An Act to give effect to the merger of the existing Urban Redevelopment Authority established under the Urban Redevelopment Authority Act (Chapter 340 of the 1985 Revised Edition) and the Planning Department and the Research and Statistics Unit of the Ministry of National Development by the establishment and incorporation of the new Urban Redevelopment Authority and to provide for matters connected therewith.

[1st September 1989]

PART I
PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Urban Redevelopment Authority Act.

Interpretation

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires —

“Authority” means the Urban Redevelopment Authority established under section 3;

“building” includes any house, flat, hut, shed, roofed enclosure or other accommodation, whether used for the purpose of human habitation or otherwise, and also any wall, fence, platform, staging gate, post, pillar, paling, frame, hoarding, slip, dock, wharf, pier, jetty, landing stage or bridge, or any structure or foundation connected to the foregoing;

“Chairman” means the Chairman of the Authority and includes any temporary Chairman of the Authority;

“chief executive” means the chief executive of the Authority appointed under section 18 and includes any temporary chief executive of the Authority;

“develop” has the same meaning as in section 12 of the Planning Act [Cap. 232, 1990 Ed.];

“developed land” means land of the Authority upon which a building has been erected;

“flat” means a horizontal stratum of a building or part thereof, whether such stratum or part is on one or more levels or is partially or wholly below the surface of the ground;

“former Authority” means the Urban Redevelopment Authority established under the repealed Act;

“Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore” means the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore established under the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore Act (Cap. 138A);

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

“Jurong Town Corporation” means the Jurong Town Corporation established under the Jurong Town Corporation Act (Cap. 150);

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

“land” includes benefits to rise out of land and things attached to the earth or permanently fastened to anything attached to the earth;

“member” means a member of the Authority;

“monument” has the same meaning as in the Preservation of Monuments Act 2009;

[16/2009 wef 01/07/2009]

“Planning Department” means the Planning Department of the Ministry of National Development;

“property” includes houses, buildings, lands and tenements;

“repealed Act” means the Urban Redevelopment Authority Act [Cap. 340, 1985 Ed.] repealed by this Act;

“Research and Statistics Unit” means the Research and Statistics Unit of the Ministry of National Development;

“unit” includes a flat, a shop, an office or other tenement within an urban redevelopment area;

“urban redevelopment” includes the construction, reconstruction, extension, repair, alteration, change of use, aggregation and sub-division of a building and change of use, aggregation and sub-division of land;

“urban redevelopment area” means an area with or without any building therein declared by notification in the Gazette under section 8(1) to be an urban redevelopment area for the purposes of this Act.

PART II

ESTABLISHMENT, INCORPORATION AND CONSTITUTION
OF AUTHORITYEstablishment of Authority

3. There is hereby established in accordance with the provisions of this Act a body to be called the Urban Redevelopment Authority which shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and with power to sue and be sued in its corporate name, and to acquire and dispose of property, both movable and immovable, and to perform such other acts as bodies corporate may by law perform, and to exercise such other powers as are conferred under or by virtue of this Act.

Constitution of Authority

4.—(1) The Authority shall consist of —

(a) a Chairman; and

(b) not less than 4 nor more than 12 other members.

[29/2003 wef 05/12/2003]

(2) The First Schedule shall have effect with respect to the Authority, its members and proceedings.

Common seal and execution of documents

5.—(1) The Authority shall have a common seal and such seal may from time to time be broken, changed, altered and made anew as the Authority thinks fit.

(2) All deeds, documents and other instruments requiring the seal of the Authority shall be sealed with the common seal of the Authority and every instrument to which the common seal is affixed shall be signed by an officer of the Authority and shall be countersigned by a member of the Authority or by some other person duly authorised in writing by the Authority for that purpose, and such signing shall be sufficient evidence that such seal was duly and properly affixed and that the seal is the lawful seal of the Authority.

(3) The Authority may by resolution or otherwise in writing appoint an officer of the Authority or any other agent either generally or in a particular case to execute or sign on behalf of the Authority an agreement or other instrument not under seal in relation to any matter coming within the powers of the Authority.

(4) Section 12 of the Registration of Deeds Act [Cap. 269, 1989 Ed.] shall not apply to an instrument purporting to have been executed under subsection (2).

