 - (d) any other matters that the Authority may determine.
- (3) Subject to compliance by a parent supervisory authority with such conditions as the Authority may impose under subsection (2), a licensed trust company under inspection —
- (a) must afford the parent supervisory authority access to the books, accounts and documents of the branch or office of the licensed trust company under inspection, and provide such information (including information relating to the licensed trust company's internal control systems) and facilities as may be required to conduct the inspection; and

- (b) is not required to afford the parent supervisory authority access to its books, accounts and documents or to provide information or facilities at such times or at such places as would unduly interfere with the proper conduct of the normal daily business of the licensed trust company.

(4) A parent supervisory authority may, with the prior written approval of the Authority, appoint another body to conduct the inspection under subsection (1), and in such event the provisions of this section apply to the appointed body as they apply to the parent supervisory authority.

(5) For the purposes of ensuring the confidentiality of any information obtained in the course of an inspection by a parent supervisory authority under this section, section 49(1) applies, with the necessary modifications, to any official of the parent supervisory authority as if the official were an officer of a licensed trust company.

(6) To avoid doubt, this section, and section 48 in relation to an inspection under this section, do not apply to any inspection by a parent supervisory authority of the books, accounts and transactions of any branch or office of a licensed trust company, if —

- (a) the parent supervisory authority is an AML/CFT authority as defined in section 17 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2002, and exercises consolidated supervision authority as defined in that section over that licensed trust company; and

[Act 18 of 2022 wef 28/04/2023]

- (b) the inspection is solely for the purpose of such consolidated supervision.

[31/2017]

(7) Any licensed trust company which, without reasonable excuse, refuses or neglects to afford access to any book, account or document or provide any information or facility as may be required by this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $75,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $7,500 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

Confidentiality of inspection and investigation reports

48.—(1) Where a written report or any part of the written report (called in this section the report) has been produced in respect of any licensed trust company in Singapore —

- (a) by the Authority upon an inspection under section 40 or an investigation under section 41; or
- (b) by a parent supervisory authority upon an inspection under section 47, the report must not be disclosed by the licensed trust company, or any officer or auditor of the licensed trust company, to any other person except in the circumstances provided under subsection (2).

(2) Disclosure of the report mentioned in subsection (1) may be made —

- (a) by the licensed trust company in Singapore to any officer or auditor of that licensed trust company solely in connection with the performance of the duties of the officer or auditor (as the case may be) in that licensed trust company;
- (b) by any officer or auditor of the licensed trust company in Singapore to any other officer or auditor of that licensed trust company, solely in connection with the performance of their duties in that licensed trust company;
- (c) to the Authority if requested by the Authority, where the report has been produced by a parent supervisory authority; or
- (d) to any other person as the Authority may approve in writing.

(3) In granting written approval for any disclosure under subsection (2)(d), the Authority may impose such conditions as it considers appropriate.

(4) The obligation on an officer or auditor referred to in subsection (1) continues after the termination or cessation of the officer's or auditor's employment or appointment at the licensed trust company.

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or any condition imposed by the Authority under subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $75,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or

(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding $150,000.

(6) Any person who solicits or procures the disclosure to the person or to any other person of any report or any part of the report in contravention of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

(7) If any person to whom any report or any part of the report is disclosed knows or has reasonable grounds for believing, at the time of the disclosure, that the report was disclosed to the person in contravention of that subsection, the person must report the disclosure to the Authority and take any one or more of the following actions, as appropriate, as soon as is practicable:

(a) where the disclosure was made in any written form, to surrender or take all reasonable steps to surrender the report and all copies of the report to the Authority;

(b) where the disclosure was made in an electronic form, to take all reasonable steps to ensure that all electronic copies of the report received by the person are deleted;

(c) to take any other action that the Authority may direct.

(8) Any person who contravenes subsection (7) shall be guilty of an offence.

Confidentiality

49.—(1) Information regarding a protected party or the business or other affairs of the protected party (called in this section protected information) must not, in any way, be disclosed by a licensed trust company in Singapore or any of its officers to any other person except as expressly provided in this Act.

(2) A licensed trust company in Singapore or any of its officers may, for such purpose as may be specified in the first column of the Third Schedule, disclose protected information to such persons or class of persons as may be specified in the second column of that Schedule, and in compliance with such conditions as may be specified in the third column of that Schedule.

