[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

PART II

ESTABLISHMENT AND INCORPORATION
OF CORPORATIONEstablishment of Jurong Town Corporation

3.—(1) There shall be established a body to be called the Jurong Town Corporation.

(2) The Corporation shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal with power, subject to the provisions of this Act, to acquire, hold or dispose of property, both movable and immovable, to enter into contracts, to sue and be sued in its corporate name and to perform such other acts as bodies corporate may by law perform.

Chairman of Corporation

4. The Minister, with the President's concurrence under Article 22A(1)(b) of the Constitution, shall appoint a Chairman of the Corporation who shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, hold office for such period and on such terms as the Minister may determine.

Constitution of Corporation

5.—(1) The Corporation shall consist of —

- (a) a Chairman; and
- (b) not fewer than 4 and not more than 14 other members to be appointed by the Minister with the President's concurrence under Article 22A(1)(b) of the Constitution.

[23/95]

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

(1A) The Minister may, with the President's concurrence, appoint one of the members of the Corporation as Deputy Chairman.

[23/95]

(2) The quorum at all meetings of the Corporation shall be 4 or one-third of the total number of members in office, whichever is the higher.

[29/74; 11/78]

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

(3) The Chairman or any officer authorised by him to act on his behalf may call a meeting of the Corporation at least once in every 2 months or as often as he thinks fit.

[23/95]

(4) The members of the Corporation, other than the Chairman, shall, unless their appointment is revoked by the Minister under subsection (9) or unless they resign during their period of office, hold office for a period of 3 years or for such shorter period as the Minister may in any case determine.

(5) If for any reason the Chairman is absent or unable to act or the office of Chairman is vacant, the Deputy Chairman or, in the absence of both the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman, any member of the Corporation duly appointed by the members present at any meeting of the Corporation may exercise all or any of the powers conferred, or perform all or any of the duties imposed, on the Chairman under this Act.

(6) The Chairman or the person lawfully acting as Chairman at any meeting of the Corporation shall have an original as well as a casting vote.

(7) A member of the Corporation shall not, at any meeting of the Corporation, participate in any discussion relating to, and shall not vote in respect of, any business in which he is interested, and if he does so his vote shall not be counted nor shall he be counted in the quorum present at such meeting.

(8) The members of the Corporation shall be paid out of the funds of the Corporation such salaries, fees or allowances as the President may determine.

(9) The Minister with the President's concurrence under Article 22A(1)(b) of the Constitution may at any time revoke the appointment of the Chairman, the Deputy Chairman or any other member of the Corporation.

[11/91]

Direction by Minister

6.—(1) The Minister may give to the Corporation such directions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as he considers fit, as to the exercise and performance by the Corporation of its powers, duties and functions under this Act and the Corporation shall give effect to all such directions.

(2) The Corporation shall furnish the Minister with such information with respect to its property and activities as he may from time to time require.

Appointment of chief executive officer and other employees

7.—(1) After consulting the Public Service Commission, the Corporation may, with the approval of the Minister and the President's concurrence under Article 22A(1)(b) of the Constitution, appoint a chief executive officer on such terms and conditions as it may determine.

[27/86; 23/95]

(2) The chief executive officer shall —

- (a) be known by such designation as the Corporation may determine;
- (b) be responsible to the Corporation for the proper administration and management of the functions and affairs of the Corporation in accordance with the policy laid down by the Corporation; and
- (c) not be removed from office without the consent of the Minister and the President's concurrence under Article 22A(1)(b) of the Constitution.

[11/91]

(3) If the chief executive officer is temporarily absent from Singapore, or is temporarily unable to perform his duties by reason of illness or otherwise, another person may be appointed by the Corporation to act in the place of the chief executive officer during any such period of absence from duty.

(4) The Corporation may from time to time appoint and employ such other employees and agents as it thinks fit for the effective performance of its functions on such terms and conditions as the Corporation may determine.

Appointment of committees and delegation of powers

8.—(1) The Corporation may, in its discretion, appoint from among its own members or other persons who are not members of the Corporation such number of committees as it thinks fit consisting of members or other persons or members and other persons for purposes which, in the opinion of the Corporation, would be better regulated and managed by means of those committees.

(2) The Corporation may, subject to such conditions or restrictions as it thinks fit, delegate to any such committee or the Chairman all or any of the powers, functions and duties by this Act vested in the Corporation, except the power to borrow money or to raise loans by the issue of bonds and debentures; and any power, function or duty so delegated may be exercised or performed by that committee or the Chairman in the name and on behalf of the Corporation.

(3) The Corporation may, subject to such conditions or restrictions as it thinks fit, delegate to any employee thereof all or any of the powers, functions and duties by this Act vested in the Corporation, except the power to borrow money or to raise loans; and any power, function or duty so delegated may be exercised or performed by the employee in the name and on behalf of the Corporation.

[11/78]

(4) The Corporation may continue to exercise any power conferred upon it, or perform any function or duty under this Act, notwithstanding the delegation of such power, function or duty under this section.

Protection from personal liability

9.—(1) No matter or thing done and no contract of any kind entered into by the Corporation and no matter or thing done by any member of the Corporation or by any employee thereof or any other person whomsoever acting under the direction of the Corporation shall, if the matter or thing was done or the contract was entered into bona fide for the purpose of executing the provisions of this Act, subject any such member or employee or any person acting under the direction of the Corporation personally to any action, liability, claim or demand whatsoever in respect thereof.

(2) Any expense incurred by the Corporation or any member, employee or other person so acting under the direction of the Corporation shall be borne by and repaid out of the funds of the Corporation.

Members and officers of Corporation deemed to be public servants

10. The members of the Corporation and the employees thereof, of every description, shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code (Cap. 224).

PART III

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CORPORATION

Provision of working capital

11. For the purpose of enabling the Corporation to carry out its objects and to defray expenditure properly chargeable to capital account, including defraying initial expenses, and for the provision of working capital, the Minister may authorise payment to the Corporation of such sums as he may determine.

Functions and powers of Corporation

12.—(1) The functions of the Corporation are —

- (a) to develop and manage sites, parks, estates, townships and other premises for industries and businesses in Singapore or elsewhere;
- (b) to provide facilities to enhance the operations of industries and businesses including social amenities for the advancement and the well-being of persons living and working in such sites, parks, estates and townships or otherwise;

[23/95]

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

- (d) to collect, compile and analyse information of a statistical nature relating to industrial property in Singapore, and to publish and disseminate the results of any such compilation or analysis or abstracts of those results.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

(1A) In addition to the functions and duties imposed by this section, the Corporation may undertake such other functions and duties as the Minister may, by notification published in the Gazette, assign to the Corporation and in so doing, the Corporation shall be deemed to be fulfilling the purposes of this Act, and the provisions of this Act shall apply to the Corporation in respect of such functions and duties.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

(1B) Nothing in subsection (1) or (1A) shall be construed as imposing on the Corporation, directly or indirectly, any form of duty or liability enforceable by proceedings before any court to which it would not otherwise be subject.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

(2) The Corporation shall have power to do anything for the purpose of the discharge of its functions under this Act or which is incidental or conducive to the discharge of those functions and, in particular, may —

- (a) act in combination or association with other persons or organisations for the discharge of any of its functions;
- (b) promote the carrying on of any activities for the discharge of its functions by other persons or organisations;
- (c) purchase, acquire or lease any land and premises required for the purpose of the discharge of its functions under this Act;