PART III

FUNCTIONS, DUTIES AND POWERS OF AUTHORITY

Functions and duties of Authority

6. It shall be the function and duty of the Authority —
- (a) to prepare or execute or prepare and execute proposals, plans and projects for —
 - (i) the clearance, development and redevelopment of such land as the Authority may think fit for the purpose of resettling persons displaced by operations of the Authority and other resettlement projects approved by the Minister or for any other purpose;
 - (ii) the erection, conversion, improvement and extension of any building for sale, lease, rental or other purpose; and
 - (iii) the provision and improvement of services and facilities for —
 - (A) the promotion of public safety, recreation and welfare; and
 - (B) the parking of vehicles;
 - (b) to superintend parking places;
 - (c) to sell, lease or grant licences to use or occupy such land belonging to the Authority for the purposes of the development and redevelopment of the land as the Authority may think fit;

- (ca) to sell, lease or grant licences to use or occupy land or other property as agent for the Government or any statutory authority when appointed to do so, for the purposes of the development and redevelopment of the land or property or for such other purpose as the Government or statutory authority may specify;
[29/2003 wef 05/12/2003]
- (d) to manage such lands, buildings or other property as the Authority may think fit;
- (e) to submit or make recommendations or proposals to the Government or any person or statutory body for the preservation and protection of any monument and land of historic, traditional, archaeological, architectural or aesthetic interest;
- (f) to provide information and advice to and act as agent and consultant for such Government department, person, company and corporation carrying on or intending to carry on a building project or scheme or urban redevelopment in Singapore or elsewhere as the Authority may think fit;
- (fa) to undertake land planning and to manage and control the development of land in Singapore;
[29/2003 wef 05/12/2003]
- (g) to inform and advise the Government on matters relating to land planning and the development of land in Singapore;
[29/2003 wef 05/12/2003]
- (h) to secure and promote publicity in any form in Singapore or elsewhere of the functions and activities of the Authority;
- (i) to collect, compile and analyse information of a statistical nature relating to building, construction, land use, recreation or such other subject-matter necessary for the performance of the functions and duties imposed upon the Authority by or under this Act or any other written law, and to publish and disseminate the results of any such compilation and analysis or abstracts of those results;

- (j) to provide advisory and information services;
- (k) to conduct, promote and encourage research in matters connected with one or more of the Authority's purposes and functions; and
- (l) to carry out such other functions and duties as are imposed upon the Authority by or under this Act or any other written law.

Powers of Authority

7.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Authority may carry on such activities as appear to the Authority to be advantageous, necessary or convenient for it to carry on for or in connection with the discharge of its duties and functions under this Act and, in particular, the Authority may exercise one or more of the powers specified in the Second Schedule.

(2) The Authority may, in addition to the powers vested in it by subsection (1), exercise such other powers as the Minister may authorise the Authority in writing to exercise.

(3) The Authority shall, when it is exercising powers authorised by the Minister under subsection (2), be deemed to be exercising powers vested in it by subsection (1).

(4) This section shall not be construed as limiting any power of the Authority conferred by or under any other written law.

Declaration of urban redevelopment areas

8.—(1) The Authority may from time to time, with the approval of the Minister, by notification in the Gazette declare an area, with or without any building therein, to be an urban redevelopment area for the purposes of this Act.

(2) A declaration made under subsection (1) shall contain the following particulars:

- (a) the town subdivision or mukim in which the area is situated;

- (b) the lot number of the area, its approximate area and all other particulars necessary for identifying it; and
- (c) if a plan of the area has been made, the place and time where and when such plan may be inspected.

(3) The declaration shall state that such area may be acquired by the Government within 3 years from the date of the notification in the Gazette or within such extended period as the President may think fit.

(4) Upon publication of the notification in the Gazette, such area shall be deemed to be an urban redevelopment area for the purposes of this Act.

Incorporated companies may be formed

9. The Authority may, with the written approval of the Minister, form or participate in the formation of a company.

Gifts

10. The Authority may accept gifts, legacies or donations and apply them for one or more of its functions or duties.

Authority may make ex-gratia payments

11. The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make an ex-gratia payment to a person sustaining damage by reason of the exercise of one or more of the powers vested in the Authority or its employees under and by virtue of this Act.

Powers of Minister in relation to Authority

12.—(1) The Minister may, after consultation with the Authority or otherwise, give to the Authority such directions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as he thinks fit, as to the exercise of the functions of the Authority under this Act, and the Authority shall give effect to all such directions.

(2) The Authority shall furnish the Minister with such information or facilities for obtaining information with respect to its property and the exercise of its functions in such manner and at such times as the Minister may reasonably require.

