RULES OF LAW RELATING TO LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS

Constitution of limited partnership

3.—(1) From 4 May 2009, limited partnerships may be formed in accordance with and subject to the conditions of this Act.

(2) A limited partnership must consist of —

(a) one or more general partners; and

(b) one or more limited partners.

(3) A general partner is liable for all debts and obligations of the limited partnership incurred while he, she or it is a general partner in the limited partnership.

(4) Subject to sections 6(2) and 10, a limited partner is not liable for the debts or obligations of the limited partnership beyond the amount of the limited partner’s agreed contribution, solely by reason of the limited partner being a limited partner of the limited partnership.

(5) An individual or a corporation may be a general partner or a limited partner.

Law as to private partnerships to apply unless excluded by this Act

4.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Partnership Act 1890 and the rules of equity and of common law applicable to partnerships (except so far as they are inconsistent with the express provisions of the Partnership Act 1890) apply to limited partnerships.

(2) In subsection (1), the reference to partnerships does not include limited liability partnerships.

Default rules on relationship of partners

5. Subject to any agreement, expressed or implied, between the partners —

- (a) any difference arising as to ordinary matters connected with the partnership business may be decided by a majority of the general partners; and
- (b) a person may become a partner without the consent of the existing limited partners.

Limited partner not to take part in management of limited partnership

6.—(1) Subject to subsections (2), (3) and (4), a limited partner must not take part in the management of the limited partnership, and does not have power to bind the limited partnership.

(2) If a limited partner takes part in the management of the limited partnership, the limited partner is liable for all debts and obligations of the limited partnership incurred while so taking part in the management as though the limited partner were a general partner.

(3) A limited partner is not to be regarded as taking part in the management of the limited partnership for the purposes of this section solely by reason of the limited partner acting or attempting to act in one or more of the capacities specified in the First Schedule.

- (4) To avoid doubt, the enumeration of acts in the First Schedule —
- (a) is not exhaustive; and
 - (b) does not create rights or powers of limited partners.

Distributions to limited partner

7.—(1) Subject to the partnership agreement, a limited partner may during the continuance of the partnership, with the approval of the general partners —

- (a) increase or reduce the amount of the limited partner's agreed contribution; and
- (b) draw out or receive back the limited partner's contributions, or any part of the contributions.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the limited partner is liable to refund as partnership property of the firm any distribution of capital or profits of the firm made to the limited partner if —

- (a) every general partner at the time of the distribution (called in this subsection every partner) was insolvent at the time of the distribution or became insolvent as a result of the distribution;
- (b) the limited partner knew or ought to have known at the time of the distribution that every partner was insolvent or would become insolvent as a result of the distribution; and
- (c) every partner is adjudicated bankrupt or is ordered to be wound up within one year after the date of the distribution.

(3) Despite subsection (1), an agreement to reduce the amount of the agreed contribution of a limited partner is of no effect if —

- (a) every general partner at the time of the agreement (called in this subsection every partner) was insolvent at the time of the agreement or became insolvent as a result of the agreement;
- (b) the limited partner knew or ought to have known at the time of the agreement that every partner was insolvent or would become insolvent as a result of the agreement; and
- (c) every partner is adjudicated bankrupt or is ordered to be wound up within one year after the date of the agreement.

Dissolution of limited partnership

8.—(1) Despite section 32 of the Partnership Act 1890, a limited partner is not entitled to dissolve the partnership by notice.

(2) Despite section 33(1) of the Partnership Act 1890, a limited partnership is not dissolved by the death, dissolution, bankruptcy or liquidation of a limited partner.

(3) Despite section 33(2) of the Partnership Act 1890, the other partners are not entitled to dissolve the partnership by reason of any limited partner suffering the partner's share of the partnership property to be charged for the partner's separate debt.

(4) Subsections (1), (2) and (3) apply subject to any agreement expressed or implied between the partners of a limited partnership.

(5) The mental incapacity of a limited partner is not a ground for dissolution of the partnership by the court under section 35 of the Partnership Act 1890 unless the mentally incapacitated person's share cannot be otherwise ascertained and realised.

(6) In the event of the dissolution of a limited partnership, its affairs must be wound up by the general partners unless the court otherwise orders.

