PART II

THE SUPREME COURT

Divisions and jurisdiction of Supreme Court

3. The Supreme Court shall be a superior court of record and shall consist of —

(a) the High Court, which shall exercise original and appellate civil and criminal jurisdiction; and

(b) the Court of Appeal, which shall exercise appellate civil and criminal jurisdiction.

[16/93]

Precedence

4. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall take precedence in the following order:

- (a) the Chief Justice;
- (b) the Vice-Presidents of the Court of Appeal, who among themselves shall rank according to the priority of their respective appointments as Vice-Presidents;
[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]
- (c) the Judges of Appeal (other than Vice-Presidents), who among themselves shall rank according to the priority of their respective appointments; and
[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]
- (d) the Judges of the High Court, who among themselves shall rank according to the priority of their respective appointments.

[16/93]

Acting appointment

5.—(1) Whenever during any period, owing to illness or absence from Singapore or any other cause, the Chief Justice is unable to exercise the powers or perform the duties of his office, such powers shall be had and may be exercised and such duties shall be performed by the Judge having precedence next after the Chief Justice who is present in Singapore and able to act during that period.

(2) For the purposes of this section, temporary absence in any part of Malaysia shall not be deemed to be absence from Singapore.

International Judges

5A. An International Judge of the Supreme Court may only sit in the Singapore International Commercial Court and in appeals from that Court in accordance with sections 9(4)(b) and 29(4), respectively.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Seal

6. The Supreme Court shall have and use as occasion may require a seal of such nature and pattern as the Chief Justice may, by notification in the *Gazette, prescribe.

7. [Repealed by Act 19 of 2016 wef 01/10/2017]

*Cap. 322, N 1 (1990 Ed.).

Sittings in camera

8.—(1) The place in which any court is held for the purpose of trying any cause or matter, civil or criminal, shall be deemed an open and public court to which the public generally may have access.

(2) The court shall have power to hear any matter or proceeding or any part thereof in camera if the court is satisfied that it is expedient in the interests of justice, public safety, public security or propriety, or for other sufficient reason to do so.

[Act 19 of 2018 wef 31/10/2018]

(2A) A court may, in any matter or proceeding or any part thereof tried or held or to be tried or held before it, if satisfied that it is expedient in the interests of justice, public safety, public security or propriety, or for other sufficient reason to do so, order that —

- (a) the name, address or photograph of any witness; or
- (b) any evidence or any other thing likely to lead to the identification of such witness by a person other than the party to that matter or proceeding, which is contained in any court document intended to be produced before the court, be removed or be sufficiently redacted.

[15/2010 wef 02/01/2011]

(3) A court may at any time order that no person shall —

- (a) publish the name, address or photograph of any witness in any matter or proceeding or any part thereof tried or held or to be tried or held before it, or any evidence or any other thing likely to lead to the identification of any such witness; or
- (b) do any other act which is likely to lead to the identification of such a witness.

[15/2010 wef 02/01/2011]

(4) Any person who acts in contravention of any order under subsection (2A) or (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both.

[15/2010 wef 02/01/2011]

(5) A court that hears the whole or any part of any matter or proceeding in camera may, in its discretion, permit any of the following individuals to be present in the courtroom while that matter or proceeding is heard in camera:

- (a) any journalist who reports news for a newspaper or a broadcasting service;
- (b) any individual whom the court determines has a sufficient interest in that matter or proceeding;
- (c) any other individual that the court specifies in any particular case.

[Act 19 of 2018 wef 31/10/2018]

(6) For the purposes of subsection (2), the matters that the court may consider, when deciding whether it is expedient in the interests of justice, public safety, public security or propriety, or for other sufficient reason, to hear the whole or any part of any matter or proceeding in camera, include the following matters:

- (a) whether the defence of any accused person in that matter or proceeding will be prejudiced by the presence of any member of the public in the courtroom;
- (b) whether any accused person or witness in that matter or proceeding has any legitimate interest in privacy that needs to be protected;
- (c) whether the object of that matter or proceeding will be defeated by publicity if that matter or proceeding is heard in open court;
- (d) whether any accused person or witness in that matter or proceeding has any legitimate interest in protecting the confidentiality of any information that may be disclosed during the hearing of that matter or proceeding;
- (e) whether any information that may be disclosed during the hearing of that matter or proceeding will be prejudicial to the interests of Singapore.

[Act 19 of 2018 wef 31/10/2018]

(7) In this section —

“broadcasting service” has the same meaning as in section 2(1) of the Broadcasting Act (Cap. 28);

“newspaper” has the same meaning as in section 2(1) of the Newspaper and Printing Presses Act (Cap. 206).

[Act 19 of 2018 wef 31/10/2018]

Court may conduct hearing through electronic means of communication

8A.—(1) Without limiting section 8, the court may conduct the hearing of any matter or proceeding through a live video link, a live television link or any other electronic means of communication.

(2) Subsection (1) does not affect the operation of section 62A of the Evidence Act (Cap. 97) and section 281 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68).

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

PART III

THE HIGH COURT

General

Constitution of High Court

9.—(1) The High Court shall consist of —

(a) the Chief Justice; and

(b) the Judges of the High Court.

(2) A Judge of Appeal may, if the Chief Justice so requires, sit in the High Court.

(3) A Judicial Commissioner of the Supreme Court appointed for a specified period may sit in the High Court to hear and determine any case or such classes of cases as the Chief Justice may specify.

(4) The Chief Justice may, from time to time —

(a) require a Senior Judge of the Supreme Court appointed for a specified period to sit in the High Court to hear and determine any case or such classes of cases as the Chief Justice may specify; and

- (b) require an International Judge of the Supreme Court appointed for a specified period to sit in the Singapore International Commercial Court to hear and determine any case in that Court or such classes of cases in that Court as the Chief Justice may specify.

(5) A person sitting in the High Court in accordance with subsection (2), (3) or (4), or to hear and determine a case that he was specifically appointed to hear and determine, shall have all the jurisdiction, powers and privileges of a Judge of the High Court sitting in the High Court or in the Singapore International Commercial Court, as the case may be.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Proceedings in High Court to be disposed of by single Judge

10.—(1) Every proceeding in the High Court and all business arising thereout shall, except as otherwise provided by any written law for the time being in force, be heard and disposed of before a single Judge.

(2) A Judge may, subject to Rules of Court or Family Justice Rules, exercise in court or in chambers all or any part of the jurisdiction vested in the High Court, in all such causes and matters and in all such proceedings in any causes or matters as might immediately before 9th January 1970 have been heard in court or in chambers respectively by a single Judge, or as may be directed or authorised to be so heard by Rules of Court or Family Justice Rules for the time being in force.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(3) [Deleted by Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

(4) If a Judge reserves judgment in any proceedings and his appointment as a Judge expires or is terminated before his judgment is delivered, he shall have power to deliver judgment in respect of those proceedings, notwithstanding that his appointment as a Judge has expired or has been terminated.

[3/96]

(5) No Judge shall sit in the High Court on the hearing of, or determine any application in proceedings incidental or preliminary to —

(a) an appeal from a judgment or an order made by him as the Presiding Judge of the State Courts or the Presiding Judge of the Family Justice Courts;

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(b) an appeal against a conviction before him or a sentence passed by him as the Presiding Judge of the State Courts or the Presiding Judge of the Family Justice Courts;

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(c) the consideration of any case stated by him under section 395 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68) as the Presiding Judge of the State Courts or the Presiding Judge of the Family Justice Courts;

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(d) any application made under section 400 of the Criminal Procedure Code in relation to any judgment or order made, or sentence passed, by him as the Presiding Judge of the State Courts or the Presiding Judge of the Family Justice Courts; or

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(e) any proceedings relating to any judgment, order or direction made by him as the Presiding Judge of the State Courts or the Presiding Judge of the Family Justice Courts.

[Act 5 of 2014 wef 14/04/2014]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

Assessors to assist High Court

10A.—(1) In any proceedings before the High Court, the Court may, if it thinks fit on the application of any party, or on its own motion, summon to its assistance, in such manner as may be prescribed by Rules of Court or Family Justice Rules, one or more persons of skill and experience in the matter to which the proceedings relate who may be willing to sit with the Court and act as assessors.

