[7/79]

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) —

- (a) where 2 basis periods overlap, the period common to both shall be deemed to fall in the first basis period only;
- (b) where there is an interval between the end of the basis period for a year of assessment and the commencement of a basis period for the next succeeding year of assessment, then, unless the second-mentioned year of assessment is the year of the permanent discontinuance of the trade, the interval shall be deemed to be part of the second basis period; and

- (c) where there is an interval between the end of the basis period for the year of assessment preceding that in which the trade is permanently discontinued and the commencement of the basis period for the year in which it is permanently discontinued, the interval shall be deemed to form part of the first basis period.

(3) Any capital expenditure incurred for the purposes of a trade by a person about to carry on that trade shall be treated for the purposes of subsection (1) as if it had been incurred by that person on the first day on which he does carry on that trade.

(4) Where any person is, at the end of the basis period for any year of assessment, entitled to an interest in a building or structure which is an industrial building or structure and where that interest is the relevant interest in relation to the capital expenditure incurred before 1st January 2006 on the construction of that building or structure, an allowance, to be known as an “annual allowance”, equal to 3% of the total capital expenditure incurred by that person on the construction of that building or structure shall be made to him for that year of assessment.

(5) Where at any time in or after the basis period for the first year of assessment under this Act and before 1st January 2006, the interest in a building or structure which is the relevant interest in relation to any capital expenditure incurred before that date on the construction of that building or structure is sold while the building or structure is an industrial building or structure or after it has ceased to be one, the annual allowance, in the years of assessment the basis periods for which end after the time of that sale, shall be computed by reference to the residue of that expenditure immediately after the sale and shall be —

(b) 3% of that residue, whichever is the greater, and so on for any subsequent sales.

[1/88; 11/94; 7/2007; 53/2007]

(11) Notwithstanding anything in this section, in no case shall the amount of an annual allowance made to a person for any year of assessment in respect of any expenditure exceed what, apart from the writing off falling to be made by reason of the making of that allowance, would be the residue of that expenditure at the end of his basis period for that year of assessment.

(12) For the purposes of subsection (1), where a person has incurred capital expenditure before 1st January 2006 on the purchase of an industrial building or structure (including the purchase of a leasehold interest therein of not less than 25 years) which has not previously been used by any person, he shall be deemed to have incurred expenditure on the construction of that industrial building or structure equal to the cost of construction of that industrial building or structure or to the net price paid by him for that industrial building or structure or the interest therein, whichever is less, if —

(13) For the purposes of subsection (1), where a person has incurred capital expenditure on or after 1st January 2006 on the purchase of an industrial building or structure which has not previously been used by any person, he shall be deemed to have incurred expenditure on the construction of that industrial building or structure equal to the capital expenditure incurred by him on the purchase of that industrial building or structure if —

[49/2004]

(15) Subject to section 18B, this section shall not apply to any capital expenditure incurred on or after 23rd February 2010 on the construction or purchase of an industrial building or structure.

Balancing allowances and charges for industrial buildings and structures

17.—(1) Where any of the events referred to in subsection (1A) occurs while a building or structure is an industrial building or structure or after it has ceased to be one and —

- (a) any capital expenditure has been incurred on the construction of the building or structure before 1st January 2006; or
- (b) either —
 - (i) any capital expenditure has been incurred on the construction of the building or structure on or after 1st January 2006; or
 - (ii) a sale and purchase agreement for the building or structure was entered into on or after that date, then an allowance or a charge, to be known as a “balancing allowance” or a “balancing charge” shall, in the circumstances mentioned in this section, be made to or, as the case may be, on the person entitled to the relevant interest immediately before that event occurs for the year of assessment in the basis period for which that event occurs.

[7/2007]

(1A) The events referred to in subsection (1) are —

- (a) the relevant interest in the building or structure is sold;
- (b) that interest, being a leasehold interest, comes to an end otherwise than on the person entitled thereto acquiring the interest which is reversionary thereon;
- (c) the building or structure is demolished or destroyed or, without being demolished or destroyed, ceases altogether to be used.

[7/2007]

(2) In the case referred to in subsection (1)(a), no balancing allowance or balancing charge shall be made to or on any person for any year of assessment by reason of any event occurring after the end of the fiftieth year after that in which the building or structure was first used.

[7/2007]

(3) No balancing allowance shall be made to any person —

(a) on the sale of the relevant interest in the building or structure unless the person proves to the satisfaction of the Comptroller that the value of the building or structure to the person is less than —

(i) in the case referred to in subsection (1)(a), the amount of the capital expenditure incurred on the construction of the building or structure reduced by the amount of any initial and annual allowances made (including an amount of 3% of the capital expenditure for each year in which no initial or annual allowance was made); or

(ii) in the case referred to in subsection (1)(b), the amount of the capital expenditure incurred by him on the construction or purchase of the building or structure (as the case may be) reduced by the amount of any initial and annual allowances made (including an amount of 3% of the capital expenditure for each year in which no initial or annual allowance was made); or

(b) where the relevant interest in the building or structure is not sold but the building or structure is or would be redeveloped for any use other than as an industrial building or structure.

(4) Where there are no sale, insurance, salvage or compensation moneys, or where the residue of the expenditure immediately before the event exceeds those moneys, a balancing allowance shall be made and the amount thereof shall be the amount of the residue or, as the case may be, of the excess thereof over the moneys.

(5) If the sale, insurance, salvage or compensation moneys exceed the residue, if any, of the expenditure immediately before the event, a balancing charge shall be made and the amount on which it is made shall be an amount equal to the excess or, where the residue is nil, to the moneys.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (5) but subject to subsection (7), in no case shall the amount on which a balancing charge is made on a person exceed the aggregate of the following amounts:

- (a) the amount of the initial allowance, if any, made to him in respect of the expenditure in question; and
- (b) the amount of the annual allowances, if any, made to him in respect of the expenditure in question.

[49/2004]

(7) Unless otherwise provided in this Act or the Economic Expansion Incentives (Relief from Income Tax) Act (Cap. 86), where, in the basis period for any year of assessment, the trade, for which purpose the industrial building is used, produces income that is exempt from tax as well as income chargeable with tax, and any balancing allowance or balancing charge arises to be made —

- (a) the balancing allowance shall be made against each income for that year of assessment in such proportion as appears reasonable to the Comptroller in the circumstances; and
- (b) such proportion of the balancing charge shall be exempt from tax as appears reasonable to the Comptroller in the circumstances.

[49/2004]

(8) Where allowances have been made under both sections 16 and 18C in respect of any industrial building or structure, then, for the purposes of subsections (4) and (5), the sale, insurance, salvage or compensation moneys in respect of that building or structure shall be such amount of those moneys as the Comptroller determines to be reasonable in the circumstances.

(9) Where the relevant interest in a building or structure in respect of which allowances have been made under section 16 is transferred at less than the open-market price, then for the purpose of determining the amount of any balancing charge under subsection (5), the relevant interest in the building or structure shall be treated as if it had been sold for an amount equal to the open-market price of the building or structure as at the date of transfer.

(2) A building or structure shall not be deemed, by reason only of its falling or having fallen into temporary disuse, to have thereby ceased altogether to be used for one of the purposes specified in subsection (1) if, immediately prior to falling into such temporary disuse, it was in use for such a purpose and if, during the period of such temporary disuse, it is constantly maintained in readiness to be brought back into use for such a purpose.

(3) If, in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2), the building or structure at any time during disuse ceases to be ready for use for any of the purposes mentioned in that subsection, or if at any time, for any reason, the disuse of the building or structure can no longer be reasonably regarded as temporary, then and in any such case, the building or structure shall be deemed to have ceased, on the commencement of the period of disuse, to be used for any of the purposes specified in subsection (1).

subsection (7), the whole building or structure and every part thereof may be treated as an industrial building or structure if —

- (a) the floor area of the part of the building or structure that is not an industrial building or structure is not more than one-tenth of the total floor area of the whole building or structure; or 19D.—(1) Subject to this section, where a person carrying on a trade, business or profession has incurred capital expenditure during or after the basis period for the year of assessment 2004 for the acquisition of an indefeasible right to use any international telecommunications submarine cable system (referred to in this section as Indefeasible Right of Use or IRU) for the purposes of that trade, business or profession (referred to in this section as the relevant trade, business or profession), writing-down allowances computed in accordance with subsection (3) shall be made to him, on due claim, in respect of that capital expenditure during the writing-down period.

(2) The writing-down period in respect of an IRU shall be the number of years for which the IRU is acquired commencing with the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the capital expenditure for the acquisition of the IRU is incurred.

[21/2003]

(3) For the purposes of this section, the writing-down allowances in respect of an IRU shall be determined by the formula

$$\frac{A}{B},$$

where A is the amount of capital expenditure incurred for the acquisition of the IRU; and

B is the writing-down period for the IRU.

[21/2003]

(4) Notwithstanding anything in this section, no writing-down allowance shall be granted to any person under subsection (1) in any year of assessment if the international telecommunications submarine cable system is not in use at the end of the basis period for that year of assessment by that person in the trade, business or profession carried on by him.