(3) Where any protected information is likely to be disclosed in any proceedings referred to in item 3 or 4 of Part 1 of the Third Schedule, the court may, either of its own motion or on the application of any party to the proceedings or the protected party to which the information relates —

- (a) direct that the proceedings be held in private; and [Act 25 of 2021 wef 01/04/2022]
- (b) make any further orders that the court considers necessary to ensure the confidentiality of the information.

(4) Where an order has been made by a court under subsection (3), any person who, contrary to the order, publishes any information that is likely to lead to the identification of any party to the proceedings shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $75,000.

(5) Any person (including, where the person is a body corporate, an officer of the body corporate) who receives any protected information referred to in Part 2 of the Third Schedule must not, at any time, disclose the information or any part of the information to any other person, except as authorised under that Schedule or if required to do so by an order of court.

(6) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (5) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

- (a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $75,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or
- (b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding $150,000.

(7) In this section and in the Third Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires —

- (a) where disclosure of any protected information is authorised under the Third Schedule to be made to any person which is a body corporate, such information may be disclosed to such officers of the body corporate as may be necessary for the purpose for which the disclosure is authorised under that Schedule; and
- (b) the obligation of any officer or other person who receives any protected information referred to in Part 2 of the Third Schedule continues after the termination or cessation of the officer's or other person's appointment, employment, engagement or other capacity or office in which the officer or other person had received such information.

(8) To avoid doubt, nothing in this section is to be construed to prevent a licensed trust company from entering into an express agreement with a protected party of that licensed trust company for a higher degree of confidentiality than that prescribed in this section and in the Third Schedule.

(9) Where, in the course of an inspection under section 40 or an investigation under section 41 or the carrying out of the Authority's function of supervising or regulating a licensed trust company, the Authority incidentally obtains any protected information and such protected information is not necessary for the supervision or regulation of the licensed trust company by the Authority, then, such protected information must be treated as secret by the Authority.

(10) Nothing in subsection (9) prevents the Authority from disclosing or publishing consolidated statements aggregating any information obtained by the Authority under section 30(3).

(2) Where an appeal is made to the Minister under this Act, the Minister must, within 28 days of his or her receipt of the appeal, constitute an Appeal Advisory Committee comprising at least 3 members of the Appeal Advisory Panel and refer that appeal to the Appeal Advisory Committee.

(3) The Appeal Advisory Committee must submit to the Minister a written report on the appeal referred to it under subsection (2), and may make any recommendations that it thinks fit.

(4) The Minister must consider the report submitted under subsection (3) in making his or her decision under this section but he or she is not bound by the recommendations in the report.

Appeal Advisory Committees

52.—(1) For the purpose of enabling Appeal Advisory Committees to be constituted under section 51, the Minister must appoint a panel (called in this Part the Appeal Advisory Panel) comprising such members from the financial services industry, and the public and private sectors, as the Minister may appoint.

(2) A member of the Appeal Advisory Panel is to be appointed for a term of not more than 2 years and is eligible for re-appointment.

(3) An Appeal Advisory Committee has the power, in the exercise of its functions, to inquire into any matter or thing relating to any trust business or any licensed trust company and may, for this purpose, summon any person to give evidence on oath or affirmation or produce any document or material necessary for the purpose of the inquiry.

(4) For the purposes of this Act, every member of an Appeal Advisory Committee —

(a) is deemed to be a public servant for the purposes of the Penal Code 1871; and

(b) in case of any suit or legal proceedings brought against the member for any act done or omitted to be done in the execution of the member's duty under the provisions of this Act, has the like protection and privileges as are by law given to a Judge in the execution of his or her office.

(a) the interest of the public;

(b) the interest of the protected parties of licensed trust companies; and

(c) the safeguarding of sources of information.

Regulations for purposes of this Part

54.—(1) The Minister may make regulations for the purposes and provisions of this Part and for the due administration of this Part.

PART 10MISCELLANEOUS*Registration of trust company as shareholder, etc., not notice of trust

55.—(1) Neither the application by a licensed trust company for registration as a member or shareholder in the books of any company or corporation nor the entry of the name of a licensed trust company in the books of any company or corporation constitutes a notice of trust.

