NATURE OF LIMITED LIABILITY PARTNERSHIP

Separate legal personality

4.—(1) A limited liability partnership is a body corporate which is formed by being registered under this Act and which has legal personality separate from that of its partners.

(2) A limited liability partnership has perpetual succession.

(3) Any change in the partners of a limited liability partnership does not affect the existence, rights or liabilities of the limited liability partnership.

Capacity

5. A limited liability partnership is, by its name, capable of —

- (a) suing and being sued;
- (b) acquiring, owning, holding and developing or disposing of property, both movable and immovable; and
- (c) doing and suffering any other acts and things that bodies corporate may lawfully do and suffer.

[16/2017]

Common seal

6.—(1) A limited liability partnership may have a common seal but need not have one.

[16/2017]

(2) Sections 7 and 8 apply whether a limited liability partnership has a common seal or not.

[5A
[16/2017]

Execution of deeds by limited liability partnership

7.—(1) A limited liability partnership may execute a document described or expressed as a deed without affixing a common seal to the document by signature —

- (a) on behalf of the limited liability partnership by at least 2 partners of the limited liability partnership; or
- (b) on behalf of the limited liability partnership by a partner of the limited liability partnership in the presence of a witness who attests the signature.

[16/2017]

(2) A document mentioned in subsection (1) that is signed on behalf of the limited liability partnership in accordance with that subsection has the same effect as if the document were executed under the common seal of the limited liability partnership.

[16/2017]

(3) Where a document is to be signed by a person on behalf of more than one limited liability partnership, the document is not considered to be signed by that person for the purposes of subsection (1) or (2) unless the person signs the document separately in each capacity.

[16/2017]

(4) This section applies in the case of a document mentioned in subsection (1) that is executed by the limited liability partnership in the name or on behalf of another person, whether or not that person is also a limited liability partnership.

[5B
[16/2017]

Alternative to sealing

8. Where any written law or rule of law requires any document to be under or executed under the common seal of a limited liability partnership, or provides for certain consequences if it is not, a document satisfies that written law or rule of law if the document is signed in the manner set out in section 7(1)(a) or (b) and (3).

[16/2017]

Application of provisions of Companies Act 1967

9.—(1) Subject to section 8, section 41(1) to (8) of the Companies Act 1967 applies to a limited liability partnership as it applies to a corporation within the meaning of that Act.

[16/2017]

(2) Section 144(1)(a) of the Companies Act 1967 applies to a limited liability partnership as it applies to a company under that Act.

[5D
[16/2017]

Non-applicability of partnership law

10. Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the law relating to partnerships does not apply to a limited liability partnership.

Partners

11.—(1) Any individual or body corporate may be a partner in a limited liability partnership.

(2) To avoid doubt, the reference in subsection (1) to body corporate excludes any trade union.

Limited liability of partners

12.—(1) An obligation of the limited liability partnership, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, is solely the obligation of the limited liability partnership.

(2) A partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of indemnification, contribution, assessment or otherwise, for an obligation mentioned in subsection (1) solely by reason of being a partner of the limited liability partnership.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not affect the personal liability of a partner in tort for the partner's own wrongful act or omission, but a partner is not personally liable for the wrongful act or omission of any other partner of the limited liability partnership.

(4) Where a partner of a limited liability partnership is liable to any person (other than another partner of the limited liability partnership) as a result of the partner's wrongful act or omission in the course of the business of the limited liability partnership or with its authority, the limited liability partnership is liable to the same extent as the partner.

(5) The liabilities of the limited liability partnership must be met out of the property of the limited liability partnership.

Power of partner to bind the limited liability partnership

13.—(1) Every partner of a limited liability partnership is the agent of the limited liability partnership.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a limited liability partnership is not bound by anything done by a partner in dealing with a person if —

- (a) the partner has in fact no authority to act for the limited liability partnership by doing that thing; and
- (b) the person knows that the partner has no authority or does not know or believe the partner to be a partner of the limited liability partnership.

(3) Where a person has ceased to be a partner of a limited liability partnership, the person (called in this subsection former partner) is to be regarded (in relation to any person dealing with the limited liability partnership) as still being a partner of the limited liability partnership unless —

- (a) the person has notice that the former partner has ceased to be a partner of the limited liability partnership; or
- (b) notice that the former partner has ceased to be a partner of the limited liability partnership has been delivered to the Registrar.

Relationship of partners, etc.

14.—(1) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the mutual rights and duties of the partners of a limited liability partnership, and the mutual rights and duties of a limited liability partnership and its partners, are governed —

(a) by the limited liability partnership agreement; or

(b) in the absence of agreement as to any matter, by any provision relating to that matter set out in the First Schedule.

(2) Any reference to a resolution of partners for a particular matter is a reference to a resolution passed by all or such number of partners as may be required by the limited liability partnership agreement for that matter.

Cessation of partnership interest

15.—(1) A partner of a limited liability partnership may cease to be a partner in accordance with the limited liability partnership agreement, or in the absence of such agreement, by that partner giving 30 days' notice to the other partners of the partner's intention to resign as partner.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a partner of a limited liability partnership ceases to be a partner upon the death or dissolution of the partner.

(3) Where a partner of a limited liability partnership ceases to be a partner, unless otherwise provided in the limited liability partnership agreement, the former partner, his or her personal representative or its liquidator (as the case may be) is entitled to receive from the limited liability partnership an amount —

(a) equal to the former partner's capital contribution to the limited liability partnership and the former partner's right to share in the accumulated profits of the limited liability partnership after the deduction of losses of the limited liability partnership; and

(b) determined as at the date the former partner ceased to be a partner.

(4) To avoid doubt, a former partner, his or her personal representative or its liquidator (as the case may be) must not interfere in the management of the limited liability partnership.

Bankruptcy of partner

16. Unless otherwise provided in the limited liability partnership agreement, if a partner of a limited liability partnership is adjudicated a bankrupt by a court in Singapore or elsewhere —

(a) the bankruptcy does not by itself cause the bankrupt partner to cease being a partner of the limited liability partnership, but the restriction on the bankrupt partner being a manager of the limited liability partnership under section 58 applies; and

(b) the Official Assignee or trustee of the estate of the bankrupt partner must not interfere in the management of the limited liability partnership but is entitled to receive distributions from the limited liability partnership that the bankrupt partner is entitled to receive under the limited liability partnership agreement.

Assignment of partner's interest in distributions

17.—(1) Unless otherwise provided in the limited liability partnership agreement, a partner may assign the whole or any part of the partner's interest in the limited liability partnership but only to the extent that the assignee becomes entitled to receive distributions from the limited liability partnership that the partner would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

(2) An assignment under subsection (1) does not by itself —

(a) cause the partner to cease being a partner of the limited liability partnership; and

- (b) entitle the assignee to interfere in the management of the limited liability partnership.

Registration of limited liability partnership

18. Subject to the provisions of this Act, any 2 or more persons associated for carrying on a lawful business with a view to profit may, by complying with the requirements as to registration, register a limited liability partnership under this Act.

Manner and particulars of registration

19.—(1) A limited liability partnership may be registered under this Act if a statement by every person who is to be a partner of the limited liability partnership is lodged with the Registrar in such medium and form as the Registrar may determine, containing the following particulars:

- (h) any other information concerning the proposed limited liability partnership that the Minister may prescribe.

[35/2014]

(2) The Registrar may, in any particular case, require the statement mentioned in subsection (1) to be verified in any manner that the Registrar considers fit.

(3) The General Division of the High Court may, on the application of any person alleged or claiming to be a partner, direct the rectification of the register and decide any question arising under this section.

Registration

20.—(1) On receiving the statement mentioned in section 19, the Registrar must, subject to the provisions of this Act, register the statement and issue a notice of registration in such form as the Registrar may determine.

(2) On and from the date of registration specified in the notice of registration issued under subsection (1), there is a limited liability partnership, by the name specified in the notice, registered under this Act with all the attributes described in Part 2.

