Criminal Procedure Code (Amendment) Bill

Bill No. 18/1967.

Read the first time on 29th June 1967.

A BILL

i n t i t u l e d

An Act to amend the Criminal Procedure Code (Chapter 132 of the Revised Edition).

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:—

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as Criminal Procedure Code (Amendment) Act, 1967.

Amendment of Schedule A

5 2. Schedule A to the Criminal Procedure Code is hereby amended —

- (a) by deleting the word “Bailable” appearing in column 5 relating to section 143 of the Penal Code and substituting therefor the words “Not bailable”;
- 10 (b) by deleting the word “Bailable” appearing in column 5 relating to section 151 of the Penal Code and substituting therefor the words “Not bailable”;
- (c) by deleting the word “Ditto” appearing in column 5 relating to section 153 of the Penal Code where it secondly occurs and substituting therefor the word “Bailable”;
- 15 (d) by deleting the word “Ditto” appearing in column 5 relating to section 157 of the Penal Code and substituting therefor the words “Not bailable”;
- (e) by deleting the word “Bailable” appearing in column 5 relating to section 158 of the Penal Code where it first occurs and substituting therefor the words “Not bailable”;
- 20 (f) by deleting the word “Ditto” appearing in column 5 relating to section 353 of the Penal Code and substituting therefor the words “Not bailable”; and
- 25 (g) by deleting the word “Ditto” appearing in column 5 relating to section 354 of the Penal Code and substituting therefor the word “Bailable”.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to amend Schedule A to the Criminal Procedure Code. Provisions in the Bill would have the effect of making the offences —

- (a) of an unlawful assembly and the cognate offences of rioting; and
- (b) of assaulting or using force to deter public servants from discharging their duties, non-bailable.

EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY

This Bill will not involve the Government in any extra financial expenditure.
