- (b) any direction given by the Authority under section 29C or variation of any such direction; or
- (c) any order of the Authority under section 29D(1), (2) or (3) except an order of reprimand, may, within 14 days of the receipt by the primary dealer of the notice of the condition or restriction, the direction (or variation thereof) or order, as the case may be, appeal to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

(2) Where an appeal is lodged under this section —

- (a) the order under section 29D cancelling the appointment as a primary dealer shall not take effect unless the order is confirmed by the Minister or the appeal is for any reason dismissed by the Minister or withdrawn; and
- (b) all other notices, directions (or variation thereof) or orders appealed against shall take effect and be complied with until the determination of the appeal.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the Minister may determine an appeal under this section by confirming, varying or reversing the notice, direction (or variation thereof) or order of the Authority that is appealed against.

(4) If the Minister is satisfied that an appeal by a primary dealer is instituted or pursued without reasonable ground, the Minister may, without calling for a reply from the Authority, but after giving the primary dealer an opportunity to be heard, determine the appeal by confirming the notice, direction (or variation thereof) or order of the Authority that is appealed against.

29F.—(1) The Authority may from time to time inspect, under conditions of secrecy, the books of a primary dealer relating to its business referred to in section 29A(1) for the purposes of ensuring that —

- (2) For the purposes of an inspection under this section —
- (a) a primary dealer, and any person who is in possession of the books of the primary dealer relating to its business referred to in section 29A(1), shall produce such books (and afford the Authority access thereto) and provide such information and facilities as may be required by the Authority to conduct the inspection;
 - (b) the primary dealer shall procure that any such person in paragraph (a) who is in possession of its books produce the books to the Authority and give such information or facilities as may be required by the Authority; and
 - (c) the Authority may —
 - (i) make copies of, or take possession of, any of such books; and
 - (ii) retain possession of any of such books for so long as is necessary for the purposes of exercising a power conferred by this section (except subsection (4)).

(3) No person shall be entitled, as against the Authority, to claim a lien on any of the books, but such a lien is not otherwise prejudiced.

(4) While the books of a primary dealer are in the possession of the Authority, the Authority —

(a) shall permit another person to inspect at all reasonable times such (if any) of the books as the other person would be entitled to inspect if they were not in the possession of the Authority; and

(b) may permit another person to inspect any of the books.

(5) The Authority may require a person who produced any book to the Authority to explain, to the best of his knowledge and belief, any matter about the compilation of the book or to which the book relates.

(6) Any person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with subsection (2) or a requirement of the Authority under subsection (5) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $5,000 for every day or part thereof during which the offence continues after conviction.

(7) In this section, “books” includes any record, register, document or other record of information, and any account or accounting record, however compiled, recorded or stored, whether in written or printed form or on microfilm or in any electronic form or otherwise.
