New section 44A

19. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 44, the following section:

“Power to obtain information

44A.—(1) The Director-General or an authorised officer may by notice in writing require any licensee or other person to furnish, within a reasonable period specified in the notice, and in such form and manner as may be specified in the notice, all documents and information relating to any matter which the Agency considers necessary to carry out the functions or duties of or assigned to the Agency by or under any provision of this Act, which are within the knowledge of that person or in his custody or under his control.

(2) The power to require a person to furnish any document or information under subsection (1) includes the power —

- (a) to require that person, or any person who is or was an officer or employee of his, to provide an explanation of the document or information;
- (b) if the document or information is not furnished, to require that person to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where it is; and
- (c) if the information is recorded otherwise than in legible form, to require the information to be made available to the Agency in legible form.

(3) Any person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to do anything required of him by notice under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

(4) Any person who —

- (a) intentionally alters, suppresses or destroys any document or information which he has been required by a notice under subsection (1) to furnish; or
- (b) in furnishing any document or information required under subsection (1), makes any statement which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly makes such a statement, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or to both.

(5) If any person fails to comply with a notice under subsection (1), the court may, on the application of the Agency, make such order as the court thinks fit to secure compliance with such notice and any such order may provide that all the costs or expenses of and incidental to the application shall be borne by such person or by any officer of a company or other association who is responsible for the failure.

(6) Where a notice under subsection (1) is issued in connection with investigations into a suspected offence under this Act, the Agency through an authorised officer may, at any time after the expiry of the period specified therein, enter any building or place where the Agency has reason to believe that any document or information, in respect of which it has given the notice, may be found, and seize or take extracts or copies of any such document or information.

(7) The Agency shall be entitled without payment to keep any document or information, or any copy or extract thereof, furnished to it under subsection (1) or obtained under subsection (6).”

Amendment of section 46

20. Section 46 of the principal Act is amended by renumbering the section as subsection (1) of that section, and by inserting immediately thereafter the following subsection:

“(2) Any expenses reasonably incurred by the Director-General under subsection (1) may be recovered from the person whose act or omission resulted in the emergency or the owner of the premises where the emergency originated, and section 51 and, if that person is the owner of the premises, section 53 shall apply in respect of those expenses.”

New section 50A

21. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 50, the following section:

“Power to examine motor vehicles

50A.—(1) Where the Director-General or any authorised officer has reason to suspect that an offence under this Act or the regulations made thereunder has been committed in connection with the use of a motor vehicle, the Director-General or authorised officer may —

- (a) examine the motor vehicle;
 - (b) require the owner or driver of the motor vehicle to provide his name and address and such other proof of identity; and
 - (c) order the owner or driver of the motor vehicle to produce the same for an examination of vehicle emissions at such time and place as may be specified.

(2) Any person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with any requirement under this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.”.

Repeal and re-enactment of section 66

22. Section 66 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“Service of documents, etc.

66.—(1) Subject to subsection (3), any notice, order or other document required or authorised to be given or served under this Act may be served —

- (a) in the case of an individual —
 - (i) by delivering it to the individual personally;
 - (ii) by leaving it with an adult person apparently resident at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the usual or last known address of the place of residence of the individual;
 - (iii) by leaving it with an adult person apparently employed at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the usual or last known address of the place of business of the individual;
 - (iv) by affixing a copy of the document in a conspicuous place at the usual or last known address of residence or business of the individual; or
 - (v) by sending it by facsimile transmission to the fax transmission number operated at the usual or last known address of the place of residence or business of the individual, or the last fax number given to the Agency or an authorised officer by the individual as the facsimile transmission number for the service of documents on the individual;

(b) in the case of a partnership other than a limited liability partnership —

(i) by delivering it to any one of the partners or the secretary or other like officer of the partnership;

(ii) by leaving it at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the principal or last known place of business of the partnership in Singapore; or

(iii) by sending it by facsimile transmission to the fax transmission number operated at the principal or last known place of business of the partnership in Singapore; and

(c) in the case of any limited liability partnership or any other body corporate —

(i) by delivering it to the secretary or other like officer of the body corporate or, in the case of a limited liability partnership, the manager thereof;

(ii) by leaving it at, or by sending it by pre-paid registered post to, the registered office or principal office of the limited liability partnership or body corporate in Singapore; or

(iii) by sending it by facsimile transmission to the fax transmission number operated at the registered office or principal office of the limited liability partnership or body corporate in Singapore.

(2) Where any notice or other document to be served by the Agency or the Director-General is —

(a) sent by a facsimile transmission to the fax transmission number operated at the last known place of residence or business or registered office or principal office in accordance with subsection (1), it shall be deemed to have been duly served on the person to whom it is addressed on the day of transmission, subject to receipt on the sending facsimile machine of a notification (by electronic or other means) of a successful transmission to the place of residence or business or registered office or principal office, as the case may be; and

- (b) sent by pre-paid registered post, it shall be deemed to have been duly served on the person to whom it is addressed 2 days after the day the notice or document was posted, whether or not it is returned undelivered.

