New sections 2A to 2F

4. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 2, the following sections:

“Meaning of “food”

2A.—(1) In this Act, “food” includes the following:

- (a) any substance or thing of a kind used, capable of being used, or represented as being for use, for human consumption (whether it is live, raw, prepared or partly prepared);
- (b) any substance or thing of a kind used, capable of being used, or represented as being for use, as an ingredient or additive in a substance or thing mentioned in paragraph (a);
- (c) any substance used in preparing a substance or thing mentioned in paragraph (a) (other than a substance used in preparing a living thing);
- (d) chewing gum or an ingredient or additive in chewing gum, or any substance used in preparing chewing gum;

- (e) any substance or thing declared by the Minister by order in the Gazette to be food.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), “food” includes —
- (a) unprocessed and raw fruits and vegetables that are intended for human consumption;
 - (b) seeds, plants, or plant material intended for human consumption, including seeds that are intended to be sprouted and consumed as sprouts, but not other seeds, plants, or plant material intended for planting;
 - (c) drinking water;
 - (d) any thing that is or is intended to be mixed with or added to any food or drink;
 - (e) milk and dairy products;
 - (f) meat and meat products;
 - (g) fish and fish products; and
 - (h) eggs.
- (3) However, food does not include —
- (a) any health product within the meaning of the Health Products Act (Cap. 122D);
 - (b) any substance that is a medicinal product within the meaning of the Medicines Act (Cap. 176);
 - (c) any controlled drug, controlled material or controlled substance within the meaning of the Misuse of Drugs Act (Cap. 185);
 - (d) any poison within the meaning of the Poisons Act (Cap. 234);
 - (e) any cosmetics;
 - (f) any tobacco product or tobacco substitute within the meaning of the Tobacco (Control of Advertisements and Sale) Act (Cap. 309);
 - (g) any package (except edible packaging);

- (h) any fodder or feeding stuffs for animals; or
 - (i) any substance or thing declared by the Minister by order in the Gazette not to be food for the purposes of this Act.

(4) A substance, thing or chewing gum described in subsection (1) is food regardless of whether or not it is in a condition fit for human consumption.

(5) To avoid doubt, “food” may include live animals and plants.

Meaning of “food business”

2B.—(1) In this Act, “food business” means a business or an undertaking or activity that involves, in whole or part —

- (a) the handling of food intended for sale;
- (b) the sale of food (on the Internet or otherwise); or
- (c) primary food production, regardless of whether the business, undertaking or activity concerned is of a commercial, charitable or community nature, or whether it involves the handling or sale of food on one occasion only, and whether part of a non-retail food business or a retail food business.

(2) However, a food business does not include a business or an undertaking or activity —

- (a) that is part of a business other than trading in food and, in the course of which doing so, acts as an intermediary between persons who trade in food by providing, for reward, a place (including mobile premises) or services (such as an Internet service provider or an auction site on the Internet);
- (b) that consists exclusively of letting for hire marquees, tables, chairs and other similar furniture; or
- (c) that is declared by the Minister by order in the Gazette not to be a food business for the purposes of this Act.

Meaning of unsafe food

2C.—(1) For the purposes of this Act, food is unsafe at a particular time if it would be likely to cause illness or injury or other physical harm to a person who might later consume it, assuming —

- (a) it was, after that particular time and before being consumed by the person, properly subjected to all processes (if any) that are relevant to its reasonable intended use;
- (b) nothing happened to it after that particular time and before being consumed by the person that would prevent it being used for its reasonable intended use; and
- (c) it was consumed by the person according to its reasonable intended use.

(2) However, food is not unsafe for the purposes of this Act merely because —

- (a) any individual objects to it because of personal preference;
- (b) any part of the community objects to it on moral, ethical, cultural, spiritual, or religious grounds;
- (c) its consumption in inappropriate quantities may damage an individual's health; or
- (d) its presence or consumption is unhealthy for any individual who has an allergy or other personal health condition.

