(2) A reference in these Regulations to an approving authority is a reference to such person as the Minister may appoint for the purposes of the provision in which that reference appears.

Application

3. These Regulations apply to every financial sector incentive company that is approved as such, or has the period of its approval extended, on or after 1 June 2017.

Financial sector incentive companies

4.—(1) For the purposes of section 43Q of the Act and these Regulations, a financial sector incentive company may be approved as one of the following:

- (a) a financial sector incentive (capital market) company;
- (b) a financial sector incentive (credit facilities syndication) company;
- (c) a financial sector incentive (derivatives market) company;
- (d) a financial sector incentive (fund management) company;
- (e) a financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company;
- (f) a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company.

(2) A company must not be approved as a financial sector incentive company if the company —

- (a) is not licensed or approved by the Monetary Authority of Singapore, or is exempt from such licensing or approval, under any Act; and
- (b) provides treasury, investment or financial services in Singapore for any of its offices or its associated companies.

(3) Despite paragraph (2), a company may be approved as a financial sector (fund management) company if —

- (a) the company is exempt from holding a capital markets services licence for fund management under the Securities and Futures Act (Cap. 289); and
- (b) the company provides treasury, investment or financial services in Singapore for any of its offices or its associated companies.

(4) Despite paragraph (2), a company may be approved as a financial sector (headquarter services) company if —

- (a) the company provides treasury, investment or financial services in Singapore for any of its offices or its associated companies; and
- (b) the company —
 - (i) directly or indirectly wholly owns, or is directly or indirectly wholly-owned by, another company in Singapore that is licensed or approved by the Monetary Authority of Singapore under any written law administered by the Monetary Authority of Singapore; or
 - (ii) directly or indirectly wholly owns, or is directly or indirectly wholly-owned by, another company outside Singapore that is licensed or approved under any written law administered by the financial supervisory authority of the other company.

(5) Subject to paragraph (7), the Minister or approving authority may, subject to such conditions as the Minister or approving authority may impose, approve a company as a financial sector incentive company for a period of 5 years.

(6) Subject to paragraph (7), the Minister or approving authority may, subject to such conditions as the Minister or approving authority may impose, extend the approval granted before 1 June 2017 of a company as a financial sector incentive company, for a period of 5 years.

(7) No approval or extension of any approval may be given or made on or after 1 January 2019.

12% tax payable on qualifying income of financial sector incentive (standard tier) company

5.—(1) Tax is payable at the rate of 12% on the following income of a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company:

- (a) income from any of the activities specified in the First Schedule;

- (b) interest from any deposit held by the company as a corporate futures member as a margin for any transaction in relation to any activity mentioned in paragraph 1(e), (g) or (h) of the First Schedule.

(2) Unless the Minister or approving authority otherwise determines, paragraph (1) does not apply to the following income in the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (3):

- (a) any interest derived from qualifying debt securities issued during the period from 10 May 1999 to 31 December 2018 (both dates inclusive);
- (b) any discount from qualifying debt securities issued during the period from 17 February 2006 to 31 December 2018 (both dates inclusive);
- (c) any amount payable from Islamic debt securities which are qualifying debt securities, and issued during the period from 1 January 2005 to 31 December 2018 (both dates inclusive);
- (d) any prepayment fee, redemption premium or break cost from qualifying debt securities issued during the period from 15 February 2007 to 31 December 2018 (both dates inclusive).

(3) The circumstances mentioned in paragraph (2) are —

- (a) 50% or more of those securities which are outstanding at any time during the life of the issue is beneficially held or funded, directly or indirectly, by related parties of the issuer of those securities; and
- (b) either —
- (i) the financial sector incentive (standard tier) company is a related party of the issuer of those securities; or
 - (ii) the funds used by the financial sector incentive (standard tier) company to acquire those securities are obtained, directly or indirectly, from any related party of the issuer of those securities.

(4) Paragraph (1) does not apply to any income derived by a financial sector incentive (standard tier) company from any qualifying debt securities issued during the applicable period mentioned in paragraph (2), if the issuer of such securities, or such other person as the Monetary Authority of Singapore may direct, has not furnished to the Monetary Authority of Singapore in respect of the issue of those securities —

- (a) a return on those securities within such period as the Monetary Authority of Singapore may specify; and
- (b) such other particulars in connection with those securities as the Monetary Authority of Singapore may require.

