New Part VIIA

41. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 67, the following Part:

“PART VIIA

ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES

Interpretation of this Part

67A. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires —

“approved applicant” means a Medisave healthcare provider or an insurer which is approved —

- (a) under section 67B(2) to submit a withdrawal application on behalf of a member; or
- (b) before the date of commencement of section 41 of the Central Provident Fund (Amendment) Act 2016, to submit a withdrawal application on behalf of any member;

“Medisave healthcare provider” means a person or an institution that has provided or is providing any medical, psychiatric or other treatment or services prescribed under section 77(1)(j);

“withdrawal application” means an application, submitted on behalf of a member, to the Board —

- (a) by a Medisave healthcare provider for any sum standing to the member’s credit in the member’s medisave account to be withdrawn and paid to the Medisave healthcare provider in respect of medical, psychiatric or other treatment or services prescribed under section 77(1)(j); or
- (b) by an insurer for any sum standing to a member’s credit in the member’s medisave account to be withdrawn and paid to the insurer as a premium in respect of a medical insurance scheme or other insurance scheme referred to in section 77(1)(k).

Application to withdraw money from member’s medisave account by approved applicant

67B.—(1) A person may not, on behalf of a member, submit a withdrawal application to the Board for the withdrawal of any sum standing to the member’s credit in the member’s medisave account unless the person is approved under subsection (2).

(2) The Board may, with the concurrence of the Minister charged with the responsibility for health, approve a Medisave healthcare provider or an insurer to submit any withdrawal applications on such terms and conditions as the Board may require.

(3) The Board may, at any time, order the audit of an approved applicant in such manner as it may direct.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), the Board may, with the concurrence of the Minister charged with the responsibility for health, cancel the approval of an approved applicant, by the Board or on the approved applicant's application.

(5) Where the Board is considering the cancellation of the approval of an approved applicant, the Board may, before the approval is cancelled, suspend the submission of any or all withdrawal applications by the approved applicant.

(6) If the Board imposes a financial penalty on an approved applicant under section 67C, the Board must not cancel the approval of the approved applicant until after —

- (a) the disposal of any appeal against the imposition of the financial penalty and interest for late payment, if any, in accordance with regulations made under section 77(1)(rb); and
- (b) the approved applicant has paid the financial penalty and any interest for late payment that the approved applicant is liable to pay.

Financial penalties for approved applicants

67C.—(1) The Board may impose a financial penalty on an approved applicant for engaging in conduct that contravenes, on or after the date of commencement of section 41 of the Central Provident Fund (Amendment) Act 2016, any regulations made under section 77(1)(rb)(i) and is not an offence.

(2) A financial penalty must not exceed the maximum amount to be prescribed, which in no case may be more than $10,000.

(3) Any financial penalty imposed under subsection (1) and any interest for late payment prescribed under section 77(1)(rb) —

- (a) may be sued for and recovered by the Board under the Government Proceedings Act (Cap. 121) as if it were a debt due to the Government; and
- (b) must be paid into the Consolidated Fund upon collection or recovery by the Board.

(4) The members, officers and employees of the Board, in relation to their administration, assessment, collection and enforcement of payment of financial penalties imposed under subsection (1) —

- (a) are taken to be public officers for the purposes of the Financial Procedure Act (Cap. 109); and
- (b) section 20 of that Act applies to such members, officers and employees of the Board despite not being in the employment of the Government.

Repayment of moneys withdrawn from medisave account

67D.—(1) Where any sum standing to the credit of a member in the member's medisave account is withdrawn and paid by the Board to —

- (a) an approved applicant which is a Medisave healthcare provider in respect of medical, psychiatric or other treatment or services prescribed under section 77(1)(j); or
- (b) any person as reimbursement for payments made by that person for any medical, psychiatric or other treatment or services prescribed under section 77(1)(j), the approved applicant referred to in paragraph (a) or the person referred to in paragraph (b), as the case may be, (called in this section the recipient) must, if the withdrawal or payment of the amount paid to the recipient was not in compliance with regulations made under section 77(1)(j) —

- (i) repay to the Board the amount determined by the Board under subsection (3);

- (ii) reimburse the Board for all reasonable expenses incurred by the Board in addressing the non-compliance with those regulations; and
- (iii) indemnify the Board against any liability incurred by the Board in connection with addressing the non-compliance with those regulations.

(2) Where any sum standing to the credit of a member in the member's medisave account is withdrawn and paid by the Board to an insurer as a premium in respect of a medical insurance scheme or other insurance scheme referred to in section 77(1)(k), then, if the withdrawal or payment to the insurer was not in compliance with regulations made under that section, the insurer must —

- (a) repay to the Board the amount determined by the Board under subsection (3);
- (b) reimburse the Board for all reasonable expenses incurred by the Board in addressing the non-compliance with those regulations; and
- (c) indemnify the Board against any liability incurred by the Board in connection with addressing the non-compliance with those regulations.

(3) The amount to be repaid under subsection (1)(i) or (2)(a) is the whole or such part as the Board may determine of —

- (a) the amount that was paid to the recipient in subsection (1) or the insurer referred to in subsection (2), as the case may be; and
- (b) the interest which would have been payable on the amount referred to in paragraph (a) if it had not been withdrawn from the medisave account.

