Division 3 — Procedures for appeals

No new ground of appeal or defence

16. Except with the consent of the appeal authority and on any terms and conditions determined by the appeal authority —

- (a) the appellant may not raise or rely on any new ground of appeal not stated in the appellant’s notice of appeal; and
- (b) the Agency may not raise or rely on any new ground of defence not stated in the Agency’s defence.

Directions

17.—(1) The appeal authority may at any time give directions to secure the just, expeditious and economical conduct of the appeal proceedings and the determination of the appeal.

(2) Without affecting paragraph (1), the directions may relate to one or more of the following:

- (a) the manner in which the appeal proceedings are to be conducted (including any case management conference and any hearing), whether by using any remote communication technology or otherwise;
- (b) the orders sought by the parties, their arguments in the appeal and the points at issue between them that require clarification;
- (c) the points on which the parties have to present further arguments;

- (a) where a party to the appeal provided the document or information, to the other party to the appeal proceedings; and

(b) where a person other than a party to the appeal provided the document or information, to the parties to the appeal, and invite the other party or parties (as the case may be) to make submissions on the document or information.

(4) A case management conference mentioned in paragraph (2)(a) must be held in camera.

(5) A case management conference mentioned in paragraph (2)(a) that is held by an Appeal Panel need not be attended by the Appeal Panel in full, but by the Presiding Member alone.

Consolidation

18.—(1) Where 2 or more appeals are pending in relation to the same decision of the Agency, or involve the same or similar issues, the appeal authority may at any time, on the request of a party to any of the appeals or on the appeal authority's own initiative, direct that the appeals or any particular issue or matter raised in the appeals be consolidated, and be heard and decided or determined together.

(2) All the parties to the appeals are entitled to make their submissions on the proposed consolidation before a direction under paragraph (1) is made.

Requests for confidential treatment

19.—(1) A request for the confidential treatment of a document or part of a document, or information, submitted in connection with any appeal before the appeal authority must —

- (a) be made in writing by the person who submitted the document or information no later than 14 days after the submission of the document or information;
- (b) where the request relates to part of a document, state the relevant words, figures or passages for which confidentiality is claimed; and
- (c) contain the reasons for the request, and where the request relates to part of a document, the reasons specific to the part.

(2) The person making the request must also submit to the appeal authority, if the person considers it possible to summarise or redact the material in the document or part of the document, or information, a non-confidential version of the document, the part of the document or the information (as the case may be) in a form that can be given to any party to the appeal.

(3) A request for confidential treatment must not be considered if the request does not comply with paragraph (1), unless the appeal authority considers that the circumstances are exceptional.

(4) The appeal authority may grant confidential treatment in relation to any document or part of the document, or information, on any terms and conditions that the appeal authority thinks fit (including changes to the summary or redacting of material in any non-confidential version under paragraph (2)), if the appeal authority is satisfied that the document, the part of the document or the information (as the case may be) contains or is, in the appeal authority's opinion —

- (a) information the disclosure of which would be contrary to the public interest;
- (b) commercial information the disclosure of which may significantly harm the legitimate business interests of the undertaking to which it relates; or
- (c) information relating to the private affairs of an individual the disclosure of which would or may significantly harm the interests of that individual.

(5) In the event of a dispute as to whether confidential treatment should be granted, the appeal authority must decide the matter after considering oral or written submissions from the parties to the appeal, taking into account the matters referred to in paragraph (4).

(6) If the appeal authority grants the confidential treatment, the person making the request for the confidential treatment must, no later than 5 days after the appeal authority's decision —

- (a) in the case where the grant is subject to changes to any non-confidential version submitted under paragraph (2) —

- (i) make the necessary changes or redactions; and
 - (ii) send the revised non-confidential version to the Secretary or the Registrar, as the case may be; and
- (b) in any other case, send to the Secretary or the Registrar (as the case may be) the non-confidential version submitted under paragraph (2), if any,

and notify the Secretary or the Registrar that the document, or part of the document, or information has been summarised or redacted.

(7) The appeal authority must not, for the purposes of considering or determining the appeal, rely on any document, or part of a document, or information to which confidential treatment is granted, but may rely on the non-confidential version filed (if any) under paragraph (2) or (6)(a), as the case may be.

Hearing of appeals

20.—(1) On the direction of the appeal authority, the Secretary or the Registrar (as the case may be) must fix a date and time for the hearing of the appeal, and the manner in which the hearing is to be conducted (as directed by the appeal authority), and must give 14 days' notice of those matters to the parties to the appeal.