(5) In this regulation, “break cost”, “prepayment fee”, “redemption premium” and “related party” have the same meanings as in section 13(16) of the Act.

10% tax payable on qualifying income of financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company

6.—(1) Tax is payable at the rate of 10% on the income of a financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company derived from the provision of any of the following services, to any approved office of the financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company or any approved person:

- (a) general management, risk management and administration;
- (b) strategic business planning and strategic business development;
- (c) operational processing services;
- (d) information technology support and technical services;
- (e) training and personnel management;
- (f) corporate finance advisory services;
- (g) economic, financial, investment or market research and analysis;
- (h) credit control and administration;

- (i) arranging credit facilities for the approved office where the funds for providing the facilities are obtained from —
 - (i) financial institutions in Singapore; or
 - (ii) the accumulated profits of other approved offices;
 - (j) providing guarantees, performance bonds, standby letters of credit and services relating to remittances where —
 - (i) in the case of a guarantee, performance bond or standby letter of credit, the party in whose favour the facility is issued; and is a financial institution;

 - (k) arranging interest rate or currency swaps with a financial institution;
 - (l) managing the funds of the approved office.

(2) Tax is payable at the rate of 10% on the income of a financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company derived from the provision of any prescribed processing services in Singapore to any financial institution or another financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company.

(3) In this regulation —

“approved office”, in relation to a financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company, means an office or associated company of the financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company, whether in or outside Singapore, that is approved by the Minister or approving authority;

“approved person”, in relation to a financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company, means a person, whether in or outside Singapore, that is not an approved office of the financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company, and that is approved by the Minister or approving authority for the purposes of this regulation;

“associated company”, in relation to a financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company, means a company —

- (a) the operations of which are or can be controlled, directly or indirectly, by that financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company;
- (b) that controls or can control, directly or indirectly, the operations of that financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company; or
- (c) the operations of which are or can be controlled, directly or indirectly, by a person or persons that control or can control, directly or indirectly, the operations of that financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company;

“financial institution” means —

- (a) any institution in Singapore that is licensed or approved by the Monetary Authority of Singapore, or exempt from such licensing or approval, under any written law administered by the Monetary Authority of Singapore; or
- (b) any institution outside Singapore that is licensed or approved, or exempt from such licensing or approval, by its financial supervisory authority for the carrying on of financial activities;

“prescribed processing services” means any of the services specified in the Second Schedule.

(4) For the purpose of the definition of “associated company” in paragraph (3) —

- (a) a company is treated as controlling, directly or indirectly, the operations of a financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company if the company beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, at least 25% of the total number of the issued shares of the financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company; and

- (b) a financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company is treated as controlling, directly or indirectly, the operations of another company if the financial sector incentive (headquarter services) company beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, at least 25% of the total number of the issued shares of that company.

10% tax payable on qualifying income of financial sector incentive (fund management) company

7. Tax is payable at the rate of 10% on the income of a financial sector incentive (fund management) company derived from the following activities:

- (a) managing the funds of the following persons:
- (i) a prescribed person;
 - (ii) an approved company;
 - (iii) an approved person;
 - (iv) the approved master fund or an approved feeder fund of an approved master-feeder fund structure;
 - (v) the approved master fund, an approved feeder fund, an approved 1st tier SPV or an approved 2nd tier SPV of an approved master-feeder fund-SPV structure;
 - (vi) the approved master fund, an approved 1st tier SPV or an approved 2nd tier SPV of an approved master fund-SPV structure;
- (b) providing investment advisory services (including through another fund manager) to the following persons:
- (i) a prescribed person;
 - (ii) an approved company;
 - (iii) an approved person;
 - (iv) the approved master fund or an approved feeder fund of an approved master-feeder fund structure;

- (v) the approved master fund, an approved feeder fund, an approved 1st tier SPV or an approved 2nd tier SPV of an approved master-feeder fund-SPV structure;
- (vi) the approved master fund, an approved 1st tier SPV or an approved 2nd tier SPV of an approved master fund-SPV structure.