[21/2003]

(5) Any capital expenditure incurred for the acquisition of any IRU by a person before the commencement of his trade, business or profession shall be treated for the purpose of this section as if it had been incurred by him on the first day he commences that trade, business or profession.

[21/2003]

(6) Where writing-down allowances in respect of any IRU have been made to any person under this section and, before or at the end of the writing-down period for the IRU, any of the following events occurs:

- (a) the IRU comes to an end without subsequent renewal by the person;
- (b) the person permanently ceases to carry on the relevant trade, business or profession;
- (c) the person sells, transfers or assigns all the IRU or so much of it as he still owns; or
- (d) the person sells, transfers or assigns part of the IRU and the amount or value of any consideration less any decommissioning cost (referred to in this section as the consideration) for the sale, transfer or assignment is not less than the amount of capital expenditure remaining unallowed for the IRU, no writing-down allowance in respect of the IRU shall be made to the person for the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the event occurs or for any subsequent year of assessment.

[21/2003]

(7) Where an IRU remains with any person after the date on which it permanently ceases to be used by the person for the relevant trade, business or profession, the IRU shall be deemed to have been sold by the person at the open-market price on the date of permanent cessation of use.

[21/2003]

(8) Where writing-down allowances in respect of any IRU have been made to any person under this section and, before or at the end of the writing-down period for the IRU, any of the following events occurs:

- (a) the IRU comes to an end without subsequent renewal by the person;
- (b) the person permanently ceases to carry on the relevant trade, business or profession; or
- (c) the person sells, transfers or assigns all the IRU or so much of it as he still owns and the consideration for the sale, transfer or assignment is less than the amount of capital expenditure remaining unallowed for the IRU, there shall be made to the person for the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the event occurs, a balancing allowance equal to —

- (i) in the case where the amount of capital expenditure remaining unallowed for the IRU exceeds the consideration for the sale, transfer or assignment of the IRU, the excess; or
- (ii) in any other case, the amount of capital expenditure remaining unallowed for the IRU.

[21/2003]

(9) Where writing-down allowances in respect of any IRU have been made to any person under this section and the person sells, transfers or assigns all or any part of the IRU and the consideration for the sale, transfer or assignment of the IRU exceeds the amount of capital expenditure remaining unallowed for the IRU, if any, there shall be made on the person, a balancing charge, which shall be based on an amount equal to —

- (a) the excess of the consideration for the sale, transfer or assignment of the IRU over the amount of capital expenditure remaining unallowed for the IRU; or
- (b) the consideration for the sale, transfer or assignment of the IRU, where the amount of capital expenditure remaining unallowed for the IRU is nil, and the balancing charge shall be deemed as income for the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the sale, transfer or assignment of the IRU occurs.

[21/2003]

(10) Where writing-down allowances in respect of any IRU have been made to any person under this section and the person sells, transfers or assigns any part of the IRU, and the consideration for the sale, transfer or assignment of the IRU is less than the amount of capital expenditure remaining unallowed for the IRU, the amount of any writing-down allowances made in respect of the IRU for the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the sale, transfer or assignment of the IRU occurs or any subsequent year of assessment shall be the amount determined by the formula

where C is the amount of capital expenditure remaining unallowed at the time of the sale, transfer or assignment of the IRU;

D is the consideration for the sale, transfer or assignment of that part of the IRU; and

E is the number of complete years of the writing-down period remaining at the beginning of the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the sale, transfer or assignment of the IRU occurs, and so on for any subsequent sale, transfer or assignment of the IRU.

[21/2003]

(11) Notwithstanding subsections (9) and (10), the total amount on which a balancing charge is made in respect of any capital expenditure incurred for the acquisition of an IRU shall not exceed the total writing-down allowances actually made for the IRU in respect of that capital expenditure, less, if a balancing charge has previously been made in respect of that capital expenditure, the amount on which that balancing charge was made.

[21/2003]

(12) Where the sale, transfer or assignment of all or part of any IRU is made at less than the open-market price, then for the purpose of determining the amount of any balancing allowance or balancing charge, the event shall be treated as if it had given rise to sale, transfer or assignment moneys of an amount equal to the open-market price of the IRU.

[21/2003]

(13) Unless otherwise provided in this Act or the Economic Expansion Incentives (Relief from Income Tax) Act (Cap. 86), where, in the basis period for any year of assessment, the relevant trade, business or profession produces income that is exempt from tax as well as income chargeable with tax, the allowances for that year of assessment shall be made against each income in that year of assessment in such proportion as appears reasonable to the Comptroller in the circumstances.

[49/2004]

(14) Unless otherwise provided in this Act or the Economic Expansion Incentives (Relief from Income Tax) Act, where, in the basis period for any year of assessment, the relevant trade, business or profession produces income that is exempt from tax as well as income chargeable with tax, and any balancing allowance or balancing charge arises to be made —

- (a) the balancing allowance shall be made against each income for that year of assessment in such proportion as appears reasonable to the Comptroller in the circumstances; and

- (b) such proportion of the balancing charge shall be exempt from tax as appears reasonable to the Comptroller in the circumstances.

(15) In this section —

“capital expenditure” does not include legal fees, registration fees, stamp duty and other costs related to the acquisition of any IRU;

“capital expenditure remaining unallowed”, in relation to any IRU, means the amount of capital expenditure incurred for the acquisition of the IRU less —

(a) any writing-down allowances made in respect of that capital expenditure for the years of assessment before the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which any event referred to in subsection (6), (8), (9) or (10) occurs; and

(b) the consideration for any prior sale, transfer or assignment by the person who incurred the capital expenditure of any part of the IRU acquired by the capital expenditure;

“international telecommunications submarine cable system” means an international submarine cable that is laid in the sea and includes its cable landing station and any other equipment ancillary to the submarine cable system;

“open-market price”, in relation to any IRU, means —

(a) the price which the IRU would have fetched if sold in the open market at the time any event referred to in subsection (6), (8), (9) or (10) occurs; or

(b) where the Comptroller is satisfied by reason of the special nature of any IRU that it is not practicable to determine the open-market price, such other value as appears to him to be reasonable in the circumstances.

[21/2003]

(16) For the purposes of this section, any sale, transfer or assignment of any IRU which occurs after the date on which a relevant trade, business or profession permanently ceases shall be deemed to have occurred immediately before the cessation.

[21/2003]

Balancing allowances and charges for machinery or plant

20.—(1) Except as provided in this section, where at any time after the setting up and on or before the permanent discontinuance of a trade, profession or business, any event occurs whereby machinery or plant in respect of which allowances under section 19 or 19A have been made to a person carrying on a trade, profession or business —

(a) ceases to belong to that person (whether on a sale of the machinery or plant or in any other circumstances of any description); or

(b) while continuing to belong to that person —

(i) in a case where the machinery or plant which —

(A) was provided for any research and development undertaken by him directly in Singapore or by a research and development organisation on his behalf in Singapore; and

(B) was not provided for the purpose of a trade or business carried on by him, permanently ceases to be used for any research and development undertaken by him directly in Singapore or by a research and development organisation on his behalf in Singapore, and is not used for the purpose of a trade, profession or business carried on by him; or

(ii) in any other case, permanently ceases to be used for the purpose of a trade, profession or business carried on by him in Singapore (whether by reason of the discontinuance of the trade, profession or business, or discontinuance of use of such machinery or plant in a trade, profession or business which continues to be carried on in Singapore), an allowance or a charge, to be known as a balancing allowance or a balancing charge, shall in the circumstances mentioned in this section be made to or, as the case may be, on that person for the year of assessment in the basis period for which that event occurs.

(1A) Where the property in machinery or plant passes at less than the open-market price, then for the purpose of determining the amount of any balancing allowance or balancing charge the event shall be treated as if it had given rise to sale moneys of an amount equal to the open-market price of the machinery or plant.

(2) Where machinery or plant continues to belong to that person after the date on which it permanently ceases to be used for the purposes of a trade, profession or business carried on by him in Singapore, or (as the case may be) for the purpose of any research and development undertaken by him directly in Singapore or by a research and development organisation on his behalf in Singapore, it shall be deemed to have been sold on the date of permanent cessation of use at the open-market price on that date.

(2A) Where there are no sale, insurance, salvage or compensation moneys or where the amount of the capital expenditure of the person in question on the provision of the machinery or plant still unallowed as at the time of the event exceeds those moneys, a balancing allowance shall be made, and the amount thereof shall be the amount of the expenditure still unallowed as aforesaid or, as the case may be, the excess thereof over those moneys.

