PART 8

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

Inspection in Singapore by parent supervisory authority

47.—(1) In relation to a licensed trust company that is incorporated outside Singapore, the parent supervisory authority may, with the prior written approval of the Authority and under conditions of secrecy, conduct an inspection in Singapore of the books, accounts and transactions of any branch or office of that licensed trust company in Singapore in accordance with this section if the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) the inspection is required by the parent supervisory authority for the sole purpose of carrying out its supervisory functions;
 - (b) the parent supervisory authority —
 - (i) is prohibited by the laws applicable to the parent supervisory authority from disclosing information obtained by it in the course of the inspection to any other person; or
 - (ii) has given to the Authority such written undertaking, as to the confidentiality of the information obtained, as the Authority may determine;
 - (c) the parent supervisory authority has given a written undertaking to the Authority to comply with the provisions of this Act and such conditions as the Authority may impose under subsection (2).
- (2) The Authority may at any time, whether before, on or after giving written approval for an inspection under this section, require the parent supervisory authority to comply with conditions relating to —

- (a) the classes of information to which the parent supervisory authority is or is not to have access in the course of the inspection;
- (b) the conduct of the inspection;
- (c) the use or disclosure of any information obtained in the course of the inspection; and
- (d) any other matters that the Authority may determine.

(3) Subject to compliance by a parent supervisory authority with such conditions as the Authority may impose under subsection (2), a licensed trust company under inspection —

- (a) must afford the parent supervisory authority access to the books, accounts and documents of the branch or office of the licensed trust company under inspection, and provide such information (including information relating to the licensed trust company's internal control systems) and facilities as may be required to conduct the inspection; and
- (b) is not required to afford the parent supervisory authority access to its books, accounts and documents or to provide information or facilities at such times or at such places as would unduly interfere with the proper conduct of the normal daily business of the licensed trust company.

(4) A parent supervisory authority may, with the prior written approval of the Authority, appoint another body to conduct the inspection under subsection (1), and in such event the provisions of this section apply to the appointed body as they apply to the parent supervisory authority.

(5) For the purposes of ensuring the confidentiality of any information obtained in the course of an inspection by a parent supervisory authority under this section, section 49(1) applies, with the necessary modifications, to any official of the parent supervisory authority as if the official were an officer of a licensed trust company.

(6) To avoid doubt, this section, and section 48 in relation to an inspection under this section, do not apply to any inspection by a parent supervisory authority of the books, accounts and transactions of any branch or office of a licensed trust company, if —

- (a) the parent supervisory authority is an AML/CFT authority as defined in section 17 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2022, and exercises consolidated supervision authority as defined in that section over that licensed trust company; and

[Act 18 of 2022 wef 28/04/2023]

- (b) the inspection is solely for the purpose of such consolidated supervision.

Confidentiality of inspection reports

48.—(1) Where a written report or any part of the written report (called in this section the report) has been produced in respect of any licensed trust company in Singapore —

- (a) by the Authority upon an inspection under section 40; or

[Act 12 of 2024 wef 24/01/2025]

- (b) by a parent supervisory authority upon an inspection under section 47, the report must not be disclosed by the licensed trust company, or any officer or auditor of the licensed trust company, to any other person except in the circumstances provided under subsection (2).

(2) Disclosure of the report mentioned in subsection (1) may be made —

- (a) by the licensed trust company in Singapore to any officer or auditor of that licensed trust company solely in connection with the performance of the duties of the officer or auditor (as the case may be) in that licensed trust company;

- (b) by any officer or auditor of the licensed trust company in Singapore to any other officer or auditor of that licensed trust company, solely in connection with the performance of their duties in that licensed trust company;
- (c) to the Authority if requested by the Authority, where the report has been produced by a parent supervisory authority; or
- (d) to any other person as the Authority may approve in writing.

(3) In granting written approval for any disclosure under subsection (2)(d), the Authority may impose such conditions as it considers appropriate.

(4) The obligation on an officer or auditor referred to in subsection (1) continues after the termination or cessation of the officer's or auditor's employment or appointment at the licensed trust company.

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or any condition imposed by the Authority under subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

- (a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $75,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or
- (b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding $150,000.