Submission of projects by Authority

13.—(1) The Authority shall, from time to time, prepare and submit to the Minister proposals, plans and projects showing the nature of the work proposed to be executed and other steps proposed to be undertaken by the Authority under sections 6, 7 and 12, and the Minister may reject or approve any such proposal, plan or project or any part thereof either without modification or subject to such modification as he may think fit.

(2) Every such proposal, plan or project submitted by the Authority under this section shall be in such form and contain such particulars as the Minister may direct.

Appointment of committees and delegation of powers

14.—(1) The Authority may, in its discretion, appoint from among its own members or other persons who are not members such number of committees consisting of members or other persons or members and other persons for purposes which, in the opinion of the Authority, would be better regulated and managed by means of such committees.

(2) The Authority may, subject to such conditions or restrictions as it may impose, delegate to any such committee or the Chairman or the chief executive one or more of the functions, duties and powers vested in the Authority by or under this Act or any other written law, except the power to borrow money; and any power, function or duty so delegated may be exercised or performed by such committee or the Chairman or the chief executive, as the case may be, in the name and on behalf of the Authority.

(3) The Authority may, subject to such conditions or restrictions as it may impose, delegate to an employee thereof one or more of the Authority's functions and duties vested in the Authority by or under this Act or any other written law, except the power to borrow money or to raise or grant loans or advances to or subscribe to stocks, shares, bonds or debentures of a company or corporation, and any power, function or duty so delegated may be exercised or performed by such employee in the name and on behalf of the Authority.

(4) The Authority may exercise any power conferred or perform any function or duty imposed upon it by or under this Act or any other written law, notwithstanding the delegation of such power, function or duty under this section.

Power to make standing orders

15. The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make standing orders providing for every matter in regard to which standing orders may be made under this Act and, in particular, for the following:

- (a) the method of entering into contracts by or on behalf of the Authority;
- (b) the delegation of powers to officers of the Authority;
- (c) the opening, keeping, closing and internal audit of accounts of the Authority;
- (d) loans and allowances to officers of the Authority;
- (e) housing accommodation for officers of the Authority; and
- (f) the professional and technical training of officers of the Authority.

Power to enter upon lands

16.—(1) The Authority may, for the purposes of this Act, by its employees, agents or contractors, enter at all reasonable hours in the day into and upon a building or land for the purpose of making any survey or inspection and for the purpose of executing work authorised by this Act to be executed by them without being liable to any legal proceedings or molestation whatsoever on account of such entry or of anything done in a part of such building or land in pursuance of this Act.

(2) An employee or agent or a contractor of or a person acting on behalf of the Authority shall not enter into a building in actual occupation without the consent of the occupier thereof or without 6 hours' previous notice to such occupier.

Regulations

17.—(1) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make such regulations as are necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Authority may make regulations for one or more of the following purposes:

- (a) the control and management of lands and buildings acquired by, vested in or belonging to, the Authority;
- (b) the use and enjoyment of those lands, buildings and other property; and
- (c) the prevention of trespass upon or on any of those lands and buildings and the removal of trespassers or other persons causing annoyance or inconvenience upon or in those lands and buildings.

(3) The Authority may, in making any regulations under this section, provide that a contravention of or failure to comply with the regulations shall be an offence and may prescribe as a penalty in respect of such offence a fine not exceeding the sum of $2,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or both and, in the case of a continuing offence, a further fine not exceeding $500 for every day or part thereof during which such offence continues after conviction.

(4) All regulations made under this section shall be presented to Parliament as soon as possible after publication in the Gazette.

PART IVPROVISIONS RELATING TO STAFF*Chief executive of Authority

18.—(1) The Authority shall, with the approval of the Minister, appoint a chief executive of the Authority on such terms and conditions as the Authority may think fit.

- (2) The chief executive shall —
- (a) be known by such designation as the Authority may determine;
 - (b) be responsible to the Authority for the proper administration and management of the functions and affairs of the Authority in accordance with the policy laid down by the Authority; and
 - (c) not be removed from office without the consent of the Minister.
- (3) If the chief executive is temporarily absent from Singapore or temporarily incapacitated by illness or for any other reason temporarily unable to perform his duties, another person may be appointed by the Authority with the approval of the Minister to act in the place of the chief executive during such period of absence from duty.

Appointment of staff

- 19.—(1) The Authority may —
- (a) appoint such number of employees on such terms as to remuneration or otherwise as the Authority may determine; and
 - (b) engage and remunerate for their services such persons or agents as the Authority considers necessary for carrying out its functions and duties.
- (2) The termination of appointment, dismissal and disciplinary control of the employees of the Authority shall be vested in the Authority.
- (3) The Authority may make rules, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or of any other written law, for the appointment, promotion, dismissal, termination of service, disciplinary control and terms and conditions of service of all persons employed by the Authority.

