Applications for maintenance orders

3.—(1) Any person domiciled and resident in Singapore who is of or above 60 years of age and who is unable to maintain himself adequately (referred to in this section as the parent) may apply to the Tribunal for an order that one or more of his children pay him a monthly allowance or any other periodical payment or a lump sum for his maintenance.

(2) An approved person or organisation in whose care a parent resides may apply to the Tribunal for an order that one or more of his children pay the approved person or organisation a monthly allowance or any other periodical payment or a lump sum for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses of maintaining the parent.

(2A) Where any person wishes to make an application under this section, whether on his own behalf or on behalf of a parent, in respect of any claim for which no application had previously been made under this section, he shall, before making the application, refer the claim to the Commissioner for review under section 12(5).

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(3) Where the parent ceases to be in the care of the approved person or organisation, any part of the monthly allowance, other periodical payment or lump sum remaining, after deducting the reasonable costs and expenses of maintaining the parent, shall be held in trust for the parent.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a parent is unable to maintain himself if his total or expected income and other financial resources are inadequate to provide him with basic amenities and basic physical needs including (but not limited to) shelter, food, medical costs and clothing.

(5) Notwithstanding that a person is below the minimum age specified in subsection (1), this Act shall apply to that person if the Tribunal is satisfied that he is suffering from infirmity of mind or body which prevents him from maintaining or makes it difficult for him to maintain himself or that there is any other special reason.

(6) The President or a deputy President of the Tribunal may dismiss any application made under this section, if he is of the opinion that the application is frivolous or vexatious, or if the applicant has failed to comply with subsection (2A), and give the reasons for the dismissal.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(7) An applicant who is aggrieved by any decision made under subsection (6) may, within 14 days of the decision, appeal in writing to the Tribunal.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(8) The President or deputy President, as the case may be, who made the decision under subsection (6) that is under appeal shall not participate in the proceedings or determination of the appeal.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

Joinder of respondents

4. A respondent may serve notice in the prescribed form on other persons liable to maintain the applicant joining them as respondents in the action.

Maintenance orders

5.—(1) The Tribunal may make a maintenance order if it considers that it is just and equitable that the respondent should maintain the applicant and that —

- (a) the respondent is able to provide maintenance to the applicant after his own requirements and those of his spouse and his children have been supplied; and
- (b) the applicant is unable, in spite of efforts on his part, to maintain himself through work or from his property or from any other source.

(2) When ordering maintenance for the benefit of an applicant, the Tribunal shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case including (but not limited to) the following matters:

- (a) the financial needs of the applicant, taking into account reasonable expenses for housing and medical costs;
- (b) the income, earning capacity, property and other financial resources of the applicant and the manner in which an applicant has spent his savings or dissipated his financial resources;
- (c) any physical or mental disability of the applicant;
- (d) the income, earning capacity, property and other financial resources of the respondent;
- (e) the expenses incurred by the respondent in supporting his spouse or children;
- (f) the contributions and provisions, whether financial or otherwise, which the respondent has made for the maintenance of the applicant.

(2A) Without prejudice to the Tribunal's powers under the Act, the President or a deputy President of the Tribunal may, with the consent of the applicant and the respondent, make a maintenance order reflecting the terms of any agreement reached between the parties in respect of a claim, and such order shall be deemed to be a maintenance order made by the Tribunal under this Act and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(3) If the Tribunal is satisfied upon due proof that the applicant abandoned, abused or neglected the respondent, it may dismiss the application or may reduce the quantum of maintenance ordered by such amount as may be just.

(4) The onus of proving abandonment, abuse or neglect shall be on the respondent alleging it.

(5) Where there is more than one respondent, the Tribunal may apportion the maintenance among the various respondents in such manner as may be just.

(6) The Tribunal shall, before hearing an application under this section, refer the differences between the parties to a conciliation officer for mediation between the parties.

Power of Tribunal to order security for maintenance

6.—(1) A maintenance order may provide for the payment of a lump sum, or a monthly allowance or periodical payment for such period as the Tribunal may determine.

(2) The Tribunal may, in its discretion, when awarding maintenance, order the respondent to secure the whole or any part of it by vesting any property in trustees upon trust to pay the maintenance or part thereof out of the income from that property.

