- (a) any employee or agent of the accused or defendant, as the case may be;

(3) It is also a defence to a prosecution for an offence under section 5(1) for engaging in conduct which condones any conduct by another entity or individual which causes or contributes to any haze pollution in Singapore, and to a civil claim for a breach of duty under section 6(1) not to engage in conduct condoning any conduct by another entity or individual which causes or contributes to any haze pollution in Singapore, if the accused or defendant (as the case may be) proves, on a balance of probabilities, that —

- (a) the accused or defendant took all such measures as are (or were at the material time) reasonable to prevent such conduct by the other entity or individual; and
- (b) if the conduct by the other entity or individual already occurred, the accused or defendant took all such measures as are (or were at the material time) reasonable to stop that conduct from continuing or to substantially reduce the detriment or potential detriment to the environment in Singapore or its use or other environmental value, or the degradation or potential degradation to the environment in Singapore, due to the other entity's or individual's conduct.

(4) It is also a defence to a prosecution for an offence under section 5(3), or a civil claim for a breach of duty under section 6(2), if the accused or defendant (as the case may be) proves, on a balance of probabilities, that the conduct which caused or contributed to the haze pollution in Singapore was by another person acting without the knowledge or consent of the accused or defendant and the second entity mentioned in section 5(3) or 6(2), or contrary to the wishes or instructions of the accused or defendant and that second entity; but that other person cannot be —

- (a) any employee or agent of the accused or defendant (as the case may be) or of the second entity mentioned in section 5(3) or 6(2);

- (b) any person engaged, directly or indirectly, by the accused or defendant (as the case may be) or by the second entity mentioned in section 5(3) or 6(2), to carry out any work on the land owned or occupied by the second entity, and any of that person's employees; or
- (c) any person who has a customary right under the law of a foreign State or territory outside Singapore as regards the land in that foreign State or territory, and with whom the accused or defendant (as the case may be) or the second entity has an agreement or arrangement, which agreement or arrangement relates to any farming operations or forestry operations to be carried out by any person in respect of that land.

it is presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the entity which is the owner or occupier of the land engaged in conduct, or engaged in conduct that condones any conduct by another entity or individual, which caused or contributed to that haze pollution in Singapore.

- (3) For the purposes of this Act, where —

- (a) it is proved that an entity (called in this subsection the first entity) participates in the management of another entity (called in this subsection the second entity); and

(4) A notice under subsection (1) to any person takes effect only from the date the notice is served on the person and must also specify the period (which runs from the date the notice takes effect) within which the person must comply with the notice.

(5) Where a court is satisfied that any person served with a notice under subsection (1) intends to leave Singapore, the court may, on the application of the Public Prosecutor but after giving due regard to the person's circumstances, by order require the person to remain in Singapore for such period as the court considers reasonable to ensure that the person complies with the notice.

(6) If a person (whether in or outside Singapore) who is served with a notice under subsection (1), without reasonable excuse, fails to do or refrain from doing anything required of the person by that notice, the person shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month or to both.

(9) Where a notice under subsection (1) is issued in connection with investigations into a suspected offence under this Act, the Agency through an authorised officer may, at any time after the expiry of the period specified in the notice, enter any building or place where the Agency has reason to believe that any document or information, in respect of which it has given the notice, may be found, and seize or take extracts from or copies of any such document or information.