Protective provisions

20. No matter or thing done and no contract of any kind entered into by the Authority and no matter or thing done by a member or employee of the Authority or by any other person whomsoever acting under the direction of the Authority shall, if the matter or thing was done or the contract was entered into bona fide for the purpose of executing the provisions of this Act, subject such member, employee or person acting under the direction of the Authority personally to any action, liability, claim or demand whatsoever in respect thereof.

Public servants

21. The members and employees of the Authority shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code [Cap. 224].

PART VFINANCIAL PROVISIONS*Borrowing powers

22.—(1) The Authority may, from time to time, for the purposes of this Act, raise loans from the Government or, with the approval of the Minister, from any other source, either by creation and issue of debentures, stocks or bonds, or otherwise, as the Minister may direct.

(2) The Authority shall pay interest on such loans at such rates and at such times, and shall make such provision for the mode and time or times of repayment of principal, as may be approved by the Minister.

(3) The Authority may, with the consent of the Minister, from time to time borrow by way of a temporary loan or overdraft from a bank or otherwise, any sum which it may temporarily require —

- (a) for the purpose of defraying expenses pending the receipt of revenues receivable by it in respect of the period of account in which those expenses are chargeable; or
- (b) for the purpose of defraying, pending the receipt of money due in respect of a loan authorised to be raised under subsection (1), expenses intended to be defrayed by such loan.

Issue of shares, etc.

22A. As a consequence of the vesting of any property, rights or liabilities of the Government in the Authority under this Act, or of any capital injection or other investment by the Government in the Authority in accordance with any written law, the Authority shall issue such shares or other securities to the Minister for Finance as that Minister may from time to time direct.

[5/2002 wef 15/07/2002]

Loans charged upon revenues of Authority

23. All loans raised by the Authority under section 22, together with all interest and other sums payable in respect thereof, shall be charged indifferently upon all the revenues of the Authority and shall rank equally with one another, with priority over any other charge on the revenues of the Authority.

Provision of working capital

24. For the purpose of enabling the Authority to carry out its objects and to defray expenditure properly chargeable to capital account, including defraying initial expenses, and for the provision of working capital, the Minister may authorise payment to the Authority of such sums as he may determine.

Annual estimates

25.—(1) The Authority shall every year cause to be prepared and shall adopt annual estimates of income and expenditure of the Authority for the ensuing year.

(2) Supplementary estimates may be adopted by the Authority at any of its meetings.

(3) A copy of all annual and supplementary estimates shall, upon their adoption by the Authority, be sent forthwith to the Minister for approval.

(4) The Authority may transfer all moneys or part thereof assigned to one item of expenditure to another under the same head of expenditure in supplementary estimates approved by the Minister.

(5) A summary of the annual estimates and supplementary estimates adopted by the Authority and approved by the Minister shall be published in the Gazette.

Annual report

26.—(1) The Authority shall as soon as practicable after the end of each accounting year but not later than 31st October in each year furnish to the Minister a report of its functions during the preceding year.

(2) The Minister shall cause a copy of every such report to be presented to Parliament.

Power of investment

27. The Authority may invest its funds in accordance with the standard investment power of statutory bodies as defined in section 33A of the Interpretation Act (Cap. 1).

[45/2004 wef 15/12/2004]

Application of profits of Authority

28. The Minister may, after consultation with the Authority, give directions to the Authority as to the manner in which its profits shall be applied.

Financial provisions

29. The financial provisions set out in the Third Schedule shall have effect with respect to the Authority.

PART VI

TRANSFER OF ASSETS, LIABILITIES, FUNCTIONS AND EMPLOYEES

Dissolution of Planning Department and former Authority, etc.

30. As from 1st September 1989, the Planning Department, the Research and Statistics Unit and the former Authority shall cease to exist.

Transfer of assets and liabilities

31.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), as from 1st September 1989 —

- (a) all movable property vested in the Government immediately before that date for the purposes of the Planning Department and the Research and Statistics Unit, and all assets, rights or interests vested in, and all outstanding debts, liabilities and obligations incurred by, the Government in connection therewith; and
- (b) all the lands, buildings and other property movable and immovable, vested in the former Authority immediately before that date and all assets, rights and interests vested in, and all outstanding debts, liabilities and obligations incurred by, the former Authority in connection therewith, shall be transferred to and shall vest in the Authority without further assurance.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to any rights and interests vested in, and any outstanding liabilities and obligations incurred by, the former Authority immediately before 1st September 1989 in connection with all sums of moneys paid or payable by way of installments to the former Authority, or the payment of which is secured to the satisfaction of the former Authority, pursuant to section 49(3)(b) of the repealed Act.