[16/93]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the remuneration of assessors for sitting under this section shall be at such rate as may be prescribed by Rules of Court or Family Justice Rules and shall be costs in the proceedings unless otherwise ordered by the High Court.

[16/93]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(3) Where one or more assessors are summoned for the purposes of this section otherwise than on the application of a party to the proceedings, the remuneration of any such assessor shall be payable out of moneys provided by Parliament.

[16/93]

(4) Where any person is proposed to be summoned as an assessor, objection to him, either personally or in respect of his qualification, may be taken by any party in the prescribed manner.

[16/93]

When High Court is open

10B.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the High Court shall sit on every day of the year except on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.

[8/98; 2/2007]

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a Judge may lawfully sit on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday or during a vacation prescribed under section 12 if —

- (a) the Chief Justice has directed the Judge to sit on that day or during that vacation; or
- (b) in the opinion of the Judge, the business to be despatched is extremely urgent.

[8/98; 2/2007]

Sittings of High Court and distribution of business

11.—(1) The High Court shall sit at such times and at such places as the Chief Justice shall from time to time appoint.

(2) The distribution of business among the several Judges shall be made in accordance with such directions, which may be of a general or a particular nature, as may be given by the Chief Justice.

Vacations

12. The Chief Justice may make such regulations as he thinks fit as to vacations of the Supreme Court not exceeding 2 months in any calendar year.

Writs of execution

13. A judgment of the High Court for the payment of money to any person or into court may be enforced by a writ, to be called a writ of seizure and sale, under which all the property, movable or immovable, of whatever description, of a judgment debtor may be seized, except —

- (a) the wearing apparel and bedding of the judgment debtor or his family, and the tools and implements of his trade, when the value of such apparel, bedding, tools and implements does not exceed $1,000;
- (b) tools of artisans, and, where the judgment debtor is an agriculturist, his implements of husbandry and such animals and seed-grain or produce as may in the opinion of the court be necessary to enable him to earn his livelihood as such;
- (c) the wages or salary of the judgment debtor;
- (d) any pension, gratuity or allowance granted by the Government; and
- (e) the share of the judgment debtor in a partnership, as to which the judgment creditor is entitled to proceed to obtain a charge under any provision of any written law relating to partnership.

[16/93]

Execution of deed or indorsement of negotiable instrument

14.—(1) If a judgment or order is for the execution of a deed, or signing of a document, or for the indorsement of a negotiable instrument, and the party ordered to execute, sign or indorse such instrument is absent, or neglects or refuses to do so, any party interested in having the same executed, signed or indorsed, may prepare a deed, or document, or indorsement of the instrument in accordance with the terms of the judgment or order, and tender the same to the court for execution upon the proper stamp, if any is required by law, and the signature thereof by the Registrar, by order of the court, shall have the same effect as the execution, signing or indorsement thereof by the party ordered to execute.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be held to abridge the powers of the court to proceed by attachment against any person neglecting or refusing to execute, sign or indorse any such instrument.

Original Jurisdiction

Criminal jurisdiction

15.—(1) The High Court shall have jurisdiction to try all offences committed —

- (a) within Singapore;
- (b) on board any ship or aircraft registered in Singapore;
- (c) by any person who is a citizen of Singapore on the high seas or on any aircraft;
- (d) by any person on the high seas where the offence is piracy by the law of nations;
- (e) by any person within or outside Singapore where the offence is punishable under and by virtue of the provisions of the Hijacking of Aircraft and Protection of Aircraft and International Airports Act (Cap. 124) or the Maritime Offences Act (Cap. 170B); and
- (f) in any place or by any person if it is provided in any written law that the offence is triable in Singapore.

[10/78; 16/93; 26/2003]

(2) The High Court may pass any sentence allowed by law.

Civil jurisdiction — general

16.—(1) The High Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and try any action in personam where —

- (a) the defendant is served with a writ of summons or any other originating process —

- (i) in Singapore in the manner prescribed by Rules of Court or Family Justice Rules; or
[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]
 - (ii) outside Singapore in the circumstances authorised by and in the manner prescribed by Rules of Court or Family Justice Rules; or
[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]
- (b) the defendant submits to the jurisdiction of the High Court.
[16/93]
[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the High Court shall have such jurisdiction as is vested in it by any other written law.

[16/93]

Civil jurisdiction — specific

17.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of section 16, the civil jurisdiction of the High Court shall include —

- (a) jurisdiction under any written law relating to divorce and matrimonial causes;
- (b) jurisdiction under any written law relating to matters of admiralty;
- (c) jurisdiction under any written law relating to bankruptcy or to companies;
- (d) jurisdiction to appoint and control guardians of infants and generally over the persons and property of infants;
- (e) jurisdiction to appoint and control guardians and keepers of the persons and estates of idiots, mentally disordered persons and persons of unsound mind;
- (f) jurisdiction to grant probates of wills and testaments, letters of administration of the estates of deceased persons and to alter or revoke such grants;

[Act 1 of 2017 wef 01/11/2017]

[Act 1 of 2017 wef 01/11/2017]

[Act 4 of 2020 wef 12/09/2020]

- (g) jurisdiction under the Mediation Act 2017 to record a mediated settlement agreement made in a mediation, in relation to a dispute for which no proceedings have been commenced in a court, as an order of court; and

[Act 1 of 2017 wef 01/11/2017]

[Act 1 of 2017 wef 01/11/2017]

[Act 4 of 2020 wef 12/09/2020]

- (h) jurisdiction under the Singapore Convention on Mediation Act 2020 to grant the applications provided for in that Act in respect of international settlement agreements.

[Act 4 of 2020 wef 12/09/2020]

- (2) In this section —

“international settlement agreement” has the meaning given by section 2(1) of the Singapore Convention on Mediation Act 2020;

“mediated settlement agreement” and “mediation” have the meanings given by the Mediation Act 2017 (Act 1 of 2017).

[Act 4 of 2020 wef 12/09/2020]

Civil jurisdiction — concurrent jurisdiction with Syariah Court in certain matters

17A.—(1) Notwithstanding sections 16 and 17, the High Court shall have no jurisdiction to hear and try any civil proceedings involving matters which come within the jurisdiction of the Syariah Court under section 35(2)(a), (b) or (c) of the Administration of Muslim Law Act (Cap. 3) in which all the parties are Muslims or where the parties were married under the provisions of the Muslim law.

[20/99]

(2) Notwithstanding that such matters come within the jurisdiction of the Syariah Court under section 35(2)(d) or (e), 51 or 52(3)(c) or (d) of the Administration of Muslim Law Act, the High Court shall have jurisdiction as is vested in it by any written law to hear and try any civil proceedings involving matters relating to —

- (a) maintenance for any wife or child;
- (b) custody of any child; and

(c) disposition or division of property on divorce.

[20/99]

(3) Where civil proceedings involving any matter referred to in subsection (2)(b) or (c) and involving parties who are Muslims or were married under the provisions of the Muslim law are commenced in the High Court, the High Court shall stay the civil proceedings —

- (a) involving any matter referred to in subsection (2)(b) or (c), if the civil proceedings are commenced on or after the commencement of proceedings for divorce in the Syariah Court or after the making of a decree or order for divorce by the Syariah Court or on or after the registration of any divorce under section 102 of the Administration of Muslim Law Act (Cap. 3) between the same parties, unless a Syariah Court commencement certificate in respect of the civil proceedings has been filed with the High Court;
- (b) involving any matter referred to in subsection (2)(b), if proceedings for divorce are commenced in the Syariah Court or a decree or order for divorce is made by the Syariah Court or a divorce is registered under section 102 of the Administration of Muslim Law Act between the same parties after the commencement of the civil proceedings, unless a Syariah Court continuation certificate in respect of the civil proceedings has been filed with the High Court.

[20/99]

(3A) For the purposes of subsection (3), any reference to the registration of any divorce, or to a divorce that is registered, under section 102 of the Administration of Muslim Law Act shall be construed as a reference to the registration of a divorce or to a divorce that is registered under that section before the date of commencement of section 24 of the Administration of Muslim Law (Amendment) Act 2008.

[29/2008 wef 01/03/2009]

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), where the proceedings in the Syariah Court are commenced on the same day as the civil proceedings in the High Court, the proceedings in the Syariah

Court shall be deemed to have been commenced before the civil proceedings.