(3) In subsection (1)(a), a reference to processes includes a reference to processes involving storage and preparation.

Meaning of unsuitable food

2D.—(1) For the purposes of this Act, food is unsuitable if it is food that —

- (a) is damaged, deteriorated or perished to an extent that affects its reasonable intended use;
 - (b) contains, or has attached to it or enclosed with it, any damaged, deteriorated, perished or contaminated substance or thing to an extent that affects its reasonable intended use;
 - (c) is the product of a diseased animal, or an animal that has died otherwise than by slaughter, and has not been declared by or under another Act to be safe for human consumption;
 - (d) contains a biological or chemical agent, or other matter or substance, that is foreign to the nature of the food and the presence of which would be unexpected and unreasonable in food prepared or packed for sale in accordance with good trade practice; or
 - (e) has packaging that is damaged, deteriorated, perished or contaminated to the extent of affecting the food's reasonable intended use.

(2) However, food is not unsuitable for the purposes of this Act merely because —

- (a) at any particular time before it is sold for human consumption it contains an agricultural or veterinary chemical;
- (b) when it is sold for human consumption it contains an agricultural or veterinary chemical or other contaminant, so long as it does not contain the chemical or contaminant in an amount that contravenes any food regulations;
- (c) any individual objects to it because of personal preference;
- (d) any part of the community objects to it on moral, ethical, cultural, spiritual, or religious grounds;
- (e) its consumption in inappropriate quantities may damage an individual's health; or

- (f) its presence or consumption is unhealthy for any individual who has an allergy or other personal health condition.

(3) In this section, a reference to slaughter of an animal includes a reference to the killing of an animal in the process of capturing, taking or harvesting it for the purposes of preparing it for use as food.

Meaning of “sell”

2E.—(1) In this Act, “sell” includes carrying on any of the following activities, or a combination of those activities, in relation to food for human consumption or to a food contact article:

- (a) bartering;
- (b) offering for sale or attempting to sell;
- (c) receiving, or having in possession, for sale;
- (d) displaying for sale;
- (e) causing or permitting to be sold or offered or displayed for sale;
- (f) sending, forwarding or delivering for sale;
- (g) disposing of by any method for valuable consideration;
- (h) disposing of to an agent for sale on consignment;
- (i) supplying as a meal or part of a meal to an employee or other individual in accordance with an employment agreement or an agreement for services under a contract of service for consumption by the employee or individual at the employee’s or individual’s place of work;
- (j) disposing of by way of raffle, lottery or other game of chance;
- (k) offering as a prize or reward;

- (l) offering or giving away for the purpose of advertisement or in furtherance of any trade or business;
 - (m) supplying under a contract (whether or not the contract is made with the consumer of the food), together with any accommodation, service or entertainment, in consideration of an inclusive charge for the food supplied and the accommodation, service or entertainment;
 - (n) supplying food (whether or not for consideration) in the course of providing services —
 - (i) to patients in hospitals, hospices and other residential care facilities like nursing homes;
 - (ii) to children or other individuals in the care or custody of the supplier by virtue of any Act; or
 - (iii) to prisoners or inmates in prisons or other places for the detention of individuals under any Act;
 - (o) supplying anything of which any food forms a part;
 - (p) selling for the purpose of resale for handling or human consumption.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), in this Act, “sell”, in relation to food, does not include —
- (a) exchanging food for food or other goods or services as part of a personal relationship between individuals that is not commercial in nature; or
 - (b) supplying food together with accommodation to a person residing at a private residence in exchange for services or labour by the person.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act —
- (a) food that is displayed for the purpose of being offered as a prize or reward or given away for the purpose of advertisement or in furtherance of trade or business is taken to have been displayed for sale by the owner of the food;

- (b) food that is donated for a charitable or benevolent purpose is not to be taken to be food that was given away for the purpose of advertisement or in furtherance of trade or business;
- (c) food which is exposed or deposited in any premises for the purpose of being so offered as a prize or reward or given away is taken to have been exposed for sale by the occupier of the premises;
- (d) food that is sold for the purpose of being mixed with any other food is to be treated, unless the contrary is proved, as sale if the bulk or product produced by the mixing, or any part of the bulk or product, is intended to be sold; and
- (e) food that is sold, offered for sale, or displayed for sale is to be treated, unless the contrary is proved, as a sale, offer for sale or display for sale of the food for human consumption.

