Requirements for advertisement of specified health products

3. For the purposes of section 21(1) of the Act, an advertisement of a specified health product must, subject to the modifications in regulation 11, 12, 13 or 14 —

- (a) comply with regulations 4, 5 and 6; and
 - (b) be undertaken in accordance with the following regulations:
 - (i) in the case of any specified health product — regulations 7, 9 and 10;
 - (ii) in the case of a therapeutic product only — regulation 8.

[S 109/2021 wef 01/03/2021]

[S 109/2021 wef 01/03/2021]

Matters to be excluded in advertising specified health products

- 4. An advertisement of a specified health product must not —
 - (a) be likely to lead to a consumer of the specified health product self-diagnosing or inappropriately treating any serious disease by himself or herself;
 - (b) give the impression that advice from a registered pharmacist or qualified practitioner on the use of the specified health product is not necessary;
 - (c) give the impression that a medical consultation or surgical operation is not necessary if the specified health product is used;
 - (d) encourage, or be likely to encourage, inappropriate or excessive use of the specified health product;
 - (e) mislead, or be likely to mislead, directly or by implication or through emphasis, contrast or omission, any person with regard to the quality or efficacy of the specified health product;
 - (f) compare or contrast the specified health product with any other named specified health product or a brand thereof;
 - (g) exploit the lack of knowledge of consumers, or contain any language or image that causes or is likely to cause fear, alarm or distress to the public in respect of any disease or condition;

- (h) claim or suggest that the specified health product is infallible, unailing, magical or miraculous, or that the effect of taking the specified health product is certain, guaranteed or a sure cure;
 - (i) claim or suggest that the specified health product is not accompanied by any side effects;
 - (j) be likely to arouse unwarranted or unrealistic expectations of the effectiveness of the specified health product;
 - (k) offer to fully or partially refund the purchase price of the specified health product, or guarantee or suggest that a full or partial refund of the purchase price of the specified health product will be given to any purchaser or user of the specified health product;
 - (l) falsely claim or suggest that the use of the specified health product is promoted or endorsed by the Government or any public authority;
 - (m) be directed, or contain any material that is directed, principally at any person below the age of 14 years; or
 - (n) contain, or give the impression of, any endorsement or recommendation of the specified health product by —
 - (i) any healthcare professional; or
 - (ii) any person who, because of the person's celebrity, social or professional status, is likely to encourage the use of the specified health product.

Requirement for substantiation of assertions of uniqueness and prominence

5. Where an advertisement of a specified health product contains any statement, assertion, certification, award or feature of uniqueness or prominence differentiating the specified health product from any other competing or similar specified health product, the statement, assertion, certification, award or feature must be substantiated by facts or evidence.

Restriction on promoting specified health products for specified diseases and conditions

6.—(1) An advertisement by a non-public sector person of a specified health product must not expressly or implicitly claim, indicate or suggest that the specified health product —

- (a) will prevent, alleviate or cure any specified disease or condition;
- (b) will prevent or alleviate any sign or symptom clinically attributable to any specified disease or condition; or
- (c) has similar properties or characteristics to, or works as well as, a product that is commonly used for the purpose of treating any specified disease or condition.

(2) In this regulation, “specified disease or condition” means any disease or medical condition falling within any of the classes of diseases or medical conditions specified in the Third Schedule.

[S 109/2021 wef 01/03/2021]

[S 109/2021 wef 01/03/2021]

Prohibition against advertisement of prescription-only medicines

7. No advertisement of a specified health product by a non-public sector person may relate to a prescription-only medicine.

[S 109/2021 wef 01/03/2021]

Requirement for advertisement of pharmacy-only medicines

8. An advertisement of a pharmacy-only medicine by a non-public sector person must prominently display an advisory or a warning statement required by the Authority to be displayed in connection with advertisements for that medicine.

Requirements for advertisement of unregistered specified health products

9.—(1) An advertisement of a specified health product that is not registered under the Act must —

- (a) be in the form of an article in a medical or scientific journal, review or publication;
- (b) be made in the course of providing or exchanging scientific or medical information at, and in accordance with the published programme or agenda of, a scientific conference or forum that is a private event; or
- (c) be made at a pharmaceutical trade fair, pharmaceutical trade exhibition, scientific conference or scientific forum that is a private event, for a specified health product that is approved, licensed or registered in at least one country outside Singapore, and contain a statement that the specified health product is not registered in Singapore.