[20/99]

(5) Subsection (3)(a) shall not apply if the civil proceedings referred to therein are commenced in the High Court by the consent of the parties to the proceedings and the certificates of attendance of the parties issued under section 35A(7) of the Administration of Muslim Law Act have been filed in accordance with Family Justice Rules.

[20/99]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

(6) Subsection (3)(b) shall not apply if the civil proceedings referred to therein are continued by the consent of the parties to the proceedings and the certificates of attendance of the parties issued under section 35A(7) of the Administration of Muslim Law Act (Cap. 3) have been filed in accordance with Family Justice Rules.

[20/99]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

(7) For the avoidance of any doubt, the High Court, in exercising its jurisdiction or powers under subsection (2), shall apply the civil law.

[20/99]

(8) Notwithstanding section 3(2) of the Women's Charter (Cap. 353), section 112 of that Act shall apply to the High Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction or powers under subsection (2)(c).

[20/99]

(9) In this section —

“Syariah Court” means the Syariah Court constituted under the Administration of Muslim Law Act;

“Syariah Court commencement certificate” means a commencement certificate issued by the Syariah Court under section 35A(4) of the Administration of Muslim Law Act;

“Syariah Court continuation certificate” means a continuation certificate issued by the Syariah Court under section 35A(4) of the Administration of Muslim Law Act.

Powers of High Court

18.—(1) The High Court shall have such powers as are vested in it by any written law for the time being in force in Singapore.

[16/93]

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the High Court shall have the powers set out in the First Schedule.

[16/93]

(3) The powers referred to in subsection (2) shall be exercised in accordance with any written law, Rules of Court or Family Justice Rules relating to them.

[16/93]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

*Singapore International Commercial CourtSingapore International Commercial Court

18A. There shall be a division of the High Court known as the Singapore International Commercial Court.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

President of Singapore International Commercial Court

18B.—(1) The Chief Justice may appoint a Judge of Appeal, a Judge of the High Court, a Senior Judge of the Supreme Court or an International Judge of the Supreme Court to be the President of the Singapore International Commercial Court for such period as the Chief Justice may specify.

(2) If no appointment is made under subsection (1), the Chief Justice shall be the President of the Singapore International Commercial Court.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Act to apply with modifications

18C. Subject to sections 18D to 18M and 80(2A), the provisions of this Act shall apply to proceedings in the Singapore International Commercial Court as they apply to proceedings in the High Court exercising its original civil jurisdiction.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Jurisdiction of Singapore International Commercial Court

18D.—(1) The Singapore International Commercial Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and try any action that satisfies all of the following conditions:

- (a) the action is international and commercial in nature;
- (b) the action is one that the High Court may hear and try in its original civil jurisdiction;
- (c) the action satisfies such other conditions as the Rules of Court may prescribe.

[Act 1 of 2018 wef 01/11/2018]

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Singapore International Commercial Court (being a division of the High Court) has jurisdiction to hear any proceedings relating to international commercial arbitration that the High Court may hear and that satisfy such conditions as the Rules of Court may prescribe.

[Act 1 of 2018 wef 01/11/2018]

18E. [Repealed by Act 1 of 2018 wef 01/11/2018]

Effect of jurisdiction agreement

18F.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the parties to an agreement to submit to the jurisdiction of the Singapore International Commercial Court shall be considered to have agreed —

- (a) to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Singapore International Commercial Court;
- (b) to carry out any judgment or order of the Singapore International Commercial Court without undue delay; and
- (c) to waive any recourse to any court or tribunal outside Singapore against any judgment or order of the Singapore International Commercial Court, and against the enforcement of such judgment or order, insofar as such recourse can be validly waived.

(2) Subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c) applies only if there is no express provision to the contrary in the agreement.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Composition of Singapore International Commercial Court

18G. Every proceeding in the Singapore International Commercial Court shall be heard and disposed of before a single Judge or 3 Judges.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Provisions where Singapore International Commercial Court comprises 3 Judges

18H.—(1) This section applies where a case in the Singapore International Commercial Court is heard before 3 Judges.

(2) The Chief Justice shall appoint one of the Judges to preside.

(3) The case shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of the majority of the Judges hearing the case.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a case shall be reheard if one or more of the Judges are unable to continue hearing the case for any reason.

(5) Where one Judge is unable to continue hearing a case for any reason, the remaining 2 Judges may continue to hear and determine the case if the parties consent.

(6) Where a case is heard by 2 Judges under subsection (5) —

(a) if the 2 Judges have the same opinion, the case shall be determined according to their opinion; or

(b) if the 2 Judges have different opinions on any claim, counterclaim or application, the claim, counterclaim or application, as the case may be, shall be dismissed.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Powers of Singapore International Commercial Court, generally

18I.—(1) The Singapore International Commercial Court may exercise such powers as the High Court may exercise in its original civil jurisdiction, except —

(a) the power under paragraph 1 of the First Schedule; and

(b) any power that must be exercised through the Family Division of the High Court.

(2) The Singapore International Commercial Court shall exercise its powers in accordance with the Rules of Court, and any other written law, relating to that Court or those powers.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Transfer of cases

18J.—(1) The Singapore International Commercial Court may transfer a case commenced in that Court to the High Court in accordance with the Rules of Court.

(2) The High Court may transfer a case commenced in that Court to the Singapore International Commercial Court in accordance with the Rules of Court.

(3) Where a case is transferred under subsection (1) or (2) —

(a) the court to which the case is transferred may permit any matter that has been adduced to remain in evidence, notwithstanding that different rules of evidence may apply in the court to which the case is transferred; and

(b) the court transferring the case and the court to which the case is transferred may make any consequential order in accordance with the Rules of Court.

(4) In this section, “High Court” does not include the Singapore International Commercial Court.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Rules of evidence in certain cases

18K.—(1) The Singapore International Commercial Court —

(a) shall not be bound to apply any rule of evidence under Singapore law in such cases and to such extent as the Rules of Court may provide; and

(b) may, in those cases, apply other rules of evidence (whether such rules are found under any foreign law or otherwise) in accordance with the Rules of Court.

(2) In subsection (1), “rule of evidence” includes any rule of law relating to privilege, or to the taking of evidence.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Determination of foreign law on submissions

18L.—(1) The Singapore International Commercial Court may, in such cases as the Rules of Court may prescribe, order that any question of foreign law be determined on the basis of submissions instead of proof.

(2) In determining any question of foreign law on the basis of submissions, the Singapore International Commercial Court may have regard to such matters as the Rules of Court may prescribe.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Representation by foreign lawyers and law experts

18M. A party to a case in the Singapore International Commercial Court, or to an appeal from that Court, may in accordance with the Rules of Court be represented by a foreign lawyer or law expert who is registered in accordance with Part IVB of the Legal Profession Act (Cap. 161).

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

[Act 22 of 2018 wef 01/11/2018]

*Appellate Jurisdiction of the High CourtAppellate criminal jurisdiction

19. The appellate criminal jurisdiction of the High Court shall consist of —

(a) the hearing of appeals from District Courts or Magistrates' Courts before one or more Judges according to the provisions of the law for the time being in force relating to criminal procedure;

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(b) the hearing of points of law reserved by special cases submitted by a District Court or Magistrate's Court before one or more Judges according to the provisions of the law for the time being in force relating to criminal procedure;

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(c) the hearing of appeals from Family Courts when exercising criminal jurisdiction; and

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(d) the hearing of appeals from Youth Courts.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

Appellate civil jurisdiction

20. The appellate civil jurisdiction of the High Court shall consist of —

(a) the hearing of appeals from Family Courts when exercising jurisdiction of a quasi-criminal or civil nature;

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(b) the hearing of appeals from District Courts and Magistrates' Courts when exercising jurisdiction of a quasi-criminal or civil nature; and

(c) the hearing of appeals from other tribunals as may from time to time be prescribed by any written law.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

Appeals from District and Magistrates' Courts

21.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and any other written law, an appeal shall lie to the High Court from a decision of a District Court or Magistrate's Court —

(a) in any case where the amount in dispute, or the value of the subject-matter, at the hearing before that District Court or Magistrate's Court (excluding interest and costs) exceeds $60,000 or such other amount as may be specified by an order made under subsection (3); or

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(b) with the leave of that District Court or Magistrate's Court or the High Court, in any other case.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

(2) Such appeals may be heard before one Judge provided that the Judge, if he thinks fit, may reserve any appeal for the decision of a court consisting of 3 Judges, and in such case the appeal shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of the majority of the Judges composing the High Court.

