REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE

No. 28 of 2014.

I assent.

TONY TAN KENG YAM,
President.
10th October 2014.

(LS)

An Act to amend the Road Traffic Act (Chapter 276 of the 2004 Revised Edition).

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:

Short title and commencement

1. This Act may be cited as the Road Traffic (Amendment) Act 2014 and shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint.

Amendment of section 2

2. Section 2(1) of the Road Traffic Act (referred to in this Act as the principal Act) is amended —

(a) by inserting, immediately after the definition of “cart”, the following definition:

“ “Commissioner of Police” means the public officer appointed under section 6(1) of the Police Force Act (Cap. 235);”;

(b) by deleting the definition of “Minister” and substituting the following definition:

“ “Minister” means —

(a) except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c), the Minister charged with the responsibility for transport;

(b) for the purposes of the whole of Parts II and III and sections 75(1), 112(1), (3) and (4), 113(1) and (2), 114(1), 116(2), 121(2) and 143(3) and (11), the Minister charged with the responsibility for home affairs; and

(c) for the purposes of sections 131B(7), 132(7), 135(2), 140(1) and (2), 142 and 142A(1), the Minister charged with the responsibility for transport or the Minister charged with the responsibility for home affairs, as appropriate;”;

(c) by inserting, immediately after the definition of “public service vehicle”, the following definition:

““registered medical practitioner” has the same meaning as in the Medical Registration Act (Cap. 174);”.

Amendment of section 35

3. Section 35 of the principal Act is amended —

(a) by deleting subsection (4) and substituting the following subsection:

“(4) An application for a grant or renewal of a driving licence shall be made in such form as the Deputy Commissioner of Police may design and utilise.”;

(b) by deleting subsection (6) and substituting the following subsections:

“(6) Subject to the provisions of this Part as to tests of competence to drive and as to the physical fitness of applicants for driving licences, the Deputy Commissioner of Police shall, upon payment of the prescribed fee (if any), grant a licence to any person who —

(a) applies for it in the prescribed manner; and

(b) declares in writing that the person is not disqualified by any reason (age or otherwise) from obtaining the licence.

(6A) The Deputy Commissioner of Police may, upon payment of the prescribed fee (if any), renew the driving licence of any person who holds a driving licence authorising him to drive a class or description of a motor vehicle if the Deputy Commissioner of Police is satisfied that the person has passed the whole or such part of the prescribed test of competence to drive that class or description of vehicle as the Deputy Commissioner of Police may require.”;

(c) by inserting, immediately after the words “subsection (6)” in subsection (7), the words “or renew a licence under subsection (6A)”;

- (d) by inserting, immediately after the word “grant” in subsection (7)(b), the words “or renew”;
- (e) by deleting subsection (10) and substituting the following subsections:

“(10) Subject to the provisions of this Act, unless earlier revoked or surrendered —

- (a) a driving licence granted to a person who is, or a renewed driving licence of a person who becomes, a citizen or permanent resident of Singapore remains in force for the lifetime of that person; and
- (b) a driving licence granted to, or a renewed driving licence of, a person who is not a citizen or permanent resident of Singapore remains in force for a period of 5 years beginning on the date of such grant or renewal, as the case may be, or such shorter period as the Deputy Commissioner of Police may specify in any particular case.

(10A) Notwithstanding subsection (10) but subject to the other provisions of this Act, a driving licence referred to in subsection (10)(a) or (b) ceases to be in force when the person who holds the driving licence attains any of the prescribed ages applicable to the person, unless before attaining such age —

- (a) the person undergoes the prescribed medical examination and is duly certified by a registered medical practitioner as being physically fit to drive a motor vehicle of the class or description in that licence; and
- (b) the person passes the whole or such part of the prescribed test of competence to drive as the Deputy Commissioner of Police may require for the person to drive a motor vehicle of the class or description in that licence.”;

- (f) by deleting subsection (12);
  - (g) by deleting the words “, or may renew it for a period shorter than that provided for in subsection (10)(a) or (b),” in subsection (13);
  - (h) by deleting subsection (16) and substituting the following subsection:

“(16) Where a person’s driving licence has ceased to be in force for a period of 3 years or more, the Deputy Commissioner of Police must not grant another driving licence to the person authorising him to drive a class or description of motor vehicle unless —

- (a) the person passes the test of competence to drive referred to in section 36(1); or
  - (b) the Deputy Commissioner of Police is satisfied that, at any time within 3 years before the date that the person applies for the other driving licence, the person held a driver’s certificate or licence granted by the competent authority in any country other than Singapore authorising the person to drive a motor vehicle of that class or description.”;
- (i) by inserting, immediately after the word “grant” in subsection (19), the words “or renew”; and
  - (j) by inserting, immediately after subsection (19), the following subsection:

“(20) In this section, “permanent resident of Singapore” means a person who holds a valid entry permit under section 10 of the Immigration Act (Cap. 133) or a valid re-entry permit under section 11 of that Act.”.