(4) The Authority may give to the Registrar directions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as to the exercise of his or her powers, functions or duties under this Act, and the Registrar must give effect to those directions.

(5) The Registrar may, subject to any conditions or restrictions that he or she thinks fit, for the purposes of the administration of this Act, delegate to any Deputy Registrar, Assistant Registrar or officer of the Authority all or any of the powers, functions and duties vested in the Registrar by this Act except —

- (a) the power of delegation conferred by this subsection; and
- (b) the power to make regulations under this Act.

Effect of registration

10.—(1) A limited partner of a firm is deemed to be a general partner of the firm unless the limited partner is registered as a limited partner of the firm in accordance with this Act.

(2) A limited partnership is deemed to be a general partnership unless one or more persons are registered as limited partners of the firm in accordance with this Act.

(3) Subject to subsections (5) and (6) and section 36(3) of the Partnership Act 1890, where a person (P) deals with a firm after it becomes a limited partnership, P is entitled to treat —

- (b) any person who was a general partner of the firm as a general partner of the limited partnership until P has notice of the registration of that person as a limited partner of the limited partnership.

(4) Subject to subsection (6) and section 36(3) of the Partnership Act 1890, where a person deals with a limited partnership after a general partner of the limited partnership becomes a limited partner of the limited partnership, the person is entitled to treat that partner as a general partner of the limited partnership until the person has notice of the registration of that partner as a limited partner of the limited partnership.

(5) Registration of a firm as a limited partnership under this Act is notice of such registration to persons who, before the date of the registration, had no dealings with the firm.

(6) Registration of a person as a limited partner of a limited partnership under this Act is notice of such registration to persons who, before the date of the registration, had no dealings with the limited partnership or the firm which subsequently became the limited partnership.

Manner and particulars of registration

11.—(1) A limited partnership may be registered under this Act if a general partner of the limited partnership lodges with the Registrar, in such medium and in such form as the Registrar may determine, a statement containing the following particulars:

[35/2014]

(2) The statement mentioned in subsection (1) must be accompanied by —

- (a) a declaration by the general partner lodging the statement that each partner of the limited partnership has consented to be registered as a general or limited partner (as the case may be) of the limited partnership; and
- (b) a declaration by each general partner of the limited partnership that the general partner has consented to be registered as a general partner of the limited partnership.

- (3) Where a general partner of a limited partnership —
- (a) carries on a business wholly or mainly as nominee or trustee of or for another person, or other persons; or
 - (b) acts as agent for any foreign firm for the general purposes of the business of that foreign firm in Singapore, the general partner must, in addition to the particulars required under subsection (1), provide the particulars mentioned in the Second Schedule to the Registrar.

(4) The Registrar may, in any particular case, require the statements, declarations or particulars referred to in subsection (1), (2) or (3) to be verified in any manner that the Registrar considers fit.

(5) The General Division of the High Court may, on the application of any person alleged or claiming to be a partner, direct the rectification of the register and decide any question arising under this section.

[40/2019]

Registration

12.—(1) On receiving the statement mentioned in section 11, the Registrar must, subject to the provisions of this Act and on payment of the prescribed fee, cause that statement to be entered in the register.

(2) The Registrar must, upon the registration of a limited partnership in accordance with subsection (1), issue to the applicant a notice of registration in such form as the Registrar may determine.

(3) The Registrar may, on receipt of an application in the prescribed form and on payment of the prescribed fee, issue a certificate of confirmation of registration in such form as the Registrar may determine.

(4) Every registration under this Act is valid for such period as the Registrar may specify and is, subject to the provisions of this Act and on payment of the prescribed fee, renewable for such period as the Registrar may approve.

(5) On receiving an application for the renewal of registration, the Registrar may require additional particulars or other information and may refuse to renew the registration if he or she is not provided with those particulars or the information.

(6) Nothing in this section requires the Registrar to register any limited partnership if he or she is not satisfied with the particulars or other information provided under this Act.

(7) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the Registrar to register a limited partnership of which the person is to be a partner may, within 30 days of the date of the refusal, appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

(8) The registration of any limited partnership does not imply that the requirements of any law in relation to any business carried on by that limited partnership have been complied with.