(3) The notice of registration is conclusive evidence that the requirements of section 19 are complied with and that the limited liability partnership is registered by the name specified in the notice.

(4) The Registrar may, upon receipt of the application in the prescribed form of a limited liability partnership registered under subsection (1) and on payment of the prescribed fee, issue to that limited liability partnership a certificate of confirmation of registration in such form as the Registrar may determine.

(5) This section must not be construed to require the Registrar to register any limited liability partnership if he or she is not satisfied with the particulars or other information provided under this Act.

(6) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the Registrar to register a limited liability partnership of which the person is to be a partner may, within 30 days of the date of the refusal, appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

(7) The registration of any limited liability partnership does not imply that the requirements of any law in relation to any business carried on by that limited liability partnership have been complied with.

Power to refuse registration

21.—(1) Despite any provision in this Act or any other written law, the Registrar must refuse to register a limited liability partnership under this Act where the Registrar is satisfied that —

- (a) the proposed business is likely to be used for an unlawful purpose or for purposes prejudicial to public peace, welfare or good order in Singapore; or
- (b) it would be contrary to the national security or interest for the limited liability partnership to be registered.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar under subsection (1) may, within 30 days of the date of the decision, appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a certificate issued by the Minister charged with the responsibility for internal security stating that the Minister is satisfied that it would be contrary to the national security or interest for the limited liability partnership to be registered under this Act is conclusive evidence of the matters so stated.

Names of limited liability partnerships

22.—(1) Every limited liability partnership must have either the words “limited liability partnership” or the acronym “LLP” as part of its name.

(2) A limited liability partnership that is registered under this Act must not carry on business under a name that is not registered under section 20 or 34.

(3) The registration of a name under which a limited liability partnership carries on business is not to be construed as authorising the use of that name if, apart from the registration, the use of that name could be prohibited.

(4) Any limited liability partnership which contravenes this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

Reservation of limited liability partnership names

23.—(1) A person may, by lodging an application with the Registrar, apply for the reservation of a name set out in the application as —

- (a) the name of a proposed limited liability partnership; or
- (b) the name to which a limited liability partnership proposes to change its name.

[35/2014]

(2) The Registrar may approve an application made under subsection (1) only if the Registrar is satisfied that —

- (a) the application is made in good faith; and
- (b) the name to be reserved is one in respect of which a limited liability partnership may be registered having regard to section 24(1), (2) and (3).

[35/2014]

(3) The Registrar must refuse to approve an application to reserve a name under subsection (1) as the name of a proposed limited liability partnership if the Registrar is satisfied that —

- (a) the name is for a limited liability partnership that is likely to be used for an unlawful purpose or for purposes prejudicial to public peace, welfare or good order in Singapore; or
- (b) it would be contrary to the national security or interest for the limited liability partnership to be registered.

(4) Where an application for a reservation of a name is made under subsection (1), the Registrar must reserve the proposed name of the proposed limited liability partnership or limited liability partnership for a period starting at the time the Registrar receives the application and ending —

- (a) if the Registrar approves the application, 60 days after the date on which the Registrar notifies the applicant that the application has been approved, or such further period of 60 days as the Registrar may, on application made in good faith, extend; or
- (b) if the Registrar refuses to approve the application, on the date on which the Registrar notifies the applicant of the refusal.

[35/2014]

- (5) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Registrar —
- (a) refusing to approve an application under subsection (1); or
 - (b) refusing an application under subsection (4)(a) to extend the reservation period, may, within 30 days after being informed of the Registrar's decision, appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

[19

Restrictions on registration of limited liability partnership names

24.—(1) Except with the consent of the Minister or as provided in subsection (3), the Registrar must refuse to register a limited liability partnership under this Act under a name, or to approve a change of name of a limited liability partnership under section 25 to a name, which, in the opinion of the Registrar —

- (a) is undesirable;
- (b) is identical to the name of any other limited liability partnership, a limited partnership or a corporation, or to a registered business name;

[35/2014; 15/2017]

(2) In addition to subsection (1), the Registrar must on or after 3 January 2016, except with the consent of the Minister, refuse to register a limited liability partnership under a name, or allow a limited liability partnership to change its name to a name, if —

- (a) it is identical to the name of a limited liability partnership that was dissolved —

 - (ii) unless, in a case where the limited liability partnership was dissolved following its name being struck off the register under section 63, a period of at least 6 years has passed after the date of dissolution;
- (b) it is identical to the business name of a person whose registration and registration of that business name has been cancelled under the Business Names Registration Act 2014 or whose business has ceased under section 22 of that Act, unless a period of at least one year has passed after the date of cancellation or cessation;
- (c) it is identical to the name of a company that was dissolved —
 - (i) unless, in a case where the company was dissolved following its winding up under Part 8 of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018, a period of at least 2 years has passed after the date of dissolution; or

- (d) it is identical to the name of a foreign company notice of the dissolution of which has been given to the Registrar of

Companies under section 377(2) of the Companies Act 1967, unless a period of at least 2 years has passed after the date of dissolution; or

- (e) it is identical to the name of a limited partnership that was cancelled or dissolved —
 - (i) unless, in a case where the registration of the limited partnership was cancelled under section 14(1) or 19(4) of the Limited Partnerships Act 2008, a period of at least one year has passed after the date of cancellation; or
 - (ii) unless, in a case where notice was lodged with the Registrar of Limited Partnerships that the limited partnership was dissolved under section 19(2) of the Limited Partnerships Act 2008, a period of at least one year has passed after the date of dissolution.

(3) Despite subsection (1), the Registrar may, on or after 3 January 2016, register a limited liability partnership under —

- (a) a name that is identical to the name of a foreign company registered under Division 2 of Part 11 of the Companies Act 1967 —
 - (i) in respect of which notice was lodged under section 377(1) of the Companies Act 1967 that the foreign company has ceased to have a place of business in Singapore or ceased to carry on business in Singapore, if a period of at least 3 months has passed after the date of cessation; and
 - (ii) the name of which was struck off the register kept under the Companies Act 1967 under section 377(8), (9) or (10) of that Act, if a period of at least 6 years has passed after the date the name was so struck off; or
- (b) a name that is identical to the name of a limited partnership in respect of which notice was lodged under section 19(1) of the Limited Partnerships Act 2008 that the limited partnership ceased to carry on business, if a period of at least one year has passed after the date of cessation.

[35/2014]

(4) Despite this section and section 25, where the Registrar is satisfied that a limited liability partnership's name —

- (a) is one that is not permitted to be registered under subsection (1)(a), (b) or (d);
- (b) is one that is not permitted to be registered under subsection (2) until the expiry of the relevant period mentioned in that subsection;
- (c) is one that is permitted to be registered under subsection (3) only after the expiry of the relevant period mentioned in that subsection;
- (d) so nearly resembles the name of any other limited liability partnership, any limited partnership or corporation or any registered business name, as to be likely to be mistaken for it; or
- (e) is one the use of which has been restrained by an injunction granted under the Trade Marks Act 1998, the Registrar may direct the limited liability partnership to change its name, and the limited liability partnership must comply with the direction within 6 weeks after the date of the direction or such longer period as the Registrar may allow in any case.

(5) The Registrar's power under subsection (4) to direct a limited liability partnership to change its name applies regardless of —

- (a) whether the limited liability partnership's name was registered through inadvertence or otherwise; or
- (b) when the limited liability partnership was registered in respect of the name.

[35/2014]

(7) The Registrar is not to consider any application under subsection (6) to give a direction to a person on the ground referred to in subsection (4)(d) unless the Registrar receives the application within 12 months after the date the limited liability partnership was registered in respect of the name, or the date the change of the limited liability partnership's name was approved under section 25.

