The following Act was passed by Parliament on 8th April 2013 and assented to by the President on 15th May 2013:—

REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE

No. 15 of 2013.

I assent.

TONY TAN KENG YAM,
President.
15th May 2013.

An Act to amend the Housing Developers (Control and Licensing) Act (Chapter 130 of the 1985 Revised Edition).

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:

Short title and commencement

1. This Act may be cited as the Housing Developers (Control and Licensing) (Amendment) Act 2013 and shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint.

Amendment of section 2

2. Section 2(1) of the Housing Developers (Control and Licensing) Act (referred to in this Act as the principal Act) is amended —

(a) by inserting, immediately before the definition of “company”, the following definitions:

““accounts” has the same meaning as in section 4(1) of the Companies Act (Cap. 50);

“authorised officer” means a public officer or an officer of a public authority authorised by the Controller under section 3(5);

“building project” means a building project comprising units of housing accommodation;

“certificate of statutory completion” has the same meaning as in section 2(1) of the Building Control Act (Cap. 29);”;

(b) by inserting, immediately after the definition of “Controller”, the following definition:

““Deputy Controller” means the Deputy Controller of Housing appointed under section 3(3)(a);”;

(c) by deleting the words “insurance company” wherever they appear in the definition of “housing developer” and substituting in each case the word “insurer”;

(d) by deleting the words “section 3(2)” in the definition of “inspector” and substituting the words “section 3(3)(b)”; and

(e) by deleting the full-stop at the end of the definition of “partner” and substituting a semi-colon, and by inserting immediately thereafter the following definitions:

““public accountant” means any person registered or deemed to be registered under the Accountants Act (Cap. 2) as a public accountant;

“public authority” means such board, authority or agency established by or under any public Act to perform or discharge any public function as the Minister approves for the purposes of section 3;

“responsible position”, in relation to a housing developer, means —

(a) in the case of a housing developer that is a company, a director, manager or secretary or a person in a position analogous to that of a director, manager or secretary;

(b) in the case of a housing developer that is a society, a president, secretary or treasurer or a person in a position analogous to that of a president, secretary or treasurer;

(c) in the case of a housing developer that is a partnership, a partner;

(d) in the case of a housing developer that is a limited liability partnership, a partner or manager or a person in a position analogous to that of a manager; or

(e) in the case of a housing developer that is a group of persons, any person in that group;

“show unit” means any representation or reproduction of any house, flat or other housing accommodation, or any part thereof, that is built, or built and furnished, for viewing by prospective purchasers of, or otherwise for the purpose of promoting the sale of, the or any similar house, flat or other housing accommodation;

“unit” means a horizontal stratum of any building or part thereof, whether such stratum is on one or more levels, and which is intended for use in accordance with the provisions of any written law as a complete and separate unit for residential or commercial purpose.”.

Repeal and re-enactment of section 3

3. Section 3 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“Appointment of Controller, inspectors, etc.

3.—(1) The Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint a public officer or an officer of a public authority to be the Controller of Housing for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Controller shall, subject to any general or special directions of the Minister, be responsible for the administration of this Act and shall perform such duties as are imposed and may exercise such powers as are conferred upon him by this Act and any rules made thereunder.

(3) The Controller may appoint, by name or office, from among public officers or officers of a public authority —

(a) a Deputy Controller of Housing; and

(b) such number of inspectors as may be required for the purposes of this Act.

(4) The Deputy Controller may, subject to such directions as may be specified by the Controller, perform all or any of the functions of the Controller or exercise all or any of the powers of the Controller conferred on the Controller by this Act and any rules made thereunder; and any reference in this Act and any rules made thereunder to the Controller shall include a reference to the Deputy Controller.

(5) The Controller may authorise any public officer or any officer of a public authority to perform all or any of the functions of the Controller or exercise all or any of the powers of the Controller conferred on the Controller by this Act or any rules made thereunder (except the power of delegation conferred by this subsection), subject to such conditions or limitations as set out in this Act or as the Controller may specify by directions; and any reference in this Act and any rules made thereunder to the Controller shall include a reference to such authorised officer.

(6) In performing any function or exercising any power under a delegation under subsection (5), an authorised officer must comply with the directions of the Controller.

(7) No delegation under this section shall prevent the exercise of any function or power under this Act or any rules made thereunder by the Controller.

(8) The Controller, the Deputy Controller and every authorised officer and inspector —

(a) shall be deemed to be public servants for the purposes of the Penal Code (Cap. 224); and

(b) in relation to their administration, assessment, collection or enforcement of payment of composition sums, shall be deemed to be public officers for the purposes of the Financial Procedure Act (Cap. 109), and section 20 of that Act shall apply to such persons notwithstanding that they are not or were not in the employment of the Government.”.

Amendment of section 4

4. Section 4 of the principal Act is amended —

(a) by deleting the words “A housing developer” in subsection (2) and substituting the words “Subject to subsection (3A), a housing developer”;

“Investigation and enforcement powers in relation to show units

17A.—(1) For the purpose of ascertaining whether a licensed housing developer has complied with any provision of this Act or any rules made thereunder, any condition attached to its licence granted under section 4(4) or any direction issued by the Controller under subsection (3) in relation to any show unit, the Controller may —

- (a) enter, inspect and examine, at any reasonable time, any premises which are used or proposed to be used as or to display the show unit;

(b) take such measurements, photographs and video recordings of the premises (including anything therein) as he thinks fit; and

(c) take and retain any article, material, model, map, plan or document, or any sample or copy thereof, in the premises as he thinks fit.

(2) The licensed housing developer and the occupier of the premises shall furnish to the Controller such information, co-operation and means as the Controller may require for the exercise of any of his powers under subsection (1).

