EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to provide for the establishment of a Home Team Corps comprising the National Police Cadet Corps (NPCC) and the National Civil Defence Cadet Corps (NCDCC), to repeal and re-enact with amendments the National Police Cadet Corps Act (Cap. 199), and for matters connected with that.

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

Clause 2 is a general definition provision. It contains definitions of terms used in the Bill. In particular, the term “officer” is clarified to mean an officer, an honorary officer or an honorary instructor appointed under clause 7.

Clause 3 provides for the NPCC and the NCDCC to be established under the Bill, and to be collectively known as the Home Team Corps.

Clause 4 empowers the Minister to establish, organise and administer the NPCC and the NCDCC units raised primarily in Singapore schools.

Clause 5 provides for the establishment of the Home Team Corps Council, which will be responsible for the joint administration of the NPCC and the NCDCC. The Home Team Corps Council consists of representatives appointed by the Minister including 2 Deputy Chairmen, one from among individuals nominated by the Commissioner of Police and the other from individuals nominated by the Commissioner of Civil Defence.

The Home Team Corps Council is also empowered by the clause to delegate any of its functions and powers (other than the power to make subsidiary legislation or the power of delegation) —

- (a) where it relates to the NPCC, to an appropriately qualified police officer or officer of the NPCC; and
- (b) where it relates to the NCDCC, to an appropriately qualified officer of the Singapore Civil Defence Force or an officer of the NCDCC.

Clause 6 provides for the Minister to appoint —

- (a) the Commandant of the NPCC, on the recommendation of the Commissioner of Police; and
- (b) the Commandant of the NCDCC, on the recommendation of the Commissioner of Civil Defence.

A Commandant will exercise executive command of the Corps to which the Commandant is appointed, and is responsible to the Home Team Corps Council for matters of administration affecting the recruitment, promotion, training, conditions of service, finance and discipline of that Corps.

A Commandant is, with the approval of the Minister, empowered to appoint a Deputy Commandant and so many other Assistant Commandants as the Commandant requires to assist in the general administration of the Corps the Commandant has executive command of.

Clause 7 provides for the appointment of officers, honorary officers and honorary instructors in the NPCC or the NCDCC. An officer, honorary officer or honorary instructor may at any time resign from that appointment by giving notice to the Minister. The Minister may also, with or without assigning any reason, revoke the appointment of any officer, honorary officer or honorary instructor.

Clause 8 empowers the Commissioner of Police to second any member of the Singapore Police Force for service in the NPCC and the Commissioner of Civil Defence to second any member of the Singapore Civil Defence Force for service in the NCDCC. Such secondment can be on a full-time or part-time basis.

Clause 9 provides for a citizen of Singapore or a permanent resident to be eligible to be enrolled as a cadet or appointed as an officer in either the NPCC or the NCDCC, but not in both. Non-citizens and non-permanent residents may be enrolled as a cadet or appointed as an officer in the NPCC or the NCDCC with the approval of the Minister.

Clause 10 deals with the discharge of cadets from the NPCC and the NCDCC on completion of the service period of enrolment in the NPCC or the NCDCC, as the case may be. The clause also empowers the Commandant to dismiss any cadet from the Corps over which the Commandant has executive command, on the recommendation of the cadet's officer-in-charge. If the cadet is a student, the concurrence of the principal of the cadet's school must be obtained before the cadet is dismissed.

Clause 11 empowers the officer-in-charge to deal summarily with cadets who show wilful defiance of authority or who disobey any regulations or general or routine orders.

Clause 12 lays down the scale of punishment which an officer-in-charge may impose when dealing with a cadet summarily. The punishments range from reprimand or reduction of rank, to suspension of cadet membership for a period not exceeding 3 months.

Clause 13 empowers a Commandant to convene a board of inquiry in respect of any officer, honorary officer or honorary instructor who commits a breach of any general or routine order made by the Commandant or any regulation made under the Bill. The board of inquiry must consist of a Chairman and not less than 2 members, one of whom must be nominated by a Permanent Secretary to the Ministry of Education.

Clause 14 empowers the Minister to compensate any member of the NPCC or the NCDCC, or the member's dependants for any death or personal injury of the member, provided such death or injury was suffered in the execution of the member's duty or was solely due to the execution of such duty.

Clause 15 exempts members whilst on parade or in the course of their duty from the operation of the Arms Offences Act (Cap. 14) and the Corrosive and Explosive Substances and Offensive Weapons Act (Cap. 65).

Clause 16 empowers a Commandant to make such general or routine orders (not inconsistent with the provisions of the Bill) for the control, direction and information of the Corps to which the Commandant is appointed and for awards given to cadets for proficiency in training and other achievements.

Clause 17 empowers the Home Team Corps Council, with the approval of the Minister, to make regulations to carry out the provisions of the Bill.

Clause 18 repeals the National Police Cadet Corps Act (NPCC Act).

Clause 19 is a saving and transitional provision. It provides for the continuance of membership of the officers and cadets of the NCDCC and the continued appointment of the Commandant of the NCDCC after the date of commencement of the Bill. It also provides for the continued existence of the NPCC after the repeal of the NPCC Act. The membership of officers and cadets of the NPCC Act and their respective appointments will be continued under the Bill. The appointments of the Commandant, Deputy Commandant and Assistant Commandants of the NPCC are also continued under the Bill. Any decision, certificate, order or recommendation made by the Minister, the NPCC Council or the Commandant, a Deputy Commandant or an Assistant Commandant of the NPCC under the authority of the repealed NPCC Act, or by the Commandant of the NCDCC before the date of commencement of the Bill are also saved and continued under the Bill. Anything commenced by the Commandants of the NPCC and the NCDCC (apart from an inquiry before a board of inquiry commenced before the date of commencement of the Bill) may be carried on and completed under the Bill.

EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY

This Bill will not involve the Government in any extra financial expenditure.