Meaning of “non-retail food business”

2F.—(1) In this Act, “non-retail food business” means a food business that is —

- (a) not carried out for a purpose specified in the First Schedule to the Environmental Public Health Act (Cap. 95); and
- (b) not a primary food production business, but includes a food business a component of which is a business, an undertaking or activity carried out for a purpose specified in the First Schedule to the Environmental Public Health Act.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a non-retail food business includes (but is not limited to) any of the following food businesses:

- (a) a factory, plant or other premises where meat products or fish products are processed for sale to wholesalers or retail food businesses, or for export;
 - (b) the preparing or packing of ready-to-eat salads for the purpose of sale to wholesalers or retail food businesses, or for export;
 - (c) the manufacturing, preparing or packing of chilled, frozen and shelf-stable meals, condiments or prepared foods for sale to wholesalers or retail food businesses, or for export;
 - (d) the manufacturing, preparing (including by cutting, mincing, boning, drying, smoking or fermentation after slaughter or harvesting) or packing of meat, poultry or fish products for the purpose of sale to wholesalers or retail food businesses, or for export;
 - (e) the manufacturing of bottled drinking water or non-alcoholic beverages, for the purpose of sale to wholesalers or retail food businesses, or for export;
 - (f) brewers and distillers of vinegar, soya sauce or fish sauce for the purpose of sale to wholesalers or retail food businesses, or for export;
 - (g) wholesale bakeries supplying food prepared to wholesalers or retail food businesses;
 - (h) the processing or packing of herbs or spices for the purpose of sale to wholesalers or retail food businesses, or for export;
 - (i) manufacturing or preparing (including by blending and packing) dry mix products such as cake mix, drinking chocolate, tea bags and powdered soup for sale to wholesalers or retail food businesses, or for export;
 - (j) a wholesale market where any animal, meat product, fish or fish product is sold wholesale or through auction;

- (k) central kitchens supplying food prepared, cooked and packed for the purpose of distribution to retail food businesses;
 - (l) an operator of a warehouse or cold storage facility for the storage of food intended for sale, whether by wholesalers or retail food businesses.
- (3) In subsection (2)(c), “shelf-stable”, in relation to food, means that —
- (a) the food can be stored at room or ambient temperature before its packaging is opened; and
 - (b) the food may or may not require refrigeration after its packaging is opened.”.

Amendment of section 4

5. Section 4 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by deleting the word “appliance” in subsections (1)(a), (b), (d), (e) and (f) and (4) and substituting in each case the words “food contact article”;
- (b) by deleting the words “contrary to this Act” in subsection (1)(d) and (e) and substituting in each case the words “contrary or not in compliance with an applicable requirement of this Act with respect to food or food contact articles”;
- (c) by deleting the word “making” in subsection (1)(f) and substituting the word “manufacturing”; and
- (d) by deleting the words “in Form 1 in the First Schedule” in subsection (4) and substituting the words “in the form prescribed or designed under section 53”.

