PETITIONS

Definition

29. In this Part, "application for a judicial management order" means an application made under section 227B of the Act for an order placing a company under the judicial management of a judicial manager.

[S 861/2005 wef 01/04/2006]

Form of application for judicial management

30.—(1) Every application for a judicial management order shall be made by originating summons in Form 63A in the Second Schedule supported by an affidavit in Form 63B in the Second Schedule.

(2) The supporting affidavit —

- (a) shall be deposed to by the person making the application or, if more than one, or, in the case where the application is made by a corporation, by some director, secretary or other principal officer thereof; and
- (b) shall be filed together with the application.

[S 861/2005 wef 01/04/2006]

Filing of application for judicial management

31.—(1) An application for a judicial management order shall be filed at the office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court who shall appoint the time and place at which the application is to be heard.

(2) Notice of the time and place appointed for hearing the application shall be indicated on the originating summons and sealed copies thereof, and the Registrar of the Supreme Court may at any time before the application has been advertised, alter the time appointed and fix another time.

Notice of application for judicial management

32.—(1) Every notice of an application for a judicial management order shall be published in accordance with Form 63C in the Second Schedule, 7 clear days or such longer time as the Court may direct before the hearing, as follows:

(a) once in the Gazette and once at least in one English and one Chinese local daily newspaper or in such other newspapers as the Court may direct;

- (b) the notice shall —
- (i) state the day on which the application was filed and the name and address of the applicant and of his solicitor; and
- (ii) contain a note stating that any person who intends to appear at the hearing of the application to oppose the nomination of a judicial manager made by the company, pursuant to section 227B(3)(c) of the Act or the making of a judicial management order pursuant to section 227B(5)(b) of the Act must send notice of such intention to the applicant or to his solicitor, within the time and in the manner prescribed by regulation 33.

(2) A notice of an application for a judicial management order which does not contain the note referred to in paragraph (1)(b)(ii) shall be deemed irregular.

(3) If the applicant for a judicial management order or his solicitor does not, within the time required under paragraph (1) or within such extended time as the Registrar of the Supreme Court may allow, duly publish the notice of the application in the manner required by this regulation, the appointment of the time and place at which the application is to be heard shall be cancelled by the Registrar of the Supreme Court and the application shall be removed from the file unless the Judge or the Registrar of the Supreme Court shall otherwise direct.

(4) The notice of application together with a copy of the application and its supporting affidavit shall be filed with the Registrar in accordance with the provisions of the Companies (Filing of Documents) Regulations (Rg 7).

Service of application for judicial management

33.—(1) Every application for a judicial management order and its supporting affidavit shall, unless filed by the company, be served upon the company within 7 days of the hearing of the application at the registered office of the company, by leaving a copy thereof with any member, officer or employee of the company there, or in case no such member, officer or employee can be found there, then by leaving a copy thereof at such registered office or by serving it on such member or members of the company as the Court may direct.

(2) The affidavit of service of the application may be in accordance with Form 63D in the Second Schedule.

Copy of application and supporting affidavit to be furnished to creditor or member

34. Every member or creditor of the company shall be entitled to be furnished by the applicant or his solicitor with a copy of the application for a judicial management order and its supporting affidavit within 48 hours after requesting it, upon payment of $1 per page or part thereof for such copy.

Notice of intention to appear

35.—(1) Every person who intends to appear at the hearing of an application for a judicial management order, being a person referred to in sections 227B(3)(c) and 227B(5)(b) of the Act, shall serve on the applicant or his solicitor notice of his intention.

(2) The notice shall be signed by such person or by his solicitor and shall give the address of the person signing it and shall be served, or if sent by post shall be posted in such time as in the ordinary course of post to reach the address not later than 12 noon of the day previous to the day appointed for the hearing of the application.

(3) The notice may be in accordance with Form 63E in the Second Schedule with such variations as circumstances may require.

(4) A person who has failed to comply with this regulation shall not, without special leave of the Court, be allowed to appear at the hearing of the application.

[S 861/2005 wef 01/04/2006]

List of persons intending to appear

36.—(1) The applicant or his solicitor shall prepare a list in accordance with Form 63F in the Second Schedule of the names and addresses of the persons who have given notice of their intention to appear at the hearing of the application for a judicial management order and of their respective solicitors.

