[2018

First published in the Government Gazette, Electronic Edition, on 12 February 2018 at 5 pm.

The following Act was passed by Parliament on 8 January 2018 and assented to by the President on 7 February 2018:—

REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE

No. 4 of 2018.

I assent.

HALIMAH YACOB,
President.
7 February 2018.

An Act to amend the Payment and Settlement Systems (Finality and Netting) Act (Chapter 231 of the 2003 Revised Edition).

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:

Short title and commencement

1. This Act is the Payment and Settlement Systems (Finality and Netting) (Amendment) Act 2018 and comes into operation on a date that the Minister appoints by notification in the Gazette.

Amendment of section 2

2. Section 2(1) of the Payment and Settlement Systems (Finality and Netting) Act (called in this Act the principal Act) is amended —

(a) by deleting the definitions of “book-entry Government securities” and “default arrangements” and substituting the following definitions:

““book-entry securities” means any securities that —

(a) are issued —

(i) by the Government, or a statutory board, under any written law; or

(ii) by a corporation; and

(b) are transferable by a book-entry, on a register or otherwise;

“business day”, in relation to a designated system —

(a) in any case where the Rules of the designated system specify what constitutes a business day for that case, has the same meaning as in those Rules; or

(b) in any other case, means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday;

“collateral holder”, in relation to a designated system, means any person who has possession, control or ownership of any collateral security of the designated system under an arrangement with the operator of the designated system relating to that collateral security;

“collateral security”, in relation to a designated system, means any property held by or deposited with a collateral holder for the purpose of securing any liability arising directly in connection with ensuring —

(a) the clearing or settlement of payment obligations by the designated system; or

(b) the clearing, settlement or transfer of book-entry securities by the designated system;

“default arrangements” means the arrangements made by the operator of a designated system to limit systemic and other types of risks that arise when a participant is or is likely to become unable to meet its obligations in respect of a transfer order, examples of which include any of the following arrangements:

(a) any arrangements for netting;

(b) any arrangements for the closing out of open positions;

(c) any arrangements relating to collateral security;”;

(b) by inserting, immediately after the definition of “relevant office holder”, the following definition:

“ “Rules”, in relation to a designated system, means any rules, regulations, by-laws or other similar body of written statements, by whatever name called, and whether or not contained in the constituent documents of the designated system, that govern the activities and conduct of —

- (a) the designated system; and
 - (b) any other persons in relation to the designated system;”;
- (c) by deleting the definition of “settlement institution” and substituting the following definition:

“ “settlement institution”, in relation to a designated system, means any body corporate that —

- (a) provides accounts for the participants of the designated system, or facilitates the settlement of transfer orders between the participants in the designated system; and
 - (b) is specified in an order under section 3(1) to be the settlement institution of the designated system;”;
- (d) by deleting the word “Government” in paragraph (b) of the definition of “system”; and
- (e) by deleting the definition of “transfer order” and substituting the following definition:

“ “transfer order” means —

- (a) an instruction by a participant, which may be carried out in or through one or more designated systems —
 - (i) to place at the disposal of a recipient an amount of money by means of a book-entry on the accounts of a settlement institution for a designated system; or

- (ii) that, when settled, results in the assumption or discharge of a payment obligation as defined by the Rules of a designated system; or
- (b) an instruction by a participant to transfer book-entry securities.”.

Repeal and re-enactment of section 3

3. Section 3 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“Designation of system

3.—(1) The Authority may, by order in the Gazette, designate a system to be a designated system for the purposes of this Act, if the Authority is satisfied that a disruption in the operations of the system may —

- (a) trigger, cause or transmit disruption to other participants;
 - (b) trigger or cause systemic disruption to the financial system of Singapore; or
 - (c) affect public confidence in the payment systems of Singapore or in the financial system of Singapore.
- (2) Any order made under subsection (1) —
- (a) must specify the operator and settlement institution of the designated system; and
 - (b) has effect until the order is revoked by the Authority.”.

Amendment of section 4

4. Section 4 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by inserting the word “or” at the end of subsection (1)(a)(iv);
- (b) by deleting the word “or” at the end of subsection (1)(a)(v);
- (c) by deleting sub-paragraph (vi) of subsection (1)(a);

(d) by inserting, immediately after paragraph (a) of subsection (1), the following paragraph:

“(aa) the Authority is no longer satisfied that a disruption in the operations of the system may have any effect mentioned in section 3(1)(a), (b) or (c); or”; and

(e) by deleting the words “section 5” in subsection (4) and substituting the words “section 5(1)”.

