The following Act was passed by Parliament on 12th November 2013 and assented to by the President on 4th December 2013:—

REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE

No. 26 of 2013.

I assent.

TONY TAN KENG YAM,
President.
4th December 2013.

An Act to amend the Employment Act (Chapter 91 of the 2009 Revised Edition), the Child Development Co-Savings Act (Chapter 38A of the 2002 Revised Edition) and other written law to give employers greater flexibility in dealing with employment-related matters, to improve employment standards for employees and to refine the benefits for employees and self-employed persons in relation to maternity, adoption, childcare, extended childcare, shared parental and paternity leave.

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:

Short title and commencement

1. This Act may be cited as the Employment, Parental Leave and Other Measures Act 2013 and shall come into operation on such date as the Minister charged with the responsibility for manpower may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint.

Amendment of Employment Act

2.—(1) Section 2 of the Employment Act (Cap. 91) is amended by deleting subsection (2) and substituting the following subsection:

“(2) Any person who is employed in a managerial or an executive position and is in receipt of a salary not exceeding $4,500 a month (excluding overtime payments, bonus payments, annual wage supplements, productivity incentive payments and any allowance however described), or such other amount as may be prescribed in substitution by the Minister, shall be regarded as an employee for the purposes of this Act except the provisions in Part IV.”.

(2) Section 14 of the Employment Act is amended —

(a) by deleting the words “an employee” in subsection (2) and substituting the words “a relevant employee”;

(b) by inserting, immediately after subsection (2), the following subsection:

“(2A) For the purposes of subsection (2), a relevant employee means —

(a) an employee employed in a managerial or an executive position —

(i) who is dismissed with notice; or

(ii) who is dismissed without notice but receives payment of any salary in lieu of notice, after having served that employer for at least 12 months in any position (whether or not a managerial or an executive position);

(b) an employee employed in a managerial or an executive position who is dismissed without notice and without salary in lieu of such notice; or

(c) an employee not employed in a managerial or an executive position.”; and

(c) by deleting the section heading and substituting the following section heading:

“Dismissal”.

(3) Section 18A of the Employment Act is amended by inserting, immediately after subsection (8), the following subsection:

“(8A) For the purposes of subsection (8)(b), any collective agreement that was entered into between the transferor and the trade union of the affected employees and in force immediately before the transfer shall continue in force between the transferee and the trade union of the affected employees for a period of 18 months after the date of the transfer or until the date of its expiry as specified in the collective agreement, whichever is the later.”.

(4) Section 26 of the Employment Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“No unauthorised deductions to be made

26. No deduction shall be made by an employer from the salary of an employee, unless the deduction is authorised by or under any provision of this Act or is required to be made —

(a) by order of a court or other authority competent to make such order;

(b) pursuant to a declaration made by the Comptroller of Income Tax under section 57 of the Income Tax Act (Cap. 134), the Comptroller of Property Tax under section 38 of the Property Tax Act (Cap. 254) or the

Comptroller of Goods and Services Tax under section 79 of the Goods and Services Tax Act (Cap. 117A) that the employer is an agent for recovery of income tax, property tax or goods and services tax (as the case may be) payable by the employee; or “(aa) to enter without previous notice at any reasonable time any place of employment for the purpose of conducting any audit in relation to the terms and conditions of employment of any employee;”.

(20) The Employment Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 104, the following sections:

“Power to arrest without warrant

105.—(1) Any inspecting officer may arrest without warrant any person whom he reasonably suspects —

- (a) is committing or has committed an offence under section 21, 22 or 23 read with section 34; or
- (b) has abetted the commission of any offence referred to in paragraph (a).

(2) Any inspecting officer may arrest without warrant any person who is an officer or a member of a body corporate or an unincorporated association or a partner of a partnership and whom the inspecting officer reasonably suspects has consented to, connived in or due to neglect on his part caused the commission of an offence referred to in subsection (1)(a).

(3) An inspecting officer making an arrest without warrant shall, without unnecessary delay and subject to subsection (5), produce the person arrested before a Magistrate’s Court.