(2) On the day appointed for hearing the application, a fair copy of the list or, if no notice of intention has been given, a statement to that effect, shall be handed by the applicant or his solicitor to the Court prior to the hearing of the application.

Affidavits opposing the nomination and affidavits in reply

37.—(1) Affidavits in opposition to the making of a judicial management order or a nomination of a judicial manager made in an application for a judicial management order shall be filed and a copy thereof served on the applicant or his solicitor at least 7 days before the time appointed for the hearing of the application.

(2) Any affidavit in reply to an affidavit filed in opposition shall be filed within 3 days of the date of the service on the applicant of the affidavit in opposition and a copy thereof served on the party opposing the application for a judicial management order or his solicitor.

Attendance on Registrar of Supreme Court

38.—(1) After an application for a judicial management order has been filed, the applicant or his solicitor shall on a day to be appointed by the Registrar of the Supreme Court attend before the Registrar and satisfy him that —

- (a) the application has been duly published in the Gazette and in one English and one Chinese local daily newspaper;
- (b) the supporting affidavit and the affidavit of service, if any, have been duly filed;

	^			1 0

(2) This deposit shall be refunded to the applicant by the Court on the discharge of the judicial management order.

(3) Where an applicant has not, prior to the hearing of the application for a judicial management order, attended before the Registrar of the Supreme Court at the time appointed and satisfied the Registrar in the manner required by this regulation, no order shall be made on the application of such applicant except an order for the dismissal or adjournment of the application for a judicial management order.

[S 861/2005 wef 01/04/2006]

Substitution of any person as applicant

39.—(1) When an applicant is not entitled to make an application for a judicial management order or, whether so entitled or not, where he —

- (a) fails to take all the steps prescribed by these Regulations preliminary to the hearing of the application;
- (b) consents to withdraw his application for a judicial management order or to allow it to be dismissed or the hearing to be adjourned; or
- (c) fails to appear in support of his application for a judicial management order when it is called on in Court on the day originally fixed for the hearing thereof or on any day to which the hearing has been adjourned or if appearing does not apply for an order in terms of the relief sought in the application, the Court may, upon such terms as it thinks just, substitute as in his place as applicant any other person who, in the opinion of the Court, would have a right to make the application for a judicial management order and who is desirous of proceeding with the application.

(2) An order to substitute an applicant may, where the original applicant fails to advertise his application for a judicial management order within the time prescribed by or under these Regulations or consents to withdraw his application for a judicial management order, be made by the Registrar of the Supreme Court or the Court at any time before the date fixed for the hearing of the application.

Notice of judicial management order

40.—(1) When an order is made for the placing of a company under the judicial management of a judicial manager, the applicant shall forthwith inform the judicial manager of the making thereof in accordance with Form 63G in the Second Schedule and within 3 days of the pronouncement thereof publish in the Gazette and once at least in one English and one Chinese local daily newspaper a notice of the order in accordance with Form 63H in the Second Schedule and lodge the notice together with a copy of the order with the Registrar in accordance with the applicable regulation of the Companies (Filing of Documents) Regulations 2003 (G.N. No. S 17/2003).

Sending of copy of judicial management order

(2) Unless otherwise directed by the Court, the copy of the judicial management order required by section 227K of the Act to be sent to the company may be sent either personally or by prepaid letter addressed to the secretary thereof at the registered office of the company.

Notice at the foot of every judicial management order

(3) An order to place a company under the judicial management of a judicial manager shall contain at the foot thereof a notice stating that it will be the duty of the persons mentioned in section 227L(2) of the Act to make out the company's statement of affairs and to attend on the judicial manager at such time and place as he may appoint in accordance with Form 63I in the Second Schedule.

PROOFS

Proof of debt

41. In a judicial management every creditor shall prove his debt, unless the Judge in any particular judicial management shall give directions that any creditors or class of creditors shall be admitted without proof.

Mode of proof

42. The debt shall be proved in any judicial management by delivering or sending through the post to the judicial manager a declaration verifying the debt.

[S 314/2001 wef 01/07/2001]

Verification of proof

43. A declaration proving a debt may be made by the creditor himself or by some person authorised by or on behalf of the creditor.

