[5/2018]

Establishment and incorporation of Temasek Polytechnic

3.—(1) A Polytechnic called the Temasek Polytechnic is established, consisting of a Board of Governors, a Senate, the members of the academic staff and the officers of the Polytechnic.

(2) The Polytechnic is a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and is by that name capable in law of —

- (a) suing and being sued;
- (b) acquiring, owning, holding and developing or disposing of property, both movable and immovable; and
- (c) doing and suffering all other acts or things that bodies corporate may lawfully do or suffer.

Objects and powers of Polytechnic

- 4.—(1) The objects of the Polytechnic are —
- (a) to provide instruction and training in technology, science, commerce, arts and other subjects of learning;
 - (b) to aid by research and other means the advancement of knowledge and its practical application; and
 - (c) to promote the exchange of knowledge and skills with business and industry.
- (2) The Polytechnic may —
- (a) provide any facilities for its students that it considers desirable;
 - (b) institute and make appointments to lectureships and other posts and offices and employ any other staff that the Polytechnic considers necessary;
 - (c) fix, demand and receive fees and other charges, including charges for the late payment of any such fee or charge;
[Act 4 of 2008 wef 01/04/2024]
 - (d) promote the formation of or acquire any interest in any undertaking; and
 - (e) do all things that may be necessary, incidental or conducive to the attainment of all or any of its objects.

Validation of collection of charge for late payment of fee or charge

4A. Every amount collected before the date of commencement of the Statutes (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 2008 as, or purportedly as, a charge for the late payment of any fee or charge referred to in section 4(2)(c) shall be deemed to be and always to have been validly collected, and no legal proceedings shall lie or be instituted or maintained in any court of law on account of or in respect of any such collection.

[Act 4 of 2008 wef 01/04/2024]

Board of Governors and Senate, their constitutions, powers and duties

5.—(1) The respective constitutions, functions, powers and duties of the Board and the Senate are prescribed by this Act and the Polytechnic Constitution.

(2) The Board is, subject to the provisions of this Act and the Polytechnic Constitution, the supreme governing body of the Polytechnic and, subject to the provisions of this Act and the Polytechnic Constitution, it must administer the property and manage the affairs of the Polytechnic.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Public Sector (Governance) Act 2018 and the Polytechnic Constitution and to the financial control of the Board, the Senate has the regulation of all matters relating to education in the Polytechnic.

[5/2018]

(4) No act or resolution of the Board or the Senate is invalid by reason only of any vacancy in, or any want to qualification by or invalidity in the election or appointment of any member of, the Board or the Senate.

Schools of Polytechnic

6.—(1) There are to be Schools of Science and Technology, Business and Design and any other Schools constituted by the Board on the recommendation of the Senate.

(2) There is to be a head of each School with the powers conferred by the Board.

(3) The Board may, on the recommendation of the Senate, form, dissolve or reform any School and any department, centre, unit and other subdivisions of any School as it may consider desirable.

Committees generally

7.—(1) The Board, the Senate and the Principal respectively may establish any committees that they think fit.

(2) Unless otherwise expressly provided, any committee may consist partly of persons who are not members of the Board or the Senate or officers of the Polytechnic, as the case may be.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Public Sector (Governance) Act 2018 and the Polytechnic Constitution, the Board, the Senate and the Principal respectively may, with or without restrictions or conditions as they think fit, delegate any of their powers and duties to any committee.

Officers and academic staff, their appointments, powers, duties and emoluments

8.—(1) The officers of the Polytechnic are the Principal, one or more Deputy Principals, the heads of the Schools, the Registrar and any other persons who are appointed by the Board as officers of the Polytechnic.

(2) The Principal, the Deputy Principals and the Registrar and other officers must be appointed by the Board in accordance with the Polytechnic Constitution.

(3) The academic staff of the Polytechnic are the heads of the Schools, lecturers and any other persons designated as members of the academic staff by the Polytechnic Constitution and they are to be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Principal.

(4) The powers and duties of the officers and members of the academic staff, the periods and conditions for and upon which they hold office and their emoluments are as prescribed by this Act, the Polytechnic Constitution and the terms of their respective appointments; but the Board may assign to any officer, and in the case of any member of the academic staff on the recommendation of the Principal, such further powers and duties as the Board may think fit.

8A. [Repealed by Act 5 of 2018]

Polytechnic Constitution

9.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Polytechnic is governed in accordance with the provisions of the Polytechnic Constitution set out in the Schedule.

(2) The Minister may, after consulting the Board, make any addition or amendment to or re-enact with amendments the Polytechnic Constitution.

(3) Every addition, amendment and re-enactment of the Polytechnic Constitution made in accordance with subsection (2) must be published in the Gazette and may be published in such other manner as the Board may direct.