(3) If the sale, insurance, salvage or compensation moneys exceed the amount, if any, of the said expenditure still unallowed as at the time of the event, a balancing charge shall be made, and the amount on which it is made shall be an amount equal to the excess or, where the said amount still unallowed is nil, to those moneys.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (3), in no case shall the amount on which a balancing charge is made on a person exceed —

- (a) the aggregate of the initial allowance, if any, and the annual allowances, if any, made to him under section 19 in respect of the expenditure in question; and

- (b) the special allowances, if any, made to him under section 19A in respect of the expenditure in question.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in this section but subject to subsection (6A), where a balancing allowance or balancing charge falls to be made under subsection (1) in respect of a motor car to which section 19(3) applies, the sum to be taken in lieu of the open-market price or sale, insurance, salvage or compensation moneys for the purpose of calculating such balancing allowance or charge shall be ascertained in accordance with the formula

$$\frac{35,000A}{B},$$

where A is the open-market price or sale, insurance, salvage or compensation moneys in respect of the motor car; and

B is the capital expenditure incurred in respect of the motor car.

[37/75; 9/80; 5/83; 49/2004]

(6) Notwithstanding anything in this section, no balancing allowance shall be made in respect of a motor car within the meaning of section 19(4)(a) which is not, for any basis period after the basis period for the year of assessment 1981, registered as a business service passenger vehicle for the purposes of the Road Traffic Act (Cap. 276).

(6A) Unless otherwise provided in this Act or the Economic Expansion Incentives (Relief from Income Tax) Act (Cap. 86), where, in the basis period for any year of assessment, the trade, profession or business, for which purpose the machinery or plant is provided, produces income that is exempt from tax as well as income chargeable with tax, and any balancing allowance or balancing charge arises to be made —

- (a) the balancing allowance shall be made against each income for that year of assessment in such proportion as appears reasonable to the Comptroller in the circumstances; and

- (b) such proportion of the balancing charge shall be exempt from tax as appears reasonable to the Comptroller in the circumstances.

(6B) Section 14D(4) and (5) shall apply in relation to the balancing allowance to be made to a person under subsection (1)(b)(i) as they apply in relation to the deduction of the expenditure and payments referred to in section 14D(1)(aa), (c) and (f), subject to the following modifications:

- (a) a reference to the amount of the expenditure or payments is a reference to the amount of the balancing allowance;
- (b) a reference to unabsorbed losses is a reference to unabsorbed allowances; and
- (c) a reference to a specified amount of the expenditure or payments is a reference to an amount computed in accordance with the following formula:

$$A \times \frac{B}{C},$$

where A is the amount of the balancing allowance that could have been made against the income of the person under subsection (1)(b)(i) if the income had been subject to tax at the rate specified in section 43(1)(a);

B is the rate of tax specified in section 43(1)(a); and

C is —

- (i) in a case where the concessionary income (as defined in section 14D(5)) derived by the person from the trade or business carried on by him is subject to tax at a single concessionary rate of tax, that rate; or
- (ii) in a case where the concessionary income derived by the person from the trade or business carried on by him is subject to tax at 2 or more concessionary rates of tax, the higher or highest of those rates.

[34/2008; 29/2012]

(6C) Notwithstanding anything in this Act or the Economic Expansion Incentives (Relief from Income Tax) Act, where a balancing charge falls to be made on a person under subsection (1)(b)(i), the amount of the charge shall be deemed to be income of that person that is chargeable to tax at the rate of tax specified in section 43(1)(a).

[34/2008]

(7) In this section, “open-market price”, in relation to any machinery or plant, means the price which the machinery or plant would have fetched if sold in the open market at the time of the event in question; except that where the Comptroller is satisfied by reason of the special nature of any machinery or plant that it is not practicable to determine an open-market price, he may adopt such other value as appears to him to be reasonable in the circumstances.

Replacement of machinery or plant

21.—(1) Where machinery or plant in the case of which any of the events mentioned in section 20(1) has occurred is replaced by the owner thereof and a balancing charge falls to be made on him by reason of that event or, but for this section, would have fallen to be made on him by reason thereof, then, if by notice in writing to the Comptroller he so elects, this section shall have effect.

(2) If the amount on which the charge would have been made is greater than the capital expenditure on providing the new machinery or plant —

- (a) the charge shall be made only on an amount equal to the difference;
- (b) no initial allowance, no balancing allowance and no annual allowance shall be made or allowed in respect of the new machinery or plant or the expenditure on the provision thereof; and

- (c) in considering whether any, and if so what, balancing charge falls to be made in respect of the expenditure on the new machinery or plant, there shall be deemed to have been made in respect of that expenditure an initial allowance equal to the full amount of that expenditure.
- (3) If the capital expenditure on providing the new machinery or plant is equal to or greater than the amount on which the charge would have been made —
- (a) the charge shall not be made;
 - (b) the amount of any initial allowance in respect of the said expenditure shall be calculated as if the expenditure had been reduced by the amount on which the charge would have been made;
 - (c) in considering what annual allowance is to be made in respect of the new machinery or plant, there shall be left out of account a proportion of the machinery or plant equal to the proportion which the amount on which the charge would have been made bears to the amount of the said expenditure; and
 - (d) in considering whether any, and if so what, balancing allowance or balancing charge falls to be made in respect of the new machinery or plant, the initial allowance in respect thereof shall be deemed to have been increased by an amount equal to the amount on which the charge would have been made.
- (4) This section shall not apply to the provision of any new motor car for which no allowance is allowed by virtue of section 19(5).
[32/99]
- (5) For the purpose of this section, where the capital expenditure incurred in providing, in the basis period for the year of assessment 2013 or any preceding year of assessment, a new motor car registered outside Singapore and used exclusively outside Singapore exceeds $35,000, the expenditure incurred shall be deemed to be $35,000.
[19/2013]

Expenditure on machinery or plant

22. Expenditure on the provision of machinery or plant shall include capital expenditure on alterations to an existing building incidental to the installation of that machinery or plant for the purposes of the trade, profession or business.

Order of set-off of allowances

22A.—(1) Where for any year of assessment the allowances consist of allowances a person is entitled to or allowances made to a person under section 16, 17, 18A (repealed), 18B, 18C, 19, 19A, 19B, 19C, 19D or 20 for that year of assessment and any previous year of assessment added to and deemed to form part of the corresponding allowance for the year of assessment under section 23(1), the allowances shall be deducted in the following order:

- (a) firstly, any balance of allowance from any previous year of assessment added to and deemed to form part of the corresponding allowance for the year of assessment under section 23(1); and

(2) Where, for any period, the non-resident person produces a certificate complying with subsection (3) —

(a) the profits accruing in Singapore from the business for that period shall be deemed to be a sum bearing the same ratio to the sums receivable in respect of the carriage of passengers, mail, livestock and goods shipped in Singapore as the total profits for that period bear to the total sum receivable by him in respect of the carriage of passengers, mail, livestock and goods, as shown by the certificate; and

(b) the depreciation allowable against such profits shall similarly be deemed to be a sum bearing the same ratio to the sums receivable in respect of the carriage of passengers, mail, livestock and goods shipped in Singapore as the total depreciation for that period bears to the total sum receivable by him in respect of the carriage of passengers, mail, livestock and goods, as shown by the certificate.

(3) The certificate referred to in subsection (2) shall —

(a) be one issued by or on behalf of the income tax authority of the place of residence of the non-resident person;

(7) Notwithstanding anything in subsections (1) to (6), if in computing the profits derived by a resident in Singapore from carrying on the business of a shipowner or charterer, the tax authority of a foreign country determines such profits to be an amount which exceeds 5% of the full sum receivable on account of the carriage of passengers, mail, livestock and goods shipped in that foreign country, the Minister may if he thinks fit direct that, in computing the profits derived in Singapore by a non-resident shipowner or charterer who is resident in that foreign country, the Comptroller shall determine the amount of such profits in such manner as may be substantially similar to that adopted by the tax authority of that foreign country.

PART XIVRELIEF AGAINST DOUBLE TAXATION

48. [Repealed by Act 27 of 2009]

Avoidance of double taxation arrangements

49.—(1) If the Minister by order declares that arrangements specified in the order have been made with the government of any country outside Singapore with a view to affording relief from double taxation in relation to tax under this Act and any tax of a similar character imposed by the laws of that country, and that it is expedient that those arrangements should have effect, the arrangements shall have effect notwithstanding anything in any written law.

(2) Any arrangements made with the government of another country —

- (a) may provide for liability to tax by one country and for exemption from tax by the other country;
- (b) may provide for exemption, wholly or partly and with or without conditions, from tax in either or both countries and for any income so exempted to be taken into account in determining the effective rate of tax to be applicable to other income;
- (c) may deem the source of income to be wholly or partly in either or both of such countries; and

- (d) may provide for the charge to tax by the country in which the source is deemed to be situated, of any income derived from such source.

[5/77]

(2A) In subsection (2)(b), “effective rate of tax” means the rate of tax as ascertained in accordance with the formula

$$\frac{A}{B + C},$$

where A is the tax payable before allowance of credit under any arrangements having effect under this section on B + C computed in accordance with the provisions of this Act;

B is the exempt income; and

C is the other income.

[5/77]

(3) [Deleted by Act 27 of 2009]

(4) Any order made under this section may be revoked by a subsequent order.

(5) Where any arrangements have effect by virtue of this section, the obligation as to secrecy imposed by section 6 shall not prevent the disclosure to any authorised officer of the government with which the arrangements are made of such information as is required to be disclosed under the arrangements.

