Clause 7 replaces section 19(3) and amends section 19(4) to make consequential amendments.

Clause 8 makes a consequential amendment to section 19D(6)(b).

Clause 9 makes consequential amendments to section 20(1B) to refer in paragraph (b) to section 15(2)(b) as in force on or after the date of commencement of clause 9(a) and in paragraph (c) to the Board being satisfied that the person is not an applicable person for the purposes of section 15(2)(b).

Clause 10 amends section 22 by inserting new subsections (4B), (4C) and (4D). The clause also makes subsection (5) subject to the new subsection (4D).

The new subsection (4B) provides that the new subsection (4C) applies where a member's child or relative has given an undertaking under section 22(3) and the Board is satisfied that the member is an applicable person and that the member's child or relative is not an applicable person.

The new subsection (4C) empowers the Board to recover the whole or part of the amount repayable or payable pursuant to the undertaking given by the member's child or relative, if the child or relative makes a withdrawal under section 15(2)(b) or moneys are to be transferred from an account in the Fund of the child or relative to the general moneys of the Fund under the new section 13(7B), from the sum to be withdrawn or transferred.

The new subsection (4D) provides that an undertaking given, or a guarantee furnished, under section 22(3) for the repayment of an amount to the member's account in the Fund or payment of an amount to the Fund is deemed to lapse when the Board is satisfied that the member has ceased to be an applicable person.

Clause 11 amends section 24(2) to subject the protection of benefits to the recovery of withdrawals under section 22 and repayment of any loan given to the member by the Government mentioned in section 27.

Clause 12 amends section 25(1) and (1A) to provide that the member of the Fund must be an applicable person to make a nomination under section 25(1).

Clause 13 amends section 26(1) to provide for designated shares to vest in the Board, subject to regulations made under section 77(1), on or after 1 May 2024, where the Board is satisfied that the member is not an applicable person and the member has not instructed the Board to transfer the designated shares to the member's securities account or to sell the designated shares. The clause also amends section 26(6) to empower the Board to sell those vested shares.

Clause 14 inserts a new section 26B to empower the Board, on its own motion, where the Board is satisfied that a member is not an applicable person, to declare that the member is authorised to withdraw all moneys standing to the member's credit in the member's CPF Investment Account (if any) and that all of the member's securities purchased or acquired under an investment scheme introduced under Part II or III of the Central Provident Fund (Investment Schemes) Regulations (Rg 9) are withdrawn from those investment schemes. The member will not be obliged to repay to the Fund any moneys, and any proceeds or benefits of any securities, withdrawn pursuant to the Board's declaration. The protections under section 24(2) will not therefore apply to those moneys and securities.

Clause 15 amends section 27 by deleting subsection (2A) as section 24(2), read with section 24(1)(b), already protects withdrawals from the Fund by undischarged bankrupts.

Clause 16 amends section 27K to insert new subsections (5D) and (5E).

The new subsection (5D) provides that where the Board is satisfied that a member is not a citizen or permanent resident of Singapore, the Lifelong Income Scheme ceases to apply to that member, and his or her annuity plan (if any) is deemed to be terminated, within the period prescribed in the relevant regulations.

The new subsection (5E) provides that the period prescribed for the Lifelong Income Scheme to cease or the annuity plan to be terminated may differ for different classes of members.

Clause 17 amends section 27L(5) and (7) to clarify that the amount to be refunded includes any goodwill sum the Board may, in its discretion, determine.

Clause 18 amends section 29 by inserting a new paragraph (aa) in subsection (5) to provide that the Home Protection Insurance Scheme does not apply to any member who is not a citizen or permanent resident of Singapore at the time the member is required to join the Scheme. The clause also amends subsection (7) to provide that the subsection is subject to such terms, conditions and restrictions as the Board may impose and inserts new subsections (8) and (9).

The new subsection (8) provides that, where the Board is satisfied that a member of the Home Protection Insurance Scheme is not a citizen or permanent resident of Singapore, that member's cover is deemed to be terminated at the prescribed time.

The new subsection (9) provides that the time prescribed for termination may differ for different classes of members.

Clause 19 amends section 77(1) to include references to section 13(7B), (7E) and (7F) in paragraph (ba) and to clarify in paragraph (s) that regulations may be made to prescribe anything that is required or permitted to be prescribed by regulations made under the Act.

PART 2

AMENDMENTS RELATING TO
DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION
AFTER NOTIFICATION OF MEMBER'S DEATH

Clause 20 amends section 25 by deleting subsection (6A) as consent to disclosure of information after death will no longer be required.

Clause 21 amends section 59 by inserting new subsections (10) and (11) to allow the Board to disclose, after being notified of a member's death, certain information about the deceased member (specified in the new subsection (11)) to the member's nominees, the persons who would be the member's beneficiaries under section 25A(1) on the assumption that a nomination was not made by the deceased member under section 25(1) or other prescribed persons.

PART 3

TRANSACTIONS FOR DECEASED MEMBER

Clause 22 replaces section 2(6) to construe a reference to the amount payable on a member's death out of the Fund as a reference to the balance standing to the credit of a member in the Fund as computed from time to time by the Board after it is notified of a member's death, taking into account anything done under the new section 75 inserted by clause 30.