[35/2014]

(8) Any limited liability partnership which fails to comply with a direction given under subsection (4) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $200 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

[35/2014]

(9) A person aggrieved by —

- (a) a direction of the Registrar under subsection (4); or
- (b) the Registrar's refusal to give a direction to a person under subsection (4) following an application under subsection (6), may, within 30 days after being informed of the Registrar's direction or refusal (as the case may be) appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

[35/2014]

(10) To avoid doubt, where the Registrar makes a direction under subsection (4) or the Minister makes a decision on an appeal under subsection (9), the Registrar or the Minister (as the case may be) must accept as correct any decision of the General Division of the High Court to grant an injunction mentioned in subsection (4)(e).

[35/2014; 40/2019]

(3) The Registrar is not required to issue under subsection (1) a copy of or an extract from a document forming part of the register where that document has been destroyed under section 82.

[28B

Alternate address

37.—(1) Despite section 36, the Registrar must not disclose or make available for public inspection the particulars of a partner's or manager's residential address that is lodged with the Registrar under this Act or transmitted to the Registrar by the Commissioner of National Registration under section 11 of the National Registration Act 1965 if the requirements of subsection (2) are satisfied.

[35/2014]

(2) The requirements mentioned in subsection (1) are that the partner or manager maintains with the Registrar an alternate address that complies with all of the following conditions:

- (a) it is an address at which the partner or manager can be located;
- (b) it is not a post office box number;
- (c) it is not the residential address of the partner or manager;
- (d) it is located in the same jurisdiction as the partner's or manager's residential address.

[35/2014]

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) —

- (a) an individual who wishes to maintain an alternate address must lodge an application with the Registrar;
- (b) an individual may not maintain more than one alternate address at any one time;
- (c) an individual who wishes to cease to maintain an alternate address must lodge a notice of withdrawal with the Registrar; and
- (d) an individual who wishes to change his or her alternate address must lodge a notice of change with the Registrar.

[35/2014]

(4) An application to maintain an alternate address, and the lodgment of a notice of withdrawal or change of an alternate address, are subject to the payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

[35/2014]

(5) Subsection (1) applies from the time at which the Registrar accepts an application to maintain an alternate address mentioned in subsection (3)(a).

[35/2014]

(6) A partner or manager who maintains an alternate address under subsection (2) must ensure that he or she can be located at that alternate address.

[35/2014]

(7) A partner or manager who fails to comply with subsection (6) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

[35/2014]

(8) Despite subsection (1), the Registrar may disclose and make available for public inspection the particulars of a partner's or manager's residential address despite the maintenance of an alternate address under subsection (2) if —

- (a) communications sent by the Registrar under this Act, or by any officer of the Authority under any ACRA administered Act, to the partner or manager at his or her alternate address and requiring a response within a specified period remain unanswered; or
- (b) there is evidence to show that service of any document under this Act or under any ACRA administered Act at the alternate address is not effective to bring it to the notice of the partner or manager.

(9) Before proceeding under subsection (8), the Registrar must give notice to the partner or manager affected, and to every limited liability partnership of which the Registrar has been notified under this Act, that the individual is a partner or manager, as the case may be —

- (a) stating the grounds on which the Registrar proposes to disclose and make available for public inspection the individual's residential address; and
- (b) specifying a period within which representations may be made before that is done.

[35/2014]

(10) The Registrar is to consider the representations received within the specified period.

[35/2014]

(11) Where the Registrar discloses and makes available for public inspection the particulars of a partner's or manager's residential address, the Registrar must give notice of that fact to the partner or manager, and to every limited liability partnership of which the Registrar has been notified under this Act, that the individual is a partner or manager, as the case may be.

[35/2014]

(12) A notice to a partner or manager under subsection (9) or (11) is to be sent to him or her at his or her residential address unless it appears to the Registrar that service at that address may be ineffective to bring it to the notice of the partner or manager, in which case it may be sent to any other last known address of the partner or manager.

[35/2014]

(13) Where —

- (a) the Registrar discloses and makes available for public inspection the particulars of a partner's or manager's residential address under subsection (8); or
- (b) a Registrar appointed under any other ACRA administered Act discloses and makes available for public inspection under that Act the particulars of a partner's or manager's residential address under a provision of that Act equivalent to subsection (8), that partner or manager is not, for a period of 3 years after the date on which the residential address is disclosed and made available for public inspection, allowed to maintain an alternate address under subsection (2).

(14) Nothing in this section applies to any information lodged or deemed to be lodged with the Registrar before 3 January 2016 or prevents such information from being disclosed or from being made available for public inspection or access.

[35/2014]

(15) Nothing in this section prevents the residential address of an individual that is lodged with the Registrar under this Act, or is transmitted to the Registrar by the Commissioner of National Registration under section 11 of the National Registration Act 1965, from —

- (a) being used by the Registrar for the purposes of any communication with the individual;
- (b) being disclosed for the purposes of issuing any summons or other legal process against the individual for the purposes of this Act or any other written law;
- (c) being disclosed in compliance with the requirement of any court or the provisions of any written law;
- (d) being disclosed for the purpose of assisting any public officer or officer of any statutory body in the investigation or prosecution of any offence under any written law; or
- (e) being disclosed in such other circumstances as may be prescribed.

[35/2014]

(16) Any partner or manager aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar under subsection (8) may, within 30 days after the date of receiving the notice under subsection (11), appeal to the General Division of the High Court which may confirm the decision or give any directions in the matter that seem proper or otherwise determine the matter.

[35/2014; 40/2019]

(17) For the purposes of this section —

- (a) “ACRA administered Act” means the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority Act 2004 and any of the written laws specified in the Second Schedule to that Act; and

- (b) a partner or a manager can be located at an address if he or she may be physically found at the address after reasonable attempts have been made to find him or her at the address.

(3) If in any case where a limited liability partnership is being wound up the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that —

(6) Despite sub-paragraph (5), the Court may, on the application of the liquidator or of any other person who appears to the Court to be interested, make an order deferring the date at which the dissolution of the limited liability partnership is to take effect for such time as the Court thinks fit.

Priorities

76.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, in a winding up there must be paid in priority to all other unsecured debts —

- (a) first, the costs and expenses of the winding up including the taxed costs of the applicant for the winding up order payable under paragraph 5, the remuneration of the liquidator and the costs of any audit carried out pursuant to paragraph 64;
- (b) second, subject to sub-paragraph (2), all wages or salary (whether or not earned wholly or in part by way of commission) including any amount payable by way of allowance or reimbursement under any contract of employment or award or agreement regulating conditions of employment of any employee;
- (c) third, subject to sub-paragraph (2), the amount due to an employee as a retrenchment benefit or ex gratia payment under any contract of employment or award or agreement that regulates conditions of employment whether such amount becomes payable before, on or after the commencement of the winding up;
- (d) fourth, all amounts due in respect of work injury compensation under the Work Injury Compensation Act 2019 or the Work Injury Compensation Act (Cap. 354, 2009 Revised Edition) repealed by that Act accrued before, on or after the commencement of the winding up;
- (e) fifth, all amounts due in respect of contributions payable during the 12 months next before, on or after the commencement of the winding up by the limited liability partnership as the employer of any person under any written law relating to employees' superannuation or provident funds or under any scheme of superannuation which is an approved scheme under the law relating to income tax;
- (f) sixth, all remuneration payable to any employee in respect of vacation leave, or in the case of his or her death to any other person in the employee's right, accrued in respect of any period before, on or after the commencement of the winding up; and
- (g) seventh, the amount of all tax assessed and all goods and services tax due under any written law before the date of the commencement of the winding up or assessed at any time before the time fixed for the proving of debts has expired.

(2) The amount payable under sub-paragraph (1)(b) and (c) must not exceed an amount that is equivalent to 5 months' salary whether for time or piecework in respect of services rendered by the employee to the limited liability partnership or $7,500, whichever is the lesser.