- (d) sell or lease land and premises for the purpose of the discharge of its functions under this Act upon such terms as the Corporation may determine;
- (e) provide technical, managerial and other specialist services for industrial, business and other development and build up a corps of engineering, managerial and other specialist staff to provide such services;
- (f) prepare and execute proposals, plans and projects for the erection, conversion, improvement and extension of any building for sale, lease, rental or other purpose;
- (g) provide and maintain housing accommodation including convalescent or holiday houses for employees of the Corporation, provide and maintain for those employees clubs and playing fields and provide educational facilities for them;
- (ga) grant loans to employees or to act as guarantor for loans taken by them, to enable them to purchase their own houses, furniture, fittings, home appliances and vehicles;
- (gb) award scholarships or give loans to employees to obtain professional, technical or other training;
- (h) sell or lease flats, houses or other living accommodation and land for the housing of persons living and working in industrial and business sites, parks, estates and townships;
- (i) provide loans on mortgage at such interest as may be prescribed to enable persons, other than employees of the Corporation, to purchase any flat, house or building which is used or intended to be used solely for the purpose of human habitation;
- (j) with the written approval of the Minister, form or participate in the formation of a company or companies or enter into any joint venture or partnership in Singapore or elsewhere;

- (k) with the written approval of the Minister, grant loans to any company in which the Corporation or any of its subsidiary companies holds any shares;
- (l) with the written approval of the Minister and the President, guarantee the repayment of loans given to any company in which the Corporation or any of its subsidiary companies holds any shares; and
- (m) provide and maintain adequate and efficient port services and facilities in the Jurong Port.

[23/95]

Borrowing powers

13.—(1) The Corporation may, from time to time, for the purposes of this Act raise loans —

- (a) from the Government;
- (b) with the approval of the Minister and subject to the provisions of any written law, by any of the methods set out in section 14; or
- (c) from such other source as the Minister may direct.

(2) The Corporation shall pay interest on those loans at such rate and at such times, and shall make such provisions for the mode and time or times of repayment of principal as may be approved by the Minister.

(3) The Corporation may, from time to time, borrow by way of temporary loan or overdraft from a bank or otherwise any sum which it may temporarily require —

- (a) for the purpose of defraying expenses pending the receipt of revenues receivable by it in respect of the period of account in which those expenses are chargeable; or
- (b) for the purpose of defraying, pending the receipt of money due in respect of any loan authorised to be raised under subsection (1), expenses intended to be defrayed by any such loan.

(4) Bonds and debentures of the Corporation issued before the commencement of subsection (5) shall be guaranteed by the Government as to the repayment of principal and the payment of interest at such rate as may be approved by the Minister.

[18/94]

(5) Bonds and debentures of the Corporation issued on or after the commencement of this subsection shall be guaranteed by the Government as to the repayment of principal and the payment of interest at such rate as may be approved by the Minister if the President, acting in his discretion, concurs with the giving of such guarantee.

[18/94]

(6) For the purposes of subsection (1), the power to raise loans shall include the power to make any financial agreement whereby credit facilities are granted to the Corporation for the purchase of goods, materials or things.

Loan conditions

14.—(1) Where the Corporation is authorised to borrow money, the Corporation may, subject to the approval or direction of the Minister, raise money in any manner and, in particular, raise it by —

- (a) mortgage;
- (b) charge, whether legal or equitable, on any property vested in the Corporation or on any revenue receivable by the Corporation under this Act or any other written law; and
- (c) debentures, stocks, bonds or other instruments or securities issued by the Corporation.

[23/95]

(2) The Corporation may, with the approval or direction of the Minister, fix such rates of interest and such terms, conditions and periods to secure the repayment of the sums borrowed as it thinks fit.

[23/95]

Issue of shares, etc.

14A. As a consequence of the vesting of any property, rights or liabilities of the Government in the Corporation under this Act, or of any capital injection or other investment by the Government in the Corporation in accordance with any written law, the Corporation shall issue such shares or other securities to the Minister for Finance as that Minister may from time to time direct.

[5/2002 wef 15/07/2002]

Budget

15. The Corporation shall in every financial year cause to be prepared in a form to be approved by the Minister a budget to be forwarded to the Minister not later than 31st January containing estimates of income and expenditure of the Corporation for the ensuing year —

- (a) on capital account;
- (b) relating to the management and maintenance of industrial sites, housing and ancillary services; and
- (c) relating to the execution of its powers, functions and duties.

[7/71; 11/78; 23/95]

Approval of budget by Minister

16.—(1) The Minister may approve or disallow any item or portion of any item shown in the budget, and shall return the budget as amended by him to the Chairman.

(2) The Corporation shall present the budget which has been approved by the Minister to the President for his approval under Article 22B of the Constitution.

[11/91]

(3) The budget when approved by the President shall be published in the Gazette.

[17

Supplemental budgets

17.—(1) The Corporation may at any time cause to be prepared a supplemental budget to provide, subject to section 24(2)(d), for unforeseen or urgently required expenditure containing —

- (a) a revised estimate of the income for the current financial year;
- (b) a revised estimate of the expenditure for the current financial year; and
- (c) a statement showing how provision is therein made to meet additional expenditure.

[11/78]

(2) A supplemental budget shall be dealt with in the manner provided in section 16 for the annual budget.

Accounts

18.—(1) The accounts of the Corporation shall be kept by a chief financial officer appointed by and responsible to the Corporation.

[29/74]

(2) The chief financial officer shall prepare in respect of each financial year a statement of accounts in a form approved by the Minister.

[11/78]

(3) The chief financial officer shall keep proper accounts and records of the transactions and affairs of the Corporation and shall do all things necessary to ensure that all payments out of its moneys are correctly made and properly authorised and that adequate control is maintained over the assets of, or in the custody of, the Corporation and over the expenditure incurred by the Corporation.

[19]

Appointment and powers of Corporation's auditor

19.—(1) The accounts of the Corporation shall be audited by the Auditor-General or by an auditor appointed annually by the Minister in consultation with the Auditor-General.

[29/74]

(2) The Corporation's auditor shall be paid out of the funds of the Corporation such remuneration, expenses or fees as the Minister, after consultation with the Corporation, shall direct.

(3) The Corporation's auditor shall be entitled to full and free access to all accounting and other records relating, directly or indirectly, to the financial transactions of the Corporation and may make copies of or extracts from any such accounting or other records.

(4) The Corporation's auditor or a person authorised by him may require any person to furnish him with such information which that person possesses or has access to as the auditor or the duly authorised person considers necessary for the purposes of the functions of the auditor under this Act.

(5) An officer of the Corporation who refuses or fails without any reasonable cause to allow the Corporation's auditor or a person authorised by him access to any accounting and other records of the Corporation in his custody or power or to give any information possessed by him as and when required or who otherwise hinders, obstructs or delays the Corporation's auditor or any person authorised by him in the performance of his duties or the exercise of his powers shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $500 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $100 for every day or part thereof during which the offence continues after conviction.

Auditor's report

20.—(1) The chief financial officer of the Corporation shall prepare the financial statements in respect of each preceding financial year and submit them to the Corporation's auditor who shall audit and report on them to the Minister and the President.

[23/95]

(2) The Corporation's auditor shall state in his report of his audit whether —

- (a) the financial statements show fairly the financial transactions and the state of affairs of the Corporation;
- (b) proper accounting and other records have been kept; and
- (c) the receipt, expenditure and investment of moneys and the acquisition and disposal of assets by the Corporation during the year have been in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the Constitution.

[23/95]

(3) The Corporation's auditor shall report on any other matter arising from the audit as he considers necessary.

[21

Presentation of financial statements

21.—(1) A copy of the audited financial statements signed by the Chairman, the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer, and certified by the Corporation's auditor, together with a copy of any report made by the auditor, shall be submitted to the Minister not later than 8th September and to the President not later than 30th September in each year.