(2) A company or corporation is not entitled to object to the entering of the name of a licensed trust company in its books by reason only that the licensed trust company may be or is a trustee.

(3) In dealings with property, the fact that the person or one of the persons dealt with is a licensed trust company does not of itself constitute a notice of trust.

Trusteeship

56.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), in all cases in which the court or any person or persons has or have power to appoint a trustee, whether as an original or a new or an additional trustee, to perform any legal trust or duty, a licensed trust company may be appointed in the same manner as if the licensed trust company were a private individual.

(2) A licensed trust company must not be appointed in any case in which the instrument creating the trust, or the power authorising the appointment, forbids the appointment of a company.

Joint tenancy

Licensed trust company may act as agent

(2) Nothing in this section is deemed to authorise any person to confer upon a licensed trust company any power which may not lawfully be delegated by the person.

Trust funds to be kept separate

59.—(1) Every licensed trust company must ensure that all moneys, property, securities, specified securities-based derivatives contracts and units in a collective investment scheme received or held by the licensed trust company in a fiduciary capacity are always kept distinct and in separate accounts from its own moneys, property, securities, specified securities-based derivatives contracts and units in a collective investment scheme and marked in its books for each particular trust, so that they may be distinguished from any other assets shown in the registers and other books of account kept by it and so that the trust moneys do not form part of, or are not mixed with, its general assets.

(2) Every licensed trust company must ensure that all investments made by it as trustee are designated so that the trusts to which the investments belong may be readily identified at any time.

(3) Any licensed trust company which contravenes subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $5,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

Unclaimed money to be paid into court

60.—(1) All moneys and assets which remain in the hands of a licensed trust company, as trustee of a trust constituted in Singapore, and unclaimed by the person entitled to them for a period of 6 years after the time when they became payable to that person (except where payment has been restrained by order of a court of competent jurisdiction), together with interest (if any) that has been received by the licensed trust company in respect of the moneys and assets, less any commission or other charges properly chargeable by the licensed trust company, must be paid by the licensed trust company into court —

- (c) wilfully alters, extracts, conceals or destroys, or causes to be altered, extracted, concealed or destroyed, an entry in any such book, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

Duty not to provide false information to Authority

62.—(1) Any person who provides the Authority with any information under this Act must use due care to ensure that the information is not false or misleading in any material particular.

(2) Subsection (1) applies only to a requirement in relation to which no other provision of this Act creates an offence in connection with the provision of information.

64.—(1) Where an offence under this Act committed by a body corporate is proved —

(a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer; or

(b) to be attributable to any neglect on the officer's part,

the officer as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of the body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were a director of the body corporate.

(3) In this section, "officer", in relation to a body corporate, means a director, member of the committee of management, chief executive, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body, and includes a person purporting to act in any such capacity.

(4) Regulations may provide for the application of any provision of this section, with such modifications as the Authority considers appropriate, to a body corporate formed or recognised under the law of a territory outside Singapore.

Offences by officers

65.—(1) Any person, being an officer of a licensed trust company, who fails to take all reasonable steps to secure —

(a) compliance with any provision of this Act; or shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

(2) In any proceedings against an officer under subsection (1), it is a defence for the officer to prove that the officer had reasonable grounds for believing that another person was charged with the duty of securing compliance with the requirements of this Act, or with the duty of ensuring that those statements were accurate (as the case may be) and that that person was competent, and in a position, to discharge that duty.

(3) An officer shall not be sentenced to imprisonment for any offence under subsection (1) unless, in the opinion of the court, the officer committed the offence wilfully.

66. Any person who is guilty of an offence under this Act for which no penalty is expressly provided shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $12,500.

Penalty for corporations

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to —

(a) offences under section 7(3), 11(2), 13(6), 14(6), 21(2), 28(7) or (8), 29(3), 30(4) or (5), 47(6), 48(5)(b) or 49(6)(b); and

68. Proceedings for an offence under this Act may be taken only with the consent of the Public Prosecutor.

[15/2010]

Composition of offences

69.—(1) The Authority may compound any offence under this Act that is prescribed as a compoundable offence by collecting from a person reasonably suspected of having committed the offence a sum of money not exceeding one half of the amount of the maximum fine prescribed for that offence.