Power to refuse registration

13.—(1) Despite any provision in this Act or any other written law, the Registrar must refuse to register a limited partnership under this Act where the Registrar is satisfied that —

- (a) the proposed business is likely to be used for an unlawful purpose or for purposes prejudicial to public peace, welfare or good order in Singapore; or
- (b) it would be contrary to the national security or interest for the limited partnership to be registered.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar under subsection (1) may, within 30 days of the date of the decision, appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

Power to cancel registration

14.—(1) The Registrar may cancel the registration of a limited partnership if —

- (a) the Registrar is satisfied that the business of the limited partnership is being used or is intended to be used for an unlawful purpose or for purposes prejudicial to public peace, welfare or good order in Singapore, or that it would be contrary to the national security or interest for the limited partnership to continue to be registered under this Act; or

- (b) in connection with the business of the limited partnership, any general partner has been convicted of an offence under the Charities Act 1994.

(2) The Registrar must, before cancelling any registration under subsection (1), give written notice of his or her intention to cancel the registration at the expiry of such period, not being less than 30 days, as is specified in the notice.

(3) Any notice under this section may be addressed to the limited partnership and sent by post to the registered principal place of business of the limited partnership or any other place where the business is carried on.

(4) Any person aggrieved by the cancellation under subsection (1) may, within 30 days of the date of the cancellation, appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

Supplemental provision to sections 13 and 14

15.—(1) For the purposes of sections 13 and 14, a certificate issued by the Minister charged with the responsibility for internal security stating that he or she is satisfied that it would be contrary to the national security or interest for the limited partnership to be registered under this Act is conclusive evidence of the matters so stated.

(2) Section 14(2) does not apply in a case where the Registrar cancels the registration of a limited partnership under section 14(1)(a) pursuant to a certificate mentioned in subsection (1).

Name of limited partnership

16.—(1) The name of every limited partnership must contain the words “limited partnership” or the acronym “LP”.

(2) A person registered as a general partner of a limited partnership must not carry on the business of the limited partnership under a name that is not registered under section 12 or 18(1).

(3) The registration of the name of a limited partnership is not to be construed as authorising the use of that name if, apart from the registration, the use of that name could be prohibited.

(4) Every general partner of a limited partnership who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

Reservation of limited partnership names

17.—(1) A person may, by lodging an application with the Registrar, apply for the reservation of a name set out in the application as —

- (a) the name of a proposed limited partnership; or
- (b) the name to which a limited partnership proposes to change its name.

[35/2014]

(2) The Registrar may approve an application made under subsection (1) only if the Registrar is satisfied that —

- (a) the application is made in good faith; and
- (b) the name to be reserved is one in respect of which a limited partnership may be registered having regard to section 17A(1), (2) and (3).

[35/2014]

(3) The Registrar must refuse to approve an application to reserve a name under subsection (1) as the name of a proposed limited partnership if the Registrar is satisfied that —

- (a) the name is for a limited partnership that is likely to be used for an unlawful purpose or for purposes prejudicial to public peace, welfare or good order in Singapore; or
- (b) it would be contrary to the national security or interest for the limited partnership to be registered.

[35/2014]

(4) Where an application for a reservation of a name is made under subsection (1), the Registrar must reserve the proposed name of the proposed limited partnership or limited partnership for a period starting at the time the Registrar receives the application and ending —

- (a) if the Registrar approves the application, 60 days after the date on which the Registrar notifies the applicant that the application has been approved, or such further period of 60 days as the Registrar may, on application made in good faith, extend; or
- (b) if the Registrar refuses to approve the application, on the date on which the Registrar notifies the applicant of the refusal.

[35/2014]

(5) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Registrar —

- (a) refusing to approve an application under subsection (1); or
- (b) refusing an application under subsection (4)(a) to extend the reservation period, may, within 30 days after being informed of the Registrar's decision, appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

[35/2014]

Restrictions on registration of limited partnership names

17A.—(1) Except with the consent of the Minister or as provided in subsection (3), the Registrar must refuse to register a limited partnership under this Act under a name, or to approve a change of name of a limited partnership under section 17B to a name, which, in the opinion of the Registrar —

- (a) is undesirable;
- (b) is identical to the name of any other limited partnership, a limited liability partnership or a corporation, or to a registered business name;
- (c) is identical to a name that is reserved under section 17, section 16 of the Business Names Registration Act 2014, section 23(4) of the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2005 or section 27(12B), section 27(12B) as applied by section 357(2), or section 378(15) of the Companies Act 1967; or

- (d) is a name of a kind that the Minister has directed the Registrar, by notification in the Gazette, not to accept for registration.