(6) The Minister may make rules for carrying out the provisions of any arrangements having effect under this section.

Tax credits

50.—(1) This section shall have effect where, under arrangements having effect under section 49, tax payable in respect of any income in the territory with the government of which the arrangements are made is to be allowed as a credit against tax payable in respect of that income in Singapore.

(2) The amount of the income tax chargeable in respect of the income shall be reduced by the amount of the credit; except that credit shall not be allowed against income tax for any year of assessment unless the person entitled to the income is resident in Singapore during that year.

(3) The credit shall not exceed the amount which would be produced by computing the amount of the income in accordance with the provisions of this Act and then charging it to income tax at a rate ascertained by dividing the income tax chargeable (before allowance of credit under any arrangements having effect under section 49) on the assessable income of the person entitled to the income by the amount of his assessable income.

[7/79; 31/86; 26/93; 28/96; 34/2005]

(4) Without prejudice to subsection (3), the total credit to be allowed to a person for any year of assessment for foreign tax under all arrangements having effect under section 49 shall not exceed the total income tax payable by him for that year of assessment, excluding any tax payable by him under section 45.

(5) In computing the amount of the income —

- (a) no deduction shall be allowed in respect of foreign tax (whether in respect of the same or any other income);
- (b) where the income tax chargeable depends on the amount received in Singapore, that amount shall be increased by the appropriate amount of the foreign tax in respect of the income; and
- (c) where the income includes a dividend and under the arrangements foreign tax not chargeable directly or by deduction in respect of the dividend is to be taken into account in considering whether any, and if so what, credit is to be given against income tax in respect of the dividend, the amount of the income shall be increased by the amount of the foreign tax not so chargeable which falls to be taken into account in computing the amount of the credit.

(6) Subsection (5)(a) and (b) shall apply to the computation of assessable income for the purposes of determining the rate mentioned in subsection (3), and shall apply thereto in relation to all income in the case of which credit falls to be given for foreign tax under arrangements for the time being in force under section 49.

(7) Where —

- (a) the arrangements provide, in relation to dividends of some classes, but not in relation to dividends of other classes, that foreign tax not chargeable directly or by deduction in respect of dividends is to be taken into account in considering whether any, and if so what, credit is to be given against income tax in respect of the dividends; and
- (b) a dividend is paid which is not of a class in relation to which the arrangements so provide, then, if the dividend is paid to a company which controls, directly or indirectly, not less than one-half of the voting power in the company paying the dividend, credit shall be allowed as if the dividend were a dividend of a class in relation to which the arrangements so provide.

(8) Credit shall not be allowed under the arrangements against income tax chargeable in respect of the income of any person for any year of assessment if he elects that credit shall not be allowed in the case of his income for that year.

(9) Any claim for an allowance by way of credit shall be made not later than 2 years after the end of the year of assessment, and in the event of any dispute as to the amount allowable the claim shall be subject to objection and appeal in like manner as an assessment.

(10) Where the amount of any credit given under the arrangements is rendered excessive or insufficient by reason of any adjustment of the amount of any tax payable either in Singapore or elsewhere, nothing in this Act limiting the time for the making of assessments or claims for relief shall apply to any assessment or claim to which the adjustment gives rise, being an assessment or claim made not later than 2 years from the time when all such assessments, adjustments and other determinations have been made, whether in Singapore or elsewhere, as are material in determining whether any, and if so what, credit falls to be given.

(11) Nothing in this section shall authorise the reduction of any tax payable on income accruing in or derived from Singapore by virtue of the allowance of any credit under this section.

(12) In this section —

“foreign tax” means any tax payable in that territory which under the arrangements is to be so allowed;

“income tax” means tax chargeable under this Act.

- (a) any income derived from any professional, consultancy and other services rendered in that territory;

[26/93; 37/2002; 21/2003; 34/2008]

(2) Where any dividend in respect of which tax credit is given under subsection (1)(c) is paid by a company which is resident outside Singapore to a person resident in Singapore who owns not less than 25% of the total number of issued shares of the company paying the dividend, the tax credit shall take into account any tax paid by that company in the country in which it is resident in respect of its income out of which the dividend is paid.

[34/2005]

(3) Where under arrangements for the time being in force under section 49 with the government of any territory outside Singapore no provision is made for tax credit in respect of income out of which any dividend is paid by a company resident in that territory, tax credit under section 50 in respect of such income shall be given to any person resident in Singapore who owns not less than 25% of the total number of issued shares of the company paying the dividend.

[34/2005]

- (a) computing the amount of the income that is the subject of each replaced credit in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and then charging it to income tax at a rate ascertained by dividing the income tax chargeable (before allowance of any credit under this Part) on the assessable income of the person by the amount of his assessable income; and

- (a) they are separated under an order of court of competent jurisdiction or by deed of separation;
- (b) they are in fact separated in such circumstances that the separation is likely to be permanent; or
- (c) she is, and her husband is not, resident in Singapore.

Trustees, agents and curators

Chargeability of trustees, etc.

52.—(1) A receiver appointed by the court, a trustee, a guardian, a curator or a committee, having the direction, control or management of any property or concern on behalf of any incapacitated person shall be chargeable to tax in like manner and to the like amount as such person would be chargeable if he were not an incapacitated person.

(2) This section shall not be construed to make any person chargeable to tax in respect of an incapacitated person, liable in such respect, for a greater amount of tax than that for which the incapacitated person would have been liable had no receiver, trustee, guardian, curator or committee been appointed.

Chargeability of agent of person residing out of Singapore

53.—(1) A person not resident in Singapore (referred to in this section as a non-resident person) shall be assessable and chargeable to tax either directly or in the name of his trustee, guardian, or committee, or of any attorney, factor, agent, receiver, branch or manager, whether such attorney, factor, agent, receiver, branch or manager has the receipt of the income or not, in like manner and to the like amount as such non-resident person would be assessed and charged if he were resident in Singapore and in the actual receipt of such income; except that in the case of any individual who is not resident in Singapore, no deduction shall be allowed under section 39 except in such manner as is provided by section 40.

(1A) A non-resident person shall be assessable and chargeable in respect of any income arising, directly or indirectly, through or from any attorneyship, factorship, agency, receivership, branch or management, and shall be so assessable and chargeable in the name of the attorney, factor, agent, receiver, branch or manager.

(2) A non-resident beneficiary of the estate of a deceased person shall, where the estate is being administered in Singapore, be assessable and chargeable in respect of the income received by or distributed to him or applied to his benefit in the name of the executor of the estate as if the executor were an agent of the non-resident beneficiary.

(2A) Where a non-resident person carries on business with a resident person and it appears to the Comptroller that owing to the close connection between the resident person and the non-resident person and to the substantial control exercised by the non-resident person over the resident person the course of business between those persons can be so arranged and is so arranged that the business done by the resident person in pursuance of his connection with the non-resident person produces to the resident person either no profits or less than the ordinary profits which might be expected to arise from that business, the non-resident person shall be assessable and chargeable to tax in the name of the resident person as if the resident person were an agent of the non-resident person.

(3) Where the true amount of the gains or profits of any non-resident person chargeable with tax in the name of a resident person cannot in any case be readily ascertained the Comptroller may, if he thinks fit, assess and charge the non-resident person on a fair and reasonable percentage of the turnover of the business done by the non-resident person through or with the resident person in whose name he is chargeable as aforesaid, and in such case the provisions of this Act relating to the delivery of returns or particulars by persons acting on behalf of others shall extend so as to require returns or particulars to be furnished by the resident person of the business so done by the non-resident person through or with the resident person in the same manner as returns or particulars are to be delivered by persons acting for incapacitated or non-resident persons of income to be charged.

(3A) The amount of the percentage under subsection (3) shall in each case be determined with regard to the nature of the business and shall, when determined by the Comptroller, be subject to appeal in accordance with the provisions of Part XVIII.

(4) Nothing in this section shall render a non-resident person chargeable in the name of a broker or general commission agent or other agent where such broker, general commission agent or agent is not an authorised person carrying on the regular agency of the non-resident person, or person chargeable as if he were an agent in pursuance of subsections (2A) and (3), in respect of gains or profits arising from sales or transactions carried out through such a broker or agent.

(5) The fact that a non-resident person executes sales or carries out transactions with other non-resident persons in circumstances which would make him chargeable in pursuance of subsections (2A) and (3) in the name of a resident person shall not of itself make him chargeable in respect of gains or profits arising from those sales or transactions.

(6) Where a non-resident person is chargeable to tax in the name of any attorney, factor, agent, receiver or manager, in respect of any gains or profits arising from the sale of goods or produce manufactured or produced outside Singapore by the non-resident person, the person in whose name the non-resident person is so chargeable may, if he thinks fit, apply to the Comptroller to have the assessment to tax in respect of those gains or profits made or amended on the basis of the profits which might reasonably be expected to have been earned by a merchant or, where the goods are retailed by or on behalf of the manufacturer or producer, by a retailer of the goods sold, who had bought from the manufacturer or producer direct, and on proof to the satisfaction of the Comptroller of the amount of the profits on the basis aforesaid, the assessment shall be made or amended accordingly.

