Conveyances and transfers in contemplation of sale

21.—(1) Subject to this section, any instrument whereby property is conveyed or transferred to any person in contemplation of a sale of that property shall be treated for the purpose of this Act as a conveyance or transfer on sale of that property for a consideration equal to the value of that property.

[38/75]

(2) If, on a claim made to the Commissioner not later than one year after the making or execution of an instrument chargeable with duty in accordance with subsection (1), it is shown to his satisfaction —

- (a) that the sale in contemplation of which the instrument was made or executed has not taken place and the property has been reconveyed or retransferred to the person from whom it was conveyed or transferred or to a person to whom his rights have been transmitted on death or bankruptcy; or
- (b) that the sale has taken place for a consideration which is less than the value in respect of which duty was paid on the instrument by virtue of this section, the Commissioner shall repay the duty paid by virtue of this section —

- (i) in a case falling under paragraph (a), so far as it exceeds the duty which would have been payable apart from this section; and section 37 and has expressed his opinion in accordance with that section.

(5) Subsections (1) to (4) shall apply whether or not an instrument conveys or transfers other property in addition to the property in contemplation of the sale of which it is made or executed, but the provisions of those subsections shall not affect the duty chargeable on the instrument in respect of that other property.

(6) For the purpose of subsection (1), the value of property conveyed or transferred by an instrument chargeable with duty shall be determined without regard to —

- (a) any power (whether or not contained in the instrument) on the exercise of which the property, or any part of or any interest in the property, may be revested in the person from whom it was conveyed or transferred or in any person on his behalf; or
- (b) any annuity reserved out of the property or any part of it, or any life or other interest so reserved, being an interest which is subject to forfeiture.

(7) If, on a claim made to the Commissioner not later than one year after the making or execution of the instrument, it is shown to his satisfaction that any such power as is mentioned in subsection (6)(a) has been exercised in relation to the property and the property or any property representing it has been reconveyed or retransferred in the whole or in part in consequence of that exercise, the Commissioner shall repay the duty paid by virtue of subsection (6) —

22A.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every contract or agreement for the sale of any specified immovable property (or any part thereof) which is chargeable with duty pursuant to section 22 (including any instrument chargeable in like manner) shall be charged with additional ad valorem duty (the amounts of which are indicated in the First Schedule), payable by the vendor of the property, in respect of the consideration for that sale as if it were an actual conveyance on sale of immovable property, if the property or part thereof is disposed of under that contract or agreement —

(a) whilst this section is in force; and

(b) before the expiration of the period prescribed in the section 22A Order in relation to the specified immovable property (referred to in this section as the specified holding period) from the date on which the vendor acquired that property or any part thereof.

(1A) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every conveyance on sale of any specified immovable property (or any part thereof) shall be chargeable with the same additional ad valorem duty under subsection (1), payable by the vendor of the property, in respect of the consideration for that sale, if the property or part thereof is disposed of under that instrument —

- (a) whilst this section is in force; and
- (b) before the expiration of the specified holding period from the date on which the vendor acquired that property or part thereof.

[28/2010 wef 20/02/2010]

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every instrument —

- (a) which is a conveyance or transfer operating as a voluntary disposition inter vivos of any specified immovable property (or any part thereof) and which is chargeable with duty under section 16 as if it were a conveyance or transfer on sale of that property;
- (b) which is a conveyance or transfer of any specified immovable property (or any part thereof) —
 - (i) by way of release or settlement;
 - (ii) pursuant to a declaration of trust where the beneficial interest in the property passes; or
- (c) whereby any specified immovable property (or any part thereof) is transferred, by way of distribution in specie upon the voluntary winding-up of a private company, to a person in his capacity as shareholder in that company, shall be treated for the purpose of this section as a conveyance on sale of immovable property and chargeable with the same additional ad valorem duty under subsection (1), payable by the transferor, in respect of the value of the property or part thereof so conveyed or transferred, if the property or part thereof is disposed of under that instrument —

