 - (D) Notice on Minimum Entry and Examination Requirements for Representatives of Licensed Financial Advisers and Exempt Financial Advisers (Notice No. FAA-N13).

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(3) A relevant person may request or demand payment, or accept remuneration, mentioned in paragraph (1) or (1A) if the financial advisory service is provided, or the sale of investment product is made, to —

- (a) an accredited investor;
- (b) an expert investor; or
- (c) an institutional investor.

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(4) A relevant person may request or demand payment, or accept remuneration, mentioned in paragraph (1) or (1A) if the payment or remuneration is not dependent, whether directly or indirectly, on —

- (a) the number of contracts entered into for the sale of any type of investment product; or

- (b) the value of contracts entered into for the sale of any type of investment product.

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(5) A relevant person may request or demand payment, or accept remuneration, in relation to the sale of any type of investment product mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) if the sale —

- (a) is made pursuant to an agreement under which the relevant person is entitled, for a continuous period of at least 12 months starting from the date on which the agreement becomes effective, to payment or remuneration for the sale of investment products within any one category listed in the Schedule;

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

- (b) is made pursuant to an agreement for the sale of investment products within 2 or more categories listed in the Schedule;
or

- (c) is of a pure protection policy.

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(6) A relevant person may request or demand payment, or accept remuneration, in relation to the sale of a relevant life policy mentioned in paragraph (1A)(b) if —

- (a) any of the following is satisfied:

- (i) the sale is made pursuant to an agreement under which the relevant person is entitled, for a continuous period of at least 12 months starting from the date the agreement becomes effective, to the payment or remuneration for the sale of the relevant life policy, and the policy comes within any of the categories in items 11 to 17 of the Schedule;

- (ii) the sale is made pursuant to an agreement for the sale of investment products within 2 or more categories listed in the Schedule, and the relevant life policy comes within any of the categories in items 11 to 17 of the Schedule;

- (iii) the relevant life policy is a pure protection policy; and

- (b) where the payment or remuneration consists of variable income, all the conditions in paragraph (7) or (8) (whichever is applicable) are satisfied.

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(7) Where the payment or remuneration consists of variable income that is directly linked to the sale of a particular relevant life policy, the conditions mentioned in paragraph (6)(b) are —

- (a) the payment or remuneration is monetary in nature;
- (b) the relevant person's entitlement to be paid the payment or remuneration is dependent only on either or both of the following factors:
- (i) the issue of the relevant life policy by the licensed insurer concerned and the making of the first payment of premiums to the licensed insurer for that policy;
 - (ii) the making of the first payment of additional premiums in respect of the relevant life policy;
- (c) the payment or remuneration is payable to the relevant person —
- (i) over a period of at least 6 years starting from the date the relevant life policy is issued; or
 - (ii) over a period that covers at least the premium payment period of the relevant life policy, if the premium payment period is less than 6 years starting from the date the relevant life policy is issued;
- (d) the total payment or remuneration payable to the relevant person in respect of the sale of the relevant life policy, during the period of 12 months starting from the later of the following, does not exceed 55% of the total payment or remuneration payable to the relevant person in respect of the sale:
- (i) the date the relevant life policy is issued;
 - (ii) the date the premium payment period of the relevant life policy commences;

- (e) where additional premiums are payable under the relevant life policy, the payment or remuneration in respect of those additional premiums is payable to the relevant person —
- (i) over a period of at least 6 years starting from the date the first payment of the additional premiums is made to the licensed insurer; or
 - (ii) over a period that covers at least the period that those additional premiums are payable, if the second-mentioned period is less than 6 years starting from the date the first payment of the additional premiums is made to the licensed insurer;
- (f) where additional premiums are payable under the relevant life policy, the total payment or remuneration payable to the relevant person in respect of those additional premiums, during the period of 12 months starting from the date the first payment of additional premiums is made to the licensed insurer, does not exceed 55% of the total payment or remuneration payable to the relevant person in respect of those additional premiums;
- (g) the payment or remuneration is payable at least once every year in the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (c) or (e) (whichever is applicable); and
- (h) where the relevant life policy is an investment-linked policy and the net asset value of its underlying fund or funds is used to compute the total payment or remuneration payable, an investment rate of return of 0% over the entire policy term is used.

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(8) Where the payment or remuneration consists of variable income that is not directly linked to the sale of a particular relevant life policy, the conditions mentioned in paragraph (6)(b) are —

- (a) the payment or remuneration is monetary in nature;
- (b) the payment or remuneration is in respect of a portfolio of relevant life policies and is payable to the relevant person over a period of at least 5 years starting from the date the first payment of the payment or remuneration (or any part of it) is made to the relevant person;

- (c) the total payment or remuneration in respect of the portfolio of relevant life policies that is payable to the relevant person, during the period of 12 months starting from the date the first payment of the payment or remuneration (or any part of it) is made to the relevant person, does not exceed 55% of the total amount of the payment or remuneration that is payable to the relevant person in respect of the portfolio of relevant life policies;
- (d) the payment or remuneration is payable at least once every year in the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (b); and
- (e) where the relevant life policy is an investment-linked policy and the net asset value of its underlying fund or funds is used to compute the total payment or remuneration payable, an investment rate of return of 0% over the entire policy term is used.