New section 4A

5. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 4, the following section:

“Prohibition against holding out as operator or settlement institution of designated system

4A.—(1) A person must not hold out that the person is an operator or a settlement institution of a designated system, unless —

(a) the person is an operator or a settlement institution (as the case may be) of a system; and

(b) the Authority has designated the system to be a designated system under section 3.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $10,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.”.

Amendment of section 5

6. The principal Act is amended by renumbering section 5 as subsection (1) of that section, and by inserting immediately thereafter the following subsection:

“(2) Despite subsection (1), the Authority is exempt from complying with any requirement imposed on a participant, an operator, a settlement institution or a collateral holder of a designated system by section 15A, 15B, 16, 19A or 20A, when the Authority acts in the capacity of a participant, an operator, a settlement institution or a collateral holder of a designated system.”.

New section 15A

15. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 15, the following section:

“Provision of information to Authority

15A.—(1) If the Authority is of the opinion that it requires any information or statement for the proper discharge of its functions under this Act, the Authority may by notice in writing, require any of the following persons (each called in this section a relevant person) to furnish to the Authority that information or statement within such time and in such manner as the Authority may specify:

- (a) any participant;
- (b) any operator of a designated system, or any person acting on behalf of that operator;
- (c) any settlement institution of a designated system.

(2) Any relevant person to whom the Authority issues a notice under subsection (1) must comply with the notice.

(3) Any relevant person who without reasonable excuse contravenes subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $150,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $15,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

(4) Any relevant person who in purported compliance with a notice under subsection (1) furnishes to the Authority any information or statement that is false or misleading in a material particular, and that the relevant person knows is false or misleading in a material particular, or is reckless as to whether it is so, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $150,000.

(5) Where a relevant person is guilty of an offence under subsection (3) or (4), any individual who is charged with the duty of securing the relevant person’s compliance with the applicable subsection, and is in a position to discharge that duty, shall also be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

- (a) if the individual committed the offence wilfully, to a fine not exceeding $125,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both; or
- (b) if the individual did not commit the offence wilfully, to a fine not exceeding $125,000.

(6) Any relevant person who fails to take reasonable care to ensure the accuracy of any information or statement furnished to the Authority in purported compliance with a notice under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $15,000.”.

New section 15B

16. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately before section 16, the following section:

“Obligation to notify Authority of certain events

15B.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), a person (being a participant, an operator, a settlement institution or a collateral holder of a designated system) must notify the Authority of the occurrence of any event mentioned in the following paragraphs, as soon as practicable after the occurrence of that event:

- (a) the person becomes, or is likely to become, insolvent or unable to meet the person’s obligations (whether financial, statutory, contractual or otherwise);
- (b) any other event in relation to the person, being an event that is prescribed by regulations made under section 20 or specified in written directions issued under section 20A.

(2) The person need not notify the Authority under subsection (1) of the occurrence of an event mentioned in subsection (1)(a), if the person has already notified the Authority, under any other written law administered by the Authority, of the occurrence of that event.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $200,000.”.

- (b) by deleting the words “shall be paid to the Authority” in subsection (4) and substituting the words “must be paid into the Consolidated Fund”.

New sections 17A and 17B

18. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 17, the following sections:

“Offences by corporations

17A.—(1) Where, in a proceeding for an offence under this Act, it is necessary to prove the state of mind of a corporation in relation to a particular conduct, evidence that —

- (a) an officer, employee or agent of the corporation engaged in that conduct within the scope of his actual or apparent authority; and

(b) the officer, employee or agent had that state of mind, is evidence that the corporation had that state of mind.

(2) Where a corporation commits an offence under this Act, a person —

- (a) who is —

- (i) an officer of the corporation; or

- (ii) an individual involved in the management of the corporation and in a position to influence the conduct of the corporation in relation to the commission of the offence; and

(b) who —

- (i) consented or connived, or conspired with others, to effect the commission of the offence;
- (ii) is in any other way, whether by act or omission, knowingly concerned in, or is party to, the commission of the offence by the corporation; or
- (iii) knew or ought reasonably to have known that the offence by the corporation (or an offence of the same type) would be or is being committed, and failed to take all reasonable steps to prevent or stop the commission of that offence, shall be guilty of the same offence as is the corporation, and shall be liable on conviction to be punished accordingly.

(3) A person mentioned in subsection (2) may rely on a defence that would be available to the corporation if it were charged with the offence with which the person is charged and, in doing so, the person bears the same burden of proof that the corporation would bear.

(4) To avoid doubt, this section does not affect the application of —

- (a) Chapters V and VA of the Penal Code (Cap. 224); or
- (b) the Evidence Act (Cap. 97) or any other law or practice regarding the admissibility of evidence.