- (A) whilst this section is in force; and
- (B) before the expiration of the specified holding period from the date on which the transferor acquired that property or any part thereof.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act and unless the section 22A Order specifies otherwise, every instrument which is a lease or an agreement for lease of any specified immovable property (or any part thereof) for a term equal to or exceeding the prescribed term, shall be treated for the purpose of this section as a conveyance on sale of immovable property and chargeable with the same additional ad valorem duty under subsection (1), payable by the lessor, in respect of the consideration for the lease, if the property or part thereof is disposed of under that instrument —

- (b) the fact that a lease or an agreement for lease for a specified period of time is determinable on the happening of an event within that time shall not be taken into consideration in determining its term.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an instrument whereby an exchange of any specified immovable property (or any part thereof) is effected shall be treated for the purpose of this section as a conveyance on sale of immovable property if the property or part thereof is disposed of under the instrument — and shall be chargeable with the same additional ad valorem duty under subsection (1), payable by that party, in respect of the value of the property or part thereof being exchanged that is of the greater value.

(6) In subsection (5), where a party disposes of 2 or more properties or parts thereof to another party under the instrument, those properties or parts shall be treated as one property or part, and their values shall be aggregated, for the purpose of determining the value of the property or part thereof being exchanged that is of the greater value.

 - (i) the single entity would have been a Type 2 PHE; and
 - (ii) the grantor would have been a significant owner of the single entity;
- (b) the conveyance is executed at any time on or after the effective date and whether at a time when the grantor would still be such significant owner or after the grantor has ceased to be one; and
- (c) the equity interests conveyed comprise or include equity interests in any of those entities and are equity interests specified in subsection (8), then the conveyance is chargeable with ad valorem duty (called duty D in this section, sections 23B and 23C, Article 3A of the First Schedule and Article 2A of the Third Schedule) that is payable by the grantor.

(7) Subsection (6) does not apply to any conveyance that is executed in the period between —

- (a) the time the grantor (including the grantor's associates) ceases to own any equity interests in any of the entities that comprise the single entity mentioned in that subsection; and

(b) the time the grantor beneficially owns equity interests in 2 or more of those entities again in circumstances where, had those entities been a single entity, the grantor would have been a significant owner of that single entity.

(8) The equity interests specified for subsections (3)(d) and (6)(c) are those that the grantor acquired —

(a) on or after the effective date; and

(b) within the prescribed holding period before the execution of the conveyance, and, for this purpose, where the grantor acquired the equity interests at different times, then the equity interests first acquired by the grantor are treated as being disposed of first by the grantor.

(9) To avoid doubt, both duty A and duty B, or both duty C and duty D (as the case may be), may be charged on the same instrument, and are in addition to any duty chargeable on the conveyance of shares in Article 3(c) of the First Schedule.

(10) The amounts of duty A, duty B, duty C and duty D are indicated in Article 3A of the First Schedule.

(11) For the purposes of this section and Article 3A of the First Schedule, a significant owner of an entity is a person who beneficially owns a percentage of the equity interests in the entity —

(a) that is equal to or more than the percentage prescribed in the section 23 Order as the equity-owning percentage; or

(b) that carries voting power in the entity that is equal to or more than the percentage prescribed in the section 23 Order as the voting power percentage.

(12) For the purposes of this section and Article 3A of the First Schedule —

(a) in determining whether a person is a significant owner of an entity, equity interests beneficially owned by each of the person's associates in the entity are treated as beneficially owned by the person; and

- (b) in determining whether a grantee becomes a significant owner of an entity upon the execution of a conveyance, equity interests beneficially owned by each of the grantee's associates in the entity, including those conveyed, transferred, assigned or agreed to be sold to any of the grantee's associates at or about the same time as the time of execution of the conveyance, are treated as beneficially owned by the grantee.

(13) In this section, sections 23A and 23C and Article 3A of the First Schedule, an entity is a PHE if —

- (a) the percentage of the market value of the total tangible assets of the entity as at the end of the most recent completed accounting period of the entity that comprise prescribed immovable property, is equal to or more than the percentage prescribed in the section 23 Order as the Type 1 PHE percentage; or
- (b) where the entity has a significant stake in one or more entities each of which is a Type 1 PHE, the percentage calculated by the following formula is equal to or more than the percentage that is prescribed in the section 23 Order as the Type 2 PHE percentage:

$$\frac{E}{F} \times 100,$$ and the entity is not an entity prescribed as a non-PHE under the section 23 Order.

