Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:

Short title and commencement

1. This Act is the Law Enforcement and Other Matters Act 2024 and comes into operation on a date that the Minister appoints by notification in the Gazette.

PART 1AMENDMENT OF MISCELLANEOUS OFFENCES
(PUBLIC ORDER AND NUISANCE) ACT 1906*Amendment of section 14D

2. In the Miscellaneous Offences (Public Order and Nuisance) Act 1906, in section 14D, after subsection (1), insert —

“(1A) However, a person is not guilty of an offence under subsection (1) if the person proves, on a balance of probabilities, that the transmission of the message has a legitimate purpose related to public order, public safety or national security, or the prevention, investigation or prosecution of offences.

Illustration

As part of a campaign to raise public awareness against phishing scams, a government agency sends an email to various members of the public which contains a false message that entices its recipient to click on a link which would purportedly give free shopping vouchers. The link leads to a pop-up message informing the recipient that the message was a simulated phishing attempt, and had it been genuine, the recipient could have activated malware to allow a fraudster to steal money from his or her online account. The sending of the false message has a legitimate purpose related to the prevention of offences.”.

New Part 6A