(6) Any person who solicits or procures the disclosure to the person or to any other person of any report or any part of the report in contravention of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

(7) If any person to whom any report or any part of the report is disclosed knows or has reasonable grounds for believing, at the time of the disclosure, that the report was disclosed to the person in contravention of that subsection, the person must report the disclosure to the Authority and take any one or more of the following actions, as appropriate, as soon as is practicable:

- (a) where the disclosure was made in any written form, to surrender or take all reasonable steps to surrender the report and all copies of the report to the Authority;
 - (b) where the disclosure was made in an electronic form, to take all reasonable steps to ensure that all electronic copies of the report received by the person are deleted;
 - (c) to take any other action that the Authority may direct.
- (8) Any person who contravenes subsection (7) shall be guilty of an offence.

[Act 12 of 2024 wef 24/01/2025]

Confidentiality

49.—(1) Information regarding a protected party or the business or other affairs of the protected party (called in this section protected information) must not, in any way, be disclosed by a licensed trust company in Singapore or any of its officers to any other person except as expressly provided in this Act.

(2) A licensed trust company in Singapore or any of its officers may, for such purpose as may be specified in the first column of the Third Schedule, disclose protected information to such persons or class of persons as may be specified in the second column of that Schedule, and in compliance with such conditions as may be specified in the third column of that Schedule.

(3) Where any protected information is likely to be disclosed in any proceedings referred to in item 3 or 4 of Part 1 of the Third Schedule, the court may, either of its own motion or on the application of any party to the proceedings or the protected party to which the information relates —

- (a) direct that the proceedings be held in private; and

[Act 25 of 2021 wef 01/04/2022]

- (b) make any further orders that the court considers necessary to ensure the confidentiality of the information.

(4) Where an order has been made by a court under subsection (3), any person who, contrary to the order, publishes any information that is likely to lead to the identification of any party to the proceedings shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $75,000.

(5) Any person (including, where the person is a body corporate, an officer of the body corporate) who receives any protected information referred to in Part 2 of the Third Schedule must not, at any time, disclose the information or any part of the information to any other person, except as authorised under that Schedule or if required to do so by an order of court.

(6) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (5) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $75,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or

(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding $150,000.

(7) In this section and in the Third Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires —

(a) where disclosure of any protected information is authorised under the Third Schedule to be made to any person which is a body corporate, such information may be disclosed to such officers of the body corporate as may be necessary for the purpose for which the disclosure is authorised under that Schedule; and

(b) the obligation of any officer or other person who receives any protected information referred to in Part 2 of the Third Schedule continues after the termination or cessation of the officer's or other person's appointment, employment, engagement or other capacity or office in which the officer or other person had received such information.

(8) To avoid doubt, nothing in this section is to be construed to prevent a licensed trust company from entering into an express agreement with a protected party of that licensed trust company for a higher degree of confidentiality than that prescribed in this section and in the Third Schedule.

(9) Where, in the course of an inspection under section 40 or an investigation under section 42(1) or the carrying out of the Authority's function of supervising or regulating a licensed trust company, the Authority incidentally obtains any protected information and such protected information is not necessary for the supervision or regulation of the licensed trust company by the Authority, then, such protected information must be treated as secret by the Authority.

[Act 12 of 2024 wef 24/01/2025]

(10) Nothing in subsection (9) prevents the Authority from disclosing or publishing consolidated statements aggregating any information obtained by the Authority under section 30(3).

PART 10

MISCELLANEOUS

Registration of trust company as shareholder, etc., not notice of trust

55.—(1) Neither the application by a licensed trust company for registration as a member or shareholder in the books of any company or corporation nor the entry of the name of a licensed trust company in the books of any company or corporation constitutes a notice of trust.

(2) A company or corporation is not entitled to object to the entering of the name of a licensed trust company in its books by reason only that the licensed trust company may be or is a trustee.

(3) In dealings with property, the fact that the person or one of the persons dealt with is a licensed trust company does not of itself constitute a notice of trust.

Trusteeship

56.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), in all cases in which the court or any person or persons has or have power to appoint a trustee, whether as an original or a new or an additional trustee, to perform any legal trust or duty, a licensed trust company may be appointed in the same manner as if the licensed trust company were a private individual.