(14) For the purposes of subsection (13)(b), the amount E is determined by adding both of the following:

- (a) the sum of the market values of all prescribed immovable properties that form part of the entity's total tangible assets as at the end of its most recent completed accounting period;
- (b) the sum of all amounts calculated for each Type 1 PHE in which the entity has a significant stake, using the formula $G \times H$, where —

- (i) G is the percentage of equity interests in the Type 1 PHE beneficially owned by the entity; and
- (ii) H is the sum of the market values of all prescribed immovable properties that form part of the total tangible assets of the Type 1 PHE as at the end of the most recent completed accounting period of the Type 1 PHE.

(15) For the purposes of subsection (13)(b), the amount F is determined by adding both of the following:

- (a) the market value of the total tangible assets of the entity as at the end of its most recent completed accounting period;
- (b) the sum of all amounts calculated for each entity (called in this subsection the 2nd entity) in which the entity has a significant stake, using the formula $G1 \times I$, where —
 - (i) G1 is the percentage of equity interests in the 2nd entity beneficially owned by the entity; and
 - (ii) I is the market value of the total tangible assets of the 2nd entity as at the end of the most recent completed accounting period of the 2nd entity.

(16) For the purposes of subsections (13), (14) and (15), an entity has a significant stake in another entity if the percentage of equity interests in the other entity which it beneficially owns is not less than the percentage prescribed in the section 23 Order as the significant stake percentage.

(17) For the purposes of subsections (14)(b), (15)(b) and (16), in a case where an entity (X) (being a partnership or limited partnership) beneficially owns equity interests in another entity (Y), a partner of X that is itself an entity is taken to beneficially own a percentage of equity interests in Y that is calculated according to the formula $L \times M$, where —

- (a) L is the percentage of the partner's share in the partnership; and

(b) M is the percentage which the value of equity interests in Y owned by X bears to the total value of all equity interests in Y .

(18) For the purposes of subsections (14)(b), (15)(b), (16) and (17), if —

(a) an entity (called in this subsection the subject entity) beneficially owns (including by reason of one or more applications of this subsection) equity interests in another entity (called in this subsection the 1st level entity); and

(b) the 1st level entity beneficially owns equity interests in another entity (called in this subsection the 2nd level entity), then the subject entity is taken to beneficially own a percentage of equity interests in the 2nd level entity that is calculated according to the formula $N \times O$, where —

(i) N is the percentage which the value of equity interests in the 1st level entity beneficially owned by the subject entity bears to the total value of all equity interests in the 1st level entity; and

(ii) O is the percentage which the value of equity interests in the 2nd level entity beneficially owned by the 1st level entity bears to the total value of all equity interests in the 2nd level entity.

(19) To avoid doubt, in determining, for the purposes of subsections (14)(b), (15)(b), (16), (17) and (18), the percentage of the equity interests in an entity that are beneficially owned by another entity, all of the equity interests that the other entity owns, whether directly, or indirectly under subsection (18) through one or more chains of ownership, are to be added together.

(20) In this section, section 23A and Article 3A of the First Schedule, a person (X) is an associate of another person (Y) if —

(a) X is the spouse, a parent, a grandparent, a child, a grandchild or a child of a parent of Y ;

- (b) X and Y are partners in a partnership, limited partnership or limited liability partnership;
- (c) X is a person with whom Y has an agreement or arrangement, whether oral or in writing and whether express or implied, to act together with respect to the acquisition, holding or disposal of equity interests in, or with respect to the exercise of their votes in relation to, the entity in question; or
- (d) X is associated with Y in such manner as may be prescribed in the section 23 Order.

[Act 13 of 2017 wef 11/03/2017]

Section 23, etc., applies also to transfers, assignments and contracts

23B.—(1) Sections 23 and 23A apply to a transfer or assignment of equity interests in an entity as they apply to a conveyance of those equity interests, and for this purpose —

[Act 13 of 2017 wef 11/03/2017]

Instruments effecting certain arrangements regarded as conveyances chargeable with section 23 duties, etc.