5% tax payable on qualifying income of financial sector incentive company

8.—(1) Tax is payable at the rate of 5% on the income derived by a financial sector incentive (credit facilities syndication) company from the following activities:

- (a) arranging, underwriting, or granting loans under, a syndicated facility that is a credit facility or a guarantee facility, if —
 - (i) the agreement for the facility is made on or after 1 January 2004; and
 - (ii) the conditions in the Third Schedule are satisfied;
- (b) if the financial sector incentive (credit facilities syndication) company is a bank licensed under the Banking Act (Cap. 19) or a merchant bank approved under section 28 of the Monetary Authority of Singapore Act (Cap. 186), trading in secondary loans under a syndicated facility that is a credit facility or a guarantee facility, if —
 - (i) the agreement for the facility is made on or after 1 January 2004; and
 - (ii) the conditions in the Third Schedule are satisfied;
- (c) arranging, underwriting or granting a loan, after the loan has become a syndicated facility, if —
 - (i) at the time of signing of the initial loan agreement, there exists a clear intention by the arranger, underwriter or agent bank of the loan to syndicate the loan as a syndicated facility within 6 months from the date of the signing of that agreement;

- (ii) the loan agreement becomes an agreement for a syndicated facility on or after 1 May 2009; and
 - (iii) the conditions in the Third Schedule are satisfied;
- (d) providing project finance advisory services in connection with a syndicated facility relating to any prescribed asset or project.

(2) Tax is payable at the rate of 5% on the income derived by a financial sector incentive (capital market) company from the following activities:

- (a) trading or investing in, or providing services (including services as a broker, nominee or custodian, and the grant of a loan of the securities under a securities lending or repurchase arrangement) in respect of —
 - (i) debt securities; or
 - (ii) stocks, shares, or other equity securities issued by a company, a collective investment scheme or a business trust;
- (b) providing services for the purpose of a listing on the Singapore Exchange to a company.

(3) Tax is payable at the rate of 5% on the income derived by a financial sector incentive (derivatives market) company from the following activities:

- (a) trading in, or providing services as an intermediary in connection with transactions relating to financial derivatives, commodity derivatives, emission derivatives or freight derivatives;
 - (b) incidental physical trading, but subject to paragraph (6).
- (4) Paragraph (1)(a) does not apply to any income derived from —
- (a) the holding of any bonds, notes, certificates of deposit or other instruments of indebtedness (not being an agreement for a loan or advance, guarantee or letter of credit) as a result of arranging, underwriting, or granting loans under, a syndicated facility; or

- (b) the sale of such bonds, notes, certificates of deposit or other instruments of indebtedness (not being an agreement for a loan or advance, guarantee or letter of credit).

(5) Paragraph (1)(c) does not apply if the financial sector incentive (credit facilities syndication) company fails to syndicate the facility as a syndicated facility within 6 months from the date of the signing of the initial loan agreement.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b), where, in a relevant year of assessment, the volume of the incidental physical trading of the financial sector incentive (derivatives market) company exceeds 15% of the total volume of its incidental physical trading and trading in commodity derivatives, whether transacted over-the-counter or on an exchange, the concessionary rate of tax only applies to a portion of the income derived from the incidental physical trading that is calculated in accordance with the formula $\frac{A}{B} \times C$, where —

- (a) A is 15% of the total volume of incidental physical trading and trading in commodity derivatives (whether transacted over-the-counter or on an exchange) in that year of assessment;
- (b) B is the total volume of all incidental physical trading in that year of assessment; and
- (c) C is the total income derived from all incidental physical trading in that year of assessment.

Determination of income chargeable with tax

9. Subject to regulation 10, for the purposes of regulations 5 to 8, the Comptroller must determine —

- (a) the chargeable income of the financial sector incentive company having regard to such expenses, capital allowances and donations allowable under the Act as are, in the Comptroller's opinion, to be deducted in ascertaining such income; and

- (b) the manner and extent to which any loss arising from the activities specified in those regulations may be deducted under the Act in ascertaining the chargeable income of the company.