(3) The Minister may, by order in the Gazette, amend sub-paragraph (2) by varying the amount specified in that sub-paragraph as the maximum amount payable under sub-paragraph (1)(b) and (c).

(4) In sub-paragraph (1)(b) and (c) —

“employee” means a person who has entered into or works under a contract of service with an employer and includes a subcontractor of labour;

“ex gratia payment” means the amount payable to an employee on the winding up of a limited liability partnership or on the termination of the employee's service by his or her employer on the ground of redundancy or by reason of any reorganisation of the employer, profession, business, trade or work, and “the amount payable to an employee” for these purposes means the amount stipulated in any contract of employment, award or agreement, as the case may be;

“retrenchment benefit” means the amount payable to an employee on the winding up of a limited liability partnership or on the termination of the employee's service by his or her employer on the ground of redundancy or by reason of any reorganisation of the employer, profession, business, trade or work, and “the amount payable to an employee” for these purposes means the amount stipulated in any contract of employment, award or agreement, as the case may be, or if no amount is stipulated in the contract, such amount as is stipulated by the Commissioner for Labour or by an Employment Claims Tribunal constituted under section 4 of the State Courts Act 1970.

“wages or salary” is deemed to include —

- (i) all arrears of money due to a subcontractor of labour;
- (ii) any amount payable to an employee on account of wages or salary during a period of notice of termination of employment or in lieu of such notice (as the case may be) whether the amount becomes payable before, on or after the commencement of the winding up; and
- (iii) any amount payable to an employee, on termination of the employee's employment, as a gratuity under any contract of employment, or under any award or agreement that regulates conditions of employment whether the amount becomes payable before, on or after the commencement of the winding up.

(5) The debts in each class, specified in sub-paragraph (1), rank in the order therein specified but as between debts of the same class rank equally between themselves, and must be paid in full, unless the property of the limited liability partnership is insufficient to meet them, in which case they abate in equal proportions between themselves.

(6) Where any payment has been made to any employee of the limited liability partnership on account of wages, salary or vacation leave out of money advanced by a person for that purpose, the person by whom the money was advanced has, in a winding up, a right of priority in respect of the money so advanced and paid, up to the amount by which the sum in respect of which the employee would have been entitled to priority in the winding up has been diminished by reason of the payment, and has the same right of priority in respect of that amount as the employee would have had if the payment had not been made.

(7) So far as the assets of the limited liability partnership available for payment of general creditors are insufficient to meet any preferential debts specified in sub-paragraph (1)(a), (b), (c), (e) and (f) and any amount payable in priority by virtue of sub-paragraph (6), those debts have priority over the claims of the holders of debentures under any floating charge created by the limited liability partnership (which charge, as created, was a floating charge), and must be paid accordingly out of any property comprised in or subject to that charge.

(8) Where the limited liability partnership is under a contract of insurance (entered into before the commencement of the winding up) insured against liability to third parties, then if any such liability is incurred by the limited liability partnership (either before or after the commencement of the winding up) and an amount in respect of that liability is or has been received by the limited liability partnership or the liquidator from the insurer, the amount must, after deducting any expenses of or incidental to getting in that amount, be paid by the liquidator to the third party in respect of whom the liability was incurred to the extent necessary to discharge that liability or any part of that liability remaining undischarged in priority to all payments in respect of the debts referred to in sub-paragraph (1).

(9) If the liability of the insurer to the limited liability partnership is less than the liability of the limited liability partnership to the third party, nothing in sub-paragraph (8) limits the rights of the third party in respect of the balance.

(10) Despite anything in sub-paragraph (1) —

- (a) sub-paragraph (1)(d) does not apply in relation to the winding up of a limited liability partnership in any case where the limited liability partnership is being wound up voluntarily merely for the purpose of reconstruction or of amalgamation with another limited liability partnership and the right to the compensation has on the reconstruction or amalgamation been preserved to the person entitled to it, or where the limited liability partnership has entered into a contract with an insurer in respect of any liability under any law relating to work injury compensation; and
- (b) where a limited liability partnership has given security for the payment or repayment of any amount to which sub-paragraph (1)(g) relates, sub-paragraph (1)(g) applies only in relation to the balance of any such amount remaining due after deducting from it the net amount realised from such security.

(11) Where in any winding up assets have been recovered under an indemnity for costs of litigation given by certain creditors, or have been protected or preserved by the payment of moneys or the giving of indemnity by creditors, or where expenses in relation to which a creditor has indemnified a liquidator have been recovered, the Court may make any order that it thinks just with respect to the distribution of those assets and the amount of those expenses so recovered with a view to giving those creditors an advantage over others in consideration of the risks run by them in so doing.

Division 3 — Effect on other transactions

Transactions at an undervalue

77.—(1) Subject to this paragraph and paragraphs 79 and 81, where a limited liability partnership is wound up and it has at the relevant time (as defined in paragraph 79) entered into a transaction with any person at an undervalue, the Official Assignee may apply to the Court for an order under this paragraph.

(2) The Court, on such an application, is to make such order as it thinks fit for restoring the position to what it would have been if that limited liability partnership had not entered into that transaction.

(3) The Court is not to make an order under sub-paragraph (2) in respect of a transaction at an undervalue if it is satisfied that —

- (a) the limited liability partnership which entered into the transaction did so in good faith and for the purpose of carrying on its business; and

- (b) at the time it did so, there were reasonable grounds for believing that the transaction would benefit the limited liability partnership.
- (4) For the purposes of this paragraph and paragraphs 79 and 81, a limited liability partnership enters into a transaction with a person at an undervalue if —
- (a) it makes a gift to that person or it otherwise enters into a transaction with that person on terms that provide for it to receive no consideration; or
 - (b) it enters into a transaction with that person for a consideration the value of which, in money or money's worth, is significantly less than the value, in money or money's worth, of the consideration provided by the limited liability partnership.

Unfair preferences

78.—(1) Subject to this paragraph and paragraphs 79 and 81, where a limited liability partnership is wound up and it has, at the relevant time (as defined in paragraph 79), given an unfair preference to any person, the Official Assignee may apply to the Court for an order under this paragraph.

(2) The Court, on such an application, is to make such order as it thinks fit for restoring the position to what it would have been if that limited liability partnership had not given that unfair preference.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph and paragraphs 79 and 81, a limited liability partnership gives an unfair preference to a person if —

- (a) that person is one of the limited liability partnership's creditors or a surety or guarantor for any of its debts or other liabilities; and
- (b) the limited liability partnership does anything or suffers anything to be done which (in either case) has the effect of putting that person into a position which, in the event of the limited liability partnership's liquidation, will be better than the position the person would have been in if that thing had not been done.

(4) The Court is not to make an order under this paragraph in respect of an unfair preference given to any person unless the limited liability partnership which gave the preference was influenced in deciding to give it by a desire to produce in relation to that person the effect mentioned in sub-paragraph (3)(b).

(5) A limited liability partnership which has given an unfair preference to a person connected with the limited liability partnership (otherwise than by reason only of being its employee) at the time the unfair preference was given is presumed, unless the contrary is shown, to have been influenced in deciding to give it by such a desire as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (4).

(6) The fact that something has been done pursuant to the order of a court does not, without more, prevent the doing or suffering of that thing from constituting the giving of an unfair preference.

(7) This paragraph applies without affecting the operation of paragraph 85.

Relevant time under paragraphs 77 and 78

79.—(1) Subject to this paragraph, the time at which a limited liability partnership enters into a transaction at an undervalue or gives an unfair preference is a relevant time if the transaction is entered into or the preference given —

- (a) in the case of a transaction at an undervalue, within the period of 5 years ending on the day which the winding up of the limited liability partnership is deemed by this Schedule to have commenced;
- (b) in the case of an unfair preference which is not a transaction at an undervalue and is given to a person who is connected with the limited liability partnership (otherwise than by reason only of being its employee), within the period of 2 years ending on that day; and
- (c) in any other case of an unfair preference which is not a transaction at an undervalue, within the period of 6 months ending on that day.