(2A) An order of the High Court giving or refusing leave under subsection (1)(b) shall be final.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

(2B) No appeal shall be brought to the High Court in any case where a District Court or Magistrate's Court makes an order specified in the Third Schedule, except in such circumstances as may be specified in that Schedule.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

(3) The President may, after consulting the Chief Justice, by order published in the Gazette, vary the amount mentioned in subsection (1).

[43/98]

Powers of rehearing

22.—(1) All appeals to the High Court in the exercise of its appellate civil jurisdiction shall be by way of rehearing.

(2) The High Court shall have the like powers and jurisdiction on the hearing of such appeals as the Court of Appeal has on the hearing of appeals from the High Court.

Supervisory and Revisionary Jurisdiction

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

Revision of criminal proceedings of subordinate courts

23. The High Court may exercise powers of revision in respect of criminal proceedings and matters in subordinate courts in accordance with the provisions of any written law for the time being in force relating to criminal procedure.

Power of High Court to call for records of civil proceedings in subordinate courts

24. The High Court may call for and examine the record of any civil proceedings before any subordinate court for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any decision recorded or passed, and as to the regularity of any proceedings of any such subordinate court.

Powers of High Court on revision of civil proceedings

25. In the case of any civil proceedings in a subordinate court the record of which has been called for, or which otherwise comes to its knowledge, the High Court may give such orders thereon, either by directing a new trial or otherwise, as seem necessary to secure that substantial justice is done.

No revision at instance of party who could have appealed

26. Where an appeal lies from any decision in any civil matter, and no appeal is brought, no proceeding by way of revision shall be entertained at the instance of a party who could have appealed.

General supervisory and revisionary jurisdiction of High Court

27.—(1) In addition to the powers conferred on the High Court by this Act or any other written law, the High Court shall have general supervisory and revisionary jurisdiction over all subordinate courts.

(2) The High Court may in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), if it appears desirable in the interests of justice, either of its own motion or at the instance of any party or person interested, at any stage in any matter or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, in any subordinate court, call for the record thereof, and may remove the matter or proceeding into the High Court or may give to the subordinate court such directions as to the further conduct of the matter or proceeding as justice may require.

(3) Upon the High Court calling for any record under subsection (2), all proceedings in the subordinate court in the matter or proceeding in question shall be stayed pending further order of the High Court.

(4) The High Court shall, when exercising (or deciding whether to exercise) its supervisory and revisionary jurisdiction under subsection (1) or powers under subsection (2) in relation to any matter which concerns a case where the High Court has heard and determined an appeal from a subordinate court, have regard to whether that matter was, or could reasonably have been, raised in that appeal.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

Discretion of High Court as to hearing parties

28.—(1) Subject to the provisions of any written law for the time being in force, no party shall have any right to be heard before the High Court when exercising its powers of supervision and revision.

(2) No final order shall be made to the prejudice of any person unless that person has had an opportunity of being so heard.

*Allocation of ProceedingsAllocation of proceedings to District Court or Family Court

28A.—(1) The Chief Justice may, where he considers it necessary or expedient to improve efficiency in the administration of justice and to provide for more speedy disposal of proceedings commenced in the High Court, by order direct such class or classes or description of proceedings as may be specified in the order to be heard and determined by the District Court or Family Court.

[16/93]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

(2) Notwithstanding any other written law, any order under subsection (1) —

(a) may confer jurisdiction on a District Court to hear and determine —

(i) any proceedings specified in the order which, but for the order, the District Court would not have jurisdiction to hear and determine by reason only of the fact that the amount involved exceeds the monetary limit of its jurisdiction; or

(ii) any proceedings relating to any of the matters referred to in section 17(1)(b) or (c);

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

[Act 1 of 2017 wef 01/11/2017]

(aa) may confer jurisdiction on a Family Court to hear and determine any proceedings specified in the order which, but for the order, the Family Court would not have jurisdiction to hear and determine;

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

- (b) may make such provision governing appeals relating to proceedings transferred to the District Court or Family Court (including provisions restricting the right of appeal) as the Chief Justice thinks fit; and

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

- (c) may make such incidental provision for the transfer of the proceedings to the District Court or Family Court (including matters relating to procedure and costs) as the Chief Justice thinks fit.

[16/93; 36/2004]

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

Further Arguments

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

Further arguments before Judge exercising civil jurisdiction of High Court

28B.—(1) Before any notice of appeal is filed in respect of any judgment or order made by a Judge, in the exercise of the civil jurisdiction of the High Court, after any hearing other than a trial of an action, the Judge may hear further arguments in respect of the judgment or order, if any party to the hearing, or the Judge, requests for further arguments before the earlier of —

- (a) the time the judgment or order is extracted; or
 (b) the expiration of 14 days after the date the judgment or order is made.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

(2) After hearing further arguments, the Judge may affirm, vary or set aside the judgment or order.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

(3) If any request for further arguments has been made under subsection (1) —

- (a) no notice of appeal shall be filed in respect of the judgment or order until the Judge —
 (i) affirms, varies or sets aside the judgment or order after hearing further arguments; or

- (ii) certifies, or is deemed to have certified, that he requires no further arguments; and
- (b) the time for filing a notice of appeal in respect of the judgment or order shall begin on the date the Judge —
 - (i) affirms, varies or sets aside the judgment or order after hearing further arguments; or
 - (ii) certifies, or is deemed to have certified, that he requires no further arguments.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, a party to the hearing may, but is not required to, request for further arguments before he files a notice of appeal in respect of the judgment or order.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

PART IV

THE COURT OF APPEAL

Constitution of Court of Appeal

29.—(1) The Court of Appeal shall consist of —

- (a) the Chief Justice; and
- (b) the Judges of Appeal.

[16/93]

(2) The Chief Justice shall be the President of the Court of Appeal, and may appoint one or more of the Judges of Appeal as Vice-Presidents of the Court of Appeal.

[16/93]

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

(3) A Judge of the High Court, a Judicial Commissioner of the Supreme Court or a Senior Judge of the Supreme Court may, if the Chief Justice so requires, sit in the Court of Appeal.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

(4) An International Judge of the Supreme Court may, if the Chief Justice so requires, sit in the Court of Appeal in an appeal from any judgment or order of the Singapore International Commercial Court.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

(5) A person sitting in the Court of Appeal in accordance with subsection (3) or (4) shall have all the jurisdiction, powers and privileges of a Judge of Appeal sitting in the Court of Appeal.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

(6) The person who presides over a sitting of the Court of Appeal shall be determined as follows:

- (a) where the Court of Appeal includes one or more Judges of the Supreme Court specified in section 4, the person shall be determined according to the order of precedence prescribed in that section;
- (b) where the Court of Appeal does not include any Judge of the Supreme Court specified in section 4, the Chief Justice shall appoint a person to preside.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Jurisdiction of Court of Appeal

29A.—(1) The civil jurisdiction of the Court of Appeal consists of the following matters, subject to the provisions of this Act or any other written law regulating the terms and conditions upon which those matters may be brought:

- (a) any appeal from any judgment or order of the High Court in any civil cause or matter, whether made in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction or made in the exercise of its appellate civil jurisdiction;
- (b) any application (whether made to the Court of Appeal or to the High Court) to which either or both of the following apply:
 - (i) any common question of law or fact arises in both that application and any matter mentioned in subsection (2);
 - (ii) any relief claimed in that application —
 - (A) may affect any matter mentioned in subsection (2) in any way; or

(B) may affect the outcome of any matter mentioned in subsection (2).