[10/2013]

(2) The Authority may compound any offence under this Act (including an offence under a provision which has been repealed) that —

(a) was compoundable under this section at the time the offence was committed; but

(b) has ceased to be so compoundable, by collecting from a person reasonably suspected of having committed the offence a sum of money not exceeding one half of the amount of the maximum fine prescribed for that offence at the time it was committed.

[10/2013]

(3) On payment of the sum of money mentioned in subsection (1) or (2), no further proceedings are to be taken against that person in respect of the offence.

[10/2013]

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), such regulations may provide for —

- (a) exemptions from any requirement relating to —
 - (i) the licensing or approval of any person; or
 - (ii) the lodgment or registration of any document, under this Act;
- (b) exemptions from any other requirement in this Act;
- (c) the application of this Act with such modifications as may be necessary;
- (d) the revocation or withdrawal of any exemption granted; and
- (e) the variation of any condition or restriction imposed in connection with the granting of any exemption under this Act.

Opportunity to be heard

71. Where this Act provides for a person to be given an opportunity to be heard by the Authority, the Authority may prescribe the manner in which the person is to be given an opportunity to be heard.

Power to reprimand for misconduct

72.—(1) Where the Authority is satisfied that a relevant person is guilty of misconduct, the Authority may, if it thinks it necessary in the interest of the public or of the protection of the protected parties of licensed trust companies, reprimand the relevant person.

- (b) in relation to an unincorporated association (other than a partnership), means the president, the secretary, a member of the committee of the association or a person holding a position analogous to that of president, secretary or member of a committee, and includes a person purporting to act in any such capacity;

“relevant person” means any licensed trust company or exempt person, or any employee, officer or partner of the licensed trust company or exempt person.

Appointment of assistants

73.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Authority may appoint any person to exercise any of its powers or perform any of its functions or duties under this Act, either generally or in any particular case, except the power to make subsidiary legislation.

(2) The Authority may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint one or more of its officers to exercise the power to grant an exemption to any person (not being an exemption granted to a class of persons) under any of the provisions of this Act as specified in the Fourth Schedule, or to revoke any such exemption.

(3) Any person appointed by the Authority under subsection (1) is deemed to be a public servant for the purposes of the Penal Code 1871.

apply to the code, guideline, policy statement, practice note or no-action letter; and

- (b) any reference in this Act or any other written law to the code, guideline, policy statement, practice note or no-action letter however expressed is, unless the context otherwise requires, a reference to the code, guideline, policy statement, practice note or no-action letter as so amended.

(5) Any failure of a person to comply with any provision of a code, guideline, policy statement or practice note issued under this section that applies to the person does not of itself render that person liable to criminal proceedings but any such failure may, in any proceedings whether civil or criminal, be relied upon by any party to the proceedings as tending to establish or to negate any liability which is in question in the proceedings.

(6) The issue by the Authority of a no-action letter does not of itself prevent the institution of any criminal proceedings against any person for a contravention of any provision of this Act.

(7) Any code, guideline, policy statement or practice note issued under this section —

- (a) may be of general or specific application; and
- (b) may specify that different provisions thereof apply to different circumstances or provide for different cases or classes of cases.

and the person to whom the direction is issued must comply with the direction.

(3) Any person who contravenes any direction issued under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of $5,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

(4) It is not necessary to publish any direction issued under subsection (1) in the Gazette.

[10/2013]

- (a) has committed an offence under this Act;
- (b) has contravened any condition or restriction of a trust business licence; or
- (c) is about to do an act that, if done, would be such an offence or contravention,

the court may, without affecting any order it would be entitled to make otherwise than under this section, make one or more of the following orders:

- (d) in the case of a persistent or continuing breach of this Act or of any condition or restriction of a licence, an order restraining a person from carrying on all or any of the trust business or from holding the person out as so carrying on all or any of the trust business or so acting;
- (e) for the purpose of securing compliance with any other order under this section, an order directing a person to do or refrain from doing a specified act;
- (f) any ancillary order deemed to be necessary or desirable in consequence of the making of any of these orders.

(2) The court may, before making an order under subsection (1), direct that notice of the application be given to such person as the court thinks fit or that notice of the application be published in such manner as it thinks fit, or both.
