(3) Nothing in the terms and conditions of service to be drawn up by the Agency shall adversely affect the conditions that would have been applicable to persons transferred to the service of the Agency as regards any pension, gratuity or allowance payable under the Pensions Act (Cap. 225).

(4) Where a person has been transferred to the service of the Agency under section 33, the Government shall be liable to pay to the Agency such portion of any pension, gratuity or allowance payable to the person on his retirement as the same shall bear to the proportion which the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments during his service with the Government bears to the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments during his service under both the Government and the Agency.

(5) Where any person in the service of the Agency, whose case does not fall within the scope of any pension or other schemes established under this section, retires or dies in the service of the Agency or is discharged from such service, the Agency may grant to him or to such other person wholly or partly dependent on him, as the Agency thinks fit, such allowance or gratuity as the Agency may determine.

No benefits in respect of abolition or reorganisation of office

35. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Pensions Act (Cap. 225), no person who is transferred to the service of the Agency under section 33 while in the employment of the Government shall be entitled to claim any benefit under that Act on the ground that he has been retired from the service of the Government on account of abolition or reorganisation of office in consequence of the establishment and incorporation of the Agency.

Existing contracts

Continuation and completion of disciplinary proceedings and other legal proceedings

37.—(1) Where, on 1st September 2003, any disciplinary proceedings were pending against any employee of the transferring body transferred to the service of the Agency, the proceedings shall be carried on and completed by the Agency.

(2) Where, on 1st September 2003, any matter was in the course of being heard or investigated or had been heard or investigated by a committee acting under due authority but no order, ruling or direction had been made thereon, the committee shall complete the hearing or investigation and shall make such order, ruling or direction as it could have made under the authority vested in it before that date.

(3) Any order, ruling or direction made by a committee under this section shall be treated as an order, a ruling or a direction of the Agency and have the same force or effect as if it had been made by the Agency pursuant to the authority vested in the Agency under this Act.

(4) All proceedings or causes of action pending or existing immediately before 1st September 2003 by or against a transferring body in respect of its transferred agency may be continued, completed and enforced by or against the Agency.

38. The Agency may reprimand, reduce in rank, retire, dismiss or punish in some other manner a person who had, whilst he was in the employment of the transferring body, been guilty of any misconduct or neglect of duty which would have rendered him liable to be reprimanded, reduced in rank, retired, dismissed or punished in some other manner if he had continued to be in the employment of the transferring body, and if this Act had not been enacted.