(4) Any sum not repaid under subsection (1)(i) or (2)(a) may be sued for and recovered by the Board under section 65.

(5) Any sum not paid to the Board under subsection (1)(ii) or (iii) or (2)(b) or (c) may be sued for and recovered by the Board as a debt due to the Board.

(6) The Board must credit to the member's medisave account the amount that is determined by the Board under subsection (3).

(7) This section applies —

- (a) whether the amount to be repaid under subsection (1)(i) or (2)(a) was withdrawn from the member's medisave account or paid to the recipient in subsection (1) or the insurer referred to in subsection (2) (as the case may be) before, on or after the date of commencement of section 41 of the Central Provident Fund (Amendment) Act 2016; and
- (b) even if the recipient in subsection (1) or the insurer referred to in subsection (2) (as the case may be) has no obligation to repay or reimburse the payment to the member or the Board in the circumstances of the case, or is excluded by contract from such obligation.”.

Amendment of section 74

42. Section 74 of the principal Act is amended —

(a) by deleting subsection (2) and substituting the following subsections:

“(1A) If a claim for a refund or payment of the whole or any part of the money paid in error in any of the circumstances specified in subsection (2) is not received by the Board within one year beginning on the date on which the money was paid in error, the amount claimed —

- (a) is not to be refunded or paid to the claimant but is deemed to have been properly paid under the provisions of this Act in respect of that person or as interest, as the case may be; and
- (b) cannot be set off under subsection (3) against any sum due to the Fund.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1A), the circumstances in which moneys are paid in error are as follows:

- (a) contributions made by an employer under section 7(1) or (4)(c);
  - (b) contributions made by an employee under section 7(4)(b);
  - (c) contributions made by a self-employed person under any regulations made under section 77(1)(e);
  - (d) interest payable under section 9;
  - (e) moneys paid in error to the Fund or as interest under section 9 before the date of commencement of section 42 of the Central Provident Fund (Amendment) Act 2016.”; and
- (b) by deleting the word “If” in subsection (3) and substituting the words “Subject to subsection (1A)(b), if”.

Amendment of section 75A

43. Section 75A of the principal Act is amended by deleting subsection (5).

New sections 75C and 75D

44. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 75B, the following sections:

“Refund of excess contributions paid by self-employed person who is alive

75C.—(1) This section applies where the Board is satisfied that the amount of contributions paid for any year by a member who is a self-employed person, under any regulations made under section 77(1)(e), exceeds the amount of contributions payable by the member after recomputation in accordance with those regulations.

(2) Subject to subsections (3), (4) and (5), if any excess contributions referred to in subsection (1) are credited to any account in the Fund of a member who is a self-employed person and the member is alive, the Board may —

- (a) treat the excess contributions as payment towards any future contributions which the member is liable to pay; or
- (b) subject to such terms and conditions as the Board may impose, refund the excess contributions to the member if —
  - (i) the member applies in writing for the refund within such time as may be prescribed; and
  - (ii) the refund is made in accordance with any regulations made under section 77(1).

(3) The Board may refund the excess contributions to a member, of an amount not exceeding the amount standing to the member's credit in the account (in which the excess contributions were credited) at the time the Board approves the refund.

(4) Where a member has not applied for a refund under subsection (2) within the prescribed time, the Board may retain the whole or any part of the excess contributions to be used to set off against any contributions or interest on any contributions as is due or may become due to the Board.

(5) The Board may require any person who claims to be entitled to any refund under this section, or to have paid any excess contributions to the Fund, to provide the Board with such information as the Board considers necessary to determine whether any refund should be made.

Refund of excess voluntary contributions where member is alive

75D.—(1) This section applies where the total amounts referred to in section 13B(3)(a), (b) and (c) which are contributed by or for a member in any year exceeds the sum prescribed under section 13B(3) for that year.

(2) Subject to subsections (4), (5) and (6), where any excess contributions referred to in subsection (1) are credited to any account in the Fund of a member and the member is alive, the Board may, subject to such terms and conditions as it may impose, refund to the member or to any other person such amount of the excess contributions as may be prescribed by regulations made under section 77(1).

(3) Where the member is an employee at any time during that year, and the Board is satisfied that the amount of additional medisave contributions which was paid in that year by his employer for the employee exceeds such sum as the Minister may prescribe by regulations made under section 77(1), the Board may, subject to such terms and conditions as the Board may impose, refund the excess to the employer.

(4) The Board may refund the excess contributions to the member, any other person referred to in subsection (2) or the employer referred to in subsection (3) (as the case may be) of an amount not exceeding the amount standing to the member's credit in the account (in which the excess contributions were credited) at the time the Board approves the refund.

(5) The Board may require any person to whom any excess contributions are to be refunded under this section to —

- (a) submit an application to the Board for the refund of the excess contributions; and
- (b) provide the Board with such information as the Board considers necessary to determine whether any refund should be made.