(7) The master of any ship and the captain of any aircraft owned or chartered by a non-resident person who is chargeable under section 12(2) shall (though not to the exclusion of any other agent) be deemed the agent of such non-resident person for all the purposes of this Act.

54. (5) Where the objector is aggrieved by the Comptroller's decision upon his objection, he may appeal against such decision to the Board of Review and the provisions of Part XVIII shall apply with the necessary modifications.

PART XVII

ASSESSMENTS AND OBJECTIONS

Comptroller to make assessments

72.—(1) The Comptroller shall proceed to assess every person chargeable with tax as soon as may be after the expiration of the time allowed to such person for the delivery of the return provided for in section 62 or, if he is exempted from the liability to deliver a return under section 62(2), after the expiration of the time that would have been allowed to him for the delivery of the return if he had not been so exempted.

[34/2008]

- (2) Where a person has delivered a return, the Comptroller may —
- (a) accept the return and make an assessment accordingly; or
 - (b) refuse to accept the return and, to the best of his judgment, determine the amount of the chargeable income of the person and make an assessment accordingly.

(3) Where a person has not delivered a return and the Comptroller is of the opinion that such person is liable to pay tax, the Comptroller may, according to the best of his judgment, determine the amount of the chargeable income of such person and make an assessment accordingly, but such assessment shall not affect any liability otherwise incurred by such person by reason of his failure or neglect to deliver a return.

Advance assessments

73.—(1) Notwithstanding section 72, where —

- (a) in any year of assessment a person ceases to carry on a trade, business, profession, vocation or employment; or
- (b) the Comptroller is of the opinion that any person possessing a source of income is about to leave Singapore and is likely to cease to possess that source in the year of assessment in which he leaves Singapore or in the following 2 years, the Comptroller may make such assessment or additional assessments as may be necessary to bring to charge the full amount of the income from all sources derived or to be derived by such person up to the year in which the source of income ceases or is likely to cease.

(2) Where the income of a person is ascertained under section 27, the Comptroller may make an assessment in respect of any income of such person within the year in which the income is deemed to accrue.

(2A) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, the Comptroller may make an assessment on an individual to whom section 10(7B) or (7C) applies within the year in which the income accrues or is deemed to accrue to the individual, as the case may be.

(2B) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, where income accrues under section 10(6) to a director of a company who is not resident in Singapore, the Comptroller may make an assessment in respect of that income within the year in which the income accrues to the director.

[49/2004]

(3) The Comptroller may, if he thinks fit, at any time during any year make an assessment in respect of the income derived by any person carrying on or exercising any trade, business, profession or vocation up to that year.

[11/94]

(3A) In making an assessment under subsection (3), the Comptroller may have regard to the estimate of chargeable income furnished under section 63 or he may make an assessment according to the best of his judgment where such estimate of chargeable income has not been furnished or has been rejected by him.

[5/77]

(4) Where the Comptroller has exercised his powers to make an advance assessment under this section, such assessment shall be made on the assumption that —

- (a) the provisions of this Act in force during the year of assessment in which such assessment is made will continue in force for the year of assessment for which such assessment is made; and
- (b) if such person so assessed is an individual, the personal circumstances of that person will be the same in the year of assessment as they were when such assessment is in fact made.

(5) If it appears to the Comptroller that by reason of such assumption an advance assessment so made has become less favourable to that person than it would have been if made under section 35(1), he shall amend such assessment as to him seems reasonable.

(6) Nothing in this section shall affect the Comptroller's right to make any additional assessment due to any change of circumstances and without prejudice to the generality of section 74.

Additional assessments

74.—(1) Where it appears to the Comptroller that any person liable to tax has not been assessed or has been assessed at a less amount than that which ought to have been charged, the Comptroller may, within the year of assessment or within 6 years (if the year of assessment is 2007 or a preceding year of assessment) or 4 years (if the year of assessment is 2008 or a subsequent year of assessment) after the expiration thereof, assess that person at such amount or additional amount as according to his judgment ought to have been charged.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where, in the opinion of the Comptroller, any form of fraud or wilful default has been committed by or on behalf of any person in connection with or in relation to tax, the Comptroller may, for the purpose of making good any loss of tax attributable to fraud or wilful default, assess that person at any time.

(3) The provisions of this Act as to notice of assessment, appeal and other proceedings under this Act shall apply to any assessment or additional assessment made under subsection (1) or (2) and to tax charged thereunder.

(4) This section shall also apply, with the necessary modifications, to any assessment made under subsection (1) or (2) which results in any unabsorbed allowances or losses.

[32/99]

Revised assessments as relief for late GST registration

74A. Where —

- (a) any person liable to tax, being required to be registered under the Goods and Services Tax Act (Cap. 117A), has failed to do so, and has been so registered on or after 1st December 2005; and

(b) his income chargeable to tax for any year of assessment relating to a basis period for which he ought to have been so registered includes an amount in respect of output tax paid or payable under the Goods and Services Tax Act, the Comptroller shall according to the best of his judgment give, by way of revision of any assessment made on the person for that year of assessment, relief in respect of the amount so paid or payable.

[34/2005]

Waiver of small assessments

75. Where it appears to the Comptroller that the amount of any tax or additional tax to which any person is liable does not exceed $15 or such other amount as the Minister may by order prescribe, the Comptroller may waive the assessment of such tax.

[2/92]

Service of notices of assessment and revision of assessment

76.—(1) The Comptroller shall cause each person assessed to tax to be served, in accordance with section 8(1), with —

(a) where tax is payable, a notice stating the amount of his chargeable income together with the amount of tax payable and the place at which such payment should be made; or

(b) where no tax is payable, a notice to that effect, and in either case the Comptroller shall inform the person assessed to tax of his rights under subsections (2) and (3) and (if applicable) his duty under subsection (8).

[32/99; 49/2004; 34/2008]

(2) If any person disputes the assessment, he may apply to the Comptroller, by notice of objection in writing, to review and to revise the assessment made upon him.

(2A) If the objection is made to any assessment, being one which —

(a) is made on or after 20th December 2011; and

(b) amends a previous assessment in any particular, then a person's right to object to the assessment is limited to a right to object against the amendment in respect of, or matters relating to, that particular.

[22/2011]

(2B) In subsection (2A), the reference to an assessment which amends a previous assessment in any particular includes one which amends the amount of unabsorbed losses, allowances or donations in that previous assessment that may be carried forward but the tax payable remains nil.

[22/2011]

(3) Such application must state precisely the grounds of the person's objections to the assessment and must be made within —

- (a) if the person is a company and the notice of assessment is served on the person on or after 1 January 2014, 2 months; or
- (b) in any other case, 30 days, from the date of the service of the notice of assessment.

[Act 34 of 2016 wef 01/01/2014]

(4) The Comptroller upon being satisfied that, owing to absence, sickness or other reasonable cause, the person disputing the assessment was prevented from making the application within the period referred to in subsection (3), shall extend the period as may be reasonable in the circumstances.

(5) On receipt of the notice of objection referred to in subsection (2), the Comptroller may —

- (a) require the person giving the notice of objection to furnish such particulars as the Comptroller may consider necessary with respect to the income of the person assessed and to produce all books or other documents in his custody or under his control relating to such income; and
- (b) summon any person who he thinks is able to give evidence respecting the assessment to attend before him and may examine that person on oath or otherwise.

(6) In the event of any person who has objected to an assessment made upon him —

- (a) agreeing with the Comptroller as to the amount at which he is liable to be assessed, the assessment shall be amended accordingly, and notice of the revised assessment shall be served upon that person; or
- (b) failing to agree with the Comptroller as to the amount at which he is liable to be assessed, the Comptroller shall give him notice of refusal to amend the assessment and may revise the assessment to such amount as the Comptroller may determine, according to the best of his judgment, and the Comptroller shall give him notice of the revised assessment and of the tax payable, or the amount of refund of tax (as a result of the operation of section 46) or unabsorbed allowances, losses or donations, together with notice of refusal to amend the revised assessment.

(7) Wherever requisite, any reference in this Act to an assessment or an additional assessment shall be construed as including a reference to an assessment or additional assessment as revised under subsection (6)(b).

(8) If any incorrect information appears in a notice of assessment for any year of assessment served on a person who is exempted from the liability to furnish a return under section 62(2), he shall, within 30 days from the date of service of the notice or such extended time as the Comptroller may allow, inform the Comptroller by notice in writing —

- (a) if the incorrect information relates to any understatement or omission of income, of the correct amount of income from every source for that year of assessment; or
- (b) if the incorrect information relates to any deduction or relief which is excessive or which is wrongly granted, of the correct amount of deduction or relief for that year of assessment or the fact that the deduction or relief is wrongly granted, as the case may be.

Errors and defects in assessment and notice

77.—(1) No assessment, warrant or other proceeding purporting to be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be quashed, or deemed to be void or voidable, for want of form, or be affected by reason of a mistake, defect or omission therein, if it is in substance and effect in conformity with or according to the intent and meaning of this Act, and if the person assessed or intended to be assessed or affected thereby is designated therein according to common intent and understanding.

