(a) to safeguard life and any property of the employer;

(b) to safeguard life and any property of any other person in Singapore;

(c) to assist the Police Force in the maintenance of law and order and the detention or arrest of individuals that police officers are authorised to apprehend;

(2) The Commissioner may, in authorising the creation of an Auxiliary Police Force under subsection (1), impose such conditions as he thinks fit.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), the conditions that may be imposed under subsection (2) in relation to an Auxiliary Police Force include —

- (a) restricting the Auxiliary Police Force to carrying out only such security activity as the Commissioner may specify in the authorisation under subsection (1);

(5) Before varying any condition or imposing additional conditions on an employer of an Auxiliary Police Force under subsection (4), the Commissioner shall notify the employer of his intention to do so and shall give the employer an opportunity to be heard as to why the conditions should not be so varied or the additional conditions should not be imposed, as the case may be.

(6) Any decision of the Commissioner under subsection (5) in relation to an Auxiliary Police Force shall not take effect —

- (a) until the 31st day after the date on which the decision is communicated to the employer of the Auxiliary Police Force concerned; or the cash or the proceeds of the sale (as the case may be) are to be dealt with in the same manner as the property would have been required by section 108 or 109, as the case may be, to be dealt with if not so paid or sold.

(4) A person who buys property sold by or on the authority of the Commissioner under this section obtains good title to that property.