(3) If any question arises as to whether any particular movable property vested in the Government, or whether any particular asset, right, interest, liability or obligation of the Government has been transferred to or vested in the Authority under subsection (1), a certificate under the hand of the Minister for Finance shall be conclusive evidence that the property, asset, right, interest, liability or obligation was or was not so transferred or vested.

(4) No disclosure to the Authority under this section of information collected by the Research and Statistics Unit before 1st September 1989 shall be called in question on the ground that such disclosure is contrary to section 5 of the Statistics Act [Cap. 317] or in breach of confidence.

Existing agreements, etc.

32. All deeds, bonds, agreements, instruments and working arrangements, subsisting immediately before 1st September 1989, affecting any of the property, rights, interests, liabilities and obligations transferred to or vested in the Authority under section 31(1) shall continue in force on and after that date and shall be enforceable by or against the Authority as if, instead of the Government or the former Authority or a person acting on behalf of either the Government or the former Authority, the Authority had been named therein or had been a party thereto.

Pending legal proceedings

33.—(1) Any proceedings or cause of action pending or existing immediately before 1st September 1989 by or against the Government in respect of the Planning Department or the Research and Statistics Unit, or by or against the former Authority or any person acting on its behalf, may be continued and shall be enforced by or against the Authority.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to any proceedings or cause or action relating to any sums of money paid, or payable by way of instalments, to the former Authority, or the payment of which is secured to the satisfaction of the former Authority, pursuant to section 49(3)(b) of the repealed Act.

Transfer of employees

34.—(1) As from 1st September 1989, every person who immediately before that date is employed by the Government in the Planning Department or the Research and Statistics Unit, or by the former Authority, shall be transferred to the service of the Authority on terms not less favourable than those enjoyed by him immediately prior to his transfer.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), persons holding such grades in the Planning Department or the Research and Statistics Unit as the Minister may determine shall as soon as practicable be given the option of remaining in the service of the Government.

(3) Nothing in this section shall preclude the secondment to the Authority of officers in the employment of the Government on such terms as may be agreed upon by the Government and the Authority.

Conditions of service

35.—(1) Until such time as terms and conditions of service are drawn up by the Authority, the schemes and terms and conditions of service in the Government or the former Authority shall continue to apply to every person transferred to the service of the Authority under section 34 as if he were still in the service of the Government or the former Authority, as the case may be.

(2) The terms and conditions to be drawn up by the Authority shall take into account the salaries and terms and conditions of service, including any accrued rights to leave, enjoyed by the persons transferred to the service of the Authority under section 34 while in the employment of the Government or former Authority and any such term or condition relating to the length of service with the Authority shall provide for the recognition of service under the Government or former Authority by the person so transferred to be service by them under the Authority.

Pension benefits

36.—(1) Nothing in the terms and conditions to be drawn up by the Authority shall adversely affect the conditions that would have been applicable to persons transferred to the service of the Authority as regards any pension, gratuity or allowance payable under the Pensions Act [Cap. 225].

(2) In every case where a person employed by the Government in the Planning Department or the Research and Statistics Unit has been transferred to the service of the Authority under section 34, the Government shall be liable to pay to the Authority such portion of any gratuity, pension or allowance payable to such person on his retirement or otherwise leaving the service of the Authority as the same shall bear to the proportion which the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments during his service with the Government bears to the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments during his service under both the Government and the Authority.

(3) Where any person in the service of the Authority whose case does not come within the scope and effect of any pension or other schemes referred to under this section, retires or dies in the service of the Authority or is discharged from such service, the Authority may grant to him or to such other person or persons wholly or partly dependent on him, as the Authority may think fit, such allowance or gratuity as the Authority may determine.

(4) Where any person who is transferred to the service of the Authority under section 34 is a contributor under the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Act [Cap. 350], he shall for the purposes of that Act continue to make contributions under that Act as if he had not been transferred to the service of the Authority, and for the purposes of that Act his service with the Authority shall be deemed to be service with the Government.

No benefits in respect of abolition or reorganisation of office

37. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Pensions Act [Cap. 225], no person who is transferred to the service of the Authority under section 34 shall be entitled to claim any benefit under the Pensions Act on the ground that he has been retired from the service of the Government on account of abolition or reorganisation of office in consequence of the establishment and incorporation of the Authority.