Amendment of section 35A*4. Section 35A of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by inserting, immediately after the words “this Act” in subsection (2), the words “, and providing for the circumstances where any points so awarded may be cancelled or disregarded”;
- (b) by deleting subsections (3) and (4) and substituting the following subsections:

“(3) The Deputy Commissioner of Police may, under subsection (1), regard a person as not competent to drive a motor vehicle, or establish that it would not be in the interests of public safety for a person to continue to hold a driving licence, if that person is awarded, within a prescribed period, points prescribed for the commission of an offence or offences under this Act that are equal to or in excess of the maximum number of points prescribed (called the revocation threshold).

(4) The rules made under subsection (2) must —

- (a) specify the number of points to be awarded for an offence under this Act, including points that distinguish between different offences under this Act or the circumstances in which any offence is committed or both;
- (b) specify when points may be awarded in respect of an offence under this Act, and the circumstances under which points awarded may be cancelled or disregarded for the purposes of subsection (1); and
- (c) specify the revocation threshold, the period over which the revocation threshold is calculated, and such other matters as are required to be prescribed for the purposes of this section.”; and

- (c) by deleting the words “maximum number at which the Deputy Commissioner of Police may revoke the driving licence of such person” in subsection (5) and substituting the words “revocation threshold”.

Amendment of section 35C

5. Section 35C of the principal Act is amended by deleting subsection (3) and substituting the following subsection:

“(3) Any person whose driving licence has been revoked under section 35A shall not drive a motor vehicle of the class or description which the revoked licence had authorised that person to drive until that person is granted a new driving licence authorising that person to drive a motor vehicle of that class or description.”.

Amendment of section 36

6. Section 36 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by deleting subsection (2) and substituting the following subsection:

“(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Deputy Commissioner of Police may grant a driving licence to an applicant who satisfies the Deputy Commissioner of Police that —

- (a) at any time within 3 years before the date that the applicant makes the application, the applicant —
- (i) has held a driving licence which has ceased to be in force under section 35(10A); or
  - (ii) has held a driver’s certificate or licence granted by the competent authority in any country other than Singapore authorising the applicant to drive a motor vehicle of the class or description which the applicant would be authorised to drive by the licence applied for; and

- (b) the applicant passes the whole or such part of the test of competence to drive referred to in subsection (1) or such other prescribed test of competence to drive, as the Deputy Commissioner of Police may require.”;
- (b) by deleting the words “Subject to subsection (6), for” in subsection (3) and substituting the word “For”;
- (c) by deleting subsection (6); and
- (d) by deleting the section heading and substituting the following section heading:

“Prescribed test of competence to drive for grant of driving licence”.

Amendment of section 37

7. Section 37 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by deleting subsection (1) and substituting the following subsection:

“(1) On an application for the grant of a driving licence, the applicant must make a declaration in writing as to whether the applicant is suffering from —

- (a) any prescribed disease or physical disability;
or
  - (b) any other disease or physical disability which is likely to cause the driving by the applicant of a motor vehicle (of the class or description which the applicant would be authorised by the licence to drive) to be a source of danger to the public.”; and
- (b) by deleting subsection (9).

Repeal and re-enactment of section 38

8. Section 38 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“Recognition of foreign driving licences and driving permits

38.—(1) Despite not holding a valid driving licence but subject to the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for a holder of a valid foreign driving licence to drive in Singapore, for a period of 12 months commencing from the date of his last entry into Singapore, a motor vehicle of the class or description which the foreign driving licence authorises him to drive.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply where the holder of the foreign driving licence —

- (a) is a citizen or permanent resident of Singapore; or
- (b) is a work pass driver.

(3) If at any time a holder of a valid foreign driving licence becomes —

- (a) a citizen or permanent resident of Singapore; or
- (b) a work pass driver,

then subsection (1) shall apply to that holder of a foreign driving licence for the prescribed period instead of the 12-month period in subsection (1).