[29/74; 11/78; 23/95]

(2) Where the Auditor-General has not been appointed to be the auditor of the Corporation a copy of the audited financial statements and any report made by the auditor shall be forwarded to the Auditor-General at the same time as they are submitted to the Minister.

(3) The Minister shall present a copy of the audited financial statements and the report of the Corporation's auditor to Parliament.

(4) The audited financial statements and the auditor's report referred to in subsection (3) shall be published in the Gazette.

Annual report

22.—(1) The Corporation shall, not later than 8th September in each year, unless the Minister otherwise authorises in writing, furnish to the Minister a report of its functions during the preceding year.

[23/95]

(2) The Minister shall cause a copy of every such report to be presented to Parliament.

[22A

Bank account and accounting records

23.—(1) All moneys paid to the Corporation shall forthwith be paid into such banks as may from time to time be decided by the Corporation.

[7/71; 11/78]

(2) The accounting records of the Corporation shall distinguish between capital and revenue transactions.

[7/71]

(3) Moneys received by way of loans shall be shown separately in the books and accounts and in the balance-sheet of the Corporation.

Payments to be made in accordance with budget

24.—(1) No payment shall be made by the Corporation unless the expenditure is covered by an item in a budget and a sufficient balance for the item is available.

[7/71]

(2) Notwithstanding the absence of such provision, the Corporation may pay —

- (a) sums deposited by contractors or other persons whenever by the conditions of the deposit any such sum has become repayable;
- (b) sums collected and credited to the funds of the Corporation in error;
- (c) sums payable by the Corporation under any award of the Collector of Land Revenue or under any of the provisions of this Act or of any other written law relating to the acquisition of land for a public purpose or under any judgment or order of any court; and
- (d) any expenditure incurred to secure the proper execution of the functions and duties of the Corporation under this Act which, in the opinion of the Corporation, cannot be postponed.

(3) Provision shall be made in a supplemental budget for any payment made under subsection (2)(c) or (d).

Transfer of sums from one item to another

25. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this Act, the Corporation may transfer all or any part of moneys assigned to one item of expenditure to another item under the same head of expenditure in a budget approved by the Minister and the President.

[11/91]

Power of investment

26. The Corporation may invest its moneys in accordance with the standard investment power of statutory bodies as defined in section 33A of the Interpretation Act (Cap. 1).

Special provisions relating to sale of land by Corporation

31. For the purposes of registration of an assurance relating to the sale by the Corporation of any land, the mortgage of such land in favour of the Corporation or the reconveyance or discharge of such mortgage —

(a) in the case of land registered under the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Act (Cap. 269), section 11 of that Act shall not apply; and

(b) in the case of land registered under the provisions of the Land Titles Act (Cap. 157) where a solicitor is not employed by the Corporation, a certificate of an officer authorised in writing in that behalf by the Corporation shall be sufficient for the purposes of section 59 of that Act.

[31/80]

Regulations

32.—(1) The Minister may, after consultation with the Corporation, make such regulations as he may consider necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the business of the Corporation and, in particular, for any of the following matters:

- (a) the convening of meetings of the Corporation and the procedure to be followed thereat;
- (b) the provision of a common seal and the custody and use thereof;
- (c) the manner in which documents, cheques and instruments of any description shall be signed or executed on behalf of the Corporation;
- (d) the manner and terms of issue and redemption of bonds and debentures by the Corporation; and
- (e) generally for the exercise of the powers of the Corporation under the provisions of this Act.

(2) All regulations made under this Act shall be presented to Parliament as soon as possible after publication in the Gazette.

Obstruction of officer of Corporation

33. Any person who obstructs or refuses to give access to any officer of the Corporation or any person duly authorised by the Corporation in that behalf in the performance of any thing which the officer or person is by this Act required or empowered to do shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

[11/78]

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

Transfer to Corporation of assets and liabilities of Economic Development Board

34. As from 1st June 1968, such of the lands, buildings and other property, movable and immovable of the Economic Development Board constituted under the provisions of the Economic Development Board Act (Cap. 85), including all such assets, powers, rights, interests and privileges as well as such debts, liabilities and obligations in connection therewith or appertaining thereto as may be specified by the Minister by notification in the Gazette shall be deemed to have been transferred to and vested in the Corporation without further assurance.

Corporation's symbols

35.—(1) The Corporation shall have the exclusive right to the use of —

- (a) the symbols which are set out in the Schedule; and
- (b) such other symbol as it may devise or adopt from time to time and thereafter display or exhibit in connection with its activities or affairs.

[23/95]

(2) The Corporation shall publish the symbol referred to in subsection (1)(b) in the Gazette.

[23/95]

(3) Any person who uses a symbol identical with, or which so resembles, any of the Corporation's symbols as to or be likely to deceive or cause confusion, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[23/95]

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorise the Corporation to use any symbol which any person has acquired the exclusive right to use the same under the Trade Marks Act 1998 or otherwise.

Furnishing of information

35A.—(1) The Corporation or any employee thereof authorised by the Corporation in that behalf may, for the purpose of obtaining statistical information in relation to industrial property in Singapore, by notice require any person to furnish to the Corporation or the employee so authorised, within such period as shall be specified in the notice, all such particulars or information relating to all such matters as may be required by the Corporation and as are within knowledge of that person or in his custody or under his control.

(2) Subject to subsection (6), a notice issued under subsection (1) may be served in the following manner:

(a) in the case of an individual —

- (i) by delivering it to the individual personally;
- (ii) by leaving it with an adult person apparently resident at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the usual or last known address of the place of residence of the individual;
- (iii) by leaving it with an adult person apparently employed at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the usual or last known address of the place of business of the individual;
- (iv) by affixing a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place at the usual or last known address of the place of residence or place of business of the individual; or
- (v) by electronic communication, by sending an electronic communication of the notice to the last email address given to the Corporation by the individual as the email address for the service of documents on the individual;

(b) in the case of a partnership other than a limited liability partnership —

- (i) by delivering it to any one of the partners or the secretary or other like officer of the partnership;
- (ii) by leaving it at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the principal or last known place of business of the partnership in Singapore;
- (iii) by sending it by facsimile transmission to the fax transmission number operated at the principal or last known place of business of the partnership in Singapore; or
- (iv) by electronic communication, by sending an electronic communication of the notice to the last email address given to the Corporation by the partnership as the email address for the service of documents on the partnership; and

- (c) in the case of any limited liability partnership or any other body corporate —
- (i) by delivering it to the secretary or other like officer of the body corporate or, in the case of a limited liability partnership, the manager thereof, or to any person having, on behalf of the limited liability partnership or other body corporate, powers of control or management over the business, occupation, work or matter to which the notice relates;
 - (ii) by leaving it at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the registered office or principal place of business of the limited liability partnership or other body corporate in Singapore;
 - (iii) by sending it by facsimile transmission to the fax transmission number operated at the registered office or principal place of business of the limited liability partnership or other body corporate in Singapore or elsewhere; or
 - (iv) by electronic communication, by sending an electronic communication of the notice to the last email address given to the Corporation by the limited liability partnership or other body corporate as the email address for the service of documents on the limited liability partnership or body corporate.

(3) If the person on whom service is to be effected has an agent within Singapore, the notice may be delivered to the agent.

(4) Any notice issued under subsection (1) which is to be served on the occupier of any premises —

- (a) may be served by delivering it to an adult person on the premises or, if there is no such person on the premises to whom it can with reasonable diligence be delivered, by affixing the notice to a conspicuous part of the premises; and

- (b) shall be deemed to be properly addressed if addressed by the description of the occupier of the premises without further name or description.