38. [Repealed by Act 11/2003 wef 01/08/2003]

Continuation and completion of disciplinary proceedings

39.—(1) Where on 1st September 1989 any disciplinary proceedings were pending against any employee of the Government or the former Authority who has been transferred to the service of the Authority under section 34, the proceedings shall be carried on and completed by the Authority under and in conformity with this Act as far as practicable; but where on that date any matter was in the course of being heard or investigated or had been heard or investigated by the Government, the former Authority or a committee acting under due authority and no order or decision had been rendered thereon, the Government, the former Authority or committee shall continue to exist, notwithstanding this Act, for the purpose of completing the hearing or investigation and the making of an order or rendering a decision, as the case may be.

(2) For the purposes of completing a hearing or investigation before it, or making an order or rendering a decision on a matter heard or investigated before 1st September 1989, the Government, the former Authority or committee shall complete the hearing or investigation in accordance with the authority vested in the Government, the former Authority or committee immediately before that date and make such order, rule or direction as the Government, the former Authority or committee could have made under the authority vested it immediately before that date.

(3) Any order, rule or direction made or given by the Government, the former Authority or committee pursuant to this section shall be treated as an order, rule or direction of the Authority and have the same force or effect as if it had been made or given by the Authority pursuant to the authority vested in the Authority under this Act.

Misconduct or neglect of duty by employee before transfer

40. The Authority may reprimand, reduce in rank, retire, dismiss or punish in some other manner a person who had, whilst he was in the employment of the Planning Department, the Research and Statistics Unit or the former Authority, been guilty of any misconduct or neglect of duty which would have rendered him liable to be reprimanded, reduced in rank, retired, dismissed or punished in some other manner by the Government or the former Authority or any other person acting under its authority or direction or otherwise, as if this Act had not been enacted.

PART VII
SALE OF UNITS

Power to sell

41. The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, sell any developed land or part thereof.

Special provisions

42. For the purposes of the registration of an assurance pertaining to the sale by the Authority of any unit, the mortgage of such unit in favour of the Authority or the reconveyance or discharge of such mortgage —

- (a) in the case of land registered under the provisions of the Registration of Deeds Act [Cap. 269, 1989 Ed.], section 12 of that Act shall not apply; and
- (b) in the case of land registered under the provisions of the Land Titles Act [Cap. 157], where a solicitor is not employed by the party acquiring title under an instrument relating to the transactions referred to in this section, a certificate of an officer authorised in writing in that behalf by the Authority, shall be sufficient for the purposes of section 59(3) of that Act.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

PART VIII
MISCELLANEOUS

Authority's symbol

43.—(1) The Authority shall have the exclusive right to the use of such symbol or representation as it may select or devise (referred to in this section as the Authority's symbol) and thereafter display or exhibit in connection with its activities or affairs.

(2) A person who without the permission of the Authority uses a symbol or representation identical with that of the Authority's symbol, or which so resembles the Authority's symbol as to or be likely to deceive or cause confusion shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

Furnishing of information

44.—(1) The Authority or any employee thereof authorised by the Authority in that behalf may, for the purpose of obtaining statistical information, by notice require any person to furnish to the Authority or the employee so authorised, within such period as shall be specified in the notice, all such particulars or information relating to all such matters as may be required by the Authority and as are within the knowledge of that person or in his custody or under his control.

(2) Subject to subsection (2D), a notice issued under subsection (1) may be served in the following manner:

(a) in the case of an individual —

- (i) by delivering it to the individual personally;
- (ii) by leaving it with an adult person apparently resident at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the usual or last known address of the place of residence of the individual;
- (iii) by leaving it with an adult person apparently employed at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the usual or last known address of the place of business of the individual;
- (iv) by affixing a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place at the usual or last known address of the place of residence or place of business of the individual; or
- (v) by electronic communication, by sending an electronic communication of the notice to the last email address given to the Authority by the individual as the email address for the service of documents on the individual;