Contents of proofs

44.—(1) A declaration proving a debt shall be in accordance with Form 77 in the Second Schedule.

46. [Deleted by S 314/2001 wef 01/07/2001]

Informal Consolidation – version in force from 1/7/2015 to 3/1/2016

Cost of proof

47. A creditor shall bear the cost of proving his debt unless the Court otherwise orders.

Discount

48. A creditor proving his debt shall deduct therefrom all trade discounts, but he shall not be compelled to deduct any discount, not exceeding 5% on the net amount of his claim, which he may have agreed to allow for payment in cash.

Periodical payments

49. When any rent or other payment falls due at stated periods, and the judicial management order is made at any time other than one of those periods, the persons entitled to the rent or payment may prove for a proportionate part thereof up to the date of the judicial management order as if the rent or payment grew due from day to day.

Interest

50. On any debt or sum, payable at a certain time or otherwise whereon interest is not reserved or agreed for, and which is overdue at the date of the judicial management order, the creditor may prove for interest at a rate not exceeding 6% per annum to that date from the time when the debt or sum was payable, if the debt or sum is payable by virtue of a written instrument at a certain time, and if payable otherwise, then from the time when a demand in writing has been made, giving notice that interest will be claimed from the date of the demand until the time of payment.

Statement of accounts

50A. A licensed moneylender filing a proof of debt under regulation 41 in respect of a loan made by him shall, within 14 days from the date of filing thereof, file a statement of accounts in the form specified in the First Schedule to the Moneylenders Act (Cap. 188).

[S 260/2003 wef 01/06/2003]

Proof for debt payable at a future time

51. A creditor may prove for a debt not payable at the date of the judicial management order, as if it were payable presently, and may receive dividends equally with the other creditors, deducting only thereout a rebate of interest at the rate of 6% per annum computed from the declaration of a dividend to the time when the debt would have become payable according to the terms on which it was contracted.

Workmen's wages

52.—(1) In any case in which it appears that there are numerous claims for wages by workmen and others employed by the company, it shall be sufficient if one proof in accordance with Form 77 in the Second Schedule for all such claims is made either by a foreman or by some other person or trade union recognised by the company on behalf of such creditors.

[S 314/2001 wef 01/07/2001]

(2) Such proof shall have annexed thereto as forming part thereof, a schedule setting forth the names and addresses of workmen and others, and the amounts severally due to them.

(3) Any proof made in compliance with this regulation shall have the same effect as if separate proofs had been made by each of the said workmen and others.

Production of bills of exchange and promissory notes

53. Where a creditor seeks to prove in respect of a bill of exchange, promissory note or other negotiable instrument or security on which the company is liable, such bill of exchange, promissory note, instrument or security must, subject to any special order of the Court made to the contrary, be produced to the judicial manager and be marked by him before the proof can be admitted either for voting or for any purpose.

MEETINGS OF CREDITORS IN RELATION TO A JUDICIAL MANAGEMENT

Creditors' meeting under section 227N(1)

54. The meeting of creditors under section 227N(1) of the Act (referred to in these Regulation as the first meeting of creditors) shall be held within 60 days after the date of the judicial management order or within such further time as the Court may approve.

Notice of first meetings

55. The judicial manager shall give notice of the date fixed by him for the first meeting of creditors by advertisement in the Gazette and in one English and one Chinese local daily newspaper.

Summoning of first meetings

56. The first meetings of creditors shall be summoned as hereinafter provided.

Form of notice of first meetings

57. The notice of first meeting of creditors shall be in accordance with Form 63L in the Second Schedule and the notices to creditors shall state a time within which the creditors must lodge their proofs in order to entitle them to vote at the first meeting.

Notice of first meeting to officers of company

58.—(1) The judicial manager shall also give to each of the directors and other officers of the company who in his opinion ought to attend the first meeting of creditors 7 days' notice in accordance with Form 63M in the Second Schedule of the time and place appointed for each meeting, such notice to be delivered personally or sent by prepaid post, as may be convenient.

(2) It shall be the duty of every officer who receives notice of such meeting to attend if so required by the judicial manager, and if any such director or officer fails to attend the judicial manager shall report such failure to the Court.

Summary of statement of affairs

59.—(1) The judicial manager shall also, as soon as possible, send to each creditor mentioned in the company's statement of affairs a summary of the company's statement of affairs including the causes of its inability to pay its debts and any observations thereon which the judicial manager may think fit to make.