(5) To avoid doubt, subsection (2) also does not affect the liability of the corporation for an offence under this Act, and applies whether or not the corporation is convicted of the offence.

(6) In this section —

“corporation” includes a limited liability partnership within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Limited Liability Partnerships Act (Cap. 163A);

“officer”, in relation to a corporation, means any director, partner, chief executive, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the corporation, and includes —

(a) any person purporting to act in any such capacity; and

(b) for a corporation whose affairs are managed by its members, any of those members as if the member were a director of the corporation;

“state of mind” of a person includes —

(a) the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person; and

(b) the person’s reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.

Offences by unincorporated associations or partnerships

17B.—(1) Where, in a proceeding for an offence under this Act, it is necessary to prove the state of mind of an unincorporated association or a partnership in relation to a particular conduct, evidence that —

(a) an employee or agent of the unincorporated association or the partnership engaged in that conduct within the scope of his actual or apparent authority; and

(b) the employee or agent had that state of mind, is evidence that the unincorporated association or partnership had that state of mind.

(2) Where an unincorporated association or a partnership commits an offence under this Act, a person —

- (a) who is —
- (i) an officer of the unincorporated association or a member of its governing body;
 - (ii) a partner in the partnership; or
 - (iii) an individual involved in the management of the unincorporated association or partnership and in a position to influence the conduct of the unincorporated association or partnership in relation to the commission of the offence; and
- (b) who —
- (i) consented or connived, or conspired with others, to effect the commission of the offence;
 - (ii) is in any other way, whether by act or omission, knowingly concerned in, or is party to, the commission of the offence by the unincorporated association or partnership; or
 - (iii) knew or ought reasonably to have known that the offence by the unincorporated association or partnership (or an offence of the same type) would be or is being committed, and failed to take all reasonable steps to prevent or stop the commission of that offence, shall be guilty of the same offence as is the unincorporated association or partnership, and shall be liable on conviction to be punished accordingly.

(3) A person mentioned in subsection (2) may rely on a defence that would be available to the unincorporated association or partnership if it were charged with the offence with which the person is charged and, in doing so, the person bears the same burden of proof that the unincorporated association or partnership would bear.

(4) To avoid doubt, this section does not affect the application of —

- (a) Chapters V and VA of the Penal Code (Cap. 224); or

(b) the Evidence Act (Cap. 97) or any other law or practice regarding the admissibility of evidence.

(5) To avoid doubt, subsection (2) also does not affect the liability of an unincorporated association or a partnership for an offence under this Act, and applies whether or not the unincorporated association or partnership is convicted of the offence.

(6) In this section —

“officer”, in relation to an unincorporated association (other than a partnership), means the president, the secretary, or any member of the committee of the unincorporated association, and includes —

(a) any person holding a position analogous to that of president, secretary or member of a committee of the unincorporated association; and

(b) any person purporting to act in any such capacity;

“partner” includes a person purporting to act as a partner;

“state of mind” of a person includes —

(a) the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person; and

(b) the person’s reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.”.

New section 17C

19. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately before section 18, the following section:

“Protection from liability

17C.—(1) No liability shall be incurred by a relevant person for anything done (including any statement made) or omitted to be done with reasonable care and in good faith in the execution or purported execution of any function, duty or power of that relevant person under this Act or under the Rules of a designated system.

(2) In this section —

“officer”, in relation to an operator, a settlement institution or a collateral holder of a designated system, means any director, partner, chief executive, manager, secretary or other similar officer of that operator, settlement institution or collateral holder;

“relevant person” means —

- (a) an operator, a settlement institution or a collateral holder of a designated system; or
- (b) any officer or employee of an operator, a settlement institution or a collateral holder of a designated system.”.

New section 19

20. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 18, the following section:

“Appointment of assistants

19.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Authority may appoint any of its officers to exercise any of its powers or perform any of its functions or duties under this Act, either generally or in any particular case, except —

- (a) the power of appointment conferred by this subsection; and
- (b) the power to make subsidiary legislation.

(2) The Authority may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint one or more of its officers to exercise —

- (a) the power under section 20B(2) to grant an exemption to a particular person; or
- (b) the power under section 20B(3) to revoke an exemption granted under section 20B(2), or to add to, vary or revoke any condition of such an exemption.

(3) Any officer appointed by the Authority under subsection (1) or (2) is deemed to be a public servant for the purposes of the Penal Code (Cap. 224).”.

New section 19A

21. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately before section 20, the following section:

“Power of Authority to approve Rules of designated system

19A.—(1) An operator, a settlement institution or a collateral holder of a designated system must, before implementing or amending any Rules of the designated system, obtain the written approval of the Authority to do so.