(b) in the case of a partnership other than a limited liability partnership —

- (i) by delivering it to any one of the partners or the secretary or other like officer of the partnership;
 - (ii) by leaving it at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the principal or last known place of business of the partnership in Singapore;
 - (iii) by sending it by facsimile transmission to the fax transmission number operated at the principal or last known place of business of the partnership in Singapore; or
 - (iv) by electronic communication, by sending an electronic communication of the notice to the last email address given to the Authority by the partnership as the email address for the service of documents on the partnership; and
- (c) in the case of any limited liability partnership or any other body corporate —
- (i) by delivering it to the secretary or other like officer of the body corporate or, in the case of a limited liability partnership, the manager thereof, or to any person having, on behalf of the limited liability partnership or other body corporate, powers of control or management over the business, occupation, work or matter to which the notice relates;
 - (ii) by leaving it at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the registered office or principal place of business of the limited liability partnership or other body corporate in Singapore;
 - (iii) by sending it by facsimile transmission to the fax transmission number operated at the registered office or principal place of business of the limited liability partnership or other body corporate in Singapore or elsewhere; or email address given to the Authority by the limited liability partnership or other body corporate as the email address for the service of documents on the limited liability partnership or body corporate.
 - (iv) by electronic communication, by sending an electronic communication of the notice to the last

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

(2A) If the person on whom service is to be effected has an agent within Singapore, the notice may be delivered to the agent.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

(2B) Any notice issued under subsection (1) which is to be served on the occupier of any premises —

(a) may be served by delivering it to an adult person on the premises or, if there is no such person on the premises to whom it can with reasonable diligence be delivered, by affixing the notice to a conspicuous part of the premises; and

(b) shall be deemed to be properly addressed if addressed by the description of the occupier of the premises without further name or description.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

(2C) Where any notice issued under subsection (1) and required to be served on any person is —

(a) sent by registered post to any person in accordance with subsection (2), it shall be deemed to be duly served on the person at the time when it would, in the ordinary course of post, be delivered, whether or not it is returned undelivered, and in proving service of the notice, it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the same was properly addressed, stamped and posted by registered post;

(b) sent by ordinary post to any person in accordance with subsection (2), it shall be deemed to be duly served on the person to whom it is addressed on the day succeeding the day on which it would, in the ordinary course of post, be delivered;

(c) sent by a facsimile transmission to the fax transmission number operated at the last known place of residence or business or registered office or principal place of business in accordance with subsection (2), it shall be deemed to be duly served on the person to whom it is addressed on the day of transmission, subject to receipt on the sending facsimile machine of a notification (by electronic or other means) of a successful transmission to the place of residence or business or registered office or principal place of business, as the case may be; and

- (d) sent by electronic communication to an email address in accordance with subsection (2), it shall be deemed to be duly served on the person to whom it is addressed at the time of entering the information system addressed to the email address.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

(2D) Service of any notice under this section on a person by electronic communication may be effected only if the person gives as part of his or its address for service an email address.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

(3) Any person who on being required by notice under this section to furnish any particulars or information —

- (a) wilfully refuses or without lawful excuse (the proof of which lies on him) neglects to furnish the particulars or information within the time specified in the notice; or
- (b) wilfully furnishes or causes to be furnished any false particulars or information in respect of any matter specified in the notice requiring particulars or information to be furnished, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(4) Nothing in this section authorises the Authority, or any employee thereof authorised by the Authority in that behalf, to require the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore or the Jurong Town Corporation to furnish to the Authority or the employee so authorised —

- (a) any particulars or information in the possession of the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore obtained in the performance of any of its functions; or
- (b) any particulars or information in the possession of the Jurong Town Corporation obtained pursuant to any notice under section 35A of the Jurong Town Corporation Act.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

Request for information from Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore and Jurong Town Corporation

44A.—(1) For the purpose of obtaining data for statistical purposes relating to property in Singapore, the Authority may in writing require —

- (a) the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore to furnish or supply to the Authority any particulars or information in the possession of the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore that it obtained in the performance of its function as an agent of the Government in administering, assessing, collecting and enforcing payment of property tax or stamp duties; or
- (b) the Jurong Town Corporation to furnish or supply to the Authority any particulars or information in the possession of the Jurong Town Corporation obtained pursuant to any notice under section 35A of the Jurong Town Corporation Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore Act and the Jurong Town Corporation Act, the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore and the Jurong Town Corporation, respectively, shall furnish the particulars and information required under subsection (1) within such time as may be agreed to between the Authority and the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore or the Jurong Town Corporation, as the case may be.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

Preservation of secrecy

45.—(1) Any member, officer or employee of the Authority shall not disclose any particulars or information which has been obtained by the member, officer or employee of the Authority in the performance of his duties or the exercise of his function under section 44 or 44A unless —