(5) Where any notice issued under subsection (1) and required to be served on any person is —

- (a) sent by registered post to any person in accordance with subsection (2), it shall be deemed to be duly served on the person at the time when it would, in the ordinary course of post, be delivered, whether or not it is returned undelivered, and in proving service of the notice, it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the same was properly addressed, stamped and posted by registered post;
- (b) sent by ordinary post to any person in accordance with subsection (2), it shall be deemed to be duly served on the person to whom it is addressed on the day succeeding the day on which it would, in the ordinary course of post, be delivered;
- (c) sent by a facsimile transmission to the fax transmission number operated at the last known place of residence or business or registered office or principal place of business in accordance with subsection (2), it shall be deemed to be duly served on the person to whom it is addressed on the day of transmission, subject to receipt on the sending facsimile machine of a notification (by electronic or other means) of a successful transmission to the place of residence or business or registered office or principal place of business, as the case may be; and
- (d) sent by electronic communication to an email address in accordance with subsection (2), it shall be deemed to be duly served on the person to whom it is addressed at the time of entering the information system addressed to the email address.

(6) Service of any notice under this section on a person by electronic communication may be effected only if the person gives as part of his or its address for service an email address.

(7) Any person who on being required by notice under this section to furnish any particulars or information —

(a) wilfully refuses or without lawful excuse (the proof of which lies on him) neglects to furnish the particulars or information within the time specified in the notice; or

(b) wilfully furnishes or causes to be furnished any false particulars or information in respect of any matter specified in the notice requiring particulars or information to be furnished, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(8) Nothing in this section authorises the Corporation, or any employee thereof authorised by the Corporation in that behalf, to require the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore or the Urban Redevelopment Authority to furnish to the Corporation or the employee so authorised —

(a) any particulars or information in the possession of the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore obtained in the performance of any of its functions; or

(b) any particulars or information in the possession of the Urban Redevelopment Authority obtained in the performance of any of its functions.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

Request for information from Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore and Urban Redevelopment Authority

35B.—(1) For the purpose of obtaining data for statistical purposes relating to industrial property in Singapore, the Corporation may in writing require —

(a) the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore to furnish or supply to the Corporation any particulars or information in the possession of the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore that it obtained in the performance of its function as an agent of the Government in administering, assessing, collecting and enforcing payment of property tax or stamp duties; or

- (b) the Urban Redevelopment Authority to furnish or supply to the Corporation any particulars or information in the possession of the Urban Redevelopment Authority —
 - (i) that the Urban Redevelopment Authority obtained pursuant to any notice under section 44 of the Urban Redevelopment Authority Act; or
 - (ii) that was collected by the Research and Statistics Unit before 1st September 1989 and transferred to the Urban Redevelopment Authority under section 31 of the Urban Redevelopment Authority Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore Act and the Urban Redevelopment Authority Act, the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore and the Urban Redevelopment Authority, respectively, shall furnish the particulars and information required under subsection (1) within such time as may be agreed to between the Corporation and the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore or the Urban Redevelopment Authority, as the case may be.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

Preservation of secrecy

35C.—(1) Any member, officer or employee of the Corporation shall not disclose any particulars or information which has been obtained by the member, officer or employee of the Corporation in the performance of his duties or the exercise of his function under section 35A or 35B unless —

- (a) the disclosure is with the previous consent in writing of the person who furnished the particulars or information under section 35A or the person to whom the particulars or information relate;

- (b) the disclosure is as statistics which do not identify the person who furnished the particulars or information under section 35A or the person to whom the particulars or information relate;
- (c) the disclosure is to the Urban Redevelopment Authority pursuant to its request made under section 44A of the Urban Redevelopment Authority Act;
- (d) the disclosure is to the Chief Statistician pursuant to his direction under section 6 of the Statistics Act (Cap. 317) where the particulars or information are not exempted under section 6(2) of that Act from being so furnished;
- (e) the disclosure is for the purposes of any proceedings for an offence under section 35A(7) or this section or any report of those proceedings; or
- (f) the particulars or information are already in the public domain at the time of its disclosure.

(2) The Corporation may, in respect of any particulars or information disclosed to any person under subsection (1)(a), impose conditions as to the use of such particulars or information by notice in writing to that person.

(3) Any person who discloses any particulars or information in contravention of subsection (1), or who fails to comply with any condition imposed on him under subsection (2), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in subsection (1) authorises disclosure of any particulars or information referred to therein to any officer or employee of the Corporation not charged with any duties or function under section 35A or 35B.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

Entry on premises to obtain statistical information

35D. Any officer of the Corporation authorised by the Corporation in that behalf may, with such assistants as are necessary, at any reasonable time, with the consent of the occupier of any land or premises or after 6 hours' previous notice to such an occupier, and without involving any search or seizure of any premises, person or thing, enter the land or premises for all or any of the following purposes:

- (a) for or in connection with obtaining statistical information in relation to industrial property in Singapore;
- (b) for the purpose of verifying the accuracy or completeness of any particulars or information furnished by any person pursuant to a notice issued under section 35A(1).

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

PART IV

SALE OF FLATS, HOUSES OR OTHER BUILDINGS

Application of this Part

36. This Part shall apply only to flats, houses or buildings which are used or intended to be used solely for the purpose of human habitation.

[29/74]

Restrictions on registration of assurance, lease, mortgage, transfer or charge

37.—(1) The Registrar of Deeds and the Registrar of Titles shall not register any assurance, lease, mortgage, transfer or charge relating to any flat, house or building which has been bought or sold, leased, mortgaged or disposed of by a person in contravention of section 38 or 40(1).

(2) A certificate of the Corporation that any flat, house or building has been purchased, sold, leased, mortgaged, transferred or charged in accordance with the provisions of this Part shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.

[31/80]

Conditions relating to sale, lease, mortgage or transfer of or charge on flat, house or building

38.—(1) No flat, house or building which has been sold by the Corporation under the provisions of this Part shall be sold, leased, mortgaged, transferred or charged without the written consent of the Corporation.

[29/74; 31/80]

(2) Where any assignment, mortgage, transfer, charge or lease of any such flat, house or other building which is executed by or on behalf of the owner thereof without the prior written consent of the Corporation is registered under the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Act (Cap. 269) or the Land Titles Act (Cap. 157), the Corporation may by an instrument lodged with the Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, declare such assignment, mortgage, transfer, charge or lease to be void and the Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, shall register the instrument without being concerned to inquire into its regularity or validity, and upon registration thereof shall cancel the registration of such assignment, mortgage, transfer, charge or lease.

[11/78]

(3) Any assignment, mortgage, transfer, charge or lease by an owner of a flat, house or other building sold subject to the provisions of this Part which would not be void but for this section, shall be deemed to be valid for the purposes of any legal proceedings instituted by the Corporation under sections 45, 46 and 51.

Special provisions relating to sale of flat, house or building

39.—(1) Where —

- (a) a flat is sold by the Corporation to any person under the provisions of this Part; or
- (b) any estate or interest in such flat is —
 - (i) subsequently transferred by or to any person with the written consent of the Corporation; or
 - (ii) surrendered to the Corporation, and a solicitor is not employed by that person to act for him in the transaction, the Corporation may by its duly authorised officer act for that person.

[31/80]

(2) Where the Corporation acts for any person under subsection (1), then for the purposes of the registration of any instrument relating to the sale of the flat or the transaction in respect of the flat —

(a) in the case of an instrument which is required to be registered under the Registration of Deeds Act (Cap. 269), section 11 of that Act shall not apply if a duly authorised officer of the Corporation certifies that the flat has been sold under the provisions of this Part; and

(b) in the case of an instrument which is required to be registered under the provisions of the Land Titles Act (Cap. 157), a certificate of an officer of the Corporation duly authorised by the Corporation to act for the person shall be sufficient for the purposes of section 59 of that Act.

