“(m) without limiting sub-paragraph (h),
when —

- (i) the individual or child is filming or taking a photograph of or comprising his or her face, whether alone or with others; or

Examples

An individual in the Flower Dome at Gardens by the Bay removes her mask to take a selfie with some flowering plants in the background.

A member of a tour group in an art museum requests a passing visitor to take a photograph of the group using the member’s camera. All members of the tour group moving closer for the photograph to be taken are inferred by that conduct to be expressing consent, and each may remove his or her mask for that photograph to be taken.

A delegate attending a conference in an indoor convention centre cannot unmask if a recording is made of the conference proceedings and audience participation at the conference.

A customer at a retail shop with signage at its entrance about the presence of CCTV surveillance within the shop, cannot unmask only because his or her face will be photographed or filmed by the surveillance or monitoring equipment.”.