Amendment of section 5

6. Section 5 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by deleting the words “For the purpose of discharging his functions and duties under this Act, an” in subsection (1) and substituting the words “Subject to subsection (6), an”;

and

(b) by inserting, immediately after subsection (5), the following subsection:

“(6) The powers conferred under subsection (1) may only be exercised by an authorised officer —

- (a) to determine whether an applicable requirement of this Act with respect to food, food contact articles or food businesses has been, or is being, complied with;
- (b) to ensure that an applicable requirement of this Act with respect to food, food contact articles and food businesses has been, or is being, or will be, complied with;
- (c) to investigate anything that may have, or might potentially have, contaminated food or a food contact article;
- (d) to determine whether food or a food contact article is safe or suitable;
- (e) to determine whether food or a food contact article poses a risk to human life or public health; or
- (f) to investigate any offence under this Act or any contravention of or non-compliance with an applicable requirement of this Act.”.

Amendment of section 10

7. Section 10(1) of the principal Act is amended by deleting the words “in Form 2 in the First Schedule” and substituting the words “in the form prescribed or designed under section 53”.

New Part IIA

8. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 10, the following Part:

“PART IIAFOOD SAFETY MEASURESDivision 1 — General provisionsPersons to whom directions may be given

10A. The Authority may give a direction under this Part to all or any of the following, individually or as a class:

- (a) a licensee;
- (b) a proprietor of a food business or food premises, if not a licensee;
- (c) an importer of any food or food contact article;
- (d) an exporter of any food or food contact article;
- (e) a manufacturer of any food contact article;
- (f) a person carrying on a business of selling or supplying (by wholesale or retail) any food contact article;
- (g) a person in control of, or reasonably appearing to be in control of, food or any thing that may become food.

Content and effect of directions

10B.—(1) A direction under this Part is binding on —

- (a) the person to whom it is addressed; and
- (b) if applicable, the personal representatives, successors and assignees of the person to whom it is addressed to the same extent as it applies to that person.

(2) A direction under this Part must be in writing, or be confirmed in writing as soon as practicable after being given orally.

(3) In making a direction under this Part, it is not necessary for the Authority to give any person who may be affected by the direction a chance to be heard before the direction is given.

(4) A direction under this Part must state —

(a) whether the person to whom it is given must —

(i) advise the Authority of the details of the manner in which the person proposes to comply with the direction;

(ii) keep information about the matters that are the subject of the direction;

(iii) regularly notify the Authority about the steps being taken towards compliance with the direction; or

(iv) give written notice to the Authority when the person has complied with the direction;

(b) that it is an offence under this Act to fail to comply with the direction;

(c) that if the person to whom the direction is given fails to comply with it, the Authority may carry out the direction; and

(d) that if the Authority carries out the direction, the Authority may recover the costs reasonably incurred in carrying out the direction from the person to whom the direction was given.

(5) A direction under this Part continues in force until the earlier of the following occurs:

(a) the expiry date (if any) stated in the direction is reached;

(b) the Authority revokes the direction.

(6) A direction under this Part may —

(a) be amended or revoked at any time; and

(b) be extended or renewed, if the Authority is satisfied that the circumstances warrant it.

(7) If a person to whom the direction is given fails or refuses to comply with it, the Authority may carry out the direction, and recover the costs and expenses reasonably incurred in carrying out the direction as a debt due from the person to whom the direction was given.

(8) If satisfied that a direction under this Part has been complied with, the Authority must —

(a) revoke the direction; and

(b) give written notice of the revocation in the same manner in which the direction was given or served.

(9) Subsection (5) does not prevent a further direction being made in the same terms as a direction that has expired.

Service of directions under this Part

10C.—(1) A direction under this Part that is addressed to a person is sufficiently served if it is —

(a) delivered personally to the person by an authorised officer;

(b) served in the manner prescribed in section 44; or

(c) if the name and address of the proprietor of any food premises is unknown, affixed to the food premises.

(2) A direction under this Part that is addressed to a class of persons is sufficiently served if it is —

(a) served on each of the persons in the class in accordance with subsection (1); or

(b) published both —

(i) in a daily newspaper circulating in Singapore or in any other news media that, in the opinion of the Authority, will be most likely to bring the direction to the attention of the persons who belong to the class; and

(ii) on the Authority's official website.