(2) The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated by reason of any summary or notice required by these Regulations not having been sent or received before the meeting.

Judicial manager's meetings of creditors

60.—(1) In addition to the first meeting of creditors, the judicial manager in any judicial management may himself from time to time subject to the provisions of the Act and the control of the Court summon, hold and conduct meetings of the creditors (referred to in these Regulation as judicial manager's meetings of creditors) for the purpose of ascertaining their wishes in all matters relating to the judicial management.

(2) The notice calling for such meetings shall be in accordance with Form 63N in the Second Schedule.

Application of regulations as to meetings

61. Except where and so far as the nature of the subject-matter or the context may otherwise require, the regulations relating to meetings hereinafter set out shall apply to the first meeting and the judicial manager's meetings of creditors, but so that those regulations shall take effect subject and without prejudice to any express provisions of the Act.

Summoning of meetings of creditors

62.—(1) The judicial manager shall summon all meetings of creditors by giving not less than 7 days' notice of the time and place thereof in the Gazette and shall, not less than 7 days before the day appointed for the meeting, send by post to every person appearing by the company's books to be a creditor of the company, a notice of the meeting of creditors.

CAP. 50, Rg 1] Companies Regulations [1990 Ed

(2) The notice to each creditor shall be sent to the address given in his proof, or, if he has not proved, to the address given in the statement of affairs of the company, or to such other address as may be known to the person summoning the meeting.

Proof of notice

63. An affidavit in accordance with Form 63O in the Second Schedule by the judicial manager or his solicitor or the agent of either of such persons, that the notice of any meeting has been duly posted, shall be sufficient evidence of such notice having been duly sent to the person to whom the notice was addressed.

Place of meetings

64. Every meeting shall be held at such place as is in the opinion of the person convening the meeting most convenient for the majority in number of value of the creditors.

Costs of calling meeting

65.—(1) The costs of summoning a meeting of creditors at the instance of any person other than the judicial manager shall be paid by the person at whose instance it is summoned who shall before the meeting is summoned deposit with the judicial manager such sum as may be required by the judicial manager as security for the payment of such costs.

(2) The costs of summoning such meetings of creditors including all disbursements for printing, stationery, postage and the hire of room, shall be calculated at the following rate for each creditor to whom notice is required to be sent;

- (a) $5 per creditor for the first 50 creditors,
- (b) $3 per creditor for the next 50 creditors, and
- (c) $2 per creditor for any number of creditors after the first 100.

(3) The said costs shall be repaid out of the assets of the company if the Court shall by order, or if the creditors shall by resolution, so direct.

Chairman of meeting

66.—(1) Where a meeting is summoned by the judicial manager, he, or a person nominated by him, shall be chairman of the meeting.

(2) At every other meeting of creditors, the chairman shall be such person as the meeting shall by resolution appoint.

Ordinary resolution of creditors

67. At a meeting of creditors, a resolution shall be deemed to be passed when a majority in number and value of the creditors present, personally or by proxy, and voting on the resolution, have voted in favour of the resolution.

68. [Deleted by S 16/2003 wef 13/01/2003]

Non-reception of notice by a creditor

69. Where a meeting of creditors is summoned by notice, the proceedings and resolutions at the meeting shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, be valid, notwithstanding that some creditor may not have received the notice sent to them.

Adjournment

70. The chairman may with the consent of the meeting adjourn it from time to time and from place to place, and then shall issue a memorandum in accordance with Form 63P in the Second Schedule but the adjourned meeting shall be held at the same place as the original place of meeting unless in the resolution for adjournment another place is specified or unless the Court otherwise orders.

Quorum

71.—(1) A creditors' meeting may not act for any purpose except the election of a chairman, the proving of debts and the adjournment of the meeting unless there are present or represented thereat at least 3 creditors entitled to vote or all the creditors entitled to vote if the number of the creditors entitled to vote does not exceed 3.

(2) If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum of creditors is not present or represented, the meeting shall be adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place or to such other day as the chairman may appoint, not being less than 7 nor more than 21 days from the day from which the meeting was adjourned.