(3) For the purposes of this section —

“flat” means any flat, house or other building sold by the Corporation under the provisions of this Part;

“transfer”, in relation to a flat, means the conveyance, sale, purchase, assignment, mortgage, charge or the disposal in any manner of any estate or interest in the flat and includes a discharge of a mortgage, or a reconveyance, or the devolution of the rights of a deceased owner of the flat to another person, and “is transferred” shall be construed accordingly.

(4) Section 30 of the Legal Profession Act (Cap. 161) shall not apply to any officer of the Corporation acting for any party to the transactions referred to in subsection (1).

Restrictions relating to purchase of flat, house or building

40.—(1) No person shall be entitled to purchase any flat, house or other building sold subject to the provisions of this Part if that person, his spouse or any authorised occupier —

- (a) is the owner of any other flat, house, building or land or has an estate or interest therein; or
- (b) has, at any time within 30 months immediately prior to the date of making an application to the Corporation to purchase the flat, house or building or between the date of such application and the date of completion of the purchase of the flat, house or building, sold any flat, house, building or land of which he was the owner, or divested himself of any interest therein.

(2) Where a person purchases a flat, house or other building in contravention of subsection (1), he shall not present for registration under the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Act (Cap. 269) or the Land Titles Act (Cap. 157) the assurance of the flat, house or other building.

(2A) The Corporation shall on discovery of such a purchase —

- (a) serve a written notice upon the purchaser of the flat, house or other building of its intention to lodge with the Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, an instrument for the vesting in the Corporation of the title to or the estate or interest in that flat, house or other building; or
- (b) where no lease has been registered in favour of the purchaser, serve a written notice of the Corporation's intention to terminate the agreement for a lease and to re-enter upon the flat, house or other building or part thereof in the name of the whole and thereupon any interest of the purchaser shall absolutely determine.

[11/78]

(3) The purchaser may, within 14 days after the service of the notice given pursuant to subsection (2A), appeal to the Minister whose decision shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.

[11/78]

(4) Where an appeal has been made to the Minister pursuant to subsection (3), the Corporation shall not proceed to vest the title to or the estate or interest in the flat, house or other building in itself, or to repossess the flat, house or other building, until the appeal has been disposed of or withdrawn.

[11/78]

(5) The Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, shall register any instrument, lodged under subsection (2A), without being concerned to inquire into its regularity or validity, and upon its registration the title to or the estate or interest in the flat, house or building shall vest in the Corporation without further assurance free from all encumbrances (subject to such subsisting covenants, conditions or restrictions, if any, as may be binding on the Corporation) for such title, estate or interest as the Corporation would have had on the date of the registration of the instrument, if there had been no sale of the flat, house or building.

[29/74; 11/78]

(6) Upon the registration of such an instrument —

- (a) in the case of a flat, house or building registered under the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Act (Cap. 269), the Registrar of Deeds shall make an entry in the books of the Registry that the flat, house or building has vested in the Corporation in accordance with subsection (5), and upon that entry being made, the flat, house or building shall vest in the Corporation free from all encumbrances, subject to such subsisting covenants, conditions or restrictions, if any, as may be binding on the Corporation; or
- (b) in the case of a flat, house or building, registered under the provisions of the Land Titles Act (Cap. 157), the flat, house or building shall vest in the Corporation free from all encumbrances, subject to such subsisting covenants, conditions or restrictions, if any, as may be binding on the Corporation, and the Registrar of Titles shall cancel the registration of any lease, mortgage or charge thereby overreached.

(7) The Corporation may, in its discretion, forfeit any moneys paid or deposited in respect of the purchase of any flat, house or other building from the Corporation if the Corporation discovers that the person has purchased or seeks to purchase the flat, house or other building in contravention of subsection (1).

[11/78]

(8) The Corporation may, in its discretion, exempt any person or class of persons from all or any of the provisions of this section.

[11/78]

(9) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Corporation may sell or lease a flat, house or other building to any person, notwithstanding that the person, his spouse or any authorised occupier has purchased or acquired with the prior written consent of the Corporation, any commercial property not exceeding in value $250,000 or such higher value as the Minister may allow, and that commercial property is used or intended to be used by any such person for business purposes.

[31/80]

Conditions in respect of flat, house or building

41.—(1) No lien by deposit of the title deeds, as security for a debt, of any flat, house or building that has been sold by the Corporation under the provisions of this Part shall be capable of being created in favour of any person and no caveat in support of any such lien by deposit shall be capable of being registered under the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Act (Cap. 269) or the Land Titles Act (Cap. 157).

[29/74; 31/80]

(2) No such flat, house or building shall vest in the Official Assignee on the bankruptcy of the owner thereof.

(3) No such flat, house or building shall be attached in execution of a decree of a court.

(4) Every trust or alleged trust, whether the trust is express, implied or constructive, which purports to be created in respect of such flat, house or building by the owner thereof shall be null and void and shall be incapable of being enforced by a court.

Transfer of flat, house or other building on the death of owner

42.—(1) The transmission on the death of the owner, whether testate or intestate, or any transfer by the personal representatives of a deceased owner, of a flat, house or other building that has been sold subject to the provisions of this Part shall not be registered under the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Act (Cap. 269) or the Land Titles Act (Cap. 157) without the written consent of the Corporation.

(1A) Where the Corporation refuses to give its consent, the Corporation may lodge an instrument with the Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, to have the flat, house or other building vested in the Corporation.

(2) Where no representation has been taken out under a will or on the intestacy of a deceased owner of a flat, house or other building within 12 months from the death of the owner, or where representation has been taken out but the personal representatives do not apply for the Corporation's written consent for the transmission or transfer of the flat, house or other building within 6 months from the date of representation, the Corporation may lodge an instrument with the Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, to have the flat, house or other building vested in the Corporation.

(3) Where on the death of the owner of a flat, house or other building that has been sold subject to the provisions of this Part the lease in favour of the owner has not been registered under the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Act or the Land Titles Act, or where no representation has been taken out under a will or on the intestacy of a deceased owner of such flat, house or other building within 12 months from the death of the owner, the Corporation may rescind the agreement for the lease of such flat, house or other building.

(4) Where the Corporation decides to lodge an instrument under subsection (1A) or (2) to have the flat, house or other building vested in itself or to rescind an agreement for a lease under subsection (3), the Corporation shall —

- (a) serve a written notice on the personal representatives of the deceased owner of, and on all persons known or believed to have an interest or estate in, the flat, house or other building; and

- (b) in the case where no representation is taken out, serve a notice on the flat, house or other building and on all persons known or believed to have an interest or estate in the flat, house or other building, of its intention to lodge with the Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, an instrument of vesting under subsection (1A) or (2) or of its decision to rescind the agreement for a lease and of the compensation to be paid therefor and the date on which the instrument will be lodged as aforesaid, or the date the rescission is to take effect, not being a date earlier than 28 days after the date of the service of the notice.

(5) The personal representatives and any person who is interested in the estate of the deceased owner may, within 28 days after the day of service of the notice, appeal to the Minister whose decision shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court.

(6) Where an appeal is made to the Minister pursuant to subsection (5), the Corporation shall not proceed to lodge an instrument of vesting under subsection (1A) or (2) or rescind the agreement for a lease until the appeal is determined or withdrawn.

(7) The Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, shall register any instrument lodged under subsection (1A) or (2) without being concerned to inquire into its regularity or validity and —

- (a) in the case of a flat, house or other building registered under the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Act (Cap. 269), the Registrar of Deeds shall make an entry in the books of the Registry that the flat, house or other building has been vested in the Corporation; and
- (b) in the case of a flat, house or other building registered under the provisions of the Land Titles Act (Cap. 157), the Registrar of Titles shall register the instrument on the relevant folio of the land register without the necessity of the production of the duplicate certificate of title.