(2) Where a limited liability partnership enters into a transaction at an undervalue or gives an unfair preference at a time mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(a), (b) or (c), that time is not a relevant time for the purposes of paragraphs 77 and 78 unless the limited liability partnership —

- (a) is insolvent at that time; or
- (b) becomes insolvent in consequence of the transaction or preference.

(3) Where a transaction is entered into at an undervalue by a limited liability partnership with a person who is connected to the limited liability partnership (otherwise than by reason only of being its employee), the requirements under sub-paragraph (2) are presumed to be satisfied unless the contrary is shown.

(4) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2), a limited liability partnership is insolvent if —

- (a) it is unable to pay its debts as they fall due; or
- (b) the value of its assets is less than the amount of its liabilities.

Meaning of “connected with”

80.—(1) For the purposes of paragraphs 78 and 79, any question whether a person is connected with a limited liability partnership is determined in accordance with this paragraph.

(2) A person is connected with a limited liability partnership if the person is —

(a) a partner of the limited liability partnership or an associate of such a partner; or

(b) an associate of the limited liability partnership.

(3) A person is an associate of an individual if that person is the individual’s spouse, or is a relative, or the spouse of a relative of, the individual or his or her spouse.

(4) A person is an associate of any other person with whom the person is in partnership, and of the spouse or relative of any individual with whom the person is in partnership.

(5) A person is an associate of any other person whom the person employs or by whom the person is employed and for this purpose, any director or other officer of a company is treated as employed by that company and any partner of a limited liability partnership is treated as employed by that limited liability partnership.

(6) A person in the capacity as trustee of a trust is an associate of another person if the beneficiaries of the trust include, or the terms of the trust confer a power that may be exercised for the benefit of, that other person or an associate of that other person.

(7) A limited liability partnership or company is regarded as an associate of another limited liability partnership or company if —

(a) the same person has control of both entities;

(b) a person (P) has control of one entity and persons who are P’s associates, or P and P’s associates, have control of the other entity; or

(c) a group of 2 or more persons has control of each entity, and the groups —

(i) consist of the same persons; or

(ii) could be regarded as consisting of the same persons by treating (in one or more cases) a member of either group as replaced by a person of whom the member is an associate.

(8) A limited liability partnership or company is an associate of a person if that person has control of it or if that person and other persons who are that person's associates together have control of it.

(9) For the purposes of this paragraph, a person is a relative of an individual if the person is that individual's brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, lineal ancestor or lineal descendant, treating —

- (a) any relationship of the half blood as a relationship of the whole blood and the stepchild or adopted child of any person as the person's child; and
- (b) an illegitimate child as the legitimate child of the child's mother and reputed father.

(10) References in this paragraph to a spouse include a former spouse.

(11) For the purposes of this paragraph, a person is taken to have control of a limited liability partnership or company if —

- (a) the partners of the limited liability partnership or directors of the company or the partners or directors of another entity which has control of the partnership or company, as the case may be (or any of them), are accustomed to act in accordance with the person's directions or instructions; or
- (b) the person is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, one-third or more of the voting power at any meeting of the limited liability partnership or general meeting of the company or of another entity which has control of the partnership or company, as the case may be,

and where 2 or more persons together satisfy sub-paragraph (a) or (b), they are taken to have control of the limited liability partnership or company.

(12) In this paragraph, "company" includes any body corporate (whether incorporated in Singapore or elsewhere); and references to directors and other officers of a company and to voting power at any general meeting of a company have effect with any necessary modifications.

Orders under paragraphs 77 and 78

81.—(1) Without limiting paragraphs 77(2) and 78(2), an order under either of those paragraphs with respect to a transaction or preference entered into or given by a limited liability partnership which is subsequently wound up may, subject to this paragraph —

- (a) require any property transferred as part of the transaction, or in connection with the giving of the preference, to be vested in the limited liability partnership;
 - (b) require any property to be so vested if it represents in any person's hands the application of the proceeds of sale of property so transferred or of money so transferred;
 - (c) release or discharge (in whole or in part) any security given by the limited liability partnership;
 - (d) require any person to pay, in respect of benefits received by the person from the limited liability partnership, such sums to the liquidator as the Court may direct;
 - (e) provide for any surety or guarantor whose obligations to any person were released or discharged (in whole or in part) under the transaction or by the giving of the preference to be under such new or revived obligations to that person as the Court thinks appropriate;
 - (f) provide for security to be provided for the discharge of any obligation imposed by or arising under the order, for such an obligation to be charged on any property and for the security or charge to have the same priority as a security or charge released or discharged (in whole or in part) under the transaction or by the giving of the unfair preference; and
 - (g) provide for the extent to which any person whose property is vested by the order in the limited liability partnership, or on whom obligations are imposed by the order, is to be able to prove in the winding up of the limited liability partnership for debts or other liabilities which arose from, or were released or discharged (in whole or in part) under or by, the transaction or the giving of the unfair preference.
- (2) An order under paragraph 77 or 78 may affect the property of, or impose any obligation on, any person whether or not the limited liability partnership in question entered into the transaction with the person or unfair preference was given to the person, as the case may be.
- (3) An order under paragraph 77 or 78 must not —
- (a) prejudice any interest in property which was acquired from a person other than that limited liability partnership and was acquired in good faith, for value and without notice of the relevant circumstances, or prejudice any interest deriving from such an interest; or
 - (b) require a person who received a benefit from the transaction or unfair preference in good faith, for value and without notice of the relevant circumstances to pay a sum to the liquidator, except where the person was a party to the transaction or the payment is to be in respect of an unfair preference given to that person at a time when the person was a creditor of that limited liability partnership.

(4) For the purposes of this paragraph, the relevant circumstances, in relation to a transaction or unfair preference, are —

- (a) the circumstances by virtue of which an order under paragraph 77 or 78 could be made in respect of the transaction or preference if the limited liability partnership in question were wound up within the particular period after the transaction is entered into or the unfair preference given; and
- (b) if that period has expired, the fact that the limited liability partnership has been wound up within that period.

Extortionate credit transactions

82.—(1) This paragraph applies where a limited liability partnership which is wound up is or has been a party to a transaction for or involving the provision to it of credit.

(2) The Court may, on the application of the liquidator, make an order with respect to the transaction if the transaction is or was extortionate and was entered into within 3 years before the commencement of the winding up.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph, a transaction is extortionate if, having regard to the risk accepted by the person providing the credit —

- (a) its terms are or were such as to require grossly exorbitant payments to be made (whether unconditionally or in certain contingencies) in respect of the provision of the credit; or
- (b) it is harsh and unconscionable or substantially unfair, and it is presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that the transaction was extortionate.

(4) An order under this paragraph may contain one or more of the following:

- (a) provision setting aside the whole or part of any obligation created by the transaction;
- (b) provision varying the terms of the transaction or varying the terms on which any security for the purposes of the transaction is held;
- (c) provision requiring any person who is or was a party to the transaction to pay the liquidator any sums paid to that person;

- (d) provision requiring any person to surrender to the liquidator any property held by the person as security for the purposes of the transaction;
 - (e) provision directing accounts to be taken between any persons.
- (5) Any sums or property required to be paid or surrendered to the liquidator in accordance with an order under this paragraph must be comprised in the bankrupt's estate.

Avoidance of general assignment of book debts

83.—(1) This paragraph applies where a limited liability partnership makes a general assignment to another person of its existing or future book debts, or any class of them, and is subsequently wound up.

(2) The assignment is void against the liquidator as regards book debts which were not paid before the commencement of the winding up of the limited liability partnership, unless the assignment has been registered under the Bills of Sale Act 1886.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph —

“assignment” includes an assignment by way of security or charge on book debts;

“general assignment” does not include —

- (a) an assignment of book debts due at the date of the assignment from specified debtors or of debts becoming due under specified contracts; or
- (b) an assignment of book debts included either in a transfer of a business made in good faith and for value or in an assignment of assets for the benefit of creditors generally.