[Act 19 of 2018 wef 31/10/2018]

(2) The criminal jurisdiction of the Court of Appeal consists of the following matters, subject to the provisions of this Act or any other written law regulating the terms and conditions upon which those matters may be brought:

- (a) any appeal against any decision made by the High Court in the exercise of its original criminal jurisdiction;
- (b) any petition for confirmation under Division 1A of Part XX of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68);
- (c) any review of a decision of the Court of Appeal, or a decision of the High Court, under Division 1B of Part XX of the Criminal Procedure Code;
- (d) any case stated to the Court of Appeal under section 395 or 396 of the Criminal Procedure Code;
- (e) any reference to the Court of Appeal under section 397 of the Criminal Procedure Code;
- (f) any motion to the Court of Appeal under Division 5 of Part XX of the Criminal Procedure Code.

[Act 19 of 2018 wef 31/10/2018]

(3) For the purposes of and incidental to —

- (a) the hearing and determination of any appeal to the Court of Appeal; and
- (b) the amendment, execution and enforcement of any judgment or order made on such an appeal, the Court of Appeal shall have all the authority and jurisdiction of the court or tribunal from which the appeal was brought.

[16/93]

(4) The Court of Appeal shall, for the purposes of and subject to the provisions of this Act, have full power to determine any question necessary to be determined for the purpose of doing justice in any case before the Court.

[16/93]

Composition of Court of Appeal

30.—(1) The civil and criminal jurisdiction of the Court of Appeal shall be exercised by 3 or any greater uneven number of Judges of Appeal.

[16/93]

(2) Despite subsection (1), the Court of Appeal in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction is duly constituted for the purpose of hearing and determining a matter specified in the Sixth Schedule, if it consists of the number of Judges of Appeal specified for that matter in that Schedule.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(2A) Despite subsection (1), the Court of Appeal in the exercise of its criminal jurisdiction is, if it consists of one Judge of Appeal, duly constituted for the purpose of hearing and determining an application under section 394H of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68) for leave to apply to the Court of Appeal to review an earlier decision of the Court of Appeal.

[Act 19 of 2018 wef 31/10/2018]

(3) No Judge of Appeal shall sit as a member of the Court of Appeal on the hearing of, or shall determine any application in proceedings incidental or preliminary to —

- (a) an appeal from a judgment or an order made by him;
- (b) an appeal against a conviction before him or a sentence passed by him; or
- (c) the consideration of any of the following matters:
 - (i) any petition for confirmation under Division 1A of Part XX of the Criminal Procedure Code lodged in respect of a sentence of death passed by him on an accused;
 - (ii) any case stated by him under section 395 of the Criminal Procedure Code;
 - (iii) any reference under section 397 of the Criminal Procedure Code of a question of law of public interest which has arisen in a criminal matter determined by him.

[Act 19 of 2018 wef 31/10/2018]

[16/93]

(3A) No Judge of Appeal shall sit as a member of the Court of Appeal on the hearing of an application to discharge or vary any direction or order made by him under section 36(1).

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

(4) Section 10A shall apply in relation to proceedings before the Court of Appeal as it applies in relation to proceedings before the High Court.

[16/93]

Appeals how decided

31.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), any appeal or determination of any question before the Court of Appeal shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of the majority of the members of the Court hearing the case.

[16/93]

(2) Where an appeal or application has been heard by the Court of Appeal consisting of 2 Judges of Appeal and the members of that Court are divided, the decision appealed against shall stand or the application shall be dismissed, as the case may be.

[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

Sittings of Court of Appeal

32.—(1) The Court of Appeal shall sit on such dates (whether or not a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday or during a vacation prescribed under section 12) and at such places as the Chief Justice may from time to time appoint.

[8/98; 2/2007]

(2) The Chief Justice may cancel or postpone any sitting of the Court of Appeal which has been appointed under subsection (1).

PART IVA

CIVIL JURISDICTION OF COURT OF APPEAL

Application of this Part

32A. This Part relates to the Court of Appeal in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction.

[16/93]

Continuation of civil appeal notwithstanding absence of a Judge of Appeal

33.—(1) If, in the course of any appeal, or, in the case of a reserved judgment in any such appeal, at any time before delivery of the judgment, any Judge of Appeal of the Court hearing the appeal is unable, through illness or any other cause, to attend the proceedings or otherwise exercise his functions as a Judge of Appeal of such Court, the hearing of the appeal shall, if the parties consent, continue as before, and judgment or reserved judgment, as the case may be, shall be given by the remaining Judges of Appeal of such Court, not being less than 2, and that Court shall, for the purposes of that appeal, be deemed to be duly constituted notwithstanding the absence or inability to act of such Judge of Appeal.

[16/93]

(2) In any such case as is referred to in subsection (1), the appeal shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of the majority of the remaining Judges of Appeal of such Court, and if there is no such majority, the decision appealed against shall stand.

[16/93]

(3) If the parties do not consent as mentioned in subsection (1), the appeal shall be reheard.

Matters that are non-appealable or appealable only with leave

34.—(1) An appeal cannot be brought to the Court of Appeal in any case specified in paragraph 1 of the Fourth Schedule except where provided in that Schedule.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(2) An appeal may be brought to the Court of Appeal in any of the following cases only with the leave of the High Court or the Court of Appeal unless otherwise provided in the Fifth Schedule:

(a) any case where the amount in dispute, or the value of the subject-matter, at the hearing before the High Court (excluding interest and costs) does not exceed $250,000 or such other amount as may be specified by an order made under subsection (3);

(b) any case specified in paragraph 1 of the Fifth Schedule.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(2A) In addition, an appeal may be brought to the Court of Appeal in any case set out in section 73A(9), 73B(5), 73C(6), 73D(6) or 74(2A) only with the leave of the High Court or the Court of Appeal.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(2B) [Deleted by Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

(3) The President may, after consulting the Chief Justice, by order published in the Gazette vary the amount mentioned in subsection (2)(a).

[43/98]

(4) An appeal may be brought to the Court of Appeal in any case specified in paragraph 2 of the Fifth Schedule only with the leave of a Judge of the Family Division of the High Court, or of the Court of Appeal unless otherwise provided in that Schedule.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(5) [Deleted by Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(6) [Deleted by Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(7) [Deleted by Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(8) [Deleted by Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

Court of Appeal may decide certain matters without hearing oral arguments

34A.—(1) The Court of Appeal may, without hearing oral arguments, decide any application to that Court, whether under this Act or any other written law.

(2) The Court of Appeal may, with the consent of every party to an appeal from any judgment or order of the Singapore International Commercial Court, decide that appeal without hearing oral arguments.

(3) To avoid doubt, this section does not affect the power of the Court of Appeal to hear oral arguments before deciding —

(a) any application mentioned in subsection (1); or

(b) any appeal mentioned in subsection (2).

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

Summary dismissal of certain matters

34B.—(1) The Court of Appeal may, on its own motion, summarily dismiss any appeal or application, or any part of an appeal or application.

(2) The Court of Appeal may exercise its power under subsection (1) only if it is satisfied of either or both of the following matters:

(a) the Court of Appeal does not have jurisdiction to hear and determine the appeal, application or part of an appeal or application mentioned in subsection (1);

(b) there is no merit in the appeal, application or part of an appeal or application mentioned in subsection (1), because every issue in that appeal, application or part of an appeal or application has already been decided by the Court of Appeal, in an earlier matter in which the appellant or applicant was involved.

(3) The requirement under subsection (2) does not apply to any appeal or application, or any part of an appeal or application, that is prescribed by Rules of Court.

(4) Before summarily dismissing any appeal, application or part of an appeal or application under subsection (1), the Court of Appeal must —

(a) give the appellant or applicant a reasonable opportunity to show cause why that appeal, application or part of an appeal or application should not be dismissed; and

(b) consider the representations (if any) of the appellant or applicant.

(5) The Court of Appeal may exercise its powers under this section without hearing oral arguments.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

Applications

35. Wherever application may be made either to the High Court or to the Court of Appeal, it shall be made in the first instance to the High Court.

Incidental directions and interim orders

36.—(1) In any appeal or application pending before the Court of Appeal (called in this section the pending matter), the Court of Appeal may, on its own motion or on the application of any party, at any time make one or more of the following directions and orders:

- (a) any direction incidental to the pending matter not involving the decision of the pending matter;
- (b) any interim order to prevent prejudice to the claims of the parties pending the determination of the pending matter;
- (c) any order for security for costs, and for the dismissal of the pending matter for default in furnishing security so ordered.