23C.—(1) Where —

- (a) an arrangement mentioned in subsection (3) has the effect of a person (X) beneficially owning equity interests, more equity interests or a higher percentage of equity interests in an entity (called in this section acquired equity interests), or a person (Y) beneficially owning no equity interest, less equity interests or a lower percentage of equity interests in an entity (called in this section disposed equity interests), or both; and
- (b) had the acquired equity interests been conveyed to X, or the disposed equity interests been conveyed by Y, or both (as the case may be), the conveyance would have been chargeable with duty A, duty B, duty C, duty D or ad valorem duty under Article 3(c) of the First Schedule, or one or more of these, then the arrangement is treated as a conveyance of equity interests to X or a conveyance of equity interests by Y, or from X to Y (as the case may be).

(2) In the case mentioned in subsection (1), duty A, duty B, duty C, duty D or ad valorem duty under Article 3(c) of the First Schedule, or 2 or more of these (whichever is applicable), are chargeable on the following instrument as if it were such a conveyance:

- (a) any instrument that, in the Commissioner's opinion, effects (whether directly or indirectly and whether wholly or partially) or is evidence of the arrangement; or
 - (b) in the absence of any such instrument, a notice prescribed in the section 23 Order for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (3) The arrangements in subsection (1) are —
 - (a) an acquisition by an entity of its equity interests;
 - (b) an issue by an entity of equity interests;
 - (c) a cancellation or redemption of equity interests in an entity;
 - (d) the conversion of —
 - (i) equity interests into instruments that are not equity interests;
 - (ii) instruments that are not equity interests into equity interests; or
 - (iii) equity interests from one class to another class;
 - (e) the conversion of an entity to another type of entity;
 - (f) a change of partners of a partnership, limited partnership or limited liability partnership;
 - (g) an amalgamation of entities; and
 - (h) any other arrangement that, in the Commissioner's opinion, has as its purpose or one of its purposes the effect mentioned in subsection (1)(a).
- (4) Despite subsection (2), ad valorem duty under Article 3(c) of the First Schedule is not chargeable on an instrument under that subsection in relation to any arrangement to which section 31, 32A, 32C or 33 applies, if the instrument in relation to that arrangement is chargeable with the same duty by reason of that section.
- (5) If the Commissioner is of the opinion that the effect mentioned in subsection (1)(a) could not reasonably have been prevented by any person who is liable (if not for this subsection) to pay any duty chargeable under subsection (2), then that duty is not chargeable on the instrument, or the amount of that duty is reduced by the amount of the duty that the person is liable to pay.

(6) Where —

- (a) an arrangement in subsection (7) results in an entity ceasing to be a PHE;
- (b) had the entity been a PHE at the time of the execution of a conveyance, transfer or assignment of equity interests in it, or of a contract or agreement for the sale of equity interests in it, that instrument would have been chargeable with duty A or duty B, or both (as the case may be); and
- (c) the arrangement takes place at any time within such period as may be prescribed by the section 23 Order before the time of execution of that instrument, then duty A or duty B, or both (as the case may be) are chargeable on that instrument as if it were a conveyance of equity interests in a PHE.

(7) The arrangements in subsection (6) are —

- (a) a change in the composition of the tangible assets of an entity; and
- (b) any other arrangement that, in the Commissioner's opinion, has as its purpose or one of its purposes the effect mentioned in subsection (6)(a).

(8) If the Commissioner is of the opinion that the arrangement under subsection (6) was not (whether solely or partly) carried out for the purpose of avoiding the liability to pay that duty, then the instrument is not chargeable with that duty.

(9) Sections 23, 23A and 23B also apply (with such modifications as may be prescribed in the section 23 Order) to any other instrument that, in the Commissioner's opinion, effects (whether directly or indirectly and whether wholly or partially) or is evidence of any arrangement that the section 23 Order prescribes as an equivalent arrangement, as it applies to an instrument chargeable with duty under section 23.

(10) The section 23 Order may prescribe, as an equivalent arrangement for the purposes of subsection (9), any arrangement the purpose or effect of which is to (directly or indirectly) —

- (a) alter the incidence of any duty which is payable or which would otherwise have been payable by any person under section 23;
- (b) relieve any person from any liability to pay such duty; or
- (c) reduce or avoid any liability imposed or which would otherwise have been imposed on any person by section 23.