(2) An application for approval under subsection (1) —

(a) must be made in such form and manner as the Authority may specify in a written direction issued under section 20A(1); and

(b) must be accompanied by a written legal opinion that —

(i) is given by a legal practitioner who is any of the following individuals, and whom the Authority is satisfied is qualified to give that opinion:

(A) an advocate and solicitor;

(B) a foreign lawyer as defined in section 2(1) of the Legal Profession Act (Cap. 161);

(C) a legal counsel as defined in section 3(7)(a) of the Evidence Act (Cap. 97); and

(ii) certifies that the proposed implementation or amendment of the Rules of the designated system will satisfy the criteria mentioned in subsection (3)(a).

(3) The Authority may, when determining whether to grant its written approval under subsection (1), have regard to —

(a) such criteria as may be prescribed in regulations made under section 20 or specified in written directions issued under section 20A; and

(b) any other matter that the Authority considers relevant.

(4) The Authority must not refuse any application for approval under subsection (1) without giving the applicant an opportunity to be heard.

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $200,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $20,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

(6) Where any Rules of a designated system are implemented before the date of commencement of section 21 of the Payment and Settlement Systems (Finality and Netting) (Amendment) Act 2018 by any operator, settlement institution or collateral holder of the designated system, those Rules are deemed by this subsection to be implemented with the written approval of the Authority under subsection (1).”.

Amendment of section 20

22. Section 20 of the principal Act is amended by deleting subsection (2) and substituting the following subsections:

“(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Authority may make regulations for the purpose of ensuring the integrity of, and the fair and orderly conduct of, designated systems.

(3) Regulations made under this section may provide —

(a) that a contravention of any provision of those regulations shall be an offence; and

(b) for a penalty not exceeding a fine of $150,000 for each offence.”.

New section 20A

23. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 20, the following section:

“Power to issue written directions

20A.—(1) The Authority may, for any of the following reasons, issue written directions, either of a general nature or of a specific nature, to any person or class of persons specified in subsection (2):

- (a) the Authority thinks it is necessary or expedient for ensuring the integrity and proper management of a designated system;
- (b) the Authority thinks it is necessary or expedient for the effective administration of this Act;
- (c) the Authority thinks it is otherwise in the interests of the public or a section of the public.

(2) If the Authority issues any written direction under subsection (1) to any of the following persons or classes of persons, that person or class of persons must comply with that direction:

- (a) any participant or class of participants of a designated system;
- (b) any operator or class of operators of a designated system;
- (c) any settlement institution or class of settlement institutions of a designated system;
- (d) any collateral holder or class of collateral holders of a designated system.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), a written direction issued under that subsection may relate to any of the following matters:

- (a) the appropriate actions to be taken by any person specified in subsection (2), or by any person belonging to a class of persons specified in subsection (2), in relation to that person's business;

(b) the Rules of a designated system;

(c) the conditions that will apply if any function of an operator or a settlement institution of a designated system is outsourced.

(4) A written direction issued under subsection (1) need not be published in the Gazette.

(5) The Authority may at any time vary or revoke any written direction issued under subsection (1).

(6) Any person who fails to comply with a written direction issued under subsection (1) to that person, or to a class of persons to whom that person belongs, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $150,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $15,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.”.

New section 20B

24. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately before section 21, the following section:

“Exemption

20B.—(1) The Authority may, by regulations made under section 20, exempt any person or class of persons from all or any of the provisions of this Act, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in those regulations.

(2) The Authority may, on the application of any person, and if the Authority considers it appropriate to do so in the circumstances of the case, by notice in writing exempt that person, subject to such conditions as the Authority may specify by notice in writing, from —

(a) all or any of the provisions of this Act; and

- (b) any requirement that —
- (i) is imposed by the Authority under this Act; or
 - (ii) is specified in any written direction issued under section 20A(1).
- (3) The Authority may at any time, by notice in writing —
- (a) revoke any exemption granted under subsection (2); or
 - (b) add to, vary or revoke any condition of such an exemption imposed under subsection (2) or this paragraph.
- (4) An exemption granted under subsection (2), and every other notice in writing under this section, need not be published in the Gazette.”.

Repeal of sections 22 and 23

25. Sections 22 and 23 of the principal Act are repealed.

Saving and transitional provisions

26.—(1) Where, immediately before the date of commencement of section 3, any system is designated, by an order under section 3(1) of the principal Act as in force immediately before that date, to be a designated system for the purposes of the principal Act, that system continues, on and after that date, to be a designated system for the purposes of the principal Act, until that order is revoked.

(2) For a period of 2 years after the date of commencement of any provision of this Act, the Minister may, by regulations, prescribe such additional provisions of a saving or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of that provision as the Minister may consider necessary or expedient.