(2) Despite section 30(1), the Court of Appeal is duly constituted to make any direction or order mentioned in subsection (1) if it consists of —

- (a) one Judge of Appeal; or
- (b) 2 Judges of Appeal.

(3) The Court of Appeal may discharge or vary any direction or order made under subsection (1) by a Court of Appeal consisting of one Judge of Appeal.

(4) Despite section 30(1), the Court of Appeal is duly constituted to discharge or vary any direction or order mentioned in subsection (3) if it consists of 2 Judges of Appeal.

(5) An application to discharge or vary any direction or order mentioned in subsection (3) may be made only with the leave of a Judge of Appeal.

(6) An order of a Judge of Appeal giving or refusing leave under subsection (5) is final.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

Hearing of appeals

37.—(1) Appeals to the Court of Appeal shall be by way of rehearing.

(2) In relation to such appeals, the Court of Appeal shall have all the powers and duties, as to amendment or otherwise, of the High Court, together with full discretionary power to receive further evidence by oral examination in court, by affidavit, or by deposition taken before an examiner or a commissioner.

(3) Such further evidence may be given without leave in any case as to matters which have occurred after the date of the decision from which the appeal is brought.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(4) Except as provided in subsection (3), such further evidence may be given only on special grounds and with the leave of the Court of Appeal.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(5) The Court of Appeal may draw inferences of facts, and give any judgment, and make any order which ought to have been given or made, and make such further or other orders as the case requires.

(6) The powers in this section may be exercised notwithstanding that the notice of appeal relates only to part of the decision, and such powers may also be exercised in favour of all or any of the respondents or parties, although the respondents or parties have not appealed from or complained of the decision.

Costs of appeal

38. The Court of Appeal may make such order as to the whole or any part of the costs of appeal or in the court below as is just.

New trial

39.—(1) Except as is provided in this Act, the Court of Appeal shall have power to order that a new trial be had of any cause or matter tried by the High Court in the exercise of its original or appellate jurisdiction.

(2) A new trial shall not be granted on the ground of improper admission or rejection of evidence unless in the opinion of the Court of Appeal some substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has been thereby occasioned.

(3) If it appears to the Court of Appeal that such wrong or miscarriage of justice affects only part of the matters in controversy, or some or only one of the parties, the Court of Appeal may give final judgment as to part thereof, or as to some or only one of the parties, and direct a new trial as to the other part only, or as to the other party or parties.

(4) A new trial may be ordered on any question without interfering with the finding or decision of the High Court upon any other question.

Immaterial errors

40. No judgment or order of the High Court, or of any Judge, shall be reversed or substantially varied on appeal, nor a new trial ordered by the Court of Appeal, on account of any error, defect or irregularity, whether in the decision or otherwise, not affecting the merits, or the jurisdiction of the Court.

Appeal not to operate as stay of execution

41.—(1) An appeal shall not operate as a stay of execution or of proceedings under the decision appealed from unless the court below or the Court of Appeal so orders.

(2) No intermediate act or proceeding shall be invalidated except so far as the Court of Appeal may direct.

PART V

42. to 60. [Repealed by Act 15/2010 wef 02/01/2011]

PART VI

72.—(1) The Registry of the Supreme Court shall be open on every day of the year except on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.

[8/98; 2/2007]

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Registrar may lawfully sit or carry out the business of the Registry on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday if —

- (a) the Chief Justice has directed the Registrar to do so on that day; or
- (b) in the opinion of the Registrar, the business to be despatched is extremely urgent.

[8/98; 2/2007]

(3) The office hours of the Registry shall be such times as the Chief Justice may from time to time direct.

[8/98]

PART VIIMISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONSList of ToutsList of touts

73.—(1) The Registrar may publish a list of persons proved to his satisfaction, by evidence of general repute or otherwise, to act as touts or unauthorised advisers to suitors or other persons having business with or before any officer of the Supreme Court, and may alter and amend such list.

(2) The Registrar may, by general or special order, exclude from the precincts of the Supreme Court any person whose name is included in the list, except when that person is a party to or a witness in any proceedings in the Supreme Court, when he shall be allowed to remain for such time as is necessary.

(3) No person's name shall be included in the list until he has been heard or had an opportunity of being heard against such inclusion.

(4) An appeal shall lie to a Judge in chambers from an order made by the Registrar to include a person's name in the list.

(5) The decision of the Judge in chambers shall be final.

(6) A copy of the list shall be kept hung up in the Registry and shall be published in the Gazette.

(7) A person whose name appears in the list of touts under section 39 of the Family Justice Act 2014, or the list of touts under section 62 of the State Courts Act (Cap. 321), shall be deemed to be included in the list under this section, and vice versa.

[Act 27 of 2014 wef 01/10/2014]

Measures for dealing with unmeritorious or vexatious proceedings and vexatious litigants

Measures for dealing with unmeritorious or vexatious proceedings

73A.—(1) A court may, in respect of any legal proceedings in the court —

- (a) make a limited civil restraint order in accordance with section 73B;
- (b) make an extended civil restraint order in accordance with section 73C; or
- (c) make a general civil restraint order in accordance with section 73D.

(2) A court may, if satisfied that a party is conducting any legal proceedings in the court in a vexatious manner, order that those proceedings be stayed on such terms as the court considers appropriate.

(3) A court may, if satisfied that the filing of further documents by a party in any legal proceedings in the court would be vexatious or for an improper purpose, order that no further documents be filed by that party in relation to those proceedings.

(4) The High Court may, in respect of any legal proceedings in any subordinate court —

- (a) make a limited civil restraint order in accordance with section 73B;
- (b) make an extended civil restraint order in accordance with section 73C; or
- (c) make a general civil restraint order in accordance with section 73D.

(5) The High Court may, if satisfied that a party is conducting any legal proceedings in any subordinate court in a vexatious manner, order that those proceedings be stayed on such terms as the High Court considers appropriate.

(6) The High Court may, if satisfied that the filing of further documents by a party in any legal proceedings in any subordinate court would be vexatious or for an improper purpose, order that no further documents be filed by that party in relation to those proceedings.

(7) A court may, on the court's own motion, or on the application of —

- (a) the Attorney-General; or
- (b) any party in any legal proceedings in the court, make an order mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c), (2) or (3) against another party in those legal proceedings after giving the other party an opportunity to be heard.

(8) The High Court may, on the application of —

- (a) the Attorney-General; or

(b) any party in any legal proceedings in a subordinate court, make an order mentioned in subsection (4)(a), (b) or (c), (5) or (6) against another party in those legal proceedings after giving the other party an opportunity to be heard.

(9) Subject to section 34(2A), a party against whom the High Court makes an order mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c), (2), (3), (4)(a), (b) or (c), (5) or (6) may bring an appeal from the order to the Court of Appeal.

(10) In this section and sections 73B and 73C, “legal proceedings” includes any proceedings, process, action, application or appeal in any civil matter or quasi-criminal matter.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

Limited civil restraint orders

73B.—(1) A court may, if satisfied that a party has made 2 or more applications that are totally without merit, make a limited civil restraint order against the party.

(2) Where a court makes a limited civil restraint order, the party against whom the order is made —

- (a) is restrained from making any further application in the legal proceedings in respect of which the order is made without the leave of that court; and
- (b) may apply to amend, vary or discharge the order, only if the party has the leave of that court to make that application.

(3) Where a party, who is subject to a limited civil restraint order, makes an application (other than for the leave of the court under subsection (2)) in the legal proceedings in respect of which the order is made without the leave of the court under subsection (2), that application is to be treated as dismissed —

- (a) without the court having to make any further order; and
- (b) without the need for any other party to be heard on the merits of that application.

(4) A limited civil restraint order —

- (a) is limited to the particular legal proceedings in respect of which the order is made; and
- (b) remains in effect for the duration of the legal proceedings in respect of which the order is made, unless the court orders otherwise.

(5) Where a party, who is subject to a limited civil restraint order made by the High Court, applies for the leave of the court under subsection (2), and the High Court refuses such leave, the party may, subject to section 34(2A), bring an appeal from the order refusing such leave to the Court of Appeal.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

Extended civil restraint orders

73C.—(1) A court may, if satisfied that a party has persistently commenced actions or made applications that are totally without merit, make an extended civil restraint order against the party.