(4) Despite not holding a valid driving licence, it shall be lawful for —

- (a) a member of a visiting force; or
- (b) a member of a civilian component of such visiting force, who holds a driving permit issued to him by a competent authority of the country of the visiting force to drive in Singapore a motor vehicle belonging to the country of the visiting force which is of the class or description specified in the driving permit.

(5) In this section —

“civilian component” and “visiting force” have the same respective meanings as in the Visiting Forces Act (Cap. 344);

“permanent resident of Singapore” means a person who holds a valid entry permit under section 10 of the Immigration Act or a valid re-entry permit under section 11 of that Act;

“prescribed period” means the period prescribed, starting from —

(a) for a person referred to in subsection (3)(a), the date on which the person is granted a certificate of citizenship under the Constitution of the Republic of Singapore or an entry permit under the Immigration Act, whichever first happens; or

(b) for a person referred to in subsection (3)(b), the date on which the person is issued with a work pass under the Employment of Foreign Manpower Act (Cap. 91A);

“work pass driver” means the holder of a work pass issued under the Employment of Foreign Manpower Act who drives a motor vehicle carrying passengers or goods or both —

(a) for hire or reward; or

(b) because of or under a contract of employment.”.

Amendment of section 45

9. Section 45 of the principal Act is amended —

(a) by inserting, immediately after the words “this Act” in subsection (2), the words “, and providing for the circumstances where any points so awarded may be cancelled or disregarded”;

(b) by deleting subsections (3) and (4) and substituting the following subsections:

“(3) The Deputy Commissioner of Police may, under subsection (1), regard a person as not competent to drive a motor vehicle, or establish that it would not be in the interests of public safety for a person to continue to hold a driving licence, if that person is awarded, within a prescribed period, points prescribed for the commission of an offence or offences under this Act that are equal to or in excess of the maximum number of points prescribed (called the suspension threshold).

(4) The rules made under subsection (2) must —

(a) specify the number of points to be awarded for an offence under this Act, including points that distinguish between different offences under this Act or the circumstances in which any offence is committed or both;

(b) specify when points may be awarded in respect of an offence under this Act, and the circumstances under which points awarded may be cancelled or disregarded for the purposes of subsection (1); and

(c) specify the suspension threshold, the period over which the suspension threshold is calculated, and such other matters as are required to be prescribed for the purposes of this section.”; and

(c) by deleting the words “maximum number at which the Deputy Commissioner of Police may suspend the driving licence of such person” in subsection (5) and substituting the words “suspension threshold”.

Amendment of section 47C

10. Section 47C(2) of the principal Act is amended by deleting the words “or 304A” in paragraph (d) and substituting the words “, 304A or 338”.

Amendment of section 48

11. Section 48 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by inserting, immediately after the word “granting” in paragraph (a), the words “and renewal”;
- (b) by deleting paragraph (i) and substituting the following paragraph:

“(i) to prescribe the circumstances in which a person may be required to be certified by a registered medical practitioner as fit to drive a vehicle, or may be required by the Deputy Commissioner of Police to pass any prescribed test of competence to drive, before the granting or renewal of the person’s driving licence.”; and

- (c) by renumbering the section as subsection (1) of that section, and by inserting immediately thereafter the following subsection:

“(2) The Minister may by such rules confer on the Deputy Commissioner of Police a discretion to waive, in any particular case, the application of any of those rules to or in relation to any person subject to such conditions as the Deputy Commissioner of Police may impose.”.

Repeal and re-enactment of section 60

12. Section 60 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“Appeal to Minister or Commissioner of Police

60.—(1) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the Deputy Commissioner of Police to grant or renew any licence that may be granted or renewed under this Part may, within 14 days after receiving the written notification to him of the refusal, appeal in writing —

(a) in the case of a driving school licence, to the Minister;
or

(b) in the case of an instructor's licence, to the Commissioner of Police.

(2) The decision of the Minister or the Commissioner of Police
(as the case may be) in an appeal under subsection (1) is final.”.

Amendment of section 62A

13. Section 62A of the principal Act is amended by deleting the words “age of 70 years” and substituting the words “prescribed age”.