Clause 23 amends section 19D(3)(b) such that the provision applies where the Board has been notified that the payer has died.

Clause 24 amends section 20(1)(b) such that the provision applies where the Board has been notified that the member has died.

Clause 25 amends section 24(3A) to make a consequential amendment to refer to the new section 75. The clause also amends subsections (3A) and (3B) to refer to moneys paid out of the Fund both on or after the death of a member.

Clause 26 amends section 25(4A) such that the provision applies where the Board has been notified that a nominated person has died.

Clause 27 replaces section 27B(1)(a)(ii)(A) and (b)(i) such that the payment to the spouse is to take place after the Board has been notified that the member has died, if the member was not entitled to withdraw the sum standing to the credit of the member under section 15(2), 15AA(1) or 27 prior to the member's death.

Clause 28 amends section 27Q(2)(h) to clarify that the refund of the premium is on account of the death of the member. The regulations may therefore provide for the refund to be made on or after the member's death or notification of the member's death.

Clause 29 amends section 57C(4), (5) and (6) to clarify that the Board may exercise its powers under those subsections on or after the death of the eligible member or member of the Fund.

Clause 30 inserts a new section 75, which relates to transactions by the Board under the Act, the CareShield Life and Long-Term Care Act 2019 or the MediShield Life Scheme Act 2015 after a member's death. Subsection (1) clarifies that the Board may, before being notified of a member's death, do anything under those Acts as if the member has not died. Subsection (2) empowers the Board to do certain things under those Acts as if the member has not died even after being notified of the member's death. Subsection (3) empowers the Board to reverse an act done by the Board (whether before, on or after the date of commencement of the new section 75) on or after the member's death as if the member has not died to the extent that it is expedient, and grants immunity to the Board in relation to such acts. Subsection (4) validates acts done by the Board before the new section 75 comes into force which would be permitted under the new section 75(1), (2) or (3) if done when those new provisions come into force, and grants immunity to the Board in relation to such acts. Subsection (5) clarifies that subsections (1) to (4) do not affect any recourse a person may have against another person to whom the Board has paid money or transferred designated shares. Subsection (6) clarifies that the new section 75 does not prevent the Board or any person from carrying out a transaction on or after the member's death under any written law or rule of law. Subsection (7) defines certain terms used in the section.

PART 4

AMENDMENTS RELATING TO NOTICES AND SERVICE METHODS

Clause 31 amends section 62(1) and replaces subsection (8) to permit the Board to determine the form of a notice to attend court, instead of using a prescribed notice.

Clause 32 amends section 62A to provide that a notice to attend court or summons may be served by transmitting it to an electronic mail address if certain requirements with respect to consent are satisfied or by serving it through the electronic service platform mentioned in section 74 with the person's consent if so provided by regulations made for the purposes of section 74(4)(b).

Clause 33 inserts a new section 74 to provide for the Board's electronic service platform for the service of documents required or permitted to be served under the Act on persons who have been assigned an account by the Board. The clause also provides that regulations may be made in relation to the procedure for the use of the platform and safeguards relating to service through the platform with the member's consent, or with notice of the Board's intention of service through the platform if the person does not refuse such service.

Clause 34 amends section 77(1) by inserting a new paragraph (r) to allow regulations to be made to provide for service by any means (other than under sections 62A and 74) of any document required or permitted to be served under the Act, except a notice to attend court or a summons mentioned in section 62A and any document to be served in proceedings in court. Section 62A governs the service of notice to attend court and summons and section 74 governs the service of documents by the electronic service platform.

PART 5

SAVING AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Clause 35 provides saving and transitional provisions for Part 1 of the Bill. Clause 35(1) deems every application for withdrawal on the grounds of section 15(2)(b) or (c) as in force before the date of commencement of clause 5 to be an application for withdrawal on the grounds of the new section 15(2)(b). This applies to applications pending on that date or received by the Board on or after that date. Clause 35(2) provides that clause 12 does not affect the validity of any nomination made before the date of commencement of that clause.

Clause 36 provides saving and transitional provisions for Part 2 of the Bill. Clause 36(1) provides that where the Board has been notified of the member's death before the date of commencement of clause 21, the deceased member's consent (if still in force immediately before that date) will continue to apply instead of the new section 59(10) and (11). Clause 36(2) provides that the Board can disclose such information under the new section 59(10) and (11) where the Board is notified of the member's death on or after the date of commencement of clause 21, whenever the member died and whether or not any consent has been given under section 25(6A). Clause 36(3) deems that the member's consent for the disclosure of information by the Board given under section 25(6A) and that is in force immediately before the date of commencement of clause 20 is revoked with effect from that date where the Board has not been notified of the member's death before that date.

Clause 37 empowers the Minister to make regulations to prescribe additional provisions of a saving or transitional nature for any provision of the Bill for a period of 2 years after the date of commencement of any provision of the Bill.

EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY

This Bill will involve the Government in extra financial expenditure, the exact amount of which cannot at present be ascertained.