(2) Where a court makes an extended civil restraint order, the party against whom the order is made —

- (a) is restrained from commencing any action or making any application, in any court or subordinate court specified in the order, concerning any matter involving, relating to, touching upon or leading to the legal proceedings in respect of which the order is made, without the leave of the court that made the order; and
- (b) may apply to amend, vary or discharge the order, only if the party has the leave of the court that made the order to make that application.

(3) Where a party, who is subject to an extended civil restraint order, commences an action or makes an application (other than for the leave of the court under subsection (2)), in any court or subordinate court specified in the order, concerning any matter involving, relating to, touching upon or leading to the legal proceedings in respect of which the order is made, without the leave of the court under subsection (2), that action or application is to be treated as struck out or dismissed —

- (a) without the court having to make any further order; and
- (b) without the need for any other party to be heard on the merits of that action or application.

(4) An extended civil restraint order —

- (a) remains in effect for a period (not exceeding 2 years) that is specified in the order; and
- (b) must specify every court or subordinate court in which the party against whom the order is made is restrained from commencing any action or making any application.

(5) The court —

- (a) may extend the period for which an extended civil restraint order remains in effect, if the court considers it appropriate to do so; but
- (b) must not extend that period for more than 2 years on any given occasion.

(6) Where a party, who is subject to an extended civil restraint order made by the High Court, applies for the leave of the court under subsection (2), and the High Court refuses such leave, the party may, subject to section 34(2A), bring an appeal from the order refusing such leave to the Court of Appeal.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

General civil restraint orders

73D.—(1) A court may, if satisfied that a party has persisted in commencing actions or making applications that are totally without merit, in circumstances where an extended civil restraint order would not be sufficient or appropriate, make a general civil restraint order against the party.

(2) Where a court makes a general civil restraint order, the party against whom the order is made —

- (a) is restrained from commencing any action or making any application, in any court or subordinate court specified in the order, without the leave of the court that made the order; and

- (b) may apply to amend, vary or discharge the order, only if the party has the leave of the court that made the order to make that application.

(3) Where a party, who is subject to a general civil restraint order, commences an action or makes an application (other than for the leave of the court under subsection (2)), in any court or subordinate court specified in the order, without the leave of the court under subsection (2), that action or application is to be treated as struck out or dismissed —

- (a) without the court having to make any further order; and
- (b) without the need for any other party to be heard on the merits of that action or application.

(4) A general civil restraint order —

- (a) remains in effect for a period (not exceeding 2 years) that is specified in the order; and
- (b) must specify every court or subordinate court in which the party against whom the order is made is restrained from commencing any action or making any application.

(5) The court —

- (a) may extend the period for which a general civil restraint order remains in effect, if the court considers it appropriate to do so; but
- (b) must not extend that period for more than 2 years on any given occasion.

(6) Where a party, who is subject to a general civil restraint order made by the High Court, applies for the leave of the court under subsection (2), and the High Court refuses such leave, the party may, subject to section 34(2A), bring an appeal from the order refusing such leave to the Court of Appeal.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

Vexatious litigants

74.—(1) If, on an application made by the Attorney-General, the High Court is satisfied that any person has habitually and persistently and without any reasonable ground instituted vexatious legal proceedings in any court or subordinate court, whether against the same person or against different persons, the High Court may, after hearing that person or giving him an opportunity of being heard, order that —

- (a) no legal proceedings shall without the leave of the High Court be instituted by him in any court or subordinate court; and
- (b) any legal proceedings instituted by him in any court or subordinate court before the making of the order shall not be continued by him without such leave, and such leave shall not be given unless the High Court is satisfied that the proceedings are not an abuse of the process of the court and that there is prima facie ground for the proceedings.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

(2) If the person against whom an order is sought under subsection (1) satisfies the High Court that he lacks the means to retain an advocate and solicitor, the High Court shall assign one to him.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

(2A) A person against whom the High Court makes an order under subsection (1) may bring an appeal from the order to the Court of Appeal only with the leave of the High Court or the Court of Appeal.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(3) No appeal shall lie from an order refusing leave under subsection (1) for institution or continuance of legal proceedings.

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(4) A copy of any order under subsection (1) shall be published in the Gazette.

(5) In this section, “legal proceedings” includes any proceedings, process, action, application or appeal in any civil matter, quasi-criminal matter or criminal matter.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

Disabilities of Registrar and other officers

Disqualification of Registrar

75.—(1) Except with the approval of the Chief Justice, the Registrar, the Deputy Registrar and an Assistant Registrar —

(a) shall not be capable of —

- (i) accepting or taking any other office of emolument; or
- (ii) carrying on any business either directly or indirectly; and

(b) shall not accept any fees of office, perquisites, emoluments or advantages, other than his salary and allowances.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Registrar, the Deputy Registrar and an Assistant Registrar may, with the approval of the Chief Justice —

(a) be appointed to any commission of inquiry, committee of inquiry or other judicial, quasi-judicial or administrative tribunal, or hold any office in any institution or society for charitable purposes or for the advancement or encouragement of art, science, education or other knowledge; and

(b) receive an allowance or other honorarium in respect of that appointment or office.

[30/2010 wef 01/01/2011]

Registrar not to act where interested

76. The Registrar, the Deputy Registrar or an Assistant Registrar shall not, except with the approval of the Chief Justice, or with the consent of the parties, investigate or hear and determine any proceedings to or in which he is a party or personally interested.

[58/73]

Officers of Supreme Court not to bid at sales under any written law

77. No officer of the Supreme Court having any duty to perform in connection with the sale of any property under any written law shall, directly or indirectly, purchase or bid for the property.

Misconduct of officers

78.—(1) Without prejudice to any written law and rules governing the conduct and discipline of public officers, if any officer of the Supreme Court is charged —

(a) with extortion or misconduct while acting under colour of the process of the Supreme Court; or

(b) with not duly paying or accounting for any money levied by him under the authority of this Act or Rules of Court, it shall be lawful for the Registrar to inquire into the matter in a summary way.

(2) For the purpose of any such inquiry, the Registrar may summon and enforce the attendance of all necessary parties in the like manner as the attendance of witnesses in any case may be enforced.

(3) On any such inquiry, the Registrar may make such order as he thinks just for the repayment of the money extorted or the due payment of the money levied, and for the payment of damages and costs, and also, if he thinks fit, may impose such fine upon the officer, not exceeding $100 for each offence, as appears to him to be adequate.

(4) If it is found by the Registrar that any officer, while employed in putting in execution this Act or Rules of Court or any of the powers thereof, has wilfully and corruptly exacted or accepted any fee or reward whatsoever, other than such fees as are for the time being allowed under this Act or Rules of Court, that officer shall, in addition to being liable for damages under subsection (3), be incapable of being an officer of the Supreme Court.

(5) An appeal shall lie to the Chief Justice from an order made by the Registrar under this section.

(6) The decision of the Chief Justice shall be final.

Protection of Registrar and other persons

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

Protection of Registrar and other persons

79.—(1) The Registrar, the Deputy Registrar or an Assistant Registrar or other person acting judicially shall not be liable to be sued in any court exercising civil jurisdiction for any act done by him in the discharge of his judicial duty whether or not within the limits of his jurisdiction, provided that he at the time in good faith believed himself to have jurisdiction to do or order the act complained of.

[58/73]

(2) No officer of the Supreme Court charged with the duty of executing any writ, summons, warrant, order, notice or other mandatory process of the court shall be liable to be sued in any court exercising civil jurisdiction for the execution of or attempting to execute such writ, summons, warrant, order, notice or other mandatory process, or in respect of any damage caused to any property in effecting or attempting to effect execution, unless it appears that he knowingly acted in excess of the authority conferred upon him by such writ, summons, warrant, order, notice or other mandatory process of the court.

(3) An officer of the Supreme Court shall not be deemed to have acted knowingly in excess of his authority merely by reason of the existence of a dispute as to the ownership of any property seized under any writ or order of execution.