(2) In addition to subsection (1), the Registrar must on or after 3 January 2016, except with the consent of the Minister, refuse to register a limited partnership under a name, or allow a limited partnership to change its name to a name, if —

- (a) it is identical to the name of a limited partnership that was cancelled or dissolved —
- (i) unless, in a case where the registration of the limited partnership was cancelled under section 14(1) or 19(4), a period of at least one year has passed after the date of cancellation; or
 - (ii) unless, in a case where notice was lodged with the Registrar that the limited partnership was dissolved under section 19(2), a period of at least one year has passed after the date of dissolution;
- (b) it is identical to the business name of a person whose registration and registration of that business name has been cancelled under the Business Names Registration Act 2014 or whose business has ceased under section 22 of that Act, unless a period of at least one year has passed after the date of cancellation or cessation;
- (c) it is identical to the name of a company that was dissolved —
- (i) unless, in a case where the company was dissolved following its winding up under Part 8 of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018, a period of at least 2 years has passed after the date of dissolution; or
 - (ii) unless, in a case where the company was dissolved following its name being struck off the register kept under the Companies Act 1967 under section 344 or 344A of that Act, a period of at least 6 years has passed after the date of dissolution;

- (d) it is identical to the name of a foreign company notice of the dissolution of which has been given to the Registrar of Companies under section 377(2) of the Companies Act 1967, unless a period of at least 2 years has passed after the date of dissolution; or
- (e) it is identical to the name of a limited liability partnership that was dissolved —
 - (i) unless, in a case where the limited liability partnership was dissolved following its winding up under section 39 of, and the Fifth Schedule to, the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2005, a period of at least 2 years has passed after the date of dissolution; or
 - (ii) unless, in a case where the limited liability partnership was dissolved following its name being struck off the register under section 63 of the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2005, a period of at least 6 years has passed after the date of dissolution.

(3) Despite subsection (1), the Registrar may, on or after 3 January 2016, register a limited partnership under —

- (a) a name that is identical to the name of a foreign company registered under Division 2 of Part 11 of the Companies Act 1967 —
 - (i) in respect of which notice was lodged under section 377(1) of the Companies Act 1967 that the foreign company has ceased to have a place of business in Singapore or ceased to carry on business in Singapore, if a period of at least 3 months has passed after the date of cessation; and
 - (ii) the name of which was struck off the register kept under the Companies Act 1967 under section 377(8), (9) or (10) of that Act, if a period of at least 6 years has passed after the date the name was so struck off; or

- (b) a name that is identical to the name of a limited partnership in respect of which notice was lodged under section 19(1) that the limited partnership has ceased to carry on business, if a period of at least one year has passed after the date of cessation.

[35/2014]

(4) Despite this section and section 17B, where the Registrar is satisfied that a limited partnership's name —

- (a) is one that is not permitted to be registered under subsection (1)(a), (b) or (d);
- (b) is one that is not permitted to be registered under subsection (2) until the expiry of the relevant period mentioned in that subsection;
- (c) is one that is permitted to be registered under subsection (3) only after the expiry of the relevant period mentioned in that subsection;
- (d) so nearly resembles the name of any other limited partnership, any limited liability partnership or corporation or any registered business name, as to be likely to be mistaken for it; or
- (e) is one the use of which has been restrained by an injunction granted under the Trade Marks Act 1998, the Registrar may direct any general partner of the limited partnership to change the limited partnership's name, and that person must comply with the direction within 6 weeks after the date of the direction or such longer period as the Registrar may allow in any case.

(5) The Registrar's power under subsection (4) to direct any general partner of a limited partnership to change its name applies regardless of —

- (a) whether the limited partnership's name was registered through inadvertence or otherwise; or

- (b) when the limited partnership was registered in respect of the name.