(4) No inspecting officer shall detain in custody a person arrested without warrant for longer than is reasonable in the circumstances, and such period shall not exceed 48 hours exclusive of the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the Magistrate’s Court.

(5) Any person who has been arrested by an inspecting officer may be released on bail, or on his own bond, by an inspecting officer.

How to arrest

105A.—(1) In making an arrest, an inspecting officer making the arrest must touch or confine the body of the person to be arrested unless the person submits to arrest by word or action.

(2) If the person forcibly resists or tries to evade arrest, the inspecting officer may use all means necessary to effect the arrest.

No unnecessary restraint

105B.—(1) The person arrested shall not be subjected to more restraint than is necessary to prevent his escape.

(2) An inspecting officer may use handcuffs or any similar means of restraint on a person arrested to prevent him from —

- (a) inflicting any bodily injury to himself or others;
- (b) damaging any property;
- (c) creating any disturbance; or
- (d) escaping from custody.

(3) The handcuffs or similar means of restraint shall not be used for the purpose of punishment.

Search of persons arrested

105C.—(1) When a person is arrested, the inspecting officer making the arrest may search the person and take possession of all articles (other than necessary wearing apparel) found upon the person that the inspecting officer has reason to believe were connected with the offence for which the person is being arrested.

(2) Whenever it is necessary to cause a person to be searched, the search shall be made by an inspecting officer of the same sex as the person, with strict regard to decency.

Inspecting officer to be armed 105D. Every inspecting officer shall be provided with such batons and accoutrements as may be necessary for the effective discharge of his duties.

Power to seize offensive weapons

105E. An inspecting officer making any arrest may take from the person arrested any offensive weapons which he has about his person.

Power on escape to pursue and arrest

105F. If a person in lawful custody escapes or is rescued, the inspecting officer from whose custody he escaped or was rescued may immediately pursue and arrest him in any place within Singapore and deal with that person as he might have done on the original arrest.”.

(21) The Employment Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 112, the following section:

“Abetment of offences

112A. Any person who abets the commission of an offence under this Act shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable on conviction to be punished with the punishment provided for that offence.”.

(22) Section 113A of the Employment Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“Offences by bodies corporate, etc.

113A.—(1) Where an offence under this Act committed by a body corporate is proved —

- (a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer of the body corporate; or
- (b) to be attributable to any neglect on his part,

the officer as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body corporate.

(3) Where an offence under this Act committed by a partnership is proved —

- (a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of a partner; or

(b) to be attributable to any neglect on his part, the partner as well as the partnership shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(4) Where an offence under this Act committed by an unincorporated association (other than a partnership) is proved —

(a) to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer of the unincorporated association or a member of its governing body; or

(b) to be attributable to any neglect on the part of such an officer or member,

the officer or member as well as the unincorporated association shall be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(5) For the purposes of this section, where an offence under this Act has been committed by a body corporate, an unincorporated association (other than a partnership) or a partnership, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the offence is attributable to the neglect of an officer or a member of the body corporate or unincorporated association or a partner of the partnership, as the case may be, who —

(a) is primarily responsible for the act or omission which constitutes the offence; and

(b) has failed to exercise reasonable supervision or oversight as such officer, member or partner.

(6) In this section —

“body corporate” includes a limited liability partnership registered under the Limited Liability Partnerships Act
(Cap. 163A);

“officer” —

(a) in relation to a body corporate, means any director, partner, member of the committee of management, chief executive, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate and includes any person purporting to act in any such capacity; or

(b) in relation to an unincorporated association (other than a partnership), means the president, the secretary, or any member of the committee of the unincorporated association, or any person holding a position analogous to that of president, secretary or member of such a committee and includes any person purporting to act in any such capacity;

“partner” includes a person purporting to act as a partner.

(7) The Minister may make regulations to provide for the application of any provision of this section, with such modifications as the Minister considers appropriate, to any body corporate or unincorporated association formed or recognised under the law of a territory outside Singapore.”.

(23) Section 114 of the Employment Act is amended by deleting “$1,000” and substituting “$5,000”.