(4) For the purposes of registration under the Bills of Sale Act 1886, an assignment of book debts is treated as if it were a bill of sale given otherwise than by way of security for the payment of a sum of money.

(5) The provisions of the Bills of Sale Act 1886 with respect to the registration of bills of sale apply accordingly with such necessary modifications as may be made by rules under that Act.

Right of recovery of distributions

84.—(1) A partner or former partner of a limited liability partnership who receives a distribution from the limited liability partnership —

- (a) when the limited liability partnership is insolvent and knew or ought to have known at the time of the distribution that the limited liability partnership was insolvent; or
- (b) which results in the limited liability partnership becoming insolvent and knew or ought to have known at the time of distribution that the limited liability partnership would become insolvent as a result of the distribution, shall be personally liable to the limited liability partnership for the amount or value of the distribution if it was received within a period of 3 years before the commencement of the winding up of the limited liability partnership.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph —

- (a) a limited liability partnership is insolvent at a particular time if at that time —
 - (i) it is unable to pay its debts as they become due in the normal course of business; or
 - (ii) the value of the limited liability partnership's assets is less than the value of its liabilities;
- (b) distribution means any payment of dividends, distribution of profits, return or refund of capital by the limited liability partnership, whether in cash or in kind and any payment made by the limited liability partnership under section 11(3); and
- (c) a partner or former partner is deemed to have received a distribution if the distribution is received by an assignee of the partner or former partner.

(3) Where any partner or former partner has made a payment to discharge a liability under sub-paragraph (1), the amount of the payment constitutes a debt due from the limited liability partnership to such partner or former partner, and paragraph 47 applies to such debt but only after all the liabilities of the limited liability partnership (excluding the debts arising under this sub-paragraph) have been discharged and settled in full.

Liquidator's right to recover in respect of certain sales to or by limited liability partnership

85.—(1) Where any property, business or undertaking has been acquired by a limited liability partnership for a cash consideration within a period of 2 years before the commencement of the winding up of the limited liability partnership from —

- (a) a person who was at the time of the acquisition a manager of the limited liability partnership;
- (b) another limited liability partnership of which, at the time of the acquisition, a manager was also a manager of the firstmentioned limited liability partnership;
- (c) a corporation (other than a limited liability partnership) of which, at the time of the acquisition, a director was also a manager of the limited liability partnership; or
- (d) a firm of which, at the time of the acquisition, a partner was also a manager of the limited liability partnership,

the liquidator may recover from the person, limited liability partnership, corporation or firm from which the property, business or undertaking was acquired any amount by which the cash consideration for the acquisition exceeded the value of the property, business or undertaking at the time of its acquisition.

(2) Where any property, business or undertaking has been sold by a limited liability partnership for a cash consideration within a period of 2 years before the commencement of the winding up of the limited liability partnership —

- (a) to a person who was, at the time of the sale, a manager of the limited liability partnership;
- (b) to another limited liability partnership of which, at the time of the sale, a manager was also a manager of the firstmentioned limited liability partnership;
- (c) from a corporation (other than a limited liability partnership) of which, at the time of the sale, a director was also a manager of the limited liability partnership; or
- (d) from a firm of which, at the time of the sale, a partner was also a manager of the limited liability partnership,

the liquidator may recover from the person, limited liability partnership, corporation or firm to which the property, business or undertaking was sold any amount by which the value of the property, business or undertaking at the time of the sale exceeded the cash consideration.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph, the value of the property, business or undertaking includes the value of any goodwill or profits which might have been made from the business or undertaking or similar considerations.

(4) In this paragraph, “cash consideration”, in relation to an acquisition or sale by a limited liability partnership, means consideration for such acquisition or sale payable otherwise than as contribution of capital to the limited liability partnership.

Disclaimer of onerous property

86.—(1) Where any part of the property of a limited liability partnership consists of —

- (a) any estate or interest in land which is burdened with onerous covenants;
- (b) shares or interests in corporations;
- (c) unprofitable contracts; or
- (d) any other property that is unsaleable, or not readily saleable, by reason of its binding the possessor of the property to the performance of any onerous act, or to the payment of any sum of money, the liquidator of the limited liability partnership, even though he or she has endeavoured to sell or has taken possession of the property or exercised any act of ownership in relation to the property, may, with the permission of the Court or the committee of inspection and, subject to this paragraph, by writing signed by him or her, at any time within 12 months after the commencement of the winding up or such extended period as is allowed by the Court, disclaim the property; but where any such property has not come to the knowledge of the liquidator within one month after the commencement of the winding up, the power of disclaiming may be exercised at any time within 12 months after he or she has become aware of the property or such extended period as is allowed by the Court.

[Act 25 of 2021 wef 01/04/2021]

(2) The disclaimer operates to determine, as from the date of disclaimer, the rights, interest and liabilities of the limited liability partnership and the property of the limited liability partnership in or in respect of the property disclaimed, but does not, except so far as is necessary for the purpose of releasing the limited liability partnership and the property of the limited liability partnership from liability, affect the rights or liabilities of any other person.

(3) The Court or the committee before or on granting permission to disclaim may require such notices to be given to persons interested, and impose such terms as a condition of granting permission, and make such other order in the matter as the Court or committee thinks just.

[Act 25 of 2021 wef 01/04/2021]

(4) The liquidator is not entitled to disclaim if an application in writing has been made to him or her by any person interested in the property requiring him or her to decide whether he or she will or will not disclaim, and the liquidator has not, within a period of 28 days after the receipt of the application or such further period as is allowed by the Court or the committee, given notice to the applicant that he or she intends to apply to the Court or the committee for permission to disclaim, and, in the case of a contract, if the liquidator after such an application in writing does not within that period or further period disclaim the contract, he or she is deemed to have adopted it.

[Act 25 of 2021 wef 01/04/2021]

(5) The Court may, on the application of a person who is, as against the liquidator, entitled to the benefit or subject to the burden of a contract made with the limited liability partnership, make an order rescinding the contract on such terms as to payment by or to either party of damages for the non-performance of the contract, or otherwise as the Court thinks just, and any damages payable under the order to that person may be proved by the person as a debt in the winding up.

(6) The Court may —

- (a) on the application of a person who either claims any interest in any disclaimed property or is under any liability not discharged by this Act in respect of any disclaimed property; and
- (b) on hearing such persons as it thinks fit, make an order for the vesting of the property in or the delivery of the property to any person entitled to it, or to whom it seems just that the property should be delivered by way of compensation for such liability as mentioned in sub-paragraph (a), or a trustee for the person, and on such terms as the Court thinks just, and on any such vesting order being made and a copy of it and an office copy of it being lodged with the Registrar and the Official Receiver, respectively, and if the order relates to land with the appropriate authority concerned with the recording or registration of dealings in that land (as the case requires) the property comprised therein vests accordingly in the person named in the order in that behalf without any further conveyance, transfer or assignment.

(7) Despite anything in sub-paragraph (6), where the property disclaimed is of a leasehold nature, the Court is not to make a vesting order in favour of any person claiming under the limited liability partnership, whether as under-lessee or as mortgagee, except upon the terms of making that person —

- (a) subject to the same liabilities and obligations as those to which the limited liability partnership was subject under the lease in respect of the property at the commencement of the winding up; or
- (b) if the Court thinks fit, subject only to the same liabilities and obligations as if the lease had been assigned to that person at that date, and in either event, if the case so requires, as if the lease had comprised only the property comprised in the vesting order, and any under-lessee or mortgagee declining to accept a vesting order upon such terms is excluded from all interest in and security upon the property, and, if there is no person claiming under the limited liability partnership who is willing to accept an order upon such terms, the Court may vest the estate and interest of the limited liability partnership in the property in any person liable personally or in a representative character and either alone or jointly with the limited liability partnership to perform the lessee's covenants in the lease, freed and discharged from all estates, incumbrances and interests created by the limited liability partnership.