(3) The Tribunal may, in awarding maintenance, order the applicant to —

(a) deposit such minimum sum as the Tribunal may determine with a bank; or

(b) purchase an annuity with an insurer with such minimum sum.

(4) The Tribunal may, in awarding maintenance, give directions as to the manner or method of payment.

Duration of orders for maintenance

7.—(1) Except where an order for maintenance is expressed to be for any shorter period or where any such order has been rescinded, a maintenance order shall expire —

- (a) if the maintenance was unsecured, on the death of the applicant or the respondent, whichever is the earlier;
- (b) if the maintenance was secured, on the death of the applicant.

(2) Where a maintenance order was made against more than one respondent, the death of a respondent does not affect the liability of the others to continue paying maintenance to the applicant.

(3) The applicant may apply to the Tribunal to re-apportion the liability among the surviving respondents on the death of a respondent.

Power of Tribunal to vary orders for maintenance

8.—(1) The Tribunal may vary or rescind any subsisting order for maintenance, whether secured or unsecured, where it is satisfied that the order was based on any misrepresentation or mistake of fact or where there has been any material change in the circumstances of the applicant or respondents or where another person is joined as a respondent, or for other good cause shown to the satisfaction of the Tribunal.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(2) An application for variation of a maintenance order may be made by —

- (a) the applicant;
- (b) a respondent;
- (c) the Commissioner;
- (d) an approved person or organisation referred to in section 3(2); or
- (e) in respect of secured maintenance, the legal personal representatives of a respondent.

(3) Where a maintenance order was made against more than one respondent or another respondent is joined, the Tribunal may re-apportion in such manner as it considers just the maintenance upon an application to vary the maintenance order.

(4) The Tribunal may, before hearing an application under this section and where it considers it necessary or desirable to do so, refer the differences between the parties to a conciliation officer for mediation.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

Maintenance payable under order of Tribunal to be inalienable

9. Maintenance payable to any person under this Act shall not be assignable or transferable or liable to be attached, sequestered or levied upon for, or in respect of, any debt or claim whatsoever.

Enforcement of maintenance orders

10.—(1) Maintenance orders made under this Act shall be deemed to be orders made by a District Court and may be enforced in the same manner as maintenance orders for wives and children are enforced under the Women's Charter, and the provisions of that Act shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to enforcement of orders made under this Act.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the District Court may adopt such measures as it deems relevant or appropriate for the enforcement of maintenance orders made under this Act.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

Applications on behalf of incapacitated applicants on such terms and conditions as the Minister may determine.

(2) The Commissioner may make an application under this Act on behalf of an applicant of or above 60 years of age (whether or not the applicant is able to do so) or represent such applicant in any proceedings or appeal under this Act.

(3) The Commissioner may consult, or direct a Deputy Commissioner or an Assistant Commissioner or such other person as he thinks fit to consult, with the parents and children concerned in order to assist them to reach agreement by conciliation.

(4) Notwithstanding that a person is below the minimum age specified in subsection (2), the Commissioner may, in his discretion, make an application on his behalf or represent him if the Commissioner is satisfied that he is suffering from infirmity of mind or body which prevents him from maintaining or makes it difficult for him to maintain himself or if there is any other special reason.

(5) Where a claim of a parent has been referred to the Commissioner under section 3(2A), the Commissioner shall review the claim and may do all or any of the following:

- (a) refer the parent to any relevant Government or other agency for assistance;
- (b) refer the differences between the parent and his children for conciliation;
- (c) take such other measure as he thinks fit.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(6) If a claim has not been settled after referral to the relevant Government or other agency or for conciliation or any other measure taken under subsection (5), an application may be made to the Tribunal under section 3.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(7) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require any person to appear at any reasonable time and at any convenient place for the purposes of conciliation under subsection (5)(b), and any failure by the person to appear as required may be taken into consideration by the Tribunal when hearing and determining the relevant application for maintenance, in such manner as to the Tribunal seems proper.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(8) The Commissioner may generally do all such things as may be incidental to or consequential upon the discharge of his functions or the exercise of his powers under this Act.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

Establishment of Tribunal for the Maintenance of Parents

13.—(1) For the purposes of this Act, there shall be established a Tribunal for the Maintenance of Parents consisting of a President, up to 4 deputy Presidents, and such number of members, not being less than 2, as the Minister may think fit.