- (a) the disclosure is with the previous consent in writing of the person who furnished the particulars or information under section 44 or the person to whom the particulars or information relate;
- (b) the disclosure is as statistics which do not identify the person who furnished the particulars or information under section 44 or the person to whom the particulars or information relate;
- (c) the disclosure is to the Jurong Town Corporation pursuant to its request made under section 35B of the Jurong Town Corporation Act;
- (d) the disclosure is to the Chief Statistician pursuant to his direction under section 6 of the Statistics Act (Cap. 317) where the particulars or information are not exempted under section 6(2) of that Act from being so furnished;
- (e) the disclosure is for the purpose of another member, officer or employee of the Authority carrying into effect the provisions of this Act;
- (f) the disclosure is for the purposes of any proceedings for an offence under section 44(3) or this section or any report of those proceedings; or
- (g) the particulars or information are already in the public domain at the time of its disclosure.

[Act 20 of 2013 wef 08/11/2013]

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both.

Obstructing officers of Authority

46. Any person who obstructs or hinders an officer or agent of the Authority acting in the discharge of his duty under this Act or any regulations made thereunder shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to both.

Proceedings conducted by officers of Authority

47. Any proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder may, with the authorisation of the Public Prosecutor, be conducted by an officer of the Authority or an officer of the Government authorised in writing in that behalf by the chief executive.

[15/2010 wef 02/01/2011]

Consent of Public Prosecutor

48. No court shall try an offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder except with the consent of the Public Prosecutor.

[15/2010 wef 02/01/2011]

Exclusion of liability for errors or omissions in information supplied

49. Where the Authority provides a service to the public whereby information is supplied to the public on payment of a prescribed fee, neither the Authority nor any of its employees involved in the supply of such information shall be liable for any loss or damage suffered by members of the public by reason of any error or omission of whatever nature appearing therein or however caused if made in good faith and in the ordinary course of the discharge of the duties of such employees.

Offence by body corporate

50. Where an offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder is committed by a body corporate and it is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of or to be attributable to an act or default on the part of a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or a person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Fines to be paid to Authority

51. All fines imposed for an offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder shall be paid into the funds of the Authority.

Composition of offences

51A.—(1) The Authority may, in its discretion, compound any offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder which is prescribed as a compoundable offence by collecting from a person reasonably suspected of having committed the offence a sum not exceeding $1,000.

(2) On payment of such sum of money, no further proceedings shall be taken against that person in respect of the offence.

(3) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make regulations to prescribe the offences which may be compounded.

(4) All sums collected under this section shall be paid to the Authority.

[29/2003 wef 05/12/2003]

Exemption

52.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, the Minister may by order exempt any person or class of persons from all or any of the provisions of this Act.

(2) Any order made under this section shall be presented to Parliament as soon as possible after publication in the Gazette.

Transitional and savings provisions

53.—(1) The transitional and savings provisions in the Fourth Schedule shall have effect.

(2) Except as provided in the Fourth Schedule, nothing in that Schedule shall affect any saving provided by the Interpretation Act [Cap. 1].

- (2) A disclosure under subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the Authority and, after the disclosure, that member —
- (a) shall not take part in any deliberation or decision of the Authority with respect to that transaction or project; and
 - (b) shall be disregarded for the purpose of constituting a quorum of the Authority for such deliberation or decision.

(3) No act or proceedings of the Authority shall be questioned on the ground that a member has contravened this section.

Salaries, fees and allowances payable to members

11. There shall be paid to the Chairman, Deputy Chairman and other members out of the funds of the Authority such salaries, fees and allowances as the Minister may, from time to time, determine.

Meetings of Authority

12.—(1) The Chairman shall summon meetings as often as may be required but not less than once in 3 months.

(2) The quorum at every meeting of the Authority shall be one-third of the total number of members or 3 members, whichever is the higher.

[25/2009 wef 15/01/2010]

(3) Decisions at meetings of the Authority shall be adopted by a simple majority of the votes of the members present and voting; and in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman or in his absence the Deputy Chairman or the member presiding shall have a casting vote.

(4) The Chairman or in his absence the Deputy Chairman shall preside at meetings of the Authority.

(5) Where both the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman are absent at a meeting, such member as the members present may elect shall preside at the meeting.

(6) The Authority may act notwithstanding any vacancy in its membership.

(7) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Authority may make standing orders to regulate its own procedure, and, in particular, the holding of meetings, the notice to be given of such meetings, the proceedings thereat, the keeping of minutes and the custody, production and inspection of such minutes.

Validity of acts of members

13. The acts of a member shall be valid notwithstanding any defect that may afterwards be discovered in his appointment or qualifications.