(8) Upon entry being made or registration under subsection (7), the title to and the estate or interest in the flat, house or other building shall vest in the Corporation free from all encumbrances, subject to such subsisting covenants, conditions or restrictions, if any, as may be binding on the Corporation, and the Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, shall cancel the registration of any mortgage, charge or lease thereby overreached.

(9) Where an appeal has been determined by the Minister or on the expiry of a period of 28 days after the service of the notice referred to in subsection (4) and the personal representatives do not consent to receive the compensation, or where representation has not been taken out under a will or on the intestacy of the deceased owner, or where there are conflicting claims to the compensation to be paid by the Corporation, the Corporation shall apply to the High Court ex parte by originating summons, supported by an affidavit, for an order to deposit the amount of the compensation in Court and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Rules of Court for the time being in force, the High Court may make such an order.

(10) The compensation to be paid by the Corporation for any flat, house or other building vested in the Corporation under this section shall be determined by the Corporation.

Establishment of management corporations

43.—(1) The owners of flats in any building or buildings of the Corporation shall, as soon as possible after they are directed by the Corporation in writing, establish a body corporate under the name of “The Management Corporation for flat numbers . . . of the Jurong Town Corporation building situate in Lot number . . . in Town Sub-Division or Mukim. . .”.

(2) The Corporation shall not, without consulting all the owners of the flats in any building or buildings, issue any direction under subsection (1) to the owners of the flats.

(3) Where a direction of the Corporation under subsection (1) is not carried out, the Corporation may, by notification in the Gazette, authorise a company, incorporated under the provisions of any written law for the time being in force relating to companies, to exercise the functions, duties and powers of a management corporation.

(4) The Corporation may, by notification in the Gazette, revoke any authorisation granted to a company under subsection (3) without assigning any reason.

(5) A management corporation, referred to in subsection (1), shall be constituted by order made by the Corporation, which shall be published in the Gazette.

(6) Upon the constitution of a management corporation under subsection (5) and so long as one exists in relation to one or more buildings, the owners of flats in the building or buildings shall be —

- (a) members of the management corporation; and
- (b) entitled to such voting rights as may be prescribed.

(7) A management corporation constituted under subsection (5) shall have perpetual succession and may sue and be sued in its name and do all other matters and things incidental or appertaining to a body corporate and not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

(8) The management corporation shall establish and maintain a fund for administrative purposes sufficient in the opinion of the management corporation for the control, management and administration of the common property of the building or buildings in relation to which the management corporation exists, for the payment of any rent, rates and premiums of insurance in respect of the common property and the discharge of any other obligations of the management corporation.

(9) For the purposes of establishing and maintaining a fund in accordance with subsection (8), the management corporation may —

- (a) determine from time to time the amounts to be raised for the purposes referred to in subsection (8);
- (b) raise amounts so determined by levying contributions on the owners of flats in the building or buildings referred to in subsection (8) in such proportions as may be prescribed; and

- (c) recover from any of the owners by an action in a court of competent jurisdiction any sum of money expended by the management corporation for rents, rates, premiums, maintenance, conservancy or for repairs to or done by it at its direction to his flat.

(10) Subject to subsection (12), any contribution levied under subsection (9) shall be due and be payable —

- (a) on the passing of a resolution to that effect by the management corporation and in accordance with the terms of that resolution; or
- (b) if the Corporation or a company, as the case may be, is performing the functions of a management corporation and has been vested with its powers, under section 44, on the service of a written notice and in accordance with the terms of that notice, and may be recovered by the management corporation or the Corporation or company, as the case may be, in an action in a court of competent jurisdiction from the owner of a flat in a building referred to in subsection (8) at the time when the resolution or notice, as the case may be, was passed or served and from the owner of the flat at the time when the action is instituted jointly or severally.

(11) A certificate of the Corporation shall be conclusive evidence of the amount that may be due to the Corporation under subsection (10).

(12) A management corporation shall, on the application of an owner of a flat in a building in relation to which the management corporation exists under the provisions of this Act or a person authorised in writing by him, certify —

- (a) the amount determined as the contribution of the owner;
- (b) the manner in which that contribution is payable;
- (c) the extent to which his contribution has been paid by the owner; and
- (d) the amount of any rates paid by the management corporation and not recovered by it, and in favour of any person dealing with that owner such a certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the matters certified therein.

(13) A management corporation constituted under subsection (5) shall not be wound up except by an order made by the Corporation cancelling the order by which it was constituted.

(14) An order made under subsection (13) shall be published in the Gazette and shall provide for the winding up of the management corporation and for its dissolution.

Corporation or company may exercise the powers of management corporation

44. The functions and duties of a management corporation constituted under section 43(5) may be performed and its powers shall be vested in and may be exercised by —

- (a) the Corporation —
 - (i) where a management corporation has not been constituted under section 43(5); or
 - (ii) where a management corporation constituted under section 43(5) has been wound up by an order made under section 43(13); or
- (b) a company authorised by the Corporation under section 43(3).

[29/74]

Determination of lease of flat, house or building

45. The Corporation may, where a flat, house or building has been sold by the Corporation under the provisions of this Act —

- (a) if any rent reserved by the lease or part thereof is unpaid for 3 calendar months after becoming payable and the Corporation has sent a demand in writing by registered post addressed to the owner of the flat, house or building (whether the demand has been received by the owner or not);
- (b) if the owner has committed any breach of a condition against assigning, underletting or parting with possession of the flat, house or other building or any part thereof or has committed any other condition the breach of which is not capable of remedy and the Corporation has sent a notice in writing by registered post addressed to the owner or purchaser at the flat, house or other building (whether the notice has been received or not);

- (c) if any condition (being a condition the breach of which is capable of remedy) on the part of the owner is not performed or observed within 2 weeks after a notice in writing has been sent by the Corporation to the owner addressed to the owner of the flat, house or other building drawing the attention of the owner to the non-performance or non-observance of the condition (whether the demand has been received by the owner or not);
- (d) if the owner has submitted a false statement in his application form for the purchase of the flat, house or building;
- (e) if the owner has, in the opinion of the Corporation, committed a breach of any of the rules made under section 53(1)(f); or
- (f) if the owner has, in the opinion of the Corporation, used the flat, house or building otherwise than for a purpose allowed by the lease, in every such case re-enter upon the flat, house or building or a part thereof in the name of the whole and thereupon the lease shall determine; but such determination shall be without prejudice to any right of action or remedy of the Corporation in respect of any such breach or any other breach of the conditions contained in the lease.

[29/74; 11/78]

Corporation may compulsorily acquire property sold subject to this Part

46.—(1) The Corporation may compulsorily acquire any flat, house or other building sold subject to the provisions of this Part, whether before or after 23rd March 1978 —

- (a) if the owner thereof and his spouse, if any, has in the opinion of the Corporation ceased to occupy the flat, house or other building;
- (b) if the owner thereof, his spouse or any authorised occupier has at any time, whether before or after that date, acquired whether by operation of law or otherwise any title to or an estate or interest in any other flat, house or building or land;
- (c) if the flat, house or other building has in the opinion of the Corporation been used otherwise than for the purpose permitted by the lease;
- (d) if the owner thereof has permitted any person other than an authorised occupier to reside or stay in the flat, house or other building;
- (e) if the owner thereof has failed to perform or observe any condition contained in the lease to be performed or observed on the part of the owner after a notice in writing has been sent by the Corporation drawing his attention to the non-performance or non-observance of the condition in the lease and the Corporation is of the opinion that he is likely to continue to do the same if he should continue to own the flat, house or other building;
- (f) if the owner thereof has made a misleading or false statement in his application to the Corporation for the purchase of the flat, house or other building;
- (g) if the owner thereof has made misrepresentation of a material fact, whether innocently or otherwise, in his application to the Corporation for the purchase of the flat, house or other building;
- (h) if the owner thereof assigns, underlets or parts with the possession of the flat, house or other building or any part thereof without obtaining the prior written consent of the Corporation;

- (i) if, in the opinion of the Corporation, the flat, house or other building is not being occupied by such minimum number of persons as the Corporation may require;
- (j) if the owner thereof has at any time, whether before or after that date, ceased to be a citizen of Singapore; or
- (k) if the rent or any payments or any part thereof due to the Corporation reserved under the lease remains unpaid for 3 calendar months after they are due and payable and the Corporation has sent a notice of demand in writing to the owner thereof.