[35/2014]

(6) Any person may apply, in writing, to the Registrar to give a direction to any general partner of a limited partnership, on a ground referred to in subsection (4), to change the limited partnership's name.

[35/2014]

(7) The Registrar is not to consider any application under subsection (6) to give a direction to a person on the ground referred to in subsection (4)(d) unless the Registrar receives the application within 12 months after the date the limited partnership was registered in respect of the name, or the date the change of the limited partnership's name was approved under section 17B.

[35/2014]

(8) The Registrar may cancel the registration of a limited partnership if a general partner of the limited partnership fails to comply with a direction given under subsection (4).

[35/2014]

(9) A person aggrieved by —

- (a) a direction of the Registrar under subsection (4); or
(b) the Registrar's refusal to give a direction to a person under subsection (4) following an application under subsection (6), may, within 30 days after being informed of the Registrar's direction or refusal (as the case may be) appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.

[35/2014]

(10) To avoid doubt, where the Registrar makes a direction under subsection (4) or the Minister makes a decision on an appeal under subsection (9), the Registrar or the Minister (as the case may be) must accept as correct any decision of the General Division of the High Court to grant an injunction mentioned in subsection (4)(e).

[35/2014; 40/2019]

(11) In this section, "registered business name" has the meaning given by section 2(1) of the Business Names Registration Act 2014.

[35/2014]

Change of limited partnership name

17B.—(1) An application by a limited partnership to change the name under which it was registered is to be lodged with the Registrar.
[35/2014]

(2) On approving the application, the Registrar must issue to the limited partnership a notice of change of name stating the date of the change.
[35/2014]

(3) Any application for a change of a limited partnership name is subject to section 17A.
[35/2014]

Registration of change in particulars

18.—(1) A general partner of a limited partnership must lodge with the Registrar —

[35/2014]

(3) Any person who ceases to be a partner or local manager of a limited partnership may himself, herself or itself lodge with the Registrar the statement mentioned in subsection (1)(c) if the person has reasonable cause to believe that no general partner of the limited partnership will lodge the statement with the Registrar.

[35/2014]

(4) A partner (who is an individual) or a local manager who changes his or her residential address must lodge with the Registrar a notice of the new residential address within 14 days after the date of change.

[35/2014]

Duty of partners and managers to provide information to limited partnership

18A.—(1) A partner or local manager (as the case may be) must give every general partner of the limited partnership —

- (a) any information a general partner of a limited partnership needs to comply with section 18(1)(a) or (b) (as the case may be) as soon as practicable but not later than 14 days after his, her or its initial appointment as a partner or local manager unless the partner or local manager has previously given the information to every general partner of the limited partnership in writing; and

- (b) any information a general partner of a limited partnership needs to comply with section 18(1)(d) as soon as practicable but not later than 14 days after the date of change to the information referred to in that provision.

- (b) a local manager of a limited partnership must, if requested by a general partner of the limited partnership, give the general partner any information mentioned in section 11(1)(h), for the purpose of enabling the limited partnership to confirm its record of the information or reinstate its record of the information where the original record of the information has been destroyed or lost.

(3) The partner or local manager of a limited partnership mentioned in subsection (2) must provide the information to a general partner of the limited partnership as soon as practicable but not later than 14 days after receipt of a written request for the information from the general partner.

[35/2014]

(2) Any copy or extract given under subsection (1) which is certified to be a true copy or extract by the Registrar is, in any proceedings, admissible in evidence as of equal validity as the original document.

[35/2014]

(3) The Registrar is not required to issue under subsection (1) a copy of or an extract from a document forming part of the register where that document has been destroyed under section 24.

[35/2014]

Alternate address

18C.—(1) Despite section 18B, the Registrar must not disclose or make available for public inspection the particulars of a partner's or local manager's residential address that is lodged with the Registrar under this Act or transmitted to the Registrar by the Commissioner of National Registration under section 11 of the National Registration Act 1965 if the requirements of subsection (2) are satisfied.

[35/2014]

(2) The requirements mentioned in subsection (1) are that the partner or local manager maintains with the Registrar an alternate address that complies with all of the following conditions:

- (a) it is an address at which the partner or local manager can be located;
- (b) it is not a post office box number;
- (c) it is not the residential address of the partner or local manager;
- (d) it is located in the same jurisdiction as the partner's or local manager's residential address.