(3) A direction under this Part that is addressed to a statutory authority is sufficiently served if it is served on the chief executive (however described) of the statutory authority in accordance with subsection (1).

(4) A direction under this Part that is served —

- (a) in accordance with subsection (1) takes effect when it is served;
- (b) in accordance with subsection (2)(a) takes effect when it is served on all the persons in the class in question; and
- (c) in accordance with subsection (2)(b) takes effect at the beginning of the day after the date on which subsection (2)(b) has been complied with.

Division 2 — Directions

General corrective action direction

10D.—(1) The Authority may give a direction to any of the persons described in section 10A about the taking of preventative or corrective action in respect of food or a food contact article that the Authority reasonably believes is necessary (whether or not from the report of an authorised analyst or authorised officer) to ensure compliance with an applicable requirement of this Act with respect to food or food contact articles.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), “corrective action”, in the case of a direction given to a food business, includes requiring the proprietor of the food business to do any one or more of the following:

- (a) take specified steps to ensure that food raised, cultivated, harvested, caught, prepared, sold or otherwise handled at the premises at which the food business is carried out is safe and suitable;
- (b) take specified steps to ensure that those premises, or any vehicle, plant, food contact article, machinery or equipment used on those premises in connection with any food raised, cultivated, harvested, caught, prepared, sold or otherwise handled at those premises is cleaned and disinfected or put into an altered condition to the satisfaction of an authorised officer;

- (c) ensure that any applicable requirement of this Act with respect to food or food contact articles is complied with;
- (d) until the corrective action in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) is complied with, ensure that —
 - (i) the premises at which the food business is carried out, or a specified area of the premises, is not used for the raising, cultivation, harvesting, catching, preparation, sale or other handling of food or an activity connected with food specified in the direction;
 - (ii) any vehicle, plant, food contact article, machinery or equipment on those premises is not used in connection with the raising, cultivation, harvesting, catching, preparation, sale or other handling of food or an activity connected with food specified in the direction; or
 - (iii) any food or class of food specified in the direction is not removed from those premises, for any purpose (including any purpose specified in the direction) or in any circumstances specified in the direction, for the period of time that is specified in the direction.

Direction to impose movement controls

10E.—(1) The Authority may give a direction in subsection (2) if it reasonably suspects (whether or not from the report of an authorised analyst or authorised officer) —

- (a) that food or any thing that may become food, or a food contact article, does not comply with an applicable requirement of this Act; or
 - (b) the existence of a hazard or a source of contamination that may affect food or any thing that may become food.

(2) The direction may impose movement or related controls to determine, minimise, manage, or control the risk to human life or public health created by the suspected non-compliance or suspected existence of the hazard or the source of contamination.

(3) A direction under this section must specify the suspected non-compliance, hazard or source of contamination, including by reference to —

- (a) a thing described in subsection (4);
- (b) a place (where, for example, there may be contamination from the land or the environment); or
- (c) a particular person or food business or a specified class of food business (where, for example, the contamination may have been caused by a human act or omission).

(4) The controls may be imposed on all or any of the following:

- (a) activities;
- (b) areas or premises;
- (c) food contact articles;
- (d) vehicles;
- (e) food;
- (f) any thing that may become food;
- (g) food businesses;
- (h) anything else that the Authority suspects relates to the suspected non-compliance or the suspected hazard or the source of suspected contamination.

(5) The controls on those things described in subsection (4) may do all or any of the following in relation to a food contact article, or food or any thing that may become food:

- (a) restrict its movement, sale, production, manufacturing or handling;
- (b) apply conditions to its movement, sale, production, manufacturing or handling;
- (c) prohibit its movement, sale, production, manufacturing or handling;
- (d) require the taking of specific actions such as sampling and testing to determine the risk (if any) to human life or public health;
- (e) require the taking of specific actions to minimise, manage, or control the risk to human life or public health;
- (f) do anything else that is necessary to achieve the purpose described in subsection (2).