(4) The Interpretation Act 1965 applies for the purposes of the interpretation of the Polytechnic Constitution as it applies for the purposes of the interpretation of an Act, and all expressions defined in this Act bear the same meaning when used in the Polytechnic Constitution, unless other provision is made in the Polytechnic Constitution, or a contrary intention otherwise appears.

(5) Regulations made under the Polytechnic Constitution need not be published in the Gazette and are not subsidiary legislation.

Examinations

10. All examinations held by the Polytechnic must be conducted in the manner prescribed by the Polytechnic Constitution and the regulations.

Power to confer diplomas, etc.

11. The Polytechnic has power —

- (a) to award diplomas and certificates and any other academic distinctions specified in the regulations; and
- (b) to provide such lectures and instruction for persons who are not registered students as the Polytechnic may determine, and to grant certificates to those persons.

Form of contracts

12.—(1) Contracts on behalf of the Polytechnic may be made as follows:

- (a) a contract which, if made between private persons, would be required by law to be in writing, and if made according to law to be under seal, may be made on behalf of the Polytechnic in writing under the common seal of the Polytechnic;
- (b) a contract which, if made between private persons, would be required by law to be in writing, and signed by the parties to be charged with the contract, may be made on behalf of the Polytechnic in writing signed by any person acting under the express or implied authority of the Board;
- (c) a contract which, if made between private persons would be valid by law, although made by parol only and not reduced into writing, may be made by parol on behalf of the Polytechnic by any person acting under the express or implied authority of the Board.

(2) A contract made according to this section is effectual in law and binds the Polytechnic and its successors and all other parties to the contract.

(3) A contract made according to this section may be varied or discharged in the same manner in which it is authorised by this section to be made.

Common seal

13.—(1) The common seal of the Polytechnic may be broken, changed, altered and made anew as the Board thinks fit and must be kept in such custody as the Board directs.

(2) The common seal of the Polytechnic must not be used except by resolution of the Board or in any other manner authorised by the Polytechnic Constitution.

(3) All courts and persons acting judicially are to take judicial notice of the common seal of the Polytechnic affixed to any document and, until the contrary is proved, are to assume that it was duly affixed.

Grants-in-aid

14.—(1) The Minister must pay to the Polytechnic such moneys as may be provided by Parliament as grants-in-aid to the Polytechnic.

(2) All moneys paid to the Polytechnic under subsection (1) may be applied or expended by the Polytechnic for the attainment of all or any of the objects of the Polytechnic.

Issue of shares, etc.

15. As a consequence of the vesting of any property, rights or liabilities of the Government in the Polytechnic under this Act, or of any capital injection or other investment by the Government in the Polytechnic in accordance with any written law, the Polytechnic must issue such shares or other securities to the Minister for Finance as that Minister may direct.

[14A
[5/2002]

Application of Societies Act 1966 to Students' Union

16.—(1) Despite anything to the contrary in the Societies Act 1966, the provisions of that Act apply to the Temasek Polytechnic Students' Union and its constituent bodies constituted by the regulations.

(2) The Minister charged with the responsibility for societies may, by order in the Gazette, exempt the Temasek Polytechnic Students' Union and any of its constituent bodies from all or any of the provisions of the Societies Act 1966 subject to any conditions specified in the order.

(3) In the Registrar's absence, the Chairperson may appoint a suitable person to act as secretary for a particular meeting.

(4) The Registrar is not, unless the Registrar is a member of the Board appointed to serve in that capacity, entitled to vote on any question before the Board.

Other officers and employees

4. The Board may, subject to the Public Sector (Governance) Act 2018, appoint and employ, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, such other officers, employees, consultants and agents as may be necessary for the effective performance of its functions.

PART 3

BOARD OF GOVERNORS AND SENATE

Board of Governors

5.—(1) The Board of Governors consists of the following members:

- (a) a Chairperson;
- (b) a Deputy Chairperson;
- (c) the Principal;
- (d) such other persons, not being less than 9 or more than 15.

(2) Every member of the Board, except the Principal, is appointed by the Minister and, unless the Minister otherwise directs, holds office for a period of 3 years from the date of the appointment and is eligible for re-appointment.