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

Permitted payment of remuneration in relation to investment product

4.—(1) For the purposes of section 22A(2) of the Act, a financial adviser (X) must not pay its representative, its supervisor, another financial adviser (Y), a representative of Y, or a supervisor of Y (called in this regulation the recipient), remuneration in relation to —

- (a) the provision of any financial advisory service in connection with any type of investment product, other than a relevant life policy; or

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

 - (C) Notice on Information to Clients and Product Information Disclosure (Notice No. FAA-N03);
 - (D) Notice on Minimum Entry and Examination Requirements for Representatives of Licensed Financial Advisers and Exempt Financial Advisers (Notice No. FAA-N13).

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(3) X may pay a recipient remuneration mentioned in paragraph (1) or (1A) if the financial advisory service is provided, or the sale of investment product is made, to —

- (a) an accredited investor;
- (b) an expert investor; or
- (c) an institutional investor.

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(4) X may pay a recipient remuneration mentioned in paragraph (1) or (1A) if the remuneration payable is not dependent, whether directly or indirectly, on —

- (a) the number of contracts entered into for the sale of any type of investment product; or
- (b) the value of contracts entered into for the sale of any type of investment product.

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(5) X may pay a recipient remuneration in relation to the sale of any type of investment product mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) if the sale —

- (a) is made pursuant to an agreement under which the recipient is entitled, for a continuous period of at least 12 months starting from the date on which the agreement becomes effective, to remuneration for the sale of investment products within any one category listed in the Schedule;

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

- (b) is made pursuant to an agreement for the sale of investment products within 2 or more categories listed in the Schedule; or

- (c) is of a pure protection policy.

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(6) X may pay a recipient remuneration in relation to the sale of a relevant life policy mentioned in paragraph (1A)(b), if —

- (a) any of the following is satisfied:

- (i) the sale is made pursuant to an agreement under which the recipient is entitled, for a continuous period of at least 12 months starting from the date the agreement becomes effective, to the remuneration for the sale of the relevant life policy, and the policy comes within any of the categories in items 11 to 17 of the Schedule;

- (ii) the sale is made pursuant to an agreement for the sale of investment products within 2 or more categories listed in the Schedule, and the relevant life policy comes within any of the categories in items 11 to 17 of the Schedule;
 - (iii) the relevant life policy is a pure protection policy; and
- (b) where the remuneration consists of variable income, all the conditions in paragraph (7) or (8) (whichever is applicable) are satisfied.

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(7) Where the remuneration consists of variable income that is directly linked to the sale of a particular relevant life policy, the conditions mentioned in paragraph (6)(b) are —

- (a) the remuneration is monetary in nature;
- (b) the recipient's entitlement to be paid the remuneration is dependent only on either or both of the following factors:
 - (i) the issue of the relevant life policy by the licensed insurer concerned and the making of the first payment of premiums to the licensed insurer for that policy;
 - (ii) the making of the first payment of additional premiums in respect of the relevant life policy;
- (c) the remuneration is payable to the recipient —
 - (i) over a period of at least 6 years starting from the date the relevant life policy is issued; or
 - (ii) over a period that covers at least the premium payment period of the relevant life policy, if the premium payment period is less than 6 years starting from the date the relevant life policy is issued;

- (d) the total remuneration payable to the recipient in respect of the sale of the relevant life policy, during the period of 12 months starting from the later of the following, does not exceed 55% of the total remuneration payable to the recipient in respect of the sale:
- (i) the date the relevant life policy is issued;
 - (ii) the date the premium payment period of the relevant life policy commences;
- (e) where additional premiums are payable under the relevant life policy, the remuneration in respect of those additional premiums is payable to the recipient —
- (i) over a period of at least 6 years starting from the date the first payment of the additional premiums is made to the licensed insurer; or
 - (ii) over a period that covers at least the period that the additional premiums are payable, if the second-mentioned period is less than 6 years starting from the date the first payment of the additional premiums is made to the licensed insurer;
- (f) where additional premiums are payable under the relevant life policy, the total remuneration payable to the recipient in respect of those additional premiums, during the period of 12 months starting from the date the first payment of the additional premiums is made to the licensed insurer, does not exceed 55% of the total remuneration payable to the recipient in respect of those additional premiums;
- (g) the remuneration is payable at least once every year in the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (c) or (e) (whichever is applicable); and
- (h) where the relevant life policy is an investment-linked policy and the net asset value of the underlying fund or funds of the policy is used to compute the total remuneration payable, an investment rate of return of 0% over the entire policy term is used.

[S 81/2017 wef 01/04/2017]

(8) Where the remuneration consists of variable income that is not directly linked to the sale of a particular relevant life policy, the conditions mentioned in paragraph (6)(b) are —

- (a) the remuneration is monetary in nature;
- (b) the remuneration is in respect of a portfolio of relevant life policies and is payable to the recipient over a period of at least 5 years starting from the date the first payment of the remuneration (or any part of it) is made to the recipient;
- (c) the total remuneration in respect of the portfolio of relevant life policies that is payable to the recipient, during the period of 12 months starting from the date the first payment of the remuneration (or any part of it) is made to the recipient, does not exceed 55% of the total amount of the remuneration that is payable to the recipient in respect of the portfolio of relevant life policies;
