- (b) the test result from the last polymerase chain reaction test the individual undergoes shows no presence of SARS-CoV-2 in that individual, after the individual undergoes further polymerase chain reaction tests and the test results of those tests are uncertain or invalid except the last.

(2) For the purposes of these Regulations, where an individual undergoes an approved test or tests consisting only of an antigen rapid test or tests, the individual's test result is treated as negative for SARS-CoV-2 only if —

- (a) the antigen rapid test result from the sole antigen rapid test the individual undergoes shows no presence of SARS-CoV-2 in that individual; or
- (b) the test result from the last antigen rapid test the individual undergoes shows no presence of SARS-CoV-2 in that individual, after the individual undergoes not more than 2 antigen rapid tests and the test result of one of them is uncertain or invalid.

(3) For the purposes of these Regulations, where an individual undergoes a series of approved tests consisting of polymerase chain reaction tests and antigen rapid tests, the individual's test result is treated as negative for SARS-CoV-2 only if —

- (a) the test results of the first and second antigen rapid tests are each uncertain or invalid, another respiratory specimen from the individual is then subjected to a polymerase chain reaction test, and —
 - (i) the test result from that polymerase chain reaction test the individual undergoes shows no presence of SARS-CoV-2 in that individual; or
 - (ii) the test result from the last polymerase chain reaction test the individual undergoes shows no presence of SARS-CoV-2 in that individual, after the individual undergoes further polymerase chain reaction tests and the test results of those tests are uncertain or invalid except the last; or
- (b) the test result of an antigen rapid test shows the presence of SARS-CoV-2 in that individual, another respiratory specimen from the individual is then subjected to a polymerase chain reaction test, and —

- (i) the test result from that polymerase chain reaction test the individual undergoes shows no presence of SARS-CoV-2 in that individual; or
 - (ii) the test result from the last polymerase chain reaction test the individual undergoes shows no presence of SARS-CoV-2 in that individual, after the individual undergoes further polymerase chain reaction tests and the test results of those tests are uncertain or invalid except the last.
- (4) Despite paragraphs (1), (2) and (3), a result of an antigen rapid test for the presence of SARS-CoV-2 applied to an individual's respiratory specimen must be disregarded for the purposes of these Regulations if —
- (a) the relevant sampling activity taking the respiratory specimen from the individual was not carried out in Singapore by or under the direction of an approved test provider; or
 - (b) the approved test was not carried out by or under the direction of an approved test provider.

 - (i) knows that he or she does not have a cleared status when entering the restricted place during that restricted period; or

- (ii) is reckless as to whether he or she has a cleared status when entering the restricted place during that restricted period.

(2) Subject to regulation 13, an individual must not intentionally remain in a restricted place at any time during a restricted period of the restricted place if —

(a) the individual —

- (i) knows that he or she stops having a cleared status while within the restricted place during that restricted period; or
- (ii) is reckless as to whether he or she continues having a cleared status while within the restricted place during that restricted period; and

(b) the individual stops having a cleared status while within the restricted place during that restricted period.

(3) An individual who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes paragraph (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(4) Without limiting the meaning of “reasonable excuse” in regulation 2(1), a reasonable excuse for contravening this regulation includes entering or remaining in a restricted place during a restricted period of the restricted place in any of the following circumstances:

- (a) the individual did not know or could not reasonably have known that the place is a restricted place;
- (b) the entry or remaining in the restricted place during the restricted period was to comply with a direction given to the individual by or on behalf of a public officer or a public body in exercise of a power under any written law.

Entrant must show proof of cleared status, etc., when asked

10.—(1) Subject to regulation 13, an occupier of a restricted place or any contractor or employee of the occupier authorised for the purposes of this regulation may, before or during a restricted period of the restricted place, and only for the purpose of ensuring compliance with these Regulations, ask an entrant to the restricted place —

- (a) to state the entrant's name and his or her reason for being in, or about to enter, the restricted place during that restricted period;

- (4) However, a digital cleared status certificate is not displayed for the purpose of complying with a request under paragraph (1)(c) by an occupier of a restricted place or any contractor or employee of the occupier (called the gatekeeper) to provide evidence of the entrant's cleared status if —
- (a) the screen of the mobile communication device or other electronic device on which it is purportedly displayed is unable to be read by the gatekeeper to whom it is displayed due to cracking, dimming, dirt or any other fault, damage or obstruction;

- (b) the entrant fails or refuses to comply with a reasonable request by the gatekeeper to whom it is purported to be displayed to facilitate the reading, copying or scanning of the whole or any part of the digital cleared status certificate; or
- (c) the holder of the digital cleared status certificate refuses to comply with a reasonable direction to refresh the display of the digital cleared status certificate.

(5) To avoid doubt, an individual who displays or purports to display a digital cleared status certificate is not required to give or hand over, to a gatekeeper who is requiring the digital cleared status certificate to be produced, the mobile communication device or other electronic device on which the digital cleared status certificate is displayed or purported to be displayed.

(6) An individual who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes paragraph (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(3) An occupier of a restricted place who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000.

Occupier's rights unaffected

12.—(1) To avoid doubt, this Part does not limit any other right of an occupier of a restricted place to disallow at any time an entrant entering or remaining in the restricted place, whether or not the entrant refused —

- (a) to state information asked for under regulation 10(1); or
- (b) to provide evidence of the entrant's cleared status for entering or remaining in the restricted place when asked under regulation 10(1).

(2) In addition, this Part does not entitle an entrant to a restricted place to enter or remain in the restricted place without the consent of the occupier of the restricted place.