(24) Section 115 of the Employment Act is amended by inserting, immediately after subsection (3A), the following subsections:

“(3B) Subject to subsection (3C), any order made by the Commissioner under subsection (1) in the absence of a party concerned or affected by the order may be set aside or varied by the Commissioner, on the application of that party, on such terms as the Commissioner thinks just.

(3C) An application to set aside or vary an order made by the Commissioner referred to in subsection (3B) shall be made no later than 14 days after the date of the order.”.

(25) Section 119 of the Employment Act is amended by inserting, immediately after subsection (2), the following subsection:

“(3) All proceedings before the Commissioner shall be held in private.”.

(26) The Employment Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 122, the following section:

“No division of claims

123. No claim shall be divided and pursued in separate proceedings before the Commissioner for the sole purpose of bringing the sum claimed in each of such proceedings within the jurisdiction of this Act.”.

(27) The Employment Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 127, the following section:

“Protection from personal liability

127A. No liability shall lie against any person appointed under section 3 or any other person acting under the direction of the Commissioner for anything which is done with reasonable care and in good faith in the execution or purported execution of this Act.”.

(28) Section 139(2) of the Employment Act is amended by inserting, immediately after paragraph (g), the following paragraph:

“(ga) provide for any matter relating to the release of any arrested person on any bail or bond under section 105(5);”.

(29) The Employment Act is amended by inserting, immediately after the Third Schedule, the following Schedules:

“(3) Notwithstanding anything in section 87A of the Employment Act, when an employee becomes entitled (whether before, on or after 1st April 2014) to childcare leave or extended childcare leave in relation to a qualifying child under this section, whether or not he has taken (before, on or after 1st April 2014) any childcare leave under section 87A of that Act and whether or not in relation to the same child before he becomes so entitled, then —

(a) he shall not be entitled to childcare leave under section 87A of that Act, or to payment from his employer under section 87A(5) of that Act, for so long as he is entitled to childcare leave or extended childcare leave under this section;

- (b) any childcare leave taken under section 87A of that Act (before he became entitled to childcare leave or extended childcare leave under this section) in a relevant period shall be treated, for the purposes of this Act, as childcare leave or extended childcare leave taken under this section in that relevant period in relation to the qualifying child;
- (c) where he has not received any payment from his employer under section 87A(5) of that Act in respect of any childcare leave already taken by him under section 87A of that Act, he shall be entitled to payment from his employer under subsection (9) in respect of the childcare leave so taken by him; and
- (d) where he has received payment from his employer under section 87A(5) of that Act with respect to the childcare leave taken by him under section 87A of that Act, the payment shall be treated, for the purposes of this Act, as a payment made by his employer to him under subsection (9).”; and

- (b) by deleting subsection (5) and substituting the following subsection:

“(5) Notwithstanding anything in section 87A of the Employment Act, when an employee —

- (a) ceases to be entitled to childcare leave and extended childcare leave (whether before, on or after 1st April 2014) under this section; or

- (b) ceases to be entitled to childcare leave (whether before, on or after 1st April 2014) and is not entitled to extended childcare leave under this section, but has any child below the age of 7 years at any time during any relevant period, his entitlement, if any, to childcare leave under section 87A of that Act shall be affected in the following manner:

- (i) he shall be entitled to 2 days of childcare leave under section 87A of that Act for that relevant period, if he had not taken any childcare leave or extended childcare leave under this section during that relevant period;
- (ii) he shall be entitled to one day of childcare leave under section 87A of that Act for that relevant period, if he had taken one day of childcare leave or extended childcare leave under this section during that relevant period; and
- (iii) he shall not be entitled to any childcare leave under section 87A of that Act for that relevant period, if he had taken 2 or more days in total of childcare leave or extended childcare leave or both under this section during that relevant period.”.