Powers of Board

6.—(1) The Board must administer the affairs of the Polytechnic other than those vested by the Act or this Constitution in some other authority of the Polytechnic or in an officer.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Board, subject to the provisions of the Act and this Constitution, has power —

- (a) to administer and manage the finances, accounts, investments, property, business and all affairs of the Polytechnic, and for that purpose to appoint bankers, counsel, solicitors and such officers or agents as it may be expedient to appoint;
- (b) to invest the moneys of the Polytechnic in accordance with the standard investment power of statutory bodies as defined in section 33A of the Interpretation Act 1965;

- (c) to purchase, grant, sell, convey, assign, surrender and yield up, exchange, partition, mortgage, demise, re-assign, transfer and accept leases of real and personal property on behalf of the Polytechnic;
 - (d) to provide the buildings, premises, furniture, apparatus and other means needed for the Polytechnic;
 - (e) to borrow money on behalf of the Polytechnic and for that purpose to mortgage all or any part of the property of the Polytechnic, whether real or personal, or give such other security, whether upon such real or personal property or otherwise, as it thinks fit;
 - (f) to enter into, vary, carry out and cancel contracts on behalf of the Polytechnic;
 - (g) to publish books and other matters on behalf of the Polytechnic;
 - (h) in consultation with the Senate to review the instruction and teaching at the Polytechnic;
 - (i) to cooperate with other polytechnics and authorities for the regulation and conduct of examinations, for the examination and inspection of schools and other academic institutions, for the extension of Polytechnic teaching and for other purposes;
 - (j) to propose to the Minister additions to, or the amendment or repeal of any of the provisions of, this Constitution;
 - (k) to prescribe fees and other charges, including charges for the late payment of any such fee or charge;
[Act 4 of 2008 wef 01/04/2024]
 - (l) to appoint officers, lecturers and other employees and to determine their duties and to fix their remuneration and the terms and conditions of their appointments;
 - (m) to appoint committees within or outside Singapore to select candidates for any office to which the Board may appoint;
 - (n) to delegate any of its powers to any members of the Board or to any committee of the Board or to any officer, lecturer or other employee of the Polytechnic; and
 - (o) to do all such other acts and things as may be requisite to give effect to the powers conferred on the Board by the Act or this Constitution.
- (3) The Board may by regulations provide for any of the following matters or purposes:
- (a) the administration of the affairs of the Polytechnic;

- (b) the appointment, promotion, conduct, disciplinary control, dismissal and termination of service of the officers, lecturers and other employees of the Polytechnic;
- (c) the welfare, discipline, suspension and expulsion of students;
- (d) the form of contracts;
- (e) the publications of the Polytechnic;
- (f) fees and other charges, including charges for the late payment of any such fee or charge;
[Act 4 of 2008 wef 01/04/2024]
- (g) the prescribing of anything which is by the Act or this Constitution to be prescribed by regulations made by the Board;
- (h) generally all matters which by the Act or this Constitution the Board is empowered to regulate.

(4) All such regulations come into operation on the day on which they are made unless otherwise provided by the Board.

Vacation of office of member of Board

7.—(1) The Minister may revoke the appointment of a member of the Board, except that of the Principal, if the member becomes in the opinion of the Minister unfit to continue in office or incapable of performing the member's duties.

(2) A member of the Board, except the Principal, may resign from his or her appointment by giving written notice to the Minister.

Filling of vacancy in office of member of Board

8. If the office of a member of the Board, other than that of the Principal, is vacant, the Minister may appoint any person to fill the vacancy and the person must be appointed for the remainder of the term of the person's predecessor.

Meetings of Board

9.—(1) The Chairperson must summon meetings of the Board as often as may be required.

(2) The quorum at every meeting of the Board is 6 members.

(3) Every decision at a meeting of the Board is to be adopted by a simple majority of the votes of the members present and voting except that, in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson or, in his or her absence, the Deputy Chairperson of the Board has a casting vote.

(4) The Chairperson or, in his or her absence, the Deputy Chairperson presides at a meeting of the Board.

(5) In the absence of the Chairperson and the Deputy Chairperson at a meeting of the Board, such member as the members present may elect presides at the meeting.

(6) The Board may grant leave of absence from a meeting of the Board to a member of the Board.

(7) The Board is not precluded from holding a meeting or acting in any matter merely by reason of any vacancy in its membership.

(8) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution and the Public Sector (Governance) Act 2018, the Board may make standing orders to regulate its own procedure.

Senate

10.—(1) The Senate consists of —

- (a) the Principal, who is the chairperson;
- (b) the heads of the Schools;
- (c) such number of officers of the Polytechnic to be appointed by the Board; and
- (d) such number of lecturers as may be determined by the Board to be elected by all the lecturers.

(2) The Senate must meet at least twice in each semester of every academic year and such other times as may be necessary.

(3) The quorum of the Senate is the smallest number which is not less than one-quarter of the number of members for the time being.

(4) The chairperson of the Senate may require any officer, lecturer or other employee of the Polytechnic to attend a meeting of the Senate.

(5) The Registrar is the secretary to the Senate and is not, unless the Registrar is appointed as a member of the Senate, entitled to vote on any question before the Senate.

Powers of Senate

11.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the Act and this Constitution and to the availability of the funds provided by the Board, the Senate has power —

- (a) to provide courses of study for the diplomas, certificates and other awards by the Polytechnic and any other courses of study that may be
