17.—(1) In this Order, the “Historical Base Value as in 2003” of any land means the higher of the value of the following developments on the land calculated using the 2003 DC rules as modified by sub-paragraph (2):

- (a) any development for which that land was allocated in the 1958 Master Plan (which the 2003 DC Rules term as the development referred to in section 36(1)(a) of the 2003 Planning Act);
- (b) any development for which that land was allocated in the 1982 Master Plan (which the 2003 DC Rules term as the development referred to in section 36(1)(b) of the 2003 Planning Act).

(2) In determining the Historical Base Value as in 2003 of any land —

- (a) where the value of such development on the land as is referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(a) or (b) cannot be ascertained, the Historical Base Value as in 2003 of the land has then to be determined without reference to that development; and
- (b) where no maximum permissible plot ratio was prescribed in the 1958 Master Plan or 1982 Master Plan for the land zoned for any purpose, the plot ratio specified in the Second Schedule opposite the purpose for which the land was zoned in the 1958 Master Plan or 1982 Master Plan (as the case may be) must apply, provided that the land is not being used as a golf course as at the date of an application for written permission for the development of the land mentioned in paragraph 16(1).

Historical Base Value

18. In this Order, the “Historical Base Value” of any land which is the subject of a chargeable consent for a development means —

- (a) if the Historical Base Value as in 2003 of the land is the development for which that land was allocated in the 1958 Master Plan, the value of that development worked out according to paragraph 17; or
- (b) if the Historical Base Value as in 2003 of the land is the development for which that land was allocated in the 1982 Master Plan, the value of that development worked out according to paragraph 17, which value must then be adjusted using the rate and the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the prevailing Table of Rates Regulations instead of the rate and the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules.

Determining 2003 Master Plan Value as in 2003 generally

19.—(1) Except where otherwise provided in this paragraph or paragraph 20, 21 or 22, the 2003 Master Plan Value as in 2003 of any land must be worked out according to the formula

$$J \times K,$$

- (a) J is the floor area of the development of the land which may be permitted to be used for a purpose for which the land is zoned in the 2003 Master Plan; and
- (b) K is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules which corresponds to both —
  - (i) the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules; and
  - (ii) the Use Group as specified in the Third Schedule within which falls the purpose for which the land was zoned in the 2003 Master Plan.

(2) Where the 2003 Master Plan does not prescribe a maximum permissible plot ratio for the land and the land is within a Landed Housing Area or any of the conservation areas set out in the Fourth Schedule, the value of “J” in the formula in sub-paragraph (1) must be determined using the plot ratio specified in the Fourth Schedule in relation to the land.

(3) For the purpose of determining the value of “K” in sub-paragraph (1), the Use Group in Part II of the First Schedule to the 2003 DC Rules is deemed to refer to the particular Use Group specified in the Third Schedule within which falls the purpose for which the land was zoned in the 2003 Master Plan, and not a Use Group in Part I of the First Schedule to the 2003 DC Rules.

2003 Master Plan Value as in 2003 for land zoned for certain purposes

20.—(1) Where the land is zoned in the 2003 Master Plan for Commercial and Residential purpose, the 2003 Master Plan Value as in 2003 of the land must be worked out according to the formula

$$(0.4M_1 \times K_1 + 0.6M_1 \times K_2),$$

where —

- (a)  $M_1$  is the floor area of the development of the land which may be permitted to be used for Commercial and Residential purpose in the 2003 Master Plan;
- (b)  $K_1$  is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules corresponding to both the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules and Use Group A in the Third Schedule; and
- (c)  $K_2$  is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules corresponding to both the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules and Use Group B2 in the Third Schedule.

(2) Where the land is zoned in the 2003 Master Plan for the purpose of Hotel, the 2003 Master Plan Value as in 2003 of the land must be worked out according to the formula

$$(0.4M_2 \times K_1 + 0.6M_2 \times K_3),$$

where —

- (a)  $M_2$  is the floor area of the development of the land which may be permitted to be used for purpose of Hotel in the 2003 Master Plan;
- (b)  $K_1$  is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules corresponding to both the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules and Use Group A in the Third Schedule; and
- (c)  $K_3$  is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules corresponding to both the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules and Use Group C in the Third Schedule.

(3) Where the land is zoned in the 2003 Master Plan for the purpose of Business Park, the 2003 Master Plan Value as in 2003 of the land must be worked out according to the formula

$$(0.15M_3 \times K_1 + 0.85M_3 \times K_4),$$

where —

- (a)  $M_3$  is the floor area of the development of the land which may be permitted to be used for purpose of Business Park in the 2003 Master Plan;
- (b)  $K_1$  is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules corresponding to both the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules and Use Group A in the Third Schedule; and
- (c)  $K_4$  is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules corresponding to both the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules and Use Group D in the Third Schedule.

(4) Where the land is zoned in the 2003 Master Plan for the purpose of Business 1-White or Business 2-White with the notation “3.0[B – 2.5]W”, the 2003 Master Plan Value as in 2003 of the land must be worked out according to the formula

$$(0.167M_4 \times K_1 + 0.833M_4 \times K_4),$$

where —

- (a)  $M_4$  is the floor area of the development of the land which may be permitted to be used for purpose of Business 1-White or Business 2-White in the 2003 Master Plan;
- (b)  $K_1$  is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules corresponding to both the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules and Use Group A in the Third Schedule; and
- (c)  $K_4$  is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules corresponding to both the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules and Use Group D in the Third Schedule.