(2) The President, every deputy President and every member of the Tribunal shall be appointed by the Minister and upon appointment the names of the President, every deputy President and every member of the Tribunal shall be published in the Gazette.

(4) Three members of the Tribunal, of whom the President or a deputy President shall be one, shall form a quorum, and the opinion of the majority of the Tribunal present shall be decisive upon any matter, except that in the case of an equality the President or a deputy President shall decide which opinion shall prevail.

(5) The President, every deputy President and every member of the Tribunal shall hold office for a period of 3 years or for such shorter period as the Minister may determine and shall be eligible for reappointment.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(6) The President, a deputy President or a member of the Tribunal shall vacate his office where —

(a) he resigns; or

(b) the Minister has revoked his appointment on the ground of his unfitness to continue in office or incapacity to perform the duties thereof.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(7) Where a person ceases to be the President, a deputy President or a member of the Tribunal, the Minister shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, take steps to fill the vacancy but the existence of any vacancy in the Tribunal shall not invalidate the acts of the Tribunal.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(8) If the President, a deputy President or any member of the Tribunal is for the time being unable to perform the duties of his office, either generally or in relation to any particular proceedings, the Minister may appoint some other person to discharge the duties of the President, a deputy President or that member for any period, not exceeding 6 months at one time, or, as the case may be, in relation to those proceedings; and a person so appointed shall, during that period or in relation to those proceedings, have the same powers as the person in whose place he is appointed.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(9) The President, every deputy President and every member of the Tribunal shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Penal Code [Cap. 224] and the proceedings of the Tribunal shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings.

(10) There shall be paid to the President, every deputy President and the members of the Tribunal such salaries, fees and allowances as the Minister may determine.

[37/2010 wef 15/03/2011]

(11) The Minister may appoint a Secretary to the Tribunal, conciliation officers and such other officers and employees of the Tribunal as may be necessary.

(12) The exercise of the powers of the Tribunal shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the Tribunal if a quorum is present at the commencement of the proceedings.

Tribunal to hear and determine claims

14.—(1) The Tribunal shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine in accordance with this Act all applications made under this Act.

(2) Sittings of the Tribunal shall be held at such places and times as the President of the Tribunal may determine.

(3) Any interested party may be represented before the Tribunal —

(8) Every person examined as a witness by or before the Tribunal, whether on oath or otherwise, shall be legally bound to state the truth and to produce such records, documents or articles as the Tribunal may require.

(9) The Tribunal shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence and shall determine the conduct of its proceedings.

Information required by Tribunal or Commissioner

14A.—(1) The Tribunal or the Commissioner may, in discharging its or his functions under this Act, obtain any information, record, document or article from any officer of such Government agency or statutory body as the Minister may from time to time prescribe by notification in the Gazette, as the Tribunal or the Commissioner, as the case may be, may consider necessary or desirable for the purposes set out in subsection (2).

(2) Any information, record, document or article obtained under subsection (1) may be used by the Tribunal or the Commissioner, as the case may be, for any of the following purposes:

Power of Tribunal to state special case for decision of High Court

16.—(1) The Tribunal may, at any stage of any application or proceeding before it, reserve for the consideration of the High Court any question of law arising in the application or proceeding in the form of a special case which shall be —

High Court may call for proceedings of Tribunal

17.—(1) The High Court, either on its own motion or on the application within 14 days of any party aggrieved by a decision of the Tribunal on the ground that it is wrong in law, may call for the proceedings and the grounds of the award and give such order thereon, either by directing a fresh hearing or otherwise, as seems necessary to secure that substantial justice is done.

(3) Where in the opinion of the Tribunal, the High Court or the Court of Appeal, any proceedings heard in camera ought to be reported, the Tribunal or the Court may publish or authorise the publication of the facts of the case, the arguments and the decision relating to these proceedings without disclosing the identity of the party concerned.