Deduction, etc., where activity subject to 2 concessionary tax rates

10.—(1) This regulation applies where income of a financial sector incentive company from an activity is subject to 2 different concessionary rates of tax under these Regulations for the same period (called in this regulation the common period), and either —

- (a) the income from that activity for a part of the common period has been charged to tax at one of those rates; or
- (b) the capital allowance, losses or donations that are attributable or apportioned to that activity have been deducted against income of the company —
 - (i) derived during a part of the common period; and
 - (ii) that has been charged to tax under these Regulations at one of those rates.

(2) In ascertaining the income of the company under regulation 9 for any remaining part of the common period (called in this regulation the remaining period) —

- (a) any expenses, capital allowances, losses and donations that are attributable or apportioned to that activity, and that are allowable under the Act against income in the remaining period, may only be deducted against income of the company in the remaining period that is subject to the rate at which the income mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) has been charged to tax (called in this regulation the initial rate); but
- (b) any part of those expenses, capital allowances, losses and donations that remain unabsorbed are considered unabsorbed capital allowances, losses and donations in respect of the company's income that is subject to the initial rate, and may be deducted against any other income of the company in the remaining period and in accordance with section 37B of the Act (if applicable).

(3) The deduction of unabsorbed capital allowances, losses and donations under paragraph (2)(b) against other income of the company is subject to the conditions by which unabsorbed capital allowances, losses and donations may be carried forward for deduction against income under sections 23 and 37 of the Act (if applicable).

(4) Despite anything in these Regulations, in a case mentioned in paragraph (1)(b), tax is payable at the initial rate on the income of the company derived from that activity for the remaining period, and not at the other concessionary rate of tax mentioned in paragraph (1).

Financial sector incentive company to maintain records

11. A financial sector incentive company must keep and maintain such records, as may be required by the Minister or approving authority for the purposes of these Regulations, of the particulars of every settlor and every beneficiary or unit holder, as the case may be, of every trust in respect of which it provides its services.

 - (ii) such other information or particulars as may be required by the Comptroller.
2. The conditions for the purpose of regulation 8(1)(c) are as follows:
 - (a) at the time of the signing of the initial agreement for the facility, the arranger, underwriter or agent bank of the facility intends to syndicate the loan facility as a syndicated facility within the meaning of paragraph 3 within 6 months from the date of the signing of that agreement;
 - (b) all the lenders in the syndicated facility are reflected as lenders of records in the records of the arrangers or agent bank;

- (c) the syndication work in respect of the facility will be and is carried out substantially in Singapore, as determined in accordance with paragraph 4;
- (d) the agent bank of the facility submits to the Comptroller within such time and in such form as may be specified by the Comptroller —
 - (i) a return on the facility and a declaration from the arrangers of the facility that the facility is a syndicated facility; and
 - (ii) such other information or particulars as may be required by the Comptroller.

3. A facility is treated as a syndicated facility if the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) the total amount of the facility is at least US$20 million or the equivalent in another currency;
- (b) the facility is documented as one agreement;
- (c) either —
 - (i) the facility has at least 3 lenders and, where there are fewer than 5 lenders, each lender has a share of at least 10% of the total amount of the facility; or
 - (ii) in the case of a facility that provides a guarantee or letter of credit in addition to the provision of loans, advances or funds —
 - (A) the facility complies with sub-paragraph (i); or
 - (B) there are at least 3 issuers of the guarantee or letter of credit and, where there are fewer than 5 issuers, each issuer's undertaking represents at least 10% of the total amount of the facility;
- (d) the funds of the facility have not been, and are not intended to be used to finance or refinance previous borrowings used to finance immovable properties (other than a prescribed asset or project).

4. The syndication work in respect of a facility is treated as being carried out substantially in Singapore if all of the following functions are carried out by a bank licensed under the Banking Act (Cap. 19), a merchant bank approved under section 28 of the Monetary Authority of Singapore Act (Cap. 186), or a financial sector incentive (credit facilities syndication) company holding a capital markets services licence under the Securities and Futures Act (Cap. 289) to deal in securities, or that is exempt under that Act from holding such a licence:

- (a) originating and structuring of the facility;

- (b) running the book;
- (c) facility documentation;
- (d) facility agency.
