contracting authority to make a decision or take action, in accordance with the applicable regulations made under section 6, in place of that which has been set aside under paragraph (a);
 - (c) order the contracting authority to amend any document pertaining to the procurement;
 - (d) order the contracting authority to pay to the applicant the costs of participation in the qualification of suppliers, or the costs of tender preparation, reasonably incurred by the applicant for the purposes of the procurement.
- (4) An order made under subsection (3)(b) may specify the decision or action which the contracting authority is to make or take.
- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), if —
- (a) the Tribunal makes a determination in favour of the applicant; and
 - (b) the contract for the procurement has already been awarded,
- the Tribunal may only —
- (i) make an order under subsection (3)(d); or
 - (ii) if the applicant did not incur any of the costs referred to in subsection (3)(d), award the applicant the costs of the challenge proceeding in accordance with section 21.

Determination and order to be in writing

19.—(1) Every determination and order of the Tribunal shall be given in writing and shall include a statement of the Tribunal's reasons for the determination or order, as the case may be.

(2) The Registrar shall, within 7 days of the making of the determination or order, send certified copies of the determination or order to the applicant and the relevant contracting authority.

Satisfaction of order

20.—(1) A contracting authority against whom an order under section 16 or 18(3)(a), (b) or (c) is made shall comply with the order.

(2) An applicant in whose favour an order under section 18(3)(d) is made may recover the amount ordered to be paid to him by an action for a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) This section is without prejudice to the right of the contracting authority to seek judicial review of a determination or order of the Tribunal.

Costs of challenge proceeding

21.—(1) Subject to any regulations made under this Act, the costs of any challenge proceeding, including the costs of the Tribunal, shall be at the discretion of the Tribunal.

(2) The costs may be recovered as if they were costs in a suit in the High Court and as if the determination of the Tribunal in relation to the costs were a decree made in the High Court.

Procedure and powers of Tribunal

22.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and any regulations made thereunder, the Tribunal shall have the power to determine the procedure to be adopted for any challenge proceeding.

(2) The Tribunal shall have the following additional powers:

- (a) to summon to attend at any challenge proceeding any person whom it may consider able to give evidence in respect of the proceeding, to examine him as a witness either on oath or otherwise and to require him to produce such books, records or documents as the Tribunal may think necessary for the proceeding;
- (b) to allow any person so attending any reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by him in so attending;
- (c) to fix the remuneration of any expert witness appointed by the Tribunal for any challenge proceeding;

- (d) with the consent of the applicant and the relevant contracting authority, to refer the parties for mediation by such person as the parties may agree or failing such agreement, as the Tribunal may appoint;
 - (e) all the powers of the Supreme Court with regard to the enforcement of attendance of witnesses, hearing evidence on oath and punishment for contempt;
 - (f) to admit or reject any evidence adduced, whether oral or documentary, and whether admissible under the provisions of any written law for the time being in force relating to the admissibility of evidence;
 - (g) to conduct its proceedings or any part of its proceedings in camera; and
 - (h) generally to give any direction, or to do anything, necessary or expedient for the expeditious and just hearing and disposal of any challenge proceeding.
- (3) The expenses referred to in subsection (2)(b) and the remuneration referred to in subsection (2)(c) shall form part of the costs of the challenge proceedings and, pending and subject to any order made by the Tribunal as to such costs, shall be paid by the applicant or the contracting authority concerned, as the Tribunal may direct.
- (4) Evidence of any thing said, or of any admission made, in the course of any mediation referred to in subsection (2)(d) shall not be admissible in any proceedings before the Tribunal or any court.
- (5) Where the Minister certifies that it is against the public interest for any challenge proceeding to take place in public, the Tribunal shall conduct the proceeding in camera.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS

Submission of information to Minister

23. A contracting authority shall give to the Minister, in such form and at such intervals as may be prescribed, such information as may be prescribed in relation to any procurement subject to this Act which the contracting authority has undertaken or is undertaking or proposes to undertake.

Retention of documents

24. A contracting authority shall ensure that all documents relating to procurements subject to this Act are retained for a minimum of 3 years from the date of their creation.

Power to make regulations

25. The Minister may make regulations prescribing —

- (a) the manner in which challenges shall be brought to the Tribunal;
- (b) the procedure to be adopted by the Tribunal in the hearing and disposal of challenge proceedings and the records to be kept by the Tribunal;
- (c) the places where and the times at which challenge proceedings are to be heard by the Tribunal;
- (d) the costs and fees in respect of challenge proceedings; and
- (e) anything which is required to be prescribed under this Act or which may be necessary or expedient for carrying out or giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

Transitional provision

26.—(1) This Act shall not apply to or affect any procurement which has been initiated before the commencement of this Act.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a procurement is deemed to have been initiated if —

- (a) the invitation to tender in respect of the procurement has been issued;
- (b) the qualification of suppliers, being a qualification of suppliers undertaken solely for that particular procurement, has commenced; or
- (c) in a case where no tender is to be called for the procurement, the contracting authority concerned had communicated with a potential supplier with a view to the making or obtaining of an offer in relation to the procurement.