(6) A direction under this section may —

- (a) direct the keeping of information about the matters that are the subject of the direction;
- (b) direct the provision of reports about matters that are the subject of the direction; or
- (c) direct the person to whom the direction is given to notify the Authority when —
 - (i) the non-compliance, hazard, or source of contamination has been identified;
 - (ii) the non-compliance, hazard, or source of contamination has been minimised or removed; or
 - (iii) no non-compliance, hazard, or source of contamination has been identified.

(7) In this section, “hazard” means a biological, chemical or physical agent that —

- (a) is in food or has the potential to be in food, or is a condition of food, or has the potential to affect the condition of food; and
- (b) causes or could cause an adverse or injurious effect on human life or public health.

Direction to recall food or food contact article

10F.—(1) The Authority may give any direction in subsection (2) to persons described in section 10A —

- (a) for the purpose of examining, rectifying, controlling, or disposing of food or a food contact article, after taking into account any relevant information or warnings about food or a food contact article that the Authority has received from authorised officers, or an international organisation or authority; or
- (b) if the Authority has reasonable grounds to believe that the direction is necessary —
 - (i) to prevent or reduce the possibility of a serious danger to public health; or
 - (ii) to mitigate the adverse consequences of a serious danger to public health.

(2) The directions are —

- (a) to recall food or a food contact article that is not safe or suitable or the safety or suitability of which is in doubt;
- (b) to recall a food contact article that has, or for which there is doubt about whether it has, contaminated food or caused food to be no longer safe or suitable;
- (c) to recall a food contact article if there is doubt about whether it may contaminate food;

- (d) to recall food or a food contact article that is mislabelled or incorrectly identified;
- (e) to take food or a food contact article recalled under any of paragraphs (a) to (d) to —
 - (i) a place specified in the directions; or
 - (ii) a place agreed to between the Authority and the person to whom the directions are given; or
- (f) any directions that may be given under section 10G, as appropriate.

(3) A direction to recall food or a food contact article may specify the manner in which, and must specify the period within which, the recall is to be conducted and completed.

(4) A person who is required by a direction to recall food or a food contact article must give written notice to the Authority of the completion of the recall as soon as practicable after that completion.

(5) If a person to whom the direction is given under this section fails or refuses to comply with it, the Authority may —

- (a) take any reasonable steps necessary to ensure control of the food or food contact article (including entry by authorised officers to a place under a warrant); and
- (b) recover the costs and expenses reasonably incurred in assuming control of the food or food contact article as a debt due from the person to whom the direction was given.

(6) This section does not prevent the Authority exercising its power under section 10I.

Direction to manage food or food contact article

10G.—(1) The Authority may give any direction in subsection (2) to persons described in section 10A if the Authority —

- (a) reasonably believes that food or a food contact article that is already the subject of a direction under section 10E is not safe or suitable and further controls are required; or
 - (b) recalls food or a food contact article under section 10F.
- (2) The direction may be about doing or not doing any of the following to the food or food contact article:
- (a) condemning or destroying it;
 - (b) disposing of or re-exporting it;
 - (c) identifying it;
 - (d) handling, or re-processing it;
 - (e) labelling or relabelling it;
 - (f) storing it;
 - (g) transporting it;
 - (h) sampling or testing it;
 - (i) advertising or selling it.

Direction to publish statement

10H.—(1) The Authority may give to persons described in section 10A a direction about publishing a statement to the public, or to a class of persons specified in the direction, for the purpose of protecting the public or class of persons, as the case may be.

(2) The Authority may specify that the statement must include all or any of the following:

- (a) the nature of the problem, including (where applicable) —
 - (i) the particular food or type of food or food contact article to be recalled or disposed of;
 - (ii) the reasons why the food or food contact article is considered to be unsafe or unsuitable; and

- (iii) the circumstances in which the consumption of the food is unsafe;
 - (b) the remedy that the person will provide;
 - (c) the way in which the person will prevent the problem arising in future.
- (3) The Authority may specify the actual words to be used in the statement or any part of it.
- (4) The Authority may specify all or any of the following:
 - (a) who must publish the statement;
 - (b) where the statement must be published;
 - (c) the date on which the statement must be published.
- (5) Statements published under this section are protected by absolute privilege.