(3) If within half an hour from the time appointed for the adjourned meeting a quorum of creditors is not present or represented, the adjourned meeting shall not be further adjourned.

Creditors entitled to vote

72. In the case of a first meeting of creditors or of an adjournment thereof, a person shall not be entitled to vote as a creditor unless he has duly lodged with the judicial manager not later than the time mentioned for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting or adjourned meeting a proof of the debt which he claims to be due to him from the company.

Cases in which creditors may not vote

73. A creditor shall not vote in respect of any unliquidated or contingent debt, or any debt the value of which is not ascertained, nor shall a creditor vote in respect of any debt on or secured by a current bill of exchange or promissory note held by him unless he is willing to treat the liability to him thereon of every person who is liable thereon antecedently to the company, and against whom a receiving order in bankruptcy has not been made, as a security in his hands, and to estimate the value thereof, and for the purposes of voting to deduct it from his proof.

Votes of secured creditors

74. For the purpose of voting, a secured creditor shall, unless he surrenders his security, state in his proof the particulars of his security, the date when it was given, and the value at which he assesses it, and shall be entitled to vote only in respect of the balance (if any) due to him after deducting the value of his security. If he votes in respect of his whole debt he shall be deemed to have surrendered his security, unless the Court on application is satisfied that the omission to value the security has arisen from inadvertence.

Admission and rejection of proofs for purpose of voting

75. The chairman shall have power to admit or reject a proof for the purpose of voting, but his decision shall be subject to appeal to the Court. If he is in doubt whether a proof shall be admitted or rejected, he shall mark it as objected to and allow the creditor to vote subject to the vote being declared invalid in the event of the objection being sustained.

Statement of security

76. For the purpose of voting at any meeting in a judicial management, a secured creditor shall lodge with the judicial manager before the meeting a statement giving the particulars of his security, the date when it was given and the value at which he assesses it.

Minutes of meeting

77.—(1) The chairman shall cause minutes of the proceedings at the meeting to be drawn up and fairly entered in a book kept for that purpose and the minutes shall be signed by him or by the chairman of the next ensuing meeting.

(2) A list of creditors present at every meeting shall be made and kept in accordance with Form 63R in the Second Schedule.

ADMISSION AND REJECTION OF PROOFS AND APPEAL TO THE COURT

Notice to creditors to prove

78. For the purposes of section 227N of the Act, the judicial manager in any judicial management shall from time to time fix a day (which shall not be less than 14 days from the date of the notice) on or before which the creditors of the company are to prove their debts or claims, and the judicial manager shall give notice of the day so fixed in the Gazette in accordance with Form 63S in the Second Schedule and in one English and one Chinese local daily newspaper and also notice in writing of such day in accordance with Form 63T or 63U in the Second Schedule to every person who to the knowledge of the judicial manager claims to be a creditor of the company and whose claim has not been admitted or to every person mentioned in the statement of affairs as a creditor who has not proved his debt.

Examination of proof

79. The judicial manager shall examine every proof of debt lodged with him and the grounds of the debt, and shall in writing admit or reject it, in whole or in part, or require further evidence in support of it. If he rejects a proof he shall state in writing in accordance with Form 63V in the Second Schedule to the creditor the grounds of the rejection.

Appeal by creditor

80. If a creditor is dissatisfied with the decision of the judicial manager in respect of a proof, the Court may, on the application of the creditor, reverse or vary the decision; but subject to the power of the Court to extend the time, no application to reverse or vary the decision of the judicial manager in a judicial management by the Court rejecting a proof sent to him by a creditor, or person claiming to be a creditor, shall be entertained, unless notice of the application is given before the expiration of 21 days from the date of the service of the notice of rejection.

Expunging at instance of judicial manager

81. If the judicial manager thinks that a proof has been improperly admitted, the Court may, on the application of the judicial manager, after notice to the creditor who made the proof, expunge the proof or reduce its amount.

Expunging at instance of creditor

82. The Court may also expunge or reduce a proof upon the application of a creditor if the judicial manager declines to interfere in the matter.

Oaths

83. For the purpose of any of his duties in relation to proofs, the judicial manager may administer oaths and take affidavits.

Procedure where creditor appeals

84. The judicial manager shall, within 3 days after receiving notice from a creditor of his intention to appeal against a decision rejecting a proof, file such proof with the Court, with a memorandum thereon of his disallowance thereof.