(2) An assessment shall not be impeached or affected —

(a) by reason of a mistake therein as to —

- (i) the name or surname of a person liable;
- (ii) the description of any income; or
- (iii) the amount of tax charged; and

(b) by reason of any variance between the assessment and the notice thereof.

(3) In cases of assessment, the notice thereof shall be duly served on the person intended to be charged and such notice shall contain in substance and effect the particulars on which the assessment is made.

[53/2007; 22/2011]

(2) A notice of appeal shall contain —

- (a) an address for service;
- (b) a list of the names of any members of the Board to whom the appellant objects; and
- (c) the reasons for such objection.

[49/2004]

(3) An appellant shall not be entitled to object to the Chairman or any Deputy Chairman of the Board and to more than one-third of the total number of members of the Board.

[49/2004]

(4) On receipt of a notice of appeal, the secretary shall immediately forward one copy thereof to the Comptroller who may, within 3 days of the receipt of such copy, lodge with the secretary a list of any members of the Board to whom he objects and the reasons for such objection.

[7/79; 49/2004; 53/2007]

(5) The Comptroller shall not be entitled to object to the Chairman or any Deputy Chairman of the Board and the number of members of the Board objected to by the Comptroller shall not, when added to the number objected to by the appellant, exceed one-half of the total number of members of the Board.

[49/2004]

(6) The Chairman of the Board, or such Deputy Chairman of the Board as the Chairman may authorise, shall determine whether the reason for any objection to any member under subsection (2) or (4) is valid.

[49/2004]

(7) Where the Chairman of the Board or a Deputy Chairman of the Board determines under subsection (6) that the reason for any objection is valid, the member of the Board in respect of whom the objection was made shall not attend the hearing of the appeal of the appellant.

[49/2004]

(8) Where the Chairman of the Board or a Deputy Chairman of the Board determines under subsection (6) that the reason for any objection is not valid, the Chairman or Deputy Chairman shall reject that objection and inform the appellant or the Comptroller accordingly.

[49/2004]

(9) Where an objection has been rejected by the Chairman of the Board or a Deputy Chairman of the Board under subsection (8), the member of the Board in respect of whom that objection was made may attend the hearing of the appeal of the appellant.

[49/2004]

(10) The decision of the Chairman of the Board or a Deputy Chairman of the Board under subsection (6) shall be final.

[49/2004]

(11) The Chairman of the Board may, in his discretion and on such terms as he thinks fit, permit any person to proceed with an appeal notwithstanding that the notice of appeal or petition of appeal was not lodged within the time limited therefor by this section, if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Chairman that the person was prevented from lodging the notice or petition in due time owing to absence, sickness or other reasonable cause and that there has been no unreasonable delay on his part.

[49/2004]

(12) Except with the consent of the Board and on such terms as the Board may determine, an appellant may not at the hearing of his appeal rely on any grounds of appeal other than the grounds stated in his petition of appeal.

Hearing and disposal of appeals

80.—(1) On receipt of a petition of appeal, the secretary shall immediately forward one copy thereof to the Comptroller and shall, as soon as may be thereafter, fix a time and place for the hearing of the appeal and shall give 14 days' notice thereof both to the appellant and to the Comptroller.

[53/2007]

(2) The appellant and the Comptroller shall attend, either in person or by an advocate and solicitor or accountant, at such times and places as may be fixed for the hearing of the appeal.

(3) If it is proved to the satisfaction of the Board that, owing to absence, sickness or other reasonable cause, any person is prevented from so attending, the Board may postpone the hearing of the appeal for such reasonable time as it thinks necessary.

(4) The onus of proving that the assessment is excessive or that the amount of any unabsorbed losses, allowances or donations that may be carried forward ought to be of a higher amount than that assessed (as the case may be), shall be on the appellant.

(5) The Board shall have the following powers:

- (a) to summon to attend at the hearing of an appeal any person whom it may consider able to give evidence respecting the appeal, to examine such person as a witness either on oath or otherwise and to require such person to produce such books, papers or documents as the Board may think necessary for the purposes of the appeal;
- (b) to allow any person so attending any reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by him in so attending; such expenses shall form part of the costs of the appeal and, pending and subject to any order by the Board as to such costs, shall be paid by the appellant or the Comptroller, as the Board may direct;
- (c) all the powers of a District Court with regard to the enforcement of attendance of witnesses, hearing evidence on oath and punishment for contempt;
- (d) subject to section 79(12), to admit or reject any evidence adduced, whether oral or documentary and whether admissible or inadmissible under the provisions of any written law for the time being in force relating to the admissibility of evidence.

(6) Every person examined as a witness by or before the Board, whether on oath or otherwise, shall be legally bound to state the truth and to produce such books, papers or documents as the Board may require.

(7) The costs of an appeal shall be in the discretion of the Board and shall either be fixed by the Board or, on the order of the Board, taxed by the Registrar or an Assistant Registrar of the Supreme Court in accordance with the scale prescribed by regulations made under section 78(16).

(8) Where the Comptroller is awarded costs of an appeal, he shall be entitled to his full costs of the appeal, including a fee for any counsel appearing on his behalf in the appeal, and the amount of such costs shall be added to the tax charged (if any) and be recoverable as if it were tax imposed under this Act and payable by the appellant.

(9) Notwithstanding anything in section 85, the Board may, on the application of the Comptroller made at any time after notice of appeal has been given, require the appellant to furnish security, in such sum and within such time as may be specified, for payment of tax, and if security is not furnished in the sum and within the time specified, the tax assessed by the Comptroller shall become payable and recoverable immediately.

(10) The Board may, after hearing an appeal, confirm, reduce, increase or annul the assessment (including the amount of any unabsorbed losses, allowances or donations that may be carried forward) or make such order thereon as it thinks fit.

(11) Where, under subsection (10), the Board does not reduce or annul the assessment, the Board may, if in its opinion the appeal was vexatious or frivolous, order the appellant to pay, as costs of the Board and in addition to any costs awarded to the Comptroller, a sum not exceeding $250, which sum shall be added to the tax charged (if any) and be recoverable as if it were tax imposed under this Act and payable by him.

[22/2011]

(12) Every member of the Board, when and so long as he is acting as such, shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Penal Code (Cap. 224) and shall enjoy the same judicial immunity as is enjoyed by a District Judge.

(13) All proceedings in appeals to the Board under this Act shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings within the meaning of the Penal Code.

(14) Notice of the amount of tax payable under the assessment as determined by the Board shall be served by the Comptroller either personally or by registered post upon the appellant.

Appeals to High Court

81.—(1) Except as provided in this section, the decision of the Board shall be final.

(2) In any case in which the amount of tax payable, tax to be refunded as a result of the operation of section 46 or notional tax benefit, as determined by the Board (excluding the amount of any costs awarded) exceeds $200, the appellant or the Comptroller may appeal to the High Court from the decision of the Board upon any question of law or of mixed law and fact.

[22/2011]

(3) The procedure governing and the costs of any such appeal to the High Court shall be as provided for in the Rules of Court.

[2/2012]

(4) The High Court shall hear and determine any such appeal and may confirm, reduce, increase or annul the assessment (including the amount of any unabsorbed losses, allowances or donations that may be carried forward) determined by the Board and make such further or other order on such appeal, whether as to costs or otherwise, as the Court may think fit.

[22/2011]

(5) There shall be such further right of appeal from decisions of the High Court under this section as exists in the case of decisions made by that Court in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction.

(6) [Deleted by Act 2 of 2012]

(7) In this section, “notional tax benefit”, in relation to a year of assessment, means an amount ascertained in accordance with the formula

$$[(A_1 - B_1) \times C] + [(A_2 - B_2) \times C] + [(A_3 - B_3) \times C],$$

where A_1 is the amount of unabsorbed losses as at the end of the basis period for the year of assessment claimed by a person;

- A₂ is the amount of unabsorbed allowances under section 16, 17, 18B, 18C, 19, 19A, 19B, 19C, 19D or 20 claimed by the person for the year of assessment;

- B₃ is the amount of unabsorbed donations as at the end of the basis period for the year of assessment as determined by the Comptroller; and
- C is —

[22/2011]

(2) A stated case shall set forth the facts and any finding of fact by the Board, the decision, if any, of the Board, and the question for the opinion of the High Court, and shall be signed by the officiating chairman or, in his absence, by any other member attending the sitting at which the appeal was heard.

(3) The secretary shall transmit the case, when stated and signed as aforesaid, to the High Court, and shall forward a copy thereof to the appellant and to the Comptroller.

[53/2007]

(4) The High Court may cause a stated case to be sent back for amendment and thereupon the case shall be amended accordingly.

(5) In considering any stated case, the High Court shall afford opportunity for argument thereon to be put forward by or on behalf of the appellant and the Comptroller.