Repeal and re-enactment of section 65B

14. Section 65B of the principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“Use of mobile communication device while driving

65B.—(1) A driver of a motor vehicle who uses a mobile communication device while the motor vehicle is in motion on a road or in a public place is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(2) Where a person who is convicted or found guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is a repeat offender, the person is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

(3) In this section —

“communicative function” means any of the following functions:

- (a) sending or receiving oral or written messages;
- (b) sending or receiving electronic documents;
- (c) sending or receiving still or moving images;
- (d) sending or receiving audio or video files;
- (e) providing access to the Internet;

“mobile communication device” includes a mobile telephone and any hand-held device which is designed or capable of being used for a communicative function;

“repeat offender”, in relation to an offence under subsection (1), means a person who is convicted or found guilty of that offence (called the current offence) and who was previously convicted or found guilty of —

(a) an offence under subsection (1); or

(b) an offence under section 65B as in force immediately before the date of commencement of section 14 of the Road Traffic (Amendment) Act 2014, on at least one previous occasion before the date on which the person is convicted or found guilty of the current offence;

“use”, in relation to a mobile communication device, means to hold it in at least one hand while operating any of its functions.”.

Amendment of section 72

16. Section 72 of the principal Act is amended —

(a) by deleting the words “prescribed by the Minister” in the definition of “breath test” in subsection (1) and substituting the words “approved by the Deputy Commissioner of Police”;

(b) by inserting, immediately after subsection (1), the following subsections:

“(1A) Once a device is approved by the Deputy Commissioner of Police for the purposes of the definition of “breath test” in subsection (1), he must, as soon as practicable, cause to be published in the Gazette a notification specifying each device so approved by him.

(1B) However, failure to comply with subsection (1A) in respect of any device does not invalidate the approval for that device.”; and

- (c) by inserting, immediately after the words “sections 67 to 71B” in the section heading, the word “, etc.”.

Amendment of section 74

17. Section 74 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by deleting the word “Minister” in subsections (1) and (2) and substituting in each case the words “Deputy Commissioner of Police”; and
- (b) by inserting, immediately after subsection (2), the following subsections:

“(2A) Once a type of protective helmet is approved by the Deputy Commissioner of Police for the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), he must, as soon as practicable, cause to be published in the Gazette a notification specifying each type of protective helmet so approved by him.

(2B) However, failure to comply with subsection (2A) in respect of any type of protective helmet does not invalidate the approval for that type of protective helmet.”.

Amendment of section 75

18. Section 75 of the principal Act is amended by deleting subsection (1) and substituting the following subsection:

- “(1) The Minister may make rules requiring, subject to such exceptions as may be prescribed, any person driving or riding in

(4) However, failure to comply with subsection (3) in respect of any type of seat belt does not invalidate the approval for that type of seat belt.”.

Amendment of section 81

20. Section 81 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by deleting subsections (1) and (1A) and substituting the following subsections:

“(1) Where the driver of a motor vehicle is alleged or is suspected to be guilty of an offence under this Act, the owner of the motor vehicle, when required by a police officer or an employee of the Authority to do so, must give to the police officer or the Authority’s employee, within 14 days after being so required, such information as to —

- (a) the identity and address of the person who was driving the motor vehicle at or about the time of the alleged offence; and

(b) the driving licence held by that person.

(1A) An owner of a motor vehicle who fails to give the information required of the owner under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence unless the owner proves, on a balance of probabilities, that the owner did not know and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained the information required.

(1B) Where the owner of a motor vehicle who is guilty of an offence under subsection (1A) holds a driving licence, and the driver of the motor vehicle is alleged or suspected to be guilty of an offence specified in Part I of the Third Schedule, the owner of the motor vehicle is presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be driving the motor vehicle at the time of the occurrence of the second-mentioned offence.

(1C) For the purposes of subsection (1A), where the owner of the motor vehicle is a company, a partnership or an unincorporated body, the owner is not deemed to have discharged the burden of proving that it could not, with reasonable diligence, have ascertained the information required under subsection (1) unless the owner also proves, on a balance of probabilities, that —

(a) it had kept a proper and accurate record as required under subsection (8); but

(b) the record shows no person having been permitted by the owner to drive the motor vehicle at or about the time of the alleged offence.”;

(b) by deleting subsection (2) and substituting the following subsection:

“(2) Where the driver of a motor vehicle is alleged or is suspected to be guilty of an offence under this Act, any other person who was or should have been in charge of the motor vehicle, when required by a police officer or an employee of the Authority to do so, must give to the police officer or the Authority's employee, within 14 days after being so required, any information which the person has power to give, and which may lead to the identification of the driver, and if that person fails to do so, that person is guilty of an offence.”; and

- (c) by deleting the words “subsection (1)” in subsection (7) and substituting the words “subsection (1A)”.