(4) Where a registered medical practitioner, psychologist, counsellor, social worker or mental health professional is appointed by the High Court to examine and assess a child or person for the purposes of preparing expert evidence for use in any proceedings involving the custody or welfare of that child or involving that person (as the case may be), the registered medical practitioner, psychologist, counsellor, social worker or mental health professional (as the case may be) shall not be liable to be sued for an act done by him for the purposes of the examination or assessment, or the preparation of the expert evidence for use in those proceedings, if the act —

- (a) was done in good faith; and
- (b) did not involve any fraud or wilful misconduct on his part.

[Act 16 of 2016 wef 10/06/2016]

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

Rules of Court

Rules of Court

80.—(1) The Rules Committee constituted under subsection (3) may make Rules of Court regulating and prescribing the procedure (including the method of pleading) and the practice to be followed in the High Court and the Court of Appeal respectively in all causes and matters whatsoever in or with respect to which those courts respectively have for the time being jurisdiction (including the procedure and practice to be followed in the Registry of the Supreme Court) and any matters incidental to or relating to any such procedure or practice.

[16/93]

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), Rules of Court may be made for the following purposes:

- (a) prescribing the manner in which, and the time within which, any application which under this Act or any other written law is to be made to the High Court or the Court of Appeal shall be made;
- (b) prescribing what part of the business which may be transacted and of the jurisdiction and powers which may be exercised by a Judge in court or in chambers may be transacted or exercised by the Registrar, the Deputy Registrar or an Assistant Registrar (including provisions for appeals against decisions of the Registrar, the Deputy Registrar or an Assistant Registrar);

- (c) regulating and prescribing the procedure to be followed in regard to proceedings under the Government Proceedings Act (Cap. 121) where such proceedings are instituted in the Supreme Court;
- (d) regulating and prescribing the procedure to be followed on appeals from any subordinate court to the High Court or the Court of Appeal and the procedure in connection with the transfer of any proceedings from any subordinate court to the High Court or from the High Court to a subordinate court;
- (e) regulating and prescribing the procedure to be followed on appeals from the High Court to the Court of Appeal;
- (f) prescribing the scales of allowances, costs and fees to be taken or paid to any party or witness in any proceedings in the High Court or the Court of Appeal, and for regulating any matters relating to the costs of proceedings in such courts;
- (g) enabling proceedings —
 - (i) to be commenced in the High Court against the estate of a deceased person (whether by the appointment of a person to represent the estate or otherwise) where no grant of probate or letters of administration has been made;
 - (ii) purporting to have been commenced in the High Court by or against a person to be treated, if he was dead at their commencement, as having been commenced by or against, as the case may be, his estate whether or not a grant of probate or letters of administration was made before their commencement; and
 - (iii) commenced or treated as commenced in the High Court by or against the estate of a deceased person to be maintained (whether by substitution of parties, amendment or otherwise) by or against, as the case may be, a person appointed to represent the estate or, if a grant of probate or letters of administration is or has been made, by or against the personal representatives;

- (h) regulating the means by which particular facts may be proved, and the manner in which any factual, expert or opinion evidence may be adduced, in any proceedings or on any application in connection with or at any stage of any proceedings;

[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

- (i) regulating the joinder of parties and for prescribing in what cases persons absent, but having an interest in a cause or matter, shall be bound by any order made therein, and in what cause or matter orders may be made for the representation of absent persons by one or more parties to a cause or matter;
- (j) regulating the rate of interest payable on all debts, including judgment debts, or on the sums found due on taking accounts between parties, or on sums found due and unpaid by receivers or other persons liable to account to the court, except that in no case shall any rate of interest exceed 8% per annum, unless it has been otherwise agreed between the parties;
- (k) prescribing in what cases money due under a judgment or order is to be paid into court;
- (l) regulating the modes in which a writ of seizure and sale may be executed, and the manner in which seizure may be made of any property seizable thereunder, and the mode of sale by the Sheriff or any other officer of the Supreme Court of any property so seized, and the manner in which the right and title of purchasers of the property at any sale by any officer of the Supreme Court may be secured to the purchasers;
- (m) regulating the discovery of a judgment debtor's property in aid of the execution of any judgment or order;
- (n) the taking of evidence before an examiner on commission or by letters of request, and prescribing the circumstances in which evidence so taken may be read on the trial of an action;

(q) [Deleted by Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]

(2A) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), Rules of Court may be made in relation to the Singapore International Commercial Court for the following purposes:

- (a) to provide for different procedures and practices to be followed in respect of proceedings in that Court and in appeals from that Court;
- (b) to prescribe, for the purposes of section 18D(1), what constitutes an action of an international and commercial nature, and any other conditions that an action must satisfy before that Court may hear and try the action;

[Act 1 of 2018 wef 01/11/2018]

- (c) to prescribe, for the purposes of section 18D(2), what constitutes an international commercial arbitration, and any conditions that any proceedings must satisfy before that Court may hear those proceedings;

[Act 1 of 2018 wef 01/11/2018]

- (d) to prescribe, for the purposes of section 18J, the conditions to be satisfied before a case can be transferred to or from that Court, and to provide for the making of, and other matters related to, any consequential order referred to in section 18J(3)(b);

[Act 1 of 2018 wef 01/11/2018]

- (e) to prescribe, for the purposes of section 18K, the cases in which and the extent to which that Court is not bound to apply any rule of evidence under Singapore law, and the rules of evidence (if any) to be applied in those cases;
- (f) to prescribe, for the purposes of section 18L, any conditions to be satisfied before an order can be made under section 18L(1), and the matters which that Court may have regard to in determining any question of foreign law on the basis of submissions;
- (g) to prescribe, for the purposes of section 18M, any conditions to be satisfied before a party can be represented by a foreign lawyer or law expert in that Court or in an appeal from that Court;
[Act 22 of 2018 wef 01/11/2018]
- (h) to prescribe the circumstances where that Court may make a judgment or an order without hearing oral arguments;
- (i) to declare to be final, for the purposes of paragraph 1 of the Fourth Schedule, any judgment or order of that Court (not being a judgment or an order that finally disposes of an action on its merits);
[Act 46 of 2018 wef 01/01/2019]
- (j) to prescribe the fees and deposits payable for proceedings in that Court and in appeals from that Court;
- (k) to provide for the Registrar to decline to administer, or decline to continue administering, a case in that Court or an appeal from that Court if any fee or deposit referred to in paragraph (j) is not paid.
[Act 42 of 2014 wef 01/01/2015]

(3) The Rules Committee shall consist of —

- (a) the Chief Justice, who shall be the Chairman of the Committee;
- (b) the Attorney-General;
- (c) not more than 5 Judges of the Supreme Court (excluding the Presiding Judge of the State Courts) to be appointed by

*SupplementalConversion of pending petitions and motions to writs of summons, originating summonses and summonses

82.—(1) Where —

- (a) under any written law any civil action or application may be commenced in or made to the Court of Appeal, a Judge of Appeal, the High Court, a Judge or the Registrar (referred to in this section as the Court); and
- (b) the provisions under any written law by virtue of which such an action or application was required to be commenced or made by way of a petition, a motion or an originating motion have been amended such as to require that any such action or application shall, as from the date appointed for the coming into operation of the amendment, be commenced or made by way of a writ of summons, an originating summons or a summons, then, if any such action or application that has been commenced or made before that date by way of a petition, a motion or an originating motion is still pending before the Court on or after that date, the Court may, if it thinks just and expedient, order that the action or application (referred to in this section as a pending action or application) shall be converted to and be continued as an action or application commenced or made by way of a writ of summons, an originating summons or a summons, as is appropriate.

[42/2005]

(2) The Chief Justice may, where he considers it necessary or expedient to improve efficiency in the administration of justice, by order direct that any class or description of pending actions or applications before the Court shall be converted to and be continued as actions or applications commenced or made by way of a writ of summons, an originating summons or a summons, as is appropriate.

[42/2005]

(3) Where pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) any pending action or application has been converted to an action or application commenced or made by way of a writ of summons, an originating summons or a summons —

- (a) the action or application shall be continued in accordance with the provisions of the relevant written law and the practice and procedure as are in force and applicable in relation to that action or application at the time of the conversion; and
- (b) the Court may give to the parties to the action or application such directions as to the conduct and costs of the action or application as it thinks just and expedient for the purpose of facilitating the conversion of the action or application to an action or application commenced or made by way of a writ of summons, an originating summons or a summons (as the case may be) and its continuance as such.