(5) Where the land is zoned in the 2003 Master Plan for the purpose of Residential with Commercial at 1st Storey Only, the 2003 Master Plan Value as in 2003 of the land must be worked out according to the formula

$$(0.20M_5 \times K_1 + 0.80M_5 \times K_2),$$

where —

- (a)  $M_5$  is the floor area of the development of the land which may be permitted to be used for purpose of Residential with Commercial at 1st Storey Only in the 2003 Master Plan;
- (b)  $K_1$  is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules corresponding to both the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules and Use Group A in the Third Schedule; and

- (c)  $K_2$  is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules corresponding to both the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules and Use Group B2 in the Third Schedule.

(6) Where the land is zoned in the 2003 Master Plan for the purpose of Transport Facilities and the authorised development of the land as at 10 December 2003 is for petrol station or petrol filling station, the 2003 Master Plan Value as in 2003 of the land must be worked out according to the formula

$$(M_6 \times K_1),$$

where —

- (a)  $M_6$  is the floor area of the development of the land which may be permitted to be used for purpose of Transport Facilities in the 2003 Master Plan; and
- (b)  $K_1$  is the rate under the 2003 DC Rules corresponding to both the appropriate geographical sector of the land under the 2003 DC Rules and Use Group A in the Third Schedule.

(7) For the purpose of determining the values of “ $K_1$ ”, “ $K_2$ ”, “ $K_3$ ” and “ $K_4$ ” in sub-paragraphs (1) to (6), the Use Group in Part II of the First Schedule to the 2003 DC Rules must be deemed to refer to the particular Use Group specified in the Third Schedule as provided in those paragraphs, and not a Use Group in Part I of the First Schedule to the 2003 DC Rules.

Special provisions for determining 2003 Master Plan Value as in 2003

21.—(1) Where the 2003 Master Plan does not prescribe a maximum permissible plot ratio for any land, and the land is within neither —

- (a) a Landed Housing Area; nor

- (b) any conservation area set out in the Fourth Schedule, the values of “J”, “ $M_1$ ”, “ $M_2$ ”, “ $M_3$ ”, “ $M_4$ ”, “ $M_5$ ” and “ $M_6$ ” in paragraphs 19 and 20, respectively, have to be determined by the Authority according to paragraph 6.3 of the written statement to the 2003 Master Plan.

(2) Where the floor area of the development of land which may be permitted by the competent authority to be used for a purpose for which the land is zoned in the 2003 Master Plan may be allowed to exceed —

- (a) the maximum permissible plot ratio prescribed in the 2003 Master Plan under paragraph 7.0 of the written statement to the 2003 Master Plan, the values of “J”, “M<sub>1</sub>”, “M<sub>2</sub>” and “M<sub>5</sub>” in paragraphs 19 and 20, respectively, include such amount of floor area as may be permitted in excess of the maximum permissible plot ratio; and
- (b) the maximum permissible plot ratio prescribed in the 2003 Master Plan under paragraph 8.0 of the written statement to the 2003 Master Plan, the values of “J”, “M<sub>1</sub>”, “M<sub>2</sub>”, “M<sub>3</sub>”, “M<sub>4</sub>”, “M<sub>5</sub>” and “M<sub>6</sub>” in paragraphs 19 and 20, respectively, must not include such amount of floor area as may be permitted in excess of the maximum permissible plot ratio.

Determining 2003 Master Plan Value of land

22. For the purpose of determining the 2003 Master Plan Value of any land which is the subject of a chargeable consent, the provisions in paragraphs 19, 20 and 21 apply subject to the following modifications:

- (a) any reference to the 2003 Master Plan Value as in 2003 of the land is instead a reference to the 2003 Master Plan Value of the land;
- (b) any reference to the 2003 DC Rules is instead a reference to the prevailing Table of Rates Regulations;
- (c) any reference to the rate and appropriate geographical sector under the 2003 DC Rules is instead a reference to the rate and appropriate geographical sector under the prevailing Table of Rates Regulations.

Withdrawal of concession for conservation area development

23. A concession under paragraph 3(1) in relation to the development of any land within a conservation area ends and is withdrawn if —

- (a) the development authorised by the conservation permission is not completed within the period of validity (including any extension thereof) of the conservation permission granted for it; or
- (b) another conservation permission is granted to develop the same land within the conservation area in a manner that is inconsistent with the conservation of the buildings on the land, and the development is carried out within the period of validity (including any extension thereof) of such permission.

Withdrawal of concession under paragraph 5

24. A concession under paragraph 5 for carrying out addition or alteration works to an existing building or buildings on any land for the purpose of converting the existing building or, where there is more than one existing building, all the existing buildings, for use as one single dwelling-house on the land ends and is withdrawn if an application for planning permission or conservation permission is made to the competent authority —

- (a) to use the resulting single dwelling-house on the land on completion of the development for any purpose other than as one single dwelling-house; or
- (b) to develop the land such that it is for a use other than as land with only one single dwelling-house on it.

Effect of withdrawal of concession

25. Upon a withdrawal of a concession under paragraph 23 or 24, the development of land for which the concession was granted must then be disregarded for the purpose of determining the Pre-chargeable Valuation of the land.
