(2) No criminal or civil proceedings shall lie against a person for any disclosure made in good faith under this section.

15 (3) A person who makes a disclosure in good faith under this section shall not be treated as being in breach of any restriction upon the disclosure of information imposed by law, contract or rules of professional conduct.

- 5 (b) that offence shall be deemed not to be an offence of a political character for the purposes of that Act;
- (c) section 20(1)(f) of that Act is inapplicable to any request for assistance referred to in subsection (1); and
- 10 (d) the reference to the appointed date in the definition of “foreign confiscation order” in section 2(1) of that Act shall be read as the date of commencement of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters (Amendment) Act 2006 (Act 8 of 2006).

(3) The following offences shall be deemed to be Singapore offences for the purposes of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act:

- 15 (a) an offence specified in the First Schedule committed to or in relation to a UN worker;

- 20 (d) an offence against a UN worker.

(4) In this section, “relevant offence”, in relation to a Convention country, means an offence against the law of that country where the act or omission constituting the offence or the equivalent act or omission —

- 25 (a) would constitute an offence against a UN worker; or
- (b) would be such an offence if the description concerned contained a reference to any intent or state of mind on the part of the person committing the offence, or to any circumstance of aggravation, necessary to constitute the offence.

30 Extradition to and from Convention countries

11.—(1) Offences against a UN worker shall be deemed to be extraditable crimes for the purposes of Parts III and IV of the Extradition Act (Cap. 103).

(2) For the purposes of the Extradition Act (Cap. 103), the expression “extradition crime”, in relation to a Convention country that is a declared Commonwealth country, shall be deemed to include relevant offences.

5 (3) Subject to subsection (4), where no extradition treaty is in force between Singapore and a Convention country that is not a declared Commonwealth country, a notification in the Gazette under section 4 of the Extradition Act may be made applying that Act as if there were an extradition treaty between Singapore and that country.

10 (4) Where the Extradition Act is applied under subsection (3), that Act shall have effect in relation to that country as if the only extradition crimes under that Act were the relevant offences of that country.

(5) Subsection (4) is without prejudice to any other notification made under section 4 of the Extradition Act.

(6) Where —

15 (a) an extradition treaty is in force between Singapore and a Convention country; and

(b) the treaty does not provide for the extradition of persons accused of or convicted of a relevant offence of that country,

20 a notification in the Gazette under section 4 of the Extradition Act may be made applying that Act in relation to that country as if the treaty provided for the matter referred to in paragraph (b).

25 (7) Where a notification referred to in subsection (6) is made, any limitation, condition, exception or qualification specified in any other notification made under section 4 of the Extradition Act, or in any Order in Council referred to in section 3 of that Act, in relation to that country shall, to the extent that it prevents the relevant offence from being considered an extradition crime in relation to that country, be disregarded in the application of that Act in relation to that country.

(8) For the purposes of the Extradition Act —

30 (a) any act, wherever committed, which is a relevant offence of a Convention country which is a declared Commonwealth country, or which is a relevant offence of a Convention country which is not a declared Commonwealth country in the case of which the Extradition Act has been applied by a notification in the Gazette
35 made under section 4 of that Act, shall be deemed to be an offence within the jurisdiction of that country; and

(b) any such offence shall be deemed not to be an offence of a political character.

(9) In this section —

“declared Commonwealth country” has the meaning given to that expression in the Extradition Act (Cap. 103);

“relevant offence”, in relation to a Convention country, means an offence against the law of that country where the act or omission constituting the offence or the equivalent act or omission —

(a) would constitute an offence against a UN worker, other than one which would constitute such an offence by virtue only of section 3(3); or

(b) would be such an offence if the description concerned contained a reference to any intent or state of mind on the part of the person committing the offence, or to any circumstance of aggravation, necessary to constitute the offence.

Extradition to Protocol countries

12.—(1) For the purposes of the Extradition Act, the expression “extradition crime”, in relation to a Protocol country that is a declared Commonwealth country, shall be deemed to include relevant offences.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), where no extradition treaty is in force between Singapore and a Protocol country that is not a declared Commonwealth country, a notification in the Gazette under section 4 of the Extradition Act may be made applying that Act as if there were an extradition treaty between Singapore and that country.

(3) Where the Extradition Act is applied under subsection (2), that Act shall have effect in relation to that country as if the only extradition crimes under that Act were the relevant offences of that country.

(4) Subsection (3) is without prejudice to any other notification made under section 4 of the Extradition Act.

(5) Where —

(a) an extradition treaty is in force between Singapore and a Protocol country; and

(b) the treaty does not provide for the extradition of persons accused of or convicted of a relevant offence of that country,

a notification in the Gazette under section 4 of the Extradition Act (Cap. 103) may be made applying that Act in relation to that country as if the treaty provided for the matter referred to in paragraph (b).

5 (6) Where a notification referred to in subsection (5) is made, any limitation, condition, exception or qualification specified in any other notification made under section 4 of the Extradition Act, or in any Order in Council referred to in section 3 of that Act, in relation to that country shall, to the extent that it prevents the relevant offence from being considered an extradition crime in relation to that country, be disregarded
10 in the application of that Act in relation to that country.