(2) A licensed trust company must not be appointed in any case in which the instrument creating the trust, or the power authorising the appointment, forbids the appointment of a company.

Joint tenancy

57. A licensed trust company, acting in a fiduciary capacity, is capable of acquiring and holding any property in joint tenancy in the same manner as if it were a private individual.

Licensed trust company may act as agent

58.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), a licensed trust company may act under any deed or instrument by which the licensed trust company is appointed agent or attorney for any person, and all the powers conferred upon the licensed trust company by any such deed or instrument may be exercised by such officer of the licensed trust company as the licensed trust company may appoint for that purpose.

(2) Nothing in this section is deemed to authorise any person to confer upon a licensed trust company any power which may not lawfully be delegated by the person.

Trust funds to be kept separate

59.—(1) Every licensed trust company must ensure that all moneys, property, securities, specified securities-based derivatives contracts and units in a collective investment scheme received or held by the licensed trust company in a fiduciary capacity are always kept distinct and in separate accounts from its own moneys, property, securities, specified securities-based derivatives contracts and units in a collective investment scheme and marked in its books for each particular trust, so that they may be distinguished from any other assets shown in the registers and other books of account kept by it and so that the trust moneys do not form part of, or are not mixed with, its general assets.

(2) Every licensed trust company must ensure that all investments made by it as trustee are designated so that the trusts to which the investments belong may be readily identified at any time.

(3) Any licensed trust company which contravenes subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $5,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

Unclaimed money to be paid into court

60.—(1) All moneys and assets which remain in the hands of a licensed trust company, as trustee of a trust constituted in Singapore, and unclaimed by the person entitled to them for a period of 6 years after the time when they became payable to that person (except where payment has been restrained by order of a court of competent jurisdiction), together with interest (if any) that has been received by the licensed trust company in respect of the moneys and assets, less any commission or other charges properly chargeable by the licensed trust company, must be paid by the licensed trust company into court —

(a) under and in accordance with section 62 of the Trustees Act 1967; and

(b) within such time or at such intervals as may be prescribed.

(2) It is not necessary for a licensed trust company to obtain the concurrence or consent of any person to make payment into court in accordance with subsection (1).

(c) wilfully alters, extracts, conceals or destroys, or causes to be altered, extracted, concealed or destroyed, an entry in any such book, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both.

(a) if the information or document is false or misleading in a material particular — to a fine not exceeding $25,000; or

(b) in any other case — to a fine not exceeding $12,500.

[Act 12 of 2024 wef 24/01/2025]

(a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer; or

(b) to be attributable to any neglect on the officer's part,

the officer as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of the body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were a director of the body corporate.

(2) In any proceedings against an officer under subsection (1), it is a defence for the officer to prove that the officer had reasonable grounds for believing that another person was charged with the duty of securing compliance with the requirements of this Act, or with the duty of ensuring that those statements were accurate (as the case may be) and that that person was competent, and in a position, to discharge that duty.

(3) An officer shall not be sentenced to imprisonment for any offence under subsection (1) unless, in the opinion of the court, the officer committed the offence wilfully.

(2) The Authority may compound any offence under this Act (including an offence under a provision which has been repealed) that —

73.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Authority may appoint any person to exercise any of its powers or perform any of its functions or duties under this Act, either generally or in any particular case, except the power to make subsidiary legislation.

(2) The Authority may appoint one or more of its officers to exercise the power to grant an exemption to any person (not being an exemption granted to a class of persons) under any of the provisions of this Act as specified in the Fourth Schedule, or to revoke any such exemption.

[Act 5 of 2025 wef 09/03/2025]

- (5) Any failure of a person to comply with any provision of a code, guideline, policy statement or practice note issued under this section that applies to the person does not of itself render that person liable to criminal proceedings but any such failure may, in any proceedings whether civil or criminal, be relied upon by any party to the proceedings as tending to establish or to negate any liability which is in question in the proceedings.
- (6) The issue by the Authority of a no-action letter does not of itself prevent the institution of any criminal proceedings against any person for a contravention of any provision of this Act.
- (7) Any code, guideline, policy statement or practice note issued under this section —
 - (a) may be of general or specific application; and

- (b) may specify that different provisions thereof apply to different circumstances or provide for different cases or classes of cases.