(5) Section 12E of the Child Development Co-Savings Act is amended —

- (a) by deleting the words “one or more periods, not exceeding 6 days in the aggregate, as agreed to by the male employee and his employer,” in subsection (1)(b) and substituting the words “one or more than one period each of such duration as agreed between the employee and his employer but in aggregate no shorter than as reckoned in accordance with Part III of the Schedule or 6 days, whichever is the lower, all of”;

- (b) by deleting subsection (3) and substituting the following subsection:

“(3) Subject to this section and any regulations made under section 20, every self-employed man who is the natural father of a child and who satisfies the requirements of section 12F(1) shall, if —

- (a) at any time during the period of 12 months commencing from and after the date of the birth of the child, he ceases to be actively engaged in his trade, business, profession or vocation during one or more than one period that is in aggregate no shorter than as reckoned in accordance with Part III of the Schedule or 6 days, whichever is the lower; and

- (b) he loses any income by reason of his so ceasing to be actively engaged in such trade, business, profession or vocation,

be entitled to claim from the Government, the income he would otherwise have derived from his trade, business, profession or vocation had he continued to be actively engaged in such trade, business, profession or vocation during that period or periods referred to in paragraph (a), provided that an election for the natural father to take shared parental leave is made in accordance with subsection (4).”;

- (c) by deleting subsection (5) and substituting the following subsection:

“(5) Subject to subsection (6), where an election is made in accordance with subsection (4), the mother’s entitlement to absent herself from work and to receive payment under section 9(1), (1A), (1B), (1C), (1D), (1E) or (1F) or to claim from the Government income lost by reason of her ceasing to be actively engaged in her trade, business, profession or vocation under section 9(4), (4A), (4B) or (4C) shall be reduced by the following period:

(a) one week, where the mother's entitlement to absent herself from work or where the mother has lost income by reason of her ceasing to be actively engaged in her trade, business, profession or vocation under section 9 is prescribed only in weeks, which shall be taken from the last week of that entitlement;

(b) in a case other than paragraph (a), where the mother is an employee —

(i) one-quarter of the number of days reckoned in accordance with Part II of the Schedule or one-quarter of 24 days, whichever is the lower, which shall be taken from the last 24 days of that entitlement; or

(ii) one-eighth of the number of days reckoned in accordance with Part I of the Schedule or one-eighth of 48 days, whichever is the lower, which shall be taken from the last 48 days of that entitlement, as the case may be; or

(c) in a case other than paragraph (a), where the mother is a self-employed woman, one-eighth of the number of days reckoned in accordance with Part I of the Schedule or one-eighth of 48 days, whichever is the lower, which shall be taken from the last 48 days of that entitlement.”; and

(d) by deleting subsection (9).

(6) Section 12H of the Child Development Co-Savings Act is amended —

- (a) by deleting the words “one or more periods, not exceeding 6 days in the aggregate, as agreed to by the male employee and his employer,” in subsection (1)(b) and substituting the words “one or more than one period each of such duration as agreed between the employee and his employer but in aggregate no shorter than as reckoned in accordance with Part III of the Schedule or 6 days, whichever is the lower, all of”;
- (b) by deleting subsection (4) and substituting the following subsection:
- “(4) Subject to subsection (5) and any regulations made under section 20, every self-employed man who is the natural father of a child and who satisfies the requirements of section 12I(1), or who is the adoptive father of a child and who satisfies the requirements of section 12I(2) shall, if —
- (a) at any time during the period of 12 months commencing from and after the date of the birth of the child, he ceases to be actively engaged in his trade, business, profession or vocation during one or more than one period that is in aggregate no shorter than as reckoned in accordance with Part III of the Schedule or 6 days, whichever is the lower; and
- (b) he loses any income by reason of his so ceasing to be actively engaged in such trade, business, profession or vocation,
- be entitled to claim from the Government, the income he would otherwise have derived from his trade, business, profession or vocation had he continued to be actively engaged in such trade, business, profession or vocation during that period or periods referred to in paragraph (a).”;
- and
- (c) by deleting subsection (6).