Division 3 — Supplementary provisions

Compensation

10I.—(1) A person bound by a direction under this Part who suffers loss as a result of the making of the direction may apply to the Authority for compensation if the person considers that there were insufficient grounds for the making of the direction.

(2) If there were insufficient grounds for the making of the direction, the Authority is to pay just and reasonable compensation to the applicant.

(3) The Authority must send written notification of the Authority's determination as to the payment of compensation under this section to each applicant for the payment of compensation.

(4) If the Authority has not determined an application for compensation under this section within 28 days after receiving the application, the Authority is taken to have refused to pay any compensation.

(5) An applicant for the payment of compensation under this section who is dissatisfied with a determination by the Authority as to the refusal to pay compensation or as to the amount of compensation may apply to the District Court for a review of the determination —

(a) within 14 days after the day on which notification of the determination was received; or

(b) in a case to which subsection (4) applies, within 14 days after the 28-day period mentioned in that subsection ends.

(6) If the amount of compensation sought exceeds the jurisdictional limit of the District Court, the application under subsection (5) is to be made to the High Court.

(7) No application for the payment of compensation may be made under this section after the 14-day period mentioned in subsection (5)(a) or (b) ends.

Appeal to Minister

10J.—(1) A person mentioned in section 10A to whom a direction under this Part is given and who is aggrieved by the direction may appeal to the Minister.

(2) An appeal under this section must be in writing and specify the grounds on which it is made, and be made within a prescribed period after the date of receipt of the decision that is appealed against.

(3) The Minister's decision on appeal is final.

(4) The Minister may designate to hear and determine, in his place, any appeals or a specific appeal under this section —

(a) any Senior Minister of State or Minister of State, for his Ministry; or

(b) any Senior Parliamentary Secretary or Parliamentary Secretary, for his Ministry, and any reference in this section to the Minister includes a reference to the Senior Minister of State or Minister of State, or Senior Parliamentary Secretary or Parliamentary Secretary so designated for that appeal.

Non-compliance with food safety measures

10K.—(1) A person to whom a direction under this Part is addressed must not, without reasonable excuse —

- (a) carry on an activity in contravention of the direction;
- (b) neglect or refuse to comply with any such direction; or
- (c) fail to comply with a condition specified in such a direction.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

(3) A person must not remove the copy of any direction affixed to any food premises under section 10C(1)(c) while that direction remains in force.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

Interface with other written laws

10L. To avoid doubt, nothing in this Part derogates from any requirement imposed by or under —

- (a) the Animals and Birds Act (Cap. 7);
- (b) the Cattle Act (Cap. 34);
- (c) the Control of Plants Act (Cap. 57A);
- (d) the Control of Vectors and Pesticides Act (Cap. 59);
- (e) the Environmental Public Health Act (Cap. 95);
- (f) the Feeding Stuffs Act (Cap. 105);
- (g) the Fisheries Act (Cap. 111);

- (h) the Health Products Act (Cap. 122D);
- (i) the Medicines Act (Cap. 176);
- (j) the Misuse of Drugs Act (Cap. 185);
- (k) the Poisons Act (Cap. 234); or
- (l) the Wholesome Meat and Fish Act (Cap. 349A).”.

Repeal and re-enactment of sections 15 and 16 and new section 16A

9. Sections 15 and 16 of the principal Act are repealed and the following sections substituted therefor:

“Selling unsafe or unsuitable food

15.—(1) A person must not sell food that the person knows or ought reasonably to know is unsafe.

(2) A person must not sell food that the person knows or ought reasonably to know is unsuitable.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), it is immaterial whether the food concerned is safe.