(7) For the purposes of the Extradition Act —

(a) any act, wherever committed, which is a relevant offence of a Protocol country which is a declared Commonwealth country, or which is a relevant offence of a Protocol country which is not a
15 declared Commonwealth country in the case of which the Extradition Act has been applied by a notification in the Gazette made under section 4 of that Act, shall be deemed to be an offence within the jurisdiction of that country; and

(b) any such offence shall be deemed not to be an offence of a
20 political character.

(8) In this section —

“declared Commonwealth country” has the meaning given to that expression in the Extradition Act;

25 “Protocol country” means a Convention country that is a party to the Protocol;

“relevant offence”, in relation to a Protocol country, means an offence against the law of that country where the act or omission constituting the offence or the equivalent act or omission —

(a) would constitute an offence which is an offence against a UN
30 worker by virtue only of section 3(3); or

(b) would be such an offence if the description concerned contained a reference to any intent or state of mind on the part of the person committing the offence, or to any circumstance of aggravation, necessary to constitute the offence.

5 No prosecution without Public Prosecutor's consent

13. A prosecution under this Act shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Public Prosecutor.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to enable Singapore to give effect to the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel (the Convention) and the Optional Protocol to the Convention (the Protocol).

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

Clause 2 defines certain terms used in the Bill.

Clause 3 defines the expression “UN worker”. The definition covers “United Nations personnel” and “Associated personnel” as defined in Article 1 of the Convention. Sub-clause (3) implements Article II of the Protocol by expanding the scope of the term “UN worker” through an expansion of the scope of the term “UN operation”. The Minister charged with the responsibility for foreign affairs may certify whether a person is at a specified time a UN worker which will be prima facie evidence of this matter.

Clause 4 extends Singapore jurisdiction to deal with specified crimes against UN workers outside Singapore. The act concerned must be such that, if it had been committed in Singapore, it would constitute an offence specified in the First Schedule. In brief, these crimes concern murder, kidnapping or other attack on the person or liberty of a UN worker.

Clause 5 extends Singapore jurisdiction to deal with specified crimes against the official premises or place of residence of a UN worker, or any vehicle used by such person. The act concerned must be such that, if it had been committed in Singapore, it would constitute an offence specified in the Second Schedule. These offences include causing an explosion and committing mischief.

Clause 6 renders it an offence to threaten, whether in Singapore or outside Singapore, to commit certain offences against a UN worker, his official premises or place of residence or a vehicle used by him, in order to compel a person to do or abstain from doing any act.

Clause 7 extends Singapore jurisdiction to deal with an attempt, abetment or conspiracy committed outside Singapore of certain offences against a UN worker, his official premises or place of residence or a vehicle used by him.

Clause 8 provides that, in proceedings for offences under clauses 4 to 7, where the relevant act had been proved to have been committed by the accused, he will be presumed to know that the victim was a UN worker, the premises concerned were the official premises or place of residence of a UN worker or the vehicle concerned was used by such a person.

Clause 9 provides that every person in Singapore who has information which he knows or believes may be of material assistance —

- (a) in preventing the commission of certain offences in relation to a UN worker, his official premises or place of residence or a vehicle used by him; or
- (b) in securing the apprehension, prosecution or conviction of a person for such offence, must immediately inform a police officer of this.

Clause 10 enables mutual legal assistance to be rendered to a country that is a Party to the Convention for criminal matters involving an offence in that country that corresponds to an offence against a UN worker (as defined in clause 3), and for Singapore to request for such assistance from another country for criminal matters involving certain offences in relation to a UN worker, his official premises or place of residence or a vehicle used by him.

Clause 11 deals with extradition to Singapore for offences against a UN worker (as defined in clause 3). It also deals with extradition to a country that is a Party to the Convention for an offence that corresponds to an offence against a UN worker, referred to as a relevant offence. The term “relevant offence” does not include an offence against a person who is a UN worker by virtue only of the expansion of the term “UN operation” under clause 3(3), as this is dealt with by clause 12.

Clause 11 provides that —

- (a) offences against a UN worker will be extraditable crimes;
- (b) offences of a declared Commonwealth country that correspond to relevant offences are extradition crimes in relation to that country;
- (c) where there is no extradition treaty in force between Singapore and a Convention country, a notification may be made under section 4 of the Extradition Act (Cap. 103) applying that Act as if there were an extradition treaty between them, and in that event that Act will apply to that country as if the only extradition crimes within the meaning of that Act were offences of that country that correspond to relevant offences; and
- (d) where there is an extradition treaty in force between Singapore and a Convention country but the treaty does not provide for the extradition of persons accused of or convicted of an offence of that country that corresponds to a relevant offence, a notification may be made under section 4 of the Extradition Act (Cap. 103) applying that Act as if the treaty provided for that matter, and in that event any limitation, condition, exception or qualification specified in any notification or Order in Council that prevents such offence from being considered an extradition crime will be disregarded in the application of that Act to the country.

Clause 12 deals with extradition to a country that is a Party to the Protocol for an offence against a person who is a UN worker by virtue only of the expansion of the term “UN operation” under clause 3(3). The clause contains similar terms to clause 11(2) to (9).

Clause 13 provides that no prosecution under the Bill may be instituted except by or with the consent of the Public Prosecutor.

Clause 14 enables the Minister to amend the Schedules to give effect to the Convention or Protocol.

EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY

This Bill will not involve the Government in any extra financial expenditure.