(2) The parties must attend, whether or not by the authorised representative of the parties, at the date and time and in the manner so fixed.

(3) If it is proved to the satisfaction of the appeal authority that, owing to absence, sickness or other reasonable cause, any person is prevented from so attending, the appeal authority may postpone the hearing of the appeal for any reasonable time that the appeal authority thinks necessary.

(4) Where the appeal authority is an Appeal Panel, the Presiding Member presides at each hearing of the appeal being determined by the Appeal Panel.

(5) The onus of proving that any ground of appeal is justified is on the appellant.

(6) Nothing in this regulation requires the Minister as the appeal authority, if the Minister considers appropriate, from deciding an appeal based on written or documentary evidence provided or produced to the Minister without holding any hearing of the appeal.

Hearing of appeal in absence of member of Appeal Panel

21.—(1) Despite anything in this Part, if, in the course of any appeal proceedings, or (in the case of a reserved judgment in any appeal) at any time before delivery of the judgment, any member of an Appeal Panel established to consider and determine the appeal resigns or is unable, through illness or any other cause, to continue to consider or to determine the appeal, the remaining members of the Appeal Panel (if 2 or more) must consider and determine the appeal unless the parties to the appeal object.

(2) In paragraph (1), the Appeal Panel remains duly constituted for the purposes of the appeal despite the resignation of a member of the Appeal Panel or the inability of a member to act.

(3) In a case under paragraph (1) —

(a) where there are more than 2 members of the Appeal Panel remaining, the appeal is decided in accordance with the decision of the majority of the remaining members of the Appeal Panel and, if there is an equality of votes, the Presiding Member has a second or casting vote; or

(b) where there are only 2 members of the Appeal Panel remaining, the appeal is decided in accordance with the unanimous decision of both members.

(4) The appeal must be reheard —

(a) if the parties do not consent to the appeal proceedings continuing before the remaining members of the Appeal Panel under paragraph (1); or

(b) if the appeal is to be considered or determined by only 2 remaining members of the Appeal Panel and they are unable to reach a unanimous decision.

Adjournments

22.—(1) The appeal authority may adjourn any hearing of an appeal on any ground in the appeal authority’s discretion and may fix a date for a further hearing.

(2) The appeal authority may, on the conclusion of the hearing of an appeal, adjourn for any period for the purpose of considering the appeal.

Hearings to be in camera

23.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), all matters in any appeal proceedings must be heard by the appeal authority in camera.

(2) Where the appeal authority is an Appeal Panel and either of the parties to the appeal applies to the Appeal Panel for any matter in the appeal proceedings to be heard by way of a hearing open to the public, the Appeal Panel may direct that the matter to be so heard, even if the other party objects.

(3) Where the Appeal Panel is of the opinion that any appeal proceedings heard in camera ought to be reported, the Appeal Panel may publish or authorise the publication of the facts of the case, the arguments and the decision relating to the appeal without disclosing the name of the appellant concerned.

(4) Where the Minister is of the opinion that any appeal considered and determined by the Minister ought to be reported, the Minister may publish or authorise the publication of the facts of the case, the arguments and the decision relating to the appeal without disclosing the name of the appellant concerned.

Notification of decision on appeal

24.—(1) Upon making its determination in accordance with section 36(2) of the Act, the appeal authority must notify the parties to the appeal of the determination and, for this purpose, instruct the Secretary or the Registrar (as the case may be) to give to the parties a copy of the written determination which is duly signed by the appeal authority.

(2) In addition to paragraph (1), where the appeal authority is an Appeal Panel, the appeal authority may also deliver its determination orally to the parties in its entirety or as a summary, before the Secretary or the Registrar (as the case may be) provides the parties with a copy of the written determination.

(3) For the purpose of paragraph (2), the Presiding Member must make the oral delivery and it is not necessary for the members of the Appeal Panel to reassemble merely for the oral delivery.

(4) Where the Appeal Panel's decision is the decision of a majority, that fact must be stated.

Costs

25. An Appeal Panel may award any costs of or incidental to any appeal proceedings before it, and award any expenses including any allowances payable to persons in connection with their attendance before the Appeal Panel.

Irregularities

26.—(1) Any irregularity resulting from a failure to comply with any provision of these Regulations before the appeal authority has reached a determination of the appeal does not of itself render the proceedings void.