(3) If the Controller is of the opinion that a licensed housing developer has not complied with any provision of this Act or any rules made thereunder or any condition attached to its licence granted under section 4(4) in relation to any show unit, the Controller may direct the licensed housing developer —

(a) to take such action as the Controller may consider necessary to rectify any matter relating to the show unit;

(b) to publish, display or disseminate such information relating to the show unit or the building project connected with the show unit, in such form and manner and within such time, as the Controller may determine; or

(c) to refrain from displaying or advertising, or cease any display or advertisement of, the show unit until the Controller is satisfied that the licensed housing developer has taken all such actions directed by the Controller under this subsection.

(4) Any person who —

(a) obstructs or delays the Controller in the exercise of any of his powers under subsection (1); or

(b) fails to comply with any requirement of the Controller under subsection (2), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(5) Any person who fails to comply with any direction of the Controller under subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000.

(6) In this section, the reference to the Controller includes a reference to an inspector.”.

“Immunity of Government, Controller, etc.”.

Repeal and re-enactment of section 25

22. Section 25 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“Individuals not eligible to take part in management of business of licensed housing developers

25.—(1) Without prejudice to any additional restriction or prohibition in any other written law relating to companies, co-operative societies, societies, limited liability partnerships or partnerships —

- (a) a person who is convicted of an offence (whether in Singapore or elsewhere) involving fraud or dishonesty shall not hold or continue to hold a responsible position in a licensed housing developer until the expiration of 5 years after —
 - (i) the date of his conviction; or

(ii) where he is sentenced to a term of imprisonment, the date of his release from imprisonment, whichever date is the later;

(b) a person who is an undischarged bankrupt (whether in Singapore or elsewhere) shall not hold or continue to hold a responsible position in a licensed housing developer; and

(c) any person who holds a responsible position in a licensed housing developer shall cease to hold that position if he suspends payment to or compounds with his creditors.

(2) Any person holding a responsible position in a licensed housing developer that —

(a) is wound by a court under the Companies Act (Cap. 50) or the Limited Liability Partnerships Act (Cap. 163A);

(b) is dissolved under section 33, 34 or 35 of the Partnership Act (Cap. 391) or section 24 of the Societies Act (Cap. 311); or shall not, except with the approval in writing of the Minister, hold or continue to hold a responsible position in any other licensed housing developer.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both.”.

Amendment of section 26

23. Section 26 of the principal Act is amended by deleting “$10,000” and substituting “$50,000”.

Repeal and re-enactment of section 27

24. Section 27 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“Offences by bodies corporate, etc.

27.—(1) Where an offence under this Act or any rules made thereunder committed by a body corporate is proved —

- (a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer; or
- (b) to be attributable to any neglect on his part,

the officer as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member of the body corporate in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body corporate.

(3) Where an offence under this Act or any rules made thereunder committed by a partnership is proved —

- (a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of a partner of the partnership; or
- (b) to be attributable to any neglect on his part,

the partner as well as the partnership shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(4) Where an offence under this Act or any rules made thereunder committed by a limited liability partnership is proved —

- (a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of a partner or manager of the limited liability partnership; or

(b) to be attributable to any neglect on the part of such a partner or manager, the partner or manager (as the case may be) as well as the limited liability partnership shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(5) Where an offence under this Act or any rules made thereunder committed by an unincorporated association (other than a partnership) is proved —

(a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer of the unincorporated association or a member of its governing body; or

(b) to be attributable to any neglect on the part of such an officer or member, the officer or member (as the case may be) as well as the unincorporated association shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(6) In this section —

“body corporate” and “partnership” exclude a limited liability partnership;

“officer” —

(a) in relation to a body corporate, means any director, member of the committee of management, chief executive, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate and includes any person purporting to act in any such capacity; or

(b) in relation to an unincorporated association (other than a partnership), means the president, the secretary, or any member of the committee of the unincorporated association, or any person holding a position analogous to that of president, secretary or member of such a committee, and includes any person purporting to act in any such capacity;

“partner” includes a person purporting to act as a partner.

(7) The Minister may make rules to provide for the application of any provision of this section, with such modifications as the Minister considers appropriate, to any body corporate, limited liability partnership or unincorporated association formed or recognised under the law of a territory outside Singapore.”.

New section 27A

25. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 27, the following section:

“Composition of offences

27A.—(1) The Controller may, in his discretion, compound any offence under this Act or any rules made thereunder which is prescribed as a compoundable offence by collecting from a person reasonably suspected of having committed the offence a sum not exceeding the lower of the following:

(a) one half of the amount of the maximum fine that is prescribed for the offence;

(b) $5,000.

(2) On payment of such sum of money, no further proceedings shall be taken against that person in respect of the offence.

(3) The Minister may make rules to prescribe the offences which may be compounded.

(4) All sums collected under this section shall be paid to the Consolidated Fund.”.

Savings and transitional provisions

26.—(1) Except as expressly provided in this section, this section shall apply without prejudice to section 16 of the Interpretation Act (Cap. 1).

(2) Section 4(9)(a) of the principal Act in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 4(h) of this Act shall continue to apply to any right of appeal (from a decision of the Controller under section 4(4) of the principal Act) accrued before that date as if section 4(h) had not been enacted.

(3) Section 10 of the principal Act in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 10 of this Act shall continue to apply to every licensed housing developer in relation to each of its financial years which close before that date as if section 10 of this Act had not been enacted.

(4) Section 13(1), (2) and (3) of the principal Act in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 12 of this Act shall continue to apply to every licensed housing developer in relation to each of its financial years which close before that date as if section 12 had not been enacted.

(5) For a period of 2 years after the date of commencement of any provision of this Act, the Minister may, by rules, prescribe such additional provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of that provision as he may consider necessary or expedient.
