EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to amend certain Acts of the Republic of Singapore.

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

Clause 2 amends section 55(7)(b) of the Building Maintenance and Strata Management Act (Cap. 30C) to correct a typographical error. The intent was to disqualify an individual from being a treasurer if he or she is already the chairperson or secretary or the re-appointment would result in him or her holding office as a treasurer for 3 consecutive terms.

Clause 3 amends the definition of “prohibited pesticide” in section 2 of the Control of Plants Act (Cap. 57A) to explicitly update the cross-reference to the Food Regulations (Cap. 283, Rg 1) in the definition. The Food Regulations had been revised on 30 November 2005 and its Schedules were renumbered during the revision.

By operation of section 20(2) of the Revised Edition of the Laws Act (Cap. 275), the cross-reference would be read as the Ninth Schedule to the Food Regulations instead of the Tenth Schedule, from the date the 2005 Revised Edition of the Food Regulations took effect. Hence, this amendment takes effect retrospectively from the same date the 2005 Revised Edition of the Food Regulations took effect.

Clause 4 amends the National Arts Council Act (Cap. 193A) with respect to its composition. The amendment enables the National Arts Council (NAC) to consist of at least 11 but not more than 27 members, from whom the Minister may appoint the Chairman and Deputy Chairman. It will no longer be mandatory to have an NAC Deputy Chairman.

The amendment provides that a member (other than the Chief Executive of the NAC) may be appointed as the Chairman of the NAC, and a member (other than the Chairman or Chief Executive of the NAC) may be appointed as the Deputy Chairman of the NAC. The term of office as an NAC Chairman or Deputy Chairman need not be identical to his or her office as a member. However, the Chairman or Deputy Chairman of the NAC stops holding that office when he or she ceases to hold office as a member of the NAC.

A saving provision is included to preserve the appointment of the present NAC members and office-holders. Clause 4 preserves the tenure of appointment of a member of the NAC as a period of 3 years or a shorter period the Minister determines for the member.

Clause 5 amends section 40(2) of the Penal Code (Cap. 224) so that the right of private defence remains available as a defence for offences outside of the Penal Code.

Clause 6(1)(a) amends the definition of “Corporation” in section 2 of the Singapore Corporation of Rehabilitative Enterprises Act (Cap. 298) consequent to the renumbering of section 3 (see clause 6(1)(b)).

Clause 6(1)(b) amends section 3 of the Singapore Corporation of Rehabilitative Enterprises Act to allow the Singapore Corporation of Rehabilitative Enterprises to perform any of its functions or carry out any of its duties under one or more business names specified by the Minister by notification in the Gazette.

Clause 6(1)(c) amends section 24 of the Singapore Corporation of Rehabilitative Enterprises Act to change the financial year of the Singapore Corporation of Rehabilitative Enterprises to 1 April each year to 31 March the following year.

Clause 6(2) is a transitional provision made necessary by the change in the financial year.

Clause 7 amends the Singapore Sports Council Act (Cap. 305) with respect to its composition. The amendment enables the Singapore Sports Council (SSC) to consist of at least 7 but not more than 15 members, from whom the Minister may appoint a Chairman and a Deputy Chairman. One of the members may be the Chief Executive Officer of the SSC. It will no longer be mandatory to have an SSC Deputy Chairman.

The amendment provides that a member (other than the Chief Executive Officer of the SSC) may be appointed as the Chairman of the SSC, and a member (other than the Chairman or Chief Executive Officer of the SSC) may be appointed as the Deputy Chairman of the SSC. The term of office as an SSC Chairman or Deputy Chairman need not be identical to his or her office as a member. However, the Chairman or Deputy Chairman of the SSC stops holding that office when he or she ceases to hold office as a member of the SSC.

A saving provision is included to preserve the appointment of present SSC members and office-holders.