(2) Where any such irregularity comes to the attention of the appeal authority, the appeal authority —

(a) must, if the appeal authority considers that any person may have been prejudiced by the irregularity, give directions to cure or waive the irregularity before reaching a determination on the appeal; and

(b) may, in any other case, give directions to cure or waive the irregularity before reaching a determination on the appeal.

(3) The following may be corrected at any time by the Minister, or the Presiding Member (as the case may be), by certificate under his or her hand:

- (a) clerical mistakes in any document recording a direction, an order or a decision (including a determination) of the Minister or the Appeal Panel, or any proceedings under these Regulations;
 - (b) errors arising in such a document from an accidental slip or omission.

PART 3

APPEAL PANEL

Establishment of Appeal Panel

27.—(1) Where the Minister considers that an appeal ought to be considered and determined by an Appeal Panel, the Minister must instruct the Secretary to notify the parties of the Minister’s decision and of the proposed composition of the Appeal Panel.

(2) The Minister must not appoint any member, employee or officer of the Agency as a member of an Appeal Panel.

(3) The parties may submit to the Secretary within 14 days after receipt of the notification mentioned in paragraph (1) —

- (a) the name of any proposed member of the Appeal Panel to whom the appellant or the Agency objects; and
- (b) the reason for such objection.

(4) The Minister must determine whether any reason for any objection to any proposed member under paragraph (3) is valid.

(5) Where the Minister determines under paragraph (4) that any reason for any objection in relation to a proposed member of the Appeal Panel is valid, the Minister may —

- (a) propose another member to the Appeal Panel; or
- (b) establish the Appeal Panel without the proposed member objected to, if there are at least 3 other individuals that are able to comprise the Appeal Panel.

(6) To avoid doubt, paragraphs (2) to (5) apply to a proposed member under paragraph (5)(a).

(7) Where the Minister determines under paragraph (4) that the reason for any objection is not valid, the Minister may reject that objection and inform the appellant and the Agency accordingly.

(8) The Minister's decision in accepting or rejecting any objection is final.

Conflict of interests

28.—(1) If an individual who is proposed to be appointed as a member of an Appeal Panel to hear an appeal, or is a member of an Appeal Panel, has or acquires an interest, direct or indirect, in the appeal or any other matter relating to the appeal, the individual must —

- (a) within 48 hours after receiving notice of his or her appointment as a member of an Appeal Panel or becoming aware of the interest (as the case may be), declare to the Minister the nature, character and extent of the interest; and
- (b) immediately refrain from, or cease, taking part in the consideration or discussion of, or voting on any question with respect to, that appeal or other matter.

(2) Upon receiving any declaration under paragraph (1)(a), the Minister may —

- (a) appoint another individual to be a member of the Appeal Panel in substitution of the individual mentioned in paragraph (1); or
- (b) establish the Appeal Panel or allow the Appeal Panel to continue (as the case may be) without the individual mentioned in paragraph (1), if there are at least 3 other individuals remaining to comprise the Appeal Panel.

(3) The Minister must notify the parties and the Appeal Panel whether the Minister proposes to proceed under paragraph (2)(a) or (b).

(4) Where the Minister proposes to proceed under paragraph (2)(a), regulation 27(2) to (5) applies with the necessary modifications in relation to the individual proposed to be appointed in substitution, as it applies in relation to a proposed member under that regulation.

(5) An individual is regarded as having an interest in an appeal or other matter relating to an appeal if —

- (a) the individual holds any office or possesses any property where, directly or indirectly, duties or interests conflict with or might be created in conflict with the individual's duties or interests as a member of the Appeal Panel in relation to the consideration of the appeal or matter;
- (b) the individual has a direct or indirect interest in a contract or proposed contract with any party to the appeal or concerning any matter relating to the appeal and the interest conflicts with or could conflict with the proper performance of the individual's duties or interests as a member of the Appeal Panel in relation to the consideration of the appeal or matter; or
- (c) any of the individual's immediate family members —
 - (i) holds any office or possesses any property where, directly or indirectly, duties or interests conflict with or might be created in conflict with the individual's duties or interests as a member of the Appeal Panel in relation to the consideration of the appeal or matter; or
 - (ii) has a direct or indirect interest in a contract or proposed contract with any party to the appeal or concerning any matter relating to the appeal and the interest conflicts with or could conflict with the proper performance of the individual's duties or interests as a member of the Appeal Panel in relation to the consideration of the appeal or matter.