(11) In this section, “arrangement” means any scheme, trust, grant, covenant, agreement, disposition or transaction, whether or not it is or is part of a business or family dealing or is carried out for a bona fide commercial reason, and includes all steps by which it is carried into effect.

(12) The section 23 Order may —

- (a) require a specified person to give notice in a specified form to the Commissioner of an arrangement to which subsection (1) applies;
- (b) treat the notice as an instrument for the purposes of subsection (2)(b);
- (c) provide that any contravention of a requirement under paragraph (a) shall be an offence punishable with a fine of up to 4 times the amount of ad valorem duty that is chargeable on the instrument; and
- (d) exempt specified arrangements from this section.

25.—(1) Where the consideration or any part of the consideration for which a lease is granted or agreed to be granted consists of any produce or other goods, the value of the produce or goods shall be deemed a consideration in respect of which the lease or agreement is chargeable with ad valorem duty.

(2) If the rent or any other consideration payable by the lessee under a lease cannot be ascertained or estimated at the time that the lease is presented for stamping (whether because the consideration depends on some future contingency or for any other reason), the Commissioner may assess the duty payable based on the open market rent for the leased property as if the open market rent were the rate or average rate of rent per annum under the lease and there were no other consideration payable under the lease.

[33/99]

(3) If the consideration payable by the lessee under a lease can be ascertained or estimated at the time that the lease is presented for stamping but the duty that may be charged on the instrument (whether as a lease or a conveyance on sale or both) apart from this section is less than the duty that would be payable based on the open market rent for the property, the Commissioner may assess the duty payable based on the open market rent as if the open market rent were the rate or average rate of rent per annum under the lease and there were no other consideration payable under the lease.

[33/99]

(4) For the purposes of this section, the Commissioner may cause a valuation to be made by the Chief Valuer of any property that is the subject of a lease for the purpose of determining the open market rent for the property.

[33/99]

(2) Where such total amount is unlimited, the security is to be available for such an amount only as the ad valorem duty impressed thereon or denoted by the stamp certificate attached thereto, as the case may be, extends to cover; but where any advance or loan is made in excess of the amount covered by that duty the security shall for the purpose of stamp duty be deemed to be a new and separate instrument bearing date on the day on which the advance or loan is made.

[33/99; 38/2002]

(1A) Where the person seeks the opinion of the Commissioner under subsection (1) as to the amount of duty chargeable, he shall in making the application for adjudication set forth the value upon which in his opinion duty is chargeable.

[38/75]

(1B) The person seeking the opinion of the Commissioner under subsection (1) as to the amount of duty chargeable shall pay the relevant adjudication fee prescribed in the Fourth Schedule at such time as the Commissioner may determine, and such fee shall remain payable notwithstanding that he subsequently withdraws his application for adjudication.

[33/99]

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to require the Commissioner to certify that the full duty with which an instrument is chargeable has been paid —

[33/99]

(7) The Commissioner shall serve a notice of amended assessment on the person concerned of the assessment substituted in accordance with subsection (6).

(3) Upon the hearing of the case, the High Court shall determine the question submitted, and, if the instrument in question is in the opinion of the Court chargeable with any duty, shall assess the duty with which it is chargeable.

(4) If it is decided by the High Court that the decision of the Commissioner is erroneous, any excess of duty which may have been paid in conformity with the erroneous decision, together with any fine or penalty which may have been paid in consequence thereof, shall be ordered by the Court to be repaid to the appellant, with or without costs as the Court may determine.

[33/99]

(5) If the decision of the Commissioner is confirmed, the High Court may make an order for payment to the Commissioner of the costs incurred by him in relation to the appeal.

[33/99]

Stamping after adjudication

41. When the opinion of the Commissioner with respect to the amount of duty with which an instrument is chargeable has been obtained, the instrument shall be stamped in accordance with the assessment of the Commissioner within 14 days after notice of the assessment, and in the case of an application to the High Court under section 40 within 14 days after the issue of the order of the High Court, or within such further period, in either case, as the Commissioner when giving notice of assessment or the High Court when making the order, may specify.