[11/78; 31/80]

(2) Subsection (1)(b) shall not apply to any owner or his spouse or any authorised occupier who has purchased or acquired, with the prior written consent of the Corporation, any commercial property not exceeding in value $250,000 or such higher value as the Minister may allow and the commercial property is used or intended to be used by any such person for business purposes.

[31/80]

(3) Where the Corporation intends to exercise its powers of compulsory acquisition conferred by this section, the Corporation shall serve a notice in writing on the owner of the flat, house or other building and all persons known or believed to be interested in claiming all or any part of the compensation to be paid for the flat, house or other building (referred to in this Part as an interested person) stating the Corporation's intention to acquire the premises and the compensation to be paid therefor.

(4) An owner or interested person who objects to a proposed acquisition by the Corporation may, within 28 days after the date of the service of a notice referred to in subsection (3), submit in writing to the Corporation precisely the grounds upon which he objects to the acquisition and the compensation offered by the Corporation.

(5) The Corporation shall consider the objection and may either disallow it or allow it either wholly or in part, and shall serve the owner or interested person by post or otherwise with a written notice of its decision.

(6) Any owner or interested person aggrieved by the decision of the Corporation may, within 28 days after the date of the service of such decision, appeal in the prescribed manner to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

(7) This section shall not limit or affect the powers conferred upon the Corporation by any other provision of this Act or under any other written law to exercise its right of forfeiture and right of re-entry for a breach of any of the conditions of a lease.

(8) The compensation to be paid by the Corporation for any flat, house or other building compulsorily acquired by the Corporation under this section shall be determined by the Corporation.

Vesting of acquired property in Corporation

47.—(1) When the Corporation has made a decision pursuant to section 46 to compulsorily acquire a flat, house or other building, the Corporation may —

- (a) lodge an instrument with the Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, for the vesting in the Corporation of the title to or the estate or interest in that flat, house or other building —
 - (i) in the case where no objection has been made pursuant to section 46(4), on the expiry of a period of 28 days after the date of the service of the notice referred to in section 46(3); and
 - (ii) in the case where an appeal has been made to the Minister, at any time after the appeal has been determined by the Minister or when the appeal is withdrawn, as the case may be; and
- (b) in the case where no lease has been registered in favour of the owner, serve a written notice to terminate the agreement for a lease and to repossess the flat, house or other building or part thereof in the name of the whole and thereupon any interest of the purchaser shall absolutely determine.

[11/78]

(2) The Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, shall register any instrument lodged under subsection (1) without being concerned to inquire into its regularity or validity and —

- (a) in the case of a flat, house or other building registered under the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Act (Cap. 269), the Registrar of Deeds shall make an entry in the books of the Registry that the flat, house or other building has been vested in the Corporation; or
- (b) in the case of a flat, house or other building registered under the provisions of the Land Titles Act (Cap. 157), the Registrar of Titles shall register the instrument on the relevant folio of the land register without the necessity of the production of the duplicate certificate of title.

(3) Upon entry being made or registration under subsection (2), the title to and the estate or interest in the flat, house or other building shall vest in the Corporation free from all encumbrances, subject to such subsisting covenants, conditions or restrictions, if any, as may be binding on the Corporation, and the Registrar of Deeds or the Registrar of Titles, as the case may be, shall cancel the registration of any mortgage, charge or lease thereby overreached.

Payment of compensation

48.—(1) The Corporation shall pay the compensation determined by the Corporation, or varied by the Minister on an appeal, to an owner or to both an owner and an interested person in such proportion as the Corporation may decide or as may be varied by the Minister.

(2) Where any party refuses to accept the compensation or where there is a dispute between the parties to the proportion they are entitled to the compensation to be paid, the Corporation shall apply to the High Court ex parte by originating summons supported by an affidavit for an order to deposit the amount of the compensation or any part thereof in Court and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Rules of Court for the time being in force the High Court may make such an order.

[11/78]

[42/2005 wef 01/01/2006]

(3) The Corporation may withhold any compensation payable in respect of any flat, house or other building vested in the Corporation under this Act to any person until the Corporation has taken possession of that flat, house or other building.

Taking possession

49.—(1) Where any flat, house or other building has been vested in the Corporation pursuant to section 40 or 47, the Corporation may proceed to take possession of that flat, house or other building on the expiry of a period of 30 days after the service of a notice on the owner thereof.

(2) If any officer of the Corporation is opposed or impeded in taking possession under this section of any flat, house or other building, the Corporation may take such measures (including the calling for the assistance of the police) as are necessary to have the occupants evicted from and to enforce the surrender of the flat, house or other building and to remove all things and other movable property found therein.

Giving false information

50. Any person who makes any statement in his application to the Corporation for the purchase of a flat, house or other building which is false, and which he either knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[11/78]

Unauthorised subletting

51.—(1) Any person who being the lessee of a flat, house or other building sold by the Corporation subject to the provisions of this Part assigns, underlets or parts with the possession of the flat, house or other building or any part thereof without obtaining the prior written consent of the Corporation as required by the lease shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

[11/78]

(2) Any person who abets the commission of an offence under this section shall be punished with the punishment provided for the offence.

Direction of Minister to be conclusive evidence

52. If any dispute arises or should a ruling be required as to whether any property is a commercial property within the meaning of this Act, a direction by the Minister to the effect that the property is, or is not, a commercial property shall be conclusive evidence for all purposes; every such direction shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court or tribunal.

[31/80]

Power to make rules

53.—(1) The Corporation may, with the approval of the Minister, make rules for giving effect to this Part and, in particular, for or with respect to all or any of the following matters:

- (a) the terms and conditions for the sale of a flat, house or building under the provisions of this Part;
- (b) the persons to whom the flat, house or building may be sold and the persons who are allowed to stay in the flat, house or building, including the qualifications as to income, the minimum number in the family, citizenship and ownership of any other properties by all or any such persons;
- (c) a scheme of savings by a prospective purchaser of the flat, house or building with the Corporation for the first minimum payment therefor;
- (d) the minimum first payment for the purchase of the flat, house or building and the maximum period that may be allowed for the payment of the balance of the purchase price thereof, together with the prescribed interest;

- (e) the functions, duties and powers of a management corporation constituted under section 43;
- (f) regulating the use, management and control of flats, houses or buildings that have been sold under the provisions of this Part, and the common property thereof;
- (g) prescribing the fees to be charged by the Corporation for acting for any person in the sale, purchase, transmission of the interest of a deceased owner, transfer, assignment, mortgage, discharge of a mortgage, reconveyance or surrender of a flat sold under the provisions of this Part or for acting for any surviving joint owner of such a flat in his application to register his entitlement consequent upon the death of the other joint owner; and
- (h) prescribing the penalty (such penalty, if unpaid, to constitute a debt due to the Corporation and be recoverable as such) to be paid by the owner of any flat, house or other building sold under the provisions of this Part or by any applicant for such flat, house or other building for non-observance or non-compliance with any of the restrictions, conditions or requirements of section 40, 45 or 46, where the Corporation does not institute proceedings against him under any of those sections.