(6) The High Court shall hear and determine any question of law arising on a stated case and may in accordance with its decision thereon confirm, reduce, increase or annul any assessment (including the amount of any unabsorbed losses, allowances or donations that may be carried forward) determined by the Board in the appeal, or may remit the case to the Board with the opinion of the Court thereon.

[22/2011]

(7) Where a case is so remitted by the High Court, the Board shall be bound by the opinion of the Court and shall give effect thereto by its decision in the appeal or, as the case may be, by revising any previous decision made by it in the appeal to the extent, if any, to which that previous decision does not accord with the opinion of the Court.

Proceedings before Board and High Court

83.—(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), all proceedings before the Board and in appeals to, or in cases stated for the opinion of, the High Court under the provisions of this Part, and in appeals from decisions of the High Court under section 81(5) shall be heard in camera.

[5/77]

(2) Where the Comptroller or the taxpayer applies to the Board or the High Court, as the case may be, that the proceedings be heard by way of a hearing open to the public, the Board or the Court may direct that the proceedings be so heard, notwithstanding any objection from the other party to the proceedings.

(3) Where in the opinion of the Board or the High Court any proceedings heard in camera ought to be reported, the Board or the Court may publish or authorise the publication of the facts of the case, the arguments and the decision relating to these proceedings without disclosing the name of the taxpayer concerned.

Assessments to be final and conclusive

84.—(1) Except as expressly provided in this Act, where no valid notice of appeal has been lodged within the time limited by this Part against an assessment, or where an assessment has been determined on appeal, the assessment as made or agreed to under section 76(6), or determined on appeal, as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent the Comptroller from making any assessment or additional assessment under section 74 which does not involve reopening any matter which has been determined on appeal.

PART XIX

COLLECTION, RECOVERY AND REPAYMENT OF TAX

Time within which payment is to be made

85.—(1) Subject to section 91, tax for any year of assessment levied in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall, notwithstanding any objection or appeal against the assessment on which the tax is levied, be payable at the place stated in the notice given under section 76 within one month after the service of the notice.

[1/88]

(2) The Comptroller may, in his discretion and subject to such terms and conditions, including the imposition of interest, as he may impose, extend the time limit within which payment is to be made.

[24/2000]

Recovery of tax from persons leaving Singapore

86.—(1) Where the Comptroller is of the opinion that any person is about or likely to leave Singapore without paying all tax assessed upon him, the Comptroller may issue a certificate containing particulars of such tax and a direction to the Commissioner of Police or the Controller of Immigration, or both, that such person be prevented from leaving Singapore without paying the tax or furnishing security to the satisfaction of the Comptroller for payment thereof.

(2) Subject to the provisions of any order issued or made under any law for the time being in force relating to banishment or immigration, the Commissioner of Police or the Controller of Immigration, or both, as the case may be, shall thereupon take, or cause to be taken by any police officer or immigration officer, such measures as may be necessary to prevent the person named in the direction from leaving Singapore until payment of the tax has been made or secured as aforesaid, including the use of such force as may be necessary and, if appropriate, the detention of any passport, certificate of identity or travel document and any exit permit or other document authorising such person to leave Singapore.

(3) At the time of issue of the certificate, the Comptroller shall issue to such person a notification thereof by personal service or registered post; but the non-receipt thereof shall not invalidate any proceedings under this section.

(4) Payment of the tax to an officer in charge of a police station or to an immigration officer or production of a certificate signed by the Comptroller, a Deputy Comptroller or an Assistant Comptroller stating that the tax has been paid or secured as aforesaid shall be sufficient authority for allowing such person to leave Singapore.

(5) Any person who, knowing that a direction has been issued under this section for the prevention of his departure from Singapore, voluntarily leaves or attempts to leave Singapore without paying all tax assessed upon him or furnishing security to the satisfaction of the Comptroller for payment thereof shall be guilty of an offence and may be arrested, without warrant, by any police officer or immigration officer.

(6) No civil or criminal proceedings shall be instituted or maintained against the Government, the Commissioner of Police, the Controller of Immigration or any other police officer or immigration officer, in respect of anything lawfully done under the authority of this section.

(7) In this section, “tax” includes any interest imposed under section 85(2).

[24/2000]

Penalty for non-payment of tax and enforcement of payment

87.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), if any tax is not paid within the periods prescribed in section 85 —

- (a) a sum equal to 5% of the amount of tax payable shall be added thereto, and the provisions of this Act relating to the collection and recovery of tax shall apply to the collection and recovery of such sum;
- (b) the Comptroller shall serve a demand note upon the person assessed and if payment is not made within one month from the date of the service of such demand note, the Comptroller may proceed to enforce payment as hereinafter provided;
- (c) notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b), if the amount of tax outstanding is not paid within 60 days of the imposition of the penalty as provided by paragraph (a), an additional penalty of 1% of the tax outstanding shall be payable for each completed month that the tax remains unpaid, but the total additional penalty shall not exceed 12% of the amount of tax outstanding, and the provisions of this Act relating to the collection and recovery of tax shall apply to the collection and recovery of such additional penalty; and
- (d) penalties imposed under paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) shall not be deemed to be part of the tax paid for the purpose of claiming relief under any of the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Comptroller may for any good cause shown remit the whole or any part of the penalty due under subsection (1).

- (a) he shall be deemed to have informed the Comptroller of the change of his residential address in compliance with subsection (1); and
- (b) the new residential address as reported by him under section 8 of the National Registration Act shall, unless he informs the Comptroller in writing to the contrary, be deemed to be his last known address for the purpose of subsection (3).

(3) Any notice or process given or served upon any person by posting the same or a copy thereof by registered post to him at his last known address shall, notwithstanding section 8(3), be deemed to have been duly given or served and shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of service.

Suit for tax by Comptroller

89.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, tax, interest and any penalty imposed under this Act and any sum due to the Government under section 45, may be sued for by way of a specially endorsed writ of summons.

[24/2000; 37/2002; 19/2013]

(2) The Comptroller may, in his own name, sue for any such tax, interest, penalty or other sum due and shall be entitled to all costs allowed by law against the person liable thereto.

[24/2000]

(3) The Comptroller may appear personally or by counsel in any suit instituted under this section.

(4) In any suit under this section, the production of a certificate signed by the Comptroller giving the name and address of the defendant and the amount of tax, interest or penalty due by him shall be sufficient evidence of the amount so due and sufficient authority for the court to give judgment for that amount.

[2/92; 24/2000]

(5) In addition to any other powers of collection and recovery provided in this Act, the Comptroller may, with the approval of the Minister and, where the tax charged on the income of any person who carries on the business of shipowner or charterer or of air transport has been in default for more than 3 months, whether the person is assessed directly or in the name of some other person, issue to the Director-General of Customs, or other authority by whom clearance may be granted, a certificate containing the name or names of the person and particulars of the tax in default.

[4/2003]

(6) On receipt of such a certificate, the Director-General of Customs or other authority is hereby empowered and required to refuse clearance from any port, aerodrome or airport in Singapore to any ship or aircraft owned wholly or partly or chartered by that person until the tax has been paid.

[4/2003]

(7) No civil or criminal proceedings shall be instituted or maintained against the Government, the Director-General of Customs or other authority in respect of a refusal of clearance under this section, nor shall the fact that a ship or an aircraft is detained under this section affect the liability of the owner, charterer, or agent to pay harbour or other dues and charges for the period of detention.

[4/2003]

Statement of Comptroller sufficient

90.—(1) In any civil or criminal proceedings under this Act, every statement purporting to be under the hand of the Comptroller contained in the information, complaint, declaration or claim shall be prima facie evidence of the matter stated therein.

(2) Subject to any rules made under section 7, deductions authorised by this section shall be made at such times and in such amounts as the Comptroller shall direct whether or not the tax has been assessed; except that if on the assessment becoming final and conclusive it appears that the deductions made exceed the tax payable, the tax overpaid by means of the previous deductions shall be repaid.

(3) Where any deduction has been made from the income so chargeable of any individual, he shall have the same right of objection or appeal against the deduction as he has against an assessment made upon him.

(4) Any amount deducted pursuant to any direction given by the Comptroller under this section shall be paid by the employer to the Comptroller within 10 days after the date of the deduction, and if any such amount is not paid —

- (a) within that period of 10 days, a penalty equal to 5% of that amount shall be payable by the employer to the Comptroller;
- (b) within one month after the date of the deduction, an additional penalty equal to 1% of that amount shall be payable by the employer to the Comptroller for each completed month that the amount remains unpaid, but the total additional penalty shall not exceed 12% of the amount outstanding.

[5/77]

(5) The Comptroller may for any good cause shown remit the whole or any part of the penalty due under subsection (4).

[5/77]

(6) If and so far as any such income is paid without deduction of tax as aforesaid, the tax may be collected and payment thereof enforced in accordance with sections 85, 86 and 87.

(7) For the purpose of section 85, the Comptroller shall determine the period within which the tax shall be payable.

(8) An employer who fails to comply with section 68(7) shall be liable to pay the full amount of the tax which by reason of such failure cannot be recovered from such employee.