(7) The Child Development Co-Savings Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 22, the following Schedule:

4. In this Schedule, the calculation of the number of days on which a male or female employee is entitled to absent himself or herself from work shall be determined in accordance with the work pattern in the following period:

- (a) where a female employee is entitled to absent herself from work under section 9(1), the calculation of the number of days shall be determined in accordance with the work pattern under her contract of service immediately preceding the day of confinement or the first day of leave, whichever is the earlier;

- (b) where a female employee is entitled to absent herself from work under section 9(1A), (1B), (1C), (1D), (1E) or (1F), the calculation of the number of days shall be determined in accordance with the work pattern under her contract of service immediately preceding the day on which the last of all the eligibility criteria under section 9A(1A), (1B) or (1C), as the case may be, is satisfied;
- (c) where a female employee is entitled to absent herself from work under section 12AA, the calculation of the number of days shall be determined in accordance with her work pattern under her contract of service immediately preceding the date on which an application to adopt the child is made (where the child to be adopted is a citizen of Singapore) or the date on which the dependant's pass in respect of the child is issued (where the child to be adopted is not a citizen of Singapore);
- (d) where a male employee who is a natural father is entitled to absent himself from work under section 12E or 12H, the calculation of the number of days shall be determined in accordance with his work pattern under his contract of service immediately preceding the day on which the last of all the eligibility criteria under section 12F(1) or 12I(1), as the case may be, is satisfied;
- (e) where a male employee who is an adoptive father is entitled to absent himself from work under section 12H, the calculation of the number of days shall be determined in accordance with his work pattern under his contract of service immediately preceding the date on which an application to adopt the child is made (where the child to be adopted is a citizen of Singapore) or the date on which the dependant's pass in respect of the child is issued (where the child to be adopted is not a citizen of Singapore).
5. In this Schedule, the calculation of the number of days on which a self-employed man or woman is entitled to claim lost income from the Government shall be determined in accordance with the work pattern in the following period:
- (a) where the self-employed woman's entitlement is pursuant to section 9(4), the calculation of the number of days shall be determined in accordance with her work pattern immediately preceding the day of confinement or the first day of leave, whichever is the earlier;
- (b) where the self-employed woman's entitlement is pursuant to section 9(4A), (4B) or (4C), the calculation of the number of days shall be determined in accordance with her work pattern immediately preceding the day on which the last of all the eligibility criteria under section 9A(1A), (1B) or (1C), as the case may be, is satisfied;

- (c) where the self-employed woman's entitlement is pursuant to section 12AB, the calculation of the number of days shall be determined in accordance with her work pattern immediately preceding the date on which an application to adopt the child is made (where the child to be adopted is a citizen of Singapore) or the date on which the dependant's pass in respect of the child is issued (where the child to be adopted is not a citizen of Singapore);
 - (d) in the case of a self-employed man who is a natural father, where his entitlement is pursuant to section 12E or 12H, the calculation of the number of days shall be determined in accordance with his work pattern immediately preceding the day on which the last of all the eligibility criteria under section 12F(1) or 12I(1), as the case may be, is satisfied;
 - (e) in the case of a self-employed man who is an adoptive father, where his entitlement is pursuant to section 12H, the calculation of the number of days shall be determined in accordance with his work pattern immediately preceding the date on which an application to adopt the child is made (where the child to be adopted is a citizen of Singapore) or the date on which the dependant's pass in respect of the child is issued (where the child to be adopted is not a citizen of Singapore).
6. In this Schedule, where the number of days in the second column of Part I, II or III is not a whole number, that number shall be rounded down to the nearest half day or whole day.
7. In this Schedule —
- “week” means a continuous period of 7 days commencing at midnight on Sunday;
 - “work pattern” means a work pattern described in item 1, 2 or 3 in the first column of Part I, II or III.
8. In calculating the number of work days, any day on which an employee is required to work for 5 hours or shorter under his contract of service or on which a self-employed man or woman is engaged in his or her trade, business, profession or vocation for 5 hours or shorter, shall be regarded as half a day.”.