(8) Any person injured by the operation of a disclaimer under this paragraph is deemed to be a creditor of the limited liability partnership to the amount of the injury, and may accordingly prove the amount as a debt in the winding up.

Interpretation

87. In paragraphs 88 and 89 —

“goods” includes all chattels personal;

“bailiff” includes any officer charged with the execution of a writ or other process.

Restriction of rights of creditor as to enforcement or attachment

88.—(1) Where a creditor has obtained an enforcement order against the goods or land of a limited liability partnership or has attached any debt due to the limited liability partnership and the limited liability partnership is subsequently wound up, the creditor is not entitled to retain the benefit of the enforcement order or attachment against the liquidator unless the creditor has completed the enforcement order or attachment before the date of the commencement of the winding up, but —

(a) where any creditor has had notice of a meeting having been called at which a resolution for voluntary winding up is to be proposed, the date on which the creditor so had notice is for the purposes of this paragraph substituted for the date of the commencement of the winding up;

(b) a person who purchases in good faith under a sale by the bailiff any goods of a limited liability partnership on which an enforcement order has been executed in all cases acquires a good title to them against the liquidator; and

(c) the rights conferred by this sub-paragraph on the liquidator may be set aside by the Court in favour of the creditor to the extent and subject to the terms that the Court thinks fit.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph —

(a) an enforcement order against goods is completed by seizure and sale;

Duties of bailiff as to goods taken under or pursuant to enforcement order

89.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (3), where any goods of a limited liability partnership are taken under or pursuant to an enforcement order and, before the sale of the goods or the completion of the enforcement order by the receipt or recovery of the full amount of the levy, notice is served on the bailiff that —

- (a) a provisional liquidator has been appointed;
- (b) a winding up order has been made; or
- (c) a resolution for voluntary winding up has been passed, the bailiff must, on being so required, deliver the goods and any money seized or received in part satisfaction of the enforcement order to the liquidator, but the costs of the enforcement order are a first charge on the goods or moneys so delivered, and the liquidator may sell the goods, or a sufficient part of the goods, for the purpose of satisfying that charge.

(2) Subject to sub-paragraph (3), where under an enforcement order in respect of a judgment for a sum exceeding $100 the goods of a limited liability partnership are sold or money is paid in order to avoid sale, the bailiff must deduct the costs of the enforcement order from the proceeds of the sale or the money paid and retain the balance of 14 days; and if within that time notice is served on the bailiff of an application for the winding up of the limited liability partnership having been made or of a meeting having been called at which there is to be proposed a resolution for the voluntary winding up and an order is made or a resolution is passed for the winding up, the bailiff must pay the balance to the liquidator who is entitled to retain it as against the enforcement creditor.

(3) The rights conferred by this paragraph on the liquidator may be set aside by the Court in favour of the creditor to the extent and subject to the terms that the Court thinks fit.

Liability where proper accounts not kept

93.—(1) If, on an investigation under this Act or where a limited liability partnership is wound up, it is shown that proper books of account were not kept by the limited liability partnership throughout the period of 2 years immediately preceding the commencement of the investigation or winding up or the period between the registration of the limited liability partnership and the commencement of the investigation or winding up (whichever is the lesser), every officer who is in default shall, unless he or she acted honestly and shows that, in the circumstances in which the business of the limited liability partnership was carried on, the default was excusable, be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph, proper books of account are deemed not to have been kept in the case of any limited liability partnership if —

(3) If, in the course of the winding up of a limited liability partnership or in any proceedings against a limited liability partnership, it appears that an officer of the limited liability partnership who was knowingly a party to the contracting of a debt had, at the time the debt was contracted, no reasonable or probable ground of expectation, after taking into consideration the other liabilities (if any) of the limited liability partnership at the time of the limited liability partnership being able to pay the debt, the officer shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months.

Responsibility for fraudulent trading

94.—(1) If, in the course of the winding up of a limited liability partnership or in any proceedings against a limited liability partnership, it appears that any business of the limited liability partnership has been carried on with intent to defraud creditors of the limited liability partnership or creditors of any other person or for any fraudulent purpose, the Court, on the application of the liquidator or any creditor or partner of the limited liability partnership, may, if it thinks proper to do so, declare that any person who was knowingly a party to the carrying on of the business in that manner is personally responsible, without any limitation of liability, for all or any of the debts or other liabilities of the limited liability partnership as the Court directs.

(2) Where a person has been convicted of an offence under paragraph 93(3) in relation to the contracting of such a debt as is mentioned in that sub-paragraph, the Court, on the application of the liquidator or any creditor or partner of the limited liability partnership, may, if it thinks proper to do so, declare that the person is personally responsible without any limitation of liability for the payment of the whole or any part of that debt.

(3) Where the Court makes any declaration pursuant to sub-paragraph (1) or (2), it may give any further directions that it thinks proper for the purpose of giving effect to that declaration, and in particular may —

(A) P;

(B) any corporation or other person on P's behalf;

(C) any person claiming as assignee from or through P; or

(D) any corporation or other person acting on P's behalf; and

(b) may from time to time make any further order that is necessary for the purpose of enforcing any charge imposed under this sub-paragraph.

(4) In sub-paragraph (3), “assignee” includes any person to whom or in whose favour by the directions of the person liable the debt, obligation or charge was created, issued or transferred or the interest created, but does not include an assignee for valuable consideration (not including consideration by way of marriage) given in good faith and without notice of any of the matters on the ground of which the declaration is made.

(5) Where any business of a limited liability partnership is carried on with the intent or for the purpose mentioned in sub-paragraph (1), every person who was knowingly a party to the carrying on of the business with that intent or purpose shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $15,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 7 years or to both.

(6) Sub-paragraph (5) applies to a limited liability partnership whether or not it has been, or is in the course of being, wound up.

(8) On the hearing of an application under sub-paragraph (1) or (2), the liquidator may himself or herself give evidence or call witnesses.

Power of Court to assess damages against delinquent officers, etc.

95.—(1) If, in the course of winding up a limited liability partnership, it appears that any person who has taken part in the formation or registration of the limited liability partnership or any past or present liquidator or officer has misapplied or retained or become liable or accountable for any money or property of the limited liability partnership or been guilty of any misfeasance or breach of trust or duty in relation to the limited liability partnership, the Court may, on the application of the liquidator or of any creditor or partner, examine into the conduct of such person, liquidator or officer and compel the person, liquidator or officer to repay or restore the money or property or any part thereof with interest at such rate as the Court thinks just, or to contribute such sum to the assets of the limited liability partnership by way of compensation in respect of the misapplication, retainer, misfeasance or breach of trust or duty as the Court thinks just.

(2) This paragraph extends and applies to and in respect of the receipt of any money or property by any officer of the limited liability partnership during the 2 years preceding the commencement of the winding up whether by way of salary or otherwise appearing to the Court to be unfair or unjust to other partners of the limited liability partnership.

(3) This paragraph has effect even though the offence is one for which the offender is criminally liable.

Prosecution of delinquent officers and partners of limited liability partnership

96.—(1) If it appears to the Court, in the course of a winding up by the Court, that any past or present officer, or any partner, of the limited liability partnership has been guilty of an offence in relation to the limited liability partnership for which the officer or partner is criminally liable, the Court may, either on the application of any person interested in the winding up or of its own motion, direct the liquidator to prosecute the offender or to refer the matter to the Minister.

(2) If it appears to the liquidator, in the course of a voluntary winding up, that any past or present officer, or any partner, of the limited liability partnership has been guilty of any offence in relation to the limited liability partnership for which the officer or partner is criminally liable, the liquidator must immediately report the matter to the Minister and must, in respect of information or documents in his or her possession or under his or her control which relate to the matter in question, provide the Minister with any information and give to the Minister any access to and facilities for inspecting and taking copies of any document that the Minister may require.