[29/74; 11/78; 31/80]

(2) All such rules shall be presented to Parliament as soon as possible after publication in the Gazette.

Exemption

54. The Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, exempt any person or class of persons or any flat, house or building described therein from any of the provisions of this Part.

[29/74]

PART V

LIABILITY OF CORPORATION AT JURONG PORT

Interpretation of this Part

55. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires —

“goods” includes animals, carcasses, baggage and any other movable property of any kind whatsoever;

“Jurong Port” means any place in the district of Jurong in Singapore which is owned by the Corporation and where facilities are provided by the Corporation for ships to load or unload;

“owner” —

(a) in relation to goods, includes any consignor, consignee, shipper or agent of the owner for the sale, custody, loading, handling, discharge or delivery of such goods; and

(b) in relation to any vessel, includes any part-owner, charterer, operator, consignee or mortgagee in possession thereof or any duly authorised agent of any such person;

“transshipment goods” means goods landed from a vessel and placed in the custody of the Corporation for the purpose of shipment on another vessel on a through bill of lading dated at the port of loading of such goods and showing that the destination is via Singapore, with the ultimate port of destination marked on each package or unit containing such goods and declared on a transshipment manifest lodged with the Corporation prior to or at the time such goods are placed in its custody;

“vessel” includes any ship or boat or air-cushioned vehicle or floating rig or platform used in any form of operations at sea or any other description of vessel.

[11/78]

Application of this Part

56. This Part shall only apply to the Jurong Port and to any place or premises controlled or used by the Corporation for the purpose of providing and maintaining adequate and efficient port services and facilities in the Jurong Port.

[11/78]

Loss or destruction of or damage to goods other than transshipment goods and goods accepted for storage

57. Neither the Corporation nor any person acting for or on behalf of the Corporation shall be liable —

- (a) for any loss caused to any person by reason of misdelivery, short delivery or non-delivery of any goods deposited with or placed in the custody or control of the Corporation, other than transshipment goods and goods accepted for storage by the Corporation under section 63; or
- (b) for damage to or destruction of such goods as have been duly acknowledged by the Corporation to be in its custody in the sum of more than $2,000 per package or unit unless the nature and value of the goods contained therein have, prior to delivery to the Corporation, been declared in writing to the Corporation by the person delivering or causing the same to be delivered, and the Corporation shall not in any event be liable therefor where the value of any such goods has been misstated.

Liability for loss under contract

58.—(1) Notwithstanding section 57, the Corporation shall, on application made to it by the owner of any vessel, enter into a contract with the owner whereby the Corporation shall accept liability for any loss caused by reason of short delivery by the Corporation of any goods deposited with or placed in the custody or control of the Corporation or any failure by the Corporation to deliver or account for them.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the Corporation may prescribe the terms and conditions of the contract and may, with the approval of the Minister, from time to time prescribe the rates to be levied.

(3) The Corporation may, in its discretion, refuse to enter into such contract unless the contract is in respect of all of the goods to be loaded into or discharged from a vessel, as the case may be.

[11/78]

Loss or destruction of, or damage to, transhipment goods deposited with Corporation

59.—(1) In respect of any transhipment goods delivered by any person to, or placed by any person in the custody of, the Corporation, the Corporation shall, from the time of acknowledgment of the receipt of such goods and until delivery of the goods alongside the on-carrying vessel for loading, be liable, subject to section 60, for the loss or destruction of, or damage to, the goods.

(2) The Corporation shall not be liable for any such loss, destruction or damage in a sum of more than $2,000 per package or unit unless the nature and value of the goods contained therein have, prior to delivery to the Corporation, been declared in writing to the Corporation by the person delivering or causing them to be delivered, and the Corporation shall not in any event be liable therefor where the value of any such goods has been mis-stated.

Force majeure, etc.

60. Sections 57 and 59 shall not impose on the Corporation or any person duly authorised by it any liability for the loss or destruction of, or damage to, any goods arising from —

- (a) fire or flood, unless caused by the actual fault or privity of the Corporation;
- (b) an act of God;
- (c) act of war or of public enemies;
- (d) seizure under any legal process;
- (e) quarantine restrictions;

- (f) any act, omission or default of the owner or carrier of such goods;
- (g) strikes, lock-outs or stoppages or restraints of labour from whatever cause, whether partial or general;
- (h) riots and civil commotions;
- (i) saving or attempting to save life or property;
- (j) insufficient or improper packing, defective or insufficient marks or leakage from defective drums, containers or packages;
- (k) any inherent liability to wastage in bulk or weight, latent or inherent defect or natural deterioration;
- (l) any deficiency in the contents of unbroken packages; or
- (m) the dangerous nature of those goods.

[11/78]

Cargo subject to general or particular average

61.—(1) The owner or master of any vessel discharging or intending to discharge any cargo which is the subject or likely to be the subject of a declaration of general or particular average into the premises of the Corporation shall inform the Corporation of the existence or likelihood of the declaration and of the particulars of the cargo affected or likely to be affected thereby prior to the commencement of the discharge.

[11/78]

(2) The Corporation shall be exempt from all liability in respect of the discharge, reception, storage or removal of any cargo referred to in subsection (1).

Corporation not responsible for acts of stevedore or workman

62. Any stevedore or workman whilst engaged in performing work in or in respect of any vessel shall, notwithstanding that his wage or remuneration for performing the work is paid by the Corporation, be deemed to be the employee of the owner and master of the vessel and the Corporation shall be exempt from all liability for any loss or damage caused by any act, omission or default of the stevedore or workman.

[11/78]

Saving

63.—(1) Nothing in this Part shall preclude the Corporation from accepting goods for storage as well as liability for any loss, destruction or damage thereto.

[11/78]

(2) Nothing in this Part shall affect any liability that may be imposed on the Corporation by any written law relating to compensation to employees defined under the Work Injury Compensation Act (Cap. 354).

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS

Consent of Public Prosecutor

64. No court shall try any offence under this Act or any rules or regulations made thereunder except with the consent of the Public Prosecutor.

[11/78]

[15/2010 wef 02/01/2011]

Conduct of prosecution

65. Proceedings in respect of any offence under this Act or any rules or regulations made thereunder may, with the authorisation of the Public Prosecutor, be conducted by any officer of the Corporation or any other person authorised in writing in that behalf by the Chairman.

[11/78]

[15/2010 wef 02/01/2011]

Service of notices

66. Unless otherwise expressly provided, every notice, order or document required or authorised by this Act or any rules or regulations made thereunder to be served on the owner of a flat, house or building sold under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be sufficiently served —

- (a) if the notice, order or document is delivered to the owner or is delivered at the flat, house or building to some adult member or servant of his family;
- (b) if it is sent to the owner by registered post at his flat, house or building (whether or not it has been received by him); or
- (c) if it is affixed to some conspicuous part of his flat, house or building.

[11/78; 31/80]

Composition of offences

67.—(1) The chief executive officer of the Corporation or any other officer of the Corporation who is authorised by the chief executive officer of the Corporation may, in his discretion, compound any offence under this Act or any rules or regulations made thereunder which is prescribed as a compoundable offence by collecting from a person reasonably suspected of having committed the offence a sum not exceeding the lower of the following sums:

- (a) one half of the amount of the maximum fine that is prescribed for the offence;
- (b) a sum of $5,000.

(2) On payment of such sum of money, no further proceedings shall be taken against that person in respect of the offence.

(3) The Minister may make regulations to prescribe the offences which may be compounded.

(4) All sums collected under this section shall be paid to the Consolidated Fund.
