EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to amend the Moneylenders Act (Cap. 188) for the following main purposes:

- (a) to add a new activity constituting the offence of assisting an unlicensed moneylender;
- (b) to amend the power to require information and documents; and
- (c) to provide that the Registrar of Moneylenders (the Registrar) or an authorised officer may be assisted by other persons when exercising certain monitoring powers under section 25(1).

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

Clause 2(a) amends section 10(1) to replace the word “commence” with “carry on”, so as to impose a duty on an applicant for a moneylending licence or a licensee who intends to carry on the business of moneylending at any new place of business, to apply to the Registrar for approval of such place of business before commencing the business of moneylending at such place.

Clause 2(b) amends section 10(13)(a) to replace the word “commences” with “carries on”, so as to make it an offence for a licensee to carry on the business of moneylending at a place of business without the Registrar's approval, regardless of when it commenced.

Clause 2(c) makes a corresponding amendment to section 10(13)(b).

Clause 3(a) makes a technical amendment to section 14(3A).

Clause 3(c) inserts an additional paragraph (g) in section 14(3A) to make it an offence of assisting an unlicensed moneylender to refer a potential borrower to an unlicensed moneylender, intending to facilitate or knowing it to be likely to facilitate the lending of money by the unlicensed moneylender to the potential borrower.

Clause 4(a) amends section 25(1)(b) to provide that the moneylender or any other person may be required at any time to furnish any information, book, record or other document either forthwith or at such other time and place and in such manner as the Registrar or the authorised officer may require. Clause 4(c) makes a corresponding amendment to section 25(2)(b).

Clause 4(b) inserts a new section 25(1A) to provide that the Registrar or an authorised officer may be assisted by any other person or persons when exercising the powers under section 25(1)(a), (b), (c) or (d). The new section 25(1A) will enable the Registrar or authorised officer to bring additional manpower (which may be private persons such as auxiliary police officers or auditors) to assist in inspecting premises, books, records and other documents, in requiring the moneylender or any other person to furnish any information, book, record or other document, in making copies of any book, record or other document inspected or produced, and in taking photographs or video recording of the premises inspected. Such assisting persons are not conferred the powers referred to in section 25(1)(a), (b), (c) or (d), but merely assist the Registrar or authorised officer when the Registrar or authorised officer exercises those powers.

EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY

This Bill will not involve the Government in any extra financial expenditure.