(6) The Board may retain the whole or any part of the excess contributions to be used to set off against any contributions or interest on any contributions which is due or may become due to the Board.

(7) In this section, “additional medisave contributions” means the contributions paid by an employer under section 7(4)(c) specifically for the purposes of the medisave account of the employer's employee.”.

New section 76A

45. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 76, the following section:

“Protection from personal liability

76A. No liability shall lie personally against any member, officer or employee of the Board, any other person acting under the Board's direction or any public officer who, acting in good faith and with reasonable care, does or omits to do anything in the execution or purported execution of this Act.”.

Amendment of section 77

46.—(1) Section 77(1) of the principal Act is amended —

(a) by deleting the words “Town Council in respect of upgrading works” in paragraph (h)(iii)(A) and substituting the words “Town Council in respect of lift upgrading works”;

(b) by deleting the word “and” at the end of sub-paragraph (A) of paragraph (h)(iii), and by inserting immediately thereafter the following sub-paragraph:

“(AA) any interest imposed by the Housing and Development Board or the Town Council, as the case may be, on the improvement contribution referred to in sub-paragraph (A), where the improvement contribution is paid in instalments; and”;

(c) by deleting paragraph (j) and substituting the following paragraph:

“(j) to provide, in respect of medical, psychiatric or other treatment or services received, or to be received, by a member or by the member's spouse, child or parent or by such other persons as may be prescribed, for —

- (i) the withdrawal of money from the medisave account of the member for payment for such treatment or services; and
  - (ii) the repayment of such payment by any person who has received such payment;”;
- (d) by inserting, immediately after the words “the refund” in paragraph (k)(ii), the words “or repayment”;
- (e) by inserting, immediately after the words “manner in which any such refund” in paragraph (k)(ii), the words “or repayment”;
- (f) by inserting, immediately after “(7),” in paragraph (o), “(8D),”;
- (g) by inserting, immediately after sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (o), the following sub-paragraph:
- “(iia) prescribe the circumstances in which any amount standing to the credit of a member in the member's retirement account is permitted to be used, transferred or withdrawn under section 15(6C)(d), and provide —
    - (A) for all or any part of the amount so used, transferred or withdrawn (including the whole or such part, as the Board may determine, of the interest that would have been payable on the amount if the amount had not been so used, transferred or withdrawn) to be

- paid into any account of the member in the Fund;
- (B) the circumstances in which the payment is to be made; and
- (C) the person who will make the payment;”;
- (h) by deleting the word “and” at the end of paragraph (o)(iv);
- (i) by inserting, immediately after the words “to the Board” in paragraph (o)(v), the words “of the whole or part of the amount”;
- (j) by inserting, immediately after the words “27DA(1) or (2)” in paragraph (o)(v), the words “and for the Board to determine such amount to be paid”;
- (k) by inserting, immediately after sub-paragraph (v) of paragraph (o), the following sub-paragraphs:
- “(vi) provide for the payment into a member’s retirement account of all or any part of the moneys deposited with an approved bank (including any interest on such moneys deposited) or used to purchase an approved annuity in accordance with section 15, the circumstances in which such payment is to be made and the person who will make such payment; and
- (vii) in the case of a member who need not comply with section 15(6)(a) by reason of section 15(8)(e), provide for payment into the member’s retirement account of all or any part of the moneys deposited with an approved bank (including any interest on such moneys deposited) or of such sums when the member’s pension, annuity or other benefit is terminated or surrendered, the circumstances in which such payment is to be made and the person who will make such payment;” and

(l) by deleting the word “and” at the end of paragraph (ra), and by inserting immediately thereafter the following paragraph:

“(rb) to prescribe such matters as are necessary or expedient for giving full effect to section 67C, including —

(i) requirements and contraventions applicable to approved applicants relating to —

(A) access to information on a member’s medisave account;

(B) the accuracy of information in a withdrawal application;

(C) authorisation by or on behalf of a member for an approved applicant to submit a withdrawal application on behalf of the member; and

(D) audits ordered by the Board under section 67B(3), and compliance with the Board’s directions in relation to the audit;

(ii) the payment of interest if a financial penalty is not paid within the time specified in a notice to the approved applicant; and

(iii) providing for appeals against a decision of the Board to impose a financial penalty or interest for late payment, and the amount of the penalty or interest for late payment imposed, to be made to a panel appointed by the Minister charged with the responsibility for health, and the procedure for making and hearing appeals; and”.

(2) Section 77(1) of the principal Act, as amended by subsection (1), is amended —

- (a) by deleting the word “and” at the end of paragraph (o)(vi);
- (b) by inserting the word “and” at the end of sub-paragraph (vii) of paragraph (o), and by inserting immediately thereafter the following sub-paragraph:

“(viii) prescribe the types of transfer or payment that are made into a member’s account in the Fund for which a member may be permitted to withdraw an amount under section 15(8D), and provide for the whole or any part of the interest paid on the amount so withdrawn from the member’s account to be dealt with in all or any of the following manner:

- (A) retained in that account;
  - (B) withdrawn from that account and paid to the member;
  - (C) transferred to the general moneys of the Fund;”.