(9) The Comptroller shall apply any amount recovered by or paid to him in or towards payment of the tax payable by the employee.

(11) Any partner who fails to comply with section 68(11) shall be liable to pay the amount of the tax which by reason of such failure cannot be recovered from the person who has ceased to be a partner.

(12) The liability of a remaining partner under subsection (11) shall not exceed the amount paid by that partner in contravention of section 68(11).

(13) Nothing in subsection (11) shall preclude a partner who pays any amount of tax under that subsection from recovering such amount from the person who has ceased to be a partner.

Remission, reduction or refund of tax

92.—(1) The Comptroller may remit, wholly or in part, the tax payable by any person on the ground of poverty.

[29/2010]

(2) The Minister may at any time, in his discretion and subject to such conditions as he may impose, remit, reduce or refund, wholly or in part, the tax that is or will be payable or that is paid by any person.

[29/2010]

(2A) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, remit, reduce or refund, wholly or in part, the tax that is or will be payable or that is paid by any class of persons, subject to such conditions as he may specify in the order.

[29/2010]

(2B) Where the Minister is satisfied that a person to whom a remission, reduction or refund of tax is granted fails to comply with any condition imposed under subsection (2) or (2A) (whether a condition precedent or condition subsequent), an amount equal to the amount of tax so remitted, reduced or refunded shall be recoverable as a debt due to the Government.

[29/2010]

(2C) The amount recoverable under subsection (2B) shall be payable at the place stated in a notice served by the Comptroller on the person within one month after the service of the notice.

[29/2010]

(2D) The Comptroller may, in his discretion and subject to such terms and conditions (including the imposition of interest) as he may impose, extend the time limit within which payment is to be made.

[29/2010]

(2E) Sections 86(1) to (6), 87(1) and (2), 89, 90 and 91 shall apply to the collection and recovery by the Comptroller of the amount recoverable under subsection (2B) and any interest imposed under subsection (2D) as they apply to the collection and recovery of tax.

[29/2010]

(3) [Deleted by Act 19 of 2013]

(4) The Minister may make rules for the purpose of giving effect to this section.

- (b) $10,000,

where the Comptroller is satisfied that the remission of tax would be beneficial to the company.

[22/2011]

(2) No remission under subsection (1) shall be granted to a company where the company qualifies for the cash grant under section 92B.

[22/2011]

Cash grant for companies for year of assessment 2011

- (c) the company makes a written election for a cash grant under this section in lieu of the remission under section 92A, and the Comptroller is satisfied that the cash grant would be more beneficial to the company than the remission, then there shall, in lieu of the remission of tax under section 92A, be made to the company for the year of assessment 2011 a cash grant of the specified amount.

[22/2011]

(2) The election under subsection (1)(c) shall be made to the Comptroller at the time the company furnishes a return of its income for the year of assessment 2011 or within such further time as the Comptroller may allow.

[22/2011]

(3) The cash grant under subsection (1) shall be exempt from tax in the hands of the company.

- (c) under the Property Tax Act (Cap. 254) to the Comptroller of Property Tax; or
- (d) under the Stamp Duties Act (Cap. 312) to the Commissioner of Stamp Duties, then the amount of cash grant made by the Comptroller to the company shall be reduced by the amount so due; and the amount of the reduction shall be deemed to be tax, duty, interest or penalty paid by the company under the relevant Act and shall (if it is due under an Act other than this Act) be paid by the Comptroller to the Comptroller of Goods and Services Tax, the Comptroller of Property Tax or the Commissioner of Stamp Duties, as the case may be.

(b) $5,000,

whichever is the lower.

[29/2012]

(2) No cash grant under subsection (1) shall be made if the company has ceased to carry on business in Singapore.

[29/2012]

(3) The Minister may, in his discretion, waive the requirement under subsection (1) in respect of the contribution to the Central Provident Fund by the company if he is satisfied that it is just and equitable to do so.

[29/2012]

(4) The cash grant under subsection (1) shall be exempt from tax in the hands of the company.

[29/2012]

(8) Where a refund is withheld under subsection (7), the Comptroller shall pay interest at the rate of 5% per annum with effect from the date of the order or decision appealed against on the amount of refund ultimately determined to be due as a result of any appeal.

(2) On receiving the application, the Comptroller shall inquire into the matter and shall, subject to this section, give, by way of repayment of tax or an amendment to the assessment, such relief in respect of the error or mistake as appears to him to be reasonable and just.

[19/2013]

(3) No relief by way of repayment of tax shall be given under this section in respect of an error or a mistake as to the basis on which the liability of the applicant ought to have been computed when the return or statement was in fact made on the basis of or in accordance with the practice of the Comptroller generally prevailing at the time when the return or statement was made.

[19/2013]

(3A) No amendment shall be made to the assessment under this section when the return or statement was in fact made on the basis of or in accordance with the practice of the Comptroller generally prevailing at the time when the return or statement was made.

[19/2013]

(4) In determining any application under this section, the Comptroller shall have regard to all the relevant circumstances of the case, and in particular shall consider whether the granting of relief would result in the exclusion from charge to tax of income of the applicant, and for this purpose the Comptroller may take into consideration the liability of the applicant and assessments made upon him in respect of other years.

(5) Section 79 shall apply in respect of an appeal against a determination of the Comptroller under this section except that no such appeal shall be entertained until the sum of $250 has been deposited with the secretary to the Board of Review.

(6) The sum referred to in subsection (5) shall be refunded in the event of the appeal being allowed.

(2) The Comptroller may make a ruling on how any provision of this Act applies to the arrangement described in an application whether or not reference was made to that provision in the application.

(3) The Comptroller shall not make a ruling on a provision of this Act that authorises or requires the Comptroller to —

- (a) impose or remit a penalty;
- (b) inquire into the correctness of any return or other information supplied by any person;
- (c) prosecute any person; or
- (d) recover any debt owing by any person.

(4) An application for a ruling —

- (a) shall be made in such form as the Comptroller may determine; and

(b) shall comply with the disclosure requirements of paragraph 9.

(5) An applicant for a ruling may at any time withdraw the application by notice in writing to the Comptroller.

2. The Comptroller may decline to make a ruling if —

- (a) the application for the ruling would require the Comptroller to determine any question of fact;
- (b) the Comptroller considers that the correctness of the ruling would depend on the making of assumptions, whether in respect of a future event or any other matter;
- (c) the matter on which the ruling is sought is subject to an objection or appeal, whether in relation to the applicant or any other person;
- (d) the applicant has outstanding debts relating to earlier ruling applications; or
- (e) the matter on which the ruling is sought is the subject of a return which has been or is due to be lodged under this Act.

3. The Comptroller shall not make a ruling if —

- (a) at the time the application is made or at any time before the ruling is issued, the Comptroller considers that the person to whom the ruling is to apply is not seriously contemplating the arrangement for which the ruling is sought;

 - (iii) is being dealt with, or in the Comptroller's opinion should be dealt with, by one or both competent authorities of the parties to an agreement to avoid double taxation;
- (d) a ruling already exists on how the relevant provision of this Act applies to the person and the arrangement, and the proposed ruling would apply to a period or a year of assessment to which the existing ruling applies;
- (e) an assessment (other than an assessment of any estimated tax) relating to the person, the arrangement, and a year of assessment to which the proposed ruling would apply has been made, unless the application is received by the Comptroller before the date the assessment is made;

- (f) the Comptroller is undertaking an audit or investigation on how any provision of this Act applies to the applicant, or to an arrangement similar to the arrangement which is the subject of the application, during any period for which the proposed ruling would apply were the ruling to be made;
- (g) in the Comptroller's opinion, the applicant has not provided sufficient information in relation to the application after the Comptroller has requested further information;
- (h) in the Comptroller's opinion, it would be unreasonable to make a ruling in view of the resources available to the Comptroller; or
- (i) the application for the ruling would require the Comptroller to form an opinion as to a generally accepted accounting principle or to form an opinion as to a commercially acceptable practice.

4. The Comptroller shall, where he has declined to make a ruling under paragraph 2 or has not made a ruling by virtue of paragraph 3, notify the applicant in writing of his decision and the reasons therefor.

5. Where the Comptroller has made a ruling to a person on the application of any provision of this Act in relation to an arrangement, and —

- (a) the ruling applies in relation to the arrangement during the whole or any part of the period specified in the ruling; and
- (b) the person has under paragraph 17 disclosed in the return provided under this Act that he has relied on the ruling in preparing and providing the return, the Comptroller shall apply the provision in relation to the person and the arrangement in respect of the whole of the period or the part of the period, as the case may be, in accordance with the ruling.

6. A ruling shall apply in relation to an arrangement as a ruling on a provision of this Act —

7. A ruling shall not apply to a person in relation to an arrangement if —

- (a) the arrangement is materially different from the arrangement identified in the ruling;

- (b) there was a material omission or misrepresentation in, or in connection with, the application for the ruling;
- (c) the Comptroller makes an assumption about a future event or another matter that is material to the ruling, and the assumption subsequently proves to be incorrect; or
- (d) the Comptroller stipulates a condition that is not satisfied.