Related amendment to Industrial Relations Act

4. Section 25 of the Industrial Relations Act (Cap. 136, 2004 Ed.) is amended by inserting, immediately after subsection (5), the following subsection:

“(5A) Notwithstanding subsection (5)(a), where there is a transfer of an undertaking referred to in section 18A(1) of the Employment Act (Cap. 91), any collective agreement that was entered into between the transferor and the trade union of the affected employees and in force immediately before the transfer shall, for the purposes of section 18A(8)(b) of the Employment Act, continue in force between the transferee and the trade union of the affected employees for a period of 18 months after the date of the transfer or until the date of its expiry as specified in the collective agreement, whichever is the later.”.

No proceedings to be instituted

5. No proceedings, whether civil or criminal, shall be instituted in any court or tribunal by or against any employer or employee on account of or in respect of any childcare leave or extended childcare leave which an employee is entitled to or has taken under the Child Development Co-Savings Act (Cap. 38A) or the Employment Act (Cap. 91), as the case may be, prior to the date of commencement of section 3(4).

Savings and transitional provisions

6.—(1) Section 34 of the Employment Act (Cap. 91) as in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 2(11) shall continue to apply to any person who, before that date, commits any offence of contravening section 21, 22 or 23 of the Employment Act as in force immediately before that date, in relation only to that offence, as if section 2(11) had not been enacted.

(2) Section 76(1) of the Employment Act as in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 2(16) shall continue to apply to any female employee whose confinement occurs, and whose estimated delivery date (as certified by a medical practitioner) for that confinement is, before that date, or to any employer of such a female employee in relation to that female employee as if section 2(16) had not been enacted.

(3) Section 9 of the Child Development Co-Savings Act (Cap. 38A) as in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 3(1)(a) to (l) shall continue to apply to any female employee or self-employed woman whose confinement occurs, and whose estimated delivery date (as certified by a medical practitioner) for that confinement is, before that date, or to any employer of such a female employee in relation to that female employee as if section 3(1)(a) to (l) had not been enacted.

(4) Sections 12AA and 12AB of the Child Development Co-Savings Act as in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 3(2) and (3) shall continue to apply in relation to any female employee or self-employed woman, or to any employer of such a female employee in relation to that female employee if —

- (a) where the child to be adopted is a citizen of Singapore, the application to adopt is made before that date; and
- (b) where the child to be adopted is not a citizen of Singapore, the dependant's pass in respect of the child is issued before that date, as if section 3(2) and (3) had not been enacted.

(5) Section 12E(1)(b), (3) and (9) of the Child Development Co-Savings Act as in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 3(5)(a), (b) and (d) shall continue to apply to any male employee or self-employed man who is the natural father of a child, where the mother's confinement occurs, and whose estimated delivery date (as certified by a medical practitioner) for that confinement is, before that date, or to any employer of such a male employee in relation to that male employee as if section 3(5)(a), (b) and (d) had not been enacted.

(6) Section 12E(5) of the Child Development Co-Savings Act as in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 3(5)(c) shall continue to apply to the mother of a child, where the mother's confinement occurs, and whose estimated delivery date (as certified by a medical practitioner) for that confinement is, before that date, as if section 3(5)(c) had not been enacted.

(7) Section 12H of the Child Development Co-Savings Act as in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 3(6) shall continue to apply to any male employee or self-employed man who is the natural father of a child, where the mother's confinement occurs, and whose estimated delivery date (as certified by a medical practitioner) for that confinement is, before that date, or to any employer of such a male employee in relation to that male employee, as if section 3(6) had not been enacted.

(8) Section 12H of the Child Development Co-Savings Act as in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 3(6) shall continue to apply to any male employee or self-employed man who is the adoptive father of a child, or to any employer of such a male employee in relation to that male employee if —

- (a) where the child to be adopted is a citizen of Singapore, the application to adopt is made before that date; and
- (b) where the child to be adopted is not a citizen of Singapore, the dependant's pass in respect of the child is issued before that date,

as if section 3(6) had not been enacted.

(9) For a period of 2 years after the date of commencement of any provision of this Act, the Minister charged with the responsibility for manpower may, by regulations, prescribe such provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of that provision as he may consider necessary or expedient.
