EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to amend the Companies Act (Cap. 50).

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

Clause 2 amends section 131 (Registration of charges) by introducing a new subsection (3AB) to —

(a) affirm the characterisation of a contractual lien on sub-freights or sub-hires created under a charter (or sub-charter) of a ship for any amount due under the charter (or sub-charter), as —

- (i) a floating charge which is registrable under subsection (3)(g), as held by the Court of Appeal in Diablo Fortune Inc v Duncan, Cameron Lindsay [2018] SGCA 26; or
 - (ii) a charge on book debts of the company under subsection (3)(f), as held by the High Court in Duncan, Cameron Lindsay and another v Diablo Fortune Inc and another matter [2017] SGHC 172 (which decision was not disturbed on appeal);
- (b) remove the requirement under subsection (1) that a contractual lien on sub-freights or sub-hires created under a charter (or sub-charter) of a ship for any amount due under the charter (or sub-charter) must be registered; and
- (c) provide that a contractual lien on bill of lading freight created under a charter (or sub-charter) of a ship for any amount due under the charter (or sub-charter) is not a charge that must be registered under subsection (1).

Clause 2 also inserts a new subsection (3AC) into section 131 to provide that a contractual lien on sub-freights, sub-hires or bill of lading freight created under a charter (or sub-charter) of a ship for any amount due under the charter (or sub-charter) created before the date of commencement of section 2 of the Companies (Amendment) Act 2018, is subject to the registration requirement and the consequences of non-registration only if, as at that date, there is —

- (a) a liquidator appointed for the company either by the High Court or by the company by way of a voluntary winding up resolution; or
- (b) a creditor falling within the meaning of “creditor” in subsection (1), as interpreted by the Court of Appeal in Media Development Authority of Singapore v Sculptor Finance (MD) Ireland Ltd [2014] 1 SLR 733.

Clause 2 further inserts a new subsection (11) into section 131 to define “shipowner’s lien” as a contractual lien on sub-freights, sub-hires or bill of lading freight created under a charter (or sub-charter) of a ship for any amount due under the charter (or sub-charter). Such a lien may be given in favour of, amongst other persons, a registered owner of a ship, a disponent owner of a ship, or a bareboat charterer of a ship.

Clause 3 amends section 210(3AA) (Power to compromise with creditors, members and holders of units of shares) by deleting and substituting paragraph (a) to provide that, in respect of a company in the course of being wound up, a compromise or an arrangement approved by the High Court is binding on the creditors or class of creditors, the members or class of members, or the holder of units of shares or class of holders of units of shares (as the case may be), in addition to the liquidator and contributories of the company. The clause is intended to partly reverse the amendment made by section 135(a) of the Companies (Amendment) Act 2014 (Act 36 of 2014).
