“receipt book” means a book of detachable forms of receipt stipulating the purpose of a collection and consecutively numbered with the counterfoils or duplicates of those forms correspondingly numbered.

Application and licence

3.—(1) An application for a licence to promote a collection shall be in the form set out in the First Schedule.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), an application under paragraph (1) shall be made using the electronic application service provided not later than 14 days before the date on which the collection is proposed to commence, or before such other date as the Commissioner of Police may allow.

(3) In the event of a malfunction or failure of the electronic application service, the application shall be made in the written form to the Commissioner of Police.

(4) The Commissioner of Police may reject any application which is not made in accordance with this regulation.

(5) The licence shall be in the form set out in the Second Schedule.

Duties of promoter

- (b) compliance with the provisions of the Act and these Regulations on the part of such collector;
- (c) that for the purposes of the collection, no certificate of authority, collecting box or receipt book is issued to the collector under regulation 5(2) unless the name and address of the collector is recorded in a book in the custody of the promoter, against a distinguishing number allotted to the collecting box or receipt book by the promoter; and
- (d) that any certificate of authority and collecting box or receipt book issued to the collector under regulation 5(2) is returned when the collection is completed or when for any other reason the collector ceases to act as such.