(3) If it appears to the liquidator, in the course of any winding up, that the limited liability partnership which is being wound up will be unable to pay its unsecured creditors more than 50 cents in the dollar, the liquidator must immediately report the matter in writing to the Official Receiver and must provide the Official Receiver with any information and give to the Official Receiver any access to and facilities for inspecting and taking copies of any document that the Official Receiver may require.

(4) Where any report is made under sub-paragraph (2) or (3), the Minister may, if he or she thinks fit, investigate the matter and for the purposes of such an investigation has all the powers of investigating the affairs of the limited liability partnership that are provided by this Act in the case of a winding up by the Court, but if it appears to the Minister that the case is not one in which proceedings ought to be taken by the Minister, he or she must inform the liquidator accordingly, and subject to the previous approval of the Court the liquidator may then take proceedings against the offender.

(5) If it appears to the Court, in the course of a voluntary winding up, that any past or present officer, or any partner, of the limited liability partnership has been guilty as aforesaid and that no report with respect to the matter has been made by the liquidator to the Minister, the Court may, on the application of any person interested in the winding up or of its own motion, direct the liquidator to make such a report, and on a report being made accordingly this paragraph has effect as though the report has been made pursuant to sub-paragraph (2).

(6) If, where any matter is reported or referred to the Minister or the Official Receiver under this paragraph, and the Minister or Official Receiver considers that the case is one in which a prosecution ought to be instituted, the Minister or Official Receiver may institute proceedings accordingly, and the liquidator and every officer and agent of the limited liability partnership past and present, other than the defendant in the proceedings, must give the Minister or Official Receiver all assistance in connection with the prosecution which they are reasonably able to give.

(7) In sub-paragraph (6), “agent”, in relation to a limited liability partnership, includes any banker or solicitor of the limited liability partnership and any person employed by the limited liability partnership as auditor, whether or not an officer of the limited liability partnership.

(8) If any person fails or neglects to give assistance in the manner required by sub-paragraph (6), the Court may, on the application of the Minister or Official Receiver, direct that person to comply with the requirements of that sub-paragraph, and where any application is made under this sub-paragraph with respect to a liquidator the Court may, unless it appears that the failure or neglect to comply was due to the liquidator not having in his or her hands sufficient assets of the limited liability partnership to enable him or her to do so, direct that the costs of the application must be borne by the liquidator personally.

(9) The Minister may direct that the whole or any part of any costs and expenses properly incurred by the liquidator in proceedings brought under this paragraph must be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.

(10) Subject to any direction given under sub-paragraph (9) and to any charges on the assets of the limited liability partnership and any debts to which priority is given by this Act, all costs and expenses under that sub-paragraph must be payable out of those assets as part of the costs of winding up.

*Division 5 — DissolutionPower of Court to declare dissolution of limited liability partnership void

97.—(1) Where a limited liability partnership has been dissolved, the Court may at any time within 2 years after the date of dissolution, on application of the liquidator of the limited liability partnership or of any other person who appears to the Court to be interested, make an order upon such terms as the Court thinks fit declaring the dissolution to have been void, and such proceedings may then be taken as might have been taken if the limited liability partnership had not been dissolved.

(2) The person on whose application the order must, within 7 days after the making of the order or such further time as the Court allows, lodge with the Registrar and with the Official Receiver a copy of the order and an office copy of the order, respectively, and if the person fails to do so shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

Official Receiver to act as representative of defunct limited liability partnership in certain events

98.—(1) Where, after a limited liability partnership has been dissolved, it is proved to the satisfaction of the Official Receiver that —

- (a) the limited liability partnership, if still existing, would be legally or equitably bound to carry out, complete or give effect to some dealing, transaction or matter; and
- (b) in order to carry out, complete or give effect thereto, some purely administrative act, not discretionary, should have been done by or on behalf of the limited liability partnership, or should be done by or on behalf of the limited liability partnership, if still existing,

the Official Receiver may, as representing the limited liability partnership or its liquidator under this paragraph, do or cause to be done any such act.

(2) The Official Receiver may execute or sign any relevant instrument or document adding a memorandum stating that he or she has done so pursuant to this paragraph, and such execution or signature has the same force, validity and effect as if the limited liability partnership if existing had duly executed the instrument or document.

Outstanding assets of defunct limited liability partnership to vest in Official Receiver

99.—(1) Where, after a limited liability partnership has been dissolved, there remains any outstanding property, movable or immovable, including things in action and whether in or outside Singapore, which was vested in the limited liability partnership or to which it was entitled, or over which it had a disposing power at the time it was so dissolved, but which was not got in, realised upon or otherwise disposed of or dealt with by the limited liability partnership or its liquidator, such property must, for the purposes of the following paragraphs of this Division and despite any written law or rule of law to the contrary, by the operation of this paragraph, be and become vested in the Official Receiver for all the estate and interest therein legal or equitable of the limited liability partnership or its liquidator at the date the limited liability partnership was dissolved, together with all claims, rights and remedies which the limited liability partnership or its liquidator then had in respect thereof.

(2) Where any claim, right or remedy of the liquidator may under this Act be made, exercised or availed of only with the approval or concurrence of the Court or some other person, the Official Receiver may for the purposes of this paragraph make, exercise or avail himself or herself of that claim, right or remedy without such approval or concurrence.

Disposal of outstanding interests in property

100.—(1) Upon proof to the satisfaction of the Official Receiver that there is vested in him or her by operation of paragraph 99 or by operation of any corresponding previous written law any estate or interest in property, whether solely or together with any other person, of a beneficial nature and not merely held in trust, the Official Receiver may sell or otherwise dispose of or deal with such estate or interest or any part thereof as he or she sees fit.

(2) The Official Receiver may sell or otherwise dispose of or deal with such property either solely or in concurrence with any other person in such manner for such consideration by public auction, public tender or private contract upon such terms and conditions as he or she thinks fit, with power to rescind any contract and resell or otherwise dispose of or deal with such property as he or she thinks expedient, and may make, execute, sign and give such contracts, instruments and documents as he or she thinks necessary.

(3) The Official Receiver must be remunerated by such commission, whether by way of percentage or otherwise, as is prescribed in respect of the exercise of the powers conferred upon him or her by sub-paragraph (1).

(4) The moneys received by the Official Receiver in the exercise of any of the powers conferred on him or her by this Division must be applied in defraying all costs, expenses, commission and fees incidental thereto and thereafter to any payment authorised by this Division and the surplus (if any) must be dealt with as if they were unclaimed moneys paid to the Official Receiver pursuant to paragraph 69.

Liability of Official Receiver and Government as to property vested in Official Receiver

101. Property vested in the Official Receiver by operation of this Division or by operation of any corresponding previous written law is liable and subject to all charges, claims and liabilities imposed on or affecting such property by reason of any statutory provision as to rates, taxes, charges or any other matter or thing to which such property would have been liable or subject had the property continued in the possession, ownership or occupation of the limited liability partnership; but no duty, obligation or liability is to be imposed on the Official Receiver or the Government to do or suffer any act or thing required by any such statutory provision to be done or suffered by the owner or occupier other than the satisfaction or payment of any such charges, claims or liabilities out of the assets of the limited liability partnership so far as they are in the opinion of the Official Receiver properly available for and applicable to such payment.

Accounts and audit

102.—(1) The Official Receiver must —

- (a) record in a register a statement of any property coming to his or her hand or under his or her control or to his or her knowledge vested in him or her by operation of this Division and of his or her dealings with the property;

- (c) keep all accounts, vouchers, receipts and papers relating to such property and moneys.

(2) The Auditor-General has all the powers in respect of such accounts as are conferred upon him or her by any Act relating to audits of public accounts.