[35/2014]

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) —

- (a) an individual who wishes to maintain an alternate address must lodge an application with the Registrar;
- (b) an individual may not maintain more than one alternate address at any one time;

- (c) an individual who wishes to cease to maintain an alternate address must lodge a notice of withdrawal with the Registrar; and
- (d) an individual who wishes to change his or her alternate address must lodge a notice of change with the Registrar.

[35/2014]

(4) An application to maintain an alternate address, and the lodgment of a notice of withdrawal or change of an alternate address, are subject to the payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

[35/2014]

(5) Subsection (1) applies from the time at which the Registrar accepts an application to maintain an alternate address mentioned in subsection (3)(a).

[35/2014]

(6) A partner or local manager who maintains an alternate address under subsection (2) must ensure that he or she can be located at that alternate address.

[35/2014]

(7) A partner or local manager who fails to comply with subsection (6) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

[35/2014]

(8) Despite subsection (1), the Registrar may disclose and make available for public inspection the particulars of a partner's or local manager's residential address despite the maintenance of an alternate address under subsection (2) if —

- (a) communications sent by the Registrar under this Act, or by any officer of the Authority under any ACRA administered Act, to the partner or local manager at his or her alternate address and requiring a response within a specified period remain unanswered; or
- (b) there is evidence to show that service of any document under this Act or under any ACRA administered Act at the alternate address is not effective to bring it to the notice of the partner or local manager.

(9) Before proceeding under subsection (8), the Registrar must give notice to the partner or local manager affected —

- (a) stating the grounds on which the Registrar proposes to disclose and make available for public inspection the individual's residential address; and
- (b) specifying a period within which representations may be made before that is done.

[35/2014]

(10) The Registrar is to consider the representations received within the specified period.

[35/2014]

(11) Where the Registrar discloses and makes available for public inspection the particulars of a partner's or local manager's residential address, the Registrar must give notice of that fact to the partner or local manager.

[35/2014]

(12) A notice to a partner or local manager under subsection (9) or (11) is to be sent to him or her at his or her residential address unless it appears to the Registrar that service at that address may be ineffective to bring it to the notice of the partner or local manager, in which case it may be sent to any other last known address of the partner or local manager.

[35/2014]

(13) Where —

- (a) the Registrar discloses and makes available for public inspection the particulars of a partner's or local manager's residential address under subsection (8); or
- (b) a Registrar appointed under any other ACRA administered Act discloses and makes available for public inspection under that Act the particulars of a partner's or local manager's residential address under a provision of that Act equivalent to subsection (8), that partner or local manager is not, for a period of 3 years after the date on which the residential address is disclosed and made available for public inspection, allowed to maintain an alternate address under subsection (2).

[35/2014]

(14) Nothing in this section applies to any information lodged or deemed to be lodged with the Registrar before 3 January 2016 or prevents such information from being disclosed or from being made available for public inspection or access.

[35/2014]

(15) Nothing in this section prevents the residential address of an individual that is lodged with the Registrar under this Act, or is transmitted to the Registrar by the Commissioner of National Registration under section 11 of the National Registration Act 1965, from —

- (a) being used by the Registrar for the purposes of any communication with the individual;
- (b) being disclosed for the purposes of issuing any summons or other legal process against the individual for the purposes of this Act or any other written law;
- (c) being disclosed in compliance with the requirement of any court or the provisions of any written law;
- (d) being disclosed for the purpose of assisting any public officer or officer of any statutory board in the investigation or prosecution of any offence under any written law; or
- (e) being disclosed in such other circumstances as may be prescribed.

[35/2014]

(16) Any partner or local manager aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar under subsection (8) may, within 30 days after the date of receiving the notice under subsection (11), appeal to the General Division of the High Court which may confirm the decision or give any directions in the matter that seem proper or otherwise determine the matter.

[35/2014; 40/2019]

(17) For the purposes of this section —

- (a) “ACRA administered Act” means the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority Act 2004 and any of the written laws specified in the Second Schedule to that Act; and
- (b) a partner or a local manager can be located at an address if he or she may be physically found at the address after reasonable attempts have been made to find him or her at the address.