Costs of appeal against rejection

85. The judicial manager shall in no case be personally liable for costs in relation to an appeal from his decision rejecting any proof wholly or in part.

COMMITTEE OF CREDITORS

Constitution, meetings, etc., of committee of creditors

86.—(1)(a)

The creditors at the meeting summoned under section 227M of the Act may appoint a committee of creditors under section 227O of the Act, consisting of not less than 5 persons and not more than 7 persons —

- (i) one of whom shall be an employee of the company (other than a director or former director) to represent employees of the company but in a case where the employees belong to a trade union, the trade union may, pursuant to section 227S of the Act, represent employees of the company; and
- (ii) one of whom shall be a shareholder of the company to represent the shareholders.
- (b) Such employee or shareholder representative shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the committee but shall not be entitled to vote as a member of the committee.
- (c) At its meeting summoned under section 227M of the Act, the committee shall —
- (i) elect a chairman, who is entitled to vote, from its members; and
- (ii) decide upon a quorum.

- (d) At meetings of the committee, all questions shall be decided by a resolution in writing signed by a majority in number of the members entitled to vote.
- (e) Any vacancy in the committee shall be filled at the discretion of the committee.
- (f) The committee shall hold a meeting at least once every 14 days unless it resolves otherwise.

(2) The committee of creditors may require the judicial manager to appear before it and furnish such information relating to the carrying out by him of his functions as it may reasonably require and wherever practicable the judicial manager shall inform the committee of any important action which he proposes to take.

(3) If the committee of creditors is dissatisfied with the extent or the nature of information being furnished to them by the judicial manager, it may make representations to the Court and the Court, if satisfied that the representations are well founded, may give such directions to the judicial manager as it considers appropriate.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

(1) Preparation Of The Statement Of Affairs

The explanations are meant to guide you in completing and submitting the Statement of Affairs (hereafter 'Statement') to the Official Receiver or the liquidator of the company.

Note: You should read these explanations carefully as non-compliance with any of them may result in the Statement being rejected and inconvenience you in having to complete the Statement again.

(2) Date On Which Information Is Based

Information stated in the Statement should be based on information known to you as at the date the winding-up order was made.

(3) Verification Of Statement

The Statement must be accompanied by an affidavit in Form 62A verifying the Statement.

(4) Submission/Swearing Of Statement

Upon completing the Statement, you should meet up with the Official Receiver or the liquidator on the appointment date for him/her to go through the Statement and ensure that the Statement is in order.

Once the Official Receiver or the liquidator is satisfied with the Statement, you are to have 3 sets of the Statements swom/affirmed before a Commissioner for Oaths/ Notary Public, and submit them to the Official Receiver or the liquidator.

Note: The procedures may differ if the liquidator is other than the Official Receiver.

- (5) General Instructions On Completing The Statement
 - (a) Please note that the contents of the Statement must be type-written. Where any part of the Statement is hand-written, the Statement will be rejected.
 - (b) No Schedule or any part thereof is to be left blank. Please state 'Nil' or 'Not Applicable'.
 - (c) If the space provided for each Schedule is insufficient, please duplicate the relevant page of the Schedule for your use.
 - (d) Please indicate at the bottom of each page of a Schedule the page number in relation to the Schedule and the total number of pages in the Schedule.
 - Example: Company A has 13 debtors. Under Schedule A, each page provides for entry of information on 12 debtors. If there are more than 12 debtors, another copy of Schedule A is to be duplicated for use. In page 1 of the Schedule, debtor with S/N: 0001 up to debtor with 0012 will be stated. Debtor with S/N: 0013 will be stated in page 2. In this case, there is a total of 2 pages for Schedule A. Thus, at the bottom of page 1, to state as Pg 1 of 2 and at the bottom of page 2, to state as Pg 2 of 2.
 - (e) All amounts and values must be preceded with the relevant currency type e.g. 'SGD' for Singapore dollar. A list of the currency codes can be found at Explanatory Notes – Page 6. There is no need to provide any commas for the amounts or values.

(f) If the debtor, creditor, tenant, etc is a Singapore registered company or business, please state the Registration Number. If you do not know the Registration Number, please enquire at the Registry of Companies & Businesses.