(2) In addition, any advertisement of a specified health product that is not registered under the Act may contain a representation concerning the intended purpose or efficacy of the specified health product, provided that the representation has been verified by objective evidence.

(3) In paragraph (1), a reference to a private event is a reference to an event —

- (a) that is not open to attendance by the general public; and
- (b) at which the specified health product, which is the subject of the advertisement mentioned in paragraph (1), is not sold or offered for sale, and is not given out or offered as a sample.

[S 109/2021 wef 01/03/2021]

Sales promotions

10.—(1) A person conducting any sales promotion involving a specified health product must not, in the course of that sales promotion, offer —

- (a) any prize as an inducement to purchase the specified health product;

- (b) together with the specified health product —
- (i) any other health product; or
 - (ii) any medicinal product; or
- (c) any sample of the specified health product.

(2) A person must not distribute or give, or cause to be distributed or given, or assist in the distribution or giving of, any free sample of a specified health product to the public or any section of the public.

(3) To avoid doubt, paragraph (2) does not prohibit a qualified practitioner, or a person acting in accordance with the instructions of a qualified practitioner, from giving, or causing to be given, a sample of a specified health product to any patient of that qualified practitioner.

(4) In this regulation, “medicinal product” has the same meaning as in the Medicines Act (Cap. 176).

Professional or scientific information advertising

11. Regulations 4(f), 6(1) and 7, and in the case of a therapeutic product only, regulation 8, do not apply to an advertisement of a specified health product that —

- (a) is directed at, or is contained in any means for conveyance of information that is intended for publication to, one or more of the classes of relevant health professionals; or
- (b) is published only at a pharmaceutical trade fair, pharmaceutical trade exhibition, scientific conference or scientific forum that is not open to attendance by the general public.

[S 109/2021 wef 01/03/2021]

Reference and trade advertisements

12.—(1) Regulations 6(1) and 7, and in the case of a therapeutic product only, regulation 8, do not apply to a reference advertisement or a trade advertisement.

[S 109/2021 wef 01/03/2021]

(2) In this regulation —

“reference advertisement” means a form of advertisement of a specified health product —

- (a) containing a brief description of the specified health product, its intended purpose, and any contraindications or warnings relating to its use; and
- (b) appearing in a publication consisting mainly of such forms of advertisement where the publication is published by a person, who is not the manufacturer, supplier, retailer, importer or exporter of the specified health product, to one or more of the classes of relevant health professionals;

“trade advertisement” means a form of advertisement of a specified health product which —

- (a) is published by means of a catalogue, price list or other document for the purpose of supplying the specified health product by wholesale; and
- (b) does not contain any recommendation relating to the use of the specified health product, other than as part of the name of the specified health product or as part of any heading or subheading indicating a therapeutic classification.

Informational statements

13.—(1) Regulations 6(1) and 7, and in the case of a therapeutic product only, regulation 8, do not apply to an informational statement about a specified health product published —

(a) on the corporate website of the registrant, manufacturer, importer, supplier or licensee of the specified health product;

(b) as part of a product launch event that is not accessible to any member of the general public other than an invited guest; or

(c) in the form of a press or media release,

provided that —

(i) any representation concerning the intended purpose and efficacy of the specified health product can be verified by objective evidence; and

(ii) in the case of a corporate website, no discussion board or forum relating to the specified health product is held on the corporate website.

(2) In this regulation, “corporate website” means an Internet website of a company that is accessible by the public and through which the public may obtain information about the company and its products.

Sales promotions involving registered specified health products

14.—(1) Regulation 10(1)(b) and (c) does not apply to any sales promotion involving a registered specified health product, if the specified health product —

(a) is supplied to a qualified practitioner or a registered pharmacist; or

(b) is supplied by wholesale by a person holding a valid wholesaler’s licence.

(2) Regulation 10(1)(c) and (2) does not apply to the distribution of samples of a registered specified health product to one or more of the classes of relevant health professionals at a pharmaceutical trade fair, pharmaceutical trade exhibition, scientific conference or scientific forum that is not open to attendance by the general public.

[S 109/2021 wef 01/03/2021]

Power of Authority to require copies of advertisements

15.—(1) The Authority may require, by written notice, any person who advertises, causes to be advertised, or is about to advertise or cause to be advertised, a specified health product to furnish to the Authority, within the time specified in the notice, such number of copies of any document or material containing the advertisement as the Authority may specify in the notice.

(2) Any person who fails to comply with a written notice under paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.