(3) Any notice, order or other document required or authorised by this Act to be served on the owner or occupier of any premises may be served by delivering it or a true copy thereof to some adult person on the premises or, if there is no such person on the premises to whom it can with reasonable diligence be delivered, by affixing the notice, order or document to some conspicuous part of the premises.

(4) Any notice, order or other document required or authorised by this Act to be served on the owner or occupier of any premises shall be deemed to be properly addressed if addressed by the description of the owner or occupier of the premises without further name or description.

(5) This section shall not apply to notices, summonses and other documents to be served in proceedings in court.”.

Repeal and re-enactment of section 71

23. Section 71 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“Offences by bodies corporate, etc.

71.—(1) Where an offence under this Act committed by a body corporate is proved —

- (a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer; or

- (b) to be attributable to any act or default on his part,

the officer as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body corporate.

(3) Where an offence under this Act committed by a partnership is proved —

(a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of a partner; or

(b) to be attributable to any act or default on his part,

the partner as well as the partnership shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(4) Where an offence under this Act committed by a limited liability partnership is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any act or default on the part of, a partner or manager of the limited liability partnership, the partner or manager (as the case may be) as well as the partnership shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(5) Where an offence under this Act committed by an unincorporated association (other than a partnership) is proved —

(a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer of the unincorporated association or a member of its governing body; or

(b) to be attributable to any act or default on the part of such an officer or a member, the officer or member as well as the unincorporated association shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(6) In this section —

“body corporate” and “partnership” exclude a limited liability partnership within the meaning of the Limited Liability Partnerships Act (Cap. 163A);

“officer” —

(a) in relation to a body corporate, means any director, member of the committee of management, chief executive, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate and includes any person purporting to act in any such capacity; or

(b) in relation to an unincorporated association (other than a partnership), means the president, the secretary, or any member of the committee of the unincorporated association, or any person holding a position analogous to that of the president, secretary or member of the committee and includes any person purporting to act in any such capacity;

“partner” includes a person purporting to act as a partner.

(7) Regulations may provide for the application of any provision of this section, with such modifications as the Agency considers appropriate, to any body corporate, limited liability partnership or unincorporated association formed or recognised under the law of a territory outside Singapore.”.

Amendment of Third Schedule

24. The Third Schedule to the principal Act is amended —

(a) by inserting, immediately after item 21, the following item:

“21A. The restriction or prohibition of building works either generally or in specified areas during Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays (including between the hours of 10 pm on the eve of a public holiday and 7 am on the day after the public holiday) and between the hours of 12 midnight and 7 am on Mondays for the purpose of noise control.”; and

(b) by inserting, immediately after item 23A, the following item:

“23B. The prescribing of energy efficiency standards in relation to registrable goods, and the regulation of the labelling of registrable goods, for the purpose of facilitating energy conservation.”.

Savings and transitional provisions

25.—(1) Every licence granted under section 6(1) of the principal Act in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 5 of this Act shall be deemed to be a written permission granted under section 6(1) of the principal Act as amended by this Act.

(2) Every licence granted under section 15(1) of the principal Act in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 10 of this Act shall be deemed to be a written permission granted under section 15(1) of the principal Act as amended by this Act.

(3) Any application that is made before the date of commencement of section 5 or 10 of this Act for a licence under section 6(1) or 15(1), respectively, of the principal Act in force immediately before that date and that is still pending on that date shall, as from that date, be deemed to be an application for a written permission under section 6(1) or 15(1), as the case may be, of the principal Act as amended by this Act.

(4) Every written permission granted under section 8(1) of the principal Act in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 7 of this Act shall be deemed to be a permit granted under section 8(1) of the principal Act as amended by this Act.

(5) Any application that is made before the date of commencement of section 7 of this Act for a written permission under section 8(1) of the principal Act in force immediately before that date and that is still pending on that date shall, as from that date, be deemed to be an application for a permit under section 8(1) of the principal Act as amended by this Act.

(6) Section 20 shall not apply to any expenses incurred in relation to an emergency occurring before the date of commencement of the section.

(7) Section 23 of this Act shall not apply to or in relation to an offence under the principal Act committed by a body corporate before the date of commencement of section 23, and section 71 of the principal Act in force immediately before the commencement of section 23 of this Act shall continue to apply in relation to such offence as if section 23 had not been enacted.

(8) Section 23 shall apply to or in relation to an offence under the principal Act committed by a partnership, limited liability partnership or unincorporated association on or after the date of commencement of that section.