Offences concerning labelling

16.—(1) A person must not sell any food that is packaged or labelled in a manner that does not comply with all applicable requirements of this Act relating to identification and labelling of that food.

(2) In a prosecution for an offence under section 20 for contravening subsection (1), it is not necessary for the prosecution to prove that the defendant intended to commit the offence.

Offences involving non-compliant advertising

16A.—(1) This section applies to an advertisement relating to any food or prescribed food contact article that —

- (a) does not comply with all applicable requirements of this Act relating to advertisements promoting the food or that prescribed food contact article;
- (b) is false as to the age, composition, effects, nature, origin, purity, quality or strength of the food or the safety or suitability of the food or that prescribed food contact article;
- (c) is likely to deceive a buyer as to the age, composition, effects, nature, origin, purity, quality or strength of the food or the safety or suitability of the food or that prescribed food contact article;
- (d) is prohibited by an applicable requirement of this Act from being marked or attached to the kind of food or that prescribed food contact article, or packages containing that kind of food;
- (e) makes a statement prohibited by an applicable requirement of this Act to be made in an advertisement relating to the kind of food or that prescribed food contact article;
- (f) expressly or impliedly qualifies, or is contrary to, details required by an applicable requirement of this Act to be marked or attached to the kind of food, or packages containing that kind of food or that prescribed food contact article;
- (g) omits from the name or description of the food or the prescribed food contact article any word or words required by an applicable requirement of this Act to be included in the name or description marked on or attached to the kind of food or that prescribed food contact article, or packages containing that kind of food;
- (h) fails to make a statement required by an applicable requirement of this Act to be made in an advertisement relating to the kind of food or that prescribed food contact article; or

(i) fails to show, in an advertisement shown on a screen, a word or words required by paragraph (g) or (h) in clearly legible lettering for a sufficient length of time for an ordinary viewer to read them.

(2) A person who is —

(a) the person selling, promoting the sale, or appearing to promote the sale of any food or prescribed food contact article; or

(b) the agent or employee of the person selling, promoting the sale, or appearing to promote the sale of any food or prescribed food contact article, must not publish an advertisement described in subsection (1) relating to the food or that prescribed food contact article.

(3) In a prosecution for an offence under section 20 for contravening subsection (2), it is not necessary for the prosecution to prove that the defendant intended to commit the offence.

(4) In a prosecution for an offence under section 20 for contravening subsection (2) concerning an advertisement of a kind mentioned in subsection (1)(b), the advertisement is taken to be false as to the relevant matter in that subsection unless evidence is adduced by the defendant to the contrary.

(5) To avoid doubt, subsection (4) does not —

(a) have the effect that, merely because such evidence to the contrary is adduced, the advertisement is not false as to the relevant matter in subsection (1)(b); or

(b) have the effect of placing on any person the onus of proving that the advertisement is not false as to the relevant matter in subsection (1)(b).

(6) Without affecting section 32, in any proceedings for an offence under section 20 in relation to the publication of an advertisement in contravention of subsection (2), it is a defence to the charge for the defendant to prove, on a balance of probabilities —

(a) that —

- (i) the defendant was acting in the course of a business of delivering, transmitting or broadcasting communications (in whatever form or by whatever means) or making data available; and
- (ii) the nature of the business is such that persons undertaking it have no control over the nature or content of the communications or data; or

(b) that the defendant —

- (i) carried on the business of publishing or arranging for the publication of advertisements; and
- (ii) published or arranged for the publication of the advertisement in question in the ordinary course of that business.

(7) However, subsection (6) does not apply if the defendant concerned —

- (a) ought reasonably to have known that the publication of the advertisement was an offence under this Part;
- (b) had previously been informed in writing by or on behalf of the Authority that publication of such an advertisement would constitute an offence under this Part; or
- (c) is the proprietor of a food business or is otherwise engaged in the conduct of a food business for which the advertisements concerned were published.”.