(3) Where the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that any limited partnership registered under this Act is not carrying on business or has been dissolved, the Registrar may send to the limited partnership and all the general partners a notice to the effect that if an answer showing cause to the contrary is not received within one month from the date of the notice, the registration of the limited partnership may be cancelled.

[35/2014]

(4) If the Registrar —

- (a) receives an answer from any general partner in respect of the limited partnership to the effect that the limited partnership is not carrying on business or has been dissolved; or

- (b) does not within one month after sending the notice mentioned in subsection (3) receive an answer showing cause to the contrary, the Registrar may cancel the registration of that limited partnership.

[35/2014]

(5) The Registrar must, by notification in the Gazette, publish such particulars as he or she thinks fit in respect of any limited partnership the registration of which has been cancelled under this section.

(6) Where the registration of a limited partnership is cancelled under this section, any certificate or notice pertaining to the registration of that limited partnership under this Act is deemed to be cancelled.

(4) The Registrar must not rectify or update the register if the Registrar receives a written objection under subsection (3) to the proposed rectification or updating by the date specified under subsection (2)(b), unless the Registrar is satisfied that the objection is frivolous or vexatious or has been withdrawn.

[35/2014]

(5) The Registrar may rectify or update the register if the Registrar does not receive a written objection under subsection (3) by the date specified under subsection (2)(b).

[35/2014]

(6) If any action or proceedings are commenced by any other party against the defaulter to enforce the rights of a party in respect of a contract mentioned in subsection (1), this section does not prevent the defaulter from enforcing in that action or proceedings, by way of counterclaim, set-off or otherwise, such rights as the defaulter may have against that party in respect of that contract.

(7) Without limiting the powers of the court to grant the relief mentioned in subsection (3), if any proceedings to enforce any contract are commenced by a defaulter in a District Court or Magistrate's Court, the District Court or Magistrate's Court may, as regards that contract, grant relief under this section.

(2) Any such order may provide that all the costs of and incidental to the application must be borne by that person or by any officer of the corporation who is responsible for the default if that person is a corporation.

(3) In this section, “foreign limited partnership” means a partnership formed, registered or incorporated outside Singapore in which the liability of some but not all of the partners is limited, and having such other features as may be prescribed by the Minister.

Registration under Business Names Registration Act 2014

42.—(1) The Business Names Registration Act 2014 does not apply to any person carrying on business in Singapore as a limited partnership registered under this Act, except during any period when the registration of the limited partnership is suspended under this section.

(2) If a limited partnership registered under this Act ceases to be a limited partnership because no person remains registered under this Act as a limited partner of the limited partnership, the registration of the limited partnership under this Act must be suspended.

(3) If, upon a suspension pursuant to subsection (2), any person who is registered as a general partner of the limited partnership under this Act would be required to be registered under the Business Names Registration Act 2014 to carry on business under the name of the resultant firm, then with effect from the date of suspension —

- (a) that person is deemed to be registered under the Business Names Registration Act 2014 as a person carrying on business under the name of the resultant firm; and

(4) If, while the registration of the limited partnership under this Act is suspended, there are any changes in the resultant firm that cause the firm to satisfy the requirements of section 3(2) (relating to the constitution of a limited partnership), any general partner of the limited partnership may register those changes under section 18, and upon such registration —

- (a) the registration of the persons carrying on business under the name of the resultant firm under the Business Names Registration Act 2014 ceases; and
- (b) the registration of a limited partnership under this Act is restored.

(5) If the name of the resultant firm does not comply with section 16(1) (Name of limited partnership), subsection (4)(a) and (b) does not operate in respect of the resultant firm unless and until a change in the name of the limited partnership has been registered under section 18 to comply with section 16(1).

(6) Upon the restoration of the registration of a limited partnership under subsection (4)(b), the Registrar must cause the particulars of the resultant firm as registered under the Business Names Registration Act 2014 immediately before the restoration, with the changes to the resultant firm registered pursuant to subsections (4) and (5), to be registered under this Act as the particulars of the limited partnership.

(7) This section applies subject to any modification that the Minister may prescribe.
